JULIUS DELANO BARTLETT.

President Sons of Philatelia.

Biographies of Officers.

PREIDENT.

JULIUS DELANO BARTLETT was born in Macon, Illinois, November 17, 1869. A few months later his parents moved to Massachusetts, where they resided for the next five years. When young Bartlett was six years old his parents again moved, this time back to Illinois, and later to the southwestern part of Kansas, where he lived amid prairie dogs, rattle snakes, and other equally congenial companions of frontier life until 1880. Once more they returned to the land of his birth, settling at Springfield.

Here the first symptoms of the collecting "mania" made their appearance in the shape of a collection, if it may be so termed, of street car tickets. Upon his removal to St. Louis, two years later, he found that the cars there used entirely different tickets from those in Springfield, and so gave up that kind of collecting. But the "mania" was by no means cured, and he was soon just as deeply interested in tin tags as he had been in street car tickets at Springfield.

In 1885 he commenced collecting stamps, and soon had acquired a goodly assortment of United States issues from his collecting companions and from old correspondence. However, foreign varieties were few and somewhat difficult to procure. It is said that his first lot of foreign was a packet of 500 mixed stamps, which the well known firm of Edward Peeke & Co., of Chicago, advertized for 16 cents. (This is not an advertisement.)

In 1886 he invaded the domain of the New Jersey mocoquito (and be it said to his credit, that he held his own among them.) Here he gradually lost interest in his collection, adding a specimen or two occasionally, or dropping it altogether. But in 1888 interest in his collection returned, since then he has been an enthusiastic philatelist. While his collection is not large, it is unusually complete in U. S., which he makes his specialty; and though he still retains his early collection of foreign, he takes but little interest in it.

Though a member of several societies, the Sons of

S. OF P. SOUVENIR.

Philatelia holds first place in his heart, and the progress it has made under his leadership is highly satisfactory to all concerned.

He is a leader in the state camps of the Sons of Veterans of New Jersey, and presents a handsome appearance in uniform.

INTERNATIONAL SECRETARY.

ROSWELL J. RUSSELL first saw the light of day about thirty-four years ago. After receiving an ordinary education in this country, he went to Europe at the age of twelve years, and studied in England for two years; then going to Switzerland, where he studied for a year, but finding he could complete his course more advantageously, moved to France, where he remained four years, pursuing his studies. At the end of this time he entered the Heidelberg Medical University (Germany), where he remained only two years. Returning to this country, he entered the Maryland University School of Medicine, where he graduated with high honors in 1882, being at once appointed resident physician of the Bay View Hospital, Baltimore, serving with distinction for two years. Finding that his health would not permit him to pursue a general practice, "Doc" took a special course upon the diseases of the throat and lungs, graduating and moving to Hanover, Pa. Mr. Russell descends from one of the oldest of Maryland families, his ancestors having served with distinction in the Revolution.

He early became a collector of stamps, but never devoted any great amount of time to the "malady," as he terms it, until 1891, when his acquaintance with W. H. Emmert, the present exchange superintendent, ripened the fever, and the attack took such hold upon him that he feels only death alone can effect a permanent cure.

Those collectors were fortunate enough to be present at the 1892 convention, and meeting him, can only appreciate his good fellowship. Pleasant time was passed listening to the anecdotes of his first efforts at stamp collecting.

His ability and good judgment were often apparent, as the numerous suggestions and careful advice given at the maiden convention of the Sons of Philatelia proved.

S. OF P. SOUVENIR.

He was elected international secretary of our society at the supplementary election held last September, his knowledge of foreign languages excellently fitting him for the position. He has been urged by numerous friends to accept the nomination for presidency of our society, the prevailing argument being that we need an older and wiser head to steady the well laid foundations, and in Dr. R. J. Russell can be found an honest, upright gentleman, whom all his friends have been proud to meet.

LIBRARIAN.

ROY FARRELL GREENE, the subject of this sketch, was born in St. Joseph county, Michigan, at the little town of Three Rivers, on the 20th day of December, 1873. In the year 1878 his parents removed to Kansas, where he has since spent those joyous days of youth. For five years he rode the bucking broncho and chased the Texas steer on his father's ranch in Indian Territory, and it was while on this self same ranch that he became acquainted with an army officer who collected stamps, and thus the inspiration came to him to "go thou and do likewise." His collection today is in itself small, but within the covers of the album are several uncatalogued rarities and shades innumerable.

