Old Firm of GEORGE CARION & EMDEN.

Established 1879.

George Carion, 21, Rue Nollet,
PARIS.

Complete in Twelve Monthly Parts, at 2½d. each.

AN ENTIRELY NEW WORK.

COUNTRIES AND STAMPS

By HARRIET E. COLVILLE.

(Author of "My Grandmother's Album; or, England during the 19th Century," etc.)

THIS work, which will be issued in Monthly Parts (Demy 8vo.), deals with an aspect of Philately which has hitherto been too much neglected. The author has aimed at producing an historical guide to British and British Colonial Postage Stamps; and, as she is an accomplished writer, the result has proved singularly successful. The book, whilst primarily intended for young philatelists, will be found both interesting and valuable by those of larger growth. It will undoubtedly be of great assistance in developing the purely instructive side of stamp collecting.

"COUNTRIES AND STAMPS"

will appear in Monthly Parts, at 2½d. (5 cents U.S.) post free. The first number will be ready January 20th, 1906. Subscriptions can be booked for the series of 12 parts, at 2/6, prepaid. Orders for single parts can be sent to the publishers, or may be placed with any bookseller, stamp dealer, or newsagent.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

To Stamp Dealers and others.—A limited number of Advertisements can be accepted for insertion on the covers of the Monthly Parts of COUNTRIES AND STAMPS at 15/- per page, and pro rata. Small Sale and Exchange Notices will also be inserted at 1d. for every three words.

PREFACE.

THREE different styles of type are employed for printing the names in the List of Dealers in this DIRECTORY. The names in SMALL CAPITALS are those of firms who have returned our Enquiry Form, and they, with the advertisers, may therefore be taken as representing the really "active" section of the stamp dealing community in the United Kingdom. The names in the black "De Vinne" type are those of advertisers whose announcements appear in this edition. It will be found that they include many of the best known and most reliable firms of the day, and we would respectfully bespeak for them our readers' careful perusal and a liberal share of their patronage.

The names in ordinary Roman type (the same as the addresses) are those of dealers who have failed to return our Forms; as the Forms addressed to them were not sent back by the Post Office we assumed that the dealers were still in business. Therefore, whilst making every possible effort to ensure correctness, we are not responsible for any inaccuracies which may have crept in.

An entirely new feature of the present Edition is the "Reference List" to the British Dealers, which we hope and believe will prove both useful and interesting. We are always grateful for any advice or suggestions which are calculated to improve the DIRECTORY or to increase its value to the philatelic public.

Of the names contained in the last Edition, some sixty have been removed for various reasons; whilst upward of fifty new names are now added for the first time, and a large number of alterations and corrections have been made. An index to Advertisers is placed at the commencement of the book.
