The Week's News.

The Editor is always pleased to receive Early Information of New Issues, or of Discoveries interesting to Stamp Collectors.

The index number and serial letter after the title of each paragraph indicate the issue of E.W.S.N. in which the last reference to that country appeared.

GREAT BRITAIN.—Current Issue (582 X 589).—Stamps in Rolls.—We quote from the Morning Post (28.12.10):—

A possible postal reform of the future is the sale of stamps in rolls instead of sheets—obviously a more convenient form for public use. Mr. F. S. Cripps, who has for some years advocated this, wrote on December 19th to the Postmaster-General, saying:

"An enormous amount of time would be saved in business offices over stamping letters if stamps were sold in ribbons instead of in sheets, the ribbons being round a reel, which could be held in the hand and the stamps taken off singly. These reels could either be threaded on a carrier fixed on the wall or front of desk where the letter stamping takes place, or held in the palm of the hand.

"Where hundreds of letters have to be stamped in a short space of time it would prove a great boon, and the public generally would, I feel sure, appreciate the advantages of tearing stamps off singly from a ribbon instead of having to tear them out of a sheet. The stamps would then only need perforating on the two sides and not on the top and bottom. The Coronation Year would seem to be a fitting opportunity for introducing this novelty to the public, and it could be applied the first time to the new stamps.

"Of course, stamps could also still be sold in sheets as heretofore. I would suggest that the reels be made up in reels of 1s., 2s., 5s. and 10s. upwards. Every shilling's worth could be marked off with a blank, on which could be printed the number of shillings' worth still remaining on the reel."

There came a prompt reply in return stating: "Sir,—I am directed by the Postmaster-General to inform you that the question of issuing postage stamps in rolls is already under consideration. Some weeks will, however, elapse before any definite information on the subject can be furnished."

That seems to indicate that the idea has found favour in official eyes.

We also quote from the Daily Mail (30.12.10): "STAMPS IN ROLLS."

To the Editor of the Daily Mail.

Sir.—It may be of interest to some of your readers to learn that the suggestion of issuing stamps in rolls was first proposed to the Government by Mr. Benjamin Cheverton, in the year 1839, in an essay on the best method of carrying out the proposals for the penny post.

This essay received one of the £100 prizes, four of which were offered by the Treasury.

The essay has only lately been recovered, and it will appear as a paper in the pages of the London Philatelist in the course of the next few days. CRAWFORD.

Carlton Club.

AUSTRALIA (588 O 589).—We have seen the following letter from the Acting Secretary to the Postmaster General:—

"Melbourne, 17th November, 1910.

"Sir,—I have to acknowledge the receipt of your communication of the 14th instant, relative to the overprinting of postage stamps, and to inform you that the matter has already been considered and the Postmaster-General has decided that the stamps be not overprinted."

SUBSCRIPTION RATES. Ewen's Weekly Stamp News can be sent post free to any address in any country for one year for 4/4 ($1.06, Mk. 4.50 or fr. 5.50). Each change of address, 6d. extra. Half year, 3/3; 3 months, 1/7½. A special limited subscription has also been arranged; every 5th number can be sent for only 1/3 per annum. Back Nos., 1 to 535, 3d. each; complete, £5; current year, 1½d. each. EWEN'S LTD., 32, Palace Square, Norwood, London, S.E.

ABYSSINIA (551 H 589).—We have seen all the current postage due stamps with inverted overprint.

With "T in Triangle," overprint inverted.

- ½ gairsh, green.
- 1 " red.
- 1 " blue.
- 2 " brown.
- 4 " claret.
- 8 " lilac.
- 16 " black.

Issued 30.10.10 or earlier.

BRUNEI (462 S 589).—Champion's Bulletin (25.12.10/1) describes two high value stamps of which "specimen" copies have been distributed by the Postal Union.

New Values. Wmk. Multiple Crown CA.
$5 red on green.
$25 black on red.

To be issued.

GWALIOR (587 Q 589).—The 2 and 3 rupees stamps have at length turned up, after three years' delay, but even now we only get part of what we paid for. We also have a supply of the low values in sheets; in this case after only a year's delay.

In the latest issue of stamps the horizontal perforation of the sheets is extremely fragile and most of the sheets received consisted of rows of twelve stamps only held together in the form of a sheet by the unperforated side margins.

The surcharge is of the new setting, the two words being 2½ to 2¾mm. apart, instead of 1½ to 2¼mm. whilst the word "Gwalior" is 13mm. long instead of 14mm.

There are some minor defects in the overprinting which we may record as of value to scientific collectors who wish to distinguish the settings.

In the ½ anna just received (issued 12.10) we note:—

- No. 7 L of Gwalior broken.
- No. 48 Foot of R of Gwalior without serif.
- No. 61 L broken as on No. 7.
- No. 67 R " " 48.
- No. 102 "LIO" smaller.
- No. 116 Small W in Gwalior.
- No. 120 R broken as on No. 48.
- No. 131 Thick R in Gwalior.
- No. 173 Tail of R broken.
- No. 178 R broken as on No. 48.
- Nos. 218, 230 R flattened at top.
- Nos. 219, 221 L broken as on No. 7.

The ½, 2 and 4 annas just received show the same defects as the ½ anna, but the 1, 3, 6, 8 and 12 annas are all with the old surcharge, "Gwalior" 14 mm. long. In this old setting it may be recalled that the following defects occur:—

- No. 11 R of Gwalior raised.
- No. 47 L of Gwalior slightly dropped.
- No. 72 L has no serif at top.
- No. 185 The two words are 2¾ mm. apart.
- No. 230 Tall R in Gwalior.

No. 185 is a specially interesting stamp as the two words are as wide as in the new setting but the name "Gwalior" remains 14mm. as in the 1st setting.

No. 230 is well known and usually collected as a variety.

The 1 rupee has No. 47 as above but No. 11 is normal, and No. 2 has a defective W in Gwalior. The lower part of this sheet we did not receive.

The 2 and 3 rupees stamps are printed in sheets of 96 divided by margins into 8 panes in 4 rows of 2. In No. 5 of the 8th pane (No. 85 of the sheet) the R of Gwalior is indented at top.

Overprinted "Gwalior" in Latin and Hindi characters in two lines, 2¾mm. apart; "Gwalior," 13mm.

- 2 rupees, rose and bistre.
- 3 " brown and green.

Issued 14.12.10 or earlier.

ROUMANIA (585 I 589).—We quote as follows from the Daily Telegraph (8.12.10):—

"The fiftieth anniversary celebrations of the University of Jassy have been arranged for the middle of May next. A special series of stamps has been prepared by a Roumanian artist, and the printing will be done in Berlin. During the last few years Roumania has placed stamp-printing orders in Paris, New York, and London. Now the German city gets its turn in the new commemorative series. The ordinary regular stamps of Roumania are printed at the Government printing works at Bucharest.

"In addition to the national emblems, the new stamps will bear the inscriptions 'Jubileul Universitatei Jasi' and 'Romania,' and the following distinctive subjects:—

- 1 bani, Prince Couza and Princess Elena.
- 2 " King Charles and Queen Elizabeth.
- 5 " the Prince and Princess of Roumania.
- 10 " the poet Linceani V. Alexandri and the statesman Koga.
- 15 " the Academy of Mihailcani.
- 25 " Prince Couza signing the decree for the foundation of the University.
- 40 " the old University.
- 60 " the new University.

"To most stamp collectors the recent activity of Roumania in the issue of commemorative stamps must seem excessive. In 1903 the country began these tactics with the belated issue of a series commemorating the opening of the new General Post Office in 1901. In 1906 a new set celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of the establishment of the kingdom, a further series marking the forty years' rule of the Prince and King, being issued in November of the same year, 1906."

RUSSIAN P.O., BEYROUTH (586 B 589).—We have now received entire sheets of the new stamps and note that there are no errors or even type varieties.

RUSSIAN P.O., DARDANELLES (586 B 589).—We have now received entire sheets of the new stamps and note that there are no errors or even type varieties. There is however a broken letter, the small d in "Dardanelles" being broken so as to look almost like a "u" with a dot over it. This is only of importance in proving that the setting for the low values consists of ten types duplicated, arranged as in the other Levant surcharges, the broken type variety being No. 10. It occurs in the two top panes as Nos. 10 and 20 and in the two lower panes as Nos. 10, 20 and 25.

A sheet of 100 of the 20 para has been found with overprint "Dardanelles" inverted, but in its correct position at the top of the stamp. This is the only inverted variety which has occurred in the Jubilee issue.

SWEDEN (585 Y 589).—Some more of the new official stamps are reported by the Illustriertes Briefmarken-Journal (17.12.10/570):—

- Official Stamps, new design.
- 1 öre, black.
- 8 " red-violet.
- 10 " carmine.
- 15 " brown.

STAMP MOUNTS, best, 10d. per 1000; grease-proof envelopes, 5d., 6d. or 8d. per 100; approval booklets, 1d., 1½d. each; Stolzenberg Albums, 1 6/3/-; clip albums, 2/6, 10/-; Good Old Times Album, for general collectors, 3 volumes, 12/6 each, or 25/- bound in one; Ewen's Catalogue of New Issues, 7d. post free; list of publications, free; prospectus of New Issue Service, free; sample copies of E.W.S.N., free. # Subscription Stamp Collecting.

(MR. EWEN'S INVENTION; COPYRIGHT.)

PLEASE READ! THIS IS WORTH CONSIDERING!

TO STAMP COLLECTORS.—We would like to draw special attention again this week to Subscription Stamp Collecting, which we believe has a great future before it. Our position as publishers of Ewen's Weekly Stamp News is a very awkward one. Collectors all the world over look to it for a guide not only to the collection of new issues but also to the market values. A business man who publishes to all the world his current quotations is inviting all the world to compete with him and undersell him. The world-wide popularity of New Issues, the collection of which was first advocated in our columns, has naturally resulted in ever-increasing competition and similar underselling. We, for our part, have no intention of allowing anyone to supply new issues cheaper than we do and that means constantly reducing quotations; on the other hand the position of Ewen's Weekly Stamp News as a guide to the market asks of us that we should not reduce quotations to a level that would render the importation of new issues unprofitable for others. We are glad to see dealers everywhere handling new issues and that means encouraging competition, not killing it. How then can we keep up market prices and nevertheless supply as cheaply as or cheaper than anyone else? The answer we found was Subscription Stamp Collecting. If it flourishes to the extent we hope and expect, and we can get a sufficiently wide circle of loyal clients, we can regularly distribute amongst them all the good things we get, and if the aggregate of annual subscriptions leaves a fair margin after paying expenses, we should be able to do so at face value only, even in the case of the rarest stamps. At the same time our Reference List could be priced according to an average of the current international quotations for new issues and form a more complete guide to market values than at present.

We believe that this ideal is by no means unrealizable, but to make it a complete success, every present subscriber to Ewen's Weekly Stamp News would have to send at least a small subscription and endeavour to get his friends to do so too. During Coronation year one of our subscriptions will prove a splendid investment owing to the increased number of new issues.

VOTE FOR "SUBSCRIPTION STAMP COLLECTING"!

A MOST ATTRACTIVE FORM OF STAMP COLLECTING.

GAINING DAILY MORE AND MORE ADHERENTS.

The object of Subscription Stamp Collecting is to avoid as far as possible percentages, premiums and prices and supply current and new issues just simply at the face value. We offer collectors and dealers

The Freedom of our New Issue Service and The Freedom of our Reference List of Current Issues.

In the first case stamps are supplied automatically as they are issued; in the second case they have to be ordered, but the area of choice is widened, as our Reference List quotes for most current and many recently obsolete stamps.

MEMBERS' ANNUAL SUBSCRIPTIONS

Confer the freedom of either (1) our New Issue Service, (2) our Reference List or (3) with the addition of £1 is. the freedom of both, for one year from the date of payment.

"Freedom" implies that stamps will be furnished either at face value or cost price (but for simplification of working "cost price" will sometimes be taken as "half sale price" and such stamps will have "x" after the price in the Reference List).

Annual Subscription.	New Issue Service Limit of face value.	Reference List Limit of sale price.
£1 1 0	1/-	1/-
£2 2 0	2/-	2/-
£3 3 0	5/-	5/-
£4 4 0	10/-	10/-
£5 5 0	£1	£1
£10 10 0	£5	£5
£21 0 0	No limit	No limit

The Freedom of our New Issue Service may also be gained by paying half one of the above subscriptions, and a deposit of any amount wished, and the subscription will then remain in force as long as the deposit lasts. This system is very advantageous if a deposit of at least 10 times the subscription can be made.

We import and stock the current issues of all countries and the freedom extends to all. This is a most important point, as the hobby of stamp collecting gains greatly in interest through its power of illustrating contemporary history, geography and currency. We strongly urge collectors not to limit the boundaries of their world. Do not blot any country off the map.

CONDITIONS.

- 1.—Members are expected to be postal subscribers to E.W.S.N. (the postal subscription is only 4/4 per annum).
- 2.—Members of the New Issue Service are requested to state whether foreign stamps are required, as well as British Colonial, and if any countries or descriptions of stamps are to be excepted.
- 3.—Returns are to be made within ten days of receipt, and to be accompanied by the original invoices; otherwise they can only be re-purchased at our current buying quotations.
- 4.—Postage and insurance are extra.
- 5.—Only one specimen of each stamp will be supplied in respect of a subscription, but any client, whether collector or dealer, may take up two or more subscriptions.

Ewen's Current Stamp Market. (†)

NOTICE.—Orders from collectors and dealers for sets from the following list will be executed at face value in the case of annual subscribers and at the usual rate over face value to all other clients, except in the very few cases where the net sale price is placed in brackets at end of the set.

The stamps asterisked can be supplied wholesale at 10% over face value and are mostly stocked per 100 and 1000, but otherwise the sets cannot be broken. If single stamps are required, they can be ordered from our Reference List.

Are Colonial Postmasters Going on Strike?

SOME people have an idea that places like Papua, New Hebrides, are given to the issue of stamps for the purpose of collecting philatelic revenue. So far from the truth is this that we often have serious complaint to make of the way large orders for stamps are received. Here is a typical instance:—

"The Treasury, Port Moresby, 21st November, 1910.

"I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your order for 500 each perforation 2/6 stamps and 1000 each perforation other values latest issues. It having been decided by this department that no further searches for stamps of particular perforations is to be made, your order as above is not being fulfilled."

This related, it is true, to an order for only £360 worth of stamps but seeing that there are only two perforations, 11 and 12½, which are plainly distinguishable to the eye, it is surprising that the Government should refuse an order merely so that the Postmaster may have half-an-hour's longer siesta.

It is only a few weeks since we asked the Johannesburg Post Office to hand £18 worth of stamps to a firm who held that amount to our credit and who would pay for them on our behalf, but although this was done, we were informed that it gave a great deal of trouble to the Department! Perhaps the inspector or messenger was interrupted at a game of pool!

Then again (as referred to in another column) the Postmaster of the New Hebrides returns £50 because his stock is low. The authorities know full well there is a big demand for stamps, yet for two years they have neglected to provide an adequate supply.

Since stamps were first issued in the New Hebrides, orders from the Colonial Stamp Market amounting to the best part of £1000 have been refused.

The above instances are by no means the only ones which have come under our notice, although we are pleased to say that there are also many post offices where every courtesy is extended to stamp dealers.

Another curious phase of the relations of Governments and stamp dealers is illustrated by this case. When the surcharged "Rhodesia" issue appeared in April, 1909, we purchased £650 worth for cash on the first day and followed this purchase by others to the extent of many hundreds of pounds. Last November when the Royal Issue appeared we purchased £553 worth on the first day and have already made five other purchases of not inconsiderable amount. Yet when we took 20/6 (twenty shillings and sixpence) worth of stamps that had been accidentally damaged by our staff and asked that they might be exchanged, we were met with a curt refusal.

If any business man were to treat his friends in this way, whatever would happen to him?

Notes.

A LONDON firm publish certain figures which they state were the amounts of the percentage charged over face value for stamps supplied through a New Issue Service in 1910. For instance, it is stated that the service up to 1/- cost 5/4. As this amount is stated to be 10% on the face value, it does not take a Sherlock Holmes to ascertain that the total face value of the new issues supplied up to the 1/- limit during 1910 was only 53/4, or about 1/- a week.

We draw attention to these figures because

SUBSCRIPTION RATES. Ewen's Weekly Stamp News can be sent post free to any address in any country for one year for 4/4 ($1.06, Mk. 4.50 or fr. 5.50). Each change of address, 6d. extra. Half year, 3/3; 3 months, 1/7½. A special limited subscription has also been arranged; every 5th number can be sent for only 1/3 per annum. Back Nos., 1 to 535, 3d. each; complete, £5; current year, 1½d. each. EWEN'S LTD., 32, Palace Square, Norwood, London, S.E.

they have been rather widely advertised, and it might be imagined that all New Issue Services are run on the same limited scale. The figures are, however, interesting as showing what a simplified New Issue Service costs and we reproduce them here.

Limit.	Total face value.
1/-	2 13 4
2/6	3 17 6
5/-	5 10 10
10/-	7 16 8
20/-	11 15 0
£5	17 18 4

Of course, these figures do not anything like represent the total face value of the new issues which appeared during 1910. Take Papua for instance. Issues 5, 6, 7, 8, 13 and 14 all appeared during 1910, six sets ordinary and six official. In addition one might add issues 5, 6, 7, 8 with rift variety, four more ordinary sets and four official. Total 20 sets! As the face value of each set was 4/10, the 20 sets totalled £4 16s. 8d. (or a little less allowing for exceptions in the sets) or considerably more than the total given above for the 2/6 limit for the whole British Empire.

* * *

The best of good wishes to the International Stamp-Dealers' Union of Berlin, which on 21.1.11 will celebrate the 25th Anniversary of its inauguration. We regret very much that we shall be unable to join our fellow-members at the banquet.

* * *

The sale of the Hanover remainders realized £4,500, of which total £1,750 was contributed for the 1560 10 groschen green (many of which were defective). The used German Colonial stamps cut from vouchers, etc., were sold by auction at the same time and realized £1,125.

* * *

We have received from Mr. L. Upcott Gill "The Dictionary of Philatelic Terms and Phrases" (published at 1/6). The work would have been more valuable to its purchasers if the author, who is unnamed, had not attempted to deal with foreign currencies, a subject of which he evidently had very little knowledge. Otherwise, the book appears to be fairly well done.

The Week's News.

The Editor is always pleased to receive Early Information of New Issues, or of Discoveries interesting to Stamp Collectors.

The index number and serial letter after the title of each paragraph indicate the issue of E.W.S.N. in which the last reference to that country appeared.

MALTA (579 A 590).—The following have now been issued, states the Stamp Collectors' Fortnightly (7.1.11/217):—

New colours.

½d. dark brown.

5/- red and green on yellow.

NEW HEBRIDES (579 X 590).—The Stamp Collectors' Fortnightly (7.1.11/217) is informed by a correspondent that the 1/- green and red was "prematurely recorded as obsolete, as copies were obtainable at the Vila P.O. so recently as 22.10.10," when some were sent by the mail leaving on that day.

In this connection it may be interesting to reproduce a letter recently received by us.

"Vila, 12th Nov., 1910.

"Dear Sir,—Owing to the scarcity of the stock I have received orders from both Resident Commissioners to not send away any stamps for the moment. I send you back your remittance of £50 begging you to accept all my excuses but I hope you'll understand before the strong orders I am, I cannot do otherwise."

We should be greatly obliged to any of our readers who have received stamps despatched on or since 12th November if they would allow us to see the letters.

For two years now the authorities have been mismanaging the Post Office, although they have had ample time to obtain a sufficient stock. In fact in the case of the single watermark ½d. they went to the trouble of reprinting it and somebody must have benefited by that action to a considerable extent.

PORTUGUESE AZORES (585 L 590).—The 25 reis of the Don Manoel has been found perf. 11½. The Madrid Filatélico (1.11/3) states that it was issued at Ponta Delgada.

STRAITS SETTLEMENTS (567 B 590).—The new 21 and 45c. chronicled three weeks ago should have been illustrated as in the new design, resembling the Nyasaland set.

THURN & TAXIS REPRINTS (583 C 590).—The Thurn and Taxis reprints are now on sale to the public. Although the method of their disposal is more satisfactory than we had anticipated, we are still of opinion that if a stamp is reprinted at all, it should be printed in unlimited quantity and be sold at the face value only. In the present case 33 stamps, of which the remainders are exhausted, have been reprinted. The catalogue value of originals is about £75 unused and 45/- postmarked. The reprints have been overprinted on the back "ND" ("Neudruck," lit. Newprint). Their face value is 23½ silbergroschen and 57 kreuzer. A silbergroschen (½ thaler) is about 1½d. and a kreuzer (¼ florin) about ¾d.; thus the face value of the set of reprints comes to about 4/3.

The sale of the reprints has been entrusted by the Thurn and Taxis authorities to the Briefmarkensammlerverein "Ratisbona" (A.V.) and application for them should be made to Herr k. Bahnverwalter J. Henkel, Regensburg, Prüfeningerstrasse 4. Single sets costing Mk. 15.— will only be sold to those who booked them in advance with the Thurn and Taxis authorities; otherwise at least 10 sets must be taken. The total number of sets available is 3750 but the price will be raised when 1500 have been sold.

As we wish to encourage the reprinting of the older issues of stamps, and especially their free sale to collectors, we have applied for a certain number of sets and will supply them to any of our regular readers at 15/- per set. The set consists of the following stamps:—

1852/58.	1863/58.	6 kr.	60/-	1862/4.
½ agr. 25/-	1 agr. 200/-	9 ..	80/-	3 kr. 4/-
1 .. 5/-	3 .. 120/-			6 .. 9d.
1 .. 80/-				9 .. 1/-
1 .. 175/-	1859-61.	Imperforate.
2 .. 140/-	½ agr. 6/-	½ agr. 1/-		1865.
3 .. 90/-	1 .. 35/-	1 .. 1/3		Rouletted.
1 kr. 7/6	1 .. 40/-	1 .. 10/-		½ agr. 1/-
3 .. 120/-	2 .. 6/-	1 .. 10/-		1 .. 2/-
6 .. 100/-	3 .. 15/-	2 .. 2/-		1 kr. 1/-
9 .. 80/-	1 kr. 8/-	9 .. 1/-
	3 .. 75/-

These prices are of course the prices of originals and their total, £75, makes it practically impossible for anyone but the wealthiest of collectors to complete this country. The 15/- set of reprints will open the door once more and probably stimulate the sale of the originals rather than the reverse.

URUGUAY (586 X 590).—Particulars of the new issue are given by the Daily Telegraph (5.1.11/3).

New Issue, engraved by Messrs. Waterlow and Sons, Ltd.

(i.) Portrait of General Artigas.

HOW TO START COLLECTING STAMPS.

There are numbers of people who would like to take up a hobby such as Stamp Collecting, but don't quite know how to start. The purchase of a printed album and catalogue is more likely to frighten them than otherwise, unless compiled on a much simplified system, excluding watermarks, perforations, surcharges, and, in fact, every kind of variety. For those, however, who prefer the 'all-in' method, perhaps the very best way is to gather together the current sets in use in all the countries of the world—or at least in the British Colonies. Each set may be mounted at the top of the page in a blank album, leaving space below for varieties of watermark, perforation, surcharge, etc., as they are issued. In order to keep the collection up to date, the best way is to subscribe to a New Issue Service, stating up to what limit of face value you collect. Roughly speaking, the cost of British Colonial New Issues (excluding varieties) is £5, £10 or £20 per annum, according as the face value limit is 1/-, 5/- or 20/-. The inclusion of shades and varieties may, however, multiply the cost several times, and at special times, such as Coronation Year, the cost is also augmented.

SUBSCRIPTION STAMP COLLECTING.

(MR. EWEN'S INVENTION ; COPYRIGHT.)

HOW IT CAN HELP YOU.

We have tens of thousands of pounds worth of current stamps through our hands, and constantly importing as we do from every country of the world, we get many good things. For instance, when the Levant 1 piastre 30 para brown and green suddenly became obsolete at Christmas, 1909, and advanced from 4d. to 10/-, we were left with 500 in stock, which had only cost us face value. We could not give our clients any part of this benefit, because had we offered the stamps cheaply, we should immediately have received wholesale orders from speculators ; if we refused the wholesale orders, the speculators would get their brothers and sisters and uncles and aunts to order singles and blocks of four. Either way, our regular all-the-year-round clients would be at a disadvantage, whilst the speculators would use the stamps they obtained from us to break down the market, and so rob bona fide collectors of a good investment. The collector who is willing to help us keep the speculator at bay, and share in the good things as his reward, is asked to carefully consider the following explanation of Subscription Stamp Collecting.

"NEW ISSUES THE BEST INVESTMENT."

Our object is to increase our already wide circle of collectors and dealers, who are not speculators, to whom we can offer these good things that come our way. We benefit far more in the long run by insuring that our subscribers' collections shall become first-class investments ; we feel, in fact, a certain amount of responsibility in the matter. We do not want only to say, "New Issues are the best investment" ; we want to make it overwhelmingly evident that it is so.

WE INTRODUCE A NEW £1 1/- SUBSCRIPTION.

Every collector or dealer, on entering into business relations with Ewen's Current Stamp Market is strongly urged to become an annual subscriber. There is no entrance fee, and the annual subscription of £1 1/- carries with it many privileges.

- (1) Annual subscribers receive "Ewen's Weekly Stamp News" free.
- (2) " " " " everything purchased from us post free.
- (3) Stamps sent by us to annual subscribers are insured, and will be replaced if lost or damaged in transit.
- (4) They have the right to share in our special bonus offers (worth far more than the £1 1/- subscription), subject to the preferential claims of senior members when supplies run short.
- (5) They can be supplied free of charge with a packet of small gummed labels with their name and address printed (such as we use for correspondence).
- (6) We will supply an occasional box of stamp mounts free to mount the stamps purchased from us.

And last, but not least, (7) They have the option of applying for the Limited Freedom of our New Issue Service and of our Order Department.

WHAT THE "LIMITED FREEDOM" MEANS.

"Limited Freedom" confers the right to open as many deposit accounts as desired, each with the fixed sum of £11, of which we take 9%, or £1, as our commission. The balance of £10 is then handed to our Accountant, and stamps may be ordered against it until it is exhausted, and they will be invoiced at face value or cost price only (stamps marked "x" in our lists will be invoiced at three-quarter price). The stamps will either be supplied through our New Issue Service (subject to the usual conditions of a New Issue Service) or through our Order Department. In the former case, one copy of each New Issue will be supplied; in the latter, only one order from each country or colony will be allowed in respect of each £11 deposit, and only one stamp of each kind will be supplied to each order. As it is quite easy looking through our Reference List of Current Issues to find stamps face value £10 which are quoted at and in fact readily saleable retail at £15 or more, it is obvious that the exercise of this option is to be recommended, especially in the case of dealers, who are likely to go very far before they find a more favourable means of replenishing their stock, and it is perhaps more important to-day than ever before in the history of Stamp Collecting for a dealer to keep an up-to-date and wide selection of the latest new issues. In most cases "importing direct" means "over-importing" and taking up capital that might be more profitably employed in other departments of the business.

It is, however, quite optional whether an annual subscriber applies for this Limited Freedom. The advantages 1 to 6, named above, especially No. 4, are more than good enough value for the annual £1 1/- subscription. In this case the subscriber may obtain his stamps at the ordinary sale prices in the usual way, or he may apply for

COMPLETE FREEDOM.

Complete Freedom emancipates the collector from all percentages over face value or cost price, and gives him the additional right to order at half price stamps marked x in our lists, a very valuable concession. Instead of deducting 9% from each deposit, we make no deduction, and the full deposit is available for the supply of stamps. In this case, too, the amount of the deposit is optional, subject to the condition that the deposit account is not to be overdrawn. On the other hand, the member will only be allowed to order one copy of each stamp per annum, and the Complete Freedom is therefore more suitable to a collector than a dealer. As we forego our percentage, we require instead an annual subscription (additional to the £1 1/- mentioned above), according to the following scale:—

ANNUAL SUBSCRIPTIONS

Conferring the COMPLETE FREEDOM of our

NEW ISSUE SERVICE and ORDER DEPARTMENT.

Annual Subscription.	New Issue Service Limit of face value.	Reference List Limit of sale price.
£1 1 0	1/-	1/-
£2 2 0	2/-	2/-
£3 3 0	5/-	5/-
£4 4 0	10/-	10/-
£5 5 0	£1	£1
£10 10 0	£5	£5
£21 0 0	No limit	No limit

In previous announcements the Annual Subscription was stated to be only good for either the New Issue Service or the Order Department, and that to obtain the Freedom of both £1 1/- extra had to be paid. If £1 1/- has already been paid to obtain the six initial advantages set out above, this second £1 1/- need not be paid.

UNLIMITED FREEDOM.

There is yet a third kind of Freedom we offer, which we may best describe as "Unlimited Freedom." In all the above cases, subscriptions are only valid for one year (commencing at any date), and must then be renewed. In the case of "Unlimited Freedom" the subscriber is entitled to pay half one of the annual subscriptions named in the above table, and a deposit—one deposit only—of any amount he likes. His subscription will then remain in force for as long as the deposit lasts, which in the case of a large deposit may be for several years; in fact, one subscription could be made to last a lifetime if the deposit were large enough!

The Week's News.

The Editor is always pleased to receive Early Information of New Issues, or of Discoveries interesting to Stamp Collectors.

The index number and serial letter after the title of each paragraph indicate the issue of E.W.S.N. in which the last reference to that country appeared.

GREAT BRITAIN (561 X 591).—Record Dates of use (561 X 591).—Mr. G. Sandilands sends us the 1d. plate 208, postmarked Glasgow 25.1.1878.

Current Issue (589 Y 591).—An announcement of considerable interest to stamp collectors is made by the Daily News (7.1.11).

At present Messrs. Harrison are printing the King Edward stamps. It is understood that the design for the King George stamps has been definitely approved, but the Government has not yet authorised the printing of them. They will probably be in circulation in six months' time.

This means that if the "control letter" system has been continued, there must be another new variety. We had supposed that Messrs. Harrison would commence on 1.1.11 with the Georgian stamps, but as this is not so, the Edwardians will appear in due course with "J 11" or at any rate, not with "J 10" as the "10" is understood to mean "1910."

A change of printer often means differences in the stamps. Most collectors are aware what a great improvement Messrs. De La Rue & Co. effected in printing from the line-engraved plates of Messrs. Perkins, Bacon & Co. Even if Messrs. Harrison & Sons are using plates engraved by Messrs. De La Rue & Co. and using the same watermarked paper, there may nevertheless be a difference in the appearance of the stamps and a difference would carry with it considerable philatelic interest. If old arrangements remain in force, Messrs. Harrison & Son's 1/4d. and 1d. stamps may be expected to be issued at the end of June or beginning of July. But collectors will do well to be on the watch before then.

AUSTRIA (575 Y 591).—The birthday issue is exchangeable at Post Offices for ordinary stamps up to March 1911, and will then be demonetized.

BAVARIA (586 Z 591).—The current postage due stamps, 2, 3, 5 and 10 pfennig, printed in grey and overprinted in red "Vom Empfänger zahlbar" will cease to be issued at the end of 1911.

BOSNIA (574 X 591).—The birthday issue ceased to be issued on 17.12.10 and was demonetized on 31.12.10.

CAYMAN ISLANDS (579 J 591).—Mr. Huber writes, under date of 17.12.10:—"In No. 579 of your Weekly, dated 29.10.10, you mention having seen the 3d. on a brownish-yellow paper, but were not sure that it was not from a sheet that had been discoloured by exposure. In a lot of stamps I received 2.11.10 from Grand Cayman, there was a block of 24 of this stamp, four lower rows from the right hand pane. The right hand and lower margins are attached, the latter with the plate number. This must be from an entirely new printing and not merely from a sheet which has been discoloured by exposure. [We see no proof of this.—Ed.] The stamps also seem to have been printed from a dirty plate, for the lower right-hand stamp, No. 120 on the sheet, has the shading on the face quite heavy and there is quite a blotch on the forehead."

SUBSCRIPTION RATES. Ewen's Weekly Stamp News can be sent post free to any address in any country for one year for 4/4 ($1.06, Mk. 4.50 or fr. 5.50). Each change of address, 6d. extra. Half year, 3/3; 3 months, 1/7½. A special limited subscription has also been arranged; every 5th number can be sent for only 1/3 per annum. Back Nos., 1 to 535, 3d. each; complete, £5; current year, 1/4d. each. EWEN'S LTD., 32, Palace Square, Norwood, London, S.E.

DUTCH INDIES (583 M 591).—A new envelope has been issued, states Der Philatelist (15.12.10).

Envelope.
22½c. olive-brown.

FIJI ISLANDS (568 I 591).—We gather from the Stamp Collectors' Fortnightly (7.1.11, 217) that the following have now been issued.

New colours. Wmk. multiple Crown CA, chalk surfaced paper.
6d. deep and dull purple.
1s. black on green.

FRENCH GABOON (586 I 591).—Le Timbrophile de France (12/10/3) states that the following quantities were issued of the short-lived 1910 issue:—

1c. ..	273,750	35c. ..	19,500
2c. ..	141,750	40c. ..	12,450
4c. ..	144,006	45c. ..	11,550
5c. ..	360,750	50c. ..	7,800
10c. ..	419,250	75c. ..	6,000
20c. ..	69,000	1f. ..	5,250
25c. ..	68,200	2f. ..	2,700
30c. ..	12,000	5f. ..	2,700

Both the 2 and 5 francs are now quoted about 14 francs in Paris.

We have received the new issue.

Old designs, inscribed "Afrique Equatoriale" instead of "Congo Français."

1c. brown and orange.
2c. black and brown.
4c. lilac and blue.
5c. brown and green.
10c. red and rose.
20c. brown and violet.
25c. blue and brown.
30c. brown and rose.
35c. lilac and green.
40c. brown and blue.
45c. rose and lilac.
50c. green and black.
75c. orange and brown.
1f. brown.
2f. rose and brown.
5f. blue and brown.

Issued 13.1.10 or earlier.

KELANTAN (576 F 591).—The Schweizerische Philatelistische Nachrichten (1.11.13) chronicles an issue of stamps for this Malay State (recently ceded from Siam along with Kedah, Trengganu and Perlis).

Adhesive stamps.

1c. green.
3c. purple.
4c. grey, value in red.
5c. green on yellow, value in red.
8c. blue.
10c. grey, value in lilac.
30c. lilac,	carmine.
50c. grey,	orange.
$1 green,	emerald.
$2 "	carmine.
$5 "	ultramarine.
$25 "	orange.

To be issued shortly.

MONACO (509 N 591).—A set of stamps similar to the French "Recouvrements" stamps is being introduced here. Der Philatelist (15.12.10./311) chronicles:—

Postage Due (2) stamps.

1c. olive.
10c. lilac.
30c. brown.

These stamps are listed in the French catalogues along with the Postage Due stamps, with an explanatory note stating that they "servent à taxer les valeurs impayées."

NEWFOUNDLAND (587 W 591).—It is stated in Mekeel's Weekly Stamp News (31.12.10/450) that the 10c. Guy stamp became obsolete on 13.12.10.

There are said to be two defects in the 1c. stamp; in one stamp of the sheet, the final R of "Charter" looks like a B and on another there is a defective U in Newfoundland.

PORTUGUESE NYASSA (584 Q 591).—The Schweizerische Philatelistische Nachrichten (1.11.13) chronicles the following stamps with "Republica" overprint.

Overprinted "Republica" diagonally in red.

2½ reis, black and lilac.
5 "	black.
10 "	black and olive.
20 "	rose.
25 "	chocolate.
50 "	blue.
75 "	brown.
100 "	brown on green.
200 "	olive on flesh.
300 "	black on blue.
400 "	black and brown.
500 "	olive and dark lilac.

RUSSIAN F.P.O. (583 K 591).—We learn from the Schweizerische Philatelistische Nachrichten (1.11/15) that the 20 para on 5 kopek stamp provisionally issued in 9.10 is already obsolete.

The jubilee issue, with ship in centre of the design, is to be demonetised as from 31.3.11 and the stock remaining on hand will be returned to the General Post Office, presumably for destruction. These stamps are quite likely to become scarce because only small quantities have been issued, especially of the 35 and 70 piastres.

These two high values are in such little demand now that postal rates are reduced that they are to be dropped even from the ordinary Levant set.

Our contemporary adds:—"Pour tout amateur de timbres du Levant, ces renseignements ont une grande importance, car négliger d'acheter au moment favorable peut rendre très difficile l'acquisition de ces valeurs. Nous croyons bien faire en attirant sur ce point l'attention de nos lecteurs."

Our last list of these stamps appeared in E.W.S.N. No. 588, page 2274.

RUSSIAN POST, CONSTANTINOPLE (583 K 591).—The Schweizerische Philatelistische Nachrichten (1.11/15) is informed that another error has been discovered in the 5 para stamp reading "Consnantinople." We are a little sceptical.

SIAM (581 M 591).—The following new provisional stamp is shown us by the Continental Stamp Co.

New surcharge.
6 satang on 4 atts, grey and red.

Issued 20.11.10 or earlier.

Ewen's Current Stamp Market.

HOW TO START COLLECTING STAMPS.

There are numbers of people who would like to take up a hobby such as Stamp Collecting, but don't quite know how to start. The purchase of a printed album and catalogue is more likely to frighten them than otherwise, unless compiled on a much simplified system, excluding watermarks, perforations, surcharges, and, in fact, every kind of variety. For those, however, who prefer the 'all-in' method, perhaps the very best way is to gather together the current sets in use in all the countries of the world—or at least in the British Colonies. Each set may be mounted at the top of the page in a blank album, leaving space below for varieties of watermark, perforation, surcharge, etc., as they are issued. In order to keep the collection up to date, the best way is to subscribe to a New Issue Service, stating up to what limit of face value you collect. Roughly speaking, the cost of British Colonial New Issues (excluding varieties) is £5, £10 or £20 per annum, according as the face value limit is 1/-, 5/- or 20/-. The inclusion of shades and varieties may, however, multiply the cost several times, and at special times, such as Coronation Year, the cost is also augmented.

SUBSCRIPTION STAMP COLLECTING.

(MR. EWEN'S INVENTION ; COPYRIGHT.)

HOW IT CAN HELP YOU.

We have tens of thousands of pounds worth of current stamps through our hands, and constantly importing as we do from every country of the world, we get many good things. For instance, when the Levant 1 piastre 30 para brown and green suddenly became obsolete at Christmas, 1909, and advanced from 4d. to 10/-, we were left with 500 in stock, which had only cost us face value. We could not give our clients any part of this benefit, because had we offered the stamps cheaply, we should immediately have received wholesale orders from speculators ; if we refused the wholesale orders, the speculators would get their brothers and sisters and uncles and aunts to order singles and blocks of four. Either way, our regular all-the-year-round clients would be at a disadvantage, whilst the speculators would use the stamps they obtained from us to break down the market, and so rob bona fide collectors of a good investment. The collector who is willing to help us keep the speculator at bay, and share in the good things as his reward, is asked to carefully consider the following explanation of Subscription Stamp Collecting.

"NEW ISSUES THE BEST INVESTMENT."

Our object is to increase our already wide circle of collectors and dealers, who are not speculators, to whom we can offer these good things that come our way. We benefit far more in the long run by insuring that our subscribers' collections shall become first-class investments ; we feel, in fact, a certain amount of responsibility in the matter. We do not want only to say, "New Issues are the best investment" ; we want to make it overwhelmingly evident that it is so.

WE INTRODUCE A NEW £1 1/- SUBSCRIPTION.

Every collector or dealer, on entering into business relations with Ewen's Current Stamp Market is strongly urged to become an annual subscriber. There is no entrance fee, and the annual subscription of £1 1/- carries with it many privileges.

- (1) Annual subscribers receive "Ewen's Weekly Stamp News" free.
- (2) " " " everything purchased from us post free.
- (3) Stamps sent by us to annual subscribers are insured, and will be replaced if lost or damaged in transit.
- (4) They have the right to share in our special bonus offers (worth far more than the £1 1/- subscription), subject to the preferential claims of senior members when supplies run short.
- (5) They can be supplied free of charge with a packet of small gummed labels with their name and address printed (such as we use for correspondence).
- (6) We will supply an occasional box of stamp mounts free to mount the stamps purchased from us.

And last, but not least, (7) They have the option of applying for the Limited Freedom of our New Issue Service and of our Order Department.

WHAT THE "LIMITED FREEDOM" MEANS.

"Limited Freedom" confers the right to open as many deposit accounts as desired, each with the fixed sum of £11, of which we take 9%, or £1, as our commission. The balance of £10 is then handed to our Accountant, and stamps may be ordered against it until it is exhausted, and they will be invoiced at face value or cost price only (stamps marked "x" in our lists will be invoiced at three-quarter price). The stamps will either be supplied through our New Issue Service (subject to the usual conditions of a New Issue Service) or through our Order Department. In the former case, one copy of each New Issue will be supplied; in the latter, only one order from each country or colony will be allowed in respect of each £11 deposit, and only one stamp of each kind will be supplied to each order. As it is quite easy looking through our Reference List of Current Issues to find stamps face value £10 which are quoted at and in fact readily saleable retail at £15 or more, it is obvious that the exercise of this option is to be recommended, especially in the case of dealers, who are likely to go very far before they find a more favourable means of replenishing their stock, and it is perhaps more important to-day than ever before in the history of Stamp Collecting for a dealer to keep an up-to-date and wide selection of the latest new issues. In most cases "importing direct" means "over-importing" and taking up capital that might be more profitably employed in other departments of the business.

It is, however, quite optional whether an annual subscriber applies for this Limited Freedom. The advantages 1 to 6, named above, especially No. 4, are more than good enough value for the annual £1 1/- subscription. In this case the subscriber may obtain his stamps at the ordinary sale prices in the usual way, or he may apply for

COMPLETE FREEDOM.

Complete Freedom emancipates the collector from all percentages over face value or cost price, and gives him the additional right to order at half price stamps marked x in our lists, a very valuable concession. Instead of deducting 9% from each deposit, we make no deduction, and the full deposit is available for the supply of stamps. In this case, too, the amount of the deposit is optional, subject to the condition that the deposit account is not to be overdrawn. On the other hand, the member will only be allowed to order one copy of each stamp per annum, and the Complete Freedom is therefore more suitable to a collector than a dealer. As we forego our percentage, we require instead an annual subscription, according to the following scale:—

ANNUAL SUBSCRIPTIONS

Conferring the COMPLETE FREEDOM of our

NEW ISSUE SERVICE and ORDER DEPARTMENT.

Annual Subscription.	New Issue Service Limit of face value.	Reference List Limit of sale price.
£1 1 0	1/-	1/-
£2 2 0	2/-	2/-
£3 3 0	5/-	5/-
£4 4 0	10/-	10/-
£5 5 0	£1	£1
£10 10 0	£5	£5
£21 0 0	No limit	No limit

The Annual Subscription is only good for either the New Issue Service or the Order Department, unless £1 1/- has already been paid to obtain the six initial advantages set out above.

UNLIMITED FREEDOM.

There is yet a third kind of Freedom we offer, which we may best describe as "Unlimited Freedom." In all the above cases, subscriptions are only valid for one year (commencing at any date), and must then be renewed. In the case of "Unlimited Freedom" the subscriber is entitled to pay half one of the annual subscriptions named in the above table, and a deposit—one deposit only—of any amount he likes. His subscription will then remain in force for as long as the deposit lasts, which in the case of a large deposit may be for several years; in fact, one subscription could be made to last a lifetime if the deposit were large enough!

Ewen's Colonial Stamp Market, Ltd.,

32, PALACE SQUARE, NORWOOD, LONDON, S.E.

Deposit Accounts.—All payments (for whatever purpose) are credited to a deposit account, and all invoices (whether for stamps, albums, subscriptions or postage, etc.) are debited to such account. This deposit account should not be overdrawn. The balance is returnable post free on demand.

Returns.—Stamps which are not as ordered may be returned within 10 days and their full sale price will be re-credited to deposit account.

Bank notes.—20 mark=19/6; 50 francs (French) 39/8; 50 francs (other countries), 39/6; 50 lire, 39/6; 20 kronen=16/6; 20 kroner=22/-; 10 gulden=16/6; 10 roubles=21/-; U.S.A. dollar=4/1.

Cheques payable to "Ewen's Colonial Stamp Market, Ltd.," or "Ewen's, Ltd.," postal orders, money orders (inland and foreign) etc., payable to "Ewen's, Ltd.," at "Anerley Road, S.E." Cheques on France and Germany accepted at same rate as bank notes, also bons de poste.

Surcharged on B.N.G.	2/6

The total face value of this fine nucleus for a Papua collection is 30/3 1/2, and we offer it at the very low price of £3, considering the scarcity of many stamps, and the fact that no more official stamps are to be sold. The 2/6 of issue 5 is a rarity, and even issue 6 is advancing.

WHOLESALE PARCEL OF PAPUANS

containing about 230 official and 400 ordinary, suitable for dealers and exchange club members; particulars on receipt of postcard. The exact constitution was not fixed at time of going to press, but will be decided by Thursday, 19th January; the price will be somewhere about £15. We think this lot will "fill a long-felt want" as every dealer wants a good stock of Papuans to show, and this lot contains over 60 varieties and is very cheaply worked out.

JAMAICA.

Set of new colours, 2 1/4d., 4d., 1/-, and 2/-, 4/2.
Mint set, 1/4d. to 5/-, 11/-.

PAPUA.

One of the most interesting Countries to specialize.
SPECIAL OFFER OF A FINE PACKET.

The first eight issues of the permanent series are distinguished in our lists as follows:—

Issues 1, 2.	Wmk. upright,	perf. 11	(issue 2 has inverted wmk.)
" 3, 4.	" "	" 12½	( " 4 " " )
" 5, 6.	" sideways,	" 11	( " 6 " " )
" 7, 8.	" "	" 12½	( " 8 " " )

These have now been superseded by a re-issue of issues 3 and 4, the stamps being however of the second type with large "Papua," and to distinguish them we call the new issue 13 and 14 instead of 3, 4.

A PURCHASE OF THIS COLLECTION IS RECOMMENDED BECAUSE

the stamps of Papua are likely to retain their present popularity for many years. For one thing, they are printed in small sheets of only 30 stamps, and these 30 stamps can be plated (vide the articles recently published in "Gibbons' Stamp Weekly"; there is, too, a considerable chance of finding interesting varieties. Besides these advantages, the collection does not involve research into the mists of antiquity, and there is a reasonable likelihood that the issues will soon cease in view of the approaching Commonwealth issue. Consequently, even a representative collection will not be beyond the means of any persevering collector. Once the present issue is obsolete, we anticipate a sensational advance in the price of some of the varieties.

(Whole Number 678).

Post Free 1½d. 4/4 per annum.

The Week's News.

The Editor is always pleased to receive Early Information of New Issues, or of Discoveries interesting to Stamp Collectors.

The index number and serial letter after the title of each paragraph indicate the issue of E.W.S.N. in which the last reference to that country appeared.

BAVARIA (591 A 592).—We have received a new printing of the high values.

New paper, watermarked with close horizontal wavy lines instead of vertical; white paper instead of toned.

- 1 mark red violet.
- 2 " orange.
- 3 " brown.
- 5 " green.

Issued 18.1.11 or earlier. The year-number on the margin at the corner of the sheet is 37 and the stamps are printed in panes of 5 rows of 10.

With all respect to the Bavarian postal authorities, we must confess that there appears to be no necessity for the above change, as there must have been a sufficient stock of stamps on hand to last until the "90th birthday" issue appears in about six week's time. In fact we should not be surprised to learn that there was a several years' supply of the 3 and 5 mark stamps on hand; the last printing of these two values took place about nine years ago. In the year 1903, 18,000 3 mark and 4000 (?) 5 mark stamps were issued.

The present embossed issue of Bavaria is one of the oldest sets of stamps now in use anywhere throughout the world. The 5, 10 and 20 pfennig differ only in watermark and perforation from the first issue of 1876, whilst in regard to design the present stamps were actually contemporary at one time with the issues of the old German States. Quite a link with the past! Had there been a New Issue Service in 1867 it would have distributed the perf. 13 issue of Bremen, the 2½ sch. of Hamburg, the rouletted Thurn and Taxis and others, along with the first issue of Bavarian stamps in the design that is still current to-day at the end of January, 1911! It is to be hoped that after 43 years service, this fine old design, albeit somewhat expensive to print, is not to be finally cast aside.

About the middle of March, 1911, the 90th birthday of the Regent, Prince Leopold, is to be celebrated by a new issue of stamps, to comprise the existing values and also two of higher value than have yet been issued anywhere in the German Empire, namely, 10 and 20 marks.

BRITISH P.O., LEVANT (582 S 592).—We are informed (16.1.11) by Messrs. Oswald Marsh and K. H. Kricorissian that they have received the ½d. British stamp overprinted "Levant" with control letter "J 10." The varieties known are

- ½d. green D5, F6, G7, H8, J10.
- ½d. scarlet D5, E6, G7, H8, I9.

EAST AFRICA AND UGANDA (580 X 592).—We quote as follows from the Stamp Collectors' Fortnightly (7.1.11/217).

In our issue of the 26th November, we chronicled, on the authority of "The Colonial Office Journal," the Six Cents, carmine, as being printed from a single plate, and we understood that the design was identical with that formerly produced from two plates.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES. Ewen's Weekly Stamp News can be sent post free to any address in any country for one year for 4/4 ($1.06, Mk. 4.50 or fr. 5.50). Each change of address, 6d. extra. Half year, 3/3; 3 months, 1/7½. A special limited subscription has also been arranged; every 5th number can be sent for only 1/3 per annum. Back Nos., 1 to 535, 3d. each; complete, £5; current year, 1½d. each. EWEN'S LTD., 32, Palace Square, Norwood, London, S.E.

Mr. James Malings, however, points out that this stamp has been redrawn, the following being the chief differences:—

DIE I.

- (i.) Shading of forehead goes right across.
- (ii.) The white base line of bust does not turn up at right end.
- (iii.) The white spaces at each side of Central Crown are narrow.
- (iv.) A long coloured line is above each value tablet in top corners.
- (v.) Perpendicular row of dashes between outer edge of value tablets and margins.

DIE II.

- (i.) Shading is much shorter.
- (ii.) The white base line turns up at end and joins the neck.
- (iii.) The white spaces are much wider.
- (iv.) Much shorter coloured line.
- (v.) Perpendicular row of oblong dots.

HONDURAS (541 S 592).—We have received some provisional stamps.

Adhesive.

- "1" in black on 20c. dark blue, perf. 14.
- "5" in green " " " "
- "10" in red " " " "

Issued 29.12.10 or earlier. The figures are about 9mm. high and are handstamped, quite obliterating the portrait.

JHIND STATE (529 N 592).—Within the last year or two there has been a new setting of the overprint for the ordinary stamps.

In the old setting No. 61 on the sheet showed a variation, the ND of "Jhind" being closer together.

In the new setting this variety no longer occurs on No. 61 but is to be found on Nos. 71, 72, 95, 130 and 145.

Our latest importation included the ¼ anna, 1a. Postage and Revenue and 2a. in the new setting, and we had previously had the 2½ anna. The ½a. Postage and Revenue, 1a. Postage and 8 annas are still the old setting.

TRENGGANU (583 D 592).—We quote from the Daily Telegraph (20.1.11).

The first post office in Trengganu, one of the new British Protectorates ceded from Siam, was opened on Dec. 14. This is at Kuala Trengganu, which is the seat of Government, and the first of the special postage-stamps issued by the Trengganu Post Office to reach me are postmarked Dec. 15. Registration of letters and parcels can now be effected to Trengganu, but they are for the present only delivered in Kuala Trengganu. Straits Settlements stamps continue to be valid for postage from the seat of Government until Jan. 1, and are still being used in other parts of the State until the Trengganu postal system is extended.

Notes.

WHAT enormous profits subscribers to New Issue Services must make! Take, for instance, the British New Guinea surcharged "Papua." The face value of the issue was £3,880. Allowing a quarter of this for stamps used in the ordinary course, the face value of the stamps supplied to collectors was £2,910. The present catalogue value is £16,261 without counting varieties and reckoning only the cheapest watermark. If worked out in detail the present catalogue value would come to quite £20,000, leaving a gain of £17,000, of which the original importers must have had very little. This £17,000 must be only one of many such sums that have been divided up amongst New Issue collectors.

The January "Colonial Office Journal" is out and contains a number of philatelic items of quite exceptional interest.

Recent Afghanistan Stamps.

(From the Philatelic Journal of India.)

SIR DAVID MASSON is now able to give us some further information about the stamps described in our April Journal. The letter stamps of 1 and 2 abasi are printed in sheets of 50 stamps, five vertical rows of 10. The parcel stamps are printed in sheets of 25, five rows of 5. The perforation is undoubtedly done by a single machine; defects in this machine are reproduced in each line, both horizontal and vertical. We further learn from Kabul that there have been considerable purchases of these stamps there for a well-known dealer, consequently the stamps of Afghanistan will in future be more heard about in the London Market.

[We fancy the "dealer" referred to must be Ewen's Colonial Stamp Market, Ltd. It is rather surprising that we cannot make a purchase of stamps in such a place as Kabul without the fact immediately becoming public property elsewhere. However, we take this opportunity of making known that we not only purchased the stamps but have them for sale at 17/9 per complete set. The parcel stamps we can do in entire sheets at 1/6 per rupee as a special offer.—EWEN'S LTD.]

The Walthamstow Exhibition.

(From the Evening News, 16.1.11.)

THE announcement that the King is lending some of his philatelic treasures to the Exhibition of the South Essex Society has caused a great deal of interest amongst stamp collectors.

Only his Majesty's intimate friends have hitherto had the opportunity of seeing Sir Rowland Hill's original water-colour sketches and two-penny English stamps of 1840. The original pencil sketch of the "Mulready" envelope, too, has never been shown before.

One of the most interested visitors to the Exhibition will be Mr. J. Dunbar Heath, of Messrs. Perkins, Bacon and Co., banknote engravers, whose great-uncle engraved Sir Rowland Hill's designs.

"The Queen's Head in the sketch," said Mr. Heath, in conversation with an Evening News representative to-day, "was taken from William Lyon's medal, which was struck to commemorate the royal visit to the city in 1837. Corbould made the drawings, for which he received £12, and Charles Heath engraved them. He was given 50 guineas for his work.

"The stamp was printed from steel engraved plates, which, in common with many European countries, we have now discarded in favour of electrotypes on the score of economy and rapidity of production."

The original sketch for the "Mulready" envelope is an interesting relic of an unpopular postal experiment. It had a very short life, and eventually the whole of the vast stock in hand had to be destroyed.

The Exhibition, which opens at Walthamstow Public Library on February 4th, will also include the proof of the last King Edward penny stamp, signed by the King's own hand, and the magenta King Edward stamp, which was prepared for use, but never issued.

[All communications, donations to the funds, and enquiries regarding the Exhibition should be addressed either to the Hon. Secretary, Mr. R. H. Clarke, 290, Blackhorse Lane, Walthamstow, or to the Hon. Competition Secretary, Mr. A. B. C. Dyer, 133, Hoe Street, Walthamstow. The nearest railway stations are Hoe Street (G.E.R.) and Walthamstow (Midland).]