He has taken great interest in the Sons of Philatelia from the start, and though by no means among the first to join, he, by editorials in the Spy Glass of 1891, gave the society quite a boom. His number is 238.

He was elected librarian of the society at its first annual convention, at Gettysburg, Pa., last July, and has undertaken the work of arranging and classifying the pieces as they come in, thanks to the munificent donations.

He has been renominated, practically by acclamation, and we trust that the library will be left in his hands, as his work is only just begun, and now that he has started the best he knows how to push it to completion.

S. OF P. SOUVENIR.

AUCTION MANAGER.

JAMES CLIFFORD MILLER, of Coal Valley, Pa., was born May 4, 1874. At the age of 15, he entered the Greasley Business College, at McKeesport, Pa., where he remained one year. It was shortly before this that Mr. Miller first began to collect, and while there he began dealing on a small scale among his friends at the college. At the expiration of the year he entered his father's store, where he is at the present time. His stamp business has steadily increased, until now he is one of the leading dealers in the United States.

To Mr. Miller we are indebted for our excellent auction department, as he was its originator, and thus far has carried it on independent of the society, except that only S. of P. members are allowed to send lots. However, the expenses are so heavy that it has been a burden to him, and he expresses a wish that it be placed under the society management, and a set of rules established.

ATTORNEY.

GEORGE W. ACHARD was born in Iowa in 1806, and is consequently in his twenty-seventh year. In 1878 his parents moved to Minneapolis, and the subject of our sketch was associated with a score of new friends, almost every one of whom was a collector of stamps. From that time on Mr. Achard has been an ardent philatelist. In 1889 his collection numbered upward of 7,000 specimens, when he, realizing the undertaking before him of continuing a general collection, sold all except the stamps from North, South and Central America, and the islands adjacent. He now possesses about 3,500 of this specialty. He collects only adhesives (postage) and envelopes.

He has successfully passed through the high school and a business college in his city—Manchester College—from which he received the degree of A. B.; the Wisconsin University Law School, obtaining an L. L. B., and the Post Graduate School of Law of the University of Minnesota, which conferred upon him an L. L. M.

His work as attorney of the S. of P. may best be judged by his own account of the same, given in another part of this work.

He is a frequent contributor, not only to philatelic literature, but also to a number of magazines of a strictly literary character.

His election last year was almost unanimous.

SECRETARY.

ROBERT M. MILLER, the subject of this sketch, is now twenty-one years old. We believe we are safe in saying that Mr. Miller was born to be a collector, having at various times been an ornithologist, oologist, taxidermist, and having collected cards, tin tags, and in fact, everything "collectible." But he has abandoned them all for Philately.

Mr. Miller was the organizer of the Sons of Philatelia, a society of which I can tell you nothing, as you are all as familiar with its remarkable growth and prosperity as I am. It is a society which has no parallel in the history of stamp collecting, and Mr. Miller may well feel proud of being its organizer.

He has had considerable experience as a publisher. His first attempt was Curios, of which but three numbers were issued; then the next was the American Collector, of which six numbers were published. Next we find him as editor of the Collector, which has been the official organ of the Sons of Philatelia ever since the society was organized. He is also editor of the Weekly Philatelist.

His whole time is now devoted to his papers and S. of P. affairs. By profession he is a druggist. He is also interested in athletic sports, especially cycling.

NOTE—Owing to Mr. Miller's biography arriving late it could not be inserted in its proper position, as the preceding pages had been printed before receiving it.

S. OF P. SOUVENIR.

PURCHASING AGENT.

CHARLES H. MEAD was born on January 8th, 1873, at Sayreville, N. J. At the age of five years he went to Bristol, R. I. He was to and fro in the New England states for several years, and then returned to New Jersey, at which time and place the collecting "mania" struck him.

He has had several collections, but at present is collecting the issues of the United States and Canada only. He was among the first to join the Sons of Philatelia, his number being 160.

OUR LIBRARY.

I am asked by the compiler of this tasty little Souvenir to give some information regarding the library, which has been in my charge for the past year.

I have no lengthy report to make. The progress of our society has been phenomenal, and I think I can safely say that the library has kept pace with the other branches of our growing society.

When turned over to me by my predecessor in office on the 21st of last December there were 213 pieces in the library. On the 10th day of June, 1893, I find there are 1,200 pieces, several complete volumes, ten manuals or handbooks on philately and two bound volumes. Every mail brings contributions from the ever active Sons. I have lately gone through the entire lot, sorted out all the duplicates, and am now ready to exchange papers with the members of our society. If each will kindly send a list of the papers they have to exchange, and the numbers that they need, I shall be glad to enter into exchange relations with them, for the benefit of our library.

