[illegible]

Dear Sir,

I can assure you that there is no possible mistake. My plates were washed and we lived with mine over finished them. All explanations are impossible. I got stoned each more wonderful than the last. Both sides of the slide were filled by me.

I am sure by your letter that you have well read the matter up, as I enclose a booklet which please return to me when read. You will find the accounts of Tammie Taylor of the Photographic Journal. A fuller book is Curtis' "Photographing the Swimsuit". His matter is, I assume, very fairly established, but these methods are abnormal -

[Duchess of] Richmond & Lenox" regarding the disposal of some of her late husband's possessions - including "the Unicorn's horn" (presumably a narwhal horn, but greatly prized - one was valued at £10,000 in the 16th century! - for its magical properties at this date) that the writer's sister had recently borrowed. Remarkable letter.

REF. "PHOTOGRAPHING THE INVISIBLE", ETC.; Remarkable c.1925 letter (no env.; some toning mainly clear of autograph) on printed headed "WINDELSHAM, CROWBOROUGH, SUSSEX" headed notepaper to an unnamed correspondent [probably the photographer, Alan Cartwright; see postcard below] with fine autograph letter signed "A. Conan Doyle" regarding some recent photographs - possibly connected to the 'Cottingley Fairies'; "Dear Sir, I can assure you that there is no possible mistake. My plates were marked and no hand but mine ever touched them. All explanations are impossible. I got three, each more wonderful than the last. Both sides of the dark slide were filled by me. I can see by your letter that you have not read the matter up so I enclose a booklet which please return to me when read. You will find the research of Traill Taylor of the Photographic Journal. A fuller book is Coates' 'Photographing the Invisible' [published 1911]. His matter is. I assure you, very firmly established, but their methods are abnormal - hence the shadows &c. Yours sincerely, A. Conan Doyle." John Traill Taylor published "The Veil Lifted; Modern Developments of Spirit Photography" in 1894. Conan Doyle (1859-1930) was fascinated by, and a great believer in, the photographs produced by two girls in Cottingley in 1917 which were published in 1920. The photographs - of fairies - were finally shown to be a hoax in the 1980s, when the girls who had taken them finally admitted that they were photographs of cardboard pictures. Rare letter that was recently discovered in family papers and that has never, as far as we are aware, been offered for sale before. PHOTO - see page 10 £240

REF. "THE TRUTH", ETC.; c.1925 letter (no env.) headed "6 Southsea Parade, Southsea" to an unnamed correspondent [probably the photographer, Alan Cartwright; see postcard below] with fine autograph letter signed "A. Conan Doyle" - possibly connected to the 'Cottingley Fairies' (see previous lot); "Dear Sir, I enclose some documents of interest which please return to this address. Also I may want the book, but that can go to Crowborough. I see that, like myself, you have to conform to truth - some folk expect truth to conform to them. A. Conan Doyle." Conan Doyle (1859-1930) was controversially a great believer in the photographs of fairies produced by two girls in Cottingley in 1917 which were published in 1920. The photographs were finally shown to be a hoax in the 1980s. Rare letter from the author of the Sherlock Holmes stories etc., that was recently discovered in family papers and that has never, as far as we are aware, been offered for sale before. "PERSONAL MAGNETISM", ETC.; 27 Aug. 1925 usage of the 1918 1d Red Postal Stationery Postcard (small stain at top edge of reverse) from "PORTSMOUTH" (cancelled by Krag continuous machine mark) to "P.A. Cartwright, 188 Norwood Road, [London] SE27" [probably the photographer, Alan Cartwright, who is recorded at this address in 1909] with fine autograph note signed "A. Conan Doyle" - possibly connected to the 'Cottingley Fairies' (see previous two lots); "Many thanks - all safely received. Some think personal magnetism assists and prepare the plates thus, but I don't think there is anything in it. A. Conan Doyle."; probably referring to the loaned items mentioned in the previous lot. Conan Doyle (1859-1930) was controversially a great believer in the photographs of fairies produced by two girls in Cottingley in 1917 which were published in 1920. The photographs were finally shown to be a hoax in the 1980s. THE GEOFFREY OSBORN COLLECTION OF BERMUDA POSTAL HISTORY & STAMPS (2nd & FINAL PART)

