Illustrated with Fac-simile Engravings of New and Rare Stamps.

PRICE FOURPENCE MONTHLY; YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION, FOUR SHILLINGS POST FREE.

ADDRESS

On the concluding of the First Volume of the STAMP-COLLECTOR'S MAGAZINE.

The publishers of the Stamp-Collector's Magazine, on the appearance of the closing number of the first volume, have to thank their numerous subscribers, contributors, and correspondents, both in England and elsewhere, for their kind support.

The circulation of the magazine is at present considerable; and they venture to anticipate that the increasing interest now taken in the study and collection of stamps, will shortly enable them to double the number of impressions now printed off monthly.

To render the periodical still more worthy of support, and as the augmented number of advertisements often compels them to exclude much interesting matter, they purpose enlarging it in the January and succeeding issues, by the addition of eight pages.

Unused stamps will still be given with each magazine, and the engraving of newly-issued and rare specimens entrusted to the same talented artist.

Foreign Stamps Given Away.

ALL PURCHASERS OF THE STAMP COLLECTOR'S MAGAZINE ARE ENTITLED TO RECEIVE WITH THE FOURTH AND EVERY SUCCEEDING NUMBER AN UNENLARGED FOREIGN OR COLONIAL POSTAGE STAMP.

VOL. I. NOW READY,

Illustrated with nearly Sixty Engravings of newly-issued and rare Stamps. Handsomely bound in appropriate Gilt Cloth, Bevelled Boards, Gilt Edges, price 6s. post free.

All purchasers of this Volume are entitled to receive an old Sicilian, Modena, and eight other Foreign Postage Stamps.

LITERARY NOTICES.

'Very neatly printed.'—Once a Week.
'A vast fund of information.'—Parthenon.
'A literary curiosity.'—Publisher's Circular.
'The Stamp-Collector's Magazine keeps its readers au courant of the stamps newly issued.'—Wilson's Register.
'Filled with really readable and valuable information, not only to stamp collectors, for whom it is designed, but also for the general reader.'—South Eastern Times.
'Any one who wants a half-hour's amusing reading, cannot do better than buy the Stamp-Collector's Magazine—it is only a penny dearer than Punch.'—Saturday Review.
'We can cordially recommend to our readers the Stamp-Collector's Magazine. We have read the two first numbers very carefully, and with much pleasure.'—Every Day's Magazine.
'The Stamp-Collector's Magazine is got up with much taste and skill, and the contents are extremely interesting. The illustrations of the stamps used by various countries are curious and attractive. The volume is beautifully bound, and is admirably adapted for a gift-book.'—Bath Chronicle.
'We do not think that stamp collectors can have a better organ than the Stamp-Collector's Magazine. The cuts, which represent some of the rarest stamps, are very well executed; the letterpress is ingeniously written; and we must say that we have found a good deal in this first volume to amuse us.'—Both and Cheltenham Gazette.
'We have before us the first volume of the Stamp-Collector's Magazine. It abounds with curious information regarding stamps of all countries, civilized and barbarian, and is profusely illustrated with specimens of every imaginable and unimagined shape; each specimen being accompanied by the history of the stamp illustrated, and critical comments on its design, &c. The volume is well got up; the illustrations are remarkably well executed; and its external appearance is very elegant. The general reader will find in the Stamp-Collector's Magazine much to amuse and instruct.'—Both Journals.
'After scanning over the pages of the Stamp-Collector's Magazine, we must honestly confess that we had no idea so much matter of interest could have been brought together on one subject. In it we have a history of the rise and progress of postage stamps; fac-similes and descriptions of every stamp issued in every part of the world, gossip, tales, correspondence, and reviews of new works on various subjects appertaining to postage and postage stamps, and all of a similar matter; moreover, a specimen rare postage stamp is given with each number, forming altogether a literary curiosity well worth preservation as well as present reading.'—Both Express.

PREFACE.