Brother Cleve Scott, of Central City, Neb., has contributed more pieces to the library than any other member. Mr. Edgar Pilie, Jr., of New Orleans, La., has contributed the next largest number. Mr. P. M. Wolsieffer, of Chicago, Ill., and Mr. Pilie have each contributed a cloth-bound volume.

Going into statistics, we find that there is, on an average, less than two papers to a member; that is, each member has put in but two pieces, on an average.

Now, brothers, have you not at least ten pieces of philatelic literature you do not need, which you can donate right away? Ten pieces from each member will make a round number of 10,000 pieces in the library. Old numbers and complete files are especially desired, but recent numbers or duplicate papers are acceptable.

Renewed interest has been taken in our library. Many requests for papers and books are coming in, and with the attention I propose to give it, and the co-operation of every individual member, I trust and hope that ano'her year may have wrought great improvement in our library, and, as becomes the greatest society in the United States, we may have an aggregation of valuable literature second to no other both in quality and quantity.

Respectfully,
ROY F. GREENE, Librarian.

ATTORNEY'S OFFICE.

Last year the committee having in charge the drafting of a constitution for our society inserted an article creating the office, and defining the duties of attorney. Having been elected to the office, your incumbent entered with some misgivings, for such a plan had never been tried before in a society like ours. Claims began to roll in even before the result of the election was announced, but it seemed as though everybody wanted the attorney to do the work without even so much as a postage stamp being sent for correspondence with the debtor. As a consequence, after expending a fairly large sum in postage, it became necessary to do nothing with claims in which no postage was sent. As a result of this decision, upward of five hundred claims now repose in my files, and the owners of them doubtless think the attorney a very inefficient officer. If they will only read the constitution, they will easily find that the expense is not to attach upon the attorney. Others have sent claims of from one to four years standing, and many against persons who have removed from their former place of abode. These are rarely collectible, and are a source of annoyance to both the creditor and the attorney. I had one claim for advertising which amounted to 83 cents, and the owner of which thought I ought to collect for 10 per cent.

Some debtors write the attorney very complimentary letters; some threaten to visit upon his person a dire disaster should they ever meet; others request him to remove his corporosity to a land of perpetual torridity. All of these little pleasantries make the life of your humble servant one of continuous pleasure.

GEO. W. ACHARD, Attorney.

S. OF P. SOUVENIR.

PURCHASING DEPARTMENT.

The purchasing department is now in full working order, and is equal, if not superior, to that of any other society. I am only too glad to have any of the members use or enquire after it. All questions will be cheerfully answered if it is within my power. The rules of the department are as follows:

Any member desiring to use the department to obtain new issues of postage stamps, envelopes and cards will be required to deposit $2.50, or over, and if the amount is overdrawn it will have to be renewed as soon as convenient.

No member can order more than three copies of each specimen.

The charges are but 5 per cent over costs, and that goes to the treasury of the society.

Auction sales will be attended by myself or my agents, and bids made at lowest possible cost.

Members are requested to enclose return postage when they write to the department.

Yours Ever in Philately,

C. H. MEAD, Purchasing Agent.

S. OF P. SOUVENIR.

First Convention.

One of the most important philatelic events of 1892 was the S. of P. convention, held at Gettysburg, Pa., July 4th and 5th. The Globe hotel witnessed the preliminary meeting, at 1 P. M., July 4th, in the parlor. After the president's address the following committees were appointed:

Credentials—Gus J. Lahn, Chairman, H. F. Kantner and C. W. Grevning.

Order of Business—R. P. Spooner, Chairman, Wm. Nicklas, Jr., and R. W. Ashcroft.

Rules for Exchange Department—W. H. Emmert, Chairman, F. S. Fox and Wm. Nicklas, Jr.

Rules for Counterfeit Detector and International Secretary—R. P. Spooner, Chairman, L. M. Lang and R. J. Russell.

At 4:15 P. M. the committees made their reports. The committee on credentials reported 18 members present, holding 231 proxies. Of these, only 167 were accepted, and 64 rejected who were not in good standing. The proxies were distributed as follows: H. F. Kantner, 56; F. S. Fox, 23; C. W. Grevning, 22; Wm. Nicklas, Jr., 19; Wm. H. Emmert, 14; R. M. Miller, 12; R. P. Spooner, 11; R. W. Ashcroft, 6; J. P. Stetler, 4; L. M. Lang, 1.

