FOREIGN POSTAL CARDS and LETTER CARDS.

Of these I carry the largest assortment of any dealer in the world and solicit orders and want lists not only from beginners, but from the most advanced collectors. Approval selections sent to reliable parties.

Postal Card Collecting is the most fascinating and least expensive of all philatelic hobbies.

HOW ABOUT CATALOGS?

They are indispensable as guides in card collecting, both as to chronological order and market values of your

POSTAL CARDS.

I carry the following publications in stock: Scott's 1898 Postal Card Catalog, the best illustrated guide ever issued, containing all issues to January 1898. Price, postpaid 25 cents.

Lohmeyer's Postal Card Reporter, No. 4, containing an illustrated supplement to the above, carrying issues to September 1899. Price 10 cents.

Senf's (German) Postal Card Catalog, a complete guide to June 1907. Price postpaid 42 cents.

Lohmeyer's descriptive Catalog of the Postal Cards and Letter Cards of Australia, 1904, Price 10 cents.

Lohmeyer's descriptive Catalog of the Postal Cards and Letter Cards of Scandinavia and Finland, 1904. Price 10 cents.

My pamphlet, explaining the advantages of Postal Card collecting, will be sent free to any address.

Price List No. 1, containing prices on some foreign cards, will be sent gratis to anyone interested.