Geoff Osborn, G.M. (1922-2011), was well known for decades in the philatelic world as a major collector, author and exhibitor of the stamps and Postal History of Bermuda, Gibraltar (which he sold in a named sale in 1997) and Naval Officers' Letters (which Cavendish auctioned in June 2007). Geoff had been Robson Lowe's agent in Bermuda for many years and had an eye for quality. He was a softly spoken but witty man who was much admired for his Postal History sleuthing; he was also a very convivial member of the Society of Postal Historians, who never turned down a request for help on any philatelic research topic. He is greatly missed by all of us who shared his dry sense of humour and an appreciation of the more unusual corners of Postal History research.

He had spent much of his life in Bermuda, going to school there from the age of seven, and in 1938 he joined the Bermuda Volunteer Regiment, learning to fly in Bermuda in 1939/40 before coming to the U.K. to train as a bomber pilot. However, a bad crash in 1942 led to his becoming a training pilot before transfer back to Bermuda. After the war he worked for Panam and then became an Air Traffic Controller in Europe and Rhodesia before returning to Bermuda in 1966 to run the Kindley Field Airport, subsequently becoming Permanent Secretary for Transport in the islands. He retired to the UK in 1985, and finally decided to move to the US to be near his family in 2008. At that time he consigned a large part of his Bermuda collection to Cavendish (it was sold in his named auction on 28th January 2009) but retained a number of his favourite items, and in particular the P.H. of the Bermuda/North America Mails and the highly elusive "R.O" (Receiving Office) Duplexes of the Queen Victoria period. His family have now decided that all his remaining collections should be sent back from the U.S. to be made available for other collectors to enjoy, and that is what is included in the 130 lots that follow. (Also some non-Bermuda lots are included and noted as "Ex Geoff Osborn" under G.B., etc.).

