Entertainment.

Our program for this year has been considerably re-arranged from time to time. Mr. H. E. Deats, who was to have entertained us last month, exchanged dates with Mr. Joseph S. Rich and will therefore exhibit his wonderful collection of Confederate States stamps at this meeting. This is believed to be the best all-round collection of Confederate States ever gathered together, and Mr. Deats is unquestionably the highest authority. He will give us a talk in connection with the exhibit, and we are thus doubly sure that the evening will prove extremely interesting to all who can attend. Invite your collecting friends to come with you and see what we are doing.

The October Meeting.

The 139th regular meeting was held in Elks' Hall on Tuesday evening, Oct. 18, at 8 o'clock. President Rothfuchs occupied the chair and 31 members and friends were present.

The minutes of the September meeting were read and approved.

The Library Committee reported that quite a number of papers which were on last year's magazine circuit have never been turned in. Someone is very negligent; are you sure YOU have none of the missing copies? (See appended list.)

The Committee also asked for an ordinary and a de luxe copy of the Siam book, and a copy of the Catalogue of Books on Philately in the Boston Public Library to place in our private library.

The President called attention to the fact that according to Art. XI, Sec. 1 of our Statutes, any person proposed for membership at this and the November meeting shall make his first payment of annual dues for the fiscal year beginning with the January 1905 meeting. "Walk right up, gentlemen; one price admits you to everything."

The following were elected to membership:—

No. 404. S. A. Chevalier, Allston, Mass.

No. 405. Calvin C. Brackett, Boston, Mass.

The President said it was again time to consider a program for the ensuing year. On motion by the Secretary it was voted to appoint an Entertainment Committee for 1905. The President appointed Messrs. M. H. Lombard, E. M. Carpenter and W. O. Wylie.

Mr. Batchelder then introduced the guest of the evening, Mr. Jos. S. Rich of New York. Mr. H. E. Deats was to exhibit his Confederates at this meeting, but was unable to come and Mr. Rich kindly exchanged dates with him. Mr. Rich brought his magnificent collection of U. S. Telegraph stamps, concerning which he is an eminent authority, and read a very interesting paper on the subject, treating not alone of the stamps and franks exhibited but also giving much of the history and workings of the various companies represented.

At the close of the talk a rising vote of thanks was given Mr. Rich.

Mr. Loring desired a copy of the Revenue Book, published by the Society some time ago, for our private library. Mr. Carpenter said he would furnish one and also said that members of the Society could obtain a copy if desired for $2.00, the regular price being $3.00.

Adjourned at 9.25 P. M.

C. A. Howes, Secretary.
