INTRODUCTION.

In view of the enormous number of stamps now in existence and the thousands of new ones which are issued every year, the dealer as well as the collector has been almost discouraged. The dealer with the enormous amount of capital necessary to keep his stock up to date and the collector, the almost impossible task of completing even a few pages of his album. No sooner has one country been made complete than he is confronted by an entirely new issue; hence the collector in recent years has become a specialist, confining himself to certain countries, or to stamps issued up to a certain date, say 1900. Then again others have commenced with the new century and the albums issued commencing with this year have had a large sale.

In the United States the collector naturally leans to the stamps issued by our own government and those stamps for which an album has been provided, have always been the most in demand. In the past, however, spaces only have been provided for Postage and Revenue stamps because illustrations of these are not permitted and the most interesting and beautiful of all our stamps, the Private Proprietary, Match, Medicine, Perfumery, etc., stamps have been collected in blank albums only. Nearly every collector runs across some of these stamps occasionally, and for years there has been a growing demand for an album for them. It was this demand that prompted me to undertake the publication of the "Revenues and Private Proprietary Stamps of the U. S." and the annexed testimonials from the leading collectors all over the country tell how far I have succeeded. When I started in on this work my expectation was to expend some ten to twelve hundred dollars; suggestions, however, came from all over and the undertaking broadened out until I expended nearly $5,000.00 before I was in possession of the first finished album.

TESTIMONIALS

FLEMINGTON, N. J.

R. GEO. J. CARTER,

Dear Sir:—I am in receipt of a copy of your new album for revenue stamps, which in my opinion is by far the most complete and best arranged album yet published for any class of stamps. Looking through it I am sorry that I once attained completeness and sold my collection. I still have some duplicates and propose mounting them in the album, but do not expect to take them up again. There are a number of minor criticisms to be made, but there is no use in making them now, but I will serve them until you get out a new edition, as they are comparatively unimportant.

Very truly,

H. E. DEATS,

THE DUROY & HAINES COMPANY.

SANDUSKY, OHIO.

R. GEO. J. CARTER,

Dear Sir:—I have your favor of the 17th inst. before me. Enclosed please find my check in payment for the album received last week. I can honestly say that it is the best work of its kind and the most complete album I ever saw, and I am proud to own such. I prize it very highly, and I would not know that I have begun to transfer my stamps, part with it for any consideration. It is very comprehensive and complete in every detail and should be in especial favor amongst the stamp collectors. I am proud to say that I am the possessor of, with the exception of a very few, a complete collection of Internal revenues and Matches. I remain,

Yours truly,

E. J. HAINES.

80 Broadway, New York, May 19th, 1905.

R. GEO. J. CARTER, ESQ.,

My Dear Mr. Carter:—The long-heralded Proprietary Stamp Album was received this week, and I desire to congratulate you on the outcome of your arduous labors. It is certainly a most fitting repository for the "handsomest fiscal stamps in existence" and should greatly stimulate their collection.

Yours truly,

H. E. ROBINSON.

57 Broad Street, NEW YORK.

GEO. J. CARTER, ESQ.,

Dear Sir:—I am highly pleased with your new U. S. Revenue Album. It is the finest thing ever issued in the stamp collector's line, and will most assuredly add to the number of collectors of U. S. Revenues. The accuracy of detail in the accompanying catalogue is splendid, and can guide, in connection with the designs in the album, a perfect novice to mount a stamp in the correct space.

You deserve the thanks and the patronage of every philatelist, and every one should have a copy. Please send me another copy of the Edition de Luxe. I shall use two for my collectors.

Yours very truly, CLARENCE H. EAGLE.

FRIEND CARTER:

DENVER, COLO.

Album received. It exceeds my expectations. I have been a collector of and writer on U. S. Revenues ever since I began collecting in '95 and in my opinion you have achieved a monumental success. Never before has an album contained space for all four varieties of paper, and classification according to Scott's Standard catalog. For the first time we have illustrations of private proprietaries, and though many of these are practically unattainable, there are thousands of collectors all over the land who have never seen the great rarities. How much better than to have a drawing in the square allotted to one of these, than the chilling blank white space. This feature alone should sell your album on sight. Collectors have labored under the disadvantage of no adequate album for nearly a quarter of a century, and your album with all its new features and additions, its completeness and style, together with its left hand page arrangement should make it indispensable to all U. S. stamp collectors.

