N. B.—In making sale of them in quantities other than as above set forth, it is expected Postmasters will evince a due spirit of accommodation, but they are not required to lose the fractions of a cent; and if a Postmaster cannot make change, the purchaser must tender the exact amount for the number required.

See sections 187 and 188, Regulations of 1866, relative to "request envelopes," (section 187 has been modified to read five hundred in place of one thousand;) and section 189 relative to the redemption of postage on stamped envelopes spoiled in directing.

A. N. ZEVELY,
Third Assistant Postmaster General.