Besides the above, those present were J. D. Bartlett, F. H. Hoyt, C. W. Kissinger, W. H. Linn, Gus J. Lahn, S. J. Lowder, Ph. L. Messer and R. J. Russell.

It was decided to conduct the convention according to Cushing's Manual on Parliamentary Laws.

The constitution was next taken up. Owing to the many changes necessary it was decided to take up each section separately. This required four sessions, as follows: First day, 4:30 P. M. to 5:45 P. M., when adjournment was taken until 7 P. M., which session lasted until 11:55 P. M., allowing intermission of 30 minutes to give the "boys" time to express their patriotism of the Fourth by exploding many dollars worth of fireworks, until it sounded like a repetition of the battle of Gettysburg. The next day's session convened at 9:30 A. M., and adjourned at 11:45 A. M., to again convene at 1 P. M. It was exactly 1:45 P. M. when the constitution was ratified and adopted as a whole. Thus ended one of the greatest controversies, lasting over ten hours on the one subject.

The election of officers was then in order. The following were elected, to serve until their successors have been qualified, in August, 1893: President, J. D. Bartlett; Vice President, C. W. Peugh; Secretary, R. W. Miller; Treasurer, Ph. L. Messer; Exchange Superintendent, W. H. Emmert; Auction Manager, J. C. Miller; Counterfeit Detector, E. P. Newcomer; Purchasing Agent, C. H. Mead; Trustees, R. P. Spooner, C. W. Grevning and R. Peagnet. The only opposition was on treasurer, Mr. Messer receiving 6½ votes, and Mr. Stuart 15. The other candidates had no show at all, they being ineligible according to the constitution.

As there were no eligible nominees for the offices of librarian, attorney and international secretary, it was decided to have a mail vote, the same to close Oct. 1.

During a secret session, which lasted about twenty minutes, C. W. Woodworth, of Malden, Mass., was expelled, as serious charges were brought against him.

During the evening session a poem dedicated to the occasion was read. A vote of thanks was telegraphed the absent poet, Roy Farrell Greene.

The following are some of the most important changes in the constitution: The president, treasurer and exchange superintendent must be over twenty-one years of age. This was one of the bitterest clauses amended, and was objected to by only four members, who held nearly a majority of the proxies. The appointment of a resident vice president in each state where there is a member; the number of proxies one member can hold is limited to twenty-five; a candidate for office must be a member at least three months prior to his nomination.

When near adjournment business was forgotten, and the members were photographed in a group on the rotunda of the hotel.

The convention adjourned at 2:25 P. M., July 5th, to meet again three days following the convention of the A. P. A., in Chicago, which will be Aug. 18, 19 and 20, 1893.

S. OF P. SOUVENIR.

Constitution of the S. of P.

As adopted at the convention, July 4th and 5th, 1892.

ARTICLE I—NAME.

SEC. 1. This society shall be known as the Sons of Philatelia.

ARTICLE II—OBJECTS.

SEC. 1. The objects of this society are to assist members in acquiring knowledge of Philately; to cultivate a feeling of friendship among philatelists; to collect bad debts, and to prosecute parties defrauding members of the society.

ARTICLE III—MEMBERSHIP.

SEC. 1. Any stamp collector may become a member by applying to the secretary, providing such application be signed by at least two persons as references, one of which must be a member of the society, and the other a responsible citizen of the applicant's place of residence—and accompanied by the initiation fee of 10 cents. The secretary shall then cause the name and address of the applicant, with references, to be published in the next number of the official journal, and if no objection is received by the secretary within one month after such publication the applicant shall be considered elected, and shall receive the membership card of the society on payment of dues.

SEC. 2. If any objection to the applicant be received, with proofs of same in writing, he shall be notified by the trustees to submit his defense, who shall consider the matter, and shall accept or reject the applicant, returning all the papers with their report to the secretary. If no defense is received to a substantial charge the applicant shall be rejected.

SEC. 3. All members in good standing shall be entitled to vote.

SEC. 4. Any member of the society against whom charges shall be preferred in writing to the trustees shall be tried by a court of five, composed of the president, one trustee and three members of the society, appointed by the trustees. The court may in its judgment suspend or expel such member, and their action shall be final and binding upon all parties.

S. OF P. SOUVENIR.

SEC. 5. No member's resignation shall be considered until his account with the society is settled.

ARTICLE IV—CONVENTION.

SEC. 1. The society shall meet in convention once each year, at such place and at such time as may be designated by the last preceding convention.

