SCOTT & COMPANY, 721 Broadway.

This company has not sold out and have no successors, all statements to the contrary being the inventions of dishonest parties who are vainly endeavoring to secure part of the company's enormous trade, which they are unable to get or obtain by honorable means.

. This is the only Company that enjoys the benefit of Mr. J. W. Scott's experience and he has no connection with any other company.

RETAIL STORE

163 FULTON STREET,

Two Doors from Broadway. NEW YORK.

BUSINESS RULES.

GUARANTEE.—Every stamp and coin sold by this house is guaranteed genuine and authentic and our name will be placed on the back of any stamps sold when desired.

PLACE OF BUSINESS.—163 FULTON STREET, NEW YORK CITY, where all communications should be addressed. We have not sold out, and have no successors as has been falsely intimated by some of our more unscrupulous competitors.

J. W. SCOTT is the manager of the business and President of the Company. There is no other man of the name of Scott connected with any Postage Stamp Business in New York and any one answering to or assuming Mr. Scott's name does so with intent to defraud.

TERMS, NET CASH with order. Our prices are lower than those of any responsible dealer in the world, and as we publish all our prices we could not, even if we wished, make up for discounts allowed on common stamps by adding enough to special wants of customers to get back discounts allowed.

The only honest and sensible plan of dealing in articles of virtu is to mark all goods at lowest prices and allow no discount. Compare our prices.

SMALL ORDERS, for less than one dollar must contain stamp for return postage.

REMITTANCES can be made by check, money order or draft to the order of The J. W. Scott Co., L'd., or in unused U. S. stamps. When enclosing stamps in letter be careful to see that they are perfectly free from dampness, and do not let the letter get wet, as stamps sticking together cannot be received.

FOREIGN CORRESPONDENTS will please remit by draft on New York or London, or by bank notes or money orders. Unused stamps of lowest denomination only will be received from countries whose currency is at par with U. S. notes.

STOCK.—We have not every stamp in stock, although it is the largest and best selected in the world. Therefore, customers will greatly oblige by making all orders from catalogues for double the amount of cash enclosed.

IMMEDIATE DISPATCH.—All orders received before two o'clock filled on day of receipt.

PURCHASERS are especially requested to give full name and address with each order.

SHEETS of new issues will be sent on approval to all furnishing satisfactory references.

VALUABLE COLLECTIONS desired for spot cash. We never buy on time or give notes. That we pay higher prices than any other dealers in the world has been amply demonstrated by the number of valuable books ($1,000.00 and upwards) which we have bought during the past year, in open competition with the dealers of the world.

COINS.—As the publishers deal in coins as well as stamps, they are always prepared to exchange one against the other.

U. S. POSTAGE STAMPS

WHICH CANCELS ALL LISTS OF PRIOR DATE.

The complete catalogue of all Postage Stamps and Stamped Envelopes illustrated with pictures of the designs, diagrams of the watermarks and gauges of the various perforations employed.

Price 25c. post free.

The J. W. Scott Company Limited much regret the necessity of increasing the prices asked for many U. S. stamps. Before taking this step they entirely sold out their superb stock of Americana at the low prices for which their house is noted, and although husbanded with great care and sold only to collectors their old stock finally disappeared. They steadfastly refused to sell to dealers, even at a very liberal per cent. over the retail rate, and were put to much inconvenience in overcoming the devices of traders who endeavored by every known artifice to purchase the many bargains which the house determined should be sold to collectors only. It may be that some amateurs not regular patrons of the house have been refused certain stamps owing to our mailing clerk suspecting them of being emissaries of rival dealers.

If such should prove to be the case the management sincerely regrets the mistake of its employees and trusts it will be pardoned in consideration of the well known fact that the J. W. Scott Company, Limited, is an organization of collectors for the sole benefit of collectors.

The J. W. Scott Co. Ld. commence the first of the New Year with an unparalleled stock of stamps which will be sold as usual at lower prices than prevail elsewhere, and patrons will greatly oblige by comparing prices before ordering.

Orders for less than 25c. respectfully declined. Orders under one dollar must contain stamp for reply.

Also, a few 90-cent and other rare U. S. Stamps; but it is not so much for special rarities that we commend this packet as for the general excellence of the entire collection. Price, $15.00.