STAMP MOUNTS, best, 10d. per 1000; grease-proof envelopes, 5d., 6d. or 8d. per 100; approval booklets, 1d., 1½d. each; Stolzenberg Albums, 1/6, 3/-; clip albums, 2/6, 10/-; Good Old Times Album, for general collectors, 3 volumes, 12/6 each, or 25/- bound in one; Ewen's Catalogue of New Issues, 7d. post free; list of publications, free; prospectus of New Issue Service, free; sample copies of E.W.S.N., free. EWEN'S LTD., 32, Palace Square, Norwood, London, S.E.

Ewen's Current Stamp Market.

Clients paying an annual subscription of £1 1s. are entitled to special privileges, particulars of which were published in "E.W.S.N." of January 21st, 1911, or will be sent with pleasure on receipt of application. Such subscribers, on payment of a further annual subscription, may also obtain New and Current Issues at face value only, and 'x' stamps at half price.

Sets of Current Stamps.

These Sets form a splendid nucleus for a collection of current stamps and New Issues. The Sets being quoted at specially low rates, we do not guarantee any particular perforation, shade or watermark, nor can sets be broken.

Conditions of our Weekly "New Issue" Service,

WHEN ordering our regular weekly service of mint unused newly issued adhesive postage stamps it is requested that the following particulars be furnished:—

- Which groups are required?
 C (British Colonials).
 K (King's Head Colonials only).
 E (Europeans only).
 F (Rest of World).

N.B.—We endeavour to the utmost to make our Service complete, so that clients may rely on getting practically everything without the trouble of looking in various directions. The only exceptions are countries which are liable to sell remainders under face value; these we do not import. Our rates per 1/- face value are as follows (provided we ourselves buy at face value):—Service de luxe, 1/2 per 1/- face; Popular Service, 10% over face. Continents or special countries can be supplied alone.

2. What values and quantities are required? The usual limits are—1d., 1/-, 5/-, £1, £20.

N.B.—The best investment for a collector is obtained by "£1 x 4," but for those who do not care to spend £100 per annum on new issues, we recommend "£1 x 1, 1/- x 4," or even "5/- x 1, 1/- x 4," or simply "£1 x 1," "10/- x 1," "5/- x 1," or "1/- x 1." For dealers and club dealers we recommend "1/- x 12, 1d. x 60," or half these quantities.

3. What varieties are required? Unless requested to the contrary, we send all varieties of design, paper, watermark, perforation, shade, types of surcharges, etc. If not required please inscribe order form "no minor varieties" or "no varieties at all." Except in the case of minor varieties (which are usually rare), no extra charge is made.

New Issues are supplied, as they appear, on the following conditions:—

- That definite instructions as to clients' requirements are given in advance, and that one month's notice of alteration or cancellation is given.
- That nothing be returned, unless
  - It exceeds these instructions.
  - Is charged above the rate agreed upon.
  - Is misdescribed.
  - Is damaged.
  - Has been issued over a year.

- That returns are made within ten days of receipt and are accompanied by the original invoices, the reason for return being in each case clearly defined (a, b, c, d or e).
- That clients pay all postage expenses and take risk of damage or loss in transit (we are similarly treated when making our purchases).
- That clients maintain their deposit accounts in credit.
- That clients are postal subscribers to Ewen's Weekly Stamp News (4/4 per annum, or with right to change address, 6/6 per annum).

THURN & TAXIS.

Set of 33 Reprints.
We will supply these to any of our postal subscribers at 15/- per set, or blocks of 4, 60/-. The set consists of the following stamps:—

1852/58.	1863/58.	6 kr.	60/-	1864/4.
½ sgr. 25/-	1 sgr. 200/-	9 ..	80/-	3 kr. 1/-
1 .. 5/-	3 .. 120/-			6 .. 9d
2 .. 80/-				9 .. 2/-
1 .. 175/-	1859-61.	1862/64.
2 .. 140/-	½ sgr. 6/-	½ sgr. 1/-		1865.
3 .. 90/-	1 .. 35/-	1 .. 1/3		Rouletted.
1 kr. 7/6	2 .. 40/-	2 .. 10/-		½ sgr. 1/-
3 .. 120/-	3 .. 6/-	1 .. 10/-		1 .. 2/-
6 .. 100/-	3 .. 15/-	2 .. 2/-		1 kr. 1/-
9 .. 80/-	1 kr. 6/-	9 .. 1/-
	3 .. 75/-

These prices are of course the prices of originals and their total, £75, makes it practically impossible for anyone but the wealthiest of collectors to complete this country. The 15/- set of reprints will open the door once more and probably stimulate the sale of the originals rather than the reverse.

COLLECTION

of British Railway Letter stamps, in ten volumes, catalogued £8,000. Further particulars on application.
Also a unique collection in sheets and reconstructed plates classified by transfers, in 41 volumes, interleaved with correspondence, newspaper cuttings, etc., railway letter, newspaper and parcel stamps, 1855 to date, catalogued about £31,000. Further particulars on application.

An Exchange Offer.

PAPUA OFFICIALS.

A COLLECTOR recently obtained a few sets of the Officials and finding all specimens of each value were of the same issue, he sent us four of the duplicate sets, face value 9/4, and we were able to offer him 21 different varieties, face value 9/9 in exchange. Perhaps we could do something of the same kind for you?

APPROVAL BOOKS AND SHEETS.

A VERY large stock of approval books and sheets are now on hand, priced to allow 50% discount. Both foreign countries and British Colonies; also Great Britain (including railway letter stamps). Used and unused. Please let us know what country or countries you are most interested in.

THIS WEEK'S SPECIAL OFFER TO ANNUAL MEMBERS.

PAPUA, DOUBLE "O.S."

Once horizontal, once vertical.

In a recent purchase we found about 50 2d. Papuan Officials showing the above peculiarity. It is only a short time since we ourselves paid a city dealer 10/- for a copy of the 4d. with "OS" sideways, and this should be an equally rare variety.

TO THE FIRST 50 APPLICANTS, PRICE 2d. ONLY.

THIS WEEK'S SPECIAL OFFER TO ANNUAL MEMBERS.

PAPUA, DOUBLE "O.S."

Once horizontal, once vertical.

In a recent purchase we found about 50 2d. Papuan Officials showing the above peculiarity. It is only a short time since we ourselves paid a city dealer 10/- for a copy of the 4d. with "OS" sideways, and this should be an equally rare variety.

TO THE FIRST 50 APPLICANTS, PRICE 2d. ONLY.

The Week's News.

The Editor is always pleased to receive Early Information of New Issues, or of Discoveries interesting to Stamp Collectors.

The index number and serial letter after the title of each paragraph indicate the issue of E.W.S.N. in which the last reference to that country appeared.

GREAT BRITAIN.—Current Issue (591 Z 593).—We quote from the Evening Times (26.1.11).

STAMPS IN ROLLS.

The new departure in the business of the Post Office, which will probably be appreciated by large commercial houses, is the sale of stamps in rolls, instead of as at present, in inconvenient sheets. Each roll will contain 1,000 stamps, and although an additional twopenny will be charged to cover the extra cost of production it is hoped that the saving of time will more than compensate the users. The rolls will be on sale a week or a fortnight hence.

BRITREA (558 E 593).—We have received another value in the new design with representation of Government House at Massowah.

Pictorial design.

Issued 26.1.11 or earlier.

ITALY (586 M 593).—It now appears that the Plebiscite stamps bear the portrait of Garibaldi and not of Count Cavour.

LABUAN (443 B 593).—This note has nothing to do with Labuan but as we have previously discussed Waterlow perforations under this heading we continue, especially as the Labuan stamps afford valuable information.

Mr. E. W. Wetherell in an article on "The Stamps printed for postal purposes by Messrs. Waterlow & Sons, Ltd." in the Philatelic Journal of India (12.10/303) renders a useful service in drawing attention to the loose manner in which all catalogues give the gauges of the Waterlow perforations, but at the same time misses a fine opportunity of setting the catalogue compilers straight. In fact, after discovering that Gibbons' lists the Ecuador 1899 issue as perf. 15, 16 and Kohl as 14, 14½ and that similar discrepancies are constantly occurring (for instance the 1898 Chinese are described as perf. 14-16 and 12-13×14 in Gibbons' and 13½-15½ in Kohl!), he comes to the entirely erroneous conclusion that "the various gauges exist on the same machine," adding that the gauge "obviously depends on what portion of a line" the stamps were perforated with.

Having taking this wrong turning, Mr. E. W. Wetherell ends his journey straight away in a cul-de-sac:—"Therefore for all Waterlow prints it is only necessary to give one heading 'Irregular perforations from machines gauging between 12 and 16.'" Had our Editorial confrère taken the right turning he would have found he had a long journey before him, and it is rather a pity that at least one sign-post that would have put him on the right road was not seen by him. The fault lies with the absence of a philatelic index, for over seven years ago (E.W.S.N. No. 228, under heading Labuan) we gave the result of examining a large number of entire sheets of Waterlow printed stamps. With the exception of 40 holes on one single line machine, we found every machine gauged quite regularly.

The sheets were perforated either 13½, 14, 14½, 15 or 16 and with one exception the perforation of a sheet was regular throughout. Thus, the 1c. Labuan sheets were either 13½ or 14½ but never mixed; the $1 stamps were always perf. 15 and so on. The exception we found was that in a few sheets of the perf. 14 gauge there occurred a section of 28 holes perf. 12½ and another of a dozen or so perf. about 13½, the rest being an even 14. We suggested that one of Waterlow's perf. 14 machines might have been damaged and repaired without regard to the original gauge.

These results were only obtained by examining Labuan stamps of the "Crown Colony" issue and to settle the matter beyond dispute it would be necessary to examine entire sheets of stamps printed at various dates. But we shall be surprised if further investigation fails to confirm our view that the Waterlow gauges are practically all regular.

The difference lies in the fact that the Waterlow machines are used indiscriminately, whereas most other firms have a uniform gauge and only change it from time to time. It is a little difficult to see, though, why the New South Wales perforations are listed separately and not those of Waterlow. The cases are almost parallel. On the other hand, for instance, the South Australian perforations have always followed one another—in recent years we have had 10, 15, 13, 12 and now 12½—and are a valuable index to the date of printing.

It is a curious fact that although Messrs. Waterlow & Sons have been printing British railway letter stamps since 1891 there are very few examples of stamps having been issued with perforation of any of the gauges known on Colonial postage stamps. The G.E.R., L.B. and S.C. and in a less degree the L. & S.W. are rare stamps, perf. 14. One printing of the L. & S.W., by the way, was done with the repaired machine, gauge 14 with the 12½ and 13½ patches. The usual gauges for these stamps were—from 1891 to 1894, 11½ to 11½; 1893-95, perf. 14, 14½; 1895-1897, 11½ to 11½; 1897 to date, 10; 1901 to date, 11. The 11 gauge machine was, we believe, a new patent, which must have had considerable advantages, as almost every printer of railway stamps introduced it about 1901.

NEW ZEALAND (583 v 593).—The King Edward issue does not seem to have been getting on very fast lately, as we have only one additional printing to record. Our list of sheet numbers is now as follows:—

SUDAN (583 E 593).—A Swiss collector offers us a used copy of the 1 mill. Army Service wmk. Quatrefoils, with official error. Only three others probably exist, of which two have been through our hands. For the present copy £50 is asked; we think the owner is a little optimistic as to its value but it may please the owners of the other copies to know what is being asked for the stamp.

The Army Official stamps were only used at Khartoum, Khartoum-North, Kassala and El-Obeid.

SWEDEN (589 Z 593).—We have received the following new value in the new design.

TRINIDAD (560 H 593).—The following is chronicled by the Bazaar, Exchange and Mart (25.1.11/192).

Overprinted "Official."

½d. green, value in figures.

Notes.

MR. G. D. LOVE writes to the Times (25.1.11) suggesting that the stamps of all British Colonies, Dependencies and Protectorates should have the words "British Empire Postage" upon them, and that all the stamps might be of one design.

We are afraid Mr. Love is not a very practical man or he would know that in some colonies stamps are available for fiscal as well as postal use. Stamp Collectors, too, will hardly thank Mr. Love for suggesting such a monotonous addition to their collections, as about 70 sets of stamps in precisely the same design.

Current British Colonial stamps are being boomed even in Germany. Messrs. Paul Kohl G. m. b. H., Chemnitz, Saxony, write in the Internationales Briefmarken Offertenblatt (20.1.11):—"Die englischen Kolonialmarken halten wir für eine recht aussichtsvolle Anlage, da neue Marken in Sicht sind."

STAMP MOUNTS, best, 10d. per 1000; grease-proof envelopes, 5d., 6d. or 8d. per 100; approval booklets, 1d., 1½d. each; Stolzenberg Albums, 1 6/3/-; clip albums, 2/6, 10/-; Good Old Times Album, for general collectors, 3 volumes, 12/6 each, or 25/- bound in one; Ewen's Catalogue of New Issues, 7d. post free; list of publications, free; prospectus of New Issue Service, free; sample copies of E.W.S.N., free. EWEN'S LTD., 32, Palace Square, Norwood, London, S.E.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES. Ewen's Weekly Stamp News can be sent post free to any address in any country for one year for 4/4 ($1.06, Mk. 4.50 or fr. 5.50). Each change of address, 6d. extra. Half year, 3/3; 3 months, 1/7½. A special limited subscription has also been arranged; every 5th number can be sent for only 1/3 per annum. Back Nos., 1 to 535, 3d. each; complete, £5; current year, 1½d. each. EWEN'S LTD., 32, Palace Square, Norwood, London, S.E.

Conditions of our Weekly "New Issue" Service.

WHEN ordering our regular weekly service of mint unused newly issued adhesive postage stamps it is requested that the following particulars be furnished:—

1. Which groups are required?

- C (British Colonials).
- K (King's Head Colonials only).
- E (Europeans only).
- F (Rest of World).

N.B.—We endeavour to the utmost to make our Service complete, so that clients may rely on getting practically everything without the trouble of looking in various directions. The only exceptions are countries which are liable to sell remainders under face value; these we do not import. Our rates per 1/- face value are as follows (provided we ourselves buy at face value):— Service de luxe, 1/2 per 1/- face; Popular Service, 10% over face. Continents or special countries can be supplied alone.

2. What values and quantities are required? The usual limits are—1d., 1/-, 5/-, £1, £20.

N.B.—The best investment for a collector is obtained by "£1 x 4," but for those who do not care to spend £100 per annum on new issues, we recommend "£1 x 1, 1/- x 4," or even "5/- x 1, 1/- x 4," or simply "£1 x 1," "10/- x 1," "5/- x 1," or "1/- x 1." For dealers and club dealers we recommend "1/- x 12, 1d. x 60," or half these quantities.

3. What varieties are required? Unless requested to the contrary, we send all varieties of design, paper, watermark, perforation, shade, types of surcharges, etc. If not required please inscribe order form "no minor varieties" or "no varieties at all." Except in the case of minor varieties (which are usually rare), no extra charge is made.

New Issues are supplied, as they appear, on the following conditions:—

- 1.—That definite instructions as to clients' requirements are given in advance, and that one month's notice of alteration or cancellation is given.
- 2.—That nothing be returned, unless
  - (a) It exceeds these instructions.
  - (b) Is charged above the rate agreed upon.
  - (c) Is misdescribed.
  - (d) Is damaged.
  - (e) Has been issued over a year.

- 3.—That returns are made within ten days of receipt and are accompanied by the original invoices, the reason for return being in each case clearly defined (a, b, c, d or e).
- 4.—That clients pay all postage expenses and take risk of damage or loss in transit (we are similarly treated when making our purchases).
- 5.—That clients maintain their deposit accounts in credit.
- 6.—That clients are postal subscribers to Ewen's Weekly Stamp News (4/4 per annum, or with right to change address, 6/6 per annum).

The Week's News.

The Editor is always pleased to receive Early Information of New Issues, or of Discoveries interesting to Stamp Collectors.

The index number and serial letter after the title of each paragraph indicates the issue of E.W.S.N. in which the last reference to that country appeared.

GREAT BRITAIN.—Unadhesive Stamps (585 M 594).—The Daily Telegraph (2.2.11) makes an interesting statement respecting the stamped Post Office stationery. The ½d. and 1d. envelopes are at present stamped with embossing dies lettered B.R. at the base of the bust. As these initials stand for "Bunhill Row," Messrs. De La Rue & Co's place, they can hardly be used by the new contractors, so that in the case of the unadhesive stamps too we may expect an exciting spring time this year. Mr. Melville writes:—

"By way of supplement to my previous notes upon the new stamp contracts for Great Britain, I am now able to state that Messrs. McCorquodale & Co. are engaged upon the production of the stamped envelopes, postcards, and wrappers of the King Edward series. This firm has long printed the strong registration envelopes stamped in blue, but the ordinary stamped stationery sold in the post-offices was formerly printed by Messrs. De la Rue and Co. Up to last week no deliveries had been made of the stationery from the new printers. This firm has done a good deal of work for the Post Office in the past, including the vast quantities of telegraph forms distributed freely throughout the country, and the firm has been associated with the printing of adhesive stamps for many of the British railway companies to use in connection with the railway letter-fee service. The stamped stationery in the King George series is not yet in hand."

In the meantime, new dies of the numbered Somerset House series are still appearing. Mr. Oswald Marsh informs us that on 3.1.11 he obtained the ½d. die 74 and on 20.1.11 the following:—1d. die 81; 6d. die 13. In addition, Mr. Herbert Jenner sends us 1d. die 82, used 30.1.11. Our list now stands:—

Envelope Dies. List of die-numbers known.

- ½d. dark green. Dies 7 to 30; 43 to 55.
- ½d. yellow-green. Dies 45 to 74 except 49, 70, 73.
- 1d. Dies 7 to 30; 43 to 82 except 80.
- 1½d. yellow Die 1; 1½d. violet, Dies 1, 2.
- 4d., 10d., 1/- Die 1.
- 2d. Dies 1, 2. 2½d. Die 3. 3d. Dies 1, 2.
- 6d. Dies 1 to 13.
- 3d. Registration, Dies 1 to 18.

The ½d., 1d. and 6d. dies have been registered as far as 76, 88 and 18 respectively. In the case of the ½d. and 1d. dies, Nos. 1 to 6 and 31 to 42 are lettered "BR" for use by Messrs. De La Rue & Co, at Bunhill Row, but we think many other "B.R." dies must have been made as the dies used by De La Rue and at Somerset House, were in earlier years in the proportion of at least 5 to 1. As 64 1d. dies have been used at Somerset House, this would imply the existence of at least 300 BR dies and not 18.

BELGIUM (583 N 594).—L'Annonce Timbrologique (1.11/3101) states that the issue of the Charity stamps is to be extended to 30.6.11 and that their validity will continue till 1.10.11. The new issue with portrait of King Albert has been delayed and is not now to be expected before June, 1911, but in the meantime, states Der Philatelist (15.1.11) new stamps of 40c. and 5 fr. will be issued.

CONGO (583 Y 594).—Two new postcards are chronicled by Der Philatelist (15.1.11/2).

Postcards, with bi-lingual inscription.
5c. red.
10c. orange.

JOHORE (452 V 594).—We have received the following new varieties:—

Wmk. vertical rosette. Chalk-surfaced instead of ordinary paper.
1c. lilac and green.
2c. " orange.
Wmk. horizontal rosettes, multiple. Chalk-surfaced paper.
3c. lilac and black.
4c. " carmine.

Wmk. vertical rosette. Printed from new plate (?) with fainter shading. Ordinary paper.
[The 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 10c. were chronicled some years ago.]

25c. pale lilac and green.
$1 pale green and lilac.

Issued 20.11.10 or earlier.

NEW HEBRIDES (590 Y 594).—We learn from the Australian Philatelist (3.1.11) that the new issue with London surcharge was placed on sale on 15.12.10.

Every requisition sent by us has been refused, which is surely an extraordinary proceeding. The authorities knew perfectly well when they ordered from London what demand they would have to meet and if they ordered an insufficient supply and now decline stamp dealers' orders, it may well be suggested that something is wrong.

NORWAY (583 A 594).—Der Philatelist (15.1.11/3) reports the issue of the 50 and 60 øre in the re-engraved type. The date on the margin of the sheets is August 1910.

ORANGE RIVER COLONY (557 I 594). The Nederlandsche Philatelist reports the discovery of a minor variety in the 4d. of the King Edward series, single watermark, with "POSTAGE" instead of "P."

RHODESIA (587 O 594).—Mr. Drinkwater writes:—"I have just heard from Buluwayo that there is a flaw on one stamp in each sheet of certain values of the new set, and you do not seem to have drawn attention to it. It will rank as a well-marked variety. I have seen two of the values with this defect. If you are not aware of it and will send me one of each value showing it at ordinary price I will draw your attention to it."

As we have not accepted Mr. Drinkwater's offer, we are obliged to tantalize our readers in the same way that our correspondent tantalizes us!

THURN & TAXIS REPRINTS (590 D 594).—The "Ratisbona" Briefmarkensammlerverein, to whom the sale of the reprints was entrusted by the Thurn and Taxis authorities announces under date of 19.1.11 that the first 1500 sets have been completely sold, the last of them being sold on 19.1.11. The sale was then suspended for eight days and in accordance with the original announcement, a further 750 sets would then be issued at 20/- instead of 10/- the price of the first lot. After these there remain a final 1500 sets which will probably be very materially advanced in price, but nothing has yet been decided.

As we have only 2 or 3 sets remaining we are obliged to advance our price from 15/- to 25/-.

TRENGGANU (592 E 594).—We have received a first supply of the stamps of this state, despatched on 10.1.11. They are printed in sheets of 120, divided into two panes of 60, each 10 rows of 6, as usual.

The Essex Stamp Exhibition, Walthamstow, 1911.

THERE is not much time to lose, for the Exhibition closes this evening (Saturday, 11th February, 1911), at 9.30 p.m., so we will begin by recommending the reader, if he has not yet visited the Exhibition, to leave reading what we are about to write and rush off to Liverpool Street to catch the next train to Hoe Street, Walthamstow, which is only a minute or so from the Public Library. Fortunately there are plenty of trains and as they only have five or six miles to cover it does not take long to get there. The distance is so short one can even take a "taxi."

Perhaps the most interesting exhibit is that of the three 2d. "magenta" (which experts say should really be called mauve), which form part of the exhibit of His Majesty, King George. For our own part we cannot say we were delighted with either the colour or the design of the stamp. A mint corner pair and a single "used on entire" are shown.

We were unfortunately unable to be present on Saturday, 4th February, at the opening ceremony, which was performed by Sir J. A. Simon K.C., M.P. (His Majesty's Solicitor-General), the vote of thanks being proposed by Mr. L. Stanley Johnson. In the evening, however, we were able to get to the Exhibition, and with some difficulty, owing to the large number of visitors, to inspect the exhibits.

The Exhibition is promoted by the South Essex Philatelic Society and reflects great credit on its members. It is pleasing to find so much enthusiasm for the hobby amongst the members of such a young society, and it is to be hoped that with this example before them, certain other Societies will begin to wake up.

Some of the exhibits are:—

Cayman Islands. Mr. Adutt's famous specialized Collection, including an entire sheet of 120 of the ½d. on 5/-, one stamp being the error without surcharge.

British New Guinea (unsurcharged), with special reference to postmarks; including a fine selection of Queensland stamps with B.N.G. postmarks. Shown by Mr. A. Ashby.

Ionian Islands. Shown by Mr. Owen Fearnley.

Cape of Good Hope. Shown by Mrs. Field.

Sarawak. Shown by Mr. A. Grellier.

Great Britain. Mr. W. V. Morten's fine collection, illustrating the History of the British Post Office from 1510 to 1908. A description of this collection covers five pages of the catalogue.

Great Britain, proofs and essays. Mr. C. Nissen. Proofs, colour trials and essays. Shown by the Philatelic Students' Fellowship.

and many other exhibits.

The stamps shown by Ewen's Colonial Stamp Market, Ltd., and Mr. H. L'Estrange Ewen include the first seven issues of the Barry Dock and Barry Railways (extensively written up to show a new form of specialism called the "diary system"); Hungary, Danish West Indies and Mecklenburg Schwerin, illustrating Ewen's Simplified Stamp Collecting; and the die-numbers of the Great Britain embossed 1d. envelope stamp from 1841 to 1911, all of course cut square (the stamp is surely of more importance to stamp collectors than the envelope).

These three exhibits are by the way shown for the first time at an Exhibition.

originated, we believe, with Mr. A. H. Clark, President of the Essex Philatelic Society, but not a little of its success is also due to the Hon. Secretary and Treasurer, Mr. R. H. Clarke, to the Hon. Entertainment Secretary, Mr. A. B. C. Dyer, to Mr. Percy C. Bishop, Editor of the Stamp Collectors' Fortnightly, representing the Press, and to Mr. W. E. Lincoln, representing the Stamp Trade.

It is to be hoped that the South Essex Philatelic Society will not suffer any financial loss through its enterprise, and if any of our readers would care to contribute, we shall be happy to forward their donations to the Treasurer and to acknowledge them in these columns.

Obituary.

JUDGE F. A. PHILBRICK.

THE death is announced from Colchester of his Honour Judge Frederick Adolphus Philbrick, K.C.

Judge Philbrick, who was the eldest son of Frederick Blomfield Philbrick, of Colchester, attorney-at-law, was born in 1836. In 1853 he obtained a B.A. degree at London University, and before going to the Bar he was articled to the town clerk of Colchester, in whose office the late Mr. C. M. Warmington, K.C., was also a pupil. In 1857 he was awarded the Clifford's Inn prize, and on April 19th, 1858, he entered the Middle Temple, obtaining a studentship in November of the same year. He was called to the Bar in 1860 and became a member of the old Home Circuit. In 1870 he was appointed Recorder of Colchester, an office which he held to the time of his death, thus maintaining the early associations of his family with that town. In 1874 he became a Queen's Counsel at the early age of 38, and in 1876 he was elected a Bencher of his Inn. In 1895 he was appointed a County Court Judge, his circuit, No. 55, including the towns of Bournemouth, Salisbury, Dorchester, Yeovil, and Poole, besides smaller places. Among other interests of a varied life Judge Philbrick was a prominent Freemason, a keen philatelist, and a grower of orchids.

The Lindenberg Medal.

(From the Daily Telegraph, 2.2.11.)

A CONTINENTAL philatelist who is prominent in the news this week is Imperial Counsellor Dr. Franz Kalckhoff, who has been selected this year for the philatelic honour of the Lindenberg Medal. This medal is a kind of philatelic Nobel prize, and was founded by the Berlin Philatelisten Klub, on Feb. 6th, 1905. It is conferred for conspicuous services to and successful authorship in philately, and is named after the eminent ex-president of the Berlin Club, Judge Lindenberg. Dr. Kalckhoff is the tenth recipient of this medal, which is quite international. Of the ten medals, three have been awarded to philatelists in Great Britain, two in Germany, two in France, and one each in Belgium, Italy and Austria.

Dr. Kalckhoff's title to inclusion on the Lindenberg roll of honour is indisputable, as, indeed, are all the gentlemen who have been hitherto selected to receive it. He is a Doctor of Philosophy and a member of the Board of the German Patents Office. His interest in postage stamps commenced as far back as 1868. Since the late seventies he has been a constant contributor to the literature on the subject, and is best known for his books on reprints. In addition to long association with the leading German technical journals, he was on Judge Lindenberg's staff of contributors for the ambitious encyclopædic work entitled the "Grosser Handbuch der Philatelie."

The Philatelic Library

OF THE ROYAL PHILATELIC SOCIETY'S PRESIDENT.

THIS week the council of the Philatelic Literature Society has issued the prospectus of the "Catalogue of the Philatelic Library of the Earl of Crawford, K.T." The publication of this, the most important work ever attempted in the bibliography of stamp collecting, is an event of great moment to all students of the subject. The uninitiated member of the public will learn with surprise that a library of printed books, journals, and pamphlets on stamp collecting requires a catalogue extending to 470 pages (14in. by 10½in.), printed in double columns. Yet that is the extent of the philatelic portion of the celebrated Bibliotheca Lindesiana, the catalogue of which is to be published next month.

The work is by special permission dedicated to his Majesty the King. The Earl of Crawford is issuing his own edition for private circulation, but he has very generously allowed the Philatelic Literature Society to print off a further edition for its members and for philatelists generally. The society's issue will be limited to 300 copies, 200 of which are offered for subscription at 2gs. a copy.

One result of this issue of the catalogue of the Crawford Library (which constitutes a practically complete bibliography of philately) will be to elevate our pursuit in the minds of the librarians of public institutions. Hitherto very little attention has been given to the literature of postage-stamps in the public libraries, and even the great libraries, such as the British Museum and the Bodleian, have no considerable representation of works on the subject. Many of the best local public libraries have no other philatelic work on their shelves than an out-of-date priced catalogue. I look, therefore, to the new publication to raise our study in the esteem of the librarians, for so vast a literature has not grown up without some solid basis of interest and value to justify more attention being given to the subject in all general libraries.

(Daily Telegraph, 20.1.11.)

Notes.

A new philatelic society has been established at Salisbury, Rhodesia, with Mr. A. Haynes, a collector well known on the Rand, as its honorary secretary. There is already an active society in the country, with its headquarters at Bulawayo, and of these the Postmaster-General of Rhodesia, Mr. G. H. Eyre, is president, and Mr. W. L. Simon is honorary secretary.—The Daily Telegraph, 2.2.11.

In connection with the Essex Philatelic Exhibition, it may be remarked that the county of Essex gave the Royal Philatelic Society its first Vice-President, the late Judge Philbrick, who afterwards succeeded Sir Daniel A. Cooper as President. If we may mention ourself in such distinguished company, Essex is in part responsible for the Editor's existence, since the Rev. H. L'Estrange Ewen, father of the writer, was born at Dedham, a mile or so from Colchester and curiously enough, within a year or so of Judge Philbrick.

The Ewens and Philbricks, residing so near together, were probably acquainted. A son of each family was called to the Bar, about the same time. But it would be difficult to get at the facts, seeing that sixty years have elapsed.

* * *

It is also rather a coincidence that the father of the Rev. H. L'Estrange Ewen and a relative of Mr. W. B. Thornhill married into the same family. A relative of Mr. Thornhill also succeeded Mr. Ewen as rector of Offord d'Arcy, where the writer was born. Mr. Thornhill, years ago, was well-known as a specialist of Shanghai and Great Britain and was we believe responsible for interesting the late Earl of Kingston in the hobby. It was Lord Kingston who succeeded Judge Philbrick as third President of the Royal Philatelic Society. Mr. Thornhill's collection of Great Britain, largely added to by Mr. Selby, was shown by the latter at the London Philatelic Exhibition of 1897.

* * *

When the Rev. H. L'Estrange Ewen left Offord, he moved to the neighbouring town of St. Neots, also in Huntingdonshire. St. Neots then had quite a number of stamp collectors amongst its residents, one of whom, by the way, was responsible for the writer becoming a collector. Dr. Rix lived there; as an active collector he had been contemporary with Mount Brown. What has become of his collection we do not know. His house was said to be papered with 1d. blacks and 2d., no lines! St. Neots is also a town of some interest to philatelists on account of its connection with the early history of papermaking. Another St. Neots resident, the late Mr. D. Tomson, used to state that when apprenticed to a firm of printers in London (from 1846 to 1848) he set up the first telegram form ever printed.

* * *

Mr. C. J. Phillips of Messrs. Stanley Gibbons, Ltd., says that "a philatelic paper, without any outside advertisements, is a very expensive hobby." In the case of the Monthly Journal he estimates that with a subscription list of 5000 at 3/- per annum, and allowing 1/3 per annum for postage, the net income will be £437 and the expenditure £1260, leaving a nett loss of £823 a year.

A Coronation Stamp.

(The Times, 11.1.11.)

The King has directed the following letter to be written to a correspondent:—

York Cottage, Sandringham,
January 5, 1911.

Sir,—I am commanded to thank you for your letter of the 2nd inst., in which you suggest that the issue of a special Coronation stamp might be a source of income to the King's Hospital Fund, and, in reply, his Majesty directs me to inform you that this matter has been under consideration.

Yours faithfully,

ARTHUR BIGGE.

Christmas Stamps in New York.

(The Standard, 19.12.10.)

(From Our Correspondent.)

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.

The American Red Cross Society expects to raise £2000 this Christmas season through the sale of holiday stamps. The stamps are of a holly design and are affixed to parcels containing Christmas gifts. They sell for one half-penny each. Six millions have already been disposed of.

Christmas Stamps in Ireland.

(The Irish Independent, 21.12.10.)

THIS year again the Christmas stamps are on sale in aid of the crusade against tuberculosis in Ireland. These stamps, of pretty design, printed in two colours, are meant to be affixed to the backs of Christmas envelopes and parcels. They are sold for a halfpenny each, the money thus realized being devoted solely to the great and beneficent work of fighting the terrible disease which causes such mortality among our people.

Last Christmas very large numbers of these stamps were sold, but even more might have been disposed of, and a correspondingly increased amount of good done, but for the fact that the idea was then a complete novelty and that many people in this country are old-fashioned in their views, and tend to fight shy of any innovation, no matter how good.

Austria Leads.

(The Irish Independent, 21.12.10.)

THE purpose of this article is to give some idea of how Christmas and New Year stamps are made use of in other countries in order to raise money for various objects. In this matter Austria leads the van. Stamps are issued in aid of practically every charitable organisation in that country, and are eagerly sold by the friends of the charity, just as bazaar-tickets are sold here. Indeed, the success of the stamps has been so great, that they are no longer limited to charitable objects, but are even sold to raise funds for such widely-differing institutions as aviation societies and political parties.

Some of these stamps are shown on this page. Unfortunately the brilliant colours in which they are printed cannot be reproduced in a newspaper, but it is easy to see that many of them are of beautiful design. An interesting illustration is that of a typical Christmas letter received by the present writer last week from Vienna. The sender has decorated his envelope with no less than five stamps. The middle one below is sold in aid of a hospital under the special patronage of the Archduchess Maria Josepha, whose portrait appears. On the right is a Blind Asylum stamp, on the left one sold in aid of the Society for the Protection of Children, the two upper stamps are political, and are issued by the pan-German party.

GROWING SUCCESS.

It is in Denmark, however, that the stamps have been specially devoted to the purpose that interests us most deeply in Ireland—namely, the fight against tuberculosis. The sale of the stamps in Denmark, backed up as it was by magnificent popular enthusiasm, produced an almost incredible amount of money for the good work. It could hardly be believed that the sale of these anti-tuberculosis stamps could give such a splendid return in a small country like Denmark were the figures not vouched for in the recently published report of the Committee. In the first year (1904) 7,400 Kronen (over £800) was realised; in 1909 the amount had risen to £5,500, while in the six years from 1904 to 1909, inclusive, the grand total of over £23,500 was collected by this means.

What has been done in Denmark can be done in Ireland. Everyone admits that the war against tuberculosis is a great and holy war, but more might be done by individuals to aid in the fight. This is a matter which concerns every man, woman, and child in the country. Every penny subscribed is additional ammunition against the enemy, and in no way can you help the cause better than by buying even a few of these Irish Christmas stamps and adorning with them your Christmas and New Year letters.

The stamps may be obtained (price sixpence per dozen) at 76 Grafton Street, Dublin, or by post from the following ladies—Mrs. Tobin, 60 St. Stephen's Green; Mrs. Rushton, 13 Belmont Avenue, Donnybrook; Miss Thompson, 59 Fitzwilliam Square; Miss Dunne, 32, Upper Merrion Street.

WHAT WE HAVE TO SAY.

With regard to the proposed Coronation stamp, there is one great objection to it. We all hope and expect that for at least another half century there will not be another Coronation. Therefore, although a Coronation stamp were issued this year it could only result in a temporary increase of income and would not permanently benefit the King's Hospital Fund.

There is no doubt that within the last few years there has not only been an enormous increase in the number of stamps issued for charitable purposes but there has also been a great increase in their popularity. These remarks, however, apply only to the rest of the world and not to Britain.

The attitude of the Briton towards a letter which he wishes to despatch, whether to a friend or a tradesman, is different to that of a foreigner. In this country it would be considered not entirely good form to place the stamp otherwise than neatly in the top right hand corner and the postage stamps must be limited as far as possible to one. Two halfpenny stamps are not quite the same as one penny one. Then, again, envelopes must be neat and it is not quite the thing to close them with a piece of stamp edging, however defective the gum on the flap may be. In fact, etiquette in this country, forbids the placing of labels—even charitable stamps—upon the backs of correspondence (although paper seals are coming more into use in the case of business firms).

On the Continent it is different. If it is possible to prepay the postage with five stamps instead of one, the five are found; and if one only is at hand, there is seldom any attempt to put it on neatly; very often it is on the back of the letter instead of the front. Judging by correspondence which reaches us from the Continent, few correspondents there are happy unless they have at least one charity or other label to close the envelope with. Exhibition labels too are very popular.

The reason why the first stamps issued by the King's Hospital Fund did not prove a great success was probably that they were of too high face value, rendering them useless when purchased. To attach them to correspondence would have been too ostentatious charity.

The best results with charity stamps are obtained by those of lowest value and we are of opinion that the largest revenue would be obtained if the face value were one farthing only.

There is really no reason why letters should not be sealed with a charity stamp, and several good reasons why they should. There has unfortunately of late been a considerable increase of tampering with letters, whether for the purpose of stealing those containing valuables or merely of reading them. People often close their letters very carelessly; and even where the flap is well gummed, it can usually be raised without tearing, if the paper is of good quality. A likely looking letter may be selected and opened and if it contains no blank postal order it can be resealed, put back for delivery later in the day without anyone being the wiser, unless on their guard and actually looking for signs of opening. If there is a fragile label over the flap of the envelope, this proceeding is foiled, or at least, rendered more difficult.

This is one reason why it might be a very good thing if the fashion of placing a charity label over the flap of a letter were inaugurated. Another is that distinguished people receive a great deal of uninteresting correspondence and in selecting that for their private attention a secretary has to rely on the superscription or on semi-hieroglyphic initials in the lower left-hand corner; for a crest is not always a guarantee. A private seal-stamp could obviate this difficulty.

No doubt the Hospital Authorities would grant it on payment of a generous annual subscription. But however large the number of stamps might be they would have to bear some common sign that would "hall-mark" them, so to speak, or identify them with the King's Hospital Fund.

Every stamp, too, should have the year of its issue clearly printed upon it. The New Year's stamp could be issued each year just before Christmas, in time for use on Christmas cards.

Such stamps as we suggest would not of course be "stamps" within the philatelic meaning of the word, but if there were a good variety of them, numbers of people would collect them and from that it would only be a step to taking up the King's hobby of Philately in earnest.

Although we have referred here to the labels as "stamps," there is no reason why they should be limited to the general idea of a "stamp." They might for instance consist merely of a motto or they might be created in great variety, with all sorts of "wishes." There might be one stamp for instance with "Votes for Women," for the use of suffragettes; another with "Down with the Chancellor of the Exchequer" for those who have to pay super-tax; any number of ideas occur to one.

Of course, all would have to bear some particular sign that would be the copyright of the King's Hospital Fund but, with proper safeguards, we commend the idea to the Hospital authorities as practicable, and one that would likely yield them a very large annual revenue.

Conditions of our Weekly "New Issue" Service.

WHEN ordering our regular weekly service of mint unused newly issued adhesive postage stamps it is requested that the following particulars be furnished:—

1. Which groups are required?

- C (British Colonials).
- K (King's Head Colonials only).
- E (Europeans only).
- F (Rest of World).

N.B.—We endeavour to the utmost to make our Service complete, so that clients may rely on getting practically everything without the trouble of looking in various directions. The only exceptions are countries which are liable to sell remainders under face value; these we do not import. Our rates per 1/- face value are as follows (provided we ourselves buy at face value):—Service de luxe, 1/2 per 1/- face; Popular Service, 10% over face. Continents or special countries can be supplied alone.

2. What values and quantities are required? The usual limits are—1d., 1/-, 5/-, £1, £20.

N.B.—The best investment for a collector is obtained by "£1 x 4," but for those who do not care to spend £100 per annum on new issues, we recommend "£1 x 1, 1/- x 4," or even "5/- x 1, 1/- x 4," or simply "£1 x 1," "10/- x 1," "5/- x 1," or "1/- x 1." For dealers and club dealers we recommend "1/- x 12, 1d. x 60," or half these quantities.

3. What varieties are required? Unless requested to the contrary, we send all varieties of design, paper, watermark, perforation, shade, types of surcharges, etc. If not required please inscribe order form "no minor varieties" or "no varieties at all." Except in the case of minor varieties (which are usually rare), no extra charge is made.

New Issues are supplied, as they appear, on the following conditions:—

- 1.—That definite instructions as to clients' requirements are given in advance, and that one month's notice of alteration or cancellation is given.
- 2.—That nothing be returned, unless
  - (a) It exceeds these instructions.
  - (b) Is charged above the rate agreed upon.
  - (c) Is misdescribed.
  - (d) Is damaged.
  - (e) Has been issued over a year.

3.—That returns are made within ten days of receipt and are accompanied by the original invoices, the reason for return being in each case clearly defined (a, b, c, d or e).

4.—That clients pay all postage expenses and take risk of damage or loss in transit (we are similarly treated when making our purchases).

5.—That clients maintain their deposit accounts in credit.

6.—That clients are postal subscribers to Ewen's Weekly Stamp News (4/4 per annum, or with right to change address, 6/6 per annum).

Surcharged on B.N.G.

The total face value of this fine nucleus for a Papua collection is 30/3½, and we offer it at the very low price of £3, considering the scarcity of many stamps, and the fact that no more official stamps are to be sold. The 2/6 of issue 5 is a rarity, and even issue 6 is advancing.

The Week's News.

The Editor is always pleased to receive Early Information of New Issues, or of Discoveries interesting to Stamp Collectors.

The index number and serial letter after the title of each paragraph indicate the issue of E.W.S.N. in which the last reference to that country appeared.

AFGHANISTAN (574 U 595).—We have the ½ rupee parcel stamp in a new shade. We repeat the illustrations of three of the values of this set as we find that in E.W.S.N., No. 533 they were transposed.

½ rupee.

1 rupee.

Parcel Stamps.

½ rupee, grey, instead of dark olive-green. Printed from same plate as before.

Issued 10.1.11 or earlier. The inscriptions on the above three designs are:—

½r. "Nim khurd seh shahi" (½ khurd, 3 shahis).

½r. "Yak khurd yak Qiran" (1 " 1 kran).

1r. "Nim pao yak rupiya kabali" (½ quarter, 1 cabuli rupee).

All have "tikat parcel" at foot.

AUSTRIAN P.O. LEVANT (534 R 595).—We have received the ¼ piastre in an entirely new shade of green.

New Shade.

¼p. Postage Due, dark green instead of light yellow-green.

Issued 4.2.11 or earlier.

CAYMAN ISLANDS (591 K 595).—Mr. Huber writes under date of 2.2.11:—

"Since writing my letter of Dec. 17th, 1910, in regard to the 3d. on brownish-yellow paper—a portion of which I see you have quoted in 591, issue of January 21st, of your Weekly—I have received a larger block of this same value from George Town, Grand Cayman, and I find the same peculiarity to exist in regard to the paper. The position of this block is the same as my former block of 24, and it is from the right-hand pane, the lower and right-hand margins being attached. But the strange thing about this last block is that the edge of the lower margin is in the normal yellow colour of the first printing. It appears that there is something in the chalky coating given the stamps that changes the appearance of the yellow paper. That you may see what I mean I am sending enclosed a portion of this lower margin. Anyway, the colour of the paper isn't changed, but I don't see why this couldn't be from a new printing. Blocks of this value received during 1908 and 1909, and even up to June, 1910, do not exist in this condition, and I have some of them with margins attached. It has only been the last two lots of stamps received from the Islands that are so affected. I should be very glad if you could offer some suggestions as to the chalky coating just now causing this change in colour."

FINLAND (584 O 595).—We have received all the new stamps just issued and find they are printed in sheets of 200, divided by a vertical margin into two panes, each with 10 rows of 10 stamps. The panes are separated before issue.

The left-hand pane has "11—1910" (or whatever the month and year of printing may be) reading down on the left side margin, opposite the 3rd row from the top and the 3rd row from the bottom, whilst the right-hand pane has the date in similar positions reading up on the right side margin.

The left pane has the plate-number below the 2nd and 3rd stamp in the bottom row and the right pane has it in the corresponding position at the right side of the sheet, i.e. under the 8th and 9th stamps in the bottom row.

The top or bottom margin of the sheet is watermarked in two lines in double-lined capitals, sometimes overlapping on to the top row of stamps "FINLANDS STAMPELKONTOR—MARK 5 MARKKAA" (the value varies) and a Crown.

Types of Russian stamps but with values in Finnish currency. Perf. 14. Plain paper without varnish lines.

	Marginal date.	Marginal plate No.	Marginal wmk.
2 pen. orange	11.1910.	No. 49.	1 mk.
5 pen. green	11.1910.	No. 48.	5 mk.
10 pen. rose	10.1910.	No. 47.	1 mk.
20 pen. blue	11.1910.	No. 45.	20 pen.
40 pen. lilac & blue	12.1910.	No. 50.	20 pen.

Issued on 30.1.11 or earlier. To show all the above details in one block, specialists would require 15 stamps or three rows of 5 from the S.E. corner of the sheet, or to show the entire watermark the full 3 rows of 30 stamps.

We can supply the lower 3 rows of sheets of the 2 penni for 9d. per block.

GIBRALTAR (586 N 595).—The 8/- is reported in new colours by the Bulletin Philatélique (5.2.11/46), presumably from a "specimen" copy.

New colours. Wmk. multiple Crown CA, chalk-surfaced paper. 8/- violet and green.

To be issued.

GILBERT & ELLICE ISLANDS (588 C 595).—The surcharged set will probably become extremely rare, as although only issued on 1.1.11, a new pictorial set is already printed.

The first values of this latter are illustrated and described (from "specimen" copies) in the Bulletin Philatélique (5.2.11/46).

Pictorial design.

½d. green.

1d. carmine.

2d. grey.

2½d. ultramarine.

To be issued.

HONDURAS (592 T 595).—The first value of a new series is chronicled by the Metropolitan Philatelist (28.1.11/11).

New design (large). River view with steamer in distance. Dated "1911."

5c. red.

MALTA (590 B 595).—The new 2½d. and 5/- stamps are issued in sheets of 240 like the other values. We find, by the way, that we have omitted to record the issue of the 2½d. all blue formally and now do so.

New Colour.

2½d. all blue, multiple Crown CA, ordinary paper.

Issued 15.1.11 or earlier. It is said that only a small supply has been printed.

NEWFOUNDLAND (571 X 595).—We have received the following varieties:—

Perforation variety, 12 x 14.

1c. dark green (part of first printing.)

Issued 30.9.10 or earlier.

2c. rose.

Issued 30.11.10 or earlier.

The Postage Stamp (11.2.11/181) reports the discovery of the following variety.

1c. green, perf. 12 x 11 instead of 12.

We draw attention to the notice respecting the new issue engraved by Waterlows, which appears in our advertisement columns.

NEW HEBRIDES (594 Z 595).—The Australian Stamp Journal (10.1.11/36) reports that the new set of stamps reached Sydney on 26.12.11 having been issued at Vila on 15.12.11.

NEW ZEALAND (593 W 595).—We are asked by Messrs. Wilcox Smith & Co. to contradict the statement that the 8d. King's Head was to be withdrawn from use. This value is in much greater request than the 9d.

The Times (10.2.11) states:—

"The New Zealand Government has requested Mr. Bertram Mackenall, A.R.A., the sculptor, to furnish the design for a new series of postage stamps for the Dominion. Mr. Mackenall, it will be remembered, is the designer of the new coinage now being issued in this country. He is a native of Australia, having been born in Melbourne in 1863. It is thought possible that the penny stamp now in use, issued in 1901 to commemorate New Zealand's adoption of 'universal penny postage' will not be superseded. It is expected that the stamps of all other values will be of Mr. Mackenall's design, differing from each other only in colour and in the words or figures denoting their values.

"The central figure of the design will be King George's head. Stamps bearing King Edward's head, of values from ½d. to 1s., but omitting the 1d., were issued as lately as 1909, following a series of beautiful, though almost microscopic, pictures of the Dominion's birds and mountains."

SUBSCRIPTION RATES. Ewen's Weekly Stamp News can be sent post free to any address in any country for one year for 4/4 ($1.06, Mk. 4.50 or fr. 5.50). Each change of address, 6d. extra. Half year, 3/3; 3 months, 1/7½. A special limited subscription has also been arranged; every 5th number can be sent for only 1/3 per annum. Back Nos., 1 to 535, 3d. each; complete, £5; current year, 1½d. each. EWEN'S LTD., 32, Palace Square, Norwood, London, S.E.

STAMP MOUNTS, best, 10d. per 1000; grease-proof envelopes, 5d., 6d. or 8d. per 100; approval booklets, 1d., 1½d. each; Stolzenberg Albums, 1/6, 3/-; clip albums, 2/6, 10/-; Good Old Times Album, for general collectors, 3 volumes, 12/6 each, or 25/- bound in one; Ewen's Catalogue of New Issues, 7d. post free; list of publications, free; prospectus of New Issue Service, free; sample copies of E.W.S.N., free. ## New Hebrides Condominium.

SENSATIONAL DEVELOPMENTS.

From the Australian Stamp Journal 10.1.11/33.

WHEN Mr. G. Roy, whom we had known as Chief Postmaster of the New Hebrides, Condominium, walked into our sanctum on the 15th December, we surmised that he had come to Sydney for a Christmas holiday, and we were very much surprised when he told us that he had been superseded (whether temporarily or permanently he could not definitely say), and was on his way to France. While there it will be decided whether he will go back to New Hebrides or be promoted to another position. He would prefer to go back.

Mr. Roy, who is a tall gentlemanly fellow of about 50 years of age, is an official of the French Government. Prior to his appointment to the position of Chief Postmaster and Treasurer of the New Hebrides he was 24 years in Noumea. In another three years he will be entitled to retire on a pension. Having been three years at Vila, he was due for a holiday in February next, but he was astonished when on the arrival of a new French Resident Commissioner, about the middle of last month (November), he was informed by that worthy that he, Mr. Roy, could have six months holiday from that date. In spite of appeals to Mr. King, the British Resident Commissioner, who would not interfere. Mr. Roy was requested to hand over his papers to his successor.

It transpired in the course of a lengthy conversation between the writer and Mr. Roy that since the inception of the Condominium, there have been seven successive French Resident Commissioners, the practice being to appoint a new one every six months. The gentleman who reached Vila last month decided to have a secretary, treasurer and postmaster of his own choosing, and told Mr. Roy so.

On his arrival at Noumea, friend Roy interviewed the French High Commissioner, who could give him no satisfaction, and suggested that he should go to France and place his case before the Colonial Office: This he intends doing, and he will at the same time put the authorities there in possession of some facts in relation to the New Hebrides which may have an important effect on the future government of those islands.

We were astonished to learn that there had been seven French Resident Commissioners in a little over three years, and asked Mr. Roy again if it were really so. He replied in the affirmative.

While the Chief Postmaster is appointed by the French Resident Commissioner, his salary is paid every month—half by the French and half by the British Commissioner—but he was always under the control of the former.

Mr. Roy's practice was to make up at the end of each month the total amount received (for stamps sold, whether British or French), divide by two, and place half to the credit of both the French and British Commissioners.*

His duties at times became very heavy, and when, after awhile, he was inundated with requests from abroad for supplies of stamps, he was kept fully occupied, even after ordinary business hours, attending to these requests and in replying to letters, while his other work had to stand aside. On one occasion when hurrying to catch an outgoing steamer he lost several pounds through sending away a larger number of stamps than for which he had received the money (he never got the additional sum), so he determined in future that he would only execute those orders which contained some extra remuneration for his extra trouble. †

Then one of the French Commissioners ordered him not to sell more than one stamp of a kind at one time, and that only over the counter. This led to serious trouble, as he returned a large sum of money to an English firm of stamp dealers, who wrote to France demanding an explanation. The firm referred to subsequently served a summons on Mr. Roy, claiming a large sum of money as damages, but nothing came of it. The instruction was, however, cancelled, and the Chief Postmaster was told that he must not at any time send more than 25 stamps to any one person at one time.

In October, 1909, acting on a decision arrived at by the French and British Commissioners of the day (Mr. King has been the only British Resident Commissioner up to the present), a request was sent to the British and French Colonial Offices, per medium of the High Commissioners, for a supply of permanent stamps, which would show the denomination in both English and French, but Mr. Roy heard nothing of it since.

(* The italics are ours. We cannot help commenting on this extraordinary arrangement. The French stamps were always on sale in Paris and we believe the French Government took the whole revenue from them. In any case the system is hardly fair, as the British stamps had much the largest sale.—Ed., E.W.S.N.)

(† This statement of the Postmaster's should make the British authorities open their eyes. It explains why some dealers' orders were not executed, and as an admission that other dealers adopted bribery to get their stamps. As in the case of the Cayman Islands we know that some people sent out small presents—a handkerchief on one occasion brought several provisionals—but in this case it would appear as if money were paid. It is only a few years since M. Roy, as postmaster of New Caledonia, made some even more amazing admissions to the Editor of a French philatelic journal. We also fear that stamps were not sold even over the post office counter, as a year or two ago Messrs. Burns Philps & Co., who trade with the Islands, tried to purchase through their agents, and after several months reported that they could not buy a single stamp!—Ed., E.W.S.N.)

New Caledonia stamps with the word "Condominium" added, arrived at Vila recently, but up till the 19th November only 5c., 10c. and 1 franc values had been received, and although a cable had been received from England stating that a new supply of Fiji stamps (without bar) had been despatched on the 28th September, they had not, up till Mr. Roy's departure from the island, reached there. He assumed that the stamps had been sent to Fiji, to be sent from there by the High Commissioner of the Western Pacific, who represents British interests in the group.

It appears that owing to a shortage of Fiji stamps in Fiji, it was decided to send the order for those required for New Hebrides to Messrs. De la Rue, consequently not only have the stamps been supplied by that firm, but the overprint has been applied at the same time. Such being the case, we should not be surprised to find that the type of the latter will differ in some respects from the previous one.

Mr. Roy informed us that when he left Vila, nearly all the stock of Fiji-New Hebrides stamps had been sold out, and the arrival of the new stamps was being anxiously awaited. No Fiji-New Hebrides stamps were received after 1/10/09. Letters addressed to that gentleman would be forwarded on to him.* In future, therefore, it would be better to send orders for stamps to the "Chief Postmaster."

Asked if he had heard of the discussion in the Sydney Daily Press last month (November) re "New Hebrides a failure," Mr. Roy replied that he had not. He remarked, however, that he did not think the joint control would continue. Asked why, he said, "The French Commissioner has dejeuner at 11 o'clock, and the British Commissioner has lunch at 12 o'clock." In other words, the two functionaries did not pull together; each kept to himself, and did not interfere with the other. Mr. Roy was of opinion that the short stay of a French Commissioner (six months) was not conducive to the welfare of the group, for by the time he had become acquainted with the surrounding circumstances it was time for him to vacate his position.

