INTERNATIONAL

STAMP

COLLECTORS' DIRECTORY.

1882.

PRICE TWENTY-FIVE CENTS.

NEW YORK:

J. T. HANDFORD,
Compiler and Publisher,

P. O. Box, 1870.

HENRY T. LUTZ,

Printer, 131 Hudson St., New York.

PREFACE.

Encouraged by the success of the first number, the compiler has now the pleasure to announce that his "Directory" may now be looked upon as an established fact, and its publication will be continued on the first day of January of each year until further notice. Of course the publisher must continue to have the united support of both dealers and collectors. New improvements will be added with each number—the present number being far superior to its predecessor. A greater number of foreign names has been added and its typographical appearance greatly improved. It is not pretended to give a complete directory, as the number of persons engaged in collecting is legion, and would make a huge and weighty volume. The chief aim of the publication is to extend correspondence among collectors of all nations, thus causing stamps to lower in price, allowing collectors of moderate means as well as those in better circumstances a better chance of indulging in this pleasant and instructive pastime. The support of the Philatelic Press has been very flattering, and the compiler trusts to continue to merit its approval.

The publisher is now prepared to receive applications for space in the 1883 number. The terms will be:

1	page and copy of book,	$4.00,
$\frac{1}{2}$	" " " " "	2.50,
$\frac{1}{4}$	" " " " "	1.50,
$\frac{1}{8}$	" " " " "	.75.

Special pages may now be secured. A deposit of $1.00 being required and the balance on notification of the time of closing forms. If space thus secured is not taken, the deposit is forfeited.

No claim is made that this is the best publication of its kind; that part is left to the judgement of its patrons.

J. T. HANDFORD,

COMPILER.

SEVENTH YEAR.

1882.

READ CAREFULLY.

Hints to Correspondents.

Never send coin in letters. Remittances may be made in stamps of low values of any country. When amount is over one dollar, by check, money-order, or registered letter. All letters containing money should be registered to insure their safe receipt. Those not following these directions, do so at their own risk, as I do not hold myself responsible for letters lost in transit. When writing always give full name and address. Letters of inquiry cannot be answered unless postage be inclosed. All letters answered by return mail when possible, otherwise they will come in their turn. Stamps will be exchanged only where an arrangement is entered into; but correspondents in foreign countries may send lots on approval. No Germany, France, Austria, or Gt. Britain are desired, and they need not be sent. No stamps that are rejected will be returned unless postage be inclosed, and if kept will be placed to the credit of the sender. A large floating stock in my sheet department enables a good selection to be sent on approval to parties so desiring. All orders under 50 cents require postage for return added, unless otherwise advertised.

Good, reliable agents are always desired, and to such good terms are offered. None others need apply.

J. T. HANDFORD,

P. O. Box 1870,

New York, U. S. A.

EXCHANGE.

Collectors or dealers desiring to exchange stamps may send them, on approval, with lowest exchange price, and send a large list of wants. Rejected stamps will be returned if stamps sufficient for postage be enclosed. All old issues and rare colonials are especially desired, and fair prices will be paid in exchange. Nothing common is desired and will invariably be rejected. Agents are desired everywhere, and a liberal commission will be given. Persons who mean business will find a correspondence profitable.

THE CELEBRATED

“UNIVERSAL”

POSTAGE STAMP ALBUMS.

American Edition Just Issued.

Having spaces for all adhesive Stamps, Envelope Stamps, and Post Cards issued to date, including the new issues of Guatemala, Peru, Argentine Envelopes, Panama, Antioquia, Samoa, Mozambique, Cabul, Alwur, etc., etc. Illustrated with nearly 500 engravings of rare stamps, and the Coat of Arms of all stamp issuing countries, printed on extra quality heavy paper, manufactured expressly for these Albums.

The main feature of these Albums is that guards 600-1,000 in number are distributed throughout the entire volume of each, except “A,” thereby making the Album permanent for a number of years, as supplementary leaves can at all times be obtained for new issues, the guards further prevent the cover from springing out when the book is filled.

These Albums are undoubtedly the cheapest and best ever got up anywhere, and the prices at which they are offered defy competition.

We guarantee the Albums to give satisfaction in every way or refund the money.

Always order the “American Edition,” of the Universal Postage Stamp Album, with guards distributed throughout the entire volume; can be obtained of all principal stamp dealers or will be sent post-free on receipt of price, as follows:—