BERMUDA - INTERNAL MAIL, 1866-76

-  2205 EARLY USAGE OF THE 1st-ISSUE 2d DULL BLUE TIED BY "2" NUMERAL WITH "H/PAID" C.D.S.: 7 July 1866 env. to "Lieut. Governor [W.G. Hamley], St. Georges" but not eligible for Official Mail status until later in 1866, and so franked by a wing margin 1866 2d Dull Blue (only issued 14 Mar. 1866) tied by a very fine barred "2" Numeral with a mainly very fine matching "BERMUDA/H/PAID" c.d.s. alongside. Fine early local stamped cover apparently charged the double rate (above 1oz). [Ex Ludington, 1999.] PHOTO - see page 2 £300
-  2206 UNIQUE(?) TRIANGULAR-SHAPED 1st-ISSUE 1d ROSE-RED COVER WITH SOUTHAMPTON WEST "6" NUMERAL; Most unusual 2 Jan. 1867 EL folded as a triangle (some whitening of the blue paper but a sad letter from a sick mother to her sick son) franked by an 1865 1d Rose-Red (cut perfs. at top) tied by a fine rare "6" barred Numeral (actually a "9" issued in error), endorsed "Immediate" on the front. Rare item & cancellation. PHOTO - page 2 £240
-  2207 THE UNIQUE(?) MANUSCRIPT CANCELLATION 1st-ISSUE 1d ROSE-RED COVER EX WARWICK CENTRAL: 6 Mar. 1867 env. (some creasing and faults well clear of stamp and cancel) to a Pembroke address franked by an 1865 1d Rose-Red tied by manuscript X's and "JDW" initials (that have been identified as those of John Darrell Wainwright, the R.O. keeper at Warwick Central from 1866 to 1872), having a very fine large 'Perot'-type "HAMILTON/+BERMUDA+" c.d.s. on the reverse. The only known Bermuda Manuscript Cancellation? This small P.O. had no barred cancel; its Duplex was issued in 1879/80. PHOTO - see page 2 £300
-  2208 IRELAND ISLAND "3" BARRED NUMERAL ON 1st-ISSUE 1d ROSE-RED COVER, ETC.: 1 July 1868 env. to Hamilton endorsed "O.H.M.S." but franked by the 1865 1d Rose-Red tied by a very fine Ireland Island "3" barred Numeral with a matching very fine strike of the "BERMUDA/I/PAID" c.d.s. on the front. [Ex Sir Henry Tucker, 1978.] Plus long 25 May 1868 env. to Hamilton also endorsed "O.H.M.S." with the same very fine "I"-code c.d.s. on the front but having had the stamp cut off leaving a small part of the barred Numeral visible. (2 covers) PHOTO - page 2 £200
-  2209 ST. GEORGES "ST. G/PAID" C.D.S. USED AS CANCELLATION ON 1st-ISSUE 1d ROSE-RED COVER: Attractive 28 June 1870 env. to Hamilton franked by the 1865 1d Rose-Red (placed diagonally) tied by a very fine "BERMUDA/ST.G/PAID" c.d.s. Unusual 'contrary to regulations' use of the early c.d.s. as cancellation instead of the normal "B/1" barred oval. [Ex Sir Henry Tucker, 1978.] PHOTO - see page 2 £300
-  2210 RARE EARLY INGOING COVER TO "LONG BIRD ISLAND" ENDORSED WITH INSTRUCTION TO P.O. TO CROSS THE NEW CAUSEWAY: Most unusual 10 Oct. 1873 env. (minor faults along top edge) addressed to "Mr. Henry Trott, Long Bird Island" (which had only two inhabitants at this date and had only been joined to the mainland by a new causeway from Sept. 1871) franked by a 1st-Issue 1d Rose-Red tied by a mainly fine "B/[1]" St. Georges barred oval with a mainly very fine matching oval d.s. alongside, but most exceptionally additionally boldly endorsed above the address and stamp in red; "The Post Office Authorities are re-spectfully requested to effect sure delivery of this letter to its address"! PHOTO - see page 2 £300
-  2211 THE VERY RARE 1875 1d ON 3d PROVISIONAL USED ON COVER FRONT EX SOUTHAMPTON WEST TO THE P.M.G.: Remarkable 28 Oct. [12875] front addressed to the Postmaster general "James H. Thies" in St. Georges franked by the rare SG16 "One/Penny." surcharged 3d Yellow-Buff tied by a fortunately light "6" barred Numeral with a very fine matching "PAID/6" Southampton West c.d.s. at the left. This "6"-code c.d.s. proves that the "9" Numeral was issued in error for a "6" Numeral. Important and rare Exhibition item: there was no example used on front or cover in the Ludington Collection and only this front and a less attractive front in the Tucker Collection, apart from the famous Tucker cover with 4 examples to London. [Ex Sir George Tucker, 1978; illustrated in colour in that catalogue, p.50.] PHOTO - see page 4 £1,000
-  2212 UNIQUE(?) USAGE OF THE "PAID..." C.D.S. ON 1st-ISSUE 1d ROSE-RED COVER (EX MANGROVE BAY?); 4 Apr. 1876? env. to "R.D. Darrell Esq., Solicitor General, Hamilton" (he became S. General in 1875 which suggests a c.1876 date for this cover) franked by a 1st-Issue 1d Rose-Red (filing crease) tied most exceptionally by the rare plain "PAID/APL 4/187" H2 c.d.s.. Two contemporary covers to the same address and in the same handwriting were sent from Mangrove Bay which leads to the allocation of this usage to that P.O. The only recorded example of this H2 c.d.s. as a cancellation on cover. [Ex Ludington, 1999.] PHOTO - see page 2 £240
-  2213 MANGROVE BAY - THE "4" BARRED NUMERAL ON 1st-ISSUE 1d ROSE-RED COVER TO HAMILTON; c.1875 env. to Hamilton franked by the 1st-Issue 1d Rose-Red tied by a mainly fine "4" Mangrove Bay barred Numeral, but unusually having no other datestamps. GEORGES/A/BERMUDA/2" Duplex in Blue or in black (the first also unusually with a fine Hamilton/1 Duplex and a partly fine scarce "BERMUDA/R.O./8" Duplex of Warwick West on the reverse). Good matched pair. (2 covers) PHOTO - see page 5 £150
-  2217 RARE TYPE II "ST. GEORGES/2" DUPLEX ON LOCAL 1d ROSE-RED COVER; 1 Nov. 1880 env. POSTAL HISTORY, ETC., ETC.

