PREFACE.

In presenting to the Timbrophilic Public this second issue of their Price List, we (the members of the Excelsior Stamp Association) take pleasure in sincerely thanking our friends for the support they have given us since our starting in business and we hope by strict attention to the interests of our numerous customers to have such support long continued.

We can assure all purchasers of this list that we have endeavored to make our Stamps as cheap as possible after retaining to ourselves a very moderate profit. Unprincipled dealers are continually advertising stamps at rediculously low prices. North American Stamp Collectors be on your guard. Never buy a Stamp that is offered too cheaply or you will be deceived. You may not be aware of it but it is nevertheless true that there are persons in Europe who make their living by counterfeiting Postage Stamps which they sell to the unprincipled characters, alluded to above, as fac similes, by whom they are immediately advertised and sold as genuine. In reference to this matter you have our positive statement that "all Stamps sold by us are warranted genuine." All our Stamps as we before stated are marked at fair and legitimate prices. Any Stamp not in stock we will procure for you at short notice.

All letters are answered by return of post. Stamps are bought, sold and exchanged. Dealers and Booksellers supplied. Stamps sent on approval.

GENERAL AGENTS.

United States.—J. Henry Applegate, Jr., San Francisco, Cal.
" " —M. Bennett, Jr., Hartford, Connecticut.
Nova Scotia.—John B. Cossett, Digby.

THE BOSTON STAMP ALBUM.

THIRD EDITION.

ENLARGED, REVISED AND IMPROVED.

THE publishers of this well known American Album, Wm. H. Hill, Jr. & Co., Boston, Mass., have the pleasure to announce that this justly popular work having met with unprecedented success, and in so short a time passed through two editions, all of which have been completely exhausted—even to the sample copy—they will shortly publish a third, and in every respect greatly improved edition, which will, among other improvements, embrace all those countries that have commenced the issue of stamps since previous editions. It will form the largest, latest, most perfect and only complete Stamp Album.

Read the following notices clipped from the American Timbrophilic Press :—

"Speaking of collections reminds us that the Boston Album, having successfully run through two editions, is now coming out in an enlarged and improved style. Mr. M. Bennett, Jr., its enterprising publisher, deserves every success, and we cordially give him our good wishes; and if any effort of ours can forward him in his endeavors he has only to ask and it will be granted. We do not write the foregoing as a puff or a paid-for advertisement—no such thing. Mr. Bennett has not asked us for such a one, we give it as our candid opinion, based on the merits of the Album itself, without reference to its compiler. As American collectors, we are in favor of American works when we can, with due regard to the interests of our readers, recommend them, and happy are we to say that as far as we know, Mr. Bennett's Album is not only superior to any other American production, but infinitely better than any European book of the description we have ever seen."—Postman's Knock, July, 1865.

"By advertisement, our readers have portrayed to them the excellencies of the Album compiled by Mr. Bennett, of Hartford, Connecticut. We endorse his 'sentiments' cheerfully, and pronounce it, in our judgement, to be the album of the year; the price is remarkably cheap—while purchasers have in the front and back pages, the advertisements of a few of the leading Stamp firms, that will doubtless be of use to them in enlarging their collections."—Stamp Argus, August 15, 1865.

"It is compiled on an approved plan, and free from the objectionable features which have distinguished the only other American published Album. It is elegantly bound in cloth, printed in mauve ink, and altogether forms the most unexceptionable work of the kind we have hitherto seen while in point of price it ranks 'lower than the lowest.'"—S. C. Record, June 1, 1865.

"The best American Album we have yet seen is one manufactured at Hartford, and is really a beautiful article as regards workmanship, style and finish."—S. C. M. Gazettee, Nov., 1865.

In form it is a large quarto holding 4000 Stamps, with divisions for all the new countries; beautifully printed in purple ink, on extra fine paper, and handsomely bound in Muslin; compiled on a new plan by a distinguished Collector; price $3. A few copies elegantly bound in Morocco, gilt edges, $5, sent free by mail on receipt of price in greenbacks. Address M. Bennett, Jr., Box 1310, Hartford, Conn., or The Excelsior Stamp Association, General Agents, Saint John, N. B.