IT is with considerable pleasure that we find ourselves so soon compelled to publish a fourth edition of our illustrated Price Catalogue. It will be observed that many improvements are made in the present issue, amongst which will be noticed the numbering of each stamp, so that by merely quoting the number of the stamp required no detail is necessary. The addition of a Money Table (for which we are indebted to our friend Mr. Mount Brown) will doubtless be found acceptable.

As unprincipled dealers are continually advertising stamps for sale at ridiculously low prices, we hope collectors will be on their guard, and not be induced to purchase stamps said to be genuine, but which are only counterfeits. All stamps here catalogued are marked at fair selling prices; and collectors may be quite sure that none but undoubtedly genuine stamps are offered for sale by us.

In ordering stamps from the annexed catalogue, attention to the following is particularly requested:

Remittances under 10s. to be sent in uncut postage stamps of any value; above 10s., by Post-Office Order, made payable to Stafford Smith and Smith, Bath. The cost of the order may be deducted from the amount to be forwarded.

Stamp collectors residing abroad may remit in unused foreign postage stamps of small values.

As Coin is being continually forwarded in payment for stamps, attention is requested to the following new postal regulation, extracted from the British Postal Guide:—

‘All inland letters which unquestionably contain coin, even though they be posted without registration, are treated as registered, and charged on delivery with a double registration fee of eightpence in addition to the ordinary postage.’

*Queen-square House,

PRÉFACE.

C'EST avec un bien vif plaisir que nous nous voyons déjà forcés de publier la quatrième édition de notre Catalogue illustré. On remarquera que plusieurs améliorations y ont été faites; entre autres, on verra que chaque timbre-poste a été numéroté, de sorte qu'à l'avenir il suffira d'indiquer le numéro du timbre requis, tout autre détail devenant superflus. Nous avons ajouté une Table des Monnaies qu'on recevra sans doute avec plaisir. Nous la devons à M. Mount Brown. Nous sommes à même de pouvoir assurer aux amateurs que tous les timbres-poste compris dans ce catalogue sont incontestablement véritables.

Comme certains marchands peu scrupuleux font continuellement annoncer dans les journaux qu' ils ont des timbres-poste à vendre à des prix excessivement bas, nous espérons que les acheteurs voudront bien être sur leurs gardes et qu' ils ne se laisseront point tenter d' acheter des timbres-poste soi-disant véritables, mais qui ne sont que des contrefaçons.

On pourra, en nous adressant des commandes de l' étranger, nous envoyer des timbres-poste étrangers de petites valeurs.

Queen-square House, Bath.

VORWORT.

Mit dem grössten Vergnügen sehen wir uns genöthigt schon die vierte Auflage unsers illustrirten Preisverzeichnisses herauszugeben. Man wird bemerken dass wir unsere gegenwärtige Ausgabe vielfach verbessert haben, vorzüglich indem wir jede Briefmarke mit einer Nummer bezeichnet haben, so dass man künftig hin nur die Nummer der gewünschten Marke anzugeben braucht. Die beigefügte Münztafel, die wir unserm Freunde Herrn Mount Brown verdanken, wird man auch mit Freude sehen. Liebhaber von Briefmarken können sich darauf verlassen dass alle Briefmarken, welche wir in unser Verzeichniss gebracht haben, unstreitig ächt sind.

Da gewissenlose Kaufleute fortwährend Briefmarken annonciren, welche sie zu spottschlechten Preisen verkaufen wollen, hoffen wir dass man sich hüten wird Marken zu kaufen, welche angeblich ächt, die aber nur nachgedruckt sind.

Die im Auslande wohnenden Sammler können, wenn sie Briefmarken aus diesem Katalog bestellen, eine Sendung von fremden Briefmarken von geringem Werthe machen.

WARRANT TO EXECUTE CHARLES I.