THE GEOFFREY FORD COLLECTION OF
THE 1½d VALUES
FROM QUEEN VICTORIA TO KING GEORGE VI.

Geoffrey Ford (1942-2011) was born in Simonstown, South Africa and lived there (with strong family connections to the Royal Navy) until 1945. In 1960, Geoffrey went to the University of Leicester to study for a BSc in Geology and in 1963 he captained the Leicester team which won the first ever series of the television quiz, University Challenge. [He reprised his role for the 35th anniversary of the show in 1998.] He was a distinguished librarian with an international reputation. He was University Librarian and Director of Information Services at the University of Bristol for 12 years from 1990. He was an active member of the Bristol Philatelic Society and served as its President from 2008 to 2010.

Geoffrey's interest in stamps started in boyhood, encouraged by his grandfather and his father who both had stamp collections. One of the items that Geoffrey inherited from his grandfather was a 1920 family postcard with a Port Said Paquebot cancellation; this led him to collect Paquebot mail in some depth. Likewise the acquisition of a fine QV 1½d Rose-Red Block of Four inspired him to collect the 1½d values of all reigns; he had planned to expand this collection across the entire British Empire. He retired in 2002 due to ill health and gained much pleasure from his collections over the next 10 years. We cannot recall anyone else ever having collected the 1½d value per se as a thematic study, but – as the lots that follow will show – it is a wonderful way of studying the more unusual postal rates of the 1870-1939 period and the scarce and attractive Victorian stamps of that elusive denomination.

Hastings Dec 31. 1844

to Rowland Hill Esq
Brighton

It is highly gratifying to me on behalf of the Committee & Subscribers of the Manchester Testimonial Fund to present you a purse containing £ being the net amount of the Subscriptions -

It is a small & inadequate token of the high estimation in which they hold your services to Society by the introduction of the System of the Penny Postage - of which you are the sole & for which you remain without reward or compensation. author. Although the Public has not repaid

- 2495 "ROUGH DRAFT OF ADDRESS TO ROWLAND HILL FROM SUBSCRIBERS OF THE MANCHESTER TESTIMONIAL"; 31 Dec. 1844 2-sheet unsigned manuscript text (210x330 mm; some stains & creases; full modern pencil transcription) with alterations headed from "Hastings" and endorsed on reverse as being the "Rough draft of address to Rowland Hill from Subscribers to Rowland Hill from Subscribers of the Manchester Testimonial" [in thanks for his work to introduce cheap postage in 1840], giving a glowing account of Hill's achievements and presumably a speech given when a substantial cheque was handed over. many UK towns gathered subscriptions for this testimonial and Manchester was one of the most successful. Unusual (presumably original and contemporary) document associated with the general public's big 'Thank You' present to Hill made in 1845. PHOTO - see above £240

However, 3 days later (6 June), these charges were cancelled and two very fine strikes of the very rare London red crowned "FREE" c.d.s. (Lovegrove R6, light folds; recorded in the GPO Proof Books as having been issued on 17 Jan. 1850) of which Lovegrove only records one other example (the Petition dated Dec. 1852 illustrated in Lovegrove, 2nd ed., p.82) applied at each end of the address panel. This cover was the first of this genuine post-1840 "FREE" mark to be discovered (in 1984) and it seems clear that the mark was issued in 1850 precisely for this rare category of mail which has always been allowed Free of postage. - 6.3 Any Bidder at this Auction will be deemed to be bidding on his or her own behalf and will be held personally liable for that bid unless Cavendish has previously agreed in writing that any Bidder bids on behalf of a disclosed third party ("Principal") who is acceptable to Cavendish. In the latter circumstance, the Bidder shall act as Agent on behalf of the Principal and the Agent and Principal shall be jointly and severally liable for the bid.
- 6.4 Cavendish may advance the bidding for any Lot in steps fixed in the Auctioneer's absolute discretion whether or not those steps are different from those indicated by Cavendish in this Catalogue or elsewhere.
- 6.5 Any dispute as to who is the Buyer of any particular Lot shall be settled by Cavendish in its absolute discretion.
- 6.6 Without prejudice to the generality of clause 6.5, the Auctioneer may at any time before the Buyer for a particular Lot is accepted in his or her absolute discretion:
 - (a) reject any bid at any time without assigning any reason for so doing; or
 - (b) in the event of a dispute between Bidders, or a mistake made by Cavendish before or during this Auction, either continue the bidding for the Lot or stop the bidding and offer the Lot for auction again. If any Lot is offered for Auction again, all previous bids shall cease to apply, provided always that the Auctioneer may in his or her absolute discretion re-execute any bids from Absentee-Bidders.