NOTE.—Every stamp in this series of Packets has been examined by Mr. J. W. Scott, the great expert, and pronounced genuine.

PUBLICATION DEPARTMENT

The Metropolitan Philatelist,

The Great Exponent of the Science of Philately

AND

The Mirror of the Philatelic Societies.

This paper is original to the back bone and contains exhaustive papers on the stamps of various countries besides lighter articles of general interest to stamp collectors. Its illustrated monthly chronicle of newly issued stamps is a marvel of accuracy, painstaking research and world wide organization to bring the monthly philatelic gains of the world to the doors of every American stamp collector thus enabling him to buy with discretion and secure stamps while they are cheap. It is well within the bounds of truth to say that the careful reader of this paper will complete his collection at half the cost of an ordinary collector.

Although we already have a larger circulation than any other stamp paper ever published, there are still a few collectors who have not handed in their subscriptions and we note a few dealers who have nothing to sell and so do not advertise.

Every dealer of note advertises his bargains in this paper, an arrangement of equal benefit to collectors and dealers. The advertising rates are published in the first page.

Now is the time to subscribe and secure some of the Valuable Premiums Offered.

To any collector sending 15 subscriptions we will forward one of our $5 albums free of charge.

All collectors subscribing before April we will allow to select 50c. worth of stamps from our catalogue free.

OUR NEW

POSTAGE STAMP CATALOGUE

Of Every Stamp

IS NOW READY FOR DELIVERY.

It is positively the best ever published. It is the only catalogue that prices every stamp. Why do not other dealers price every stamp? Because they want the opportunity of buying valuable stamps at their own price. Heretofore the average collector has had no means of knowing whether an unpriced rarity in his collection was worth $10 or $100.

It has pictures of each series on the same page directly over the description of the set. The pictures are reduced in size and reproduced in outline so that they cannot be used for improper purposes which is frequently the case with stamp engravings which are sold to dealers to "illustrate catalogues." It is printed on narrow pages so that it can be carried in the pocket or sent by mail without folding. It is well bound so that it opens flat, being properly sewed, not stitched, and does not come apart after a week's usage. The prices quoted for stamps are lower than that asked by any other responsible dealer.

In one word it is the latest and best catalogue ever published.

Bound in Cloth, - - - - - 50 Cents.

One copy will be sent free to each collector sending cash order for $1.00 worth of stamps.

THE STANDARD PRICED CATALOGUE

—OF ALL—

U. S. STAMPED ENVELOPES.

This list accurately notes and describes every variety of stamped envelope that has ever been issued by the United States Government.

It is a revised edition of the celebrated list contributed to the American Journal of Philately by Mr. J. W. Scott, and while retaining the numbers by which the envelopes have become known to so many collectors, gives the corresponding numerals used by the late Mr. W. E. V. Horner, so that collectors can readily find any desired envelope by whomsoever catalogued.

Among the advantages offered by this list may be named:

IT IS FULLY ILLUSTRATED so that even young collectors will find no difficulty in properly identifying their stamped envelopes. It is printed in the popular pocket form for which this house has become famous.

It prices every variety so that henceforth there will be no difficulty in knowing the value of any envelope.

Price, 25 Cents! Post Free!

It has pictures of each series on the same page directly over the description of the set. The pictures are reduced in size and reproduced in outline so that they cannot be used for improper purposes which is frequently the case with stamp engravings which are sold to dealers to "illustrate catalogues." It is printed on narrow pages so that it can be carried in the pocket or sent by mail without folding. It is well bound so that it opens flat, being properly sewed, not stitched, and does not come apart after a week's usage. The prices quoted for stamps are lower than that asked by any other responsible dealer.

In one word it is the latest and best catalogue ever published.

THE STANDARD PRICED CATALOGUE

—OF ALL—

U. S. STAMPED ENVELOPES.

This list accurately notes and describes every variety of stamped envelope that has ever been issued by the United States Government.

It is a revised edition of the celebrated list contributed to the American Journal of Philately by Mr. J. W. Scott, and while retaining the numbers by which the envelopes have become known to so many collectors, gives the corresponding numerals used by the late Mr. W. E. V. Horner, so that collectors can readily find any desired envelope by whomsoever catalogued.