Mr. Roy spoke very highly of Mr. King, the British Resident Commissioner.

Prior to our friend's leaving, an indignation meeting of British residents was held, at which protest was made at his being superseded, and general regret was expressed at his departure.

The likelihood of the control of the group being taken over either by the French or British authorities is being discussed freely at Vila, and it is generally thought that before long the "Condominium" will have become a thing of the past.

It may be news to some to learn that only 1440 of the 1/- value on single watermark paper were issued. Mr. Roy states that only that number was received in the first supply, and that all subsequent supplies were on multiple paper. (‡)

* It would appear from this that the Postmaster received applications for stamps in his private name.

† It would be interesting to know the history of the 1/- and ½d. single watermark. Our firm were never allowed to have a single copy of either, although our applications and money were amongst the first in the Post Office, being telegraphed at considerable expense. These 1/- single wmk. are now quoted at 35/-; who had them? We purchased a few at the time from another dealer at a premium of many hundreds per cent. and sent them out through our New Issue Service at the usual 1/2, of course, making a heavy loss. Then in the case of the ½d. single wmk., there were originally only three sheets which were evidently overlooked by the Vila authorities, as they were all sent to S. London applicants, from whom we purchased the majority at an average 10/- each. Soon after information of this find could have reached Vila, the philatelic world was startled to learn that a reprint had been made. Note the words used in making the announcement:—"Mr. H. Venables Vernon, of Sydney, who has business relations in the islands, has acquainted us [the Australian Philatelist (10.7.09/134) that only three sheets of the ½d. value on single Crown and CA paper were at first received at the chief post office, Port Vila, but sixteen sheets have since been found on single-watermarked paper in Fiji, which have been surcharged 'New Hebrides Condominium.'" One can imagine the dismay of the authorities on learning that they had let the three sheets slip through their hands, the subsequent hunt for any single-watermarked sheets that might be lying aside in Fiji and their overprinting with the next order! Who obtained these 16 sheets and what did they pay for them? As the purchaser of the original three bona-fide issued sheets, we surely have good grounds for an action for damages against the Condominium authorities.—Ed., E.W.S.N.

CATALOGUE OF THE PHILATELIC LIBRARY

OF THE EARL OF CRAWFORD, K.T.

This Catalogue, a remarkable testimony to the world-wide popularity of Philately, is being published this month in one volume of 470 pages (small folio, 14 by 10½ inches), printed in double columns. Only 200 copies are offered for sale, price £2 2s. nett. We offer our services to those of our readers who wish to obtain the Catalogue. Orders may be booked now.

The Hyderabad (and a very bad!) Post Office.

THE difficulties in the way of importing current stamps seem to be growing. We have recently given several instances and now give another.

Early in 1909—over two years ago—it was reported that the new set of stamps inscribed "Postage" instead of "Post Stamp" had received two additions in the shape of a 3a. brown and a 4a. green stamp.

Not caring to send out too much money at once we remitted £9 on 29th March 1909 to H.H. The Nizam's Postmaster, Hyderabad, Deccan. The subsequent correspondence of the Postmaster speaks for itself.

FIRST LETTER.

Undated.—"3 and 4 as. stamps will be sent of good colours shortly." [It may be remarked that we had merely ordered 3 and 4 annas stamps of the new issue and had made no mention of colour].

SECOND LETTER.

(After eight months).

Hyderabad, 12.12.09.—"I have the honour to forward you the 3 and 4 annas stamps by Parcel Post in this week. As 3 as. stamps having been received always of pale colour I could not send those to you soon; now I expect to receive full sheets of 3 as. of good and strong colour. [Nothing was received and we wrote saying we did not mind what colour the stamps were].

THIRD LETTER.

(After one year and three months).

Hyderabad, 22.6.10.—"I am sending you the stamps of 3 as. and 4 as. in the course of two weeks; 8 and 12 as. stamps of new issue are ready for sale; but one rupee stamps are not printed for sale." [Nothing was received].

FOURTH LETTER.

(Received after nearly two years).

Hyderabad, 26.1.11.—"Your letter of 28th June, 1910, to hand. I forward 3 as. stamps by the separate parcel post next week mail, and after these have been received and approved of by you I shall send 4 as. stamps. I mean that the colour of these stamps shall be approved."

Will the stamps really come this time or not? And seeing that they weigh only one ounce, why should they require to be sent by parcel post?

* * *

The above correspondence will explain why our New Issue Service has not yet distributed these Hyderabad stamps, and will, I hope, make clear to our clients that it is not so easy as it seems to import current stamps.

Telegram from Papua.

A GREAT SURPRISE FOR OUR READERS!

Date Stamp.
NORWOOD, D.O.

WESTOW ST., S.E.

"Thursday Island.

To "Regardless, London.

"Unicoloured Halfpennies Pennies issued."

[NOTE.—This telegram is not from the Papuan Authorities, but from our Special Correspondent. The date of "handing in" is omitted, as the telegram was sent by post from Port Moresby to Thursday Island, whence it was cabled to us. The Postmaster of Papua led everyone to believe that no new issue was to be expected for a year or so.—Ed., E.W.S.N.]

PANAMA (583 U 595).—A new value has been printed in the 1904 map design.

New Value.
13 centesimos de balboa, slate-grey.

To be issued?

PANAMA CANAL ZONE (588 B 595).—The following novelty has been issued.

Overprinted "Canal Zone" reading up (in smaller type than heretofore).
"10 cts." in black on 13c. slate-grey of Panama.

Issued 21.1.11 or earlier. The stamp was intended to prepay the registered letter rate, 5c. plus 8c. fee. As the fee was raised to 10c. it never came into use. Recently, owing to a prolonged shortage of 10c. stamps, it was decided to make use of it in the above way. As it was originally printed to prepay the single registered letter rate which is now 15c., there seems no reason why it should not also be surcharged 15c.

PAPUA (588 V 595).—In another column we publish a remarkable telegram that will surprise not a few of our readers.

The present issue, large "Papua," perf. 12½, will evidently be a rare one. Applications have been consistently refused for it and more remarkable still, not trusting to the authorities, we asked a resident in Port Moresby to apply at the Post Office for the stamps we wanted. He says he was told by the Postmaster that the latter had already supplied them to us and in this way our friend was balked of executing the order! We have had stamps but with one exception all our efforts to get the late new issue have failed. However, once we got a small lot, almost enough to complete our distribution this week through our New Issue Service. In fact some values are quite complete, though not in both issues 13 and 14. We have also made a complete distribution of these rare stamps punctured OS for official use, the rarity of which must be extreme.

PORTUGUESE AZORES (530 M 595).—The following are chronicled by the Bulletin Philatélique (5.2.11/45).

Postage Due stamps of 1904. Overprinted "Republica."

	5 reis, brown	SurchARGE red.
10	orange	" "
20	lilac	" "
30	green	" "
40	violet	" "
50	carmine	green.
100	blue	red.

RUSSIA (567 N 595).—We have the 25 kop. in a new shade.

Altered Shade.
25 kop. pale yellowish-green and lilac instead of dark green and lilac.

Issued 8.12.10. or earlier.

SIERRA LEONE (546 S 595).—Mr. Harry Barnwell contributes to the Stamp Collector (11.10/160) some interesting statistics concerning the early Edwardian stamps. He says:—

"In March, 1907, the following particulars of the issues of the single CA's, Sierra Leone, and of the bi-coloured multiples up to May, 1906, were forwarded to me direct from West Africa, and it may be interesting to know that I very nearly missed having them at all, for the letter which contained them formed part of the mails of the 'S.S. Jebba,' which, you will remember, was wrecked close to land about the 18th of that month. The sheet of paper containing the particulars is stained—also the envelope—by the action of the sea-water, and the latter has a special 'Postmark' upon it: 'Salved from S.S. Jebba.'

RECEIVED FROM CROWN AGENTS.

In sheets of 120.	Single CA, Nov. 20th, 1902.	Single CA, Feb. 6th, 1903.	Multiple Ordinary, May 3rd, 1905.	Multiple Chalky, July 10th, 1905.	Multiple Chalky, May 31st, 1906.	Total.
½d.	512	—	—	805	400	1717
1d.	606	5427	3000	3042	1006	13081
1½d.	100	—	—	200	—	300
2d.	100	—	—	200	49	349
2½d.	206	—	—	400	100	706

2/-	50	—	—	100	—	150
5/-	30	—	—	100	—	130
£1	24	—	—	44	—	68

"You will see from the above list that with the exception of the 1d. value there was only one issue of the single CA's, the second printing of the 1d. being about nine times the total of the first, and the control number in the margin being "2", as against "1" in the first. The second printings are a distinctly lighter purple and of a browner shade, with the red lettering more heavily printed and not quite so clear or distinct. The gum, too, is slightly browned.

"The 1½d. and 4d. are the rarest, I consider. The whole issue of the 1½d. have a face value of about £75, and with forty sheets fewer the 4d. only come to £120.

"With the exception of the £1, which could be purchased for some time after the issue of the £1 multiple and for a shorter period the 1d., all the singles were speedily sold in the Colony, as some of us in the old country soon found out.

"The 3000 sheets of the 1d. multiple on ordinary paper are printed nearly the same shade as the first printing of the 1d. single, but hardly so dark. The gum is of the same whiteness.

"With respect to the chalky issue of 1905, the printing of the purple is darker than that of 1906, which in some values has a pale, mealy shade, if I may so express it. Further, the red in the second chalky issue of the 1d. value has a pinky tinge.

"A few years ago I saw some 1½d. multiples at Stanley Gibbons, purporting to be on ordinary paper, but have not seen any listed, nor heard of them anywhere else.

"You will see by the above list that in the 1906 issue there were no 1½d., or 6d. to £1 stamps, and as my record ends with that date I make no comment on any subsequent issue. I believe my data, and remarks as above are correct, but am open, of course, to correction."

SOMALILAND (504 L 595).—The following new varieties are to hand:—

New Shades, wmk. multiple Crown CA, chalky paper.

- 2a. purple and lilac-brown (2nd? printing), issued 15.12.10 or earlier.
- 2a. bright lilac and purple (3rd? printing), issued 27.1.11 (our sheets commence with No. "01" and are possibly the first).

First Issue, on chalky paper.

- 3a. green and brown. Issued 27.1.11.
- 4a. black and green. "
- 8a. blue and black. "

Of these three stamps our sheets in each case commence at "01" and are probably the first issued. We also received a number of sheets on the ordinary paper and the 4 and 8 annas are in darker shades than those in our reference collection. This may of course be due to the climate of the Protectorate, but whatever the cause they were different when issued and we distributed them through our New Issue Service.

SOUTH AUSTRALIA (568 R 595).—We have several new shades, but unfortunately our panes are the wrong halves of the sheets to show the sheet-numbers. In fact, in the perf. 12½ issue we have as yet only seen the 6d. first shade with a number, "6d. 29634" in black.

The latest 8d. received (wmk. Crown A, perf. 12½) show two settings of the words "EIGHT PENCE." In the one the words are almost close together; in the other there is a space of 2 or 2½mm. between them.

TRENGGANU (594 F 595).—It should be mentioned that although the stamps are printed as usual in sheets of 120, divided into two panes of 60, each 10 rows of 6, the marginal plate-number is no longer at each corner of the sheet or pane. Each pane has the plate No. "1" twice; once on the top margin over stamp No. 2 and once on the lower margin below stamp No. 5.

This is rather disconcerting for those collectors who have made a speciality of corner blocks from the top right-hand corner of the sheet (the corner on which the sheet-number is also usually printed). Such a block will no longer show the plate-number.

TURKEY (585 K 595).—According to a correspondent of the Schweizerische Philatelistische Nachrichten (1.11/15) the 2½, 25 and 50 piastres of the current issue have not yet been sold over the Post Office counter, nor the 5 piastres Newspaper stamp and the two postage dues. They were chronicled over a year ago.

URUGUAY (590 Y 595).—A new commemorative stamp is chronicled by the Postage Stamp (11.2.11/181).

Issued in connection with inauguration of the first South American postal congress. Perf. 11½.

5 centesimos, rose-carmine and black.

Issued 8.1.11.

Notes.

THE International Collectors' Society of Hamburg has sent us a copy of its Year Book for 1911, from which we take the liberty of reproducing a rather handy little table, enabling one to ascertain in a moment what day of the week any day since 1st January 1829 was. The table as published in the Year Book contained nine mistakes, besides one in the examples; but we believe we have been more successful in reproducing it.

* * *

The Society is trying to obtain funds to enable it to take more efficient methods to check the constant increase of fraud in connection with exchanging (collectors who invite selections, not only of stamps but also of postcards, shells, etc., etc., and who fail to send anything in exchange, are unfortunately becoming legion and threaten to destroy all confidence amongst collectors). To this worthy end it has issued a stamp of the face value of 2 pfennig (½d.) printed in four colours—blue, yellow, black and red. The stamp is inscribed "Internationaler Sammler-Verein Hamburg—Zur Forderung des Sammelportes." We have been favoured with a few copies and offer them at ½d. each.

* * *

The Cave collection which was exhibited at Milan and included what was said to be the rarest piece in the Exhibition, an 80c. Parma on letter, has been purchased by Dr. Achillito Chiesa, of Milan. The Gazzetta dei Filatelisti (30.1.11/3) states that general satisfaction is expressed in Italian philatelic circles that the collection should remain in Italy. With our contemporary we say: Al veterano della filatelia avv. Cave, auguriamo che il riposo gli ridoni completamente la salute, tanto da poter in breve incominciare una nuova collezione.

* * *

The Illustriertes Briefmarken-Journal (the philatelic journal with the largest circulation) says of the Thurn and Taxis reprints:—

"Die Ausführung dieser 33 verschiedenen Neudrucke ist als eine durchaus gelungene zu bezeichnen."

"Um auch den aus Briefmarkensammlerkreisen geäußerten Wünschen nachzukommen, werden 25 Bogen . . . der sammlerwelt käuflich zugänglich gemacht."

"Die Kennzeichnung erfolgte rückwärts durch Aufdruck eines "N.D." in lila Farbe. Dadurch hat sich die fürstl. Verwaltung . . . den Dank aller ernstesten Sammler verdient."

[We must not be taken as agreeing with these opinions. We are against reprinting when it means imitating and in favour when it means a continuance of printing a stamp without regard to varieties of manufacture. In the latter case the stamp needs no marking.]

* * *

Switzerland has taken a big step forward in dealing with stamp-forgers. In the past Geneva especially has not borne the best of reputations. However, as the following letter foreshadows, Switzerland is now determined to make up for lost time.

No. 813, 5 Berne, le 15 Décembre, 1910.

Nous avons l'honneur de vous faire part que suivant les articles 114 et 115 de la nouvelle loi postale, des imitations d'estampilles de valeur de cachets postaux et de timbres-poste, soit suisses ou de l'union postale universelle, ne pourront dorénavant être exécutées qu'avec l'autorisation de l'administration des postes suisses. Dès le 1er Janvier 1911, qu'il y ait intention frauduleuse ou non, il ne sera donc plus permis, sans l'autorisation de cette administration, d'imiter des timbres-poste existants ou d'imprimer des estampilles de valeurs en cours sur des cartes illustrées, des enveloppes, etc., et de les pourvoir d'oblitérations semblables aux oblitérations postales. Il ne sera pourtant pas fait de réclamation pour les cartes portant au dos le langage des timbres-poste (imitations de timbres suisses de grandeur très diminuée dont l'emploi frauduleux n'est pas à craindre).

Nous vous rendons attentifs qu'une dérogation à cet article de loi sera punie selon le code pénal fédéral du 4 Février 1853.

Avec considération.

La direction d'arrondissement postal.

[Signed] Kocher.

Subscription Stamp Collecting.

(MR. EWEN'S INVENTION; COPYRIGHT.)

A NEW SYSTEM WORTH CONSIDERING!

TO STAMP COLLECTORS.—We would like to draw special attention to Subscription Stamp Collecting, which we believe has a great future before it. Our position as publishers of Ewen's Weekly Stamp News is an awkward one. Collectors all the world over look to it for a guide not only to the collection of new issues but also to the market values. A business man who publishes to all the world his current quotations is inviting all the world to compete with him and undersell him. The world-wide popularity of New Issues, the collection of which was first advocated in our columns, has naturally resulted in ever-increasing competition and similar underselling. We, for our part, have no intention of allowing anyone to supply new issues cheaper than we do and that means constantly reducing quotations; on the other hand the position of Ewen's Weekly Stamp News as a guide to the market asks of us that we should not reduce quotations to a level that would render the importation of new issues unprofitable for others. We are glad to see dealers everywhere handling new issues and that means encouraging competition, not killing it. How then can we keep up market prices and nevertheless supply as cheaply as or cheaper than anyone else? The answer we found was Subscription Stamp Collecting. If it flourishes to the extent we hope and expect, and we can get a sufficiently wide circle of loyal clients, we can regularly distribute amongst them all the good things we get, and if the aggregate of annual subscriptions leaves a fair margin after paying expenses, we should be able to do so at face value only, even in the case of the rarest stamps. At the same time our Reference List could be priced according to an average of the current international quotations for new issues and form a more complete guide to market values than at present.

We believe that this ideal is by no means unrealizable, but to make it a complete success, every present subscriber to Ewen's Weekly Stamp News would have to send at least a small subscription and endeavour to get his friends to do so too. During Coronation year one of our subscriptions will prove a splendid investment owing to the increased number of new issues.

ANNUAL SUBSCRIPTIONS

Conferring the COMPLETE FREEDOM of our

NEW ISSUE SERVICE and ORDER DEPARTMENT.

Annual Subscription.	New Issue Service Limit of face value.	Reference List Limit of sale price.
£1 1 0	1/-	1/-
£2 2 0	2/-	2/-
£3 3 0	5/-	5/-
£4 4 0	10/-	10/-
£5 5 0	£1	£1
£10 10 0	£5	£5
£21 0 0	No limit	No limit

In previous announcements the Annual Subscription was stated to be only good for either the New Issue Service or the Order Department, and that to obtain the Freedom of both £1 1/- extra had to be paid. If £1 1/- has already been paid to obtain the six initial advantages set out above, this second £1 1/- need not be paid.

UNLIMITED FREEDOM.

There is yet a third kind of Freedom we offer, which we may best describe as "Unlimited Freedom." In all the above cases, subscriptions are only valid for one year (commencing at any date), and must then be renewed. In the case of "Unlimited Freedom" the subscriber is entitled to pay half one of the annual subscriptions named in the above table, and a deposit—one deposit only—of any amount he likes. His subscription will then remain in force for as long as the deposit lasts, which in the case of a large deposit may be for several years; in fact, one subscription could be made to last a lifetime if the deposit were large enough!

CONDITIONS.

1. A general order may be given for New Issues to be sent as received, without the necessity of ordering each one separately (see Conditions of the Weekly New Issue Service).
2. Stamps may be ordered at face value either from the Reference List running through Ewen's Weekly Stamp News, or from the special advertisements if the latter are marked ‡.
3. Stamps priced in brackets can only be supplied at the full price.
4. Stamps marked x are supplied to members at half price.
5. Only one copy of each stamp will be supplied in respect of each annual subscription, but any client, whether collector or dealer, may take up two or more subscriptions, running concurrently.
6. Postage and Registration or Insurance are extra (unless the extra £1 1/- subscription has been paid).
7. Members may order at the ordinary sale prices any stamps which their subscription does not entitle them to order at face value or half price.
8. Stamps supplied at face value can only be despatched if members' deposit accounts are sufficiently in credit.
9. Stamps out of stock can be booked for future delivery in case we secure a new supply.

Conditions of our Weekly "New Issue" Service.

(FOR MEMBERS OF SUBSCRIPTION STAMP COLLECTING.)

WHEN ordering our regular weekly service of mint unused newly issued adhesive postage stamps it is requested that the following particulars be furnished:—

1. Which groups are required?

- C (British Colonials).
- K (King's Head Colonials only).
- E (Europeans only).
- F (Rest of World).

N.B.—We endeavour to the utmost to make our Service complete, so that clients may rely on getting practically everything without the trouble of looking in various directions. To non-members of Subscription Stamp Collecting, our rates are 1/2 per 1/- face value (Service de Luxe), and 10% over face value (Popular Service).

2. What values and quantities are required? The usual limits are—1/-, 2/6, 5/-, 10/-, £1, £25.

N.B.—The best investment for a collector is obtained by "£1 x 1," but we also recommend "5/- x 1," or "1/- x 1." The limit need not be the same in each group. Subscribers to a high limit have precedence over subscribers to a lower limit, if supply is short.

3. What varieties are required? Unless requested to the contrary, we send all varieties of design, paper, watermark, perforation, shade, types of surcharges, etc. If not required please inscribe order form "no minor varieties" or "no varieties at all." Except in the case of minor varieties (which are usually rare), no extra charge is made.

N.B.—Varieties are sometimes expensive, but it should be remembered that any stamp charged over face value (or in the case of non-members, over the agreed rate), is returnable under Condition 2 (b).

New Issues are supplied, as they appear, on the following conditions:—

- 1.—That definite instructions as to clients' requirements are given in advance, and that one month's notice of alteration or cancellation is given.
- 2.—That nothing be returned, unless
  - (a) It exceeds these instructions.
  - (b) Is charged above the rate agreed upon.
  - (c) Is misdescribed.
  - (d) Is damaged.
  - (e) Has been issued over a year.

- 3.—That returns are made within ten days of receipt and are accompanied by the original invoices, the reason for return being in each case clearly defined (a, b, c, d or e).
- 4.—That clients pay all postage expenses and take risk of damage or loss in transit (we are similarly treated when making our purchases).
- 5.—That clients maintain their deposit accounts in credit.
- 6.—That clients are postal subscribers to Ewen's Weekly Stamp News (4/4 per annum, or with right to change address, 6/6 per annum).

King Edward.

With value in words, 5c., 6c., mint set, 4d. The 6c. alone, mint, 2d.

SOUTHERN NIGERIA.

New price list of sets.

Old colours.

½d., 1d., 2d., 2½d., 3d., 4d., 6d., 1/-, 2/6, 5/-, 10/-, £1, many now rare and catalogued high, the mint set, 55/-.
 Same, without the 1d. and 4d., only 50/-.
 ½d., 2d., 2½d., 3d., 4d., 6d., 1/-, 2/6, 5/-, 10/-, mint set, 24/-.

½d., 2d., 2½d., 3d., 6d., 1/-, 2/6, 5/-, mint set, 12/3.

NOTE.—The above sets are extremely cheap in view of current catalogue quotations; for instance the first set includes the rare 10/- multiple, catalogued 50 francs by Yvert and 40 marks by Senf, yet the whole set is offered for less than Gibbons quotes the £1 (60/-). Yvert quotes the whole set at over 140 francs. The set up to 10/- includes the 10/- single, which is less rare, but our price is only about half Yvert.

New colours.

½d., 1d., 2d., 2½d., 3d., 4d., 6d., 1/-, mint set, 3/-; blocks, 12/-; per dozen sets (special quotation), 35/- if in blocks, 34/- if in singles.

½d., 1d., 2d., 2½d., 3d., 4d., 6d., 1/-, 2/6, mint set, 5/11.

½d., 1d., 2d., 2½d., 3d., 4d., 6d., 1/-, 2/6, 5/-, 10/-, £1, mint set, 46/9.

COLLECTION OF 86 SETS, FACE VALUE £10 12s. 0½d., NETT PRICE £12 5s. 0d.

Ewen's New Issue Service.

Week ending 5th Jan. 1911.

Malay $25, mult. Crown CA., instead of single CC. watermark.
 Jamaica, 2½d., 4d., 1/-, 2/-, colours changed.
 Zanzibar, 1 rupee, horizontal instead of vertical rosette wmk. We also received the last few sheets of the vertical rosette issue and found them in a new shade, more of a yellow-green. These were distributed as far as they went.
 Zanzibar, 15c., vert. rosette wmk. We had a few specimens in distinct shades, which have been distributed.
 Mauritius, the 10 rupees is now completed and a full distribution of the missing values, 1, 2½ and 5 rupees, is made.
 Somaliland, ¼a. green, new shade. We received a few of the 2a. chalky with centre almost in brown instead of purple. A further distribution will be made in February, 1911, but we may not be able to complete as the 2a. chalky has since appeared in a third shade and goes back to the purple centre.
 Russian Post, Beyrout, 5 paras to 70 piastres complete. Our first importation included only sets up to 10 and 70 piastres respectively, but clients who take up to the 1/- only and do not care for the sets to 10 piastres (1/8) will receive the smaller set later.
 Russian Post, Dardanelles. Same remarks apply. We are the only English firm to import these and they will probably be rare, as few were printed.

Week ending 12th Jan. 1911.

Sweden, new value 2 öre and the new 10 öre already in a second shade.
 N.S.W. 1/- in a new shade (still p. 12x11½).
 Abyssinia, postage due, complete set with inverted surcharge. We were only able to secure one pane of 25 of each value.
 Jhind, ½, 1, 2, 2½ and 8 annas in pairs showing the variety, "ND" close together. We had very few of these and sent them to clients at head of our list at merely nominal rates.
 Gwalior, surcharge type ii., 2 and 4 annas. These arrived at last after over a year's delay.
 Papua, ¼d. green and black, interesting blocks of six, Nos. 21 to 23, 26 to 28 on the sheet, showing thick "d" in "¼d.," "rift" variety and "white leaves" variety.
 Papua, 2d. blocks with rift and white leaves varieties.
 Papua, a few specimens of the extremely rare 2d. compound and mixed perf. issue.
 Papua, sent out in order of precedence, the extremely rare official set, issue 13 complete except 2d. and issue 14 complete except ¼d. Ours was the only New Issue Service to secure above sets and we only had 30 including all the above varieties.
 Papua, OS inverted, ¼d. Distributed as far as possible.

Week ending 19th Jan., 1911.

Switzerland, complete set of the new stamps for use of Charity Organisations.
 Gwalior, King Edward, 2 and 3 rupees. We would much rather have kept these stamps in stock! They are likely to become rare.
 Malay States, 20c, chalky. A few were received in a new shade.
 New Zealand, 6d. King Edward, perf. 14x14½, a scarce variety.
 Victoria, ¼d. Crown A. A few pairs were secured showing the "mixed perf." variety and were distributed as far as they went.
 Papua; we continued with a less complete set of the Official stamps — Issue 13, complete except 2d. and issue 14, 1d., 2d., 6d., 1/- — these are all rare stamps and likely to become very valuable, as Papua is certain always to be a very popular country with specialists.

Week ending 25th Jan., 1911.

Bahamas, 1d. pictorial, now with multiple wmk.
 Cook Islands, 1d. wmk., N.Z., star upright. We found part of a sheet in our stock with inverted watermark, and distributed it as far as it went at the usual face value rate.
 Cook Is., 1d. with wmk. in a new position, sideways.
 Ecuador, the remaining value, $5, to complete the Exhibition set.
 Honduras. Our Agents delayed months executing our order for the lithographed stamps so that we fear we may have missed them, but we secured perhaps the first supply of the recent provisionals, 1c. on 20c., 5c. on 20c. and 10c. and 20c. They were evidently distributed much too cheap as when advertised at a slightly higher rate in E.W.S.N., a continental dealer endeavoured to buy us out.

Great Excitement in Newfoundland.

GUY ISSUE ENGRAVED BY WATERLOWS ?

LITHOGRAPHED ISSUE ADVANCING.

Is the first issue, lithographed, going to be rare? It looks rather as if it might be. Mr. Roessler, under date of 6.2.11, informs us that only the 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 8 cents were left on sale, that the 6c. had been re-issued engraved and perf. 14, and that the other values were expected in a week.

LAST CHANCE TO SECURE THE LITHOGRAPHED SET!

- 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 8, 9, 10, 12, 15 cents, complete set of eleven, mint, 7/6; blocks, 30/-.
- 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 8, 9, 10, 12 cents, mint, 6/-; blocks, 24/-.
- 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 8, 9, 10 cents, mint, 4/6; blocks, 18/-.
- 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 8, 9, 10 cents, mint, 2/6; blocks, 10/-.
- 1, 2, 3 cents, mint set, 3½d.; blocks, 1/2; dozens, 3/6.
- 1, 2 cents, offered in sets of two at face value; singly or wholesale.

Week ending 4th Feb., 1911.

French Gaboon, with inscription altered to "Equatorial Africa." Complete distribution of all values. It is only a year since we made a complete distribution of the 1st set, which has advanced so sensationally on the French market.
 Belgian Congo, bi-lingual issue. The 5c. is already out in a new shade.
 U.S.A. distribution of stamps with new wmk. commenced.
 Portuguese Azores, Dom Manoel, the rare variety with 11½ perf., sent out at the nominal price of 1/-.
 Colombian Republic. Various varieties. The current issue forms a splendid field for the specialist and the varieties are not in the least degree speculative but such as inevitably occur with lithographic printing.
 Papua, remainder of our unique purchase of officials distributed. Issue 13, ¼d., 1d., 2½d., 4d., and issue 14, 2d., 6d., 1/-, making the complete set with "large Papua" inscription. The complete set will probably prove very rare although odd values now and then turn up. So far as we can yet judge the rare values are likely to be the ¼d., 1d., 2½d. and 1/- but none will be common.

Portuguese Azores, Dom Manoel issue over-printed "Republica." Most of those yet on the market have come from Lisbon where the mint sells them at a premium on face value. We have waited till we could get them direct from the Azores at face value. Although our order was out there last October and the issue was supposed to have taken place months ago, the Azores Post Office has only recently been granted sufficient stock to execute our agent's order.
 Italy, complete distribution of the new value, 10 lire.
 Italian Eritrea, new value, 15c., in the pictorial set.
 Italian Levant, 60 para Express.
 Bavaria. In view of the new issue announced for March, the authorities are using up remainders of the old paper. We are able to send the 1, 2, 3 and 5 mark, with horizontally wavy-lined paper instead of vertically wavy lined, and also the 5 p.f. reissue on toned paper, vertically wavy lined.
 Austria, varieties of 1h. and 2h. dues.
 Sarawak, 1, 2, 3, 4c., new shades.

MONEY ORDERS AND POSTAL ORDERS.

Will clients kindly see that these are made payable to "Ewen's Ltd." at Anerley Road, S.E., post office. This post office may not be mentioned in the directory of money order offices kept at some post offices, but that is because the directory is an old one, and clients are asked to insist on orders being made payable at the office we name, as they cannot then be cashed if lost. All orders received by us are executed within 24 hours and any case of delay should be reported to the Managing Director at once.

The total face value of this fine nucleus for a Papua collection is 30/3½, and we offer it at the very low price of £3, considering the scarcity of many stamps, and the fact that no more official stamps are to be sold. The 2/6 of issue 5 is a rarity, and even issue 6 is advancing.

PAPUA.

A wholesale parcel specially recommended to dealers and exchange club members.

Notes.

At the Walthamstow Exhibition, there was a sealed glass jar of stamps on Mr. W. S. Lincoln's stall. Visitors were invited to guess the number of stamps and prizes were offered to those who made the most accurate estimates. The result of the competition is now announced, the first prize being won by Miss Marion Eastaway. The number of stamps in the jar was 819.

* * *

The best photograph of the King's famous 2d. magenta stamps, which were shown at the Walthamstow Exhibition is that reproduced in The Planet (14.2.11). The specimen on entire letter paper is also reproduced in the Lady's Pictorial (11.2.11) along with the essay of the King Edward stamp. The original drawings for the 1d. and 2d. stamps of 1890 are illustrated in the Sphere (11.2.11). There are also excellent photographs in the Illustrated London News (18.2.11/231).

* * *

The Law relating to approval selections (as it stands in Germany) is very clearly set out by Amtsgerichtsrat Dr. C. Antonius in the current Vertrauliches Korrespondenzblatt (2.11). Despite its title, this journal is obtainable by the members of most philatelic societies, except those of Great Britain.

* * *

It is worth noting, by the way, as indicating the strength of Philately on the Continent, that the "V.K.-B." is the official organ of 249 Philatelic Societies! The various countries are thus represented:—

Germany	167 Societies
Switzerland	16 "
Holland	14 "
Austria	12 "
Sweden	9 "
Russia	7 "
Belgium	5 "
United States	4 "
Norway	3 "
Italy, France	2 Each
Denmark, Hungary	2 "
Finland, Bohemia	1 "
Croatia, China	1 "
Great Britain	None!

In addition, the "V.K.-B." is the official organ of the Bund deutscher und oesterreichischer Philatelisten-vereine.

* * *

Of course there are quite a number of philatelic societies in Great Britain but they have not adopted the motto "Union is strength" as abroad. Most of the members, too, are specialists, each collecting something different to the other, whereas outside Great Britain specialism is practically limited to the stamps of the Mother-Country and almost everyone has a general collection and can therefore exchange and talk stamps with his fellow-members.

* * *

We have received a 56 page booklet entitled the Stenographischer Bericht des XXII Deutschen Philatelisten-Tages und des XIV Bundes-Tages (obtainable from Dr. Ludwig, König, Schwane weg 27, Kiel, 7d. post free). No fewer than 67 societies were represented at the annual meeting at Kiel (August 1910) their membership totalling 8143. The Dresden Society heads the list with 1776 members.

From the report of the Union of German and Austrian Societies, we gather that its membership now comprises 134 societies (including branches) with 7165 members. A year ago the total was 128 societies with 6180 members.

Railway stamps are obtaining quite a vogue amongst German Collectors. A new illustrated catalogue (published by Mr. H. Düsterbehn, Oldenburg i. Gr., 1911) has just reached us. In the preface we read:—

"Das Interesse für Eisenbahnmarken hat in Deutschland erst eingesetzt, nachdem im Jahre 1903 durch die provisorische Aufnahme der Markenverwendung in einigen Preussischen Direktionsbezirken die 'Frachtmarken' dem grösseren Publikum erreichbar wurden. Seit der endgültigen Einführung der Eisenbahnmarken auf allen Linien der dem deutschen Eisenbahn-Verkehrsverbände angehörenden staatlichen und privaten Verwaltungen ist die Zahl der Liebhaber dieser Wertzeichen in stetem Wachsen begriffen."

The first railway to issue stamps was the Schleswig-Angler Eisenbahn, which is supposed to date back in this respect to about 1877. It was followed in 1880 by the Hessische Ludwigsbahn, in 1888 by the Hessischen Nebenbahnen, in 1894 by the Badischen Staatseisenbahnen, in 1898 by the Filderbahn and in 1901 by the Württemberg Local Railways. Since then great progress has been made, as the catalogue under review runs to 93 pages.

A New Issue Service for Papua Only.

Clients who are not already subscribers to our New Issue Service, may join for Papua only. It is simply necessary to state whether the stamps are required in singles, blocks or sheets, and to maintain the deposit account in credit. Any stamp may be returned within 10 days of receipt, but the earliest positions on the list will go to those who return the fewest stamps.

Unlike German railway stamps, the history of which is practically limited to the 20th Century, the British railway stamps form a wonderful field for research extending back to 1855 or almost as far as the history of stamp collecting itself.

The German stamps are practically only for parcels, whereas the British stamps may be divided into three groups.

1. For Newspapers, 1855 to date.
2. For Parcels, 1877 to date (Ireland led the way); rare till 1899.
3. For letters, 1891 to date (in connection with the Post Office).

Moens of Brussels, the earliest importer of New Issues (who must have had thousands of such stamps as "Pence Ceylons" in sheets!) commenced to import the Newspaper stamps about 1860 but ceased to do so about 1870. Those imported by him are fairly common but practically all others down to 1899 are either rare or "unknown." In 1890, Mr. Walter Morley and in 1898 "K" and the writer commenced to collect them, but in the last few years not much has been done. The field is almost too vast for one man. Most of the stamps being lithographed, a specialist might spend a fortune and a lifetime trying to re-establish their history according to printings (as has been done in the case of the letter stamps only).

NEW HEBRIDES AGAIN!

We quote from La Circulaire Philatélique (2.11.11):—"Sans-Souci, le 1<sup>er</sup> décembre 1910. Un marchand de timbres de Sydney avait envoyé £200 pour avoir des séries de timbres français et anglais condominium, mais les commissaires des deux nations se sont mis d'accord pour lui renvoyer son argent, à ses frais bien entendu. Ordre a été donné au receveur des postes de prendre les lettres à affranchir et de coller lui-même les timbres."

* * *

HYDERABAD, CHAPTER II.

(To be continued—indefinitely?)

As we half expected, the Indian mail is to hand but has not brought us those 3 and 4 annas stamps!

* * *

Up to date no fewer than 69,000 of the 2½d. Union of South Africa stamp have been sold at the High Commissioner's Office. The largest individual purchase was made by Ewen's Ltd.

* * *

The Thurn and Taxis reprints have not been received so well in France as in Germany. L'Echo de la Timbrologie (15.2.11/81), for instance, says:—"Nos confrères d'Allemagne parlent tous en termes sympathiques de cette opération. Nous croyons pour notre part qu'il serait fort mauvais qu'elle se renouvelât."

The Daily Sketch (13.2.11) contains an extraordinary outburst headed "A Stamp Scandal," and stating that German stamp dealers are "extremely enraged" and that the "old Thurn and Taxis stamps have now lost all their value." With these two exceptions, we have not seen any unfavourable comment on the reprinting, and we do not believe the Daily Sketch has any good grounds for its statements.

* * *

A good word from Spain for British Colonial new issues is spoken by the Madrid Filatélico (2.11/23), but it does not endorse Lord Crewe's policy.

"Lord Crewe no quiere que los empleados de correos trafiquen en la Filatelia; prohíbe las sobrecargas, lo que es justo, y prohíbe á sus agentes tomar en consideración los pedidos de novedades, cuando éstas no estén todavía en su poder; esto es menos justo y tanto más incómodo cuanto que las colonias inglesas mantienen siempre el record de la novedad, más bien por el interés que se les concede que por la importancia absoluta de sus producciones."

Now that some little time has elapsed, it is possible to judge of the effect of Lord Crewe's regulations and one matter stands out clearly. The liberty given to Postmasters to refuse stamp-dealers' orders for stamps if they arrive so much as a day before the public issue or if the stock by their execution might be reduced to the prejudice of the public supply will lead to increased official speculation rather than the reverse. In the case of the New Hebrides, most of the white residents of Vila must be friends and acquaintances of the Postmaster and by Lord Crewe's order the issue is now being limited to them! The only real solution of the difficulty would be to reserve not only a supply of every new issue for the Postal Union at Berne (as is done at present) but a second supply for subscription by stamp dealers. In the case of short supplies a pro-rata allotment could be made. To check speculation in particular issues, dealers would be registered for a fixed quantity of everything, failure to pay for the allotments on the appointed day being met by suspension of the offender and the offer to the other subscribers of the stamps not taken up.

Even in Spain the popularity of New Issues is increasing. The Madrid Filatélico (2.11/23) says: "El favor del público se dirige mas y mas á los sellos de las emisiones nuevas, que encuentran tomadores en cantidades considerables cuando se ofrecen con una ligera prima por encima de su valor facial. En presencia de esta tendencia se establecen importadores por todas partes: Inglaterra y Alemania ya contaban con muchos desde largos tiempos; la Francia no tiene ahora nada que envidiarles en este respecto."

One Austrian New Issue Service only established about two years ago states that its sales amounted to 58,000 kronen last year; not bad for a start.

* * *

An Arundel client makes this very unfair remark:—"I notice you charge me 25/- for Papua 6d., issue 7. I suppose because you omitted to send it to me when it came out."

* * *

In the first place, it was only as a special favour to certain of our Annual Subscribers that we distributed the stamp at 25/-; our current quotation is 80/-, or would be if we had any specimens in stock. In the second, rare varieties of Papua are not to be had for the asking.

* * *

New Issues may be roughly divided into three classes.

Those which are never distributed by any New Service anywhere.

Those which are distributed by Ewen's New Issue Service only.

Those which are the obtainable-in-full-quantity stamps (some of which, like the 1910 Levants, became rare) which are distributed through any efficient New Issue Service. The 6d. Papua, issue 7 (and probably two-thirds of the other Papuas) belong to class 2.

Hannover Reminders.

BRILLIANT IMPERF. BLOCKS OF 4.

These are almost like a "New Issue," being in such beautiful mint condition. We should think the stock will soon become absorbed; hence we have had a small supply sent for offer to our readers and it will only be advertised this once.

All in blocks of 4.

- 1 groschen, pale rose, block, 8/-.
- 1 groschen, blocks in 7 different shades, 8/-, 8/-, 8/-, 10/-, 10/-, 12/-, 12/-, 16/- and 80/- (the latter the scarce violet-red of 1863).
- 2 groschen, blue, 20/- or 25/- per block, according to shade.
- 3 groschen, brown, 48/-, 50/-, 60/-, according to shade.
- 1 groschen, rouletted, 8/-, 10/-, 20/-, according to shade.

Also

Pair 1 gr. violet-red 63 shade, 40/- Pair 3 gr. dark brown, very rare, 50/-

THE WEEK'S NEWS.

Papua"; otherwise known as type ii. None of these bi-coloured stamps of type ii. appear to have been issued perf. 11 or with sideways watermark, so that issues 11, 12, 15, 16, 17, 18 will probably never exist.

The issues 9 and 10 are those with "mixed" and "compound" perforation respectively, and only the 2d. value has been so found. It was sent out through our New Issue Service at a merely nominal price, but has proved far rarer than was at first supposed, and the 2d. perf. 11x12½ should be worth quite £5 if not £10. The 6d. of issue 3 (or 4?) has been chronicled, but we have never seen it, and the 6d. of issue 7 is extremely rare and there is no reason why it should not go to £10 or £20 if more do not turn up. The 2½d. of issues 7 and 8 and the 1/- of issues 5 and 6 are much rarer than was at first supposed.

The "rift" is the variety of this series of Papuan stamps, and is in most remarkable demand both at home and abroad. In order to show its position on the sheet, some collectors take blocks of six from the lower left-hand corner of the sheet, thus:—

These blocks also show the "white leaves" variety, No. 2 in the last row) but the latter only occurs in some values.

One of the greatest feats ever accomplished by a New Issue Service has been that of Ewen's New Issue Service in at least commencing the distribution of nearly every one of the above stamps, even of the rift variety. To do this we have been obliged to lay out several thousand pounds. Those of our clients who have kept all the stamps sent them must now have a collection that will in all probability prove an excellent investment. This bi-coloured series of Papua will always prove a most interesting field for specialists and has much in common with the famous Bomba stamps of Sicily the demand for which became so great that at one time they were readily saleable at 5 times Gibbons' Catalogue prices. The fact that Papuan stamps are printed in small sheets, 30 stamps only, which can be mounted on an album page without folding will also conduce to continued popularity.

Our stock of the bi-coloured series is fast dwindling, and we cannot guarantee that the special collections advertised elsewhere will be much longer on sale. During the week fourteen new approval books have been mounted.

PERSIA (580 G 596).—A new issue is chronicled in the Germania-Berichte (10.2.11/17).

New Issue. Design showing the Persian lion within laurel wreath.

1 shahi, orange.	Centre, red-brown.
2 " lilac	"
3 " green	"
6 " red	"
9 " grey-lilac	"
13 " dark blue	"
26 " dark green	"
1 kran, violet.	Centre, olive-grey.

The 5 shahi postcard of 1898 has been overprinted 2 and 6 shahi vertically in black.

PORTUGUESE CONGO (296 H 596).—The first Republican stamps of this Colony are of a quite unexpected nature. Failing to receive supplies of the low values from home, the colony had to borrow from the neighbouring Angola, with the result given below.

Stamps of Angola, surcharged "CONGO—REPUBLICA" and a thick bar over the name "Angola."

5 reis, orange	Surch. black and red.
10 " yellow-green	"
15 " green	"

For these particulars we are indebted to Die Post (8.2.11/26). The fact that the surcharge is in two colours rather implies that the stamps had already been overprinted "Republica" in Angola and that they then received a second overprint of "Congo."

RHODESIA (594 P 596).—We have the 2d. and 2½d. in new shades.

New Shade.

2d. pale grey.
2½d. light ultramarine.

Issued in London, 13.2.11 or earlier. The first printing of the £1 with back showing black instead of blue appears likely to become a scarce stamp.

RUSSIAN POST, CONSTANTINOPLE (591 L 596).—Mr. Alois Gumoens informs us that the 5 para error with "Consnantinople" occurs on stamp No. 11 (1st in 3rd row) of the top left-hand pane of the sheet. If it occurred on the 20 or 30 sheets imported by us, the error has been sold as the ordinary stamp, as we did not notice it.

SOUTH AFRICAN UNION (584 G 596).—We quote from the Westminster Gazette (15.2.11).

"Philatelists should be interested in a new series of stamps which are to be issued in connection with the South African Union. The designs for the series, which will consist of eleven stamps, are to be the subject of a competition. The Cape Times gives some particulars:—

'All designs sent in must be for an upright stamp and drawn or reduced to about the size of the present postage stamps in the various Provinces. They must show the following: 1. The King's Head and Crown. 2. The words, "Union of South Africa" and "Unie van Zuid-Afrika." 3. The denomination in figures, and 4. The words "Postage" and "Postzegel." Any characteristic figures or features specially suitable to represent some aspect of South Africa may be included.'

The competition is open till the end of March."

UNITED STATES (587 N 596).—We have the 5c. with new watermark and three other values are reported by Stanley Gibbons' Monthly Journal (31.1.11/32.) The watermark, by the way, is one of the most indistinct we have ever had to decipher.

With new wmk., single-lined.

4c. brown.
5c. blue.
6c. orange
8c. green

URUGUAY (595 Z 596).—We quote from the Daily Telegraph (2.2.11):—

"A very handsome 5 centesimos stamp, printed in taille-douce, was issued in Uruguay on Jan 8, and is already obsolete. The object of its issue was to celebrate the inauguration of the first South American Postal Congress, and it was available for postage to all parts of the South American Continent up till Tuesday of this week. The design and colouring are pleasing. Within an arched frame is an allegorical female figure with wings, bearing in one hand a letter and in the other a posthorn. The inscriptions, which are all in the frame part of the design, include the words '1 or Congress Postal Continental,' and the date Enero (January), 1911. The stamp has been printed in Buenos Ayres by the South American Bank Note Company in sheets of fifty. The frame is printed in red, and the vignette in black. The paper is watermarked 'R.O.' (Republica Oriental), like the issues of May, 1910, and August, 1909."

New Issue Service.

Week ending 11th Feb., 1911.

Trengganu, complete distribution of all values, 1c. to $1. The 1c. and 3c. are also sent out in distinct shades (which however are not quite so striking as they were in the entire sheet).

Italian Constantinople, the new 40 piastres. S. Australia, 5/- with new perf. 12½. This still has the old watermark Crown SA.

Canada, 10, 20c. New shades.

Robinson Crusoe Island ("Juan Fernandez" on Chile). The three values surcharged on the 1 peso are sent this week and the 5c. on the 12c. will follow. The gentleman on the 1 peso is not Robinson Crusoe but Columbus. These stamps have quite a history which has already been told in the philatelic press. Briefly, the late set appeared value by value as the stock of the old series became exhausted, until only the 12c. and $1 remained. The Postmaster was so bothered with applications for these stamps that he obtained a few by special requisition for certain dealers, and subsequently repeated the process for some of his friends, who sold them at a considerable premium. To prevent the market being spoilt a few million of the 12c. and $1 were surcharged for fiscal purposes, and another million or so for use in the Juan Fernandez penal settlement. It was then found that there was hardly any more correspondence from Juan Fernandez than in the days of Robinson Crusoe, so it was officially decreed that the Crusoe stamps should be available in Chili. The 5c. is now obsolete, but we are distributing it with next delivery.

Patiala Service, new shades of 4 and 8 annas.

MONEY ORDERS AND POSTAL ORDERS.

Will clients kindly see that these are made payable to "Ewen's Ltd." at Anerley Road, S.E., post office. This post office may not be mentioned in the directory of money order offices kept at some post offices, but that is because the directory is an old one, and clients are asked to insist on orders being made payable at the office we name, as they cannot then be cashed if lost. All orders received by us are executed within 24 hours and any case of delay should be reported to the Managing Director at once.

Surcharged on B.N.G. 2/6

The total face value of this fine nucleus for a Papua collection is 30/3½, and we offer it at the very low price of £3, considering the scarcity of many stamps, and the fact that no more official stamps are to be sold. The 2/6 of issue 5 is a rarity, and even issue 6 is advancing.

PAPUA.

A wholesale parcel specially recommended to dealers and exchange club members.

Will clients kindly see that these are made payable to "Ewen's Ltd." at Anerley Road, S.E., post office. This post office may not be mentioned in the directory of money order offices kept at some post offices, but that is because the directory is an old one, and clients are asked to insist on orders being made payable at the office we name, as they cannot then be cashed if lost. All orders received by us are executed within 24 hours and any case of delay should be reported to the Managing Director at once.

Surcharged on B.N.G. 2/6

The total face value of this fine nucleus for a Papua collection is 30/3 1/2, and we offer it at the very low price of £3, considering the scarcity of many stamps, and the fact that no more official stamps are to be sold. The 2/6 of issue 5 is a rarity, and even issue 6 is advancing.

PAPUA.

A wholesale parcel specially recommended to dealers and exchange club members.

GREAT BRITAIN.—Current Issue (596 B 597).—We quote from the Daily Mail (20.2.11).

KING GEORGE V. STAMPS.

Printing the New Issue.

All the designs for the new King George V. postage stamps have now been finally approved by the King, and the work of engraving the plates for the printing of the stamps is being rapidly carried out at the Royal Mint.

The King has throughout been extremely interested in the preparations for the issue of his stamps. He has seen designs, sample engravings, and proof stamps, and has kept in touch with every stage of the work.

As in the case of the King Edward stamps, the new issues will vary in border and lettering according to the different values, but the head of the King will be the same on every stamp.

A big task now lies before engravers, printers, and postal officials in completing the issue within the next two months or so. The new stamps will be on sale to the public some time in May or, at the latest, the early part of June. The exact date, however, has not yet been decided. It is the aim of the Post Office to have simultaneous distribution at every one of the 25,000 offices in the United Kingdom. During the first two days of selling the new stamps the demand is expected to be ten times the average.

AUSTRALIA (589 P 597).—We quote from the Times (20.2.11).

AUSTRALIA'S NEW STAMPS.

Designs Invited from Artists.

It was stated in the Times of February 10th, in an article on "The Empire's New Stamps," that the Federal Government of Australia would probably offer a handsome prize for competitive designs of a series of Commonwealth stamps. The Australian High Commissioner in London has now received the terms of this offer, and is taking steps to bring it to the notice of the public, in the hope that it will be well responded to by artists. The conditions of the competition are set forth as follows by the Hon. Josiah Thomas, Postmaster-General of the Commonwealth:—

Skilled artists are invited to submit competitive designs for a uniform postage stamp for the Commonwealth.

The size of the stamp for which designs are invited will be 1½ in. x ¾ in. oblong.

Designs must not exceed four times the measurements specified for the stamps, and should be accompanied by photographic reductions to the sizes required for the stamps.

Two premiums, one of £100 and one of £50, will be paid for the designs which are adjudged by a board, to be appointed for the purpose of adjudicating on the designs submitted by competitors, to be first and second respectively in order of merit, provided such designs are deemed worthy of being awarded a premium.

In selecting the designs preference will be given to those which best lend themselves to engraving on the reduced scale.

The designs must contain features characteristic of Australia, and also the words "Australia" and "Postage," as well as the stamp value in Arabic figures or in both figures and letters.

The treatment of the designs should not be made too photographic or realistic, and it must be in accordance with the more formal designs to be found in the best postage stamps.

The premiated designs will become the sole property of the Postmaster-General.

Designs will be received up to noon on May 31st, 1911, and must be addressed to the Secretary, Postmaster-General's Department, 51, Spring Street, Melbourne. They must be endorsed "Designs for Commonwealth Postage Stamp," and if sent by post must be registered and the postage thereon prepaid.

The designs should not be signed with the name of the designer but should bear only a nom de plume or private mark for purposes of identity, and the accompanying letter containing the designer's name and address, as well as a copy of the nom de plume or private mark on the designs, should be enclosed in a separate sealed envelope, which will be opened after the designs have been adjudicated upon.

BARBADOS (585 M 597).—Under date of 9.2.11, a correspondent informs us that the remaining stock of the 5d. and 10d. stamps, to the number of over 30,000, were burnt on 2.1.11. The 8d. value has been sold out some time, so there were no remainders to burn; in fact, only a small lot of this value on multiple watermark paper was ever printed, and we should not be surprised to see it catalogued 10/- or 15/- before long.

It is difficult to understand why the remainders should have been burnt. They have been replaced by 6d. and 1/- stamps, and we should have thought it would have been much less expense to surcharge the 5d. and 10d. stamps respectively 6d. and 1/-. Stamp collectors, at all events, would have welcomed such interesting novelties and the colony would have speedily realized over £1000 for what it has now had to pay to have burnt.

BAVARIA (596 C 597).—We have the old 50 pf. in a slightly different shade (30.1.11), but it has probably been printed some little time. No further printings of the embossed stamps have been made since 1910.

The so-called Jubilee stamps are, it is stated, intended to be a permanent issue and have no claim to the title of jubilee beyond the fact that the date of their first issue coincides with the date of the commencement of the fêtes in honour of the Regent's 90th birthday. The birthday is 12.3.11, but the fêtes commence on 8.3.11 when the stamps will also be issued.

The Bulletin Mensuel (25.2.11/16) states that a special jubilee stamp will also be issued, either 5 and 10 pfennig in value, and that 1,000,000 will be printed, the stamp to be issued during one day only.

BRITISH GUIANA (557 I 597).—We quote from the Official Gazette (12.11.10).

POST OFFICE NOTICE.

New Issue of Revenue Stamps.

Post Office Department,

Georgetown, British Guiana,

9th November, 1910.

The following new Issues of Revenue Stamps will be on sale by this Department on and after Monday, 14th November, 1910:—

The Walthamstow Stamp Exhibition.

FINE DISPLAY AT THE LIBRARY.

OPENING BY SIR JOHN SIMON, K.C., M.P.
(Report from the Walthamstow Guardian (11.2.11).)

THE fine lecture hall of the Walthamstow Public Library is this week presenting an appearance which differs very considerably from its usual aspect. The use of the hall has been granted to the South Essex Philatelic Society for their first big public exhibition, which forms one item in the programme of the Town's Lectures Committee, and during the week the townsfolk have an opportunity of freely inspecting a display of stamps which is in many respects remarkable, and which is bringing into the town keen philatelists from all over the country. For such a young society—it was only established quite recently—the exhibition has been organised on most ambitious lines, and, to the surprise of some older societies with a more influential membership the loan has been secured of several specimens which have not hitherto been exhibited. Added to this, there are some fine specialised collections and a special series of exhibits illustrating the evolution of the penny postage stamp, which is the main idea of the exhibition. It can therefore, be understood why the exhibition is attracting such a considerable amount of attention.

