THE AMERICAN

STAMP COLLECTORS' DIRECTORY

1917

WERNER PTG. & LITHO. CO., AKRON-CLEVELAND, O.

To the Philatelic Public.

IN presenting to you a Directory of American Collectors, I have, as you see, taken a new course, and bring forth a plan that has, to my knowledge, never before been used on a work of this kind. Many collectors were ready and willing to aid me to the best of their ability in getting as complete data as possible. To them I wish to express my thankfulness, and trust that the appearance of this little book will let them see that our united efforts were not in vain. Instead of 1,000 names as promised, I print over 1,250. A few of these, however, failed to give size, specialty, etc., etc. Where no specialty is designated it is to be understood as a general collection, i. e., postage, revenue, and carés. Should I receive enough encouragement, a larger and better publication will be issued next year.

Yours in earnest,

CHAS. A. TOWNSEND.

The Collectors' Ledger,

A FIRST-CLASS ILLUSTRATED MONTHLY MAGAZINE, CONTAINING ARTICLES
FROM THE FOREMOST WRITERS OF THE DAY, ON

PHILATELY NUMISMATICS,
ARCHAEOLOGY,
MINERALOGY,

And the different branches of Natural History.

Each issue contains twenty or more pages and is finely ILLUSTRATED with portraits and engravings.

The LEDGER was started in 1885, and is now one of the oldest and best Collectors' papers published. It is a decided success, and new improvements are constantly being added.

Its subscription price is 35 CENTS PER YEAR to the U. S., Canada and Mexico. 50 cents to all other countries.

By those who have used its columns it is considered to be the best advertising medium extant.

"It is one of the cheapest and it ranks with the best."

H. MATHERS, Halifax, N. S.

"The LEDGER proved one, if not THE best advertising medium we have used."

R. S. HARRIS & CO., Dubuque, Iowa.

"I find that I gain and retain more customers from the LEDGER than from any other paper."

FREDERIC NOYES, Collins, Texas.

"We get more replies from our advertisement in your paper than from any one of the exclusively stamp magazines."

GRANITE STATE STAMP CO., Newmarket, N. H.

THE IMPROVED STAMP ALBUM

Is the best album ever offered to collectors ; it is the only album published suitable for a philatelist. Boys who are playing with stamps want a printed album with spaces to fill, but a collector who studies his stamps wants to arrange them to suit himself.

✻ 1888 ✻

A Directory of United States and Canadian Collectors,
Arranged in Alphabetical Order.

THE AMERICAN

STAMP COLLECTOR'S DIRECTORY

WERNER PTG. & LITHG. CO., AKRON-CLEVELAND, O.

To the Philatelic Public.

IN presenting to you a Directory of American Collectors, I have, as you see, taken a new course, and bring forth a plan that has, to my knowledge, never before been used on a work of this kind. Many collectors were ready and willing to aid me to the best of their ability in getting as complete data as possible. To them I wish to express my thankfulness, and trust that the appearance of this little book will let them see that our united efforts were not in vain. Instead of 1,000 names as promised, I print over 1,250. A few of these, however, failed to give size, specialty, etc., etc. Where no specialty is designated it is to be understood as a general collection, i. e., postage, revenue, and carés. Should I receive enough encouragement, a larger and better publication will be issued next year.

Yours in earnest,

CHAS. A. TOWNSEND.

The Collectors' Ledger,

A FIRST-CLASS ILLUSTRATED MONTHLY MAGAZINE, CONTAINING ARTICLES
FROM THE FOREMOST WRITERS OF THE DAY, ON

PHILATELY NUMISMATICS,
ARCHAEOLOGY,
MINERALOGY,

And the different branches of Natural History.

Each issue contains twenty or more pages and is finely ILLUSTRATED with portraits and engravings.

The LEDGER was started in 1885, and is now one of the oldest and best Collectors' papers published. It is a decided success, and new improvements are constantly being added.

Its subscription price is 35 CENTS PER YEAR to the U. S., Canada and Mexico. 50 cents to all other countries.

By those who have used its columns it is considered to be the best advertising medium extant.

"It is one of the cheapest and it ranks with the best."

H. MATHERS, Halifax, N. S.

"The LEDGER proved one, if not THE best advertising medium we have used."

R. S. HARRIS & CO., Dubuque, Iowa.

"I find that I gain and retain more customers from the LEDGER than from any other paper."

FREDERIC NOYES, Collins, Texas.

"We get more replies from our advertisement in your paper than from any one of the exclusively stamp magazines."

THE IMPROVED STAMP ALBUM

Is the best album ever offered to collectors ; it is the only album published suitable for a philatelist. Boys who are playing with stamps want a printed album with spaces to fill, but a collector who studies his stamps wants to arrange them to suit himself.

JOHN R. FINDLAY,
PUBLISHER,
HALIFAX, NOVA SCOTIA, CANADA.

I am prepared to issue books and pamphlets for authors and can generally assure a large sale. Write for particulars; send stamp for reply.

I issue the CANADA STAMP AND COIN JOURNAL, a first-class paper devoted entirely to philately and numismatics. 15 cents per year to Canada, States, New Foundland and United Kingdom; 25 cents elsewhere. Members of Philatelic and Numismatic Associations may pay at the end of the year.

I issue the RECITER'S COMPANION, the only paper devoted to elocution published in Canada. A valuable journal, containing choice subjects for recital and useful information and suggestions. 50 cts. per year in advance.

The above, and all other publications issued by me are valuable advertising mediums. Send for rates.

RARE STAMPS ALWAYS ON HAND.

DUNCAN S. WYLIE,

U. S. AND FOREIGN

Postage Stamps,

176 E. 125th St., New York City.

Approval sheets containing all the latest issues and specially desirable stamps sent to responsible parties. Agents wanted on liberal commission. Revenue, match and medicine stamps at 50% under Scott or Sterling.

I ISSUE NO "CATALOGUES."

S BILL BUYS 20 all rare, unused and genuine Foreign Stamps, many varieties like So. African Repb. envelope, 6p. (valued at 50c) None of them are common, but range in price from 2c to $1.50. DUBIN'S STANDARD CATALOGUE values 8 of them above $4. Every 10th packet also contains 5 rare stamps, valued much above the cost of all. If you do not desire to invest $1 at one time, we will supply one-half of them for 55 cents, or one-fourth of them for 30 cents. Collectors and dealers, this is your unparalleled opportunity of securing a packet of very rare stamps at the lowest wholesale price. Our specialty, UNKLD approval sheets of desirable stamps, at the lowest prices. Liberal commission to agents. Foreign correspondence particularly desired. Will exchange the above valuable packet for rare stamps. Large new price list free.