Among the advantages offered by this list may be named:

IT IS FULLY ILLUSTRATED so that even young collectors will find no difficulty in properly identifying their stamped envelopes. It is printed in the popular pocket form for which this house has become famous.

It prices every variety so that henceforth there will be no difficulty in knowing the value of any envelope.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS

On the appearance of the first Edition.

The New York Times of December 1st, 1890, says:—"A well-made volume, called the 'Best Postage Stamp Album,' has been issued by the J. W. Scott Company, Limited. To keep a stamp album within proper bounds as to size is the difficulty, and Mr. Scott, a number of years ago came nearest to the overcoming of this difficulty. Having great experience in the making of such volumes, the one now under notice possesses many advantages. Taking the stamps of the United States, it is good judgment to have made a distinction between postal and revenue stamps, and to have relegated the latter to the concluding pages of the album. There is for all countries a good space allowed for present issues and room for future ones. One capital thing is to have printed the present value of all stamps, and so troublesome researches in catalogues become unnecessary. Of course, prices vary, and the value of a stamp to-day may very much increase in the future.

The Record and Review of December 15th, 1890, Says: On opening it we find many changes for the better from Mr. Scott's 'International' album, and changes that all collectors will, we think, be as favorably impressed with as we are. The first striking improvement we notice is the maps of the geographical position of each stamp issuing country, each engraved to its correct scale, at the head of each page where the stamps are to be put, thus showing the correct relative size of each country. This fills a long felt want, and will be appreciated by parents and teachers who have to answer so many questions from young collectors as to where the different countries are, questions that frequently bother the old heads quite as much as the young ones. * * * Another striking feature in this connection, and a good one, is that Mr. Scott has placed the name of the person whose portrait is on the stamp, over the square made to receive it, so that it will always be in full view after the stamp is in its place

With the arrangements of the squares made to receive the stamps throughout the album, we fancy every one will be pleased, they are very neatly ruled, with a liberal amount of room for each stamp and a beautiful little picture in miniature of it. There is also a description of its color and denomination which will be a great help to collectors in arranging their sets, as the colors are not given in the International Album where the types were, which is very confusing.

Plain Talk (Alvah Davison) February, 1891, says: The illustrations of the various issues are about one half the size of the spaces, and they are made in outlines, so the eye is not deceived by taking them for the real stamps as they appear in the spaces. The catalogue value of each stamp is given in the space devoted to it, and the album thus combines all the good features of a stamp catalogue, while retaining its identity as an album. In albums heretofore published the different maps of the countries were printed about the same size, without regard to the size or area of the various places, but in the "Best," all maps are drawn to a scale showing the relative size, and at a glance it will be seen that China is only half the size of the United States, while Angola is hardly the size of Florida. This is a very valuable feature and one which would place the book "way up head" as a desirable album. The spaces for flags, coats of arms, etc., have been retained, and all issues brought up to date. The work appears in various bindings, the prices ranging from one dollar and a half to seven dollars and a half. It is impossible to get an album which will be able to suit all collectors, but the one which I think will suit the greatest number and which combines more desirable qualities than any other, is Mr. Scott's "Best" Album.

The Metropolitan Philatelist of January, says: One of the earliest issued of this, the newest departure in American Stamp Albums, lies before us. The general get up and appearance of the album is very attractive and effective.

We notice several new features in Mr. Scott's new Album. There are never more than two countries on the same page, and not even that number unless the series is small and the countries in the same division of the globe.

THE "CHALLENGE" ALBUM.

We claim this book to be the best ever published anywhere in the world for the money. It has more spaces, is better arranged, and in every way more suitable for a beginner's collection than any other. It has pictures of the stamps, specially arranged spaces, and illustrated with the flags of all nations, together with a fine map made expressly for this work. Notwithstanding all these advantages and the wonderfully low price at which it is sold, we have determined to offer the boys the following premiums:

To any boy properly filling this book either by exchange or with stamps purchased from us after receipt of album, we will present a $2.50 album and $2.50 worth of stamps to be selected by himself from our list.

To the first boy filling one of these books under the same conditions we will present a $5 album and $5 in stamps.

To the agent selling the largest number of these books we will present a $5.00 album and $5.00 worth of stamps.