The Exhibition was opened at four o'clock on Saturday afternoon by Sir John Simon, K.C., M.P., the Solicitor-General, who had previously spent some time examining the specimens shown in the cases.

As the accommodation for visitors was necessarily limited by the amount of space taken up by the stands, admission to the formal opening was only by special invitation ticket, the general public not being admitted until six o'clock. At the formal opening by Sir John Simon, the chair was taken by Dr. Scoresby-Jackson, and supporting him were Mr. and Mrs. L. Stanley Johnson, Mr. A. H. Clark (President of the Society) and others.

Dr. Scoresby Jackson, before calling on Sir John Simon to open the Exhibition, made some brief remarks with regard to the extreme interest of philately. New issues were perfectly bewildering; they were the despair of the collector, and the delight of the dealer. Collecting really was most enticing. He had given it up half a dozen times, but still collected. (Laughter.) As far as he could see, the only way to really stop collecting was to give away or sell one's collection, if a collector kept it by him he would be certain to go on adding to it. Then, having given it away, one would be so savage with himself that the very mention of stamps would provoke language of a not very proper order. Philately presented different aspects to different people, it was possible to spend three or four hours in showing friends part of a collection, to be complimented at the finish on the very neat manner in which they were arranged—praise qualified by the statement that the friend could not see how anybody with brains could spend so much time arranging little bits of paper. It might be suggested that such time was wasted, but collectors were not as a rule idle and frivolous, but really busy men. In the exhibition which was now to be opened there were specimens which had never been seen elsewhere, and which were certainly not likely to be shown in Walthamstow again.

Sir John Simon, K.C., M.P., said his duty was a simple one, and could be discharged quite briefly. It was to declare the Exhibition open. But before he did that in set terms, he wished to congratulate those who were responsible for organising the Exhibition and arranging it so admirably. He was sure all would agree that Mr. Clarke and those who had worked with him were entitled to their sincere congratulations upon the results of the energy, zeal and organisation. Sir John said he was afraid he could not claim to have ever been a stamp collector, even in the most modest way; at different times he had collected a good many things with more or less success, but never stamps. He and Mr. Johnson had, however, in recent times spent a good deal of money on them. (Laughter.) The whole of the amount they had spent had been most accurately accounted for by the Returning Officer, but their interest in the subject had been rather in the nature of exports than imports. (Renewed laughter.) But though he had never collected stamps he was far from saying that those who devoted some of their leisure to this obviously entrancing study, were not spending their time, their brains, and often their money, to a very good purpose. In the presence of so many who have made a special study of philately, it was unnecessary for him to produce arguments in favour of what was, he was sure, an occupation involving a great deal that was important, as well as much that was interesting and stimulating. The man, woman, boy or girl who devoted enterprise, energy and interest to such a collection was

A Stamp Competition.

VALUABLE PRIZES

Given by Mr. H. L'Estrange Ewen.

First Prize, set of 14 Somaliland Official Stamps, catalogued £7 9s. 6d. by Stanley Gibbons.

Second Prize, set of Brunei, 1st Issue, catalogued £2 14s. 9d. by Stanley Gibbons.

Third Prize, a red, a blue, a green Railway Postage Stamp (N.E.R., Cork & Macroom, West Lancashire), catalogued £1 5s.

The funds of the recent Walthamstow Stamp Exhibition are "minus £25." As the enthusiasm of a young society for the hobby deserves every encouragement, we invite our readers to help wipe out the deficit, whether they are friends or enemies of stamp exhibitions.

The prizes will be awarded for the three best answers to the following question, whether in the affirmative or negative.

ARE STAMP EXHIBITIONS BENEFICIAL TO THE HOBBY?

Replies may be written from the point of view of the specialist, the general collector, the dealer and in general a fairly wide latitude will be allowed the competitor. Replies may be written in any European language and may be of any length, but the competitor will be expected to send a contribution of one farthing for each word of his reply. But of course he may contribute more if he wishes. A short reply may be sent if desired, though "Yes" or "No" can hardly be expected to win a prize. The whole proceeds without any reduction whatsoever will be handed by us to the Exhibition Fund.

Competition closes Monday, 13th March and result will be announced in E.W.S.N. of Saturday, 18th March.

touching many aspects of study, however lightly, from many points of view. He supposed the ideal collector had in the first case to be a master of the geography of the world, and that was a thing becoming increasingly difficult. A collector must also know something, at any rate, of history, and a good deal in detail of the recent history of a great many countries; the new issues were, he gathered, rather embarrassing, and they became even more so when they had to do with a country where there were revolutions year by year. The collection of stamps must add interest even to business hours, for the clerk whose business was to be in London, and deal with the foreign correspondence must gain interest and stimulation by the fact that his own hobby was constantly brought to his mind by his work. Although great collections of great value might only be possible when considerable sums of money were from time to time spent, it was possible to start making a collection with very modest means, and by applying nothing more than intelligence and industry to add to the interest of the ordinary daily affairs of life, which seemed to be a strong argument in favour of this form of hobby. Sir John said he was not in a position to point out the valuable specimens in the exhibition, but no doubt, Mr. Clark would do that. There was, however, one fact about the exhibition, which was probably known to all present, and which was of very special satisfaction to everyone interested in the exhibition. He understood that the society, through their secretary, had succeeded in getting the loan of some extremely interesting, extremely rare, and indeed unique specimens from the splendid collection in the possession of and formed by his Majesty the King. Everybody connected with the place and interested in this exhibition must feel especial satisfaction in realising that this great honour had been done to the society. His Majesty the King was in this regard following the tradition which was set him by his father and grandmother, in associating himself actively and sincerely with the pleasures and hobbies as well as with the hard daily life of his subjects. The hobby which occasioned this exhibition to take place was also one of the special hobbies and interests of the King, and the kindness he had shown to this society and exhibition was most warmly appreciated by all. They felt that his great kindness in doing this signal honour to the exhibition was only one more instance of the fact that he stood in the heart of his people to-day, both as a private gentleman and as monarch of the greatest empire known to the world as one entitled to and receiving their respect. Sir John then said it was his very pleasant duty—and he was extremely glad to have the opportunity of doing it—to declare the exhibition open.

Mr. L. Stanley Johnson said it would perhaps occur to many that it was peculiarly appropriate, having regard to the reference to His Majesty the King, that they should have His Majesty's Solicitor-General to open the exhibition. Sir John having done that in his customary graceful way, they now had an opportunity of showing how much they appreciated his presence and assistance at the ceremony. The Solicitor-General did not plead guilty to being a collector of postage stamps, although he pleaded guilty to a large expenditure on articles of that character. But they knew him to be a collector of good opinions towards himself, and that he deserved them thoroughly. (Applause.) It was no small sacrifice for a gentleman occupying his position, with so many calls upon his time and the scanty leisure he could command, to come that day and to assist by opening the exhibition, and all present, the speaker felt certain, would be glad to join in according him a hearty vote of thanks to assure him that they appreciated his interest and thanked him warmly for coming to give his assistance. He moved that vote with the utmost pleasure.

The President of the Society, Mr. A. H. Clark, seconded. In doing so he informed the visitors that the committee had placed at their disposal a large number of Stewards, who would be glad to act as guides and explain every item of interest.

Sir John Simon, after replying to the vote of thanks, moved a similar vote to the Chairman, which was accorded after being seconded by Mr. A. B. C. Dyer.

Hannover Reminders.

BRILLIANT IMPERF. BLOCKS OF 4.

These are almost like a "New Issue," being in such beautiful mint condition. We should think the stock will soon become absorbed; hence we have had a small supply sent for offer to our readers and it will only be advertised this once.

All in blocks of 4.

- 1 groschen, pale rose, block, 8/-.
- 1 groschen, blocks in 7 different shades, 8/-, 8/-, 8/-, 10/-, 10/-, 12/-, 12/-, 16/- and 80/- (the latter the scarce violet-red of 1863).
- 2 groschen, blue, 20/- or 25/- per block, according to shade.
- 3 groschen, brown, 48/-, 50/-, 60/-, according to shade.
- 1 groschen, rouletted, 8/-, 10/-, 20/-, according to shade.

Also

- Pair 1 gr. violet-red, 1863 shade, 40/-.
- Pair 3 gr. dark brown, very rare, 50/-.

THE WEEK'S NEWS.

KELANTAN (591 H 597).—Our Taiping correspondent writes us under date of 23.1.10:—"The Kelantan issue will be made in a few weeks now, provided the Raja is satisfied with them. The envelopes are already on issue at Khota Bahru. There is no news yet of an issue for Kedah."

We do not know what the envelopes referred to are. Trengganu had 1c. and 3c. postcards.

Later (1.3.11).—Just as we go to press, we receive a large consignment of all values from 1c. to $25. The parcel is franked with Malay States stamps postmarked "Kota Bahru, Kelantan, 23.1.11."

NEWFOUNDLAND (596 Z 597).—Another value of the engraved set is reported by the Bulletin Mensuel (25.2.11/3).

Guy Series, engraved. Perf. 14.
15c. olive-black.

We have had these on order for months and no less than to requisitions for Guy stamps are now unexecuted. The delays in Colonial Post Offices are fast becoming a scandal.

NICARAGUA (593 T 597).—This is about the only Central American Republic which lives up to the philatelic reputation of that part of the world, but at the same time it is difficult to see that the issues are speculative. One could well imagine, for instance, that the change from the American Bank Note Company issue to that of Messrs. Waterlow & Sons, Ltd., might be due to the former's account not having been paid and the change back to the former because the latter's account was overdue. Then, again, in a country where the peso varies in value in each district, it is obviously necessary to surcharge the stamps, or traders would buy the stamps in towns where the peso was worth sixpence and sell them where the peso was worth 2/-. There may therefore be a very good excuse for the complicated history of the 1905 design and there is no doubt that many of the varieties would be found exceedingly rare if ever the country became popular with collectors. We append a simplified list.

Issues of the 1905 Design.

Next week we will deal with the fiscal stamps which have been surcharged during the same period for postal purposes.

NEW HEBRIDES (595 A 597).—From "specimen" copies distributed by the Postal Union, we take the following description of yet another new issue.

Oblong design with "R F" at left and "G R" at right; Postes at left and Postage at right; "New Hebrides" at top; value at foot.

- 1/4d. green.
- 1d. carmine.
- 2d. grey.
- 2 1/2d. blue.
- 5d. olive.
- 6d. carmine.
- 1/- black on green.
- 2/- violet on blue.
- 5/- green on yellow.

To be issued.

The London printed issue surcharged on Fiji stamps has been shown us by a reader, postmarked Vila, 22.12.10, but the authorities have so far refused all our requests to be supplied.

NORTH BORNEO (579 I 597).—"Specimen" copies of the following have been distributed by the Postal Union.

Large designs, inscribed "The State of North Borneo—British Protectorate."

- 25 cents, green and black.
- 50 " dark blue and black.
- $1 brown and black.
- $2 dark violet and black.
- $5 dark carmine and black.
- $10 vermilion.

To be issued.

PANAMA (395 V 597).—We have received another value in the new map issue.

Map Issue of 1911.
1/2 centesimo de balboa, orange.

Issue 1.2.11.

PHILIPPINES (589 Z 597).—Another colour change is reported by the Bulletin Mensuel (25.2.11/2).

New Colour.
20c. yellow instead of pale brown.

RUSSIAN F.P.O. (596 M 597).—The Philatelistische Monats-Blätter (10.2.11/8) chronicles the following:—

With blue instead of black overprint.
5 para, Jaffa.
" Salonica.

The Jerusalem and Constantinople 5 para with blue overprint have already been chronicled. A sheet of the 20 para has been found with "Dardanelles" at the top inverted.

RUSSIAN P.O., CHINA (583 K 597).—The Bulletin Mensuel (25.2.11/1) chronicles the following:—

- Wove paper, varnished, with crossed lines. Overprinted as usual.
- On Russia 1890. 1 rbl., brown and orange.
- On Russia 1910. 3 kop., rose.

SOUTH AFRICAN UNION (596 H 597).—We quote from the African World (18.2.11).

NEW UNION STAMPS.

"The 'Union Gazette' notifies that competitive designs are invited for a new series of postage stamps, which it is the intention to issue in connection with the Union of South Africa.

"The series will comprise eleven separate designs, one for each of the following denominations, namely, 1/4d., 1d., 2d., 2 1/2d., 3d., 4d., 6d., 1s., 2s. 6d., 5s., and 10s. A premium of £10 is offered for the design selected as being the best in the case of each of these postal values.

"All designs sent in must be for an upright stamp and drawn or reduced to about the size of the present postage stamps in the various provinces. They must show the following:—

1. The King's head and crown.
2. The words 'Union of South Africa' and 'Unie van Zuid-Afrika.'
3. The denomination in figures, and
4. The words 'Postage' and 'Postzegel.'

"Any characteristic figures or features specially suitable to represent some aspect of South Africa may be included.

"The designs submitted need not be in colours, but those for the 1/4d., 1d., and 2 1/2d. stamps must be suitable for reproduction in green, red, and blue respectively.

"The Government's decision will be final as regards the selection of designs and the award of prizes under this competition.

"Competitors are permitted to compete for one or more designs.

"The designs selected as being the best shall become the absolute property of the Government. Any design for which a prize has not been awarded may, on the same condition, be purchased by the Government at a price to be agreed upon, but in any case not to exceed £10.

"The Government does not bind itself to adopt any of the selected or purchased designs.

"The competition closes on March 31st, 1911, and only such designs as are sent in on or before that date will be considered.

"The designs should be enclosed in sealed covers addressed to the Postmaster-General of the Union of South Africa at Cape Town, and marked outside "Competitive Designs for New Union Postage Stamps."

SOMALILAND (595 M 597).—Another value is chronicled on chalk-surfaced paper by Der Philatelist (15.2.11/31).

Chalk-surfaced paper instead of ordinary; multiple Crown CA.
6 annas, violet and green.

STRAITS SETTLEMENTS (590 C 597).—"Specimen" copies of the $25 value in the new design have now been distributed by the Postal Union.

Wmk. multiple Crown CA.
$25 violet and blue on blue paper.
To be issued.

VICTORIA LAND (A 597).—Another new name for our albums! This stamp is no doubt of the same nature as the King Edward VII. Land stamp.

VICTORIA LAND, 1911

Overprinted "VICTORIA LAND" in sans-serif capitals on current 1d. stamp of New Zealand.
1d. rose.

The above description is from the Bulletin Mensuel (25.2.11/3).

A New Issue Service for Papua Only.

Clients who are not already subscribers to our New Issue Service, may join for Papua only. It is simply necessary to state whether the stamps are required in singles, blocks or sheets, and to maintain the deposit account in credit. Any stamp may be returned within 10 days of receipt, but the earliest positions on the list will go to those who return the fewest stamps.

Ewen's Colonial Stamp Market, Ltd.,
 32, PALACE SQUARE, NORWOOD, LONDON, S.E.

Deposit Accounts.—All payments (for whatever purpose) are credited to a deposit account, and all invoices (whether for stamps, albums, subscriptions or postage, etc.), are debited to such account. This deposit account should not be overdrawn. The balance is returnable post free on demand.

Returns.—Stamps which are not as ordered may be returned within 10 days and their full sale price will be re-credited to deposit account.

Bank notes.—20 mark=19/6; 50 francs (French) 39/8; 50 francs (other countries) 39/6; 50 lire, 39/6; 20 kronen=16/6; 20 kroner=22/-; 10 gulden=16/6; 10 roubles=21/-; U.S.A. dollar=4/1.

Cheques payable to "Ewen's Colonial Stamp Market, Ltd.," or "Ewen's, Ltd.," postal orders, money orders (inland and foreign) etc., payable to "Ewen's, Ltd.," at "Anerley Road, S.E." Cheques on France and Germany accepted at same rate as bank notes, also bons de poste.

MONEY ORDERS AND POSTAL ORDERS.

Will clients kindly see that these are made payable to "Ewen's Ltd." at Anerley Road, S.E., post office. This post office may not be mentioned in the directory of money order offices kept at some post offices, but that is because the directory is an old one, and clients are asked to insist on orders being made payable at the office we name, as they cannot then be cashed if lost. All orders received by us are executed within 24 hours and any case of delay should be reported to the Managing Director at once.

The total face value of this fine nucleus for a Papua collection is 30/2, and we offer it at the very low price of £3, considering the scarcity of many stamps, and the fact that no more official stamps are to be sold. The 2/6 of issue 5 is a rarity, and even issue 6 is advancing.

PAPUA.

A wholesale parcel specially recommended to dealers and exchange club members.

[PRICE ONE PENNY.

Post Free 1½d. 4/4 per annum.]

The Week's News.

The Editor is always pleased to receive Early Information of New Issues, or of Discoveries interesting to Stamp Collectors.

The index number and serial letter after the title of each paragraph indicate the issue of E.W.S.N. in which the last reference to that country appeared.

GREAT BRITAIN.—Unadhesive Stamps (594 N, 598).—Mr. E. Bentley Wood writes us under date of 1.3.11 that he has received the ½d. die 73. The list of dies now known is as follows:—

Envelope Dies. List of die-numbers known.

- ½d. dark green. Dies 7 to 30; 43 to 55.
- ½d. yellow-green. Dies 45 to 74 except 49, 70.
- 1d. Dies 7 to 30; 43 to 82 except 80.
- 1½d. yellow Die 1; 1½d. violet, Dies 1, 2.
- 4d., 10d., 1/- Die 1.
- 2d. Dies 1, 2. 2½d. Die 3. 3d. Dies 1, 2.
- 6d. Dies 1 to 23.
- 3d. Registration, Dies 1 to 18.

AFGHANISTAN (595 V 598).—A new printing of the ¼ rupee parcel stamp has been made, in a slightly different shade of brown.

BAHAMAS (581 L 598).—We find we have omitted to record the issue of the following.

Wmk. multiple Crown CA instead of single CC.
1d. rose and black.

Issued 7.2.11 or earlier.

BAVARIA (597 D 598).—The Berliner Morgenpost (19.2.11) states that owing to an error of the designer, August von Kaulbach, some of the "jubilee" stamps may have to be cancelled. On one of the designs the Prince-Regent appears in huntsman's dress, and the ornamental feather in his huntsman's cap is shown on the right side instead of the left, which is characterised as a serious mistake and one likely to make the Regent ridiculous in the eyes of sportsmen. Perhaps, on the other hand, it may lead to a change of fashion!

On the other hand, the Neues Münchener Tagblatt (21.2.11) says that the criticism of the design is wide of the mark. The profile is turned to the right, in order to make a greater distinction between the "mark" and "pfennig" values, and the feather had to be shown on the right-hand side because it would not have been seen on the left. This seems to us rather a lame excuse!

The Augsburger Abend-Zeitung (20.2.11) gives the date of issue as 10.3.11 (we have previously been told 8.3.11 or 12.3.11). It states that unexpected difficulty has been encountered in manufacturing the stamps. An unusual number of plates have been required, in the case of some values as many as ten, as only 5,000 to 6,000 sheets can be taken from a plate before it becomes useless. A further difficulty cropped up in regard to the quality, colour and gumming of the paper. The stamps are printed on paper already gummed and a specially carefully prepared paper is necessary. Its supply by the local firms has not been altogether sufficient and a further quantity has had to be obtained from a Leipzig firm. Besides the firm Consée, who were entrusted with the printing, the services of the Royal Mint and of the Military Printing Office have been requisitioned.

The same journal (16.2.11.) illustrates all the new stamps and postcards. The pfennig values are dated "12 März 1911" along the top.

The Hamburger Nachrichten (18.2.11.) states that the new stamps will also be overprinted "E" like the present issue, for the use of the Railway Administration. It gives the date of issue as 11.3.11.

The remainders of the present embossed series may be postmarked and sold under face value.

GWALIOR (589 R 598).—The following new stamp is chronicled by the Postage Stamp (4.3.11/216):—

"Postage and Revenue."
1 anna, rose.

Issued 3.1.11 or earlier.

HYDERABAD (566 M 598).—We have at last received the 3 annas stamps, to which reference has lately been made in our notes. They will be distributed with our New Issue Service this week.

JAMAICA (597 Y 598).—This week's mail brought us the new 2d. stamp with portrait of King Edward, so that our note last week has to be modified.

Nyasaland design. Portrait of King Edward.
Wmk. multiple Crown CA., ordinary paper.
2d. grey.

Issued 16.2.11 or earlier.

JOHORE (594 W 598).—We have received a large consignment of stamps, including several new varieties.

Wmk. vertical rosette, faint shading, ordinary paper.

8c. lilac and blue.
50c. " carmine.

Wmk. multiple horizontal rosettes, chalk-surfaced paper.
10c. lilac and black (two shades).

Issued 10.2.11 or earlier. We are officially informed that the last supply of stamps was ordered from Messrs. De La Rue & Co. in London, in August, 1910, and consisted of about 200,000 stamps each of the values of 3c., 4c. and 10c. These are the first stamps to have multiple watermark, all previous supplies having had single watermark.

Of the single watermark stamps on chalk-surfaced paper only the 1c. and 2c. are now in stock. The Postmaster does not say in his letter whether any other values were included in the set.

The current issue of Johore may now be catalogued as follows:—

- Ordinary paper, wmk. vertical rosette.
  - (i.) 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 8, 10, 25, 50 cents, $1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 10. Same, but background of very faint lines, sometimes appearing white.
  - (ii.) 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 8, 10, 25, 50 cents, $1.
- Chalky paper, wmk. vertical rosette.
  - (iii.) 1, 2 cents.
- Multiple horizontal rosettes, chalky paper.
  - (iv.) 3, 4, 10 cents.

The issue (ii.) has previously been described as from "plate 2" but the sheets still bear marginal plate-number 1 and in most of those received this week we notice that the two vertical rows on the left side of the sheet are rather clearly shaded, almost as in "plate 1" (although the design is otherwise rather indistinct, possibly through excess of ink) whilst the rest of the sheet shows the characteristics of "plate 2." The difference between the marginal stamps on the left and those on the right hand side of the sheets is very striking.

Good examples of issue ii. showing the very faint shading of the background will probably become scarce as most collectors have not troubled about them and the 1, 2, 3, 4 and 10c. are already obsolete. All have however been distributed through our New Issue Service and this week's distribution will bring our deliveries absolutely up to date.

We are also sending out the 25c. of issue ii. with value printed in a paler green.

KEDAH (576 F 598).—Mr. F. J. Melville writes in the Daily Telegraph (2.3.11).

"At present the State of Kedah uses stamps of the Federated Malay States, but it must not be understood from this that Kedah has joined the Federation, as some philatelists have stated. I think the recent interest exhibited by the Rajahs of Trengganu and Kelantan in the matter of special stamps will most probably raise a desire on the part of the Rajah of Kedah to have a similar issue."

Mr. Melville is not quite accurate, we think, as regards the attitude of the Sultan of Kedah. As long ago as September, 1909, long before the stamps of Kelantan and Trengganu were thought of, we understood that the Sultan of Kedah was desirous of having his own stamps. It was stated that he had applied to the Colonial Office for permission. We made arrangements in 1909 to purchase over £1,000 worth, but after waiting a year we cancelled them and if the Sultan now makes an issue, he will find that he is the loser of over £500 through his dilatoriness. Perhaps the delay is not his fault, however. In any case, the mere revenue from the stamps is probably a matter of very little importance to the State.

KELANTAN (597 I 598).—These stamps arrived just before we went to press last week, and in the hurry of adding an announcement of them we endowed the State with a 2c. stamp which it does not possess. Consequently a slight modification has to be made in our advertisement of last week.

Mr. F. J. Melville writes in the Daily Telegraph (2.3.11).

"I have previously pointed out the likelihood of some of the new Protected States ceded from Siam in 1909 desiring to emulate the example of the Rajah of Trengganu in having his portrait on his own postage stamps. Already the State of Kelantan has claimed its title to have a series of special stamps, but it appears to have decided upon a design before seeing the attractive portrait stamps recently issued in Trengganu. I now learn that the Rajah of Kelantan is anxious to buy up all the stamps of the "crescent and emblems" design, so that he may at once have a new series prepared bearing his own portrait. Unless other counsels prevail, then the new Kelantan stamps will be practically cornered by the Rajah himself, an extraordinary circumstance, the equal of which has not, I think, occurred throughout the history of adhesive postage stamps. The correspondent of the Straits Times at Kota Bahru confirms the report that "the Rajah of Kelantan wishes to buy up the whole issue and have a new issue bearing an impress of his Highness's head, the idea being suggested by the example of the Rajah of Trengganu. Whether anything will be done in this respect is at present uncertain."

If the Rajah of Kelantan wishes to "corner" the new stamps, he reckons without us! We purchased between £500 and £1000 worth—between 20,000 and 30,000 stamps in all,—on the first day of issue, and our representative got them safely away to England. As most of them by this time are distributed through our New Issue Service, we fear the Rajah will be a little late in the field.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES. Ewen's Weekly Stamp News can be sent post free to any address in any country for one year for 4/4 ($1.06, Mk. 4.50 or fr. 5.50). Each change of address, 6d. extra. ## THE WEEK'S NEWS.

NEWFOUNDLAND (597 A 598).—We grumbled a little too soon last week, as just after going to press we received stamps ordered in January, although those of December are still outstanding.

The new engraved issue is not by Waterlow & Sons, and we cannot imagine how our correspondent came to make the mistake. The perforation 14 is quite unlike Waterlow's, and is exactly similar to that of the lithographed 1c. and 2c. perf. 12x14, so that there has probably been no change of printer. Only the 6c. value of the new set is to hand up to the moment of writing, and all our sheets are perf. 14. Our quotation for it will be 4d. or 3/6 per dozen, but this may have to be advanced. The mistake in the word "COLONIZATION" is corrected, the "z" now being correctly formed, but the spelling still contrasts with that of the word "COLONISING" on the 2c. and the portrait is still labelled as that of "Lord Bacon."

ZANZIBAR (581 K 598).—When our last consignment of stamps was despatched in December 1910, our agents wrote that they were unable to secure any 1c. stamps, the stock being either exhausted or very low. Instead of issuing a surcharged stamp, the authorities preferred to let applicants go without, which they have had to do for two months. However in February (1911) our agents were able to purchase the 6000 we wanted, a new supply having been received from England. There does not appear to be any change.

New Uses for Stamps.

I.

THE "PEACE STAMP."

From the Morning Leader (27.2.11).

Paris, Sunday.

"At the recent peace banquet in Paris the idea was put forward by Mr. Eugene Boggiano, and enthusiastically received by all present, of a universal 'Peace Stamp,' on the lines of the stamps used in Belgium, Denmark, Sweden, etc., of recent years, as a means of raising funds for hospitals and charities. The "Peace Stamp" would serve a double debt to pay; firstly, it would spread and strengthen the peace ideal; and secondly, it would be a powerful financial support for the work of propaganda.

"The idea thus outlined has made rapid progress, and the stamp will very shortly be issued, under the auspices of an honorary international committee, among whose members are Maxim Gorky, Anatole France, Fridtjof Nansen, Marconi, W. T. Stead, Keir Hardie, Flammarion, Fogaz-zaro, etc.

"The stamp will be sold in all countries for a penny, and its legend will be 'Pax Mundi.' Care has been taken to secure an artistic and attractive design."

FESTIVAL OF EMPIRE STAMP.

From the Daily Mail.

It is important that readers who are entering the competition for the fifty-guinea prize offered by The Daily Mail for the most suitable design for a commemorative stamp for the Festival of Empire, should send in finished work and not rough suggestions. The design should be in one colour only, and must be drawn in line.

The only words to be used on the stamp are "Festival of Empire, Crystal Palace, 1911." Each design must be signed by a nom de guerre and accompanied by a sealed envelope bearing on the outside the nom de guerre and within the full name and address of the artist.

When posting to the Editor of The Daily Mail, Carmelite House, London, E.C., the envelope should be marked "Design" on the top left-hand corner. The competition closes on March 14th. There is no entrance fee.

III.

THE "SAVINGS CARD" STAMP.

Mr. F. P. Brown, writing on 17.2.11 sends us an interesting postal development from the United States. This consists of a card, the size of a postcard, inscribed at the top:—

"U.S. POSTAL SAVINGS CARD.

"This card with nine 10-cent postal savings stamps affixed will be accepted by the Postmaster at any postal savings depository office in the United States as a deposit of one dollar and placed to the credit of the depositor, either in opening or in adding to an existing account."

Below are 10 spaces, the first having an engraved 10c. stamp in orange and the others being numbered 1 to 9. Mr. Brown also sends us an adhesive and perforated stamp similar to the one engraved on the card.

IV.

THE "DICKENS" STAMP.

This stamp must be so well known as hardly to require any reference to it by us; a somewhat similar "stamp" was that with Shakespeare's portrait issued about 1864. These stamps are not intended to be placed on letters, but are to be used as a sort of book-plate.

V.

THE "SEAL" STAMP.

The Seal stamp is better known on the Continent and is already numerous enough to fill an album. There are many varieties of it, but the seal stamp proper is an adhesive label usually inscribed with the sender's name and address. In circular form with scalloped edges it is very popular and at least one well-known firm of English stamp dealers makes regular use of it. The oldest variety is perhaps the "found open and officially sealed" variety used by the Post Office, a class of seal stamp which is regularly catalogued in Yvert and Tellier's catalogue.

VI.

THE "ADVERTISEMENT" STAMP.

The "Festival of Empire" stamp referred to above is probably an example of this class, which is really an off shoot of the seal-stamp, since the labels are more often attached to the back of the letter. Another example of it is the "Passions-spiele—Oberammergau—1910" stamp.

VII.

THE "EXHIBITION" STAMP.

This stamp has become legion. The new issues are regularly chronicled by the Stempel-markensammler, the issue of which for 15.1.11 is before us. Fifteen exhibitions are mentioned, some of which have stamps of many different designs.

The 1911 Glasgow stamp is thus described:—"1911, No. 5.—Glasgow, 1911, May 10, October. Scottish Exhibition. Am Ziel stehende Frauengestalt hält einen Lorberkranz in die Höhe. Hochrechteck,—(a) schwarz; (b) braun; (c) blau; (d) grün; (e) rot auf orange."

Again we read:—

"1910, No. 59.—Dresden, 2-5 Dez., 1910.—47 grosse allgemeine—Geflügel Ausstellung. Kopf eines Hahnes und einer Henne. Kleines Hochrechteck,—(a) schwarz und rot."

The issues of Exhibition stamps are widespread, thus the chronicle in this month's issue includes Exhibition stamps from the following places:—

1910.

59 Dresden; 60 Nimwegen; 61 Venice; 62 Clermont; 63 Nasavrkách (Serbia);

1911.

1 Berlin; 2 Berlin; 3 Cassel; 4 Charleroi; 5 Glasgow; 6 Posen; 7 Roubaix; 8 Schweidnitz; 9 Turin.

It may be recalled that the stamp issued by the London Philatelic Exhibition of 1897 was a reduced reproduction of the Mulready envelope.

VIII.

THE "COMMEMORATIVE" STAMP.

We do not here refer to the Commemorative postage stamp, for the Post Office has no monopoly. The commemorative stamp here referred to is a private stamp, which almost may be classed as an advertisement stamp. Thus in October, 1910, stamps bearing the portraits of Prince Ludwig, the Prince-Regent Leopold and of King Ludwig II. were issued.

IX.

THE "CHRISTMAS" STAMP.

This has already been dealt with at some length in our columns a few weeks ago. In some countries it is allowed to be postmarked, but a Swedish variety before us inscribed "Glad Jul! 1910" and "Godt Nytt Aar, 1911" is used as a seal-stamp.

Recent issues are:—

Julen 1910 (Denmark, 2 öre). Child's head in frame with flowers.
Danskvestindien Julen 1910 (½ cent). Portrait of King and Queen. Crown, Arms and flowers.
Bjørnstjerne Bjørnson. Til kamp mod Tuberkulosen (Norway, Christmas 1910, 2 öre). Two children crowning Bjørnson's portrait.
Jul 1910 (Schleswig-Holstein 2 pfennig).
American Red Cross, "Merry Christmas—Happy New Year—1910." Red Cross in leaves. etc., etc.

X.

THE "VIEW" STAMP.

This stamp is usually sold in small sheets, containing 20 stamps (more or less) with various views of the town. We have not seen it outside Germany.

XI.

THE "PHOTOGRAPH" STAMP.

The photograph stamp also seems to be getting common. We have for instance a gummed and perforated photograph of Count Zeppelin used as a seal stamp on a letter from Germany this week.

XII.

THE "CHARITY" STAMP.

This class again is almost without number. The charity stamp has a special characteristic in that it has a value indicated upon it. Some recent varieties are:—

Roma, Societa romana per la protezione degli animali, 5 centesimi.

Bukowiner Lehrerinnen Verein, 2 heller.

Deutsche Reichsfachschule, Wohltätigkeitsmarke für Waisenpflege.

and so on.

This little list of stamps by no means exhausts the subject. The importance to stamp collectors lies in the fact that these stamps are being very largely collected on the Continent and are beginning to obtain a literature of their own. What will be the attitude of philately towards these labels? And will any Collector who collects them be excommunicated?

Notes.

"Pelure" writes in the Otago Witness (28.12.10).

"A schoolmaster says of Philately:—'I have found that a collection of stamps brings to the study of a country that intrinsic interest that the average geography lesson so lacks, and have noted time and again the greater eagerness and alertness possessed by boys who collect. The very possession of stamps of a country predisposes a boy to unearth for himself further facts about that country. Recently, when taking an entirely new lesson on Germany, I was greatly surprised to find many of my boys able to give me many facts about the political divisions of the country—Saxony, Prussia, Wurtemberg—as each of these States issues, or has issued, its own distinctive set of stamps. The names of many towns were known, and one boy was able to tell that Munchen (Munich) was in Bavaria, because he possessed a stamp of that State bearing the postmark of that town. Another told me that Samoa was a German colony, because all German colonies bore the design of a battleship travelling at full speed, and because the value of the stamp was expressed in pfennings—a purely German coin. One boy, indeed, was able to supply me with details of the unification of the German States and of the result of the war of 1870—details he had obtained from the headings of his stamp album.'"

A client of our New Issue Service writes:—

"I am very pleased to find that the result of this my first checking off of all the hundreds (probably thousands) of stamps received from you since King Edward's accession has proved absolutely correct so far, and I have got as far in the alphabet as Trinidad. It shows the greatest possible attention to details on your part, and I sincerely congratulate you and thank you for your care and business-like methods."

SERIOUS CHARGE AGAINST A NORWOOD POSTMAN.

We regret to have to state that the assistant head postman at the Norwood District Office was convicted at the Old Bailey last week of stealing a postal packet, and was sentenced to six months' hard labour. The prisoner had had 32 years' service in the Post Office, and at the time of his arrest was receiving £125 a year. He would have been entitled to a pension in 13 years time.

Although one may sympathise with him, one must also think of his victims. For 18 months past the man had been suspected, and there is no doubt that a very great number of letters coming into the Norwood district have been tampered with before delivery.

At one period during 1910 not a day passed without our publishers finding amongst their correspondence several letters which had been opened and delayed in transit. We owe it to ourselves to mention this, as we have been blamed for delay in executing orders so tampered with. In some cases letters even reached us on which an obvious attempt had been made to alter the date on the postmark so that the delay would not be observed. In a certain number of cases, where letters contained postal orders, they have never reached us at all, but the actual losses in our case have not perhaps been so serious as in the case of other local firms. It is to be hoped that with the conviction of the postman correspondence will now be safe.

THIS WEEK'S SPECIAL OFFER.

Gwalior, 2 rupee, brown and rose.

As we have only been able to secure a very small quantity of this stamp, we give the preference to our

ANNUAL SUBSCRIBERS,

and offer them one copy at the low price of 3/2. If we have any over we shall then be able to offer them to other clients, but not of course at the above named price.

N.B.—We may mention that very few copies of this stamp have been printed, so that it is likely to become rare.

A Stamp Competition.

VALUABLE PRIZES

Given by Mr. H. L'Estrange Ewen.

First Prize, set of 14 Somaliland Official Stamps, catalogued £7 9s. 6d.
by Stanley Gibbons.

Second Prize, set of Brunei, 1st Issue, catalogued £2 14s. 9d. by Stanley Gibbons.

Third Prize, a red, a blue, a green Railway Postage Stamp (N.E.R., Cork & Macroom, West Lancashire), catalogued £1 5s.

The funds of the recent Walthamstow Stamp Exhibition are "minus £25." As the enthusiasm of a young society for the hobby deserves every encouragement, we invite our readers to help wipe out the deficit, whether they are friends or enemies of stamp exhibitions.

The prizes will be awarded for the three best answers to the following question, whether in the affirmative or negative.

ARE STAMP EXHIBITIONS BENEFICIAL TO THE HOBBY?

Replies may be written from the point of view of the specialist, the general collector, the dealer and in general a fairly wide latitude will be allowed the competitor. Replies may be written in any European language and may be of any length, but the competitor will be expected to send a contribution of one farthing for each word of his reply. But of course he may contribute more if he wishes. A short reply may be sent if desired, though "Yes" or "No" can hardly be expected to win a prize. The whole proceeds without any reduction whatsoever will be handed by us to the Exhibition Fund.

Competition closes Monday, 13th March and result will be announced in E.W.S.N. of Saturday, 18th March.

Railway Postage Stamps (x)

These stamps are issued by authority of the Postmaster-General and full particulars concerning their use are to be found on pages 37 to 40 of the current Post Office Guide.

Excluding varieties of perforation and type there were 79 varieties issued at the inauguration of the system on 1st February, 1891, and in the subsequent 20 years 49 new varieties have been issued, making a total of 128.

IN MINT UNUSED CONDITION WE OFFER 111 OF THE 128 VARIETIES
ISSUED TO DATE. NETT PRICE £10 10s. 0d.

NOTE.—This collection is made up out of the duplicates from Mr. Ewen's £30,000 collection, and of some of the obsolete Companies the number of specimens on hand is running low. Collectors of these stamps according to the number of printings are invited to exchange with Mr. Ewen, who still wants many common stamps for plating, especially those of the last five years.

The Week's News.

The Editor is always pleased to receive Early Information of New Issues, or of Discoveries interesting to Stamp Collectors.

The index number and serial letter after the title of each paragraph indicates the issue of E.W.S.N. in which the last reference to that country appeared.

GREAT BRITAIN.—Current Issue (597 C 599).—We quote from the Daily Telegraph (9.3.11).

“House of Commons.
“Stock of Stamps.

“Mr. Hobhouse, in a written reply to Mr. Touche (U.) states that the present stock of 1/4d. and 1d. postage stamps held by the Inland Revenue is sufficient to supply the requirements of the United Kingdom for a period of about two months. The stock of other denominations is sufficient for from six to twelve months. In the past, adds the right hon. gentleman, it has been considered necessary to hold a reserve stock of 1/4d. and 1d. stamps sufficient to last six months. As, however, it is proposed to issue the new George V. stamps at the time of the Coronation, it has not been thought necessary to maintain such a large reserve. With regard to the new contractors for stamps, the first delivery of sixty-eight reams has been made, and the stamps delivered fulfil the conditions of the new contract.”

From the above it would appear that the stamps of the Edwardian series printed by Messrs. Harrison & Sons may be expected early in May and will be in use only a few weeks. It will be interesting to see if there is any difference; for one thing, the Control Letter must be changed or omitted. The present “J 10” signifies “Contract J, printed in 1910”, whereas Messrs. Harrison and Sons only commenced to print on 1.1.11. Will the new stamps be K 11? If they are, K 11 will have a record short life, as a precedent was established in 1902 requiring the stamps of the new reign to start again at contract letter A. But of course it is not even certain there will be control letters on the sheets of stamps printed by the new firm.

BAVARIA (598 E 599).—The Jubilee stamps are now to hand and were we understand issued on 10.3.11.

The Illustriertes Briefmarken Journal states that the quantity printed of the embossed stamps on vertically wavy-lined paper was:—1 mk., 400,000; 2 mk., 300,000; 3 mk., 200,000; 5 mk., 100,000.

BULGARIA (568 O 599).—We learn from the Kölnische Zeitung (25.2.11) that some of the new stamps were issued on Tsar Ferdinand's birthday, 14/27.2.11, and that they were engraved in England and printed in Italy.

CEYLON (579 R 599).—The designs of the 2c. and 3c. stamps have been altered, states the Gazetta dei Filatelisti (28.2.11/s).

New designs.

- 2c. brown.
- 3c. green (figure on white ground).

To be issued. Only ‘specimen’ copies have yet been seen.

COSTA RICA (561 B 599).—The following provisionals are reported by the Schweizer Briefmarken-Zeitung (3.11/57).

SUBSCRIPTION RATES. Ewen's Weekly Stamp News can be sent post free to any address in any country for one year for 4/4 ($1.06, Mk. 4.50 or fr. 5.50). Each change of address, 6d. extra. Half year, 3/3; 3 months, 1/7½. A special limited subscription has also been arranged; every 5th number can be sent for only 1/3 per annum. GILBERT AND ELLICE ISLANDS (595 D 599).—Additional values of the pictorial set are chronicled (presumably from ‘specimen’ copies) by the Madrid Filatelico (3.11/44).

Pictorial set.

- 5d. violet and olive.
- 6d. violet.
- 1/- black and green.

To be issued.

The Colonial Office Journal (1.11/249) states that the design is a representation of the Pandanus tree or screw pine.

ITALIAN P.O., JERUSALEM (551 V 599).—The 40 piastres on 10 lire Italy was issued at Jerusalem on 1.3.11.

ITALIAN F.P.O. (587 C 599).—The Schweizer Briefmarken Zeitung (3.11/63) states that only 1000 of the new 10 lire were overprinted with each name for use in the Levant.

JOHORE (598 X 599).—A new high value is chronicled by the Gazetta dei Filatelisti (28.2.11/s).

High value.

$100 green and rose.

Although inscribed “Postage and Revenue,” and presumably available for postage, it has probably not, like the $25 and $50, been issued for other than fiscal purposes.

KELANTAN (598 J 599).—We illustrate the design of the new stamps.

The inscription at the top is “Kelantan”; reading from right to left the dash and curve represents “K”; “E” understood; vertical stroke, “L”; “A” understood; first wave with a dot over it, “N”; second wave with two dots over it, “T”; vertical stroke, long “A”; detached curve with dot over it, “N” (differing in form from the first N because in a final position).

At the right side the inscription reads post (post); a figure 9 with a dot over it, “F”; same without a dot, long “O”; a sweep to the left, “S”; wave with two dots over it, “T”; and a flourish to finish.

On the right side, hasil (revenue); a hook “H” with upright stroke, “A”; loop, “S”; “I” understood; vertical stroke, L, with final flourish. This description can be better followed from the Trengganu stamp, where the letters are more clearly formed.

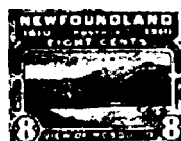

The following postcards are reported by the Schweizer Briefmarken-Zeitung (1.11/58).

Postcards.

- 1c. green.
- 3c. rose.

Issued 2.11?

NEWFOUNDLAND (598 B 599).—We are informed by Mr. A. C. Roessler that the following have been issued.

- Guy issue, engraved. Perf. 14.
6c., 15c. already chronicled].
8c. bistre.
9c. olive-green.
10c. slate.
12c. brown.

Issued 20.2.11 or earlier. In addition, the discovery is reported of the following perforation variety in the lithographed series.

- Guy issue, lithographed. Perf. 12 x 14.
5c. blue

The lithographed set is likely to be scarce and although the face value of the complete series is only 3/1½, the price has successively advanced from 7/6 to 10/- and now 15/-.

It is certainly remarkable that a stamp with the King's portrait should have so soon entered the ranks of the rarities and the fact will encourage those collectors who have already commenced their “King George” collections and will serve as a warning to those who have delayed. The 15c. lithographed Newfoundland, with portrait of His Majesty, is in many ways the most interesting of the New Issues of 1910.

The following varieties of the Guy series are at present known:—

- Lithographed, perf. 12.*
1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 8, 9, 10, 12, 15 cents. There are two types of the 6c.
Lithographed, perf. 12 x 14.
1, 2, 5 cents.
Lithographed, perf. 12 x 11.
1 cent.
Engraved, perf. 14.
6, 8, 9, 10, 12, 15 cents.

We do not know a single collector who possesses them all, but subscribers to our New Issue Service will ultimately miss hardly anything, and we hope nothing, as we are working hard to find the varieties.

NEW HEBRIDES (597 B 599).—We have received a full supply of the new oblong stamps with values in French currency (illustration next week).

- Issue of 1911.* Wmk. multiple Crown CA, ordinary paper.
5c. green.
10c. rose.
20c. grey.
25c. blue.
30c. brown on yellow.
40c. red on yellow.
50c. olive-green.
75c. bistre on white.
1f. rose on blue.
2f. purple on white.
5f. rose on green.

Issued at Paris, 11.3.11. The values 30c. and 40c. are unexpected, as the Colonial Office Journal (1.11/249) which made the first announcement of the issue stated:—“1/4d., 1d., 1/-, 2/- and 5/- stamps and 5 and 10 cents, 1, 2 and 5 francs have been despatched, the former to the New

Are Stamp Exhibitions Beneficial to the Hobby?

FIRST PRIZE (288 words).

THAT Stamp Exhibitions are beneficial to the hobby, and this mainly for the reasons shortly summarized below, is the opinion of a collector-in-general.

Stamp Exhibitions, it will scarcely be denied, do attract and increase interest in Philately, do diffuse knowledge, and do exercise on those who attend them an appreciable educational influence. At the same time they offer opportunities of comparison, stimulate research, invite useful criticisms, afford the means of estimating the respective merits and attractions of generalism and specialism, encourage the growth of local Societies, and by their offer of awards help to raise the standard of collecting generally. Incidentally, they reveal the fact that stamp collectors are not drawn exclusively from the ranks of the intellectually feeble or bodily decrepid, and by the attention which is bestowed upon stamp displays now-a-days, even by the ordinary daily newspapers, they provide an effective method of bringing the practice, claims and results of stamp collecting before the general public. They subserve, moreover, a useful function in helping to form bonds of union between different classes and descriptions of collectors, and they do something to foster and develop an esprit de corps in the ranks of those who pursue and appreciate this particular hobby.

And, even if any particular Stamp Exhibition should fail to be a pecuniary success, some good will have been done; seed will have been sown which, later if not sooner, will produce some satisfactory philatelic fruit.

(REV.) J. F. JEMMETT.

SECOND PRIZE (113 words).

Stamp Exhibitions are certainly beneficial to the hobby. They give to collectors, who are not members of Philatelic Societies, an opportunity to examine fine collections, and if their interest has begun to fade it will be revived, and they will become enthusiastic again. All collectors will gain much valuable information and enjoyment. New friendships will be formed and old ones renewed.

Moreover, Stamp Exhibitions are reported and discussed in the non-philatelic press, and non-collectors will be induced to visit an Exhibition, which will be to them a revelation. They will learn that a well arranged and well written up collection of postage stamps is not only a thing of beauty, but also an interesting record of history, a study in geography and in many other subjects. Interest will be aroused in quarters where the charm of stamp collecting was unknown or not understood, and new disciples and ardent collectors will be gained.

Parents will be led to take an interest in their children's collections, and by assisting and encouraging their efforts, they will add to the number of serious collectors of the future.

Stamp collecting will altogether be raised to a higher level. Many prejudices will be broken down. Admiration and enthusiasm will follow, and the hobby be the gainer.

KARL WIEHEN.

THIRD PRIZE (239 words).

There is no doubt that interest in stamps and their collection, among not only collectors and dealers, but also a considerable section of the public, has been enormously increased by the Stamp Exhibitions which have been held in recent years.

Not so very long ago collecting these small pieces of paper was considered by many people as an amusement for the younger generation; but having gradually developed, it has become a more or less scientific pursuit, requiring in the advanced specialist a considerable knowledge of many subjects.

These Exhibitions give to philatelists (what cannot otherwise be obtained, except by members of Philatelic Societies), opportunities of meeting and inspecting stamps, and the various things connected with them; and also to those desiring it, ample material for study, all of which tend to increase knowledge and interest in the pursuit.

The public who visit the Exhibitions observe (in some cases with much astonishment) that a real interest can be obtained in stamp collecting, which is not such a simple matter as they had imagined, and that the knowledge required for the arrangement and writing up of a modern up-to-date collection can be acquired only by careful and prolonged study.

It is possible that a few young collectors, who see these large and advanced collections, may be discouraged and abandon the hobby, but a much larger number will be led to take up and continue so fascinating a pursuit.

The Postage Stamp Anniversary Banquet.

It had been intended by the Executive Committee of the London Stamp Exhibition for 1912 to hold an inaugural banquet this year on the anniversary of the issue of the first postage stamp. As May 6th this year falls on the first anniversary of the death of King Edward VII. the banquet will take place on Monday, May 8th, instead of Saturday, May 6th.

The dinner will be held at the Trocadero, Shaftesbury Avenue, W.C. and the tickets will be 5/- each. Ladies are specially invited.

The objects of the banquet are:—

- 1.—To fittingly inaugurate the work of the Committees of the London Stamp Exhibition, 1912.
- 2.—To secure the support of all Societies for the invitation to be extended to the Congress to meet in London next year during the London Stamp Exhibition.

The cordial support of all philatelists is earnestly desired for both these objects, and all who will support the Executive Committee by their presence at the Banquet are desired to secure their tickets from the Hon. Exhibition Treasurer, Mr. H. F. Johnson, 44, Fleet Street, London, E.C. as early as possible.

A Stamp Collector's Ride Across Africa.

It is announced that Mr. Frank H. Melland, F.R.P.S.L., who recently made a remarkable journey of 5,000 miles across the heart of Africa, is to lecture before a special meeting of the Junior Philatelic Society on his experiences. The lecturer is an official of the Chartered Company, stationed at M'pika, Rhodesia. He left M'pika on his bicycle and traversed the greater part of the journey to the Soudan by cycle. He had his camera with him, and the fine pictures he has secured will be shown by limelight at this, the only lecture Mr. Melland will deliver in London prior to his return to Africa. The Society has engaged the Caxton Hall, Westminster, for the evening of Wednesday, April 12th, and the lecture entitled "From Rhodesia to the Soudan" will start at 8 p.m. precisely. Tickets will be 1/- each (unreserved) and 2/6 numbered and reserved. These may be obtained from Mr. H. F. Johnson, 44, Fleet Street, E.C. Any proceeds from the sale of tickets over and above the expenses will be devoted to the funds of the London Stamp Exhibition for 1912.

Notes.

Mr. F. J. Pearce read a paper on "The Stamps of Austria" before the members of the Sheffield Philatelic Society, on 1.3.11. The paper was illustrated by a number of interesting specimens. During the evening a letter was read from His Majesty King George, thanking the Society for their gift of a souvenir of the annual dinner held on February 15th.

* * *

The advantage of refusing to supply stamp dealers with stamps, in order that friends of the postmaster may be appointed purchasing agents at a commission, is evidently beginning to be realized in more than one country, as we learn that the Montenegrin Post Office will not sell its 1 para stamps in quantity to stamp dealers; it seems to us rather farcical to issue stamps which cannot be printed in sufficient quantity to meet all demands.

In this connection, we reproduce a letter sent to a London dealer, which discloses a nice little family arrangement in a Southern Indian Post Office.

"Ernakulam, S. India,
15th February, 1911.

"DEAR SIRS,

"I have been informed to-day by my friend, Jacob I. Chandy, the Superintendent of Cochin Anchal (Post) Office, who is the Postmaster-General, that the Government has ruled that no unused stamps should be sent outside the State to philatelists, and that what money you may have sent for stamps will be returned to you.

"I therefore write to ask whether you can entrust me with the work of supplying you with all Cochin or Travancore Anchal (postage) stamps that you may require. You may allow me a reasonable commission for the work I do. I trust you can allow me 5%.

"As for reference you may enquire of Mr. Chandy himself, or you may to avoid delay, at first, remit the amount to him to be handed over to me. After hearing from him you may deal directly with me.

Yours faithfully,

[Signed] S. L. PINTO.

Address, S. L. Pinto, c/o Postmaster-General."

Neither Mr. Chandy nor Mr. Pinto are to be blamed for taking what the gods send, but why the Government should discriminate against philatelists it is difficult to understand.

Next week's issue of E.W.S.N. will be the 600th consecutive weekly issue without a break. E.W.S.N. was preceded by 86 weekly issues of Ewen's Weekly Circular and 17 monthly issues of the English Specialists' Journal, of which the first number appeared over 15 years ago.

NEW COIL PERFORATION.

(From the Philadelphia Stamp News.)

A change has been made in the perforation of the United States stamps issued in coils. Joseph A. Steinmetz is the first to show us this new novelty, which will eventually be listed in all catalogues because it is an official perforation.

The stamps shown us by Mr. Steinmetz are printed on the new watermark paper, and are issued in coils for mailing machines. It seems that when operating the coiling machines, it was found that the previous perforation (12) caused great loss and waste from breakage and tearing off. To overcome this the perforations were widened. So far only the vertical perforations have been issued.

Wmk. Single line U.S.P.S. Perf. Vertical 8½.
1c. green.
2c. carmine.

We cannot let this novelty pass without commenting on the possibilities which will now arise as to the status of perforations as used by mailing machines. The new government issue will most assuredly have to be listed in catalogues, and if the part perforate are listed "perforated vertical 8½" would not the previous part perforate issues of the government have to be listed "perforated vertical 12"? Both are official perforations, although the latter has not been listed in the Standard Catalogue, because of the possibility of trimming stamps issued ordinarily to resemble the part perforates.

But now we think that both will be listed and the possibility of the private perforations being listed, such as: Shermack No. 1; Shermack No. 2; Shermack No. 3; Mailometer No. 1; Mailometer No. 2; United States Automatic Vending No. 1; Brinkerhoff No. 1; and Brinkerhoff No. 2, is not a thing of many years.

Result of our Exhibition Competition.

The first prize has been awarded to the Rev. J. F. Jemmett, The Vicarage, Feltham, Middlesex.

The second prize goes to Mr. Carl Wiehen, 7, Rydal Road, Streatham, S.W. (who kindly paid at the rate of ½d. a word for his contribution).

The third prize is awarded to "P," who will kindly send name and address. An additional third prize is awarded to Mr. W. T. Elliot, Tickenhill Manor, Bewdley, whose paper has been adjudged of equal merit.

It will be remembered that we offered three stamp prizes for the three best answers to the question:—"Are Stamp Exhibitions Beneficial to the Hobby?" It is interesting to note that competitors were unanimous in answering the question in the affirmative, and we thank our readers for the interest taken in the competition. With the addition of a small contribution from the Editorial Exchequer, we are able to hand over a sum of £10 to the Treasurer of the Walthamstow Exhibition.

THE WEEK'S NEWS.

Hebrides and the latter to Paris, whence they will be consigned as required to the islands . . . These values will shortly be followed by 2d., 2½d., 5d., 6d. and 20, 25, 50 and 75 centimes."

If 30 and 40 centimes have been added to the set in French currency, it is reasonable to suppose that the British set will be augmented by 3d. and 4d. stamps.

