BAPCHILD,

SITTINGBOURNE,

KENT,

June 1st, 1893.

DEAR SIR OR MADAM,

Owing to my increasing trade in English Postage, Telegraph, and Fiscal Stamps, and further to the extra duties involved by the Fiscal Philatelist and Revenue Stamp Guide, I have disposed of my General Business, and resigned my position as Postmaster, and on the 10th of JUNE next it is my intention to conduct my New Philatelic Business at 186, West Green Road, Tottenham.

In English Stamps, both Postage and Fiscals, I have made a speciality for some years now, and always keep a well-selected stock on hand.

I have a very large and superior assortment of Foreign and Colonial Stamps, both Postage and Fiscal. Inspection invited.

Although it is my intention to devote the whole of my time to my Philatelic Trade, I shall continue to add to my own Collection of Fiscals which I shall be pleased to show to any who are interested in this Branch.

Thanking you for your past favours, and soliciting the continuance of your esteemed commands which shall have my most prompt attention.

I am,

Your obedient Servant,

Walter Morley.
