PUBLISHER'S NOTICE.

IN presenting this Book to the public, it is with a firm belief that it is up to the standard set for it, and that it will prove to be as good or better than we stated. Errors are bound to creep into such a work, but we think very few will be found in it. This is not a complete list of every Philatelic Literature Collector, but comes very close to it, and about as close as can be gotten, as we have spared no expense in obtaining these names.

This Book has been a great success and the public may look for a fine one in 1898, giving size of Library, number of years a Literature Collector, Age, etc., making a regular Literature Collector's Blue-book.

With thanks to one and all who have helped us in this work, we present it for your consideration.

Very respectfully,

THE PUBLISHER.

A Rarity Indeed!

Fac-simile copy of N. Y. Herald, Apr. 15, 1865.

✻ Contains a full account of the assassination and death of Abraham Lincoln, Jeff. Davis' Proclamation, Evacuation of Richmond, Particulars of Battle of Petersburg, Surrender of Appamatox, etc. These copies are really old and timeworn, having been reprinted 12 years ago. A large no. found their way to a paper mill in a neighboring village and were converted into pulp but I secured a few hundred and while they last can offer them at 10c each, 3 for 25c. Address philately papers in United States and Canada. Preserve this list and save money on subscriptions and subscribe to Z's papers only. The above was not meant for a price list at all. Our prices were put in so that anyone wishing to subscribe could do so at the benefit of our rates. Above prices always good.

Philatelic Literature Collectors Should find the . . .

Boston Stamp Book

ONE of the most attractive of publications. Its contents are of sterling worth, and almost half of its numbers are already scarce. I will pay the price of a year's subscription to anyone sending me a file of Vol. I, and it is not beyond the bounds of probability that I shall make a similar offer for Vol. II within a year. It will pay you to subscribe to the

Boston Stamp Book.

Mr. Moses B. Page, the publisher of this paper is authorized agent of the B. S. B., and remittances can be sent right to him. Just enclose 50c when sending your bids. (Either new sub. or renewal) Don't Forget!
