

EIGHTH EDITION.

RETAIL PRICE LIST OF PACKETS AND SETS OF FOREIGN STAMPS, 1889-90.

WILLIAM BROWN,

115, Castle Street, Salisbury.

Member American Philatelic Association, Philatelic Society of Amsterdam, International Philatelic Union, &c. &c.

All previous Lists are hereby cancelled. Terms—Cash with Order.

REMITTANCE must in all cases accompany Order, which may be made as follows:—Post Office or Postal Orders, Bankers' Draft or Bank Notes at the current rate of Exchange. Small amounts may be made up of unused stamps of lowest current value, EXCEPT STAMPS OF CANADA AND CONTINENTAL COUNTRIES, WHICH WILL IN NO CASE BE ACCEPTED. Twopence extra for registration should be enclosed if required, as I do not under any circumstances whatever hold myself responsible for letters, parcels, &c., lost in transit either from me or to me.

Correspondence in English and French only.

Special Notice to Correspondents Abroad.—It being prohibited by the postal authorities to send stamps by Book Post to Countries in the Postal Union, a sufficient amount must therefore be sent in all cases to cover the cost of letter-rate to those countries, (excepting always those places where a Parcel Post has been established, and when the parcel exceeds 1lb. in weight it would be advisable to send the stamps by that medium,) as the Post Office absolutely refuse to take stamps sent by Book Post to Countries in the Postal Union, and they are returned to sender if found in the mails. If sufficient postage by letter or parcel rate is not enclosed the stamps will be sent by LETTER rate, UNPAID. The attention of Correspondents is therefore particularly directed to the above notice.

Wholesale Parcels or Sheets of Rare Stamps sent on approval against deposit or satisfactory ENGLISH References. Foreign ones will not be accepted.

Price List post free on receipt of postage. Exchange List post free 2d.

Letters must in all cases be prepaid or they will be invariably refused. Business conducted by post only. Letters requiring a reply must contain sufficient postage for return, or they will not be attended to, and those containing coin must be registered. Orders above 10s. are sent in registered envelopes, all others not registered unless 2d. for that purpose is sent. Agents wanted in Schools, Colleges, &c., and abroad. Good commission.

I shall always be glad to receive some stamps of each of any new issue unused when any should appear, and a quantity of Provisionals or surcharged stamps especially desired, and for all rarities a premium will be given.

When ordering Sets it is advisable to send a supplementary list, as it is impossible to keep all varieties in stock.

N.B.—As it is possible that some of the stamps mentioned in the following packets may be out of stock at the time of ordering, I reserve to myself the right of inserting others in their place of equal value.

Good collections of 1000 varieties and upwards purchased for cash, providing they are sent on approval with lowest cash price, and sufficient postage for return if not approved of.

Customers having rare duplicates should send them on approval. Best cash prices will be given, or they may be exchanged against stamps from my sheets, or from this list. N.B.—No common stamps need be sent.

Correspondents abroad are specially desired to send some of each of any new issue when they appear. Surcharged and Provisionals issues especially desired in quantities not over £2. Good prices given for all rarities. Large lots of old issues and Government remainders also purchased for cash.

Business conducted by Post only.

I.—ASSORTED SERIES.

- No. 1 contains 150 Stamps, including 12 extra good, post free, 6d.
- No. 2 contains 250 Stamps, including 18 extra good, post free, 10d.
- No. 3 contains 500 Stamps, including 24 extra good, post free, 1/6.
- No. 4 contains 1000 Stamps, including 36 extra good, post free, 2/2.

N.B.—As the quality of my Assorted Packets is well known to be the best sold for the money, I have decided not to mention the names of the extra good stamps in each packet, as each one will, if possible, contain different stamps. This I think will be more satisfactory to the general body of young collectors, who will thus be able to possess a number of stamps all different, at a very slight cost. A trial of this new series is especially requested, as I am sure that Collectors will not fail to repeat their OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

MR. BROWN'S ETCHINGS.—Mr. William Brown, of Salisbury, has sent us a set of examples of his etchings, a series of which he is publishing in illustration of his own beautiful cathedral city, Canterbury, Edinburgh, and other picturesque scenes. The precincts of Sarum supply excellent subjects for the etcher's needle, notably the two gates (Exeter Street and High Street), which Mr. Brown has reproduced with much artistic feeling. Then there is a delicious "bit" in the picture of the old sculptured and many-niched Christ Church Gateway at Canterbury, with its time-worn, crumbling aspect, very felicitously rendered in the engraving before us. A good contrast, on the other hand, is afforded in the stern drawing of the Canongate, Edinburgh, and the lonely grandeur of his Stonehenge.—The Bookseller.

SOME NEW ETCHINGS OF SALISBURY.—Mr. William Brown, of Salisbury, to whose etchings of local objects of interest we have frequently referred in terms of praise, has issued several additional prints, which will be found very pretty seasonable presents for those wishing to give their friends some memento of the ancient and picturesque city of Salisbury. These new etchings include admirable views of the Old George Inn, the Joiners' Hall, and the old houses in Minster Street now occupied by Mr. Carter. The plates are carefully and artistically executed, and excellently printed on India paper. Another etching gives, in an effectively arranged group, six views of the Cathedral, the Canonry, the Training College, Mrs. Hussey's house, and Old Gate-place in Castle-street. The etchings, which are as cheap as they are pretty, are published locally by Messrs. Brown and Co., the Canal, Salisbury. They are issued separately or in a case with four other earlier etchings of the series.—Salisbury and Winchester Journal.

NEW PRINTS.—Mr. Brown's "Eight Etchings of Salisbury" (Salisbury: Brown) is published at six shillings, and contains some clever and taking work; the "Joiners' House," the "George Inn," and the "Old House in Minster Street," are perhaps the best of the set, but the "High Street Gate" and "St. Thomas's Church" will have plenty of admirers, and a good deal might be said for Mr. Brown's view of the Cathedral.—Art Journal.

We have received from Mr. William Brown, of Castle-street, Salisbury, a series of really charming etchings delineating the ancient City and Cathedral of Salisbury. There are also to be obtained from the same publisher four views of the older parts of Edinburgh, and an excellent etching of Christ Church Gateway, Canterbury.—The Artist.

Mr. Brown, a local artist, has selected for illustration some of the more notable relics of antiquity in the old cathedral town, and although his etchings vary in excellence, they all display power and force of expression, while some are very delicately finished.—Pull Mall Gazette.

"A Series of Etchings of Salisbury," by Mr. W. Brown (Salisbury), comprise several meritorious views of old houses and churches in that city, but they are somewhat heavily etched and printed. Apart from these defects, which are inconsiderable, the prints are well worth having. We prefer the views of the Old House and the Cathedral, as comprising some capital etchings of desirable subjects. "Joiners' Hall" deserves much praise; it is full of colour, and shows a crisp and firm touch and the taste and tact we miss in Mr. Bird's etchings of Glasgow. Perhaps the best etching is that of "St. Thomas' Church," most excellent, but a little heavy.—Athenæum.

Mr. Brown, of Salisbury, has published "Eight Etchings of Salisbury," which contain some clever and taking work. They include the "Joiners' House," the "George Inn," "High-street Gate," "St. Thomas' Church," "Old House in Minster-street," and a plate called "Salisbury," made up of vignettes. They are all beautifully executed.—Llangollen Advertiser.