An Exact Fac-simile of this Important Document in the House of Lords, with the FIFTY-NINE SIGNATURES of the Regicides, and Corresponding Seals, admirably executed on paper made to imitate the Original Document, 22 in. by 14 in.

Copied by express permission.—King Charles I., January 20th, 1648, was brought from St. James's to Sir R. Cotton's house (now the Speaker's residence), and was four days arraigned at the bar of the House of Commons by Bradshaw, and seventy-nine Judges Commissioners, named for his Trial. The original document was kept in the Old House of Peers' Library, and being saved from the Fire, was preserved in the Poets' Tower, and is now under the librarian's care at the House of Lords. Some of the Regicides died in America, while many of the children of those executed at the Restoration betook themselves to that country, and laid the foundations of many of the first families in New England. Handsomely Framed and Glazed, in Carved Oak, of an Antique Pattern, 14/6.

Now ready, price 2s.; safe by post, 2s. 4d.

WARRANT TO EXECUTE MARY

QUEEN OF SCOTS. The exact Facsimile of this Important Document, including the Signature of Queen Elizabeth and Fac-simile of the Great Seal, on tinted paper, made to imitate the original MS.

'I praise and thank my God, that it pleases Him to put an end by this to the many miseries and calamities that they have compelled me to endure; for, since nineteen years up to the present moment, I have been constituted a prisoner, and very evilly entreated by the Queen of England, my sister, without ever having injured, as God is my principal witness.'—Mary's Reply to my Lord Beale, who was commissioned to inform her of Elizabeth's Sentence of Death. Handsomely Framed and Glazed, in Carved Oak, of an Antique Pattern, 14/6.

Now ready, price 5s.; safe by post, 5s. 4d.

MAGNA CHARTA.

An Exact Facsimile of the Original Document, preserved in the British Museum, very carefully drawn, and printed on fine plate paper, nearly 3 feet long by 2 wide, with the ARMS AND SEALS OF THE BARONS ELABORATELY EMBLAZONED IN GOLD AND COLOURS. A.D. 1215.

Copied by express permission, and the only correct drawing of the Great Charter ever taken. This important memorial of the liberties and rights of Englishmen is admirably adapted for framing, and would hang with propriety from the walls of every house in the country. As a guarantee to the purchaser that the fac-simile is exact, the publisher need only state that Sir Frederick Madden has permitted copies to hang for public inspection upon the walls of the Manuscript Department in the British Museum. It was executed by Mr. Harrison, under whose auspices the splendid work on the Knights of the Garter was produced some years ago. Handsomely Framed and Glazed, in Carved Oak, of an Antique Pattern, 22/6. It is uniform with the 'Roll of Battle Abbey.'

A Full Translation, with Notes, has just been prepared, price 6d. It has been very beautifully printed on a large sheet of tinted paper by Messrs. Whittingham and Wilkins. It may be framed and hung beside the original, or can be pasted at the back, according to the taste of the purchaser.

Now ready, uniform with 'Magna Charta,' price 5s.; safe by post, 5s. 4d.

ROLL OF BATTLE ABBEY; OR, A LIST

OF THE PRINCIPAL WARRIORS who came over from Normandy with WILLIAM THE CONQUEROR, and settled in this Country, A.D. 1066-7, from Authentic Documents, very carefully drawn, and printed on fine plate paper, nearly three feet long by two feet wide, with the ARMS OF THE PRINCIPAL BARONS ELABORATELY EMBLAZONED IN GOLD AND COLOURS.

A most curious document, and of the greatest interest, as the descendants of nearly all these Norman Conquerors are at this moment living amongst us, bearing the old Anglo-Norman names, slightly altered, but little dreaming of the relationship betwixt them and the bold warriors who fought and won at Hastings nearly a thousand years ago. The writing of the period, is very legible. No names are believed to be in this 'Battle Roll' which are not fully entitled to the distinction. Handsomely Framed and Glazed, in Carved Oak, of an Antique Pattern, price 22/6.
