Publishers' Preface to Fourth Edition.

A new edition of the Standard Plate Number Catalogue has been needed for several months, but it was thought advisable to complete the Omaha series and permit a number of fluctuating prices to become more settled before going to press.

Great attention has been paid to plate number collecting during the past year, mainly on account of two additional issues of unusual interest. During the summer months the postage stamps surcharged I. R. caused considerable excitement, and these as well as the regular issue of revenues are now added to the list. It was at first thought that the issue of these provisional stamps was rather limited and that their use was for a few days or weeks only, but their sale continued for months until 63,300,000 of the 1-cent, and 62,000,000 of the 2-cent stamps had been disposed of. This afforded ample opportunity for every one to lay by a few plate number strips, and especially when an effort was made they were saved in fairly large quantities. With the exception of a few scarce numbers, of which only a small supply was printed, these I. R. strips have become quite plentiful, and many fairly complete collections can now be gotten up at comparatively small cost. It was not thought advisable to list the inverted I. R. strips in the regular way, but brief mention of all numbers and positions known to exist is made.

Prices have likewise been omitted in cases where only one or two strips are known. In one instance, 442 1-cent green, no plate numbers have been found, but the records show that a few were printed.

Just before going to press news has been received that it is the intention of the authorities to overprint a certain number of the 1c, 2c, 5c and 10c U. S. stamps with the word "Cuba" as a temporary issue for that island. Plate number strips of these will no doubt be highly treasured by those who are fortunate enough to secure them, and may receive recognition in the next edition.

Just before going to press news has been received that it is the intention of the authorities to overprint a certain number of the 1c, 2c, 5c and 10c U. S. stamps with the word "Cuba" as a temporary issue for that island. Plate number strips of these will, no doubt, be highly treasured by those who are fortunate enough to receive them, and may receive recognition in the next edition.

The issues prior to 1893 have been omitted, as this portion of the catalogue remains practically unchanged and the interest in them does not warrant a new edition at the present time. However, copies of the first and third editions, the former beginning with 1847, the latter with 1890, can still be obtained from the publishers at 25 cents for the two. The supply of the second edition has been exhausted.

All prices have been revised with the greatest care, and regulated as nearly as possible, according to supply and demand.

To our many friends, especially Messrs. E. F. Gambs and M. C. Berlepsch, who have assisted us in various ways during the past year, we beg to tender our cordial thanks.

REVENUE STAMPS.

Regular Issue.

1898.

Six stamps to each Plate No. up to No. 8024; those above take eight stamps. All dollar values would require twelve, but most collectors are satisfied with one stamp, having Plate No. attached. Many collect the whole series in this manner. First price is for strip of six or eight, second for single stamp with Plate No.
