THE STAMP-LOVERS
WEEKLY

NOV. 7, 1907. NO. 148.

E. T. PARKER,
BETHLEHEM, PENNSYLVANIA.

In buying stamps always be sure to get them from dealers who conduct their business in up-to-date methods and from whom you can get the best results.

The cash in advance system has no superior in its varied applications, for it saves me many hundreds of dollars yearly in the salaries and expenses of a whole lot of clerks.

By a strict adherence to my terms, which simplifies book-keeping, my clerical force has been reduced to a minimum.

Consider these points carefully, compare prices critically, and send a trial order, for I'm satisfied that you will need no further argument to convince you that Bethlehem is the most profitable place from which to purchase your stamps.

AND note especially that if you buy a stamp from me and find it unsatisfactory in any way you can send it right back and get your money refunded without any controversy or quibble whatever.

The Stamp-Lovers Weekly.

$3.00

will buy a horizontal strip of 3 and a fraction of the 120 reis blue Portugal of 1866, imperforated, No. 24.

10 Cents

is my price for No. 172 Philippine Islands, 1896, 5c violet brown.

11 Cents

for an unused Philippine Islands of 1891, 20c salmon, No. 150.

United States.

Don't forget that I carry a very fine and full line of United States stamps and at less prices than many dealers will ask you for the same varieties.

The STAMP-LOVERS WEEKLY

November 15, 1909.

E. T. PARKER,
BETHLEHEM, PENNSYLVANIA.

This list is limited to an edition of but 500 because of the fewness of some of the items priced.

There is no use in mailing a large number of these lists when a few will probably sell most of the stamps.

Order promptly so as not to be disappointed.

Match and Medicine Stamps.

I have a particularly fine stock of these interesting stamps. Collectors should place their list of wants with me.