SEC. 2. A quorum for the prosecution of business shall consist of one-half of the membership represented in person or by proxy, and no member shall hold more than twenty-five proxies.

ARTICLE V—OFFICERS.

SEC. 1. The officers of the society shall be a president, a vice president, a secretary, a treasurer, a librarian, a superintendent of exchange, a manager of auction sales, an attorney, a purchasing agent, a counterfeit detector, an international secretary and three trustees, the trustees to be resident of the same place; all to be elected by vote.

SEC. 2. No member shall be eligible to office who has not attained the age of eighteen years, except the president, the treasurer and the superintendent of exchange, who shall be twenty-one years.

SEC. 3—ELECTION OF OFFICERS. The election of officers shall be held at each annual convention, and they shall serve until their successors have been qualified. Nominations must be mailed to the secretary sixty days before the date of the convention, and all such nominations shall be published in the official journal two numbers prior to the convention. All shall be sent to the trustees before 3 P. M. of the day previous to the convention. Each member is entitled to one vote, and no votes by proxy shall be counted. A plurality of the votes cast shall elect. The candidate for office must be a member of the society at least three months previous to nomination. The result of the election shall be published in the next number of the official journal. The trustees shall issue all ballots for the election of officers, the cost of same, including all postage, printing, etc., to be borne by all nominated candidates pro rata, and no other ballots whatsoever shall be counted except this (the official) ballot.

SEC. 4—VACANCIES. In case of death or resignation of any officer during his term of office, the trustees are empowered to appoint a successor to fill such vacancy for the unexpired term (subject to section 2.) In case any officer is prevented, by sickness or any other cause, from performing his duty, the trustees may in their discretion appoint a substitute to act during such incapacity.

SEC. 5—IMPEACHMENT OF OFFICERS. Whenever twenty-five members of the society shall prefer charges against any officer of the society for dereliction of official duty, or violation of the constitution, he shall be tried for impeachment by a court composed of one of the trustees, acting ex-officio as presiding officer, and four members of the society, to be appointed by the trustees. The finding of such court shall be final and binding upon the society and the officer tried.

ARTICLE VI—DUTIES OF OFFICERS.

SEC. 1—PRESIDENT. The president shall preside at all meetings of the society. He shall sign all warrants for moneys required by the society. He shall submit semi-annual reports, to be printed in the official journal for January and July. By and with the consent of the official board, or at the call of thirty members of the society, he shall call for a general vote of the members upon any desired question. The voting shall be by ballot, under the direction of the trustees, and a majority of the votes cast shall determine the question submitted; but the constitution can only be amended as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 2—VICE PRESIDENT. The vice president shall assist the president in any duties that may require him, and he shall act in case of vacancy in the office of president, or in the absence of the latter.

SEC. 3—SECRETARY. The secretary shall keep a true record of the proceedings of the society. He shall receive and take charge of all property of the society, and preserve all documents. He shall sign all warrants drawn upon the treasurer. He shall keep all accounts reported to him by other officers, as required by this constitution. He shall receive all applications for membership, and shall cause to be published in the official journal every month the names of all such applicants, with the references, and the names of all new members, and all other news he may have gathered in his official capacity, that may be of interest to the membership at large. He shall issue cards of membership when the dues have been paid, and such cards have been signed by the president; and furnish a copy of this constitution, and of all other publications of the society to each member in good standing, upon receipt of postage. He shall furnish duplicate copies of the constitution, official circulars and other publications of the society in his charge, upon payment of the charges fixed therefor by the official board.

S. OF P. SOUVENIR.

SEC. 4—TREASURER. The treasurer shall receive and take charge of all moneys of the society, collect all dues from the members, and all other moneys of the society. He shall report quarterly in the official journal the balance of cash in his hands, with the number of members who have paid their dues. He shall pay all warrants regularly drawn upon him by the president and secretary, keep a general financial account, and submit to the convention a complete statement. He shall not hold in his possession more than twenty-five dollars ($25), but shall deposit all above that amount in some bank, to be designated by the trustees. He shall give bond to the trustees in the sum of one hundred dollars ($100.)

SEC. 5—LIBRARIAN. The librarian shall hold in trust for the society all philatelic literature, albums, collections, etc., which may be presented to or purchased by the society. He shall collect in advance the necessary postage from any member desiring to take any periodical, book or publication from the library (one cent for each.) All shall be returned postpaid to the librarian within ten days after the receipt of the same, and any member who shall retain the publication longer than ten days shall not be entitled to have any other periodical, book or publication issued to them until they have satisfied the librarian or society concerning their delinquency. The surplus of receipts over expenses shall be paid to the treasurer at the close of each fiscal year, or term of office.

