STAFFORD SMITH & SMITH, in issuing their new Price Catalogue of Postage Stamps, gladly avail themselves of the opportunity to thank their kind Friends for the support with which they have during the past so liberally favoured them.

In ordering Stamps from the annexed Catalogue, attention to the following is particularly requested:

Remittances under 10s. to be sent in UNCUT postage stamps of any value; above 10s. by Post Office Order, made payable to Stafford Smith & Smith, Bath. The cost of the order may be deducted from the amount to be forwarded.

Stamp Collectors residing abroad may remit in unused Foreign postage stamps of SMALL values.

As Coin is being continually forwarded in payment for stamps, attention is requested to the following new postal regulation, extracted from the British Postal Guide:—

'All inland letters which unquestionably contain coin, even though they be posted without registration, are treated as registered, and charged on delivery with a double registration fee of eightpence in addition to the ordinary postage.'

—The literature of postage-stamp collecting seems likely to become a not unimportant feature in the neighbourhood of Petermaster Row. Instead of the mania of clipping, it appears rather to be on the increase, especially amongst numericalists. A new handbook is about to appear, with the title, The Standard Guide to Postage-Stamp Collecting, with the Values and Degrees of Rarity, a work upon which the authors, Messrs. Bellars & Davie, have been engaged for three years. It will include an account of the Mormon stamp, issued by Brigham Young in 1852. —London Review.

WARRANT TO EXECUTE CHARLES I.

An Exact Fac-simile of this Important Document in the House of Lords, with the FIFTY-NINE SIGNATURES of the Regicides, and Corresponding Seals, admirably executed on paper made to imitate the Original Document, 22 in. by 14 in.

Copied by express permission.—King Charles I., January 20th, 1648, was brought from St. James's to Sir R. Cotton's house (now the Speaker's residence), and was four days arraigned at the bar of the House of Commons by Bradshaw, and seventy-nine Judges Commissioners, named for his Trial. The original document was kept in the Old House of Peers' Library, and being saved from the Fire, was preserved in the Poets' Tower, and is now under the librarian's care at the House of Lords. Some of the Regicides died in America, while many of the children of those executed at the Restoration betook themselves to that country, and laid the foundations of many of the first families in New England. Handsomely Framed and Glazed, in Carved Oak, of an Antique Pattern, 14/6.

Now ready, price 2s.; safe by post, 2s. 4d.

WARRANT TO EXECUTE MARY QUEEN OF SCOTS.

The exact Facsimile of this Important Document, including the Signature of Queen Elizabeth and Fac-simile of the Great Seal, on tinted paper, made to imitate the original MS.

'I praise and thank my God, that it pleases Him to put an end by this to the many miseries and calamities that they have compelled me to endure: for, since nineteen years up to the present moment, I have been constituted a prisoner, and very evilly entreated by the Queen of England, my sister, without ever having injured, as God is my principal witness.—Mary's Reply to my Lord Beale, who was commissioned to inform her of Elizabeth's Sentence of Death. Handsomely Framed and Glazed, in Carved Oak, of an Antique Pattern, 14/6.

Now ready, price 5s.; safe by post, 5s. 4d.

MAGNA CHARTA.

An Exact Facsimile of the Original Document, preserved in the British Museum, very carefully drawn, and printed on fine plate paper, nearly 3 feet long by 2 wide, with the ARMS AND SEALS OF THE BARONS ELABORATELY EMBLAZONED IN GOLD AND COLOURS. A.D. 1215.

Copied by express permission, and the only correct drawing of the Great Charter ever taken. This important memorial of the liberties and rights of Englishmen is admirably adapted for framing, and would hang with propriety from the walls of every house in the country. As a guarantee to the purchaser that the fac-simile is exact, the publisher need only state that Sir Frederick Madden has permitted copies to hang for public inspection upon the walls of the Manuscript Department in the British Museum. It was executed by Mr. Harrison, under whose auspices the splendid work on the Knights of the Garter was produced some years ago. Handsomely Framed and Glazed, in Carved Oak, of an Antique Pattern, 22/6. It is uniform with the 'Roll of Battle Abbey.'

A Full Translation, with Notes, has just been prepared, price 6d. It has been very beautifully printed on a large sheet of tinted paper by Messrs. Whittingham and Wilkins. It may be framed and hung beside the original, or can be pasted at the back, according to the taste of the purchaser.

Now ready, uniform with 'Magna Charta,' price 5s.; safe by post, 5s. 4d.

ROLL OF BATTLE ABBEY; or, a LIST OF THE PRINCIPAL WARRIORS who came over from Normandy with WILLIAM THE CONQUEROR, and settled in this Country, A.D. 1066-7, from Authentic Documents, very carefully drawn, and printed on fine plate paper, nearly three feet long by two feet wide, with the ARMS OF THE PRINCIPAL BARONS ELABORATELY EMBLAZONED IN GOLD AND COLOURS.

A most curious document, and of the greatest interest, as the descendants of nearly all these Norman Conquerors are at this moment living amongst us, bearing the old Anglo-Norman names, slightly altered, but little dreaming of the relationship betwixt them and the bold warriors who fought and won at Hastings nearly a thousand years ago. The writing, of the period, is very legible. No names are believed to be in this 'Battle Roll' which are not fully entitled to the distinction. Handsomely Framed and Glazed, in Carved Oak, of an Antique Pattern, price 22/6.
