Catalogue of American Stamps and Postcards, INCLUDING U. S. REVENUES.

One of the great disadvantages of all other standard catalogues is their large size, which prevents them being carried constantly about the person. To obviate this long-felt want, we have published the above book in a size small enough to be inserted in the coat pocket, thereby enabling collectors to have at hand a book of reference. This catalogue is by far more complete than any yet published, as it gives the perforations of stamps as well as water-marks, is well illustrated, and also includes postal cards, which have lately sprung into favor, and is up to date, giving all new issues up to December 1, 1892.

Prices : Paper covers, 10c.; flexible cloth, 25c.; French leather, 50c.

ALL POST FREE.

APPROVAL SHEETS.

One of the best methods of purchasing stamps for a collection is by having selections sent on approval at stated times, and as the variety is usually large, the collector can select just the specimens he needs for his collection, examining their condition, perforations, cancellations, water-marks, etc. The approval sheet department of our business is one of its main features, and one which we give the most care and attention, and the result has been that we have brought it up to a high point of proficiency, and not excelled by any of our competitors. Owing to our extensive foreign connections, we are enabled to procure stamps considerably cheaper than any firm located in the inland cities, and through these facilities are enabled to sell considerably lower than any other firm. In selling cheap we do not, however, sacrifice quality or variety, as, no matter how advanced the philatelist is, we are in a position to supply his wants; but to the average collector, and the one who has not the means to procure the great varieties, do we pay the most attention to.

To receive stamps on approval from us, send us an application accompanied by a good reference. Don't use a postal card, as we invariably throw them aside, and don't simply say A. P. A. or S. of P. so and so. It may be a privilege to be members of these societies, but it is not always a certificate of character. Accompanying the reference state the size of your collection and about what price stamps you want, and from what countries you wish to complete. Our specialty is American stamps, and of these we handle immense quantities, as most collectors prefer these countries. Stamps from European countries, except rarities, we seldom can make up separate selections of, as these stamps are too common, and a fair collection can be purchased in one of our numerous packets and sets.

If the reference is satisfactory, a selection will be sent you, which you are allowed to keep ten days; but should you desire to keep same longer, a postal should be sent us stating the reason the stamps are desired for a longer time. Three weeks is the longest time we allow for sheets to be out on approval, and we positively insist upon these rules being complied with.

COMMISSIONS.

We have four distinct classes of approval sheets, and therefore allow various discounts. On our agents' sheets, which consist of stamps which we have in great quantity, and which we price very low, we allow 50 per cent. commission. These sheets are very desirable, and many bargains are found on them. For stamps of a better grade we allow 33 $\frac{1}{3}$  per cent. commission; the prices that the stamps are marked at are often lower than catalogue quotations. For rare stamps, new issues and provisionals, we allow 25 per cent. For advanced collectors and those wanting net sheets, we have a separate assortment of many thousand varieties, and at very low prices.

We trust that many of those who are dissatisfied with the sheets they receive from other houses will give ours a trial, and we are confident that we can give satisfaction.

As self-praise is not a recommendation, we append a few testimonials from those who have had our sheets and are competent to speak :

The Post Office,

AN ILLUSTRATED PHILATELIC MONTHLY.

IT is safe to say that no paper which has been published in the past few years has so quickly sprung into public favor. Scarcely 18 months old, it has a guaranteed circulation of over 3,500 copies per month, which can be verified at any time. No boasting figures have ever been used in regard to circulation. We have at various times circulated 10,000 or more of one issue, but we never claim that much circulation, as some rivals do. The literary portion of the paper has always been in competent hands in the editorship of Alvah Davison, and while we have not bored the collector with long scientific articles, reading matter for advanced philatelists has been published and will be continued. As an advertising medium it is unexcelled, and many testimonials have been received from advertisers. The subscription price is low; the advertising rates are also within the reach of every dealer.

TESTIMONIALS.

Your journal has brought me some excellent customers, and I heartily commend it to philatelic advertisers. W. H. BRUCE, Hartford, Conn.

The POST OFFICE which you sent me is one of the nicest and neatest stamp journals I ever saw. O. S. ATTERHOLZ.

I am more than pleased with the POST OFFICE, and like it better than any of the other philatelic journals I take. JACOB A. SCHINDEL.

My name is already on your list of subscribers for two years' subscription in advance, and I take every opportunity to recommend the POST OFFICE to my friends. H. H. BRANDHOLZ, U. S. A.

PRIZE PACKET.

PACKET No. 29.

Price $10,

CONTAINS 1000 STAMPS
OF ALL NATIONS.

Price, with Album, 10, post free.

All Packets are made up in my own office and contain postage stamps only (no locals, revenues or postals), and every stamp is perfect, clean and genuine. By looking over the list of purchasers published in the Post Office it will be seen that dealers as well as collectors have bought two to four packets at a time, thus showing that there must be money in them.

They contain many desirable stamps, and these are a few of them: Argentine provisional, Brazil 1000r., Br. Honduras 1891, Costa Rica and Ecuador revenues used for postage, and many rare stamps of Mexico, Central and South America and the West India Islands, Nicaragua 1890 complete, 30 varieties, Native India, Salvador 1891, a fine set of Newfoundland, Hawaii envelopes, Santander 10c. Besides the ones mentioned, it contains one of the finest lots of U. S. stamps and departments, such as Navy, etc.

No other dealer is able to duplicate this packet at the same price. Besides the 1,000 all different stamps, we give with every packet a $2.50 album (10th edition or J. W. Scott's Best), and with every 5th packet a $5 album free.

NOTE.—Parties who don't wish a $2.50 album and prefer a better book we allow them the $2.50 off the one they order, and those not wishing an album at all can order $2.50 worth of other stamps out of this list, or select $2.50 worth of stamps off our very fine approval sheets. All purchasers' names of this package are published in the Post Office, the best United States philatelic monthly.

A Few Testimonials in regard to Packet 29.

NEW YORK, Feb. 6, 1892.

MR. HENRY GREMMEL.

DEAR SIR:—Your Packet No. 29 has given me great satisfaction, its general excellence and the number of rare and high-price stamps therein making it fully worth its price. I have selected $5 worth from your sheets, and these, together with the packet, is one of the best purchases I have made this winter. Yours respectfully,

CHARLES W. GREVNING.

MR. HENRY GREMMEL.

DEAR SIR:—I received your stamps all right (Packet 29), and they are the finest lot of stamps I have ever seen, being the lightest canceled and free from rubbish, no clipped or torn in the lot. Yours truly,

GEO. O. GREENE.

I received your packet of 1,000 varieties, and it is the best I ever bought.

H. J. DINGMAN.

The packet panned out to my expectations, which were high.

GEO. HARTLEY.

I received your Packet No. 29. It is a dandy. Enclosed find $30; please send me three more of them.

HENRY MIEHE.

Dozens of other letters I could publish, but this space does not permit it.