SEC. 6—SUPERINTENDENT OF EXCHANGE. This officer shall conduct the exchange business of the society under the following rules and regulations:

1. Blank exchange sheets will be furnished by the superintendent of exchange at five cents each, or six for twenty-five cents, and only these sheets will be accepted by the superintendent.

2. Members must remove the paper from the back of stamps, except in cases where it is desirable to show postmark, etc., and attach them to the sheets with gummed paper hinges, so that they may be examined for watermarks, etc., and must mark the price of each stamp upon the proper space legibly in ink. They may also note descriptions of stamps, such as watermarks, etc., if necessary.

3. Members having prepared their sheets for circulation, will mail or express them postpaid to the superintendent, who will make them into books and packages at his discretion. Sheet and book numbers are for the superintendent's use, and will be placed thereon by him.

S. OF P. SOUVENIR.

The spaces provided on the sheets for the owner's name and address, and the value and class of the stamps on the sheet, must be properly filled out by the owner.

4. The member removing a stamp from a sheet must place his name plainly in the square from which the stamp is taken, as well as in the proper place on the account sheet attached to the end of each book. He shall also immediately notify the exchange superintendent of the amount taken from each book or package and the date of receiving and dispatching said book or package, but in case he is a member of any branch society, and receives books through that branch, he shall report to the secretary of the branch, who shall make returns to the exchange superintendent. If a name or amount is missing it shall be the duty of the next member in turn to notify the previous one, and note the error on the sheet. Failure to note such an error will make the last party responsible.

5. Members having no stamps in the exchange, but wishing to receive books and purchase for cash, can do so by applying to the superintendent, stating whether postage stamps or revenues are wanted.

6. Branches are allowed to retain exchange sheets two days for each member participating in the exchange, and two days to make up the account: but in no instance shall any branch hold such sheets more than thirty days. Members of branches must decide among themselves the order of preference in choosing from exchanges. A fine of ten cents a day will be imposed for each day the exchange are kept over the allotted time.

7. Individual members who may so request are entitled to receive exchanges in the same manner and the same conditions as a branch, but shall hold no sheets for more than two days after receipt. A fine of ten cents a day will be imposed for each day the exchanges are kept over the allotted time.

8. No sheet shall be put into circulation in any circuit unless the value of such sheet be at least two dollars.

9. Branches and individual members are responsible for the value of all exchanges sent them, from the time of receipt to the time of forwarding, and for any difference that may arise during that time: but the society, and not the member by whom or to whom an exchange is sent, shall be responsible for the accidental loss or destruction of an exchange in transit, if, after investigation by the trustees, it shall be ascertained to their satisfaction that the member was not to fault. Returns valued at more than five dollars must be sent by registered letter or express, value declared; otherwise the sender will be held responsible therefor in case of loss.

10. Each branch or individual member must prepay all expenses in forwarding exchanges, and must forward them by registered letter or express; otherwise the sender will be held responsible therefor in case of loss.

11. The superintendent has first choice of exchanges, as well as his own sheets free.

12. The superintendent will keep an account with each branch and individual member participating in the exchange, receiving and paying the balances of money received; but in dealing with branches the superintendent will draw balances as a whole for each branch, dealing only with its secretary, who must adjust the account with the members. The secretary will also gather the sheets of his branch, and send them together to the superintendent.

13. Statements of account will be rendered monthly as far as practicable. Balances due the department must be settled by the tenth of each month; settlement will be made with owners at the earliest practicable date thereafter. The superintendent shall deduct 10 per cent as an equivalent for office work and the labor employed by him to facilitate the affairs of his department. The superintendent shall refuse the exchange to any member or branch not settling accounts promptly when due, and shall report the delinquent to the trustees at the expiration of thirty days.

14. The superintendent shall, as far as possible, pass upon the genuineness of all stamps that may be put upon the exchange circuits. All stamps considered counterfeit or reprint (with the exception of reprints sold by the government originally issuing them, and receivable for postage at the time of their sale) by the superintendent shall be removed from the sheets and returned to owner, at latter's expense, attached to a tag marked "counterfeit," and he shall also notify the counterfeit detector of the existence of such specimen, and, on the square on the sheet, he shall mark the words, "Removed by exchange superintendent." When a government reprint, receivable for postage at the time of its issue, is found on a sheet he shall stamp the word "reprint" below the square on the sheet.