NEW ZEALAND (595 X 599).—The Australian Philatelist (1.2.11/68) states that in August last it was decided that the 4d. King Edward stamps should in future be printed in yellow, the better to distinguish them from the 1/- stamps

NICARAGUA (597 U 599).—Another provisional is chronicled by Mekeel's Weekly Stamp News (25.2.11/68).

Provisional, surcharged B for Bluefields. 5c. on $1 yellow of 1909.

A fortnight ago we promised to give a simplified list of the fiscal stamps which have been surcharged for postal use, but were unable to do so last week. We now redeem our promise. Gibbons' catalogue would, we think, gain much in clearness if these stamps could be grouped together.

There have only been two sets of fiscal stamps issued by Nicaragua, both of them long upright stamps, rather finely engraved, the second being slightly smaller than the first.

- 1889, 1, 2, 5, 10, 50c., $1.
- 1904, 1, 5, 10, 25, 50c., $1, 2, 5.

A third issue of very similar appearance was made in 1899 but is inscribed in English "Mosquito Reserve, Nicaragua—Government stamp" and has values in United States currency. With this we are not concerned.

1889 FISCALS.

- Overprinted "Correos 1907 Oficial."
  - 1c. surcharged 35c., 70c., 70c.
  - 2c. " 10c., $1, $2.
  - 5c. " $3, $4, $5, $5.

- Overprinted "Correos 1908 Oficial."
  - 1c. surcharged 10, 35, 50c., $1, $2.
  - 2c. " 10, 35, 50, 70c., $1, $2.

- Overprinted "Correos 1908."
  - 2c. surcharged 4, 5, 10c., and without new value.

1904 FISCALS.

- Overprinted "Correo 1908."
  - 5c. surcharged 1, 2, 4c.
  - 5c., 10c., $1, $2.
  - 50c. surcharged 15, 35c.
- Overprinted "Correo 1908" and "B Dpto Zelaya."
  - 5c. surcharged 1, 2, 4c.
  - 5c., 10c., $1, $2.
  - 50c. surcharged 15, 35c.
- Overprinted "Correos 1909."
  - 50c. surcharged 1, 2, 4, 5, 10c.

The 1889 fiscal 1c. surcharged 10, 35, 50c., $1 and $2 and listed as above as dated 1908 has also been chronicled dated 1909 (Die Post, 24.11.90/168) but the stamps, if they exist, are not recognised by any of the 1910-11 catalogues.

There are a good many interesting errors in these stamps, such as "Corroe" for "Correo" "1008" for "1908" and in making our recent approval distribution to New Issue clients, the stamps were sent out unexamined, so that some of our clients must have received the errors at the price of ordinary specimens.

PANAMA (597 W 599).—We illustrate the new ½ centesimo de balboa.

The "balboa" is the name given to the Republic's new gold dollar, equal in value to the U.S.A. dollar. The old peso was a silver one and fluctuated in value between 1/6 and 2/6 like the present Hongkong or Mexican dollar.

The name is no doubt chosen in honour of Vasco Nuñez de Balboa, a Spanish gentleman, born in 1475, who embarked on a life of adventure in South and Central America and was one of the first Europeans to sight the Pacific Ocean. The King of Spain named him Adelantado of the South Sea (Admiral of the Pacific) and in 1514 appointed him governor of Panama and Coyba. His career was stopped at the early age of 42 by the jealousy of the neighbouring governor of Darien, who enticed him to Acla, trumped up a charge of treason against him, and had him executed in 1517.

We quote from Mekeel's Weekly Stamp News (25.2.11/68).

PANAMA.—Gerald D. Bliss sends us a copy of the new stamp book issued by the Republic. This book contains six 10c., 6 5c., 12 2½c., 18 1c. and 18 ½c., the face value being $1.47. The books are sold by the Post Office at $1.50 each, and as all the slip sheets are printed with advertisements on both sides, they must be money makers. The 1c. has not been previously chronicled for Panama, but was issued some time since for the Canal Zone. This stamp is not yet on sale except in book form.

The book also contains the new ½c. stamps, which are of the 1905 design, and printed in a single colour. This stamp is issued in sheets of 70, seven vertical rows of 10 stamps, says Mr. Bliss, "and it seems reasonable to assume that the remaining three rows are detached and bound in the books, the leaves of which consist of three horizontal rows of three. This is not official, however, and is only the result of a little 'Sherlock Holmes' deduction on the part of the writer, but it is further supported by the fact that the stamps are bound in the books by the left margins. The stamps are ungummed and I infer that Panama 'O.G.' is now a thing of the past, if indeed such a thing ever occurred."

Adhesives.

- ½c. orange.
- 1c. green and black.

PAPUA (596 X 599).—A correspondent writes us that he possesses the following four official stamps, not listed as "known" in our recent article.

- 2d. issues, 3, 15.
- 1/- " 6.
- 2/6 " 5.

Another correspondent writes that he has found a sheet of the ½d. wmk. sideways perf. 11, four of the stamps at the bottom having a superfluous row of perforation 12½ inside the normal perforation, thus constituting them a "mixed perf." variety. We accordingly add to our table ½d. issue 9.

RHODESIA (596 Q 599).—The Schweizer Briefmarken Zeitung (3.11/61) chronicles the following:—

- Overprinted "Rhodesia."
- 4d. Registration Envelope of British S. Africa.

Mekeel's Weekly Stamp News (25.2.11/68) states that there is a defect in the recently issued Royal Portrait issue. One of its correspondents has a 2d. stamp from the top row of a sheet showing "an oblong colored mark extending across the Queen's ear, making it appear as though a generous piece had been taken out of it."

We find the same defect on our sheets, the stamp being No. 2.

RUSSIAN F.P.O. (597 N 599).—We have already chronicled the 5 para of Constantinople, Jerusalem, Jaffa and Salonica with name surcharged in blue and now find the following chronicled in the Gazzetta dei Filatelisti (2.8.2.11/S).

- Name surcharged in blue instead of black.
- 5 para. Kerassunde.
- " Mont Athos.
- " Smyrna.
- " Trebizonde.

The blue set still lacks Metelin, Rizeh, S. Athon, Beyrout and Dardanelles.

RUSSIAN P.O., CHINA (597 L 599).—The two remaining values of the new Russian set have now been overprinted for use in China, stated the Schweizer Briefmarken Zeitung (3.11/57).

- Wove paper with varnish lines.
- 35 kop. violet and green. Surchage, black.
- 50 " " " blue.

SOUDAN (593 F 599).—The 2m. on 3m. postcard issued in 1898 and the 2m. on 4m. brown postcard recently chronicled by us have now given way to a permanent 2m. card, a specimen of which is kindly sent us by Mr. S. M. Low. It was issued about the middle of 2.11.

Postcard. 2m. green. Issued 20.2.11 or earlier.

SWEDEN (593 A 599).—The Schweizer-Briefmarken Zeitung (3.11/61) chronicles another value of the new set. We also illustrate the 10 ore.

Adhesive. Perf. 13. 1 ore, black.

TASMANIA (557 X 599).—Mr. W. Orchard has forwarded to the Australian Philatelist (1.2.11/68) specimens of the 6d. pictorial stamps, the central design of which has been redrawn. In appearance it is much coarser looking than the previous issue, through the lines representing the water running over the falls being deepened, and the background formerly representing trees is now an undistinguishable mass of dots and dashes.

Redrawn Design. 6d. carmine-lake, perf. 12½, perf. 11.

Our contemporary also states that there is a flaw in the current 2d. stamp; once in every quarter sheet of sixty stamps a white blotch occurs under the right-hand value tablet.

TONGA (565 L 599).—Last summer we chronicled the 4d. Registration envelope surcharged "Threepence." Mr. Oswald Marsh has now (11.3.11) shown us three different varieties of this provisional.

TRENGGANU (595 G 599).—We illustrate the design of the new stamps.

The inscription at the top is "Trengganu"; reading from right to left, the wave with two dots over it is "T"; the wave should end with a downward sweep for "R" but is not carefully drawn; "E" understood; semi-circle with dots (why 3?) over it corresponds to the "NG"; diagonal dash ending in curve, with dot over it (should not this be a dash?), "G"; vertical stroke, "A"; curve with dot, "N"; figure 9, "U." The inscriptions on either side are the same as in the Kelantan stamp but rather more clearly written, except that on the left side, hasil (revenue) is preceded by dan (and); curve, "D"; upright stroke, "A"; half-moon with dot over it, "N."

Die Post (8.3.11/42) states that two new values have been added to the Trengganu set.

- Adhesives.
- 30c. red and lilac.
- $2 carmine and green.

To be issued or already issued?

VENEZUELA (567 V 599).—The Madrid Filatelico (3.11/44) states that a new issue is in preparation. In order to prevent the cleaning of stamps with a view to their second use, the paper and ink are to be specially treated, so that care will also be necessary in soaking off used copies for collecting purposes.

The postage series will measure 25x31 mm. and the design will have "Venezuela" at top; "Centimos" (or "Bolivar") at foot; and at the sides the figures of value. In the centre will be a portrait within an oval inscribed at top "Correos."

Our New Tables of Sets, High Values and Low Values.
10% CONTRACTS.

The stamps listed in the new tables of Sets are supplied to clients at a commission of 10% on face value, provided each requisition amounts to £10 or more. Only one stamp of each kind will be supplied in respect of each £10 ordered.*

* This condition is necessary in the interests of clients themselves, as it will be seen that we offer a number of stamps which can no longer be purchased at post offices and which are really worth more than 10% and might, but for this condition, be bought up by speculators.

In the case of small orders, stamps are supplied at the prices quoted.

The Week's News.

The Editor is always pleased to receive Early Information of New Issues, or of Discoveries interesting to Stamp Collectors.

The index number and serial letter after the title of each paragraph indicate the issue of E.W.S.N. in which the last reference to that country appeared.

BAVARIA (599 F 600).—We illustrate the design of the high value stamps of the new set.

According to the Deutsche Briefmarken Zeitung (17.3.11), the values of the new set issued in un-adhesive form are the following:—

Unadhesive.

- 5pf. green.
- 10pf. rose.
- 20pf. blue.

They are variously printed on postcards, letter cards, money-order cards, etc.

BULGARIA (599 P 600).—The remaining values of the new set have now been issued (15.3.11 or earlier) and we append a full description.

1 stotinka, grey. Inscribed Asenova Krepost (Fortress of Assen, now in ruins).

In the year 1186 an insurrection under the brothers Ivan and Peter Asen, of Trnovo, enabled the nation to recover its independence, and Ivan Asen assumed the title of "Tsar of the Bulgars and Greeks." The greatest of all Bulgarian rulers was Ivan Asen II. (1218-1241), who extended his sway over Albania, Epirus, Macedonia and Thrace, and governed his wide dominions with justice, wisdom and moderation. The Asen dynasty became extinct in 1257 and was followed by a period of decadence.

- 2 stotinki, rose and black. Profile portrait of Tsar Ferdinand.
- 3 stotinki, lake-red and black, inscribed Tsarstvo Bgaria (The Kingdom Bulgaria). View of Trnovo, with river Yantra in the foreground. The tower in the distance may be Baldwin's Tower, so called from Baldwin, Count of Flanders, Emperor of the East, imprisoned in the tower and probably there put to death, 1205.
- 5 stotinki, green and black. Portrait of Tsar Ferdinand standing.
- 10 stotinki, red and black. Portrait of Tsar Ferdinand in naval uniform.
- 15 stotinki, bistre. Inscribed Iskrski Prolom (Isker tunnel, through the Balkans, not far from Sophia).
- 25 stotinki, bright ultramarine and black. Portrait of Tsar Ferdinand.
- 30 stotinki, light blue and black. Inscribed Sv. Rilska Obitel (Monastery of Rila).
- 50 stotinki, yellow and black. Reproduction of the picture by Yaroslav Veshin of the Tsar and the two princes on horseback, with troops in background.
- 1 lev, brown. Tsar Ferdinand in costume of the first Christian Tsar Boris (A.D. 852-884), holding the Sceptre in his right hand and the Orb in his left (from the painting by Andon Mitov). The portrait is surrounded by a frame containing the Arms of Orleans-Bourbon, Parma, and Saxe-Coburg-Gotha, and the Bulgarian lion. Between the lions at the top of the design are the initials of the Tsar in monogram form.

The foreign arms are represented in honour of Princess Marie-Louise of Bourbon-Parma, who was married to Prince Ferdinand in 1893 (and died in 1899). The Tsar himself is a prince of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha.

2 leva, violet and black. Inscribed "Sv. Troitza" (Holy Trinity) View of the Monastery of the Holy Trinity in the Balkan district, north of Karlova.

3 leva, violet and black. View of Varna Harbour, with shipping.

All the designs bear a monogram of two initials, presumably those of the engraver or designer.

The currency of Bulgaria consists of stotinki and leva. Stotinka means "hundredth" and lev "lion," and 100 stotinka equal 1 lev, worth about 10d. The first issue of Bulgaria had the values expressed in centimes and francs, and the change made in the second issue was not a change in currency but merely a substitution of Bulgarian for French names. The pronunciation of Leva is almost as if it was spelt lvah and not leeva.

FRANCE (574 O 600).—La Circulaire Philatélique states that the 15c. sower is to be replaced by a 15c. stamp with plain background of colour like the other values and that the 40 and 50c. values are to be suppressed. The 30c. postage due is no longer in use.

FRENCH GABOON (591 J 600).—Le Timbrophile de France states that the current issue, inscribed "Afrique Equatoriale" was at first issued for one day only, 22.1.11, and then definitely re-issued on 10.2.11, the reason being that the Colonial Office was stock-taking during January. Between the two dates of its temporary withdrawal, there was quite a demand for the stamps in Paris at an artificial premium. We wish we had known! Our full supply was issued to us on 22.1.11, and we received it the following day, and it was distributed with our New Issue Service of 25.1.11.

Correction. In E.W.S.N. we gave the date as "13.1.10 or earlier," an extraordinary printer's error. This should have been "22.1.11."

The quantities printed of the new set are as follows. We repeat those of the old issue for comparison.

French Gaboon, Pictorial Issue.

	1910.	1911.
1c.	273,750*	156,000
2c.	141,750*	160,000
4c.	144,006	150,000
5c.	360,750	350,000
10c.	419,250	360,000
20c.	69,000	70,000
25c.	68,200	70,000
30c.	12,000*	14,000
35c.	19,500*	16,000
40c.	12,450	16,000
45c.	11,550	15,000
50c.	7,800*	5,000
75c.	6,000*	7,000
1f.	5,250*	9,000
2f.	2,700*	7,000
5f.	2,700*	4,500

The remainders of those starred * are now exhausted. It is said that the second issue will also soon become obsolete, as it is inscribed Afrique Equatoriale without Française. Our contemporary states that several of the lower values of the new set are already exhausted and it is expected that the 50c. will soon follow.

FRENCH P.O., CHINA (428, 441 V 600).—Le Timbrophile de France (1.2.11/3) states that by order of the Minister for Foreign Affairs the present overprint of Chinese characters on French stamps issued in China is to be made larger.

ITALY (593 N 600).—There are to be some more commemorative stamps; this time they are to be issued on the occasion of the anniversary of the proclamation of Italian unity. We are indebted to Mr. F. Lautier for a cutting from the Corriere della Sera (15.3.11) which gives enlarged reproductions of the designs of the 10c. and 15c. stamps.

The selection of the designs was entrusted to the Committees of the two Exhibitions of Rome and Turin, and these invited designs from the leading Roman and Turinese artists. Four designs were selected for the values 2, 5, 10 and 15 cini., two being by the painter Vittorio Grassi, one by Auguste Sézanne, and a fourth by Enrico Morelli. The engraving has been entrusted to the State Printing Office at Turin.

The stamps will, as before, be issued at a premium of 5 cmi. (½d.) each, the premium going to the funds of the two Committees.

The 10c. design is headed "POSTE ITALIANE" and at foot is inscribed "Cinquantenario del Regno d'Italia Roma e Torino 1911—10 centesimi 10."

INDIA, C.E.F. (557 R 600).—Mr. W. T. Wilson shows us (18.3.11) some more values of the King Edward set with C.E.F. overprint.

King Edward Series. Overprinted C.E.F.

- 2a. lilac.
- 2½a. blue.
- 3a. orange.
- 4a. olive-green.
- 8a. bright lilac.
- 1r. rose and green.

Issued 11.3.11. or earlier.

KING EDWARD VII. LAND (514 H 600).—From Le Fac-simile (2.11/107) we take the following:—

ENIGMA.

"There exists a stamp of Edward VII. Land surcharge 1 Penny, New Zealand. This stamp was much enquired for, when recently some one purchased at London 10,000 unused 1d. New Zealand stamps. Of these 10,000 stamps nothing further has been heard, but on the other hand a parcel of King Edward VII. Land stamps has been put on the market. Paris is now infected with them, and a speculator has invested in 5500 at 4 francs a piece. Some one must have done a good stroke of business!"

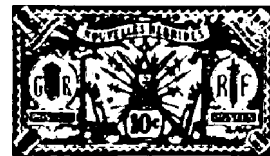

We give this story for what it is worth, but we imagine anyone who set out to purchase 10,000 unused 1d. New Zealand stamps in London would have some difficulty in finding them. But it would be just as well to examine closely any specimens with the King Edward VII. Land overprint which may be offered.

LIECHTENSTEIN (A 600).—An interesting announcement comes from this Principality. The Philatelisten-Zeitung (3.11/48) states that a commission has been appointed to enquire into the question of the period of notice necessary to terminate the present postal and coinage contract with Austria, and also to consider the effect of acquiring independence in these matters, which would for one thing involve a separate issue of stamps and coins instead of those of Austria at present in use.

Save San Marino and Monaco, which both have their distinctive postage stamps and Moresnet, Liechtenstein is the smallest independent state in Europe. It lies some way south of the lake of Constance. In 1901 the population was 9,477.

The county of Vaduz and the lordship of Schellenberg were purchased by the Liechtenstein family and in 1719 were raised by the Emperor of Austria to the dignity of a principality, which formed part successively of the Holy Roman Empire (till 1806) and of the German Confederation (1815-1866), having been sovereign 1806-1815 as well as since 1866.

NEW HEBRIDES (599 C 600).—We illustrate the design of the new stamps.

A Sydney firm report that they received a supply of the surcharged stamps on 7.2.11, and we know that several Continental Firms have been supplied. It would be interesting to know why our own orders were refused. However, we keep on applying.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES. Ewen's Weekly Stamp News can be sent post free to any address in any country for one year for 4/4 ($1.06, Mk. 4.50 or fr. 5.50). Each change of address, 6d. extra. Servian Reminders.

[586 w 600.]

ANOTHER ATTEMPT TO MARKET THEM.
A EULOGY OF REPRINTING.
WHY NOT?

Another attempt is being made to get rid of the Servian reminders.

And through agents offering them by auction and through continually—and always under face value—it would be far more satisfactory to both collectors and dealers if the Servian Government would let it be known that all its issue of stamps would be permanently kept on sale to collectors purchasing, say £10 worth at a time, and that they would be reprinted from time to time as stocks became exhausted.

It may be argued that this would keep stamps from rising in value, but there would be the counterbalancing advantage that unused stamps would be always worth their face value. Now-a-days Servian stamps are quite discredited, and we have ceased to import them and do not quote them in our Reference list.

On the basis of Ewen's Simplified Stamp Collecting, a collection of Servian stamps would cost at face value:—

		Face Value.
1886	1, 2p....	1/4d.
1866	1, 2, 10, 20, 40p.	7 1/2d.
1869	1, 2, 10, 10, 15, 20, 25, 35, 40, 50p.	1/8s
1881	5, 10, 20, 25, 50p., 1d.	1/9
1890	5, 10, 15, 20, 25, 50p., 1d.	1/10 1/2
1894	1, 5, 10, 15, 20, 20, 25, 50p., 1d., 1d.	2/10 1/2
1901	5, 10, 15, 20, 25, 50p., 1, 3, 5d.	8/6 1/2
1903	1, 5, 10, 15, 20, 25, 50p., 1, 3, 5d....	8/6 1/2
1904	5, 10, 15, 25, 50p., 1, 3, 5d.	8/4 1/2
1905	1, 5, 10, 15, 20, 25, 30, 50p., 1, 3, 5d.	8/9 1/2
	Complete Collection ...	43, 1/4

In the present circular, the 1903 set is offered at 4f. 20c. or about 3/4, and the 1904 set at the same price, and no doubt the 1905 set, when obsolete, will be similarly depreciated. There is not the slightest necessity for this depreciation or there would not have been had Servia always maintained the integrity of its stamp issues. The above amount, £2 3s. 1d. is not beyond the means of collectors who aim at completeness, whilst for the smaller collector, the elimination of the four 3 and 5 dinar stamps would reduce the cost of the collection to 16s. 5d.

The other side of the picture is instanced by the British South Africa Company which has always kept its reminders on sale at face value, and has a stock of four or five issues at the present time. No attempt has been made to push their sale; but they are there when wanted. As a result, the stamps of the Chartered Company are immensely popular with collectors and are almost as safe as Bank of England notes. We would like to see the British South Africa Company reprint those few stamps of which the reminders have become exhausted and although there would possibly be some opposition to such a proceeding at present, we believe that ultimately all collectors and dealers will see the advantage of facilitating and cheapening general collecting. The true specialist can always take care of himself whatever happens.

In the case of Rhodesia, taking Ewen's Simplified Stamp Collecting as the basis, the result would be low values. high values. non-postal values.

		Face value.

Excluding minor varieties and surcharged stamps this represents a complete collection. From Servia, we are travelling rather far from Servia, we may, perhaps, be permitted to give a few other figures bearing on the subject.

If all the stamps of Great Britain, from 1840 to date, were reprinted, what would be the cost of a complete set? On Ewen's system of Simplified Stamp Collecting, the result for this and some other countries would be:—

	Low Values.	High Values.	Non-postal Values.
Great Britain	33/7 1/2	134/-	100/-
Antigua	5/3 1/2	9/6	—
Bahamas	5/8 1/2	55/-	—
Barbados	14/3	17/6	—

If these complete sets could be purchased at face value or 10% over face value, what an impetus to stamp-collecting there would be! No doubt thousands of new recruits, thus introduced to the fascination of the hobby, would wish to enquire more deeply into the history of certain stamps which took their fancy and would study the actual editions of them which were issued for postal purposes. But whilst we are strongly in favour of official reprinting, i.e., making new editions of old stamps, we cannot find words too strong to condemn the practice of reprinting them with a view to the imitation of older editions. It is only the stamp collector, not the philatelist or student of stamps, who has any use for reprints.

International Notes.

La Circulaire Philatélique thinks that the second pictorial set of French Gaboon may be as short-lived as the first, since it is inscribed Afrique Equatoriale without the addition of Francaise.

* * *

The accounts of the Berne Philatelic Exhibition show a profit of £50, which may be distributed to the guarantors as a 20% dividend.

* * *

The Munich Allgemeine Rundschau (12.3.11) says of the new Bavarian issue:—

"Die Absicht der bayerischen Staats-Regierung, zum neunzigsten Geburtstag des Prinzregenten, Münzen und Postwertzeichen mit dem Bildnisse des allverehrten Herrschers auszugeben, hat in Bayern und darüber hinaus in ganz Deutschland herzlichsten Beifall gefunden. Die Güte der Ausführung ist nicht hinter dem glücklichen Meisterhand entworfenen Porträts rapäsentieren den hohen Stand unserer von dem kunstsinnigen Wittelsbacher beschirmten Münchener Kunst auf das würdigste."

Bavaria, by the way, was the first of the German States to issue stamps, which it did in 1849, being followed by Prussia in 1850. It is remarkable that the present occasion is only the second on which the design has been changed.

* * *

As illustrating the international nature of the hobby, we note that there is quite a long report of the Walthamstow Exhibition in the Pester Lloyd (28.2.11) of Budapest. Special reference is made to the Exhibits of H.M. the King and of Lord Crawford.

* * *

We append some references to the new stamps of the New Hebrides.

L'Echo de la Timbrologie says:—"Ces timbres ont été faits à Londres, les couleurs sont conformes au colour-scheme anglais, et, c'est triste à constater, jamais une colonie française n'a eu des timbres aussi bien imprimés."

The Nederlandsch Tijdschrift Postzegelkunde says:—"Links staan de letters 'GB' en rechts 'RF', met resp. 'Postage' en 'Postes' eronder . . . . Zulk een broederlijke verdeeling vindt men in onze geschiedenis niet, zoo ik me niet vergis." [Our esteemed confrère has apparently forgotten, for surely there is a South African stamp inscribed "Union of South Africa" and "Unie van Zuid Afrika."—Ed.]

Should Damaged Stamps be Destroyed?

We read in the Philadelphia Stamp News (17.2.11/387):—"Mr. Hugo Griebert, of London, secured a quantity of the Hanover reminders, which were recently sold by the German Postal Authorities. Each lot auctioned were partly made up of stamps that were either torn, dirty, or mildewed. Before offering any for sale to their clients, the firm destroyed by burning up all such damaged copies, and in offering them for sale have only offered stamps in mint condition. We commend the firm for their action, as we believe all such imperfect stamps should be destroyed. There is nothing uglier than a damaged stamp in a collection which is otherwise clean."

We totally disagree with our American contemporary! Stamps are not collected solely for the sake of their appearance, although the multiplicity of exhibitions now-a-days might induce one to this belief. There are hundreds of students of stamps who value a stamp for what they can learn from it, and a damaged stamp may give just as much information as a good one. In the editorial collection of British railway stamps there are many damaged stamps, many of them of great interest and value. We say as emphatically as we can: Never destroy a damaged stamp! If you are collecting only for show, give it to some friend.

Coronation Postage Stamps for India.

To the Editor of the Daily Mail (17.3.11)

Sir,—At the time of the Delhi Durbar during Lord Curzon's Viceroyalty it was suggested that a set of Indian postage stamps should be issued to commemorate the event, but I understand the suggestion came too late to be of practical value.

Now that the time is approaching for the holding of an even more important Durbar at Delhi, at which the Emperor will be crowned on Indian soil, may I be permitted to suggest the issue of a special Indian set of Coronation postage stamps suited to the august occasion? There is no reason why such an issue should lead to either appreciable financial loss or financial profit, but to my mind the matter is one to be looked at from the historical and artistic point of view rather than a mercenary one.

The last Delhi Durbar gave birth to a sorry specially post-marked set of then recent and current stamps of no philatelic interest whatever and even less historical moment. Stamps have been aptly described as "paper medals"—a superb set of Indian stamps, even if published at a monetary loss, would, I am convinced, be of really permanent imperial value, and time still remains for its creation.

In addition to the profile of his Majesty I would suggest the depiction on the stamps of the Taj at Agra, the Kutub of Delhi, the Caves of Elephanta, the Residency at Lucknow, the Victoria Memorial Hall at Calcutta (now in course of erection), and similar Indian buildings, etc., of beauty and interest.

Philatelists as a rule are not eager for commemorative sets of postage stamps, but there are surely supreme occasions when the issue of such stamps seems both justifiable and desirable, and such an occasion will undoubtedly present itself for commemoration at Delhi in a few months' time.

WILMOT CORFIELD,
Fellow Royal Philatelic Society (London) and
Vice-President Philatelic Society of India.

Encyclopaedia Britannica and Philately.

Stamp Collectors will not have much confidence in the new edition of the Encyclopaedia Britannica if the article on philately is a fair sample. For instance, we are told:—

"Modern postage-stamp albums are often beautiful specimens of the printer's art, reproductions of every known stamp being given in the original colours."

What have the Indian Revenue authorities to say to this? Then again:—

"Not only the stamps themselves were collected, but 'Entires,' i.e., postcards, envelopes with the stamps still adhering, etc."

Where were these defined? Stamp collectors have an expression in common use "used on entire," or "on entire" equivalent to the German "auf Briefstück" (lit. on letter-piece, i.e., on piece of letter). The word "entires" is an attempt to translate the German "Ganzsachen" (lit., entire things) and signifies in philatelic parlance "entire or uncut postal stationery" and cannot we think correctly be employed to describe "adhesive stamps used on entire." Similarly the German "Ausschnitte" (lit., cut-outs) has been translated "cut squares" and is applied to unadhesive stamps which have been cut from stationery and cannot be applied to adhesive stamps which have been cut from envelopes.

Then again we are told that "the Paris collectors were the first to classify stamps, measure them by the gauge, note the water-marks . . ." We thought it was the perforation which was "measured by the gauge." 'Watermark' is spelt without a hyphen unless it means the mark left by water in which a stamp has been soaked too long.

Another gem is this:—"Collecting with due regard to the relationship of different issues is called plating" (!).

We are told that "Baron P. von Ferrary" began his collection in 1865 and that "this collection, which cost its owner at least £250,000, contains a cancelled and an uncancelled specimen of each stamp." The correct name of the gentleman is Philippe la Renotière and as the collection is still being added to, "has cost" would be more correct.

"Reprints" are reimpresions, taken from the original plates, of obsolete stamps, and have a much smaller value than specimens of the original issue." Such a statement is not borne out by the facts. Reprints are not infrequently more valuable than originals; to name only one notable instance, the 1d. black "Royal Reprint" of Great Britain, 1864. But enough! The whole article may best be treated as a joke.

THE WEEK'S NEWS.

NICARAGUA (599 V. 600)—Some more provisionals are chronicled by the Berliner Briefmarken Zeitung (4.3.11/114).

1909 Issue surcharged.

2c. on 3c. brown orange.

(variety) Printed on margin of sheet.

10c. on 15c. grey-black.

10c. on 50c. dark green.

10c. on $1 golden yellow.

The Berliner Briefmarken Zeitung (4.3.11/113), learns that by official decree dated Managua, 11.12.10 the following provisionals were ordered to be created, presumably as a sort of stop-gap until the authorities can raise enough money to give a new contract to the printers. There is no question of obtaining money from stamp collectors; we should doubt if the revenue from this source amounts to £100 a year. Nicaragua is about the one country that stamp collectors do not rush to, to buy a new surcharged stamp (although, on this very account, some of them are likely to prove very scarce in coming years, as there are neither remainders nor reprints to fear.)

Authorized 11.12.10.

80,000 surcharged 2c.

50,000 " 10c. on telegraph stamps.

253,000 " 10c. on postage "

15,000 " 15c. and " B " for Bluefields.

10,000 " 5c. and " B "

The 5c. was chronicled last week and the 2c. and 10c. are reported above. No doubt the others will be heard of shortly.

Later.—On 29.12.10 the Nicaraguan Government authorized the Postmaster-General to offer prizes of 100 to 150 pesos for the best designs for a new issue, and stated its intention of placing a contract in February for new stamps to the face value of $5,000,000. There will be two sets, owing to currency differences; one for the Atlantic Coast and the other for inland circulation.

NORWAY (596 C 600).—The 10 and 15 öre are reported in the newly-engraved type by the Svensk Filatelistisk Tidskrift (10.3.11/49).

Re-engraved Type.

10 öre, rose.

15 öre, brown.

NORTHERN NIGERIA (585 Y 600).—The following has now been issued.

New Colours. Wmk. multiple Crown CA, chalk-surfaced paper.

5d. lilac and olive.

Issued 28.2.11 or earlier.

PANAMA, CANAL ZONE (595 C 600).—Mr. A. C. Roessler writes that 499,000 13c. Panama were overprinted 10c. Canal Zone. It is presumed that the other 1000 were for "specimens," etc.

One sheet was printed with inverted surcharge. Our correspondent thinks that this was a fairly good record, as every stamp had to go through the press twice.

PAPUA (599 Y 600).—We quote from the Australian Stamp Journal (10.2.11/42):—

"Mr. A. R. D. Watson, of Auckland, writes, drawing our attention to the 'pole to sail' variety which exists in the plate which contains the word Papua in small letters. This was referred to in Gibbons Stamp Weekly, some considerable time ago, and Mr. Watson does not wish to take any credit to himself for bringing this matter before our readers. It was also pointed out that this defect had been removed, or practically so. It is number 7 on the sheet. Mr. Watson asserts that before the sheets were retouched the variety with 'Pole to Sail' seemed to be quite as distinct as the other variety, 'Rift in Clouds.' He has found it on the 2½d., 4d., and 1/- varieties, but as he had not at the time of writing complete sheets of all the early issues, he was unable to say, definitely, if this variety was to be found on the other values, but, as he could see traces of retouching on them, he surmises that it is.

"Mr. Watson writes further that mention is made of a flaw, making a projection of the sails in the new issue of the ½d. and 2d. After examining some of these, he finds that this on stamp No. 16 of the sheet, and it exists on the 1d., 2½d., 4d., 6d., and 2/6 values."

We take the following account of a visit by Mr. J. H. Smyth to the Commonwealth Stamp Printer from the same journal (10.2.11/47):—

"When in Melbourne I took the opportunity to call on Mr. Cooke, Commonwealth Stamp Printer. When I did so I was disappointed to find he had left for Adelaide half-an-hour previously. Having ascertained that Mr. Bewley, the overseer, was temporarily in charge, I introduced myself to that gentleman, who received me very courteously and expressed his regret that Mr. Cooke was away.

"This Branch is under the direct control and supervision of the Treasury. Every evening at 4 o'clock a clerk from the Treasury comes over and takes delivery of such stamps as are ready. They are locked up in the Treasury strong-rooms and dispatched to the various State offices as required.

"In reply to my enquiries Mr. Bewley explained that the Papuan stamps were not printed in the Commonwealth Stamp Printing-room, but in the Victorian State Printing Branch, under the supervision of an officer from his department. His memory was somewhat hazy about their introduction; but he explained that after the first printing Mr. Cooke had the stones cleaned off, so as to prevent any likelihood of their being used again, and there seems to have been some misunderstanding with regard to the second printing, hence the preparation of a second lot of lithographic stones. At first Mr. Bewley could not understand the differences in the sizes of the word 'Papua,' but he subsequently remembered that the word 'Papua' had been engraved three times on the corner of the original plate, and transfers were taken from it. Owing to Mr. Cooke's absence, I was unable to see the plate, which I should like to have done; consequently, the reason why the large 'Papua' appears on the first printing of the halfpenny and the small 'Papua' on the other values up to 1/- is still a mystery to me. Questioned as to the 'rift in clouds,' and other minor varieties, Mr. Bewley replied, 'Faulty workmanship.' It seems that the printing of these stamps by lithography has been attended by several inconveniences, and it will be a relief to those concerned when they are printed from electros. The new electros have 40 stamps to each sheet, instead of 30 as at present; but the stamps will be about the same size as now.

"We then began to talk 'perforations,' and, after an inspection of the single line perforators, I found that two gauged 12½ and two gauged 11, one of each being large holes, and the other small holes. All these perforating machines are very old; some of them have probably been 40 or 50 years in the office. The perforating is done by girls

"No one could explain to me how it is that the 12½ perforations seen on current stamps are now small holes; but I did notice that the 12½ large holes machine worked stiffly. On making further enquiries I found that, of late, the perforating machines have been used promiscuously; so that we may expect 12½ or 11, single and compound, on any or all of the stamps printed for Victoria, South Australia, Tasmania, West Australia and Papua. I was told that the machine which gauges perf. 11 small holes is seldom used for postage stamps; but speaking of gauges seemed like talking Greek to the young ladies; they did not understand me.

"There are three triple cutters; two of which are machines known as the 'Adelaide' perforator, having been designed by a Mr. Nash of that City, and the other an old 'Harold' single line machine, which had been converted into a comb machine (i.e., triple cutter). One of the Adelaide machines perforates two rows of stamps at a time. I was informed that the Victorian 1d. and 2d. stamps are sometimes perforated on it, and sometimes on the old triple cutter; in fact, I saw some pennies being done on the latter. The other Adelaide machine is used for the small South Australian stamps. There are in all 8 or 9 perforating machines in the room, one of which is used for punctured officials.

"It seemed to me that the employees were very much hampered for space, and on expressing myself to that effect, I was informed that the Branch was to be moved in a few weeks to the King's Warehouse, at the opposite side of the city."

PARAGUAY (577 V 600)—We illustrate the design of the current Paraguay stamps.

PORTUGUESE INDIA (577 J 600).—The following is chronicled by the Philatelic Journal of Great Britain (20.3.11/53).

Overprinted "Republica."

PORTUGUESE CONGO (596 I 600).—L'Echo de la Timbrologie (15.3.11/155) publishes the decree authorizing the recent issue of Angola stamps surcharged "Congo" and "Republica." The text is translated from the Bulletin Officiel d'Angola (No. 1084).

Four stamps, not three as previously described, were authorized.

Angola stamps overprinted "Congo-Republica"

2½ reis 2,800

5 " 2,800

10 " 11,200

15 " 11,200

The decree is dated 6.12.10. The issue is evidently only of a very provisional nature.

PORTUGUESE COLONIES (584 Q 600).—The Deutsche-Briefmarken Zeitung (17.3.11/66) illustrates the Dom Manoel issue for Mozambique, the reproduction being made from a proof.

As the following stamps with portrait of Dom Manoel were printed and ready for issue, they will probably be made use of after being overprinted "Republica."

Angola, 2½, 5, 10, 20, 25, 50, 75, 100, 200, 300r.

Cape Verd, 2½, 5, 10, 20, 25, 50, 75, 100, 200, 300, 400, 500r.

Mozambique, same except 400r.

St. Thomé, same except 400, 500r.

Of the other Colonies the new stamps had not been printed and none will be.

There is some likelihood of the Mint offering the remainders of the old issues for sale. On the last occasion this was proposed, the minister declined, saying that such a sale would be unfair to those dealers and collectors who had purchased the stamps at face value. However, the Republican authorities may not show the same consideration.

It would be a great pity if Portugal should dispose of its remainders under face value, as we cannot recall any of its issues having been depreciated in the past. Portugal has, however, made many mistakes. It has frequently reprinted its older issues, yet has never placed the reprints on sale to the public at the face value; it has hoarded up its remainders and yet has hedged their sale about with restrictions and delays which make it difficult to procure them. Will not some man of common-sense arise in Portugal, classify the remainders and fill in the blanks by reprinting, and place the whole series from the first series to the last on sale to the public at face value? If obtainable without formalities and delays, they would have a large sale and there would be no necessity either to sell them under face value or to surcharge them on a wholesale scale as was done in 1902, when about 200 unnecessary surcharged stamps were created.

UNITED STATES (596 O 600).—We quote from Meekel's Weekly Stamp News (25.2.11/68).

"Specimens of the new post card described in No. 1050 have been sent us by Jno. J. Spencer, C. D. Mecuthen and H. F. Metz.

Post Card.

1c. carmine on cream.

"It has been decided to issue a new one cent postage stamp for Postal Savings use, says the Philadelphia Gazette, as much matter is being sent out in unsealed envelopes covered by a one cent postage. The colour has not been given out, but it is presumed it will look something like the special two cent black Postal Savings stamp.

"The Philatelic Gazette states that the stamps thus far issued on paper with the new watermark have been as follows:—1c., 2c., 3c., 4c., 5c., 6c., 8c. and 10c. postage, 10c. special delivery, the 1c. and 2c. postage imperforate and the same values perforated, 8½ either horizontally or vertically."

WALLIS ARCHIPELAGO (A 600).—A Sydney correspondent writes to La Circulaire Philatlique (3.11/70) that there is some question of the stamps of New Caledonia being overprinted for use here.

The Wallis Archipelago is a group of islands in the Pacific Ocean, N.E. of Fiji and belonging to France. It is connected for administrative purposes with New Caledonia. The islands were discovered by Samuel Wallis in 1767.

Profits on Steel and Stamps.

THE United States Steel Trust publishes some interesting figures for the years 1909 and 1910.

	1910.	1909.
Gross Sales.....	703,961,000 ..	646,382,000
Total Earnings ..	141,055,000 ..	131,491,000
Net Earnings ....	116,738,000 ..	107,773,000
Surplus.....	36,772,000 ..	33,522,000

It will be noticed that each year the gross earnings were almost exactly 20% of the turnover and therefore 25% over cost. Compare this result with the extent to which the New Issue importer is sweated! He is expected to supply at 10% over face which is fractionally less than 9% on his turnover! We doubt very much whether there is any business in the world which is so badly paid as that of the importer of New Issues. Considering the multitude of transactions and the smallness of their average amount, a New Issue Service is really good value for 25% over face or cost, yet allowing 2% or 3% for the cost of importing, it has to be carried on at a rate which only leaves 6% or 7% of gross profit on the turnover. We think the craze for cheapness is being carried a little too far.

The Week's News.

The Editor is always pleased to receive Early Information of New Issues, or of Discoveries interesting to Stamp Collectors.

The index number and serial letter after the title of each paragraph indicate the issue of E.W.S.N. in which the last reference to that country appeared.

GREAT BRITAIN Current Issue (599 D 601).—We quote from the Evening News.

"The Evening News understands, from authoritative sources, that the design of the new "George V." stamps has been definitely settled.

"As already announced, Messrs. Harrison are to print the major portion of the new issues. The high-value stamps will probably, however, be produced by the presses of Somerset House, and not, as has been stated, at the Mint.

"The first delivery of King Edward stamps printed by Messrs. Harrison under their recently-secured contract has just been made, but it is unlikely that public issue can be made before June."

The Express (23.3.11) is informed that "every effort is now being made to issue the new King George V. postage stamps in time for the Coronation.

"To accomplish this a heavy task lies before the printers, who, to assure the success of the new issue and cope with the demand, are making arrangements to print one million stamps per hour. This will require about 200 hands, 2000 reams of paper, and one ton of gun arabic.

"As it is the intention of the Post Office to distribute the stamps simultaneously all over the British Isles, so that they may be on sale everywhere on a determined day, 1,000,000,000 will be necessary to supply the 25,000 post offices of the United Kingdom.

"The new design was approved quite recently by the King, the Postmaster-General, and the Board of Inland Revenue, and the Royal Mint is already busily engaged on the work of engraving the plates for the printing of the new stamps.

"A keen philatelist, the King has shown a personal interest in the new issue, and has kept in constant touch with every phase of the work of printing the stamps. He personally examined and criticised the designs and sample engravings that were submitted to him.

"Material alterations will be made in the design of the new stamps. As in the case of the King Edward stamps, the bust will remain unchanged, but the laurel and oak leaves have been replaced by some other appropriate symbol. The border and lettering have also been altered."

Unadhesive stamps (598 O 601).—The missing 1d. die 80 has been found on a Post-Office-issued envelope. The list of die-numbers now known is as follows:—

Envelope Dies. List of die-numbers known.

½d. dark green. Dies 7 to 30; 43 to 55.
½d. yellow-green. Dies 45 to 74 except 49, 70.

1d. Dies 7 to 30; 43 to 82.

1½d. yellow Die 1; 1½d. violet, Dies 1, 2.

4d., 10d., 1/-. Die 1.

2d. Dies 1, 2. 2½d. Die 3. 3d. Dies 1, 2.

6d. Dies 1 to 13.

3d. Registration, Dies 1 to 18.

Stationery (530 O 601).—New penny envelopes, differing in shade and appearance to about the same extent that standard bread differs from the old white variety, are making their appearance. The stamps are still "B.R." dies.

Mr. E. Bentley Wood sends us an exceedingly interesting new variety. This is the square 1d. envelope, stamped with the 1d. King Edward die 80 instead of the usual BR die. This opens up a vista of interesting possibilities. It would look as if Messrs. De La Rue & Co. have returned the balance of their BR dies to Somerset House and these along with the numbered dies are being used indiscriminately to stamp the new stationery now being made by Messrs. McCorquodale & Co.

Line-Engraved Stamps (430 W 601).—A correspondent, who is trying to reconstruct sheets of each of the plates from which the 1d. black of 1840 was printed, enquires as follows. Can any of our readers assist in the matter?

"I write to ask whether you have secured any information regarding the possible printing of Plate 3 (1840) in red.

"It may interest you to know that I have been very successful in my attempts to reconstruct the plates. I have about 60,000 loose penny blacks and 12,000 covers in black prints, with about a 1,000 in red. Among the latter is what seems to be DJ of plate three. I have it in black under date of May 21st posted at Rochdale, and a second copy dated May 27th. I have the DJ's of plates 1 and 2 of earlier dates. As the red copy has been torn off the sheet on one side (left), and clipped close at the top, I miss the chance of making a careful study of the margins in order to determine their width, and thus be certain. The J's in this stamp in plates 3 and 4 are from the same punch and placed nearly in the same position in the square; but, as the lower left corner is mutilated I can not be certain that the D is in the position of 3 or 4. It does not seem possible, however, that sheets from plate 4, which went to press on May 18th, could have been on sale at Rochdale three days later. I have, therefore, marked this as Plate 3."

ARGENTINE (577 I 601).—The Deutsche Briefmarken Zeitung (17.3.11/67) states that the American Bank-Note Company has secured the contract for printing the new stamps, which are to be line-engraved in one colour, their bid being 50 centavos (about 10½d.) per thousand stamps, cost of plates included. This is a much higher rate than surface-printed stamps cost.

On the other hand we quote as follows from Mekeel's Weekly Stamp News (11.3.11/81):—

Argentina.—It will be remembered that in the early 90's, the U.S. Government transferred the printing of postage stamps from private to national hands. Argentina is about to do the same. It seems that the Compania Sud Americana de Billetes de Banco was paid 1.20 pesos (50c. U.S. currency) per thousand for the unicoloured centenary stamps, and 2.20 pesos (93c. U.S.) per thousand for the bicoloured stamps. Of course such exorbitant prices can be accounted for by only two causes—either the Compania Sud Americana hypnotized the P.O. Department into granting them the contract, or else the principle of protection of infant industries was carried to extremes, for the Compania Sud Americana is, I am glad to say, a native concern of Buenos Aires. Well, the Director of the Mint complained about this, and stated that his Casa de Moneda Nacional could have done the job for 24,000 pesos instead of the 300,000 that was paid. On account of this disgraceful contract there then followed a severe criticism of the government by the Prensa, of Buenos Aires, probably the most influential newspaper in America, and the attack of such a powerful newspaper had its effect, for the next series of postage stamps will be printed at the National Mint, much more cheaply and on better paper. The design will be extremely artistic as is compatible with the material progress of such a nation as Argentina.

In the Revista de la Sociedad Filatelica Argentina, of December, 1910, Dr. Emilio Diena publishes an interesting article on some mysterious "correo particular" stamps of Argentina. They are very crude labels, very much resembling the Confederate local stamps, with just merely the words "correo particular," "medio (or un) real," surrounded by a margin of pearls shaded black on one side. Were these stamps really locals that circulated outside the limits of the post office routes? This seems impossible, for in 1874, the carrying of mails was government monopoly (the stamps were first known at this date). Still it was estimated that in 1875, 300,000 letters circulated without government "intervention." At any rate the stamps seem to have come forth from the province of Cordoba. It is only there, probably, that any definite information can be obtained.

Besides the future issue of stamps printed by the National Mint the Annonce Timbrologique, of January, 1911, states that Buenos Aires newspapers are agitating for a special stamp commemorative of the centenary of the birth of don Domingo Faustino Sarmiento, President of the Argentine Republic, from 1868-1874. That gentleman ranks among the half dozen great men of his country, such as Belgrano, San Martin, Rivadavia, Rosas, Mitre, Roca. His career is extremely interesting—boy school teacher, store-keeper, poet, exile in Chile, editor, politician, government official, soldier, minister of Chile, France, and the United States, and finally President.

One of his famous works is a book with the somewhat bombastic title of "Civilisation and Barbarism"—a bitter arraignment of the tyrant Rosas, and a vivid description of the anarchy and desolation into which the Argentina of 1840 had fallen. Sarmiento owes his prominence mainly to the educational system he introduced into Argentina, modelled closely on that of the U.S. A local celebrity of Massachusetts, Horace Mann, seems to have had a deep influence in this matter.

The best idea of Sarmiento may be gained by characterizing him as a Horace Greely, Lincoln, and Victor Hugo, all in one, but on a small scale. Sarmiento is the only Latin American Statesman who has had the slightest friendliness or admiration for the United States. This fact will certainly make us Yankees feel more sympathetic toward the proposed commemorative stamp.

AUSTRALIA (597 Q 601).—Mr. J. H. Smyth describes in the Australian Stamp Journal (10.2.11/48) an interesting interview which he recently had with the Secretary to the Commonwealth Treasury.

"I had an interview with Mr. Allen, Secretary to the Treasury, who informed me that a Commonwealth stamp would not be ready for the date of the introduction of penny postage, and that it was not the intention of the authorities to issue a Coronation stamp. It seems that Mr. Cooke was entrusted with the task of getting a portrait of His Majesty engraved locally; but, after some twenty or twenty-five pounds had been expended on it, it was condemned as unsuitable. I suggested to Mr. Allen that the portrait on the South Africa 2½d. bore an excellent likeness to the King, and I offered to send him a copy for inspection, which I did subsequently.

"During the interview, Mr. Allen expressed the opinion that, according to his ideas, stamps should be treated as "currency," and that everyone should bear a portrait of His Majesty as the centre of the design.

"Questioned as to the likelihood of the new Commonwealth stamps being printed by the steel plate process, he said they would not. The Government did not feel disposed to incur the expense of installing the necessary plant, and there were no competent engravers in this country. He added that what was good enough for Great Britain in the way of postage stamps ought to be good enough for Australia.

"The new stamps will be printed from previously gummed paper; this will prevent shrinking (which frequently occurs when stamps are gummed after being printed), and perforation difficulties will be avoided.

"From what I could gather, matters are not going on as smoothly at the Commonwealth Stamp Printing Branch as might be wished. It has long since been realised that it is one thing to print stamps sufficient for one State from one set of electros; and

Interesting Stamps Now Being Issued in Great Britain.

A REMARKABLE FIELD FOR THE SPECIALIST.

At the present moment and probably during the next two years at least Great Britain will be a more than ordinarily interesting field for the British specialist. In every city, town and village, almost at every street corner, there are possibilities!

We have two interesting discoveries to report. Within the last week or so halfpenny adhesive postage stamps have been issued at Anerley Road Post Office with control letter H8 instead of the usual J10, indicating that the authorities have a certain amount of old stock amongst their reserve, which is now being issued preparatory to the issue of Georgian stamps. Specialists have not only to be on the look out for new control letters, but also for old ones.

Then the stamps of higher face value, 1d. onwards, are liable to appear with rare varieties of marginal lines. The student will find these very interesting, especially if collected in miniature sheets formed by taking the eight stamps from the corners of the two panes.

Our second discovery is perhaps our most interesting, and is due to the wide-awakeness of our very regular correspondent Mr. E. Bentley Wood, on whose authority we should think quite half the new die-numbers of envelope stamps of the Edwardian era have been chronicled. In our last record, we reported that penny envelope dies had been brought into use at Somerset House up to No. 82 inclusive, except No. 80. Die 80 has now turned up in a most unexpected quarter. Mr. Bentley Wood found it on 24.3.11 in a packet of 1d. envelopes purchased at Cambridge Post Office. These envelopes are probably the first of those manufactured by Messrs. McCorquodale & Co. vice Messrs. De La Rue & Co. Hitherto all Edwardian envelopes issued at Post Offices have been lettered B.R. (Bunhill Row, Messrs. De La Rue & Co.'s Works). It is just 20 years since Post Office envelopes bore stamps with die-numbers, and many of the 1881 series (1d. pink, dies 1 to 36) are now extremely rare, either used or unused.

At the present time, philately is passing through what we may describe as a "narrow era," that is to say, specialists are rather prone to imagine that nothing is worth specializing except the early issues of strictly adhesive postage stamps. This era will pass. We are already on the threshold of a new reign of Philately, which will live up to its name and include within the confines of its kingdom all classes of stamps which confer "freedom from taxation."

No more interesting field for original research could be found at the present time than the current issues of our own country. The adhesive stamps offer us control letters and varieties of the marginal lines, with possibilities of differences between De La Rue prints and Harrison prints; the Post Office stationery may provide us with rare provisional issues stamped by McCorquodale & Co., with Somerset House dies (or perhaps by Somerset House on McCorquodale stationery); the registration envelopes of various sizes can also be looked for with different die-numbers (the highest yet seen is die 18); the telegram forms have embossed 6d. and 10d. stamps (though it is unfortunately rare to find them with clear die-numbers; but there are still many old and rare dies at small post offices); stationery can be stamped to order at Somerset House, and sometimes rare shades and varieties are obtained.

Then, if you turn from the Post Offices to the Railway stations, you will find railway postage stamps, issued by authority of the Postmaster-General, and though boycotted by catalogue publishers for reasons of their own or no reason at all, yet they fully deserve the attention of every collector of British stamps. These are issued throughout the United Kingdom and the issues of each company are capable of classification according to printings, as the majority are lithographed. Lithographed stamps always bring joy to the heart of the philatelic student. These stamps form a fine field and at small stations it is a frequent occurrence to find remainders of the older printings. Some splendid finds still wait to be made.

If the student of British stamps is still unsatisfied, there is a wide and very largely unexplored field for research in the newspaper stamps of our Railway Companies. Still further afield he will find railway parcel stamps not without interest.

All these stamps are to be obtained practically at the collector's own door and not like so many of the older issues only to be found in dealers' stock-books with a price over them. If you go for a walk or a cycle-ride, remember that any post-office or railway station you pass may have a find waiting to be made by the first enquirer who possesses the requisite knowledge to recognize it.

International Notes.

The Hamburger Fremdenblatt (21.3.11) states that at the last sitting of the Verein für Briefmarkenkunde in Hamburg it was decided in conjunction with the other philatelic societies of that city to prepare a petition asking for the insertion in the new penal code of a clause providing penalties for the manufacture and sale of forged stamps and postmarks.

* * *

The brothers Sperati who were sentenced at Pisa to two years imprisonment for forging stamps have been acquitted by the Court of Appeal, on the grounds that no offence was committed!

* * *

The first and only effect of the new Swiss law against stamp forgery appears so far to have been, as at one time in England, the forbidding of the illustration of stamp-dealers' catalogues, journals and albums. Fournier, the notorious stamp forger of Geneva, is in great glee and publishes the following article in his Facsimile. We need hardly remind him, however, that he laughs best who laughs last.

LA NOUVELLE LOI POSTALE SUISSE.

Cette nouvelle loi qui est entrée en vigueur le 1er Janvier, 1911, est absolument draconienne pour les marchands de timbres et éditeurs de journaux et ouvrages philatéliques. En effet, elle leur interdit non seulement la reproduction des timbres suisses actuellement en cours, mais encore les timbres aussi actuellement en usage dans tous les Etats de l'Union postale universelle, de sorte que les intéressés peuvent mettre au rancart ou à la fonte les clichés qui jusqu'à présent ornaient leurs publications. C'est tellement vrai que le premier numéro de l'année 1911 de la "S.B.Z." est absolument vierge de toute reproduction de timbre actuellement en usage; elle se borne à signaler les nouveautés, mais sans illustrations. Les effets de la nouvelle loi se sont donc fait sentir immédiatement et cruellement contre les auteurs de la campagne éhontée menée principalement à Berne contre ma maison, campagne qui a tourné à leur confusion et qui a produit un résultat diamétralement opposé à celui rêvé et espéré. Ces messieurs ont donc été punis par ou ils ont pêché et les crachats qu'ils me destinaient leur sont tombés lamentablement sur le nez. Grâce à leur zèle intempestif, la Suisse est aujourd'hui le seul pays au monde qui a supprimé la faculté de reproduire les nouveautés postales et autres dans les publications philatéliques.

