Standard Publications.

Hints on Insect Collecting.

This little book contains a large amount of information relating to the capture and mounting of insects for the cabinet, and is recommended by the Agassiz Association. Price 19c., or 3 for 25c. Address, John M. Hubbard, Lake Village, N. H.

The Stamp Dealers of the World.

We have just issued the Stamp Dealers of the World, containing the addresses of over 600 stamp dealers in all parts of the world. The list is as complete as it is possible to make it, and contains 29 pages and cover and is very valuable to both dealer and collector. Price, post free, 10 cents, or three for 25 cents. Address, John M. Hubbard, Publisher, Lake Village, N. H.

Stamps, How to Buy and Sell.

This book, by the well-known author, H. J. Miron, contains much valuable information for both dealer and collector, and is having a very large sale. Every Philatelist should have a copy, and by a careful perusal of its contents he would know many things about the science of Philately that he never knew before. Price, post free, 10 cents, or three copies for 25 cents. Address, John M. Hubbard, Lake Village, N. H.

The Gem Stamp Album.

The majority of stamp collectors, especially beginners, prefer to invest what money they can in stamps, rather than in an album. We have just issued a new album, called the "Gem," which for neatness and cheapness is not beat in this country. It is printed on 50 lb., tinted, machine finished paper, and contains space for 600 stamps. Size, 6x8 inches. Price, post free, 11 cents, or three copies for 25 cents. Address, John M. Hubbard, Publisher, Lake Village, N. H.

Rare Coins.

Probably nearly every one in the United States knows that there are many coins in circulation that are worth much more than their face value, but they wouldn't know them if they should meet them in the middle of the street. We have issued a Premium Coin List, containing 94 illustrations, and giving our buying prices for every U. S. coin worth over face value. Every one who handles money should possess a copy. Price, 10 cents, or 3 for 25 cents, post free. Address, John M. Hubbard, Publisher, Lake Village, N. H.

California Gold.

California gold bangles are all the rage now, for pins, bracelets, and rings. We have just received a large stock direct from San Francisco, Cal., and can furnish them at the following prices: Quar. dol. size, 28 cents; half dol. size, 56 cents, either round or octagon, post free. John M. Hubbard, Lake Village, N. H.

THE CURIOSITY WORLD.

THE CURIOSITY WORLD is an illustrated monthly journal containing four pages, twenty columns, each column about 17 inches long, well filled with interesting matter for all classes of collectors.

THE WORLD is printed on 50 lb., book paper, and contains three times as much interesting reading as the average Stamp or Coin Journal. The proprietor has just purchased a new $500 printing office—which is pretty good evidence that the WORLD has come to stay—and will hereafter publish the paper himself instead of having the work done in an out of town office. The WORLD is devoted to Stamps, Coins, Eggs, Autographs, Indian Relics and all branches of Natural History. It also has an Exchange department in which exchange notices are inserted for subscribers only, free of charge. The editorial department is under the management of the well known author, Mr. H. J. Miron, and Mr. L. W. Durbin has charge of the department of New Issues, assisted by an able corps of the best writers in the United States and Europe. The WORLD costs but 25 cents per year—12 numbers—but the subscription price will soon be raised to 50 cents per year so all who have not subscribed should take advantage of our present low rates. Our advertising rates are 10 cents per line for one insertion, 30 cents per line for four insertions; $1 per inch for one insertion, $3 per inch for four insertions. TERMS: Cash in advance.