15. The trustees shall decide upon all cases of misunderstanding that may arise in this department.

16. The superintendent of exchange shall give bond to the trustees in the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars.

17. All regulations relating to the exchange department, not provided for in this constitution, must receive the approval of the board of trustees before going into effect.

SEC. 7—MANAGER OF AUCTION SALES. The manager of auction sales shall receive from members consignments of stamps, accompanied by return postage, with the reserve price marked thereon intelligibly; but if the lot is to be sold without reserve it shall be so stated on the lot. When he shall have no less than fifty lots he shall cause to be published in the official journal a list, giving full particulars, with reserve price, or if there be no reserve, to state "no reserve." The manager shall state where bids are to be sent, and when to be closed. The members shall then send bids for each entire lot, not for each stamp in the lot. He shall notify the members who bid the highest, thereby securing the lot (provided the bid is above the reserve, if any reserve), and they shall immediately remit the full amount for purchase, and stamps will be forwarded to them. If a member fails to pay within ten days of receipt of the notification of his purchase what is owed by him, the member whose bid is next highest shall be considered the purchaser (provided his bid is above the reserve, if any reserve), and so notified; and further, the delinquent shall be debarred from bidding at other sales, unless he shall satisfy the manager or the society of his delinquency. The manager shall remit to the owners of the stamps the amount received for them, less ten per cent commission. The lots not sold shall be returned to the owners free of charge. Any lots that are returned for proper reasons, the money paid for the same will be refunded if the lots are returned within five days from receipt, in the same condition as when received. All receipts to be turned into the treasury, less the expenses, every June and December, with full report, which shall be published in the official journal.

SEC. 8—THE ATTORNEY. The attorney shall try to collect all outstanding debts of the members of the society that may be placed in his hands for collection. Each case, when placed in his hands, must be accompanied by an itemized statement and a full report, stating the number of requests made and answers received. All the legitimate expenses of collection shall be borne by the claimants, and on all debts collected there shall be a charge of ten per cent: but there shall be no charge less than ten cents. In June and December the attorney shall turn into the treasury of the society all receipts, less expenses accompanied by vouchers, and shall send to the secretary a full report, which shall be published in the official journal.

SEC. 9—PURCHASING AGENT. The purchasing agent shall conduct the purchasing business of the society. He shall attend all auction sales held in the city in which he resides, and shall appoint such assistants in other cities as may be necessary, to attend auction sales. All such appointments shall be subject to the approval of the president of the society. The purchasing agent shall make such arrangements as desired by members to obtain at lowest possible cost all new issues as they appear, of stamps, postal cards, envelopes, etc., no member to receive more than three copies of each specimen. There shall be a charge of five per cent above the cost of obtaining specimens, to members, which shall be turned into the treasury of the society at the close of each fiscal year or term of office; and reports shall be published from time to time in the official journal, of the business which shall be done by the purchasing agent and his assistants.

SEC. 10—COUNTERFEIT DETECTOR. The counterfeit detector shall determine as far as he can the genuineness of all postage stamps, postal cards and envelopes sent to him by the members. All lots sent for determination shall be accompanied by return postage. He shall make a collection of counterfeit stamps, postal cards and envelopes, which may accrue to the society. He shall notify the members, through the official journal, of all such counterfeits as soon as they may come to his knowledge, as he shall also keep a record of the same.

SEC. 11—INTERNATIONAL SECRETARY. The international secretary shall conduct all foreign correspondence for the society, and shall assist the secretary and purchasing agent in such correspondence when called upon to do so.

SEC. 12—TRUSTEES. The trustees shall meet at least once each month, and shall from time to time publish through the official journal the proceedings, unless for important reasons it shall be deemed necessary to withhold the same. They shall perform such duties as are required of them by this constitution, the society, or any which by their nature usually fall to such officers.

ARTICLE VII—OFFICIAL JOURNAL.

SEC. 1. The official journal of the society shall be the Collector, published at New Chester, Adams county, Pennsylvania, by the Collector Publishing Company.

SEC. 2. The publishers shall send to every member of the society one copy of the official journal each month, as published, for which they shall receive the sum of fifteen cents per year from the society for each member therein.

SEC. 3. The official journal shall be mailed not later than the 15th of each month.

ARTICLE VIII—DUES.