Dans ce même no 1, la "S.B.Z." publie la circulaire relative à l'application de la nouvelle loi postale et la fait suivre de commentaires ridicules. Je publierai prochainement une étude sur l'interprétation juridique de cette loi, étude dont j'ai confié le soin à mon avocat-conseil, M. Borel, professeur de droit à l'Université de Genève, dont la compétence en matière postale n'est pas à discuter. En ce qui me concerne personnellement les dispositions de la loi en question ne me touchent absolument pas l'imitation ou la reproduction des timbres hors d'usage n'étant pas visée et ne pouvant l'être. Je sais bien que l'on va me répondre avec des semblants victorieux qu'il m'est interdit de reproduire les timbres actuellement en usage dans les postes. Or comme ces reproductions ne m'intéressent pas, je continue tranquillement comme par le passé à vendre mes produits pour ce qu'ils sont. Voir à ce sujet l'article consacré à M. Thiriard dans le présent numéro.

It is really extraordinary how the authorities in most countries treat honest stamp dealers. As regards the sale of forgeries, the governments often adopt a policy of "letting things slide," yet if an honest dealer tries to work up a large business in importing stamps, official action is taken to prevent him buying supplies at the Post Office! Surely it is a topsy-turvy world we live in! Colonies have been officially prohibited from postmarking stamps to order, thereby rendering it impossible to get sufficient supplies for the Continent, where nine out of ten collectors will not look at an unused stamp; yet in those cases where we know of forged postmarks having been put on stamps, officialdom looks the other way! When may stamp collectors expect justice from those in authority?

* * *

It is partly the old question of pirated music over again. The music publishers would not issue cheap music; the pirates did. The public demand will take no denial. If the governments will not issue cheap reprints of stamps, forgers will, especially with laws against the forgery of obsolete stamps either non-existent or seldom enforced. Cheap reprints would cut the ground from under the feet of the forgers and render their trade unprofitable.

Postage Stamps.

(AN EXTRACT FROM THE ENCYCLOPÆDIA BRITANNICA, 11TH EDITION).

For all practical purposes the history of postage stamps begins in the United Kingdom. A post-paid envelope was in common use in Paris in the year 1653. Stamped postal letter-paper (carta postale bollata) was issued to the public by the government of the Sardinian States in November 1818, and stamped postal envelopes were issued by the same government from 1820 until 1836.*

Stamped wrappers for newspapers were made experimentally in London by Charles Whiting, under the name of "go-frees," in 1830. Four years later (June 1834) and in ignorance of what Whiting had already done, Charles Knight, the well known publisher, in a letter addressed to Lord Althorp, then chancellor of the exchequer, recommended similar wrappers for adoption. From this suggestion apparently Rowland Hill, who is justly regarded as the originator of postage stamps, got his idea. Meanwhile, however, the adhesive stamp was made experimentally by James Chalmers in his printing-office at Dundee in August 1834.†

These experimental stamps were printed from ordinary type, and were made adhesive by a wash of gum. Chalmers had already won local distinction by his successful efforts in 1822, for the acceleration of the Scottish mails from London. Those efforts resulted in a saving of forty-eight hours on the double mail journey, and were highly appreciated in Scotland.

Rowland Hill brought the adhesive stamp under the notice of the commissioners of post office inquiry on the 13th of February 1837. Chalmers made no public mention of his stamp of 1834 until November 1837.

Rowland Hill's pamphlet led to the appointment of a committee of the House of Commons on the 22nd of November 1837, "to inquire into the rates and modes of charging postage, with a view to such a reduction thereof as may be made without injury to the revenue." This committee reported in favour of Hill's proposals; and an act was passed in 1839, authorizing the treasury to fix the rates of postage, and regulate the mode of their collection, whether by prepayment or otherwise. A premium of £200 was offered for the best, and £100 for the next best, proposal for bringing stamps into use, having regard to (1) the convenience as regards the public use; (2) the security against forgery; (3) the facility of being checked and distinguished at the post office, which must of necessity be rapid; and (4) the expense of the production and circulation of the stamps." To this invitation 2600 replies were received, but no improvement was made upon Rowland Hill's suggestions. A further Minute, of the 26th of December, 1839, announced that the treasury had decided to require that, as far as practicable, the postage of letters should be prepaid, and such prepayment effected by means of stamps. Stamped covers or wrappers, stamped envelopes, and adhesive stamps were to be issued by government. The stamps were engraved by Messrs. Perkins, Bacon & Petch, of Fleet Street, from Hill's designs, and the Mulready envelopes and covers by Messrs. Clowes & Son, of Blackfriars. The stamps were appointed to be brought into use on the 6th day of May, 1840, but they appear to have been issued to the public as early as the 1st of May. The penny stamp, bearing the profile of Queen Victoria, was coloured black, and the 2d. stamp blue, with check-letters in the lower angle (in all four angles from April, 1858). Up to the 28th of January, 1854, the stamps were not officially perforated, except in the session of 1851, when stamps, perforated by a Mr. Archer, were issued at the House of Commons Post Office. In 1853 the government purchased Archer's patent for £4,000. The stamps were first watermarked in April, 1840.

See also the same writer's pamphlet, entitled "The Position of Sir Rowland Hill Made Plain (1882)," and his "The Adhesive Stamp: a Fresh Chapter in the History of Post Office Reform (1881)." Compare Pearson Hill's tract, "A Paper on Postage Stamps," in reply to Chalmers, reprinted from the Philatelic Record, of November, 1881. Pearson Hill has therein shown conclusively the priority of publication by Sir Rowland Hill. He has also given proof of James Chalmers's express acknowledgment of that priority. But he has not weakened the evidence of the priority of invention by Chalmers.

quite another to print in the same office the stamps for four States from four different sets of plates.

"Owing to the fact that supplies of State stamps will be necessary while the others are being prepared, there will be some difficulty in making the gradual transition from the present stamps to the Commonwealth series (for it is a certainty that all the Commonwealth stamps will be, in the near future, printed in Melbourne), even granting that there will be additional facilities in the new premises.

"It was while I was in Melbourne that the 'Gazette' notice was published containing the conditions of the competition for designs for the new stamps; a typewritten copy of the 'conditions' was kindly sent to me by the Secretary to the Postmaster-General: it will be found in these pages. Only one size is being asked for, and it is evidently now the intention of the authorities to adopt the shape of the Papuan stamps, which measure 1.3-1.6 in. across, and 1 in. from top to bottom; but the new stamps will be smaller, as they will only measure 1 1/4 in. across, and 3/4 in. from top to bottom."

GUATEMALA.

"One of the philatelic thunderbolts of 1910 was the Miguel Garcia Granados stamp. It was stated that as the President of Guatemala was passing through London, he casually happened to drop in on Perkins, Bacon & Co., and in a fit of absentmindedness, ordered the stamp made. It was mostly a joke. However, the joke was premeditated, for according to the official decree published in the Diario de Centro America, of July 30, 1909, the local artist who made the design, don Mariano Colmenares, was paid the sum of 300 pesos (merely $18 U.S. currency), which was certainly not the fortune it looks like. From the same paper of August 9, there is published another official decree, which will be a great surprise to philatelists:—"It is resolved that postage stamps destined for official correspondence abroad be surcharged with the word 'Gobierno', an operation which will be immediately effected by the Direccion General del Ramo on the necessary denominations of the present series, as soon as a written authorization has been given out by the Ministerio de Fomento indicating the number and value of the stamps." Have these official stamps actually been issued?"

HAYTI (572 K 601).—Mekeel's Weekly Stamp News (11.3.11/81) translates from the Illustriertes Briefmarken Journal (18.2.11).

HAITI.—In the session of October 21, the Legislative chamber of the Republic of Haiti adopted the following decree submitted by President Simon:—"Beginning with the 30 December, 1911, two stamps will be issued for franking foreign and interior parcels, 5c. de piastre, violet with the arms of the republic, and 12c. de piastre portrait of President Simon on black background in a medallion. There will also be issued (1) wrappers (arms of the republic) for interior use 1c. green, 2c. red, 3c. yellow, 4c. blue, for exterior use 1c. green-yellow, 2c. carmine, 3c. blue, 4c. yellow, 5c. lilac, 6c. apricot, 7c. brown; (2) envelopes (portrait of President Simon) for exterior 5c. blue, black background in medallion, 2c. red, black background in medallion. All contradictory regulations are annulled.

ITALIAN P.O., LEVANT (599 D 601).—The Schweizerische Philatelistische Nachrichten (3.11/64) states that there has been a third local printing of the 20 piastres, surcharge large figures. Two thousand were printed and the stamp stands in the local market at 2 1/2 times its face value.

ITALY (600 O 601).—The Schweizerische Philatelistische Nachrichten (3.11/64) states that the colour of the new 10 lire has been found unsatisfactory and is likely to be changed.

NEWFOUNDLAND (599 C 601).—The 5c. Guy issue recently chronicled should have been described as perf. 14x12, not 12x14. In some of the lithographed 6c. type ii. the Z has only been partially corrected, making it look like a Greek capital X, or two horizontal bars with a dot between.

NEW ZEALAND (593 W 601).—We have received a number of sheets of the King Edward stamps of new printings, and are able to bring our list of sheet-numbers up to date as follows:—

DOMINION ISSUE.

Highest and Lowest Sheet-Numbers.

	Perf.	Lowest No.	Highest No.
2d.	14 x 14 1/2	4114	6454
3d.	"	6557	—

3d.	"	—	12512
4d.	"	13697	16341
5d.	"	17045	17945
5d.	14 x 14	17523	20999
6d.	"	23113	26973
3d.	14 x 14 1/2	27399	29316
1/-	14 x 14	32116	39219

6d.	"	111019	111097
6d.	"	132516	—

The 3d. perf. 14x14 1/2, sheets 100355 etc., are a browner shade than the same variety, sheets 6557 etc. or 12512, etc. It is doubtful whether the 2d. 8078 to 8445 have not had the last figure of the number cut off, as was previously suggested, but there seems now less certainty about it, as they would then clash to some extent with the 4d. 81189 to 84450.

The 1/4d. and 1d. have now the following record.

	Perf.	Lowest No.	Highest No.
1/4d.	14 x 15	D254258	D276303
1d.	"	D318972	D324968
1d. Official	"	—	D372366

1d.	"	D447077	D451886
1/4d.	"	D496896	D511140
1d.	"	D514383	D532798
1/4d.	"	—	D531743
1d.	"	—	D779712

Sheets of the Postage Due stamps are on yet a third kind of paper and have sheet-numbers as follows:—

	Perf.	Lowest.	Highest.
1/4d.	11	823895	824066
1d.	14	277286	277772

This series presumably runs up to a million and start again at 1, as the perf. 14 are a much later printing than the perf. 11.

Plate-numbers.—In E.W.S.N. No. 572 we wrote: The 2d. sheets just received have "... in the centre of the bottom margin and the 3d. sheets "..., presumably plate Nos. 2 and 4."

The 2d. sheets received to-day (25.3.11) still have "... but the 3d. have "..., the 1/- "...; the 6d. and 8d. "...

PAPUA (600 Z 601).—The event of the week has been the arrival of the single colour stamps.

Unicoloured series, printed from a single plate for each value.

1/4d. emerald green.
1d. rose-pink.

Issued 8.2.11. It will be remembered that we were the first to chronicle these stamps, which we did in E.W.S.N. No. 596, 25th February, or only seventeen days after their first issue, very quick travelling from Papua.

There are some extraordinary features of the new issue. In the first place they are no longer lithographed in sheets of 30, but are printed from a plate of 40 electros. This is almost a misfortune. The increased size of the sheets will be a great nuisance to those who collect Papuan stamps in this form and the fact that the stamps are surface-printed instead of line engraved deprives the sheets of many little varieties and defects which attract the philatelic student. Surface-printing, too, is not a satisfactory method of printing large stamps; they are apt to look cheap and nasty.

The stamps are printed on South Australian, instead of Victorian, paper and we must therefore distinguish in future between issues "wmk. Melbourne Crown A" and "wmk. Adelaide Crown A." Both issues are, however, printed in Melbourne.

The new issue is perf. 12 1/2 large holes, and the wmk. is Adelaide Crown A sideways. The sheets contain forty stamps in five rows of eight (previously six rows of five).

Unicoloured twopenny stamps have been ordered and are expected to be issued shortly, but there is still a large stock of the other values in the bicoloured series.

We propose to describe these issues under the following numbers.

Papuan Stamps.

Watermark Adelaide Crown A.

Issues 21, 22	wmk. upright, perf. 11	(22 inverted).
" 23, 24	"	perf. 12 1/2 (24 " " )
" 25, 26	wmk. sideways, perf. 11	(26 " " )
" 27, 28	"	perf. 12 1/2 (28 " " )

The specimens of the 1/4d. and 1d. just received belong to issue 28.

It looks likely that issues 11, 12, 15, 16, 17 and 18 provided for in a previous scheme will not now be printed.

RUSSIAN F.P.O. (599 O 601).—Nearly all the 5 and 10 para stamps overprinted with various names are now obsolete and we are informed that the stock of the 1 piastre is nearly exhausted. The issue of stamps with different names overprinted is shortly to cease altogether.

SERVIA (586 W 601).—Borek's Preisliste (20.2.11) states that the current stamps are no longer being printed on laid paper, and that the new issue is similar to the early printings.

SUDAN (599 G 601).—We have received the following:—

Wmk. multiple Crescent and Star.
10 piastres, mauve and black.

Issued 2.11. This is the last value of the set to be changed. It may be recalled that the change was instituted because the Mahometan population saw in the Quatrefoils watermark a resemblance to the Maltese Cross (Cross of the Knights of Malta).

Notes.

We do not know whether it matters in the case of a Condominium such as that of the New Hebrides, whether the revenue from the sale of stamps is divided equally between the British and French residents, but it would be interesting to know whether the revenue derived from the sale of New Hebrides stamps in Paris is equally divided between the British and French residents. We have the statement of M. Roy that the revenue derived from this source in the islands was divided. Also can anyone explain why the British stamps were issued at the price of the French ones? On one occasion the Postmaster gave 250 1d. stamps in exchange for £1, explaining that their issue price was 10c., not 1d.! If so, should they not be surcharged like the Levant or Morocco stamps?

The well-known stamp business of the late M. Arthur Maury at Paris has been acquired by M. Lemaire, and will be continued as before.

TURIN EXHIBITION, 1911.

The programme and rules can be obtained from the Commission d'Organisation de l'Exposition Philatelique, Via Po 2, Turin. There will be classes for both general and specialized collections, groups of rare stamps, essays, etc., and also stamp dealers' stalls.

Ewen's Colonial Stamp Market, Ltd.,
32, PALACE SQUARE, NORWOOD, LONDON, S.E.

Deposit Accounts.—All payments (for whatever purpose) are credited to a deposit account, and all invoices (whether for stamps, albums, subscriptions or postage, etc.) are debited to such account. This deposit account should not be overdrawn. The balance is returnable post free on demand.

Returns.—Stamps which are not as ordered may be returned within 10 days and their full sale price will be re-credited to deposit account.

Bank notes.—20 mark = 19/6; 50 francs (French) 39/8; 50 francs (other countries), 39/6; 50 lire, 39/6; 20 kronen = 16/6; 20 kroner = 22/-; 10 gulden = 16/6; 10 roubles = 21/-; U.S.A. dollar = 4/1.

Cheques payable to "Ewen's Colonial Stamp Market, Ltd." or "Ewen's, Ltd.," postal orders, money orders (inland and foreign) etc., payable to "Ewen's, Ltd.," at "Anerley Road, S.E." Cheques on France and Germany accepted at same rate as bank notes, also bons de poste.

Envelope Die Numbers.

Nearly half the collection recently advertised at £550 has now been sold, there having been quite an extraordinary reawakening of the demand for these stamps lately. The remainder of the collection, priced to about £300, can be sent on approval with 25% discount or 50% on a large purchase. It weighs about 20 lbs.

Railway Postage Stamps.

The Editor has just finished sorting the whole of his duplicates according to printings. There are 128 standard varieties listed in our Reference List, but by collecting printings these can be extended to about 800. The Editor has some 300 or 400 of these amongst his duplicates and offers them at the all round rate of 1/- per stamp nicely arranged in a collection with manuscript notes. Some are used, and a few of the rarer varieties are included. The Editor would be very glad to exchange with other collectors, and is mainly short of common recent varieties.

The total face value of this fine nucleus for a Papua collection is 30/2, and we offer it at the very low price of £3, considering the scarcity of many stamps, and the fact that no more official stamps are to be sold. The 2/6 of issue 5 is a rarity, and even issue 6 is advancing.

PAPUA, 1907.

Table of Papua 1907 stamps: Bi-coloured, 'PAPUA' small. Includes values like 301 1.10 1/2 green & black (D 8d) 1d, 302 6.08 1d rose 6d, etc.

Table of Papua 1907 stamps: Bi-coloured, 'PAPUA' large. Includes values like 309 11.07 1/2 green & black 2d, 310 8.10 1d rose 1d, etc.

Table of Papua 1907 stamps: Uni-coloured, 'PAPUA' large. Includes values like 318 1.11 1/2 green 2d, 319 1d rose 1d.

The above prices are for commonest watermarks and perforations.

The varieties of Papuan stamps known to exist may now be listed as follows:-

Table of Papua 1907 stamp issues: (1, 2) Wmk. upright, perf. 11; (3, 4) Wmk. sideways, perf. 12; (5, 6) Wmk. sideways, perf. 11; (7, 8) Wmk. sideways, perf. 12; (9) mixed perfs.; (10) perf. 11 x 12 1/2.

Nos. 2, 4, 6, 8 have inverted wmk.

In issue 5, if the stamp is placed face downwards the A will appear to the left of the Crown, whilst in the variety described as "inverted" the A is to the right. Issues 11 to 18 correspond with 1 to 8. The unicoloured stamps will be issues 21 to 28.

Varieties known.

Table of Papua 1907 stamp varieties: Issue 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 13, 14, 28. Columns for 1d, 2d, 3d, 4d, 6d, 1/2.

Those marked * are the series with "large Papua"; otherwise known as type ii. None of these bi-coloured stamps of type ii. appear to have been issued perf. 11, or with sideways watermark, so that issues 11, 12, 15, 16, 17, 18 will probably never exist.

The "Rift in the Clouds" variety.

Table of Papua 1907 stamp varieties: No. 23 on the sheet. Values known. Issue 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9. Columns for 1d, 2d, 3d, 4d, 6d, 1/2.

The "rift" is the variety of this series of Papuan stamps, and is in most remarkable demand both at home and abroad. In order to show its position on the sheet, some collectors take blocks of six from the lower left-hand corner of the sheet, thus:-

These blocks also show the "white leaves" variety (No. 2 in the last row), but the latter only occurs in some values.

The Week's News.

The Editor is always pleased to receive Early Information of New Issues, or of Discoveries interesting to Stamp Collectors.

The index number and serial letter after the title of each paragraph indicate the issue of E.W.S.N. in which the last reference to that country appeared.

BAVARIA (601 H 602).—Concerning the method of printing the new stamps, the Münchener Neueste Nachrichten (10.3.11) says:—

BAVARIEN

"The new stamps are manufactured by photolithography. The stamps were drawn from the designs of Professor Fritz v. Kaulbachs on stone in 4 panes of 100 stamps each by the firm of Oscar Consée, whose work is characterised by striking efficiency. From this original stone the designs were transferred with the help of photography to lithographic stones, coated so as to render them sensitive to light, and the designs were then etched in. From the resulting plates the stamps were printed off on gummed paper and perforated. These stones prepared from the original stones naturally wear away fairly quickly and after about 5000 impressions the stones must be cleaned off and the stamp designs re-etched."

BULGARIA (600 Q 602).—We illustrate some of the new stamps, the values 3, 5, 10, 25 and 30 stotinki.

The 30 stotinki shows very clearly the spelling of the name Blgaria in old slavonic lettering, and it is rather a curious coincidence how closely the first letters resemble the word "Czar," although actually standing for B.L.C. It has always been a matter of mystery to us where the English language, extraordinary as it is in the matter of spelling, could have obtained the spelling czar.

The word is supposed to have originated with the Latin Caesar, which was converted into German Kaiser (Emperor) and Russian Késar or Tsésar. A derivative of the latter word Tsésarevich (son of the Emperor) has been copied into English as Cesarewitch, a name especially well-known to the race-going public. So far is plain-sailing, but the Russian language is also found in possession at a very early date of a somewhat similar word Tsar for which there is no explanation unless it is an abbreviated form of Tsésar. From Tsar we get the derivatives Tsaritsa, Tsarevitch and Tsarevna (wife, eldest son and daughter of the Tsar).

Why should the Russian Tsar be translated into English as Czar, a horrible spelling quite foreign to English orthography? The first Englishman who heard the word "Tsar" must have wondered how to spell it. Why did he choose the letters CZ to represent the sound of TS? The only language in the world in which CZ is pronounced TS is the Magyar.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES. Ewen's Weekly Stamp News can be sent post free to any address in any country for one year for 4/4 (£1.06, Mk. 4.50 or fr. 5.50). Each change of address, 6d. extra. Half year, 3/3; 3 months, 1/7½. A special limited subscription has also been arranged; every 5th number can be sent for only 1/3 per annum. Back Nos., 1 to 535, 3d. each; complete, £5; current year, 1½d. each. EWEN'S LTD., 32, Palace Square, Norwood, London, S.E.

There is really no reason why the English language should tolerate the Magyar spelling of a word borrowed from the Russian and for our part we always write Tsar. The Daily Mail once had the courage to do the same, but after a few weeks went back to the horrid cz, but most other daily papers now adopt the TS.

Bearing this in mind, and in view of the fact that Ferdinand of Bulgaria has just been raised from the dignity of Prince to that of Tsar, it is certainly interesting that the first four letters of the name of his country, spelt with old Slavonic letters, makes the English CZAR, and almost leads one to think that the word must have been copied from the expression "Tsar of the Bulgars" and that in trying to spell it out the Englishman got hold of the second word instead of the first!

We have now examined entire sheets of the new stamps and find that the plate number is printed over one or other of the stamps in the top row of each sheet. The bi-coloured stamps have two plate-numbers. The complete list of plate-numbers is as follows:—

Plate No.		Plate No.
1	25 st. frame	11	30 st. frame
2	centre	12	centre
3	10 st. frame	13	50 st. frame
4	centre	14	centre
5	5 st. frame	15	21. frame
6	centre	16	centre
7	3 st. frame	17	31. frame
8	centre	18	centre
9	2 st. frame
10	centre
19	1 st. single plate stamp
20	15 st
21	11.

The plate-numbers are of course printed in the colours of the frame and centre respectively.

CAYMAN ISLANDS (593 L 602).—We now formally chronicle the 3d. on brownish-yellow paper first referred to in E.W.S.N. No. 579, as we have seen four entire sheets of it. At first we were not sure that the difference of tint was not due to discoloration, but from the fact that parts of six or more sheets have now been seen, it would seem more likely that there was a special printing.

New shade.

3d. pale purple on brownish-yellow instead of lemon-yellow. Wmk. multiple Crown CA. chalk-surface paper.

Issued 15.5.10 or earlier.

DUTCH BUITEN BEZIT (591 N 602).—We have received the ¼c. in a much deeper shade of violet than usual, issued 8.3.11 or earlier.

ICELAND (472 F 602).—We are indebted to Mr. Erik Banck for a cutting from the Danish Politiken, which we translate as follows:—

"The current Icelandic postage stamps with the two king's heads are to be replaced by new ones. The Government has arranged that the new stamps shall be printed and issued in the spring. Part of the stamps will bear the portrait of King Frederick VIII., whilst the others will portray the Icelandic politician Jón Sigurdsson, whose hundredth birthday, the 17th June, 1911, will be celebrated in Iceland by great festivities. The portrait of the last named will be embossed in white, with a blue background (the Icelandic national colours) and will be taken from a medallion, modelled by the Icelandic sculptor Einar Jónsson, whose statue of Jón Sigurdsson in the House of Parliament will be unveiled on the same occasion. Finally, some of the higher values will represent Icelandic scenery.

"As regards the embossed stamps, it is intended that, like other jubilee stamps, they shall only remain in use a short time. They are therefore likely in time to become rare in the eyes of collectors. As the 5, 10 and 20 öre stamps in consequence of international agreement must be in particular colours, these will bear the King's portrait instead of Jón Sigurdsson's, which will all be in blue and white. The last named stamps will be ready for issue in Iceland on 17.6.11.

NORTH BORNEO (597 J 602).—We have now received sheets of the new high value stamps, 25c. to $10. They are of very handsome appearance and unlike their predecessors engraved instead of lithographed.

The whole of the current set of North Borneo stamps, from 1c. to $10, is evenly perforated 14, but the holes are rather smaller than in the De La Rue perforation of the same gauge.

Notes on the Royal Philatelic Society.

BY M. P. CASTLE.

(From the London Philatelist, Feb., 1911.)

THESE notes are indited—owing to pressure of other demands upon the space of the London Philatelist—midway in the season, so they therefore afford a favourable opportunity to glance at the record of work in the first half of the programme of the Society. Two features clearly stand out, i.e.:—firstly, that the displays of stamps have been of great variety and excellence, and, secondly, that the attendance of Fellows have not evinced a due appreciation of these qualities.

The eight evening sessions of this season that have been held have embraced stamps of the following countries:—United States of America, the Australian States, Trinidad, New Zealand, British Guiana, Cayman Islands, New Zealand (Pictorial Issues), St. Vincent, and Bahamas. Every one of these displays has been marked by extremely fine exhibits of the several countries, in the majority of the instances the collections having been practically complete, including alike the greatest rarities and the smallest varieties, and it may safely be said that, in the aggregate, no better series of displays could be shown by any philatelic society in the world.

Now let me turn to the second point. It will be seen that, as on previous occasions, the attendance at the initial meeting far transcends that of any of the subsequent ones, nor is this a matter of surprise. The popularity of the President and the marvellous extent of his philatelic possessions should alone induce the presence of many Fellows, while the palatial dimensions of Lord Crawford's town house, affording room for the simultaneous display of many philatelic objects of interest, practically tends to convert the opening meeting of the season into a conversazione. I am sure anyhow that this feature is very much appreciated by the Fellows of the Royal Society, as it affords opportunities both for philatelic camaraderie and for closer examination of the specimens than at the ordinary meetings, where sheets necessarily follow round in rapid rotation. I hope Lord Crawford will be kind enough to show us his Italian States next year, which have now grown into a marvellous collection. I should add that in addition to the great pleasure experienced in renewing acquaintance with the President's unrivalled collection of U.S., members were much interested in the inspection of the arrangements made for the permanent housing of the great philatelic library, a considerable portion of which was in situ.

The attendances at the several meetings held this session have been as follows (Season 1910-11):—

Meeting	Members and Associates.	Visitors.
Oct. 20, 1910	32	0
Nov. 3, 1910	14	0
Nov. 17, 1910	17	0
Dec. 1, 1910	13	1
Dec. 15, 1910	13	1
Jan. 5, 1911	20	0
Jan. 19, 1911	22	0
Feb. 2, 1911	18	0

It is significant to note that at the two last meetings, at which modern issues have been displayed, the numbers present have been more satisfactory. It is not given to every one to collect on the modern exhaustive lines the older and rarer issues, and the growing interest taken in those of more recent date is therefore to be welcomed as affording philatelic opportunities of study that might be otherwise out of reach. It cannot, however, be said that superb collections of recent issues, such as the pictorial issues of New Zealand shown by Mr. A. H. Stamford, or the Cayman Islands shown by Mr. A. Leon Adutt, both of which were remarkable for completeness and numbers of specimens, will be found easy examples to follow! The fact remains, however, that modern issues are distinctly popular, and I trust that the success that has attended these two displays will lead to others of a like nature.

I think, however, it can hardly be maintained that the attendances at the displays of Australian States by Dr. James (14) Trinidad by E. D. Bacon (17), New Zealand by Mr. C. L. Pack (13) or British Guiana by myself (13), evince the due appreciation that might be reasonably expected from the Fellows of a Royal Society. There have been naturally many abstentions from ill-health—notably that of our Hon. Sec., which we all deplore—while the climatic conditions of a London winter and other social engagements will account for many absentees.

These reasons, however, apply to all corporate bodies alike, and looking to the attendances at the meetings of other Philatelic Societies, and at the large number of Fellows of the Royal Society, I frankly confess to both discouragement and disappointment. Nor can it be urged that a good example is not set by the officers of the Society, as an analysis of the relative proportionate attendance of members of the Council and that of Fellows would afford convincing proof! The members of the Programme Committee of the Royal Society are at great pains to build up a good philatelic feast for each season, and I certainly think that their task will hardly be capable of satisfactory fulfilment in the future unless Fellows and members support their Council, and evince their interest in the Royal Philatelic Society by a more constant attendance at its meetings!

The Future of the Royal Philatelic Society.

We welcome Mr. Castle's remarks, as likely to lead to discussion which may result in making the Royal Philatelic Society a real power in the land. If one thinks for a moment of the position it might hold and of the assistance that it might give to students of philately throughout the country, one is tempted to look upon it as a failure, though it requires some courage to risk being told one is rude for saying so. Yet here we have members bringing splendid collections for display at the meetings and the average attendance is under 20! It is we think the wisest course to recognize frankly that all is not as it should be and set about finding the remedy.

Excluding the meeting held at the house of the President, the only meetings held this session which have been attended by more than 18 members were those of 5.1.11 and 19.1.11, when the stamps of Cayman Islands and New Zealand (Twentieth Century Issues), respectively were shown. There are several inferences to be drawn from the fact that modern stamps attracted the best attendance.

It is not we think correct to infer that new issues attracted because they were new issues but rather because it is always more interesting to inspect stamps that one collects and understands one's self. Here probably is to be found the kernel of the whole difficulty. A fine specialist collection may be intensely interesting to form, but if it was shown to a coin or medal collector, he would probably be bored. Why therefore should it be expected to interest members who only study and collect the stamps of totally different countries? To take a concrete case. The writer has been for 13 years past extremely interested in collecting British railway stamps, even to the extent of accumulating a collection which is just entering on its 51st volume and which weighs nearly half a ton, yet he would hardly be cruel enough to invite his worst enemy to come and inspect it if his guest did not understand these stamps; yet on the other hand he himself finds no greater pleasure than comparing notes with other collectors of these stamps and it is a treat to inspect a well-arranged collection of a fellow-student (alas that there are so few!). At the same time, the writer confesses to a great difficulty in getting up any interest in even the finest collections of pence Ceylons, triangular Capes, early Mauritius and British Guiana, and that is no doubt due to the fact that he does not collect them and has never studied them.

Perhaps all collectors are not built on the same lines, but we fear that most are, or attendances at philatelic displays would be much larger.

The meetings of German societies are much better attended, and that is no doubt due to the fact that there is more general collecting and much less serious philately. Members, instead of inspecting one specialized collection of a country they do not understand, inspect each other's collections and more often spend the evening in exchanging their duplicates and in social intercourse generally.

If we prefer to maintain the high standard of British philately, it is necessary to consider how displays at the meetings may be made more interesting. In this connection two facts stand out:—

(1) Few members have both time and means to make a collection of a whole country up to exhibition standard and this difficulty will become more and more pronounced as time goes on.

(2) By exhibiting one country only at a meeting one fails to attract those members not interested in that country; probably not more than a twentieth of the members would be sufficiently interested to leave their own albums and fireside.

The remedies are the encouragement of general collecting, so that each member may have an interest in the stamps of every country (but the general collecting must be on the simplest basis possible or the member will have no time left for serious philatelic study); the limitation of displays to the stamps of a single issue or even to a single stamp, so that several displays of different countries can succeed one another at each meeting.

It is the duty of every philatelic society to extend consideration to those of its members whose time or means are limited and more encouragement might be given to members to make limited philatelic studies. To give instances; interesting little fifteen-minute displays might be made of such stamps as the 10d. octagonal of Great Britain; the 1d. line-engraved Antigua; the Vancouver Island issue; the Canada 1863 issue; the New Zealand Dominion issue; etc., etc.

We should like to see collectors encouraged to make these small specialist collections, which though limited in scope, might take years to perfect. They would be like gems in the golden setting of a general collection and a much better result could be obtained by concentrating one's efforts on a particular stamp or issue.

But—and there is a big 'but'—we want a society possessing an extensive philatelic lending library and an efficient philatelic index, so that a collector who decides to take up the study of a particular stamp may first of all provide himself with a transcript of all that has been written thereon in the past. He does not want to go to the expense of a library himself—let him reserve his resources for his collection—but he does want to start his studies where others left off. Cannot the Royal Philatelic Society do something to assist in this way?

We should like to see all these miniature collections exhibited once a year by the Society, a sort of philatelic Royal Academy. Fellowships of the Society would then have to be earned by a philatelic display "hung on the line."

We reproduce the following note on the Royal Academy from the Encyclopædia Britannica (vol. I., p. 106).

"The Royal Academy of Arts in London," to give it the original title in full, was founded in 1768, "for the purpose of cultivating and improving the arts of painting, sculpture and architecture." Many attempts had previously been made in England to form a society which should have for its object the advancement of the fine arts. Sir James Thornhill, his son-in-law Hogarth, the Dilettanti Society, made efforts in this direction, but their schemes were wrecked by want of means. Accident solved the problem. The crowds that attended an exhibition of pictures held in 1758 at the Foundling Hospital for the benefit of charity, suggested a way of making money hitherto unsuspected. Two societies were quickly formed, one calling itself the "Society of Artists" and the other the "Free Society of Artists." The latter ceased to exist in 1774. The former flourished, and in 1765 was granted a royal charter under the title of the "Incorporated Society of Artists of Great Britain." But though prosperous it was not united. A number of the members, including the most eminent artists of the day, resigned in 1768, and headed by William Chambers, the architect, and Benjamin West, presented on 28th November in that year to George III., who had already shown his interest in the fine arts, a memorial soliciting his "gracious assistance, patronage and protection," in "establishing a society for promoting the arts of design." The memorialists stated that the two principal objects they had in view were the establishing of "a well-regulated school or academy of design for the use of students in the arts, and an annual exhibition open to all artists of distinguished merit, the profit arising from the last of these institutions" would, they thought, "fully answer all the expenses of the first," and, indeed, leave something over to be distributed in useful charities. The King expressed his agreement with the proposal, but asked for further particulars. These were furnished to him on the 7th of December and approved, and on the 10th of December they were submitted in form, and the document embodying them received his signature, with the words, "I approve of this plan; let it be put into execution."

Later (page 108) we read that "the first exhibition in 1769 contained 136 works, of which more than one-half were contributed by members, and brought in £699 17s. 6d. In 1900 the number of works sent in was 13,462."

Cannot the Royal Philatelic Society do something of the same sort for Philately? Cannot we have an annual exhibition, with the award of a limited number of diplomas and the election of a limited number of Fellows? No one wants a wholesale distribution of medals and diplomas. Let each exhibit be limited to a single stamp or single issue, and let no exhibit be eligible for honours after it has once gained an award. We feel fairly confident that if the exhibits were limited to single issues or stamps, a great many more collectors would be encouraged to compete; stamp collecting would be brought within their means. But of course there still remains the want of an indexed reference library, if collectors are to do good work.

We hope that this subject may receive further discussion.

Philatelic Literature Society.

THIS Society, which has just held its third annual general meeting, is to be congratulated on its flourishing condition. In the past year the Council pursued a policy of economy in view of the prospective issue by the Society of the Catalogue of the Philatelic Library of the Earl of Crawford. The result of this has been that the balance to the Society's credit at the close of 1910 was over £66. The economy has not, however, been detrimental to the standard of the Society's official organ, which still continues to deserve the admiration of connoisseurs of philatelic literature. The Society has now a membership of over seventy, which, as the Postage Stamp remarks, is higher than most of the original members thought would ever be attained by a Society devoting itself to this special and somewhat exclusive task of studying philatelic rariora. —The Bazaar (29.2.11).

International Notes.

L'Echo de la Timbrologie (15.3.11/131) gives some interesting particulars of the stamps priced 1f. or under in the Yvert Champion Catalogue, 1911 Edition. The number of stamps at the different quotations are as follows (10c=1d.), eliminating varieties.

	1604	Total 1604, say fr. 48.—
2, 4c.	1604	2682	101.90
5c.	1078	4068	240.50
10c.	1386	4964	374.90
15c.	896	5874	556.90
20c.	910	6630	745.90
25c.	756	7358	964.30
30c.	728	7736	1095.10
35c.	378	8786	1516.60

85c.	84	12202	3740.10
90c.	392	12790	4328.10
1f.	588

From these figures it results that collections of a certain number of stamps would cost (taken at catalogue prices) as follows:—

1000	23.96	7000	856.90
2000	67.80	8000	1192.20
3000	133.08	9000	1561.10
4000	233.80	10000	2124.20
5000	382.10	11000	2733.70
6000	590.40	12000	3558.30

The total number of stamps listed for the whole world in No. 31 (May 1909) of Ewen's Stamp Quotations was 9638.

* * *

We append a Danish opinion on the collection of stamps in blocks (from the Skandinavisk Filatelistisk Tidsskrift, 15.2.11/28).

"Blokstykker er noget, som mere og mere bliver moderne. I alle store og fine Samlinger søger man næsten altid at have Frimærkerne ogsaa repræsenteret i Blokstykker. Samlere, som har smukke Blokstykker, skal derfor passe godt paa dem og bevare dem. Ogsaa smukke Blokstykker af mere almindelige Frimærker kan nok fortjene Opmærksomhed, for der kan komme den Tid, de Blokstykker af disse Værdier, naar de er udgaaede af Cirkulation, bliver efterspurgt, og som Følge deraf forholdsvis godt betalt."

The interest of this note is increased by the fact that the Scandinavian countries have in the past been strong adherents of the one-stamp system.

The Week's News.

The Editor is always pleased to receive Early Information of New Issues, or of Discoveries interesting to Stamp Collectors.

The index number and serial letter after the title of each paragraph indicate the issue of E.W.S.N. in which the last reference to that country appeared.

GREAT BRITAIN. — Unadhesive Stamps (601 P 603).—We have just (about 1.4.11) had a new supply of envelopes stamped at Somerset House and find that the 1½d. and 2½d. are in distinct shades, probably due to the dies becoming worn. The 3d. die is now damaged, there being quite a wide break in the outline at the top. The die-numbers are:—½d., 72; 1½d., 2; 2½d., 3; 3d., 2; 4d., 1; and the 3½d. and 4½d. compounds are respectively made up of the 3d.+½d. and 4d.+½d. values. None of these are new.

BAVARIA (602 I 603).—More jubilee stamps are in prospect! The Fränkischer Kurier (30.3.11) of Nuremberg states that the authorities have definitely decided to issue new 5 and 10 pfennig stamps to the number of 10 or 12 million, on the occasion of the 25th Anniversary of the Regency of the Prince-Regent, which will be celebrated in June. The work of designing the stamps has been entrusted as before to Professor v. Kaulbach. We should like to have confirmation as to this and an assurance that the stamps are not post-cards.

From the same source we learn that the present issue is to be printed on better paper.

The Hamburger Nachrichten (31.3.11) states that the embossed Bavarian stamps ceased on 31.3.11 to be valid for postage but they will be exchanged for the new issue up to June. The old stamps will continue to be sold for stamp-collecting purposes only at the Post Offices of München I, Nuremberg I and Ludwigshafen on Rhine.

BELGIUM (594 O 603).—The Berliner Lokal-Anzeiger (29.3.11) states that the new stamps with portrait of King Albert may be expected to commence to appear in the course of the current month, but as the greater part of the supply has already been bespoken, only a small quantity are likely to be available at first for sale over the counter. The first value will be the 10 centimes.

BOLIVIA (585 V 603).—We have received a supply of the new 5c. and 20c. in sheets.

The new issue is dated "1810" instead of "1809" at left side and the portraits are reshuffled, that of Ignatius Warnes being transferred from the 2c. to the 5c., the 20c. being however unchanged.

The stamps dated "1909" are on plain wove unwatermarked paper, perf. 11, with no inscription on the margin.

The new stamps are printed in sheets of 10 rows of 10 on wove paper watermarked once, in three lines.

A. S. & Co. [script]
EXTRA STRONG [double-lined caps]
9303 [double-lined figures]

the width of the lines being respectively that of 5, 9 and 3 stamps.

The top margin of the sheet is inscribed Sociedad Imp. y Lit. Universo, Valparaiso—Santiago—Concepcion.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES. Ewen's Weekly Stamp News can be sent post free to any address in any country for one year for 4/4 ($1.06, Mk. 4.50 or fr. 5.50). Each change of address, 6d. extra. Half year, 3/3; 3 months, 1/7½. A special limited subscription has also been arranged; every 5th number can be sent for only 1/3 per annum. Back Nos., 1 to 535, 3d. each; complete, £5; current year, 1½d. each. EWEN'S LTD., 32, Palace Square, Norwood, London, S.E.

DUTCH INDIES (583 M 603).—We have now received sheets of the following:—

Overprinted with two horizontal black bars. 15c. brown.

Issued 11.10? This stamp had previously been chronicled from "specimen" copies and, of course, has been in use a long time overprinted Java and Buiten Bezit.

GREECE (577 W 603).—The first values of the new set to be issued are the 5 and 25 lepta; also the 5l. postcard and 10l. letter-card. The designs are said not to be very pleasing.

Series 1911.
5l. dirty green (Hermes).
25l. blue.

GERMANY (521 U 603).—The remaining value of the current set has at last been issued on watermarked paper.

Wmk. Lozenges.
3 mark, lilac.

Issued 30.3.11 or earlier.

GERMAN COLONIES AND F.P.O. (597 J 603).—The Berliner Briefmarken-Zeitung (1.4.11/168) states that the 4c. German China has been issued on watermarked paper.

The Colonial stamps now (9.4.11) known with watermark are as follows:—

On Watermarked Paper.

East Africa, 2½, 4, 7½, 15, 20, 30, 45, 60h., 3 rs.
S.W. Africa, 3, 5, 10, 20 pf., 5 mk.
China, 1c., 4c., 20c., $½, $1, $2½.
Kamerun, 5, 10 pf.
Kiautschou, 1c., 2c., 4c., 10c., 20c., 40c., $½, $1, $1½, $2½.
Levant, ¼, ½, 1, 1½, 2, 2½, 4, 5, 10, 25 piastre (complete except 15 pi. on 3 mk.)
Marocco, 3, 5, 10, 25, 30, 35, 50c., 60c., 1p., 1½p., 2½p., 6½p.
Marokko, 3c., 3½p.
Togo, 5 pf.
New Guinea, Karolinen, Marianen, Marshall Is., Samoa—none yet.

GERMAN P.O., MOROCCO (596 H 603).—The following is chronicled by the Postage Stamp (8.4.11/17).

Overprinted "Marokko" instead of "Marocco." 3p. 75c. on 3 marks, violet-black, wmk. Lozenges, p. 14, carmine overprinted.

Issued 3.11. presumably in Berlin, as our last supply from Tangiers, despatched on 4.3.11, had the old overprint.

The Berliner Briefmarken Zeitung (1.4.11/168) chronicles the following:—

Overprinted Marocco, wmk. Lozenges
30c. on 25 pf.
60c. on 50 pf.
1p. on 80 pf.

The whole set is therefore now out on watermarked paper but the 3p. 75c. is surcharged "Marokko." They are not however yet in issue in Morocco, but are being sold at a premium by the Colonial Post Office in Berlin.

GRENADA (474 E 603).—We are informed by Mr. Oswald Marsh that the following has been issued.

Wmk. multiple Crown CA, coated paper.
1/- black on green.

MALTA (595 C 603).—We have received a supply of the 1/- stamp in new colours.

Printed in new colours.
1/- black on green, wmk. multiple Crown CA.
Issued 16.3.11 or earlier.

NORTHERN NIGERIA (600 Z 603).—The following are reported by Messrs. Whitfield King & Co.

New colours. Wmk. multiple Crown CA, coated paper.
2/6 black and red on blue.
10/- green and red on green.
Issued 15.3.11 or earlier.

PORTUGUESE NYASSA (591 R 603).—We illustrate the designs of the new stamps.

PORTUGUESE MOZAMBIQUE CO. (529 N 603).—The following is reported by the Postage Stamp (8.4.11/17).

Overprinted "Republica" in red.
50 reis, brown and black, white chalk-surfaced wove paper, perf. 11½.

Issued 1.11.

"Merry Forest" writes in Mekel's Weekly Stamp News (25.3.11/106):—

"According to a regulation dated January 21st, published in the government newspaper No. 19, of January 24th, the Mozambique Company is authorised to overprint any postage and due stamps, postcards and envelopes of the issues of May 14th, April 1st and May 17th, 1907, which may be discovered in Africa. Thus there will be a local and a Lisbon series."

PORTUGUESE NYASSA (591 R 603). In looking over our stock of the late issue we find an error of the 25 reis overprinted "Provisorio" with a distinct inverted A instead of V.

"Merry Forest" writes in Mekel's Weekly Stamp News (25.3.11/106).—"According to a decree of December 8th, published in the Government newspaper of December 9th, the Nyassa Company is allowed to bring into use postage stamps of the new design Rs. 2½ to 500, officially accepted as long ago as May 11th, 1910, on condition that the word "Republica" is printed in red. The use of these stamps will last from March 1st, 1911 to April 30th, when they will be demonetized."

SAN MARINO (593 I 603).—L'Echo de la Timbrologie (31.3.11/193) reports that the 15c. has been redrawn narrower in size but 1 mm. taller, giving the stamp quite a different appearance.

"Chalky Paper."

A PHILATELIC TERM DISCREDITED.

"Merry Forest" contributes to Mekeel's Weekly Stamp News (25.3.11/105) the following note translated from the Madrid Filatelico (1.11).

"Surfaced Paper (Papel Couché).—In France and Spain this term means any paper coated with a layer of glutinous material and a white dust, which when polished and dry, form a magnificent surface for delicate impressions. The white dust most employed is a very heavy substance, artificial barium sulphate ( $Ba SO_4$ ), but salts of magnesium, calcium and other bases are also used. However there is this peculiarity, that  $Ba SO_4$ , when rubbed with a silver coin blackens, while the other substances, among them, chalk (calcium carbonate  $Ca CO_3$ ), do not. Thus is explained how mistaken are the philatelists of the United Kingdom and the U.S. in applying the designation "chalky" to that variety of paper so much used by Great Britain and her colonies. The real chalky paper does not give "that black mark" which has ruined so many mint "colonials"; and the right designation for the so called "chalky" paper is barium sulphate paper."

The Encyclopædia Britannica (11th Edition) states:—"Barium Sulphate,  $Ba SO_4$ , is the most abundant of the naturally occurring barium compounds and can be obtained artificially by the addition of sulphuric acid or any soluble sulphate to a solution of a soluble barium salt, when it is precipitated as an amorphous white powder of specific gravity 4.5. It is practically insoluble in water, and is only very slightly soluble in dilute acids; it is soluble to some extent, when freshly prepared, in hot concentrated sulphuric acid, and on cooling the solution, crystals of composition  $Ba SO_4 \cdot H_2 SO_4$  are deposited. It is used as a pigment under the name of 'permanent white' or blanc fixe."

Further, we read (page 456):—

"Barytes, a widely distributed mineral composed of barium sulphate ( $Ba SO_4$ ) . . . . . Commercially, barytes is used in the preparation of barium compounds, as a body for certain kinds of paper and cloth, and as a white pigment ('permanent white'). The finely powdered and washed mineral is too crystalline and consequently of insufficient opacity to be used alone as a paint, and is therefore mixed with 'white lead,' of which material it is also used as an adulterant."

It certainly appears as if the term "chalk-surfaced paper" is wrong but it will be a little difficult now to establish a correct name, seeing that the term has been generally adopted by collectors, being translated into German as Kreidepapier.

The French catalogues have not fallen into the error, however. We read in the catalogue Yvert et Tellier:—

"COUCHE.—Se dit d'un papier dont la surface est très glacée et brillante; c'est le chalky paper des Anglais. Les séries jubilaires d'Autriche et la plupart des émissions actuelles des Colonies anglaises sont imprimées sur ce papier, qui constitue un support très mauvais pour les couleurs. Il ne faut pas mettre ces timbres dans l'eau et si on ne les protège pas, dans l'album, par une feuille de papier cristal, les couleurs se fanent et se rayent rapidement."

All the French catalogues use the term papier couché (lit. "coated paper.")

To English Collectors, the term "chalky paper" was already well-known in September, 1905, when the first stamps printed by Messrs. De La Rue & Co. on coated paper were received (See E.W.S.N. 2.9.05/No. 310), as it had been in regular use for the stamps of New South Wales since 1901, and also for the postage due stamps of the Australian Commonwealth.

But the philatelic history of the term must be much older. Gibbons' Catalogue (1899 Edition) says of the 1885 issue of Portugal (page 482, foot note):—"Chalk-surfaced paper, if only slightly rubbed with silver on the face, will show a black mark." Scott's 1897 catalogue calls it "chalky white paper." The late Mr. W. A. S. Westoby, in the Adhesive Postage Stamps of Europe (Vol. II., page 153) merely says:—"In 1894 a new kind of paper was introduced. It was very white, thick, and brittle, with an enamelled surface."

All these stamps—Portuguese, New South Wales and De La Rue issues—blacken when marked with a silver coin and therefore according to our Spanish contemporary cannot be on the real chalky paper but are on barium sulphate paper. So far as colour names are concerned the latter is "baryta white" or "permanent white" and the former "chalky white." Paper coated with either of these two pigments (as a matter of fact only the baryta white appears ever to have been used in connection with stamp printing) could be collectively described as "coated paper" or "white-surfaced" paper.

The term "surfaced" is objectionable on the ground that it is a synonym of "glazed" or "burnished." We think therefore "coated paper" is perhaps the best alternative to the discredited "chalky paper." The coating cannot be called "white" because it is really colourless, as may be seen by looking at any of the stamps printed on coloured paper.

The Flying Post.

MAILS SENT BY AEROPLANE AT ALLAHABAD.

(From the Postage Stamp, 8.4.11/13).

A NUMBER of correspondents send us particulars from the Indian newspapers of what is described as the first aerial post. It will be remembered by many stamp collectors that during the siege of Paris in 1870, and in several other sieges, balloons—manned or otherwise—have been used for communication with the outer world. Captain W. Windham, a British officer, who has been associated with the aeroplane since its adoption by the Army, desired by means of practical experiment to demonstrate the utility of the aeroplane in such a situation as any city might find itself in case of war.

Obtaining permission from the Postmaster-General of the United Provinces of Agra and Oudh, approved and sanctioned by the Director-General of the Indian Post Office, the Captain recently made his experiment in the shape of the first official aerial post, which operated from the United Provinces Exhibition at Allahabad in February to a Post Office Receiving Station outside the Exhibition, and from thence the letters were despatched to their addresses in all parts of the world.

BY PERMISSION OF THE POST OFFICE.

Both the Director-General and Postmaster-General were highly interested in the experiment. The Exhibition Post Office used a special die for cancelling the stamp on letters by this mail, the die being cut in the Postal Workshops at Aligarh, incorporating a design of the actual aeroplane which carried the aeronaut, Mons. H. Piquet, and the inscription within a double circle "First Aerial Post, U.P. Exhibition, Allahabad, 1911."

The manner in which letters were accepted for conveyance by this mail will be best understood by the following rules which senders had to observe.

RULES FOR THE FLYING POST.

1. Only postcards and letters not exceeding one ounce will be accepted.

2. Letters (or postcards) for transit must be addressed, stamped and fastened in the ordinary way. Enclose the letter or postcard in a second envelope, together with a British Postal Order for sixpence, and forward the same to care of the chaplain, Holy Trinity Church, Allahabad, who has, by arrangement, undertaken to hand them over to the Postal Authorities. For convenience, eight annas in stamps will be accepted in lieu of the Postal Order for sixpence.

3. A British Postal Order for sixpence can be obtained at any Post Office in India for six and a half annas.

4. Letters and postcards will be received through the post or by hand to the above address up to Saturday, the 18th February, 1911.

Any letter or postcard arriving after this date will be despatched in the ordinary way, but will not be carried by aeroplane, or the stamps impressed with the special design.

5. Local letters can be delivered by hand at the Oxford and Cambridge Hostel, but they must be stamped and accompanied by six annas in cash, for which a receipt will be given.

THE RECEIVING STATION.

This was chosen by the Postmaster-General, and was a Naina, so that the aeroplane had to cross the River Jumna from the Exhibition at Allahabad. The place was chosen as it is the nearest point on the main line between Calcutta and Bombay. From the receiving office the letters were despatched by rail in the ordinary way.

The Post Office would not sanction any charge above the ordinary postage being made, but the additional six annas was levied simply to avoid overloading the mail and was to be given without deduction as a donation to the new buildings of the Oxford and Cambridge Hostel, Allahabad, an institution engaged in educational work among the natives of India.

The subject has more to do with fancy post-marking than with philately, but we doubt not but that posterity may be curious over the large circular postmark on Indian stamps, so we add the following points from the batch of cuttings sent us by various correspondents in India and at home.

TIT-BITS OF INFORMATION.

Some enthusiasts sent hatches of letters, each letter bearing a stamp of different denomination to receive the special postmark.

One letter bore Indian stamps to the face value of Rs. 25.

Kings, Queens, and celebrities of many nations were included among the addressees.

About 5,500 letters, etc., were taken up by M. Piquet—and were landed safely at Naina.

The aviator signed about 400 postcards.

The mails were brought in two post office bags to the aviation shed where they were re-sealed by Mr. Bason, Postmaster, and tied to the bi-plane.

M. Piquet left the aviation ground a little after 3.30, circled twice round the ground, and then made straight for Naini.

He alighted gracefully in a specially prepared ground near the Central Jail after being about thirteen minutes in the air.

The mail-day was Saturday, February 18th. Letters for Calcutta were delivered on the Monday morning.

The Hostel benefits to the extent of about Rs. 2,100.

All the letters which bore sufficient stamps were registered whether asked for or not. The official number of registered letters is given by the Post Office as 931, or about one-sixth of the total.

An Allahabad correspondent tells us that the senders were mostly Europeans, "the taste of Philately being not cultured yet in the Natives."

A number of official letters bore O.H.M.S. stamps.

Census of Portraits on Stamps.

From the Philatelic Journal of Gt. Britain.

A well-known French journal, Le Echo de la Timbrologie, recently held a competition by offering a prize for the reader who could compile the most exact list of Kings, Queens and other personages whose portrait had been most often depicted on stamps. As a result of this competition the publishers of our contemporary have drawn up a list of all personages whose portraits have appeared on more than 30 different stamps, and this we reproduce below for the benefit of our readers. In making the compilation the catalogue of Yvert et Tellier, 1910, was used, and all stamps shown in there in large type (which include perforations, imperforate and surcharged varieties) were taken into account.