7. Tied Bidders

If two or more Absentee-Bidders bid the same price for a particular Lot and that price is the highest bid received by Cavendish in respect of that Lot, then without prejudice to clause 6 and to Cavendish's ultimate discretion in relation to any Lot, Cavendish shall knock down the Lot to the Absentee-Bidder from whom such bid was first received by a duly authorised representative of Cavendish at Cavendish's Premises.

8. Liability of Cavendish

- 8.1 Save as set out in clauses 11 and 14, Cavendish gives no warranties or guarantees to any Bidder and any implied warranties or conditions are excluded to the maximum extent permitted by law. In particular, Cavendish excludes all liability and/or responsibility in any way to any Bidder for any loss or damage directly or indirectly as a result of: any representation, description, report or valuation in relation to the quality or authenticity or value of any Lot; or any error or omission (including any negligence) on the part of Cavendish or any of its employees, agents or subcontractors; or any other loss or damage arising from these Conditions, this Catalogue, the sale and purchase of any Lot or otherwise.
- 8.2 Without prejudice to the generality of clause 8.1, every person who enters Cavendish's Premises at any time is deemed to enter at his or her own risk and with notice of the condition of Cavendish's Premises and their contents. Accordingly, to the maximum extent permitted by law, Cavendish excludes all responsibility or liability to any person for any injury sustained or accident which occurs on Cavendish's premises.
- 8.3 To the extent that Cavendish is found liable to any Bidder, such liability shall be limited to the Hammer Price and the Buyer's Premium.

9. Requirements of the Bidder before bidding

- 9.1 Any Bidder at this Auction must Register before he or she will be permitted to bid.
- 9.2 Cavendish may in its absolute discretion refuse to Register any Bidder (including any Absentee Bidder) if that Bidder fails to provide to Cavendish:-
 - (a) upon request proof of identity and in a manner suitable to Cavendish; and/or
 - (b) in the case of an Agent and upon request, the identity of the Principal and proof that the Agent has authority to act on behalf of the Principal; and/or
 - (c) at least five working days before any Bidder intends to bid, such credit references as Cavendish requires in a manner suitable to Cavendish.
- 9.3 Cavendish has the right to ask any Bidder at the time of Registering to specify the numbers of the Lot or Lots for which he or she intends to bid. Cavendish may, in respect of those Lots, require the Bidder to pay to Cavendish a cash deposit of an amount to be set by Cavendish in its absolute discretion, which must be paid by the Bidder before the Bidder is entitled to bid in this Auction.

