The

Stamp Dealers Directory.

1892. Director

Compiled and Published by

Stamp Dealer

RALPH PERKINS SPOONER,

37 West 32 Street, New York.

APOLOGY.

IN presenting my first directory of the Stamp Dealers of the United States and Canada, I desire to say a few words. Every name herein was obtained from the advertising columns of the philatelic papers of 1892. The list was carefully compiled, and I feel sure that none have been overlooked. It is my intention at present writing to make this an annual feature. I feel sure that one is acceptable to the philatelic public on account of the non-publication of anything of like nature, and the free circulation of this directory; besides bringing all who deal in stamps under one cover. One copy is distributed to each person whose name is contained within, the balance among such collectors that the publisher feels sure will benefit the advertisers. I desire to thank all who have so kindly favored me with their advertisements and feel sure that the sum expended will be fully remunerated by the replies.

Yours very truly,

RALPH P. SPOONER,

Advertising and Publishing.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

The following well known firms have tried our columns:

Mr. R. M. Miller, New Chester, Pa.

COAL VALLEY, PA., Dec., 23, 1892.

DEAR SIR:—THE WEEKLY PHILATELIST is a VERY good ad. medium, as I receive almost as many answers from it as from "Mekeel's Weekly," and almost all are cash orders. It is unequalled for the price in my opinion.

Yours Resp.

J. C. MILLER.

ST. LOUIS MO., Dec., 24, 1892.

Mr. R. M. Miller, New Chester, Pa.

DEAR SIR:—Allow us to say that our little trial ad. in your WEEKLY PHILATELIST has paid us very well, and that we intend to enlarge the space before long. We must congratulate you for showing so much enterprise and are sure that you will make it a success. Wishing you all possible success, we remain,

Very Truly Yours,