CHAS. A. NAST.

MY DEAR MR. CARTER,

BIRDSBORO, PENNA

The Revenue Album has eventually arrived on Wednesday last and it certainly is a thing of beauty and believe it will bring joy to every collector who possesses one. I have not been able as yet to fully examine it, but as I casually glanced through it. I was struck with the fact that you placed the 1898 issue following the Third Issue of Revenue and then after the 1899 issues 1871-75 Proprietary issue. Enclosed find check for balance due on album.

Yours truly,

GEORGE HETRICH, M. D.

ALBUM

The album contains spaces for every imperforate and perforated Revenue stamp mentioned in the Standard Catalogue and a great many not listed.

Every variety of stamp is sufficiently illustrated so as to enable even the beginner to determine with certainty the location of the stamp.

Every space has the number (according to Standard Catalogue), kind of paper, mode of separation, etc., printed thereon.

In the section for the Private Proprietaries spaces are provided for every known variety of paper.

Blank pages are liberally provided for those who collect part perforated, silk paper varieties, shades, blocks, etc.

The 1898 issue of Revenues are listed and spaces provided for all the varieties of roulette and part roulette.

The Match and Medicine wrappers are arranged separately.

The stamps printed, but never placed in use, have separate classification.

Quite a few varieties hitherto unlisted in any work are listed and made public for the first time.

CATALOGUE

¶ The catalogue which is bound separately is the most complete ever issued, and gives fullest information and most minute details as to part perforated Revenues, variety of paper, shifted die varieties, trammarines, etc.

¶ Gives Standard Catalogue number of every stamp. Also exact measurement of every stamp in millimetres.

¶ Gives full particulars of the part Roulettes etc., of the 1898-1901 issue.

¶ Gives every variety of paper in the Match and Medicine, size and description of every stamp, explains die varieties, and much information hitherto unpublished. Gives a list of 1898 St. Louis provisionals, etc.

¶ The publisher has been guided by the suggestions of all the leading philatelists, and the best of these have been incorporated into the work.

PLAYING CARD STAMPS.

The attention of all collectors is called to the following notes before ordering from this list This list will be mailed on the same day to every collector whose address I now have. I can supply at prices quoted every stamp priced herein so that if you order promptly you will get what you order instead of a letter saying it is out of stock.

I have only one specimen of many stamps quoted so kindly do not ask for same "on approval." I may have a chance to sell the stamp you want to some one else—but any stamp not satisfactory may be returned within 3 days and your money refunded at once—you will not be asked to wait or take something else. In view of the fact that these stamps were used on boxes and bottles and in many cases stuck on with glue—the same perfection must not be looked for as in postage stamps.

Except in a few cases (remainders, etc.) mint or absolutely perfect specimens are impossible to get. A slight tear or crease does not deter the enthusiastic Collector from placing same in his collection—especially the "hard to get" kind.

The prices quoted are for "good" to "fine" specimens—and the best copy in stock will invariably be sent—therefore the first order will get the best copy.

Some stamps while known to exist are simply unobtainable hence I quote no price. Where a price is quoted I have the stamp in stock—otherwise three stars xxx are given and I shall be pleased to buy or correspond with anyone having any for sale.

My stock of these stamps is probably larger than all other dealers combined—and the prices quoted are as near actual value as it is possible to make them.

The prices quoted herein are absolutely nett, and no other concern in the world can furnish half of the stamps quoted.

Price List of U. S. REVENUES

On following pages I offer my stock of United States Revenues at nett prices—no discount to anyone.

I have a very large stock of these stamps on hand and can supply by return mail any stamp quoted herein—It is advisable to send your order promptly—as I send the finest specimen I have in stock to the first customer.

The Standard Catalogue has been and is still used by dealers and collectors as a basis of value—no matter what price is quoted by the Scott Co.—small dealers have and always will offer anywhere from 25 to 90 per cent. discount, and the Collector frequently does not stop to think that in one case the price quoted is for a fine specimen (Scott) while the offer at 50 per cent by the small dealer may mean anything.

The prices quoted herein are fine full specimens.

NOTE—The prices in first column are Catalogue prices, the last column are my prices—absolutely nett.
