PREFATORY NOTE.

In presenting this, THE DIRECTORY OF KENTUCKY PHILATELISTS FOR 1897, we do so assuring the reader that it is about complete.

Longer comment would be space filled for nothing, so we leave the work to speak for itself. Thanking all who have kindly aided us in its preparation, we are

Respectfully,

THE PUBLISHERS.

LOUISVILLE PHILATELIC SOCIETY.

The Louisville Philatelic Society is a branch of the S. of P. founded by H. C. Fromman, now of Ohio. At the recent election Mr. Nicholas Adler was elected President; C. H. Jenkins, Vice President; J. V. Porter, Sec.-Treas.; F. E. Wagner Ex. Sup't; T. Isert, Librarian. The Standing Committee consists of Messrs. Underwood, Pate, Dodd and Hassler.

No other State Philatelic Society contains a jollier set of members. Genuine Kentucky hospitality marks every meeting, and happy is the collector who has a night to spend in Louisville if that be the meeting night of the L. P. S.
