INSTRUCTIONS.

Common perforated stamps must be peeled or soaked from the envelope. No torn or heavily cancelled specimens will be received.

Stamps quoted only in hundred lots must be neatly tied up in packages of 100 each, all faced the same way, and must be carefully sorted.

Envelope stamps must be cut out square, and each denomination, each issue, and each color of paper kept separate. This applies to the common varieties. Of the issue before 1870, send the entire envelope when possible.

Be sure to pay full postage on all packages of stamps sent us.

Don't forget, collectors, to keep your eyes open for all U. S. stamps. You can add many dollars' worth to your collection at no expense. Find them in old drawers and boxes, packed away in storerooms and garrets. Be careful and not tear any of these old issues. Better send envelope or letter and all.
