STAFFORD SMITH & SMITH, in issuing their new Price Catalogue of Postage Stamps, gladly avail themselves of the opportunity to thank their kind Friends for the support with which they have during the past so liberally favoured them.

In ordering Stamps from the annexed Catalogue, attention to the following is particularly requested :

Remittances under 10s. to be sent in UNCUT postage stamps of any value ; above 10s. by Post Office Order, made payable to Stafford Smith & Smith, Bath. The cost of the order may be deducted from the amount to be forwarded.

Stamp Collectors residing abroad may remit in unused Foreign postage stamps of SMALL values.

As Coin is being continually forwarded in payment for stamps, attention is requested to the following new postal regulation, extracted from the British Postal Guide :—

'All inland letters which unquestionably contain coin, even though they be posted without registration, are treated as registered, and charged on delivery with a double registration fee of eightpence in addition to the ordinary postage.'

Important to Advertisers.

THE STAMP COLLECTOR'S MAGAZINE is the best medium for Stamp Advertisements, it having a most extensive circulation amongst stamp collectors, not only in all parts of Great Britain, but on the Continent, and in the United States of America.

The following is from Mr. Pegg, 11, Holles Street, Dublin:—
'I have had more letters, both British and Foreign, through my advertisement in your publication, than from all my other advertisements.'

Mr. William Frederic Cooke, of 6, Buckland Terrace, Dover, writes as follows:—

'I have much pleasure in informing you that through my last advertisement in your magazine, I have received more answers from exalted and illustrious persons among our own as well as among the foreign nobility, than I have from any advertisement that I have inserted in other magazines for the past eight months.'

Advertisements are inserted at the rate of 6d. per line of ten words. It is requested that the full amount be always sent, as no reduction in the above rate of charges can in any case be allowed. To ensure insertion, advertisements must be received by the 10th of the month.

This Magazine will be forwarded regularly every month, to any part of the world, on receipt of the annual subscription of Four Shillings; which may be remitted in unused postage stamps of small value current in the country whence the order is received.