10. Price to be paid

- 10.1 No Lot will be sold below 66% of the estimate appearing in this Catalogue ("the Reserve") unless Cavendish is instructed otherwise by the Seller and the Auctioneer announces prior to the commencement of the bidding on any Lot that there is a lower Reserve or no Reserve in relation to that particular Lot, subject always to the Auctioneer's ultimate discretion to sell a particular Lot below the Reserve.
- 10.2 Without prejudice to clause 10.1 the total price to be paid by the Buyer in respect of any Lot ("the Price") shall be:
- (a) the Hammer Price; and
 - (b) the Buyer's Premium; and
 - (c) any VAT payable by law on the Hammer Price and the Buyer's Premium;
 - (d) all money transmission charges, including credit card charges which are payable in relation to that Lot in addition to the Price;
 - (e) any other charges, fees, costs, expenses and interest which are payable by the Buyer to Cavendish in accordance with these Conditions.
- 10.3 Those Lots in respect of which VAT is payable are marked with * or  or ## in this Catalogue. Any Lot with the symbol:-
- (a) # indicates the presence of postally valid mint stamps and attracts VAT at the current rate only if the Hammer Price exceeds the face value, such VAT being payable on the difference between the Hammer Price and the face value; or
 - (b) * attracts VAT at the current rate; or
 - (c)  attracts VAT at the rate of 5%.
- 10.4 Subject to clauses 10.5 and 10.6 the Buyer shall pay the Price for any Lot he or she has purchased in full within 1 hour of the end of the relevant day of this Auction in which the Auctioneer knocks down the Lot to the Buyer.
- 10.5 Any Absentee-Bidder who purchases a Lot shall pay the Price for that Lot within 14 calendar days of the date of Cavendish's invoice in respect of the same.
- 10.6 Cavendish may, in its absolute discretion, agree in writing with any Bidder no later than 48 hours prior to the commencement of this Auction, that such Bidder may have an extension of time to pay the Price for any Lot that he or she purchases.
- 10.7 Without prejudice to clause 15, title in and to the items in any Lot shall not pass to the Buyer until the Buyer has paid the Price for any Lot he or she has purchased in accordance with this clause 10.
- 10.8 Agents for Buyers must note their liability under the provisions of clause 6.3 of these Conditions.

11. Return of lots

- 11.1 Subject to clause 11.2, any Lot may be returned by the Buyer within 14 calendar days of the date of this Auction if:-
- (a) the Buyer was an Absentee Bidder in respect of that Lot; and
 - (b) the Buyer did not inspect the Lot personally and no other person inspected the Lot on behalf of the Buyer at any time prior to the sale of the Lot; and
 - (c) the description of the Lot in this Catalogue is incorrect in a material way; and
 - (d) the Lot does not consist of more than three items.
- 11.2 Clause 11.1 shall not apply in respect of any Lot if in the Catalogue the description of that Lot contains, or a photograph of that Lot indicates, a description, general or otherwise, of faults or defects in that Lot.
- 11.3 If the Buyer exercises his or her right to return any Lot pursuant to this clause 11, Cavendish shall refund to the Buyer the Hammer Price and the Buyer's Premium plus any Value Added Tax paid by the Buyer in respect of the Lot. Cavendish shall have no further liability to the Buyer in respect of that Lot whatsoever.
- 11.4 The benefit of this clause 11 is not assignable and as such can be exercised only by the Buyer, being the person who paid the Price to Cavendish.

12. Failure by the Buyer to pay the Price

- 12.1 If any Buyer fails to pay the Price for any Lot in accordance with clause 10 Cavendish shall be entitled to:-
- (a) charge the Buyer interest on the amount unpaid at Cavendish's current rate from time to time for each period of 30 calendar days from the due date until the date payment is received in full in either cash or cleared funds by Cavendish; and/or
 - (b) re-offer the Lot immediately for resale and in such circumstances the Buyer shall not be entitled to bid in respect of that or any other Lot in this Auction; and/or
 - (c) sell the Lot by any means it considers appropriate in its absolute discretion; and/or
 - (d) exercise a lien over any goods of the Buyer (including the Lot concerned) until all outstanding payments have been received in full by the Buyer.
- 12.2 If Cavendish exercises its right, pursuant to clause 12.1(b), the Buyer shall compensate Cavendish for the difference between the Price due from the Buyer and the Net Price it receives upon re-sale to a third party. The Net Price shall mean the price received by Cavendish upon re-sale to a third party less the commission due to Cavendish and all costs and expenses incurred by Cavendish in relation to such re-sale.
- 12.3 The Buyer shall compensate Cavendish fully for all charges incurred by Cavendish on cheques and other instruments of payment that are returned unpaid or that are returned for any other reason and in addition the Buyer shall pay Cavendish an administrative charge of £25 plus VAT in respect of each event of non-payment.

