PREFACE.

This lot of stamps contains many very desirable South and Central American stamps, rarities for collectors, and choice lots for dealers.

A few revenues, foreign and U. S., are offered, among which, are some rarities.

It is impossible to note all the desirable stamps in these prefatory remarks, and it is hoped that each lot will be carefully examined, and bids made for such as you need.

Every stamp is warranted genuine and in good condition.

Each lot is sold to the highest bidder. Bids must be for EACH STAMP OR PIECE IN THE LOT.

Lots will not be divided.

Bids may be made on any number of lots, and instructions sent to limit the purchases to a definite sum. A commission of 25c., for postage, etc., will be required on all purchases less than $5.00; over that, and less than $20.00, 5 per cent. and on all purchases over $20.00, 3 per cent.

Parties sending bids by mail who are unknown to us should send a deposit of one-fifth the amount bid, as a guarantee of good faith. Amounts so sent will be credited on account, or returned immediately after the sale.

Those who cannot attend should send bids early, to either of the cataloguers,