These 40 personages, L'Echo informs us, form only a minority in the gallery of portraits which the collector might get together. On Oct. 1st, 1909, the date of the appearance of the catalogue, this gallery was composed of 313 different personages, and a number which is increased every year by the small States which wish to make their celebrities known to the world. Certain American Republics make a preposterous demand on the memories of philatelists by imposing on them such a number of illustrious men whose names are often very difficult to retain. The palm is awarded to Ecuador which offers us the portraits of 30 different people. The United States follows closely with 28 great men; then comes Argentine with 22; the Philippines, under the successive dominations of Spain and the United States, 14; this number is equalled by Hawaii; then comes Brazil, 12; Peru, 11; and Costa Rica, Bolivia, and Antioquia with six national celebrities apiece.

The Week's News.

The Editor is always pleased to receive Early Information of New Issues, or of Discoveries interesting to Stamp Collectors.

The index number and serial letter after the title of each paragraph indicate the issue of E.W.S.N. in which the last reference to that country appeared.

GREAT BRITAIN.—Current Issue (601 E 604).—We quote from the Westminster Gazette (13.4.11):—

GEORGE V. NEW STAMPS.

"The Postmaster-General has decided to issue books of stamps for sale at face value of the stamps they contain. The books will be similar to those which have already been on sale, except that they will contain twelve (instead of eleven) ½d. stamps and eighteen 1d. stamps. The first issue will be made toward the end of June next and will contain the new George V. stamps. These little books are in a most useful and convenient form for carrying stamps. Notwithstanding that an extra charge of ½d. per book is at present made, the sale already exceeds a million a year, and when this charge is abolished, and 2s. worth of stamps is sold for 2s., it is expected that the sale of these books will be very largely increased, running probably into many millions a year. The book will be improved and thicker paper will be used for the inter-leaves. There are certainly exceptional merits for these books as an advertising medium, they are a suitable size to carry in the waistcoat pocket, and the advertisements come under notice whenever a stamp is withdrawn, and they will remain in almost daily use until the stamps are used and another book required. The public will be greatly interested in the new books, and their popularity will be much increased when they are for sale at post-offices throughout the United Kingdom containing the new stamps. Sell's Advertising Agency, Limited, have been appointed the sole contractors for the insertion of advertisements."

CUBA (599 C 604).—A new value is chronicled by Mekeel's Weekly—15c. slate.

CANADA (601 R 604).—From the Times (12.4.11).

THE NEW CANADIAN POSTAGE STAMP.

(From Our Correspondent.)

Ottawa, April 11.

Mr. Lemieux, Postmaster-General, stated in the House of Commons to-day that it was not the intention of the Government to offer prizes for the best designs for Canadian postage stamps of the new reign. The Home authorities had submitted a design, but the department had not yet passed judgment on it. It was decided that it was unsatisfactory then the artists of the American Bank Note Company, which had the contract for printing Canadian stamps, would furnish a design.

GREECE (603 X 604).—Concerning the new stamps, Mr. F. J. Melville writes in the Evening News (8.4.11):—

It is a curious commentary on the clamour in Great Britain for artistic stamps for home "consumption" that Greece, the Mother of Arts, should come to this country to get her postage stamps engraved. Some years ago a well-known London firm printed a series of stamps for the Greek Government to issue in connection with the revival of the Olympic Games. Now a London engraver, Mr. Thomas Macdonald, has prepared dies for a handsome new series of stamps, the issue of which has just commenced in Greece.

The 5 lepta and 25 lepta denominations of the new series are now in use, and other values are expected to appear gradually, as the stock of the old stamps becomes exhausted.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES. Ewen's Weekly Stamp News can be sent post free to any address in any country for one year for 4/4 ($1.06, Mk. 4.50 or fr. 5.50). Each change of address, 6d. extra. Half year, 3/3; 3 months, 1/7½. A special limited subscription has also been arranged; every 5th number can be sent for only 1/3 per annum. Back Nos., 1 to 535, 3d. each; complete, £5; current year, 1½d. each. EWEN'S LTD., 32, Palace Square, Norwood, London, S.E.

HERMES—THE POSTMAN.

There are four distinct designs, all characteristically Greek, distributed in a series which will probably comprise sixteen stamp values in all.

The 1 lepton and 3 and 10 lepta values bear the head of Hermes, the fleet-footed messenger of the gods, the design following a 2 drachmai coin issued in Sybrita, Crete, in the fifth century B.C.

The 2, 20, 25 and 40 lepta will show Iris, the virgin goddess, swift as the breeze, who was the special messenger of Zeus and Hera. To her is attributed more than is possible to the postman of modern times, for she could bear their messages to the ends of the earth, yet even to the River Styx, and she undertook submarine journeys as well. The design for the stamp is taken from an old coin and shows the goddess standing before a Doric temple.

ARCAS OF ARCADIA.

The 5, 30, and 50 lepta stamps bear a design taken from another Sybritan coin, one of the fourth century B.C. It shows Hermes putting on his winged sandals preparatory to a journey. Hermes has been a standard favourite for the stamp designs of Greece from the earliest issues, and philatelists would be sorry to miss him from any new series of stamps emanating from that classic region. The fourth design, which is being used for the 1 drachme and 2, 3, 5, and 10 drachmai values, also shows Hermes, this time carrying the baby Arcas, the ancestor of the Arcadians, possibly at the bidding of Zeus. This fourth design is taken from a coin issued in the fourth century B.C. in Pheneus, Arcadia.

As I have said, the engraving has been done in London and is a beautiful example of the art; the paper, too, has been supplied from this country. The printing, however, is being done by G. Aspiostis Frères, of Corfu, whither the plates have been sent, together with the machinery required for the production of stamps by the process known as "copper-plate" printing, but which is in this case being done from fine steel plates on the same principle.

PORTUGUESE MOZAMBIQUE (600 R 604).—We are informed by Messrs. Lewis May & Co. that they have received a 50 reis overprinted "Republica" in green reading downwards.

SIERRA LEONE (595 T 604).—We have received the 6d. in a slightly different shade of purple.

The West African climate is a very bad one for chalk-surface stamps; the "chalkiness" seems to disappear and as previously noted in the case of Southern Nigeria, stocks which were on chalk-surfaced paper when sent out to the colony, now refuse absolutely to answer to the coin test, although they may still be distinguished by the shades.

ST. LUCIA (528 G 604).—We have received a limited supply of sheets of the following.

New colour.

6d. purple (instead of lilac and violet), wmk. multiple Crown CA, chalk-surfaced paper.

Issued 18.3.11 or earlier. Our agent was unable to obtain all he applied for and the Post Office clerk refused to say whether any more would be issued. It will be remembered that precisely the same thing happened in the case of the 3d. and 1/- new colours, the postal authorities declining to procure a sufficient stock from the Treasury to meet requisitions with the result that we were a year obtaining all we required. It is to be hoped that we shall not have to wait so long in the case of the 6d. stamp. Our New Issue Service is fortunately almost completed.

SOUTHERN NIGERIA (586 T 604).—Mr. T. F. Marriner, Hon. Sec. of the Carlisle Philatelic Society, informs the Postage Stamp

(8.4.11/18) that the head die of the current issue was retouched in 1905. He states that the first stamp to be printed from plates made from the retouched die was the 2/6 watermarked Crown and CA (multiple), and all subsequent printings have been from these new plates. The distinguishing characteristic of the original die is, he states, the broken shading on the King's cheek, while in stamps printed later than 1905 this shading is unbroken and clear.

SWEDEN (599 B 604).—Another value of the official set is reported by the Berliner Briefmarken-Zeitung (1.4.11/168).

Official stamp.

4 öre, pale lilac.

The same journal chronicles new Envelopes for printed matter, values 2 öre, orange and 4 öre, lilac.

SWITZERLAND (588 N 604).—There is some prospect of a 5 franc stamp being issued here and the postal administration have already tentatively chosen the design, representing the monument of the three Swiss that Vibert of Geneva is creating for the purpose of adorning the staircase at the House of Parliament in Berne.

TONGA (599 M 604).—A new letter-card is reported by the Berliner Briefmarken-Zeitung (1.4.11/168).

Letter-card. Portrait of the King in an oval, above Toga; below Peni e Taha moe koga (one penny halfpenny); at sides, palms.

1½d. copper-red on blue.

TURKEY (595 L 604).—Borek's Neuheiten-Preisliste (1.4.11/5) states that in connection with the projected visit of the Sultan Mohammed V. to Salonica and his tour in the Albanian province, there is to be a special commemorative issue of stamps, which will bear the date 1327. The set will comprise 8 values—2, 5, 10, 20 paras, 1, 2, 2½, 5 piastres. The stamps are already printed and will only remain in use two days. But as only 500,000 stamps in all are said to have been printed, they will probably be bought up at once, especially the low values. The stamps will also be issued in Salonica, Uskub, Monastir, etc., which towns are included in the Sultan's tour.

The Vienna Exhibition.

We have now received the prospectus of the International Philatelic Exhibition to be held at Vienna on the 7th to the 17th September, 1911.

The jury will comprise the following gentlemen:—

E. D. Bacon	Great Britain
Eugen Bayer	Austria (Bohemia)
Fred. Breitfuss	Russia
M. P. Castle	Great Britain
Albert Coyette	France
Dr. Emilio Diena	Italy
O. W. Friedl	Austria
Franz Hasler	Switzerland
Hans Kropf	Austria (Bohemia)
M. Langlois	France
Dr. med. A. Levin	Sweden
C. Lindenberg	German
H. P. Manus	Holland
Z. J. Pallausch	Austria
A. von Raimann	"
A. de Reuterskiöld	Switzerland
A. Schomann	Hungary
Ernst Vicenz	Germany
Fr. Walenta	Austria (Bohemia)
R. B. Yardley	Great Britain

Apart from the more important exhibits, the jury will be divided into groups, each being responsible for judging a section of the exhibits, which it will thus be possible to deal with more thoroughly and promptly.

The important dates to remember are:—

30th May. Latest date for applications for space; 6/8 per square metre for the first 5 sq. m. and 4/2 per sq. m. for further space (one sq. m. equals 10 4.5 sq. ft.). For collections the charge is 12/6 for the first volume and 6/8 for every additional volume, or if the volumes contain more than 100 leaves with stamps, then the same rates per 100 leaves. Junior collectors pay 8/4 and 4/2 respectively only. Insurance 1/8 per £42 extra.

29th June. Latest date for forwarding descriptions of exhibits for insertion in the official catalogue.

1st to 5th September. All exhibits must be delivered between these dates to Mr. Adolf Passer, Hon. Sec. International Philatelic Exhibition, Vienna 1911, 4 Müllnergasse, Vienna IX.

7th September (Thursday). The exhibition will be opened by the Patron, His Excellency, the Minister of Commerce, Dr. Richard Weiskirchner, and by the Hon. President, the Postmaster-General, Sectionschef Dr. Friedrich Ritter Wagner von Jauregg. It will remain open daily from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. The exhibition is to be held in the Hall of Arts, at the "Secession," the magnificent building of the Austrian Association of Painters and Artists. The Hall is lighted from the roof, sunlight being excluded from the exhibits.

17th September (Sunday). The exhibition will be officially closed in the evening, when the closing Banquet and the distribution of prizes will take place.

THE EXHIBITS.

The exhibits are classified as follows, each class being subdivided into sections, and a gold, a silver and a bronze medal is offered in each section.

- A.—Austria, Hungary, Bosnia, etc.
- B.—German Empire, States, Colonies, etc.
- C.—Italy, States, Colonies, etc.
- D.—Great Britain and Colonies.
- E.—France and Colonies.
- F.—Other European States and Colonies.
- G.—Non-European States.
- H.—Champion Class, for Collections only which have previously obtained a first prize at an International Exhibition.
- J.—Stamps on entires.
- K.—Studies of single issues or single stamps. [We infer from this, that exhibits in classes A to H must be complete collections of a country].
- L.—New Issues.
- M.—General Collections in printed or plain albums.
- N.—General Collections shown by junior collectors; (a) 17 to 20 years; (b) under 17 years.
- O.—Rarities, shown by (a) collectors; (b) dealers.
- P.—Essays, Proofs, Curiosities, Forgeries, etc.
- Q.—Entires.
- R.—Fiscals, Telegraph stamps, Unofficial stamps.
- S.—Philatelic Literature.
- T.—Philatelic Accessories.
- U.—Jubilee and Charity stamps, etc.

Exhibitors, on receiving an allotment of space, will be furnished with a printed address label, the use of which will save the parcel from being opened en route by the Austrian Customs authorities, who will attend instead at the Exhibition building and open the parcels in the presence of members of the Exhibition Committee.

We are very glad to see the inclusion of class K, as the condition that an exhibit of a country must be representative of all the issues has always seemed to us a very onerous one.

Copies of the Prospectus may be obtained on application post free from Ewen's Colonial Stamp Market, Ltd.

Vienna, the capital of the Austro-Hungarian Empire, is situated on the Danube and is about two and a-half times as far from London as Glasgow, the journey, however, taking nearly four times as long. Leaving London on Tuesday, 5th September, at 8.30 p.m., and travelling via Liverpool Street, Harwich, Hoek van Holland, Rotterdam, Hanover, Brunswick, Leipzig, Dresden, and Prague, one would pay £12 18s. 6d. first class return fare, or £8 2s. 10d. second class return fare, and arrive at 7.40 a.m. on Thursday, 7th Sept., in good time for the opening of the Exhibition.

One can also travel via Ostend or Calais, Cologne, Frankfurt on Main and Nuremberg, the fare being a few shillings more. Or by paying nearly double, one can avail one's self of all the luxury of the Orient Express, which runs three times a week from Paris, through Wurtemberg, Bavaria, Austria, Hungary, Servia and Bulgaria to Constantinople. The Ostend-Vienna direct express is also expensive, the return fare being £19 10s. 0d.

Vienna is 14 hours by train from Belgrade (Servia); 13 hours from Berlin; 4 hours from Budapest; 10 hours from Carlsbad; 33 hours from Cettigne, Montenegro (by steamer and diligence); 40 hours by train from Constantinople; 10 hours from Dresden; 11 hours from Innsbruck; 9 hours from Marienbad; 8 hours from Prague; 2 hours from Semmering; 25 hours from Serajevo, Bosnia; 12 hours from Trieste; 16 hours from Warsaw.

Austria is a wonderful country for languages and dialects. For instance, the inscriptions on postcards are printed in German, Bohemian,

Italian, Illyrian, Polish, Ruthenian, Slovenian, Roumanian or Croatian according to the district in which they are sold, whilst Hungary and Bosnia have their own postcards with inscriptions in Magyar and Serbian respectively. But the traveller who keeps to the chief cities will find that he can get along with German or even English.

The Editor had the pleasure of paying a flying visit to Vienna at the beginning of September 1908 and can recommend three excursions which he made. The first was by motor-car from Vienna about 10 a.m. to Mödling, Heiligenkreuz, Pottenstein, Pernitz, Gutenstein, Mira Falls and back to Vienna in the evening. The second was by train to Semmering, a summer resort in the mountains; and the third by motor-car along the banks of the Danube into Hungary. It may be remarked that in the latter case the roads were up and the temporary sign-posts were inscribed in Magyar only; they are usually in German as well. It is therefore well to ascertain beforehand the Magyar names of places as well as the English or German, as the former are usually totally different. In the case in question, for instance, "To Pressburg" read "Pozsony fele."

We strongly recommend those of our readers who can to make Vienna their objective during their summer holidays this year.

Class K at the Vienna Exhibition.

THE inclusion at the Vienna Exhibition of a class for collections limited to a single issue or stamp is very welcome and we hope that it will do much to encourage the formation of miniature collections, which have for so long been advocated in Ewen's Weekly Stamp News. Only a fortnight ago, in our notes on the Royal Philatelic Society, we emphasized the importance of these limited philatelic studies and we are glad to see that they are at last to be recognized at an Exhibition. We shall not be surprised if at future exhibitions the cumbersome classes for entire collections eventually disappear, except perhaps in the Championship sections.

On this subject Mr. F. J. Melville writes in the Daily Telegraph:—

An important innovation is Class K, for which are invited specialised collections in different arrangements, studies of single issues, or single stamps ("plating," &c.), which could not compete with complete collections of the respective countries. The introduction of this class should greatly enhance the popularity of philatelic exhibitions with the modest collector, who finds the specialisation of a complete country or group too big a task. Hitherto, it has been a practice to exclude collections from the awards if they did not cover the whole field, and, as many of the older collectors limit their studies to stamps issued before 1890 or 1900, and others begin their collections at other convenient dates, all these have been barred from participating in the awards at previous exhibitions. At last year's exhibition at Berne there was a particularly fine collection-study of the penny lithographed stamp of Trinidad, 1852-1860, showing an immense amount of original work. It impressed the judges, but as the collection did not cover the whole field of Trinidad issues, they had to mark their appreciation by an award outside of the competition.

In this connection, it may not be without interest to recall that commencing with No. 1 of Ewen's Weekly Stamp News, issued on 30th September, 1899, we published in serial form a simplified catalogue of the stamps of the British Colonies, in which for the first time a distinct line was drawn between stamps and varieties of them due to the exigencies of manufacture. In a foot note we wrote:—

This catalogue has been compiled mainly in the hope of benefiting those collectors who wish, whilst devoting their best efforts to specialism, still to keep slightly in touch with the stamps of our whole Colonial Empire. If the varieties described in the notes to each issue be ignored, a very interesting general collection may be formed without taxing to the utmost the energy and purse of the collector, thus leaving him free to specialise the most interesting countries or issues.

In E.W.S.N., No. 2 some articles on miniature specialized collections were announced, and in No. 4, under the heading of "Philatelic Sketches" we described the possibilities—as they were then known—of a collection limited to the 1d. black of Great Britain.

This system of collecting however found no favour with the committee of the International Philatelic Exhibition held in London in May 1906, who insisted on complete collections of a country, even specifying in the case of Great Britain that exhibits should include "official stamps and fiscals available for postage." It is true that Class I., Section III. admitted "Telegraph, or Railway Letter Fee, or College Stamps, in separate exhibits" but either exhibit was expected to be complete, which prevented, for instance, the editor showing any portion of his collection of railway stamps (the whole would have filled nearly the entire hall!).

It will be interesting to see how class K fares at the Vienna Exhibition.

Questions.

AN Indian client asks the following questions and as possibly other beginners may be interested in the replies we publish them.

Q.—When a perf. is mentioned as perf. 11 × 12, which perf. is supposed to be the top and bottom?

A.—The top and bottom gauge is always mentioned first. The subject is, however, not entirely free from controversy, as a difficulty arises in the case of a perforation produced by a comb machine. A comb machine can only perforate stamps of one particular size, but they may be either upright rectangles or oblong in shape. If the comb machine gauged 11 × 12 the one shape of stamps would gauge 11 × 12 and the other 12 × 11, although perforated by the same machine! To remedy this, it was suggested that the shortest sides of the stamp should be gauged first, but the idea has not been adopted.

Senf (Leipzig) says:—"Die erste Zähnungsangabe gilt stets für die Breite, die zweite für die Höhe, z. B., gez. 10 : 12½ = wagerecht gez. 10, senkrecht gez. 12½."

Yvert (France) says:—"Dentelés 13 × 14 signifie que le côté horizontal a 13 dents et le côté vertical 14 . . . contenus dans une longueur de deux centimètres."

* * *

Q.—When a perf. is said to be compound of 12½ and 11, which perf. is the top and how do you tell a compound perf.?

A.—A stamp is said to have compound perforation when the horizontal gauge is different to the vertical, but opposite sides of the stamp must gauge alike. Thus, a stamp is perforated compound whether it gauges 12½ × 11 or 11 × 12½ and the usual description is not "11 × 12½" but "11 with 12½." For the sake of brevity "x" or "w" respectively can be substituted for the prepositions "by" and "with."

Q.—What is meant by mixed perfs. and how can they be distinguished?

A.—A perforation is said to be mixed when the gauge of one side of a stamp does not agree with that of the opposite side. Thus, a stamp perforated 12½ at the top and 11 on the other three sides has "mixed" perforation; the gauge may be written for short "perf. 11, 12½" (with a comma instead of the w or x) or in detail "perf. 12½, 11 × 11, 11," the top and bottom gauges coming first and then those of the left and right sides respectively.

There is a fourth category of perforation called "irregular" where the "teeth" are not spaced according to a regular gauge and in describing this, the preposition "to" replaces "by" or "with" or the comma. Perf. 11 to 12½ means that the perforation may gauge any number of holes from 11 to 12½ in the space of 2 cm. The gauge can also be written with a hyphen "11-12½."

Q.—Which is the correct way to read a watermark?

A.—The watermark is correctly seen by holding the stamp against the light and looking through the face of it. A watermark may often be more easily read by looking through the back or by laying the stamp face downwards on a black surface, but will then appear in a reversed position.

In the "four heraldic flowers" or "emblems" watermark of Great Britain the flowers can only be seen in their correct position—the thistle on the left and the shamrock on the right—by looking through the stamp. If the watermark is examined from the back of the stamp (as is usual in practice) the shamrock will appear on the left (as in the illustration in Gibbons' catalogue).

The terms "inverted" and "reversed" are treated in dictionaries as synonymous, but "inverted" in a philatelic sense is limited to the idea of "turned upside down", whilst "reversed" signifies "turned back" or "the opposite way". By looking at the back of the stamp, one sees a reversed watermark; by inverting the stamp the watermark appears inverted. If the stamp is not entirely inverted but is only turned half way round, the watermark will appear sideways.

It follows from this that when a stamp is looked at upside down and the watermark appears in a normal position it is really inverted; if the watermark appears normal when the back of the stamp is looked at it is really reversed; and if the stamp is held sideways resting on its right side and looked at through the face and the watermark then appears normal it is really sideways; similarly if the stamp is held resting on its left side, the watermark is said to be "sideways inverted" if such a term is permissible.

The Week's News.

The Editor is always pleased to receive Early Information of New Issues, or of Discoveries interesting to Stamp Collectors.

The index number and serial letter after the title of each paragraph indicate the issue of E.W.S.N. in which the last reference to that country appeared.

GREAT BRITAIN.—Current Issue (604 F 605).—The perforation of letter-cards wants improving, but that of the postage stamps does not leave much to be desired, except that the stamps separate more readily vertically than horizontally whereas the reverse should be the case, as the stamps are more often purchased in multiples of one shilling than of tenpence. We quote from the Daily Chronicle (20.4.11):—

BETTER PERFORATED STAMPS.

"In the House of Commons yesterday the Postmaster-General informed a Member that he had arranged for certain alterations which would, he thought, be found to improve the perforation both of stamps and of letter-cards."

Unadhesive Stamps (603 Q 605).—We are shown the ½d. die 70 by Mr. A. R. Hayward; earliest date 7.4.11.

The list of die-numbers now known is as follows:—

Envelope Dies. List of die-numbers known.

King George V. ascended the throne on 6th May, 1910, so that 50 weeks had elapsed on 22nd April, 1911. It is noteworthy that none of the unadhesive stamps of the last reign were issued until the first adhesive stamps had appeared with King Edward's portrait, so that perhaps we may have to wait till the first days of July for Envelope dies with King George's portrait.

BARBADOS (597 N 605).—A correspondent informs us that on 28.3.11 the member for St. John's gave notice in the House of Assembly of his intention to introduce a bill called a Stamp Duties Bill. This may bring about a change in the present stamps, if it passes.

CHILE (583 N 605).—The Tarapacá Filatelico 3.11/96 states that there is some prospect of the 15c. commemorative stamp being withdrawn and surcharged Estatua de O'Higgins ("Statue of O'Higgins") as it was an equivocation to denominate it with the inscription, "First departure of the Liberator-Squadron."

FIJI ISLANDS (601 K 605).—We quote from the Australian Stamp Journal (10.3.11/66):— "Mr. Arthur H. Ogilvie, of Suva, writes us as follows in a letter dated 14th January, 1911:

"On the 3rd January some curious fiscal stamps came into use in Fiji, viz.: The £1, 5/-, 1/-, 6d., current postage stamps, surcharged in black, with the capital letter R about ¼ inch in length, and a 2mm. line running perpendicularly through the stamp entirely obliterating the word 'postage.' These stamps are intended as a check on the money paid for licenses such as coasting, hotel and trading licenses, and other revenue purposes, and are placed on the counterfoil of the license issued and duly initialled and dated by the officer issuing the license, so that they may be seen by the auditor."

"The sheets of postage stamps so surcharged have the black line running from top to bottom of each column of stamps, except for a small hiatus between the sixth and seventh rows."

"As some licenses cost up to £50 each, and as there is no higher stamp than £1 at present, a great many stamps will be wanted, and should cause the present issue to be exhausted quickly, and in consequence we may expect 5/- and £1 stamp in the new colours soon. I understand that fiscals of greater denomination will be made by surcharging those of the present issue with higher values."

"The authorities state that on no account will they allow either used or unused stamps to leave the Government Departments."

GILBERT & ELLICE ISLANDS (599 E 605).—A number of our readers, both here and on the Continent, have received sets of these stamps from the Islands, but we regret to have to report that up to the present our own orders have received no attention.

Dr. Voisin has received the complete set overprinted on Fiji used on a letter postmarked Ocean Island, 4.3.11.

Mr. C. R. Robinson has received a letter dated 25.2.11 and postmarked Gilbert and Ellice Islands Protectorate, 4th March, 1911, enclosing a supply of the stamps.

Mr. W. H. Earl tells us he received an (otherwise) empty envelope with a set of the surcharged stamps in it creased and folded in any fashion. The envelope is franked with two 2½d. stamps of the Pandanus tree type and is dated in the corner 24.2.11 but postmarked Ocean Island, 4.3.11, Sydney 16.3.11 and London 23.4.11.

HUNGARY (565 H 605).—The following is chronicled by Die Post (8.4.11).

With the new watermark.
5 korona, brown lilac.

JAMAICA (598 Z 605).—The Gleaner (8.4.11/22) states that only a small quantity of the 2d. King Edward stamp was printed and the stock is running low.

The Gleaner understands that the Georgian Jamaicans will arrive in the Colony some time in 6.11.

The 4d. and 2/- old colours with multiple watermark are mentioned as being likely to prove two very good stamps.

NEWFOUNDLAND (60: D 605).—We are shown the following variety by Mr. A. C. Roessler (11.4.11):—

Lithographed. Guy set.
6c. imperf. (Reversed Z type).

It is presumably only a printer's waste sheet, but it seems to have reached the Post Office at St. John's and may have been issued.

Our correspondent also has a freak block of 1c. which is variously perforated 11, 11½, 12, 12½, and 14. This is also probably of the same nature as the 6c. imperf.

The 1c. to 5c. values will not be engraved, so the Guy set may be looked upon now as complete, apart from freaks, errors and printer's waste.

There is to be a new set soon.

PAPUA (601 A 605).—Correction.—The uncoloured stamps were described as 5 rows of 8; this should have been 8 rows of 5.

These stamps are generally considered to be very feeble productions and it is a pity the authorities should have tried to improve on lithography, which produced very excellent results.

The Australian Stamp Journal (10.3.11/60) states:—

"We have seen the first of the new Papuan stamps printed from electros in Melbourne, and we cannot compliment Mr. Cooke on the result of his handiwork. They are not to be compared with the engraved stamps, and in general appearance they are not a 'patch' on the lithographed bi-colour stamps. The central vignette loses considerably through being in the same colour as the frame, and our opinion is that the electros are not deep enough, i.e., the plates do not take enough ink; perhaps further printings will show an improvement. We were astonished on seeing the pale washed-out colour of the penny, as recent issues have led us to the conclusion that the Government printer had set his mind on intensifying the colours of all the denominations, of which we have had evidence already. It may be that our judgment is premature, and that other specimens will look better, but we are, so far, disappointed, as we expected to see something really nice and creditable. There is one consolation that the new stamps will be minus all those perplexing varieties which have worried several collectors for the past few years—at least we hope so."

On page 66, our contemporary states:—"It is more than probable that the new single-colour series will contain some additional values (2s. and 5s.), but it is almost certain that some considerable time will elapse before the complete set will have found its way on the market, owing to the fact that there are still large stocks of some of the old bi-colour series."

PORTUGUESE INDIA (600 R 605).—The current issue overprinted "Republica" is chronicled by the Illustriertes Briefmarken-Journal (22.4.11/191).

Overprinted "Republica" in red (except the 1t. which has overprint in green). Value in black.

[1 real, grey, already chronicled].

- 1½ reis, grey-lilac.
- 2 " salmon.

PORTUGUESE MOZAMBIQUE COMPANY (604 S 605).—We have now seen the stamp referred to last week and find that it is for the Mozambique Company and not for Mozambique.

Surcharged "Republica" in green.
50 reis, brown.

The Schweizerische Philatelistische Nachrichten (4.11/88) chronicles the complete set as follows:—

	Surcharge.
2½r. grey	red
5r. ochre	green
10r. green	red
15r. blue-green	"
20r. pale lilac	green
25r. scarlet	"

75r. claret	"
100r. blue on light blue	red
115r. brown on rose	green
130r. lilac-brown on yellow	"
200r. claret on rose	"
400r. dark blue on yellow	red
500r. black on light blue	"
700r. dark lilac on yellow	green

We are informed by Mr. J. A. Sutherland that he has the set posted from Mozambique on 24.2.11.

SOUTH AUSTRALIA (595 S 605).—We have just received a fresh consignment of stamps from this State (issued 21.3.11).

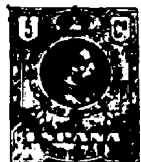

The only sheets which have numbers are the following:—

½d. Crown A, p. 12.	½d. 55546 in black.
3d. value 20mm.	3d. 10584 "
3d. value 17mm.	3d. 10585 "
4d. value 18mm.	4d. 9292 "

The 6d. 15 to 16mm. are similar to those received last time (E.W.S.N. No. 563) which had sheet No. 6d. 29634. Before the 3d. 20mm. we had a 3d. 19½mm. with No. 3d. 7083. There would thus appear to be fairly frequent printings of some of the values. The 3d. sheet, with value 20mm., has a number pasted on indicating perhaps that it is a throw-out from a previous supply and had been overlooked the first time.

SPAIN (576 V 605).—The 25c. stamp chronicled six months ago was perforated 13½ × 12½ like the other values of the current set. A specimen before us bears No. A 429,522.

Mr. J. H. Chapman has now discovered this value perf. 14 and what is specially noteworthy is that the numbers on the backs of the stamps—A 492461 and A 500885—indicate that it is a new printing. There is therefore some prospect that other values besides the 5, 10, 15 and 25c. already chronicled may turn up with the 14-gauge perforation.

Perf. 14 instead of perf. 13 × 12½.
25c. blue.

Issued 6.4.11 or earlier.

TRANSVAAL (576 B 605).—A supply of ½d. stamps just received is in a much darker shade of green than previous supplies.

URUGUAY (596 A 605).—The Illustriertes Briefmarken Journal (22.4.11/192) chronicles a new set of official stamps.

Post-cards and Envelopes.

(By R.P.J. in the Bazaar, Exchange & Mart. 8.4.11).

"HOPE SPRINGS ETERNAL," and nowhere more strongly than in the breast of the collector of "entires." Once again there has been an outbreak of lamentation in the philatelic Press that post-cards, wrappers, and envelopes are so neglected. In this country it is hardly too much to say that collectors of them are non-existent, as only a few years ago an attempt to form a corresponding society, to be devoted to their cult, failed to attract the twenty members deemed necessary to foundation.

Mr. B. W. Warhurst,* whose continuous advocacy of these philatelic cinderellas is deserving of all our admiration, has conducted an exchange club for the last ten years. During that period he has distributed 36,000 pieces; but apparently the effort has not merited continuation, and the exchange has, we understand, been given up. Mr. Warhurst has now issued an appeal to philatelists and philatelic societies to found an association to carry on the work.

It is curious that in the search for new fields entires should continue to be neglected, and yet, despite all that has been written on the subject, we are inclined to think that their position is even worse to-day than it was ten years ago. Time was when new issue columns heralded new post-cards and envelopes with as much care as they still do adhesives. Mr. Warhurst himself, we believe, for some time conducted a regular column on this subject in one of the great philatelic organs, and even ran heroically enough a quarterly called Postal Cards and Covers without much success. Then came the ban of the great house of Gibbons (after their last entire catalogue in 1899), declining to list, import, chronicle, or sell entires after 31st December, 1900, and in December, 1905, the whole of their stock of entires was sold by auction. Very many recent issues of cards and envelopes have not reached this country at all, and we have reached the lowest depths of ignorance and apathy about them. The position is little better elsewhere. Our German friends have, it is true, not forsaken them; but they indulge in the cut-square, an abomination which has long since been excluded from British albums, no doubt thereby hastening their final exclusion. Senf's catalogue entires fully and descriptively, and the German philatelic Press still has articles from time to time on the subject, the most noteworthy, perhaps, being one lately on the entires of Roumania in the Deutsche Briefmarken Zeitung. How many British collectors know aught about them?

France, if we may judge from one piece of evidence, is also neglectful, the two first post-cards of Reunion, which are catalogued at £4 each having fetched but 35s. at Le Roy d'Etiolles auction in 1907. There is, or was, a corresponding postal-card society in the United States, and we gather that all the postal stationery of the great republic is cared for by the average States collector; that of the world at large is left alone. Even those in high places here decline to interest themselves in the matter. Witness Major Evans' attempt to get the Royal Philatelic Society to complete its handbook on British India. Until the recent new edition of Messrs. Bright's catalogue, part ii., it is not too much to say that the history of entires in this country in the last few years can be summed up in two words—Mr. Warhurst. Now, however, there is a chance of some revival of interest. The King (when still Prince of Wales) and other members of the Royal Philatelic Society have presented it with a reference collection of over 3000 entires, and a conditional promise of 2000 more on the establishment of an entire section has also been received. It is certainly a pity that, while every petty variety of adhesive is chronicled and written round, nothing should be done for the other kinds of postal franks.

["Cut-squares" are certainly an abomination to the student of philatelic stationery, but for the stamp collector they afford the only rational method of collecting.

We reproduce the following extract from the preface of Ewen's Catalogue of the Unadhesive Postage Stamps of the United Kingdom.

PREFACE.

This catalogue has been compiled on the following principle:—

Principle of Compilation "That the paper or other material on which an unadhesive stamp is impressed does not form part of the stamp." This principle may be best illustrated by taking two envelopes, one of which is franked with an adhesive stamp and the other with an impressed stamp. If we take away in each case the envelope, we find that there is left in one case a stamp consisting of impression, paper and gum, and in the other merely an impression without greater substance than a thin film of ink. In the case of an adhesive stamp, paper and gum are given in with it, but in the case of the impressed stamp only the impression is supplied, as, except in rare cases, the purchaser must supply his own stationery or pay for that supplied by the Post Office.

* Since these lines were in print, we regret to learn of the death of Mr. B. W. Warhurst.

It follows from this principle:—

(a) That unadhesive impressions on coloured paper are not thereby constituted varieties, but are to be avoided (as in the case of a stained adhesive stamp) as the true colour of the impression is injured.

(b) That when two or more impressions are made on the same piece of paper, they no more constitute a distinct variety than would two or more adhesive stamps gummed to one piece of paper.

The collection of unadhesive stamps impressed on small squares of white paper is recommended because:—

Why impressions should be cut square (a) It is an impossibility to collect the impression without any paper at all.

(b) A small white margin improves the appearance.

(c) It is the general practice amongst stamp collectors of all countries to collect unadhesive stamps cut square (we do not speak here of stationery collectors). Of course, before cutting a stamp from a piece of stationery, it should be ascertained whether it has a greater value entire to a stationery collector than cut to a stamp collector.

(d) The inclusion of the entire paper or envelope on which the stamp is impressed converts the stamp collection into a collection of either stamps + waste paper, or, if the paper be classified as well as the stamp, into a collection of stamped stationery, which is the province of the stationery collector and not of the stamp collector.

This is a catalogue of stamps compiled for stamp collectors and the classification is therefore based on the stamps and not on the documents to which they are attached. Although this book is described on its title page as a catalogue of "Unadhesive Postage Stamps," it has been decided to give both the words "Postage" and "Stamps" a wider signification than would be expected from their respective definitions in the dictionary. The word "stamps" has been extended to include the Mulready designs, whilst the word "postage" has been taken to include stamps issued for the purpose of collecting postal fees, such as those of registration.

"Chalky" Paper.

ORIGIN OF NAME.

Mr. J. N. Marsden, of Lisbon, writes us:—"I have read the article on 'Chalky Paper' in the last No. of E.W.S.N. with interest. I am afraid I am responsible for the name, as in the 'Stamp News Annual,' 1892, p. 52, I wrote:—"In 1855 a new kind of paper began to be used (i.e., in Portugal), which I have denominated 'chalky,' it is thick and easily cracks along the lines of printing or embossing and is surfaced with a kind of fine chalk which can be scraped off with a penknife." The technical term used at the mint at the time was "porcelain paper" (papel porcelana).

The question arises whether the word "chalky" should be understood to mean "coated with chalk" or "coated with a chalk-like substance." We talk of stamps being printed in milky blue, but we do not mean that the blue pigment was mixed with milk. Is there any reason, then, why "chalky paper" should mean "paper coated with chalk?" If collectors understand by this designation paper coated with a substance resembling chalk, there does not seem any great harm in using it.

The first use of coated paper for postage stamps was about 1854 or 1855, when it was used for the first printings of the 4d. stamps of Great Britain and for some of the Inland Revenue stamps.

There is a reference to it, by the way, in a letter written by Mr. Warren De La Rue to Mr. Ormond Hill on the 7th February, 1859 (see Wright & Creeke, page 88).

The latter had evidently been complaining that the paper then in use for the Inland Revenue stamps turned blue and Mr. De La Rue explains that this is due to the decomposition of the prussiate of potash in the paper and is not caused in printing. In one case, the paper-makers objected to the use of prussiate of potash, and he writes:—"We put prussiate of potash into the white colour we use in preparing the paper, and thus obtain the requisite security against the re-issue of the stamp."

Not only was the prussiate of potash put into the small and medium garter paper used for printing the British 4d. stamps of 1855, but all the small garter issue and a part of the medium garter issue were also coated "with white colour." It scrapes off with a penknife quite easily (bringing the design of the stamp with it).

The second printings with medium garter were on uncoated paper, and the third were on paper into which no prussiate of potash was put, as it is quite white.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Provisional envelope issued by Post Office stamped with Edwardian die 80 entire, 2d. each.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Envelope Die Numbers.

Nearly half the collection recently advertised at £550 has now been sold, there having been quite an extraordinary reawakening of the demand for these stamps lately. The remainder of the collection, priced to about £300, can be sent on approval with 25% discount or 50% on a large purchase. It weighs about 20 lbs.

Railway Postage Stamps.

The Editor has just finished sorting the whole of his duplicates according to printings. There are 128 standard varieties listed in our Reference List, but by collecting printings these can be extended to about 800. The Editor has over 500 of these amongst his duplicates and offers them at the all round rate of 1/- per stamp nicely arranged in a collection on 56 large sheets with manuscript notes. Some are used, and a few of the rarer varieties are included. The Editor would be very glad to exchange with other collectors, and is mainly short of common recent varieties.

The Week's News.

The Editor is always pleased to receive Early Information of New Issues, or of Discoveries interesting to Stamp Collectors.

The index number and serial letter after the title of each paragraph indicate the issue of E.W.S.N. in which the last reference to that country appeared.

GREAT BRITAIN.—Unadhesive Stamps (605 R 606).—A few weeks ago we reported that Post Office Envelopes had been found stamped with die 80, and we were able to obtain a supply at the local Post Office at Anerley Road, S.E.

We are now informed by Mr. A. R. Hayward that he purchased envelopes stamped with die 85 on 29.4.11 at the Misterton P.O.

ARGENTINE REPUBLIC (601 J 606).—We quote from the Stamp Collectors' Fortnightly (29.4.11/41).

"From Mr. A. H. Davis, of Buenos Aires, we learn definitely that the 'Sarmiento' commemorative label was to be on sale for one day only—and one day too much.

"The same correspondent kindly informs us, under date of the 24th March, that there is a projected new issue of Argentine stamps, of the design of which he encloses an illustration: it is to be identical for all the values. The specimen has been engraved on steel by the American Bank Note Company of New York, from the original by Señor Jorge M. Lubary, an Argentine. This design, we are told, is inspired by 'La Semeuse' of Roty. It appears that the whole series of 17 values will appear simultaneously. Those of 5c. and 12c. will be engraved on steel in the United States and the remaining 15 values will be manufactured in Buenos Aires by the Casa de Moneda (mint and Government printing office).

"Mr. Davis encloses a cutting from a local newspaper, which has an enlarged illustration, unfortunately somewhat indistinct, of the new design.

"So far as we can decipher it, the design represents a three-quarter back view of a working-man, who, cap in hand, is gazing at the sun rising in splendour, doubtless for the specific purpose of assisting him in his daily task, and is wasting his employer's time in day-dreams of what the future holds for himself.

"'REPUBLICA ARGENTINA' appears on the label at the bottom of the stamp, and there is a small tablet just above the end of this label for reception of the value."

BELGIUM (603 P 606).—The following are chronicled by L'Echo de la Timbrologie (30.4.11/274).

Charity stamps. Overprinted "1911."
5c. bluish-green.
10c. carmine.

Charity stamps. Overprinted "1911."
5c. bluish-green.
10c. carmine.

It is evidently remainders of the first printing which have been overprinted and we presume there were not sufficient of the 1 and 2c. on hand. As usual the stamps are sold at 5c. apiece over their face value.

CANADA (604 S 606).—We quote from the Canadian Mail and Empire (17.4.11):—

"Ottawa, April 16th.—The contract for printing a special issue of postage stamps to be known as the Coronation issue has been awarded to the American Bank Note Company, and it is expected that they will be distributed throughout the country by June 3rd, the King's birthday. These stamps will be double the size of the ordinary postage stamp and only a limited number will be printed, as in the case of the Quebec Tercentenary issue.

"The new two-cent stamp for ordinary use bearing the head of the new King will not be ready for some time."

COCHIN (580 J 606).—The new stamps have at last arrived—in Paris, where they are being sold at 200% premium on face value. Our own applications for them have come back through the Returned Letter Office unopened and marked "refused." It may be recalled that some little while back we published a letter from a gentleman who gave his address as "care of the Postmaster" and who stated that stamp collectors were to be refused but that he would be willing to supply, of course for a commission.

New Design (Portrait) wmk. small umbrella, perf. 13½.
2 pies. brown.
3 .. blue.
4 .. green.
9 .. carmine.
1½ anna. lilac.

Issued 10.4.11 or earlier.

ECUADOR (599 W 606).—Three more values of a new set are chronicled by L'Echo de la Timbrologie (30.4.11/274).

New designs.
1c. red and black.
2c. blue ..
[5c. red .. ]
[10c. blue .. ]
1s. green ..

The sets usually contain also the values 20, 50c. and 5 sucres.

GILBERT & ELLICE ISLANDS (605 F. 606).—We continue to hear of fortunate collectors who have received stamps from the islands, but no reply comes to our own correspondence.

Last week we reported specimens postmarked Ocean Island 4.3.11, but Mr. J. A. Sutherland now shows us a 1d. and 2d. of the issue overprinted on Fiji stamps which bear the very early postmark of Ocean Island, 13.1.11. They were used on a letter to Adelaide, South Australia.

GREECE (604 Y 606).—The complete set of the new stamps is as follows:—

(i.) Head of Hermes to the right. Taken from a 2 drachmai coin of the fifth century B.C. issued in Sybrita, Crete.

(ii.) The goddess Iris, the messenger of the gods standing before a temple of Doric style. Taken from an old coin.

(iii.) Hermes, the messenger, standing in front of a temple of Ionic style, putting on his sandals in readiness for some errand. Taken from a fourth century B.C. coin of Sybrita, Crete.

(iv.) Hermes carrying the baby Arcas, at the bidding of some god. From a coin issued in Pheneus, Arcadia, fourth century B.C.

(v.) Same as i., but larger (24 × 31mm.).

Adhesives.

- i. 1 l. green.
- ii. 2 l. carmine.
- i. 3 l. vermilion.
- iii. 5 l. green.

- iv. 2 dr. vermilion.
- iv. 3 dr. carmine.
- iv. 5 dr. ultramarine.
- iv. 10 dr. blue.
- v. 25 dr. blue.

There is also some stationery.

HONGKONG (582 S 606).—"Specimen" copies of the following have been seen by L'Echo de la Timbrologie (30.4.11/274).

New colours. Wmk. multiple Crown CA, chalky paper.
20c. olive and violet.
30c. orange ..
50c. black on green.

To be issued.

NICARAGUA (600 W 606).—Some more stamps have been surcharged and the 1909 design now furnishes the following varieties:—

The type of overprint differs.

2/3c., 2/4c.
5/20c., 5c./$1.
10/15c., 10/50c., 10c./$1, 10c./$2.

Overprinted "B" for "Bluefields."
5c./$1. A 15c. is also expected.

PERSIA (596 H 606).—A new issue is reported by L'Echo de la Timbrologie (30.4.11/274):—

Portrait of new Shah.

- 1 sh., green and orange.
- 2 sh., carmine and brown.
- 3 sh., brown and green.
- 6 sh., grey and rose.
- 9 sh., brown and violet.
- 10 sh., carmine and brown.
- 13 sh., violet and ultramarine.
- 26 sh., ultramarine and green.
- 1 kr., .. rose.
- 2 kr., green and violet.
- 3 kr., violet and black.
- 5 kr., carmine and ultramarine.
- 10 kr., olive and red-brown.
- 20 kr., brown and bistre.
- 30 kr., red and green.

Illustration to follow.

PORTUGUESE AZORES (595 N 606).—The 20 and 80 reis are reported by L'Echo de la Timbrologie (30.4.11/274) with inverted surcharge "Republica."

SUBSCRIPTION RATES. Ewen's Weekly Stamp News can be sent post free to any address in any country for one year for 4/4 ($1.06, Mk. 4.50 or fr. 5.50). Each change of address, 6d. extra. ## International Notes.

L'Echo de la Timbrologie proposes the following philatelo-arithmetical problem:—

"Quel est le pays dont la première partie multipliée par la seconde donne comme total la troisième?"

"C'est bien simple: 5—20—100, Saint-Vincent!!"

* * *

The 18,000 copies of Yvert & Tellier's 1911 French catalogue of stamps printed last October have all been sold and a new edition is in preparation.

* * *

L'Echo de la Timbrologie (31.3.11/1915) in speaking of stamps "postmarked to order" says:—"Cette opération.....est à notre avis parfaitement licite. Une obliteration de complaisance est une obliteration authentique: il n'y a fraude que si on a anticipté le cachet."

Which exactly agrees with the opinion we have many times expressed in these columns. A postmark on a stamp should be evidence that the stamp was postmarked at the town on the date stated on the postmark but of nothing else. Seeing the multiplicity of purposes for which Post Office date stamps are used, it is absurd to suggest that a postmark is evidence that a stamp has been used on a letter or parcel. Collectors who wish to avoid stamps cancelled to order should collect them used "on piece of original." It is no part of a Postmaster's duty to cancel stamps for collectors, but it is taking rather a narrow view of things to forbid him to do so.

* * *

In a German exchange club for railway stamps, the selections sent in have amounted to £310 with sales £90. This is a very good result, and no doubt only marks the beginning of a large market in these stamps.

We should be glad to hear from anyone who would be willing to act as Secretary of a British Exchange Club for Railway Stamps, and asking say 10% commission on sales.

* * *

The Kunstwart (1.4.11) of Munich, sums up the local opinion of the new Bavarian stamps as follows:—

"Also die bayrischen Jubiläums-Marken und -Postkarten sind da. Sie haben's leicht, denn man vergleicht sie natürlich mit den reichsdeutschen graphischen Postkleinodien. Die Kaulbachschen Briefmarken geben ein anständiges kleines Bildnis, ein anständiges, klein beträchtliches, und am wenigsten, was hier gut und bei dem Kopfe des Prinzregenten auch leicht gewesen wäre: ein schlagend charakteristisches, vereinfachtes, in gewissem Sinn monumentales. Wenigstens stilgemäss würde das gebotene Porträt vielleicht bei einer Reproduktion in Originalgrösse wirken, in dieser Verkleinerung tut es auch das nicht. Hier liegt ein Rätsel: warum wandte man sich in München nicht an die dortigen Graphiker, warum an einen „Gemäldemaler“? Ferner: Der Reproduktion als solcher fehlt jetzt technische Reiz, wie ihn sogar die exotischen Briefmarken in Stich immer noch haben. Man hat sich die Herstellung zu billig gemacht. Gut sind dagegen die Farben; wir haben hier, seit das Reich besteht, die ersten anständig gefärbten Briefmarken."

It is wonderful what a difference to the colour of a stamp a solid background makes. The beauty of the first postage stamps of 1840 rests mainly on their simplicity and the amount of almost solid background, but this fact was lost sight of until 1897, when it was accidentally re-discovered by France. "La Semeuse" has proved a female Napoleon, for since she took to sowing her seed in the darkness of night, she has already gone far towards conquering the world. If one looks at the new issues of the last three or four years, one cannot fail to observe the influence that La Semeuse has exercised. Notable successes have been the Swiss stamps of 1907-08 and the United States issue of 1908.

* * *

Like the British Postal and Inland Revenue authorities, the Swiss authorities have not forbidden the illustration of stamps in philatelic journals, as witness the following official communication:—

Nr. 914-78.

BERN, den 4. Januar 1911.

Schweizerische
OBERPOSTDIREKTION.

An den
Philatelisten-Verein
BERN.

In Beantwortung Ihrer Zuschrift vom 28. Dezember abhin beehren wir uns, Ihnen mitzuteilen, dass Nachbildungen von geltenden Marken, welche in Schwarzdruck in Marken-albums, Briefmarkenkatalogen, Fachzeitschriften der Philatelie etc. erscheinen, bis auf weiteres nicht beanstandet werden.

Hochachtungsvoll
Die Oberpostdirektion:

COMTE.

It seems therefore that the jubilation of a certain Continental stamp forger—to which we referred in a recent issue—was ill-founded. [In this connection, see the letter of the Swiss Post Office published on p. 2327 of our issue of 18.2.11].

The Week's News.

The Editor is always pleased to receive Early Information of New Issues, or of Discoveries interesting to Stamp Collectors.

The index number and serial letter after the title of each paragraph indicate the issue of E.W.S.N. in which the last reference to that country appeared.

NEW ZEALAND (601 X 607).—We are indebted to Mr. A. H. Stamford for some further particulars of the sheet-numbers of the current ½d. and 1d. stamps. Our list now stands:—

SUBSCRIPTION RATES. Ewen's Weekly Stamp News can be sent post free to any address in any country for one year for 4/4 ($1.06, Mk. 4.50 or fr. 5.50). Each change of address, 6d. extra. Half year, 3/3; 3 months, 1/7½. A special limited subscription has also been arranged; every 5th number can be sent for only 1/3 per annum. Back Nos., 1 to 535, 3d. each; complete, £5; current year, 1½d. each. EWEN'S LTD., 32, Palace Square, Norwood, London, S.E.

These, as well as the postage set chronicled last week, were overprinted at Beira and issued there about 24.2.11. They are to be followed immediately by a second issue overprinted at Lisbon, which is expected to be issued on 10.5.11.

ST. LUCIA (604 H 607).—"Specimen" copies of the following are reported by L'Echo de la Timbrologie (30.4.11/275).

New colours. Wmk. multiple Crown CA, chalky paper.

5/- green and carmine on yellow.

To be issued.

ST. VINCENT (583 S 607).—The existence of current Turks Islands stamps with comb and line perforation has been noted already but similar varieties also occur in the stamps of St. Vincent. We quote from the Stamp Collector (4.11/75):—

"Mr. J. J. Darlow writes that De La Rue & Co. are using two perforating machines, a line and a comb, both gauging 14. He has the following specimens, all in blocks of four:—

Issue of 1907: 1d., 2d., 2½d. and 3d. with comb perfs., and the ½d. and 1d. with line perfs.

Issue of 1909-10: 1d. with dot, 1d. without dot, 3d. on yellow, 6d. with dot, ½d. and 2½d. all with comb perfs.; and the 3d. on yellow, 6d. without dot and 1/- on green, with line perfs.

"He adds: Only in two cases, the 3d. on yellow and the 1d. of 1907, have I got the same stamp with both perfs., and yet different values issued at the same time or thereabouts are found with either perf. I think the two machines must have been used indiscriminately or else the line machine was used during a temporary breakdown of the comb machine, as the latter perfs. are more in evidence."

SIERRA LEONE (604 U 607).—"Specimen" copies of the following have been seen by L'Echo de la Timbrologie (30.4.11/275).

New colours. Wmk. multiple Crown CA, chalky paper.

£1 violet and black on red.

To be issued. Our contemporary describes it as "perf. 12." Is this correct?

SPAIN (605 W 607).—We have some further details concerning the 25c. perf. 14 from Mr. H. P. Lumsden, who states that some of the recent issues also measure 14 x 13½. The record to date is as follows:—

Current Issue, 25c. blue.

Sheet Numbers.	Perf.
A 487,940	13 x 12½.
A 492,461	" 14.
A 494,833	" 14.
A 495,082	" 14 x 13½.
A 495,105	" 14 x 13½.
A 500,885	" 14.
A 507,336	" 13 x 12½.

It would appear therefore as if the perf. 14 variety was only a provisional issue. No. A 494,833 was issued at Jerez de la Frontera, 3.11 or earlier and No. A 507,336, 28.4.11 or earlier.

STRAITS SETTLEMENTS (597 D 607).—The Colonial Office Journal (4.11) states that 4 cents stamps are now being supplied in a rather brighter purple. The colour has been changed in order to make it easier to distinguish this stamp from the 21 cents stamp.

New shade.

4c., now in a brighter purple.

To be issued.

TASMANIA (599 Y 607).—We recently chronicled the 6d. redrawn die with perforation 12½ on the authority of the Australian Philatelist. Our Australian correspondent, who has been visiting Hobart, writes on 29.3.11:—"Re Tasmania 6d. pictorial, re-engraved, die 11. This stamp is recorded by Hagen's paper as occurring both perf. 11 and 12½, but the latter must be an anticipation. Up to my departure from Hobart (18.3.11) no one had seen it perf. 12½ either at the G.P.O. or elsewhere."

We shall be very surprised however if the stamp does not exist perf. 12½ as the machines of both gauges have for some years been regularly employed for all Tasmanian stamps. Although a particular perforation may not be on sale to the public, even at the G.P.O., it can generally be had on special application, as the Tasmanian Post Office is one of the most considerate towards stamp collectors.

We have recently had a large number of the current issue low values through our hands and have been classifying them on the same system as the Papuan issues. These it will be remembered we divided into eight chief groups.

Issues.

1, 2	Melbourne Crown A upright,	p. 11.
3, 4	" "	p. 12½.
5, 6	" sideways,	p. 11.
7, 8	" "	p. 12½.

The second issue in each case has inverted watermark.

All the stamps examined cover only a short period during 1910-11 but we found a considerable variation.

Variety.

