CATALOGUE

OF A

MAGNIFICENT LOT OF STAMPS

TO BE SOLD AT ANNEXED PRICES.

THESE STAMPS ARE A PART OF THE STOCK OF THE

NEW ENGLAND STAMP CO.

325 & 333 Washington St., Boston, Mass. R.

AND WILL BE ON EXHIBITION AT THEIR OFFICE
UNTIL SALE CLOSES,

MAY 10, 1893, AT 10 P. M.

TO COLLECTORS.

This is what is known as a reserved sale, i. e., the annexed prices are the lowest at which the stamps can be bought, all bids must be sent in before the hour of closing, none will be considered after that hour, the highest offer gets the stamp, where two offers are the same the first takes precedence. The stamps are strictly gilt-edged and absolute satisfaction is guaranteed every buyer, every stamp in this sale would find a ready purchaser at these prices and in many cases at a considerable advance. Our object in offering them in this way is to convince the public that the New England Stamp Company is the concern that they are looking for.

These stamps are simply samples of the class of goods we already have and mean to carry in stock. To some the prices may seem high but to those who have kept an eye on auction sales recently, neither explanation nor apology is necessary.
