PREFACE.

The compilation of this catalogue of Canadian Revenues is undertaken, in recognition of the popular interest that is now being manifested in these worthy stamps, and the general desire for a comprehensive, yet compact, schedule of values.

The prices, which represent single specimens in fine condition, are to be considered commercially correct. They have been decided on, only after unprejudiced, deliberate inquiry into the volume of supply of and demand for each variety.

Many of the Quebec Law, New Brunswick Probate and other stamps are practically unknown in an unpunched condition. The punch-holes, which were the regular form of cancellation, cannot detract from the value of these certain stamps, nor can such cancellations be termed a defect; and the stamps so cancelled are, notwithstanding, perfectly legitimate and may be described as being in fine condition.

In this first catalogue we cater to the young and newer collectors, rather than the advanced students of the stamps, and we have omitted all varieties of paper, perforation, written surcharge, etc.

The kindly assistance of Canadian philatelists in the preparation of this list is gratefully acknowledged.

LEWIS ROBIE.

Canadian Bill Stamps.

1864.

Queen's head in upright oval facing to the left, "Bill Stamp" above, "Canada" below, value in numerals in upper corners and in straight line at bottom in words, values 1c to 9c.

Same, but head of Queen in octagonal frame instead of oval, values 10c to 50c.

The $1, $2 and $3 are same in design as the first nine stamps but a little larger.

Manitoba Law Stamps.

1877.

Full length figure of Justice holding in her right hand a pair of balances over her head, and in her left hand a sword pointing downwards. "Manitoba Law Stamp" above in two curved lines, value in numerals in lower corners; values 10c to 50c.

The $1 and $2 have the value in numerals in upper corners, "Manitoba" below this in a curved line, and "Law Stamp" in a straight line at the bottom.

There are two types of these stamps, the first having nine curves at the sides and the second only six curves.

NOTE.—Some of these stamps have been found surcharged, numbered and signed by A. Begg and also initialed by both D. Carey and E. W. Romans. They also have been seen with the various surcharges written instead of printed on the stamp.

As these are only collected by a few being more of an oddity than regular stamps, we omit them from this catalogue.

It comes in "five" sizes ranging in price from $1.15 to $4.75.

They are indispensable to collectors and dealers, and while they cost a fraction
more than any similar books
on the market, they are better
made, improved and patented.
They are coming into general use.

Send for circular descrip-
