PREFACE.

In offering this Seventh Edition Catalogue to our numerous patrons, we take the opportunity to tender thanks for favors already extended us, and to ask a continuance of them, promising that the same care and promptness in filling orders, that has gained us a reputation in the past, will be observed in the future. The desire on the part of very many collectors to possess varieties of perforation, where they exist, has prompted us to include them in this edition. It is the first attempt to make the distinction in an American Catalogue, and we trust the effort will meet the approval of collectors generally. Every year an advance is made in this country toward a more systematic collection and arrangement of stamps, and the time is not far distant when the "American School" will take its place beside the French and English. Just what the term "American School" will mean a few years hence it is difficult now to say, but certainly the body of collectors here is large and influential enough to map out a plan of collection distinctly American and common sense; and it is in aid of such a movement that this catalogue is dedicated by the author.

I. W. DURBIN.

Philadelphia, December, 1879.

NOTICES.

The first column gives the intrinsic value of the stamp and the figures which follow refer to the type which may be found amongst the illustrations. The column headed "New" gives the prices of unused stamps, and that headed "Used" of cancelled specimens.

We have a large stock of stamps, both used and unused, and are constantly receiving others, but it is impossible, at all times, to keep every one mentioned in this Catalogue, and correspondents, when ordering, are requested to send a list of double the number or value of stamps wanted. For instance, if it is desired to purchase to the value of one dollar, make a list of stamps that will amount to two dollars, and we will send from it, in the order in which they are named, to the value of one dollar. Money sent for stamps not in stock will be returned unless otherwise ordered.

Every stamp sold is warranted genuine, and a written guarantee to that effect will be given whenever desired.

Collectors who want but one variety of the same stamp, can, by aid of the illustrations, select the cheaper one and order accordingly.
