INTRODUCTION.

THIS Second edition of the Dealer's Address Book contains about 550 names. It contains many addresses that were in the first edition but I thought it better to print them over again as many addresses have changed and many persons have retired from the stamp business since the first edition was published. This book contains the names of only LIVE dealers, persons who are actively engaged in the stamp business. While I realize this list is by no means complete, yet I think it is as complete as it is possible to make it.

Hoping this volume will meet with as kindly a reception as its predecessor, I remain

Yours truly,

The Publisher.

DECEASED.

Gremmel, Henry, Died August 24th 1897 at Rutherford, N. J. Deceased was 35 years of age at the time of his death and a prominent stamp dealer of New York City.

Green, Thompson L., Died November 6th 1897 at his home in Mt. Olivet, Ky. Deceased was in his 59th year at the time of his death. He was a prominent dealer and was nearly unanimously elected Exchange Manager of the P. S. of A.

He will be sadly missed from among our ranks.

Tiffany, John K., Mr. Tiffany was not, strictly speaking, a dealer, but he was the most famous collector of the United States and in him Philadelphia lost one of the truest friends she ever had.

Mr. Tiffany died at his home in St. Louis early in April 1897.

REVIEW OF 1897.

Probably the greatest surprise of last year was the collapse of the C. H. Mekeel Stamp and Publishing Company of St. Louis, Mo. This firm was among the largest stamp concerns in America.

Following this came a double surprise—the find of Nova Scotia remainders and the news of the burning of all remainders of Hawaiian stamps at Honolulu. The face value of the stamps burnt aggregated $100,000.

After this came the Carion matter relating to the unpaid letter stamps of Cochin Chine.

In August came the sad news of the death of John K. Tiffany. The London Philatelic Exhibition was held in August and was opened by H. R. H. The Duke of York.

The U. S. P. O. D. brought suit against the Walter S. Scott Stamp Co. of New York for unlawfully having Newspaper stamps in their possession. The case has not yet been brought to trial.

Of the new issues last year, probably the Jubilee Issue of Canada was the most important.

Canada's example was followed by other countries and colonies.

Taken as a whole last year was a prosperous one among the stamp "Fiends" and the indications are that this year will be fully as prosperous if not more so.
