P R E F A C E .

We take pleasure in presenting this Catalogue to the Stamp-Collecting community, and bespeak for it a place in public favor, knowing it to be by far the best of the kind in the market.

In preparing it, every effort possible has been made to render it perfectly accurate, as regards date of issue, color and form of each variety, and we believe no errors have crept into the work.

Collectors of "timbre poste," have long felt the need of a thoroughly reliable priced catalogue of this character, and we have endeavored, at considerable expense of time and money, to satisfy this want.

Collectors will notice among many other valuable qualities, the addition of a Money Table, and the numbering of each stamp, so that by merely quoting the number of the stamp required, no detail is necessary.

As we are doing a very large business, and have made arrangements for the indefinite extension of the same, we are enabled to offer superior inducements to Collectors and the Stamp Trade.

In consulting the annexed Catalogue, the following may be of information.

The principal abbreviations used, are, diam., diamond; obl., oblong; oct., octagonal; rect., rectangular; tria., triangular.

The term "essay," means a stamp or device suggested, but not approved officially.

The term "proof," means a stamp printed for examination and approval, but not in the color in which it is officially issued.

The term "variety," means a stamp having some accidental variation in legend or otherwise from the common issue.

We would, however, caution collectors against "variety" stamps, especially "rare color," except when purchased from reliable dealers who can guarantee their genuineness. In making up our own catalogue, we have carefully excluded all but those we know to be authentic.

The limits of this article will not permit us to enlarge upon this subject. We will, however, be happy at any time to give any information upon this or any subject in connection with stamp collecting.

All letters, orders included, must contain stamp for a reply. We cannot undertake to answer the many communications sent us unless this is complied with.

Particular attention is called to the packets as offered, on third page of the cover. We but ask a trial, and are sure that they will give satisfaction.

Small remittances may be made in current funds, but all above $3.00, had better be sent by Post Office order, or Banker's Draft, made payable to G. W. WINTERBURN & Co., Cincinnati.

Stamp collectors residing abroad, may remit in unused postage stamps of small values.

G. W. WINTERBURN & CO.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Persons receiving the Catalogue, with this notice marked, are requested to remit Fifteen Cents per return mail, to

NELSON'S JOHN HOLLAND,

COMMERCIAL

CINCINNATI, OHIO.

SYSTEM OF TEACHING.

The College is a completely organized business community with its necessary adjuncts,—Banking Houses, Insurance, Transportation and other Agencies, in which each student acts his part as clerk, book-keeper, merchant, banker, &c.

Merchants rent their places of business, procure licenses, deposit their money in bank, buy, sell, collect, give and take notes of hand, raise money by having notes discounted, make and receive consignments, and keep their own accounts, recording each transaction as it takes place.

Surplus funds are disposed of in the usual way, by investment in stocks.

The community is governed by strict laws in close conformity with those of the business world outside.

The merchant, as intimated, can not engage in business until he has obtained license from the Government; must use his stamps, state his terms of sale, collect and pay in accordance with law, or usage, protect his maturing papers, or submit to the usual penalties, perhaps to the loss of credit and standing in the community. Funds of defaulters, absent or deceased members, in the hands of others, can not be reached but by legal process.

Absent members may award powers of attorney for the settlement of their affairs, while the estates of deceased members are placed in the hands of administrators.

The College also engages the services of a lawyer, whose business is to give professional advice to our young merchants, and to aid them in a legal way to make collections.

Copies of the Catalogue and Circular and the NEWS AND EDUCATOR mailed on receipt of stamp.