SEC. 1. The dues of this society shall be twenty-five cents per year, payable on the first day of January, in advance. The fiscal year shall commence on the first of January. All new members who shall be elected between the first of January and the first of June shall pay ten cents initiation fee, and twenty-five cents for dues. All who shall be elected between the first of June and the first of January shall pay ten cents initiation fee, and three cents a month for dues to next January 1st. In case any member fails to settle his account within thirty days from time due, the treasurer shall notify such delinquent member through the official journal, and unless dues are paid within thirty days thereafter his name shall be dropped from the roll, unless otherwise ordered by the official board.

ARTICLE IX—PROPERTY.

SEC. 1. All officers shall, at the expiration of their term of office, deliver to their successors all books, papers, moneys, and other property in their possession, belonging to the society; and they shall not be relieved from their bonds or obligations until this requirement be complied with.

ARTICLE X—BRANCH SOCIETIES.

SEC. 1. Establishment of branch societies shall be encouraged in every locality containing five or more stamp collectors. Every member of each branch must be a member of the Sons of Philatelia, as prescribed for by this constitution.

SEC. 2. The secretary, or any person duly elected or appointed of each branch society, shall be sent exchange sheets for inspection of members of that branch.

SEC. 3. Branch societies are allowed to retain sheets and covers two days for each member, and two days to make up the account, but in no instance shall any branch hold such sheets and covers more than thirty days. A fine of ten cents a day shall be imposed for each day the exchanges are kept over the allotted time.

ARTICLE XI—AMENDMENTS.

SEC. 1. This constitution can be altered or amended only by the assent of two-thirds of all the members in good standing.

SEC. 2. The vote shall be by ballot, under the direction of the trustees, or in open convention.

ARTICLE XII—BY-LAWS.

SEC. 1. Any by-laws of this society, not in conflict with this constitution, may be made or amended by the official board. But in case thirty members shall object to the proposed by-law or amendments, it must be submitted to a general vote, as provided in Art. 6, Sec. 1.

SEC. 2. It shall require the assent of a majority of the society to make, amend or alter any by-laws in convention.

SEC. 3. In all cases where an election or general vote of the society becomes necessary under this constitution or the by-laws, not less than thirty days shall intervene between the date of mailing the notice of such election or vote and the date of closing the polls.

INK DROPS.

TO KNOW WHAT IT IS —

IS TO WANT IT.

It is full of good ideas and suggestions, and no progressive Amateur Writer should be without it. It is illustrated with half-tone and comic cartoons each month; also contains a biographical sketch of some noted stamp collector. Nothing but pure reading matter in each number, as we DO NOT take ads. of any kind. All for 25 cents a year.

For Nebraska Collectors.

The NEBRASKA PHILATELIC SOCIETY is now a year old, and has over fifty members. It is the largest of any exclusive state society, and gives you nearly as much benefit as the national societies.

The departments, the main support of any society, are conducted in the same manner as those of the S. of P.

The Exchange Department has over 150 filled books. The Manager, Mr. L. Brodstone, of Superior, will cheerfully furnish any information in regard to its workings.

The Auction Department, under the management of H. E. Wright, of Broken Bow, is doing finely.

We also have a Library and Purchasing Department conducted by experienced collectors. The other offices are filled by earnest, capable men.

For organ, we have the Pennsylvania Philatelist, a paper second to no other society organ. It is sent free to all members.

The initiation fee is 10c., and the annual dues 25c.

The Secretary, Mr. E. W. Julian, of Crawford, will furnish any further information.

A cordial invitation is extended to all honest collectors residing in Nebraska to join.

Associated Branches in most every city of the Union, Canada, and Europe (No bluff but a positive fact.)

We do a General Collecting Business, but have opened a Philatelic Branch in connection with our regular business. We have collected accounts for many of the principal dealers, where success seemed impossible to them.

We possess a system of collecting which no other agency but ours can boast of.

Our charges for collecting are 25% on the total amount collected and a fee of 25 cents.

Special rates to Societies and large Stamp Companies.

WANTED:—Good Mexican (General Issue and Revenue) for my private collection.

S. OF P. SOUVENIR.

After Sept. 1st

I will send three varieties of our Native Cactus Seeds and one packet of the great American Soap Plant for 25 cents.

The Soap Plant is one of the most ornamental plants in existence, throwing up one to five stems of white, bell-shaped flowers, two or three inches across. It will stand any kind of treatment.

For fifty cents I will add four varieties of our native wild flowers. All hardy perennials, and sure to please.

Rooted Plants

Of any of the above for ten cents each.

Also a beautiful ornamental shrub with edible fruit for ten cents.

E. E. HUBBELL,

BROKEN BOW, NEB.