13. Collection and delivery of Lots

- 13.1 Subject to clause 13.2, the Buyer shall collect the Lot from Cavendish's Premises within 2 working days of the date of this Auction.
- 13.2 Any Absentee Bidder who is the Buyer of a Lot shall be entitled to arrange for the delivery of the Lot by Cavendish to the Buyer's premises, provided that he or she accounts to Cavendish for all costs and expenses incurred by Cavendish in relation to the packing, handling, transport and insurance of that Lot during delivery. The Buyer shall account to Cavendish for such costs and expenses within 14 calendar days of the date of Cavendish's invoice in respect of the same.
- 13.3 If the Buyer fails to collect any Lot from Cavendish's premises in accordance with clause 13.1, Cavendish reserves the right to charge the Buyer storage charges at Cavendish's rates from time to time.
- 13.4 If the Buyer fails to collect any Lot from Cavendish's premises within 6 months of the date of the Auction, Cavendish reserves the right to re-sell the Lot in accordance with clauses 12.1 (b) or (c) and in such circumstances Cavendish shall account to the Buyer for the proceeds of sale less commission due to Cavendish and all costs and expenses incurred by Cavendish in relation to such sale.

14. Extension

- 14.1 A Buyer is entitled to an Extension in respect of any Lot if:-
- (a) The Buyer notifies Cavendish at least 2 working days prior to this Auction that he or she intends to apply for an Extension; and
 - (b) the Buyer demonstrates that there is reasonable doubt that the Lot is genuine and/or that it does not match the description or correspond with the photograph in the Catalogue in a material way; and
 - (c) the Buyer leaves the Lot in Cavendish's care from the moment it is knocked down to the Buyer; and
 - (d) the buyer pays for the Lot in full as per Clause 10 without delay.
- 14.2 The Buyer shall be entitled to request only that Cavendish refers the Lot to an expert, or expert committee, approved in advance in writing by Cavendish. The costs of that expert opinion shall be paid for in full by the Buyer, unless it is demonstrated beyond all reasonable doubt that the Lot is not genuine and/or that it does not match the description or correspond with the photograph in the Catalogue in a material way, in which case the costs of the expert opinion shall be paid for in full by the Seller.
- 14.3 The Buyer's right to an Extension shall not apply if:-
- (a) The Buyer has wholly or partly immersed the Lot in water, or any other chemicals or has otherwise treated it; and/or
 - (b) the Lot comprises a collection, or 3 or more stamps and/or covers and/or items which are not separately described in this Catalogue, unless the Buyer satisfies Cavendish at least 48 hours prior to the commencement of this Auction that any such collection, stamps, covers and/or items warrant separate description in this Catalogue ("Items"). In such circumstances, the Buyer so satisfying Cavendish shall have the right to an Extension in relation to the Items only; and/or
 - (c) the Lot is illustrated in this Catalogue and the Buyer attempts to reject the Lot on the grounds of cancellation, centering, margins, perforation or any other characteristics which are reasonably identifiable from the illustration.
- 14.4 If the Buyer exercises his or her right to return any Lot pursuant to this clause 14, Cavendish shall refund to the Buyer the Hammer Price and the Buyer's Premium plus any Value Added Tax paid by the Buyer in respect of the Lot. Cavendish shall have no further liability to the Buyer in respect of that Lot whatsoever.

15. Risks after sale

- 15.1 All risks in and to all items in any Lot in this Auction shall pass to the Buyer at the moment actual possession of the Lot is taken by the Buyer in accordance with clause 15.2.
- 15.2 Actual possession is taken when:
- (a) Cavendish physically hands over the Lot to the Buyer or the Buyer's agent; or
 - (b) Cavendish, at the request of the Buyer, arranges for the transport of and dispatches the Lot from Cavendish's Premises to the Buyer or to the Buyer's agent; or
 - (c) Cavendish dispatches the Lot from Cavendish's Premises to the expert approved in advance by Cavendish in accordance with clause 14 and in this case risk in that Lot remains with the Buyer until the Lot is returned to Cavendish's Premises.

16. Applicable law

These Conditions shall be governed by and construed and interpreted in accordance with English law and the parties agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.

17. Headings

Headings shall not affect the interpretation or meaning of the Conditions and are included only for convenience.