1.	— 1d.	2d.*	— 4d.	— 8d.	9d.	1/-.
2.	— 1d.	2d.*	— 4d.	— 8d.	9d.	1/-.
3.	— 1d.	2d.*	— 4d.	— 8d.	9d.	1/-.
4.	— 1d.	2d.*	— 4d.	— 8d.	9d.	1/-.
5.	½d.	— 2d.	3d.	— 6d.	—	—
6.	½d.	— 2d.	3d.	— 6d.	—	—
7.	½d.	— 2d.	3d.	— 6d.	—	—
8.	½d.	— 2d.	3d.	— 6d.	—	—

The 2d. marked * appear to be very scarce and are probably from chance sheets which have been turned round and not part of a regular issue. With this exception, all the upright stamps are of varieties 1 to 4 and all the oblong stamps of varieties 5 to 8.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Envelope Die Numbers.

Nearly half the collection recently advertised at £550 has now been sold, there having been quite an extraordinary reawakening of the demand for these stamps lately. The remainder of the collection, priced to about £300, can be sent on approval with 25% discount or 50% on a large purchase. It weighs about 20 lbs.

Railway Postage Stamps.

The Editor has just finished sorting the whole of his duplicates according to printings. There are 128 standard varieties listed in our Reference List, but by collecting printings these can be extended to about 800. The Editor has over 500 of these amongst his duplicates and offers them at the all round rate of 1/- per stamp nicely arranged in a collection on 56 large sheets with manuscript notes. Some are used, and a few of the rarer varieties are included. The Editor would be very glad to exchange with other collectors, and is mainly short of common recent varieties.

The Week's News.

The Editor is always pleased to receive Early Information of New Issues, or of Discoveries interesting to Stamp Collectors.

The index number and serial letter after the title of each paragraph indicates the issue of E.W.S.N. in which the last reference to that country appeared.

GREAT BRITAIN.—Current Issue (605 G 608).—We are unfortunately a little late in recording the issue of the first Harrison-printed stamps, but the Editor has been up in the Highlands of Scotland making enquiries into the history of certain railway letter stamps (and we are pleased to say with complete success, thanks to the kindness of the Railway Company concerned) and can consequently only now report the progress of events.

Printed by Messrs. Harrison & Sons instead of by Messrs. De La Rue and Company. Design, watermark, and perforation as before.

½d. yellow-green (a little deeper).
1d. red (a little rosier).

Issued 5.5.11.

We have seen a large number of these stamps, issued at different post offices and there is no difficulty in distinguishing the Harrison from the De La Rue prints.

Although the design is the same, the printing is nearly always more blotchy or smudgy, with the result that the white line forming the left frame of the oval enclosing the portrait is much less distinct and in 90% of the impressions we have seen the white frame line under the Crown fails to print or is smudged over altogether. This is not however an absolute test, but where it fails the difference in shade will leave no room for doubt.

Very few of the new stamps are well-centred as regards perforation, and the gum is whiter or more transparent, causing the paper to appear thinner although it is probably the same. The last paper used by Messrs. De La Rue & Co. was watermarked with the letters D, E or F once on the margin opposite the top rows of stamps of the lower pane, either at the right or left hand side. Five sheets each of the ½d. and 1d. just purchased at Norwood have wmk. letter F and just as we go to press, we receive sheets lettered E.

The new sheets of stamps are sometimes cut into panes of 120 before issue to the Post Offices, whereas the old ones were always issued in double panes, 240 stamps in all. All the new ones now on sale at Norwood, are however, in sheets of 240.

The Control Letters are in the same positions but larger and commence at "A" again, and a space is now left between the "A" and the "11" (for 1911).

We are distributing the Harrison stamps with our New Issue Service this week. They will be distributed at face value only, and can consequently only be sent to clients whose deposit accounts are sufficiently in credit. They will be sent out in blocks of four of each value and if we can find shades these will be distributed also.

Georgian Stamps (604 F 608).—Collectors everywhere have only to suffer the pleasure of anticipation a few weeks longer, for they will then be able to add to their collections the first home stamps with portrait of His Majesty the King.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES. Ewen's Weekly Stamp News can be sent post free to any address in any country for one year for 4/4 ($1.06, Mk. 4.50 or fr. 5.50). Each change of address, 6d. extra. Half year, 3/3; 3 months, 1/7½. A special limited subscription has also been arranged; every 5th number can be sent for only 1/3 per annum. Back Nos., 1 to 535, 3d. each; complete, £5; current year, 1½d. each. EWEN'S LTD., 32, Palace Square, Norwood, London, S.E.

We quote from the Daily Mail (12.5.11).—

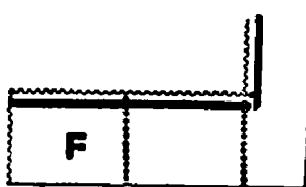

GEORGE V. STAMPS.

FIRST ISSUE ON CORONATION DAY.

The George V. postage stamps will be issued on Coronation Day. Mr. Herbert Samuel, Postmaster-General, stated yesterday:

"The new adhesive postage stamps of several denominations, including ½d. and 1d. and post-cards and letter-cards bearing the new stamps, will, I anticipate, be placed on sale on Coronation Day. The new adhesive stamps of other denominations and other articles of stamped stationery will be issued as soon as possible afterwards."

Replying to a question by Mr. Snowden, Mr. Samuel said the ½d. and 1d. post cards and letter cards would be sold at their face value.

Control Letters (577 O 608).—The series of Control letters of the Edwardian stamps being now complete, it may be of interest to our readers if we reproduce the list, as given in E.W.S.N. No. 577.

It will be noticed that there is just about a year between each variety, with the exception of the 1903-04 period, when there was some irregularity. Commencing with D5 each variety was evidently issued just six months after its first printing.

The Harrison series will almost certainly begin and end with the combination "A11," as regards the Edwardian stamps, but there is less certainty about the Georgian stamps. The series of letters was broken in 1902 for a change of ruler and now it has been broken for a change of printer.

If the series is again broken for King George and if each contract letter represents as heretofore a year's supply of stamps, the Georgian series will commence with A11 and may be followed by A12 late in June 1912, and by B12 a week later! But there are two if's and the series may run just simply A11, B12, C13 and so on.

If the series is not broken for King George, subsequent letters depend on whether the contract for the first supply also provided for the temporary printing of Edwardian stamps or not.

If it did not and if the series is not broken, then the first stamps of King George will have letter B11 and will be followed by C12, D13, etc. But if it did provide and the series be not broken, then we may expect A11 followed by B11 about the 1st May 1912, B12 about 1st July 1912, C12 about 1st May 1913, and so on.

As the letter is purely a printer's contract letter and has nothing to do with the change of design, the latter course seems to us the most likely to be adopted. It is true that King Edward's reign saw the inauguration of a new series, but that was probably because the Victorian series had already reached the letter X.

However, we must "wait and see."

We have to thank Mr. J. W. Heath for sending us the ½d. and 1d. in pairs with Control letter "A11" posted in Wellington, Salop, on the day of issue there, 5.5.11.

BARBADOS (605 O 608).—King George can hardly fail to be gratified by the demand of the Colonial Public in all parts of the world, to have present postage stamps of allegorical or pictorial design replaced by others bearing his portrait. The latest instance comes from Barbados, where the sea-horses, so familiar for twenty years, are to be supplemented by His Majesty's portrait. Whether the idea can be successfully carried out from an art point of view is uncertain, unless the stamps be enlarged, but otherwise it is rather a happy one, for the combination of the King's Portrait with the Colonial Arms is typical of the fact that most of Britannia's big family are grown up and like other grown-up children are now self-reliant and want more liberty than the nursery gave them. In other words, whilst it is only natural that Britannia's children should want homes of their own, it is a happy thought that they should proudly signify their membership of the greatest family the world has ever seen by adding the King's portrait to their own emblem.

The notice in the Barbados Official Gazette (13.4.11) reads as follows:—

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.

The Governor-in-Executive Committee, having decided to signalise the Accession of HIS MAJESTY KING GEORGE V. by the issue of new postage stamps, which shall bear the head of the King in addition to the Barbados Arms, invites the submission of designs complying with the above description.

It is desired to make the least possible change in the present design, and consequently designers will probably find that the best manner in which effect can be given to the proposed change will be to contrive that the portrait is shown on, or within the border of the stamp.

Designs should be sent to the Colonial Secretary not later than April 20th.

By Command,

J. A. BURDON,

Colonial Secretary.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
April 5th, 1911.

There has been a good deal of talk lately in reference to the adoption of an Empire stamp, which as far as can be gathered, was to be of one design for all dominions and colonies and to differ only in the name and face values. Following on the Canadian rejection of the idea, it is now stated that the British Postmaster-General has given up the idea and that Sir Joseph Ward has intimated that the proposal would not be favourably received either in New Zealand or Australia.

The proposal, if we have correctly understood it, was bound to fall through, as it struck at the roots of the Empire. Britannia's family is not a flock of sheep, but each member is strong in individuality and self reliance. The idea Empire stamp would be one similar to the Fijian stamp we illustrate but altered so that a portrait of the King in a small oval replaces the Crown at the top. The inscription could be circular or elliptic and if the value in figures were made a little clearer, the value in words could be omitted and more room allowed for the title of the Colony and the description "Postage" or "Postage and Revenue." The letters V.R. would be deleted, as we would let the portrait of His Majesty stand simply and alone as the Empire badge. The idea has already been approximately carried out in the case of the current St. Helena stamps, but the design is too large and not very happily carried out.

BELGIUM (606 Q 608).—The Revue Postale (5.11/23) publishes the postal notice respecting the overprinting of the Charity stamps with the date "1911". Of each variety 5000 sheets were done.

Le Bulletin Mensuel (25.4.11/22) states that 125000 stamps in all were surcharged and that 187500 more are to be overprinted "Charleroi 1911" on the occasion of the Exhibition at Charleroi.

CHILE (605 O 608).—Mr. J. H. Chapman reports an interesting discovery that he has made in the 5c. Centenary stamp.

Writing under date of 5.5.11, he says:—"I find the plate has been retouched; in the first printings the labels containing the dates 1810—1910 only had a few lines of shading and the name of the printers was very faint. In the printings the date labels are shaded from end to end, and the printer's name is thicker and much more distinct."

The Schweizer Briefmarken-Zeitung (5.11/106) states that the following quantities of the Jubilee stamps have been printed.

1c.	6,000,000	20c.	4,000,000
2c.	6,000,000	25c.	4,000,000
3c.	6,000,000	30c.	4,000,000
5c.	50,000,000	1p.	3,050,000
10c.	5,000,000	2p.	3,050,000
12c.	4,000,000	5p.	2,020,000
15c.	4,000,000	10p.	1,010,000

It is not often that an edition of over a million of a 10 peso stamp or its equivalent (about 10/-) is made.

ECUADOR (606 X 608).—We append a translation of a notice, concerning a sale of remainders, which appeared in the Registro Oficial 30.3.11 of Ecuador.

SALE BY AUCTION.

By order of the General, the President of the Republic, made on the 7th inst., by Resolution No. 1320 and duly authorised by the Honourable Board of the Treasury of Pichincha, at a Meeting of the 14th of the present month, I invite tenders for the public sale of the Postage Stamps commemorative of the National Exhibition and of those of the 1901 issue, the stock of which is as follows:—

1,508,340 Stamps. Total $441,149.00

The public sale referred to shall take place in the building of this Governmental Office on Wednesday, the 31st day of May next, from twelve o'clock noon.

The basis for both issues is twenty thousand sucres ($20,000).

QUITO, March 23rd, 1911.

The Secretary of the Government,
S. Rosalino Ruiz.

The stamps concerned, with their present catalogue values, appear from the official description to be the following, but we do not know of any 3c. in the 1901 issue:—

1901 Issue.

(The first colours of this design were issued in 1899 and the remainders along with those of the 1897 issue came on the market some 5 years ago and we believe ultimately found their way to Budapest).

We think the sale of these remainders, unused, is an entirely mistaken policy; they should at least be postmarked first. There is but little doubt of a sale being effected, as the reserve is only £2000 for one and a half million stamps face value £84,000.

GERMAN P.O., MOROCCO (596, 603 I 608).—We have received the following:—

Overprinted "Marokko" with k's.
1 peseta on 80pf. red on rose.

Issued 3.5.11 or earlier. The values of this set previously recorded are the 3c. and the 3½ pesetas.

GIBRALTAR (595 O 608).—The following has now been issued.

New Colours.

8/- violet and green, wmk. multiple Crown CA.

Issued 1.5.11 or earlier.

INDIA, C.E.F. (600 S 608).—The following is shown us by Mr. W. T. Wilson.

King Edward issue of India, overprinted "C.E.F."
½d. grey.

PAPUA (601 A 608).—In a lot of 9,000 ½d. and 9,000 1d. unicoloured stamps just received we found a very small number of the ½d. stamps with watermark corresponding to our issue 27 (wmk. sideways normal, perf. 12½). All the 1d. were issue 28 without exception (wmk. sideways inverted, perf. 12½).

The 2d. unicoloured stamp is expected to reach us by next mail.

QUEENSLAND (579 Z 608).—We have the 2/6 stamp in a new shade.

New shade. Wmk. Crown A sideways.
2/6 orange-red instead of vermilion.

Issued 1.3.11 or earlier.

STRAITS SETTLEMENTS (607 E 608). We have received the following new stamp.

New value of the large design.
$25 violet and blue on blue paper.

Issued 1.5.11 or earlier.

TRAVANCORE (568 I 608).—Mr. E. W. Wetherell contributes an interesting note on the current stamps to the Philatelic Journal of India (4.11/41), which we take the liberty of reproducing.

THE CURRENT STAMPS OF TRAVANCORE.

I wish to bring to the notice of collectors a remarkable fact in connection with two of the values of the current issue of Travancore.

The values on sale at present are 3 cash, 4 cash, ½, ¾, 1 chuckram, 2 and 4 chuckrams and ½ on ½ chuckram. In all cases the sheets consist of 84 stamps arranged in 6 horizontal rows of 10.

In the case of the ½ and 4 chuckrams a casual glance will disclose the fact that there are two varieties of each.

In the ½ chuckram the two top rows differ from the other four. This however seems quite easy to account for. I have not seen the Travancore stamps printed (although that has been the case in the neighbouring State of Cochin where the stamps are printed from moveable clichés). I presume that one of two things happened (both of which occurred in Cochin).

(1) That the sheets were not of the same size; or

(2) That some clichés got damaged and a few fresh ones were ordered. I believe the former to be the more probable.

The new clichés were made from the original die, which in the interval since the former supply of clichés was acquired had one or two little flaws.

The result is that the stamps on the two first rows show the following peculiarities which are absent on the other four rows:—

(a) The left foot of the first "A" of 'TRAVANCORE' is prolonged, and is connected with the white oval below it.

(b) There is a dot between the last vernacular letter of the first word and the first letter of the second word.

Having seen this variation in the case of the ½ chuckram stamp I thought it very possible that similar varieties would exist in the other values, so examined entire sheets. Only the 4 chuckram value however shows variation, and in this case it is not the two upper lines which are new but there are 14 clichés added in all sorts of places thus:—(O=old N=new).

O N O N O O O O O O O O O O
O O O O O O N N O O O O O O
O N O O O O O O N O O O O N
O N O O O O O O O N O O O N
O O O O O O N O O O N N O O
O O O O O N O O O O O O O O

In this case I believe the new clichés are from a slightly retouched die, for the letters are smaller and clearer. The differences are:—

In "O" the 'K' of "Chuckrams" is too large. The right of the 'U' of "Four" touches the white line above. The 'M' of 'chuckrams' slopes slightly to the left.

In 'N' the 'K' is much smaller, the 'U' does not touch the white line and the 'M' leans over a little to the right.

This last point is sufficient to distinguish the stamps at a glance.

It is clear from the above that there are two varieties of two of the values, and that they are somewhat more important than many minor varieties, as they indicate a period.

It may be noted in conclusion that in all cases there is a single Jubilee line surrounding the sheets, except in the case of the 1 chuckram where it is double at top, bottom and right side, and the ½ chuckram where it is missing entirely on left side. A minor variety in the case of the 4 chuckram may be noted, viz., the 5th stamp in the bottom row which shows no internal curve in the shell.

VICTORIA (586 T 608).—A smoother gum is being used for the postage stamps. Our Melbourne correspondent reported on 5.4.11 that he had seen it on the 1d., 2d., 5d. and 2/- values.

Stamps in the House of Commons.

(Report from Morning Post, (12.5.11).

THE NEW POSTAGE STAMPS.

Sir F. CAWLEY (L., Prestwich) asked the Postmaster-General when the issue of George V. postage stamps would be made.

Mr. H. SAMUEL (Postmaster-General)—The new adhesive stamps of several denominations including ½d. and 1d., and postcards and letter-cards bearing the new stamps will, I anticipate, be placed on sale on the day of his Majesty's Coronation. The new adhesive stamps of other denominations and other articles of stamped stationery will be issued as soon as possible afterwards.

In reply to Mr. SNOWDEN (Lab., Blackburn), Mr. SAMUEL said the ½d. and 1d. postcards and letter-cards would be sold at the face value of the stamps on them.

REMITTANCES IN COLONIAL STAMPS.

Sir PHILIP MAGNUS (U., London University) asked the Postmaster-General whether he would consider the possibility of making arrangements for the exchange into home stamps at district post offices of postage stamps sent to this country in payment of small sums from the Dominions Oversea, from India, and from the Crown Colonies.

Mr. H. SAMUEL (Postmaster-General)—I have already considered the question, and regret that it would not be practicable to arrange for the exchange of postage stamps suggested. In most parts of the Empire Imperial Postal Orders and Reply coupons are available for making small remittances.

The Week's News.

The Editor is always pleased to receive Early Information of New Issues, or of Discoveries interesting to Stamp Collectors.

The index number and serial letter after the title of each paragraph indicate the issue of E.W.S.N. in which the last reference to that country appeared.

GREAT BRITAIN.—Current Issue (608 H 609).—Mr. Melville writes in the Evening News (6.5.11) that he purchased the ½d. A11 on Thursday night 4.5.11 at the Fleet Street Post Office. This is one day (or night) earlier than that noted last week, but 5.4.11 still remains the earliest date for the 1d. value.

Unadhesive Stamps (606 S 609).—Halfpenny envelopes are now being issued at the Anerley Road (Norwood) Post Office stamped with ½d. die 75.

Envelope Dies. List of die-numbers known.

10d.	1.	2, 3.
1/-	1.	2, 3.
3d. Reg.	1-18.	?

Post Office Envelopes are now known with ½d. die 75 and 1d. dies 80 and 85.

Stationery (601 P 609).—Postcards and letter-cards manufactured by Messrs. McCorquodale and Co. instead of by Messrs. De La Rue & Co. are now being issued, but we have not yet discovered any definite test for identifying them. Issued April 1911 or earlier.

ARGENTINE REPUBLIC (606 K 609).—We learn from the Deutsche Briefmarken Zeitung (11.5.11/94) that the following quantities of the Centenary Issue were printed.

¾c.	6,030,000	20c.	725,000
1c.	9,000,000	24c.	795,000
2c.	34,000,000	30c.	764,000
3c.	2,450,000	50c.	615,000
4c.	1,580,000	1p.	210,000
5c.	63,300,000	5p.	22,500
10c.	2,900,000	10p.	16,000
12c.	7,580,000	20p.	12,500
Total, 150,000,000 stamps.

There will be no remainders as the stocks are being used up until exhausted, and as they come to an end remainders of other issues take their place.

Mr. Aug. Hertwig, under date of 13.4.11, informs our contemporary that there were then in issue:—

Centenary. 20, 24, 30c., 1, 5p.
1899 issue. 10, 20 pesos.

San Martin. ½ to 50c., including the 6c. and 15c. values not represented in the Centenary set.

The issue of the Sarmiento commemorative stamp has been postponed to 15.5.11. It is already illustrated by La Revue Postale (5.11/619).

SUBSCRIPTION RATES. Ewen's Weekly Stamp News can be sent post free to any address in any country for one year for 4/4 (£1.06, Mk. 4.50 or fr. 5.50). Each change of address, 6d. extra. Half year, 3/3; 3 months, 1/7½. A special limited subscription has also been arranged; every 5th number can be sent for only 1/3 per annum. Back Nos., 1 to 535, 3d. each; complete, £5; current year, 1½d. each. EWEN'S LTD., 32, Palace Square, Norwood, London, S.E.

AUSTRALIA (601 R 609).—The first Australian postage stamp has appeared and is alleged to bear the Portrait of the King but the draughtsman or the engraver has shown extraordinary incapacity, and it is to be hoped that the die will be bettered.

Postcard. Stamp bearing full-face portrait of the King. Inscribed "Australia."
1d. pink.

The postcard was issued on 7.4.11 but is not yet in general use, as old stock is being used up. The specimen before us is postmarked with the Melbourne machine cancellation dated "12 ABR 11, 2.5 P M" (with B in "April").

BAVARIA (603 J 609).—The Deutsche Briefmarken Zeitung (11.5.11/91) illustrates a new 5 pf. postcard from which we notice that the design of the stamp is not similar to that of the adhesive but quite new.

Postcard Stamp. Rectangular, with large Crown in upper half and value in large figures "5 PF" in lower half.
5 pf. green.

The 10 and 20 pf. unadhesive stamps are similar to the new adhesive stamps of same values.

CHILE (608 P 609).—The Bulletin Philatélique (5.5.11/108) states that the second pictorial set, which was announced at the same time as the Centenary of Independence set, is at last to be issued. The description was given in E.W.S.N. over a year ago (No. 544), but as it has undergone slight modification in the meantime, we reproduce it here from our French contemporary.

10p. gold ..	F. Errázuriz Jr.

The Balmaceda here referred to is probably José Manuel Balmaceda (1838-1891), President of the Chilean Republic from 1886 to 1891. At the age of 27 he was one of the representatives of the Chilean government at the general South American Congress at Lima, and after his return obtained great distinction as an orator in the national assembly. As minister of the interior under the presidency of Señor Santa Maria (whose portrait is shown on the 2 peso stamp), he carried compulsory Civil Marriage and several other laws highly obnoxious to the clergy. In 1886 he was elected president but was soon irreconcilably at variance with the majority of the national representatives, and on the 1st of January, 1891, sought to terminate an intolerable situation by refusing to convoke the assembly and ordering the continued collection of the taxes on his own authority. This led to the Chilean Civil War of 1891, which ended in the overthrow of Balmaceda, who committed suicide on the 18th September, 1891, the day on which his term of office as President expired.

The 5c. portrays Bernardo O'Higgins (1778-1842) who was born at Chillan on the 20th of August, 1778, a natural son of the Irishman, Ambrosio O'Higgins, who was Governor of Chile (then a Spanish province) 1788-1796. Soon after the revolution broke out, Bernardo, at the age of 35, was appointed to the command of the patriot forces, but owing to the jealousies between himself, José Miguel Carrera whom he replaced, and other leaders, and the consequent lack of unity, he was overwhelmed at Rancagua in 1814 and fled with the rest of his army across the Andes to Mendoza in the Argentine Republic. Here José de San Martin (whose portrait is so well known on the Argentine stamps) was preparing a force for the liberation of Chile and ultimately the royalists were beaten at Chacabuco (1817) and Maipo (1818). After the battle of Chacabuco, O'Higgins was entrusted with the administration of Chile and ruled firmly and well until popular discontent forced him to resign in 1823, in order that a form of constitutional government might be set up. O'Higgins retired to Peru, which had in the meantime been freed from the Spanish yoke, and lived quietly until his death 19 years later.

Manuel Montt (1809-1880) whose portrait is shown on the 20c. was elected president in 1851 and again in 1856, but though his terms of office were marked by revolutions in 1851 and 1859, he governed Chile with an energy and wisdom that laid the foundation of her material prosperity. His presidency was marked by the establishment of railways, telegraphs, banks, schools and training-colleges. His son, Jorje, was president of Chile in 1891-96, and a younger son, Pedro, in 1906-10.

Anibal Pinto (1825-1884) succeeded Errázuriz as president (1876-81), and during his term of office had to deal first with a severe financial crisis and then to conduct the struggle with Peru and Bolivia. The philatelic effect of the entrance of the Chileans into Lima, the Peruvian capital, on 17th January, 1881, is seen in the numerous "local" stamps which the provincial authorities were obliged to make and in the surcharges made by the Chileans and subsequent re-surcharges of the Peruvians.

Pedro de Valdivia belongs to another page of history altogether, for after the first Spanish invasion of Chile in 1535 had failed to fill the pockets of the invaders with gold, Pizarro sent Valdivia in 1540 to subdue the Indians, take their lands and generally provide them with the blessings of civilization. The better to secure his hold on the country Valdivia founded Santiago, the present capital and proceeded to build the towns of Valdivia, Concepción, Villa Rica and others. But in 1553 a general rising of the tribes ended in the defeat and death of Valdivia and the destruction of most of his settlements. The period which followed was characterised by warfare of merciless ferocity. For 97 years the country was continually being laid waste; general after general and army after army were despatched from Spain and Peru; whilst no sooner was one Indian army destroyed than another sprang from the forests, marshes and hills. Finally in 1640 by the treaty of Quillin, the Indians were left in peace south of the Bio-bio river, but those who remained north were treated as slaves and horribly mutilated to prevent their escape.

To return to the nineteenth century, when O'Higgins was compelled to resign in 1823 in order that a form of constitutional government might be established, his resignation was followed in seven years by no fewer than ten governments with three different constitutions. Then, however, the Conservative party, backed by a military rising led by General Joaquin Prieto (whose portrait is to appear on the 15c. stamp of the new set) placed themselves in power. Prieto was elected president in 1831 and a new constitution was drafted and promulgated in 1833, which, with some modifications, remains the constitution of Chile at the present time.

Federico Errázuriz was president 1871-76, and it was during his term of office that the small navy was formed, which proved so invaluable in the war with Peru. His son was president just 20 years later.

Le Bulletin Philatélique (5.4.11/80) states that the following quantities are being printed of this presidential portrait gallery.

1c.	5,000,000	25c.	150,000
2c.	7,000,000	30c.	150,000
3c.	200,000	50c.	150,000
5c.	20,000,000	1p.	150,000
10c.	200,000	2p.	50,000
15c.	100,000	5p.	50,000
20c.	2,000,000	10p.	50,000
Postcards, 1c.		1,000,000
,, 2c.		1,000,000
Envelopes, 5c.		6,000,000

It will be seen that the position of honour is that on the 5c. stamp, which has been allotted to the son of an Irishman, President O'Higgins, whilst Valdivia on the 2c. takes second place and Christopher Columbus only third place.

Mr. Reed writes to the Tarapacá Filatélico (3.11) that there are three varieties of the 5c. centenary stamp, due to its having been printed

Una Joya Filatelica De Cuba or the "Y ¼" Surcharge of 1855.

BY DR. A. BARRERAS.

From the Revista del Circulo Filatelico de Cuba of April 1910.

It was more than 20 years ago that I dedicated my studies and affections exclusively to the stamps of Cuba; and if among all the types encountered there is anything more or less notable, it is a certain stamp which has always deserved my special attention—the Y ¼ of 1855.

The Y ¼ of Cuba 1855, is, according to my opinion, one of the most curious stamps; in it are contained various conditions which justify this assertion, and I shall review them, however slight they may be.

This stamp is notable in having been one of the first surcharged stamps in the world, the only earlier surcharge being that of the U.S. (1842-6).

Another curious fact is that in spite of what has been written on this stamp and the time that has gone by since its apparition, in all the catalogues of the world, even the best edited it appears among the issues of the years 1855-71 which were used at the same time both in Cuba and Puerto Rico; but it is not so, since this stamp was used exclusively in the city of La Habana, and should thus be classified as a Local of "La Habana." There is another peculiar fact: in other countries stamps were always used according to their facial value by determined weight of the letter; but for this stamp it happened that a letter carried only one stamp no matter what the weight of the correspondence was; for this reason it never comes in blocks.

The surcharge of the stamp which concerns us caused great discussions in the philatelic world and it was believed that Y ¼ signified that to the face value of 2 reales fuertes ¼ real was added, that is to say that the face value of the stamp was transformed into 2 ¼ reales. To clear up these doubts the writer of this article, accompanied by the well known and unfortunate philatelist, Sr. Lazaro, inspected the files in the "Archive Nacional de Cuba" for two months, until fortunately they came across the draft of the official regulation which caused the surcharge, from which it was ascertained that the ¼ was not added to the face value but on the contrary the stamp was reduced in the value to ¼ real fuerte and the "Y" signified Interior.

Let us say a few words about the history of this stamp. The Administrador General de Correo, N. Torres Marin, proposed to the Governor General on the 19th April, 1855, the establishing of a local post (Correo Interior) of "La Habana," and that a special stamp should be printed without facial value with the theme, "Correo Interior de La Habana," and while this stamp was being made, they should overprint the current stamps with a "Y" and a "¼," signifying Interior, ¼ real, which would be the amount paid per letter without consideration of weight or distances in the limits of "La Habana." On the 31st October of the same year took place the impression (surcharging) of 200,000 stamps of the red 2 reales fuertes, the stamps which were least used. This service was officially inaugurated November 19th, 1855, in commemoration of the Saints Day of the then Queen of Spain, Dona Isabel II. The overprint was made on complete sheets of 170 stamps of 2 rpf. and as the Imprenta (printing office) did not have a sufficient number of the "Y's" of the same figure, two types of "Y" were used; one large and long, the other less high and narrower; this latter was employed in fewer numbers. The sheets surcharged were in the two colours in which 2 reales was printed, namely carmine and orange-red, for which reason there exist four surcharged stamps in 1855, but only two different "Y's". The best way of distinguishing the genuine surcharged from the many forgeries which have been made, is to measure the angle formed by the two arms of the "Y" which is 17 degrees 19 in the long "Y" stamps, and 27 degrees 28 in the narrow short ones.

It is joy of this sort which has moved me to write these lines; my friend the notable and intelligent philatelist of Cuba, Dr. A. Diez Estorino, Vice President of the Circulo Filatelico de Cuba, has finally succeeded in acquiring a pair of two surcharged stamps of 1855 red-orange with the two types of "Y" adhering to a letter of those times, the photograph of which accompanies this article. If there is taken into account the rarity of these stamps, a block or pair never being encountered, because as we have said before one stamp was sufficient for any letter, no matter what the weight or distance in the city to be traversed was, it can assured that the examples that we have spoken about are a true "joya filatelica de Cuba" and until now unique of their kind since if there does not exist another pair of these stamps, the "Y's" would probably be the same, a circumstance which would make the pair much inferior to the pair of Dr. Diez Estorino.—Translated for Mekel's Weekly by "Merry Forest."

Railway Stamp Exchange Club.

THREE weeks ago we asked for someone to step forward who would be willing to act as Secretary of a Railway Stamp Exchange Club, taking say 10% commission on sales as his remuneration. We have been gratified to receive quite a number of applications and suggestions, and we shall now be glad to hear from all who would care to become members, either with a view to contributing sheets or for the purpose of purchasing from the packets. No entrance fee or subscription will be necessary, but each member will pay his own postages and be responsible for the value of the packets whilst in his possession. In the meantime we have filed the letters of the seven gentlemen who have offered their services as Secretary.

New Postage Stamp Designs.

ELECTROS 1/3 each.

ELECTROS of the following new stamps, similar to those used for illustrating E.W.S.N., can be supplied, metal-mounted, at a few days' notice, at 1/3 each post free in the United Kingdom.

- 4841 North Borneo, 1911, 25c.
- 4845 Australia, 1d. King George postcard stamp.
- 4846 to 4849 Italian Jubilee, 2, 5, 10, 15c., issued May 1911.
- 4850 Brazil, 600 reis, new value.
- 4851 Sweden, 1910 issue, 5 öre (4 öre also available).
- 4852 Sweden, 1910 official, 1 öre.
- 4854 Italy current 25c.
- 4855 " " 5 lire.
- 4856 " " 10 lire.
- 4857 " Plebiscite, 15c.
- 4858 " current Parcel 1 lira.

Our regular series of stamp blocks (no surcharges or minor varieties) now numbers 4858 of any of which mounted electros can be supplied at 1/3 each, minimum order 8 blocks.

We have also an immense stock of blocks other than postage stamps and a large number of entire envelopes, blocks and sheets which are offered for sale singly or loose en bloc.

Also for sale is the original series of about 400 quarter size blocks of British Colonial stamps which was used to illustrate the catalogue which ran through E.W.S.N. in 1899 and 1900 in serial form. We are anxious to clear them out to make room for the constant additions to our regular issues.

The Crystal Palace Stamp.

Private Stamps (A 609).—These are as yet somewhat rare in England, although legion in Germany and Austria. The latest example here, the Dickens' 1d. stamp, has been followed by a farthing stamp issued by the King Edward National Memorial Fund (26 Shaftesbury Avenue, London W.). It bears a representation of the Crystal Palace and grounds viewed from the Low Level Railway station (L.B. & S.C.R.) which is only one minute from our offices. We have obtained a number of specimens and distributed them gratis on our correspondence last week. They are printed in sheets of 24, 4 rows of 6, and the margins have inscriptions relating to the issuing department, printers, edition and colour. The sheets before us are distinguished thus:—

- 1st Edition Grey.
- 2nd Edition Ultramarine blue.

The stamps have, of course, no philatelic or postal value, but are interesting in one respect, namely, that they are line-engraved by Messrs. Perkins, Bacon & Co., the engravers and printers of the first postage stamp.

We understand from the promoters that the stamps are not intended for sale to stamp collectors, but that every donor of £1 5/- to the Memorial Fund will be given a certificate entitling him to a life season-ticket to the Crystal Palace in the event of its purchase and 1200 stamps, which it is hoped he will use as seals on his correspondence and thereby assist in making the scheme known.

The Crystal Palace and its park, some two miles in circumference—a very quick walker can just make the circuit in half-an-hour by road outside the boundaries—stands pre-eminent in its suitability for indoor and outdoor exhibitions, and for expositions of all kinds of sport, even aviation. It would be an excellent place for the establishment of a stamp exchange club, worked somewhat on the same principles as the open-air stamp market of the Champs Elysées at Paris.

In speaking of the rival claims of Earl's Court, the White City and Sydenham as the site for pageants of Empire and other great world's fairs, M.A.P. says: "I agree that the Crystal Palace is incomparably the finest site for such enterprises, provided always that the railway facilities are completely reorganised." And this week already 38 express trains are running.

International Notes.

One or two subscribers do not like our extracts from foreign journals and think they should be translated, but there are two objections to this course. The extracts are usually expressions of opinion and in such cases it is advisable to retain the exact words; the best translation will not always do justice to them; and in the second place, translation means writing out the whole article whereas printing it in the original merely means scissors and paste, a consideration to a busy man who has already done one hard day's work and who has to sit down and compile E.W.S.N., as usually happens, in his evening leisure (!) hours. Moreover probably a majority of our readers have sufficient linguistic experience to be able to read these extracts, which are not of a difficult or technical character. It may also be remarked that the Editor has never received one penny piece for his editorial work, which is almost invariably done in his private time. Although we have one of the largest subscription lists of any philatelic journal in the country, the revenue from this source has never been sufficient even to pay the printer, so that it is useless the Editor striking for a salary!

* * *

The publication of Mr. E. D. Bacon's colossal compilation, the Catalogue of the Philatelic Library of the Earl of Crawford, K.T., inaugurates a new era in the history of postage stamp collecting and will in our opinion have a powerful and beneficial effect on the future of Philately. The publication is, in fact, far more important than that of the first catalogue of stamps because the hobby is now so wide-spread. One of the first effects will be to stimulate the formation of libraries (not the mere unclassified accumulation of printed matter) both on the part of private collectors and of philatelic Societies. The Editor of E.W.S.N. has been caught in the prevailing enthusiasm and has commenced to arrange a 15 years' accumulation of unbound philatelic literature (and will be glad to hear of bound or unbound volumes for sale, having many wants). We shall refer further to the Editorial library in an early issue, as it is desired to complete it as regards the more important publications.

* * *

Now that we have a catalogue of philatelic literature, it is perhaps not too much to hope that a Philatelic Index or series of indexes forming an Encyclopædia Philatelica of references only may materialize. The most practical way of tackling this gigantic task would appear to us to be for each of the leading publishers to make himself responsible for a general index in one volume to his own publications, say down to the end of 1910. Thus we might have a Gibbons' index, a Ewen index, and so on, all volumes being uniform in style and shape, and every reference giving the year, volume and page; thus the present paragraph would be indexed as:

Index, philatelic; EW 11—609—2442.

The 11 stands for "1911"; EW for "Ewen's Weekly"; 609 for our issue number, as we have no volume number, and 2442 the page. It is absolutely essential that in any philatelic index the year should be given as well as the volume; the former is of real use and the latter little more than a concession to custom.

* * *

Continental journals state that the same quantity of stamps was overprinted for the Gilbert Islands as for the last set of the New Hebrides and that there may prove to have been fully 25,000 stamps in each case. We do not know on what authority these statements are made, but it is certain that the reckless speculation which has taken place in these stamps has no basis of justification. Many collectors, it is to be feared, will have burnt their fingers over the Gilbert & Ellice Islands stamps; we hear in one case of £7 7/- having been paid for a set; yet each set will probably ultimately be commoner than either of the sets of Somaliland official stamps overprinted on India or of the Brunei first issue.

A REMINDER!

VIENNA EXHIBITION.

Next Tuesday, 30th May, is the latest date of sending applications for space at the Vienna Exhibition. It is to be hoped that leading English Collectors will be well represented as Vienna is a great philatelic centre; in fact it would be difficult to name a greater, as German philately is so decentralized.

* * *

The 1911 Philatelic Congress at Birmingham will be held the week after next.

in the three branch factories of the "American Paper and Bank Note Co." The 15c. value inscribed "Primera Salida de la Escuadra Libertadora" is likely to be recalled and replaced by a stamp more correctly inscribed "Estatua de O'Higgins."

CUBA (604 D 609).—Mekeel's Weekly corrects its chronicle of a 15c. stamp under this head and states that it meant Chile (which we have already reported).

FRENCH P.O., MOROCCO (600 W 609).—Le Bulletin Philatélique (5.4.11/81) states that the overprint of the current stamps is about to be altered. The new surcharge is bi-lingual, being in both French and Arabic.

GERMANY (603 V 609).—Through the medium of stamp-booklets, the 5 pfennig stamp may now be obtained in a pair se tenant with an advertisement label, perforated like a stamp. For instance, we have a block of 4, the two right-hand squares being postage stamps and the left-hand squares advertisements of Cider and Honey. In each case both the stamp and the advertisement are postmarked "Hamburg, 23.4.11."

HONDURAS (597 V 609).—The following are chronicled by Mekeel's Weekly Stamp News (13.5.11/162 and 166).

Issue of 1911, overprinted "Oficial" in bright red.
1c. purple.
10c. blue.

Issued 15.4.11 or earlier.

ITALY (601 P 609).—Ewen's New Issue Service has received sheets of the new stamps issued to commemorate the jubilee of the kingdom of Italy.

The stamps are all issued in sheets of 100, 10 rows of 10, and the margins are inscribed as follows:—

Top.—9 FRANCOBOLLI POSTALI DA CENTESIMI DIECI.
Left.—OFFICINA GOVERNATIVA CARTE-VALORI TORINO
Right.—Same reading down instead of up.
Bottom.—IL FOGLIO DI 100 FRANCOBOLLI POSTALI VALE LIRE 10.

The inscription is the same on all sheets, with the necessary change due to the different face values and excepting the plate-number which is as follows:—

PLATE NUMBERS.
Engraved in top left-hand corner.
2 centesimi	2
10 "	9
15 "	5

From these figures, it would look rather as if other plates were made.

The sheets are watermarked once, either on the top or on the bottom margin, Ministero del Tesoro in double-lined capitals, with a Crown at either end.

Jubilee Issue. All values inscribed "Cinquantesenario del Regno d'Italia Roma e Torino 1911."

2 centesimi, Vandyke brown.
5 " dark green.
10 " scarlet.
15 " blue-grey.

Issued 19.5.11 or earlier. The designer's and engraver's imprints are as follows:—

Imprint at foot of stamp.
2 cmi., A. SEZANNE DIS. A. REPETTATI INC.
Imprint introduced into design of stamps.
5 cmi., E. MORELLI DIS. REPETTATI INC.
10 cmi., VITTORIO GRASSI "
15 cmi., " "

The 2 centesimi stamps are issued at 5 centesimi and the others at 5 centesimi each premium, so that the set costs 50 centesimi (5d.) at the Post Office and is only valid for postage to the extent of 32 centesimi.

We hope to illustrate the stamps next week, when we will refer further to the designs.

JUAN FERNANDEZ (574 C 609).—Following the discovery that there was no one on Robinson Crusoe Island stamp who wanted to use stamps, which led to the issue of the surcharged stamps in Chile itself, it has now been discovered that there are no convicts to send there, and according to the Jornal do Commercio de Rio de Janeiro (2.4.11) the penal settlement has been suppressed.

MONTENEGRO (585 R 609).—We are informed that about £10,000 face value of Montenegrin stamps have been stolen from the Government at Tsetinje.

NEWFOUNDLAND (605 E 609).—The Postzegelnieuws (5.11/124) states that the 1, 2 and 3 cent Guy stamps have been engraved.

Mekeel's Weekly Stamp News (13.5.11/166) learns that all the Guy stamps have been printed by Messrs. Whitehead, Morris & Co. and that they were originally ordered engraved. It was found, however, that they could not be finished in time for the celebration and a provisional supply was ordered to be lithographed. All values were subsequently engraved, including the 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5, but it is not proposed to issue these.

NEW ZEALAND (601 X 609).—We have particulars of some more marginal sheet-numbers of the Edwardian issue from Mr. A. H. Stamford, and are enabled to give the following much revised list.

DOMINION ISSUE.

Highest and Lowest Sheet-Numbers.

Perf.	Lowest No.	Highest No.
2d. 14 x 15½	1613	6454
3d. "	6557	7007

6d. "	130040	133492
3d. "	139989	—
1/- "	153030	—

Both printings of the 8d. have the same perforation, but the two of the 4d. are different and it is said that the next printing of the latter is to be in yellow to distinguish it better from the 1/-. The 3d. and 6d. each occur six times in the list.

PAPUA (608 B 609).—The Australian Stamp Journal (10.4.11/80) states that the unicoloured ½d. and 1d. were first sold over the Post Office counter on 6.2.11. From the same source we learn that in addition to the 2d. which is probably already issued, the 2½d., 4d., 6d. and 1/- have now been printed in single colours from electros and despatched from Melbourne, but will not be issued till the stock of the bi-coloured stamps is exhausted. There is a probability that in the next issue of the ½d. and 1d. values the colours will be deepened.

PORTUGUESE ANGOLA (600 J 609).—According to Borek's Neuheiten Preisliste (10.5.11/7) the issue of the following is imminent.

With portrait of Dom Manoel.
2, 5, 10, 20, 25, 50, 75, 100, 200, 300 reis.
Same, overprinted "Republica."
2, 5, 10, 20, 25, 50, 75, 100, 200, 300 reis.

Rumours are abroad that the mint is too busy producing the new stamps for Portugal and the Azores (the designs of which are of the same genre as the Sower type of France) and cannot spare time to continue overprinting the old issues and that even the Dom Manoel issue of Portugal may have to be temporarily reissued without overprint.

PORTUGUESE AZORES (595 N 609).—It is stated that an American speculator has bought up all the unsurcharged stamps remaining in the islands, and that they are now rising considerably in value. The set is quoted at 35/-.

PORTUGUESE CAPE VERDE (600 R 609).—According to Borek's Neuheiten-Preisliste (10.5.11/7) the issue of the following is imminent:—

With portrait of Dom Manoel.
2, 5, 10, 20, 25, 50, 75, 100, 200, 300, 400, 500 reis.
Same, overprinted "Republica."
2, 5, 10, 20, 25, 50, 75, 100, 200, 300, 400, 500 reis.

To be issued.

PORTUGUESE MOZAMBIQUE (600 R 609).—According to Borek's Neuheiten-Preisliste (10.5.11/7) the issue of the following may be expected:—

With portrait of Dom Manoel.
2, 5, 10, 20, 25, 50, 75, 100, 200, 300, 500 reis.
Same, overprinted "Republica."
2, 5, 10, 20, 25, 50, 75, 100, 200, 300, 500 reis.

The 400 reis had not been completed when the revolution occurred, and it will probably not be added to the set. This set is not to be confused with the issue of the Mozambique Company recently chronicled.

PORTUGUESE MACAU (583 E 609).—We are indebted to Messrs. Graça & Co. for the following:—

Dom Carlos issue, overprinted "Republica."
½ reis, grey. Overprint red.

Issued 21.4.11 at Macau.

PORTUGUESE ST. THOMÉ (600 R 609).—According to Borek's Neuheiten-Preisliste (10.5.11/7) the following are to be issued:—

With portrait of Dom Manoel.
2, 5, 10, 20, 25, 50, 75, 100, 200, 300 reis.
Same, overprinted Republica.
2, 5, 10, 20, 25, 50, 75, 100, 200, 300 reis.

The two high values were not ready when the revolution broke out and will probably not now be printed.

RUSSIA (595 O 609).—We quote from the Daily Telegraph (18.5.11).

"A Russian newspaper states that a new set of stamps is being prepared at the Russian Imperial printing works, the design for which includes a female head, emblematic of Russia. The stamps will, I gather, be printed typographically by the colour process, which has been so successfully used on the beautifully tinted stamps of Russia for many years. The usual devices for the prevention of fraudulent cleaning will be continued in the new stamps, which are to be available for both postage and revenue purposes."

SWEDEN (604 C 609).—We quote from the Daily Telegraph (18.5.11):—

"The Post Office Department of Sweden, which has evinced its interest in—and goodwill to—the study of philately on many occasions, has just made an interesting present to the Sveriges Filatelist-Förening, the leading society of stamp collectors having its headquarters in Stockholm. The gift includes a complete set of bound volumes, containing all the official circulars issued by the Post Office Department from the introduction of postage stamps in Sweden in 1855 to the present year. The Sveriges Filatelist-Förening, of which his Majesty King George V. and his Royal Highness Prince Gustav Adolf of Sweden are patrons, celebrates its twenty-fifth anniversary at Stockholm in September this year."

SALVADOR (585 J 609).—Señor Manuel Araujo having been elected President in succession to Sr. Fernando Figueroa and having assumed the reins of government on 3.3.11, there is likely to be a new issue of stamps before long.

SOUTH AUSTRALIA (605 T 609).—The remaining value of the set has now appeared with the Crown A watermark, states the Australian Stamp Journal (10.4.11/80).

Wmk. Crown A, perf. 12 x 11½.
2½d. deep blue.

TURKS & CAICOS ISLANDS (607 X 609).—We have now received the ½d. stamp in a much more attractive shade of red.

New Colour. Wmk. multiple Crown CA.
½d. salmon-red instead of lilac-rose.

Issued 27.4.11.

UNITED STATES (600 P 609).—The Philatelic Gazette (15.3.11/131) adds another value to the watermarked set.

Wmk. single-lined U S P S,
15c. light blue.

The list of varieties now known is as follows:—
Postage, 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 8, 10, 15c.
Postage, imperf., 1, 2c.
Postage, perf. 8½, 2c.
Special Delivery, 10c.

Ewen's Colonial Stamp Market, Ltd.,

32, PALACE SQUARE, NORWOOD, LONDON, S.E.

Deposit Accounts.—All payments (for whatever purpose) are credited to a deposit account, and all invoices (whether for stamps, albums, subscriptions or postage, etc.), are debited to such account. This deposit account should not be overdrawn. The balance is returnable post free on demand.

Returns.—Stamps which are not as ordered may be returned within 10 days and their full sale price will be re-credited to deposit account.

Bank notes.—20 mark=19/6; 50 francs (French) 39/8; 50 francs (other countries), 39/6; 50 lire, 39/6; 20 kronen=16/6; 20 kroner=22/-; 10 gulden=16/6; 10 roubles=21/-; U.S.A. dollar=4/1.

Cheques payable to "Ewen's Colonial Stamp Market, Ltd.," or "Ewen's, Ltd.," postal orders, money orders (inland and foreign) etc., payable to "Ewen's, Ltd.," at "Anerley Road, S.E." Cheques on France and Germany accepted at same rate as bank notes, also bons de poste.

The total face value of this fine nucleus for a Papua collection is 30/10, and we offer it at the very low price of £3, considering the scarcity of many stamps, and the fact that official stamps are no longer obtainable. The 2/6 of issue 5 is a rarity, and even issue 6 is advancing.

EWEN'S NEW ISSUE SERVICE.

THE OLDEST ESTABLISHED NEW ISSUE SERVICE.

Any Collector or Dealer may join by making a deposit of any sum he likes, and by stating from what countries and up to what limit of face value stamps are required. No entrance fee or subscription is payable, and all stamps that we are able to import at face value, whether common or rare, provisional or permanent, regardless of catalogue value, are distributed at 10% over face value, or at 1/2 per 1/- if an early position on our List of Subscribers is desired.

Week ending 25th March 1911.

Brazil, new values, 600, 1,000 and 10,000 reis; postage dues, 600, 5,000 reis. Official stamps are not being distributed because not worth face value.
Great Britain, Harrison printing, 1/2d. green, two shades, 1d. rose. Sent out in blocks of 4 to all clients whose accounts were in credit, at face value only. Supplies of other new British stamps will also be sent out unless it is definitely known that they are on sale at every British Post Office, as will probably be the case with the Georgian stamps to be issued on 22nd June.
Belgium, Charity issue, overprinted "1911", complete set, 5, 10c. each of types i. and ii. The 1 and 2c. will not be overprinted.
Papua, 1/2d. all green, issue 27 instead of 28, probably a scarce stamp but sent out at usual rate.
Papua, 2/6 issue 13 (two shades) and 2/6 issue 14. We have been trying for over a year to get these, but all our early applications were refused on some pretext or other. We have however now secured a full allotment, but the lower values which we ordered at the same time were again not supplied.
Sweden, 1910 issue, 5 öre; official, 1, 15, 25 öre; we only secured a few but expect more shortly.
Newfoundland. We are at last able to make some headway with the distribution of the lithographed 6c., type ii., with corrected "Z" in "Colonization." The lithographed 6c. distributed originally had the inverted Z and is now said to be the rarest, but we have found the corrected Z the most elusive. There is a reasonable prospect that we may be able to complete the distribution at an early date.
Solomon Islands, 4d. red on yellow.
Straits Settlements, $25 on blue, in the handsome Nyasaland design (large type). The small $25 should prove a very scarce stamp.

The Week's News.

The Editor is always pleased to receive Early Information of New Issues, or of Discoveries interesting to Stamp Collectors.

The index number and serial letter after the title of each paragraph indicates the issue of E.W.S.N. in which the last reference to that country appeared.

BAVARIA (609 K 610).—According to the Mittelungen der Firma Paul Kohl (2.11/31) the new stationery is stamped as follows:—

Unadhesive stamps.

- (i) Design of 3 to 25 pf. stamps. 10 pf. rose. 20 pf. blue.

NOTE.—The above only when stamped on money order forms. Money order forms of 30 and 40pf. are not to be issued in future.

- (ii) Design of 30 to 80 pf. stamps, same as preceding but larger. 10 pf. rose, when stamped on postcards and letter-cards.

The 5pf. postcard stamp is, as already stated, of a different design altogether.

BULGARIA (602 R 610).—Messrs. Bradbury, Wilkinson & Co., Ltd., write to the Philatelic Record (5.11/114) that the new set of stamps was designed by Bulgarian artists on the spot, engraved by them in London and printed by their branch establishment, the Officina Calcografica Italiana in Rome.

COOK ISLANDS (549 E 610).—We quote from the Daily Chronicle (27.5.11):—

DEATH OF COOK ISLAND QUEEN.

Wellington (N.Z.), May 26th.

The death took place on May 1st of Makea, Queen of Raratonga, Polynesia, after a long illness.

Makea reigned 40 years. Her first husband died six years ago.—Reuter.

Raratonga is one of the Cook Islands, over which and their native queen New Zealand has for some time exercised a beneficent protectorate. In 1901 she annexed this group with several others on the southern edge of Polynesia, having in all a population of some 12,000, akin to the Maories, though mixed with Melanesian blood, and long ago tamed by conversion. They are governed by a Commissioner, who has his seat on Raratonga, the most fertile of the islands. The Executive Council includes the native kings and queens.

Except for changes of paper, watermark and perforation, these stamps have now mostly been in use for eighteen years. The 1d., 1½d., 2½d., 5d. and 10d. with portrait of Queen Makea were first issued in 1893, and the bird type 2d., 6d. and 1/- in 1898, the ½d. following in 1899. The ½d., 1d. and 2½d. were changed to postal union colours in 1902. There was an enormous demand for them down to 1903, but the fickle philatelic public then transferred their fancy to the many new stamps issued in 1903-04, and the interest taken in multiple watermarks and chalky papers has prevented much attention being given to the Cook Islands stamps. The most accurate list of varieties of the 1893 issue is, we believe, that on page 18 of our "Current Stamps at face value" (No. 1, June 1910, 6d.).

SUBSCRIPTION RATES. Ewen's Weekly Stamp News can be sent post free to any address in any country for one year for 4/4 ($1.06, Mk. 4.50 or fr. 5.50). Each change of address, 6d. extra. Half year, 3/3; 3 months, 1/7½. A special limited subscription has also been arranged; every 5th number can be sent for only 1/3 per annum. Back Nos., 1 to 535, 3d. each; complete, £5; current year, 1½d. each. EWEN'S LTD., 32, Palace Square, Norwood, London, S.E.

EGYPT (588 X 610).—We are indebted to Mr. A. S. Mackenzie Low for sight of a new "envelope-letter."

Envelope Letter. Watermarked "De La Rue & Co., London," instead of "Postes Egyptiennes." 5 mill., rose.

The Egyptian Gazette (20.3.11) says:—

"A NEW ENVELOPE-LETTER.

"The Postal Administration has just placed on sale at 6 millièmes a new style of envelope-letter which has several obvious advantages over the old style. The manufacture and quality of of paper are superior, there is nearly twice as much space for writing upon, and the envelope opens in such a way as to permit of the cover being detached and the letter retained in a dossier."

FINLAND (595 P 610).—According to the Schweizerische Philatelistische Nachrichten (5.11/115) the remainders of the 1889 and 1891 were to have been offered for sale at Helsingfors on 15.5.11. They include 2,000 5 mark, emerald and rose, and 2,035 10 mark, brown and rose.

GERMANY (609 W 610).—We have from time to time made brief references to the plate-numbers on the margins of German stamps. Those of our readers interested in the subject may be interested to know that it is most thoroughly dealt with by Herr Johannes Elster, President of the Berlin Philatelic Club, in a paper read before that Society on 19.12.10 and published in the Vertrauliche Mitteilungen of that Society and also in the Mitteilungen der Firma Paul Kohl (2.11/33).

GERMAN P.O., MOROCCO (608 J 610).—The following are chronicled by the Schweizerische Philatelistische Nachrichten (5.11/113).

Overprinted "Marokko."

- 30c. on 25 pf. orange and black on yellow.
- 60c. on 50 pf. violet and black on buff.

ITALY (609 Q 610).—We are informed by Messrs. Whitfield King & Co. that they have the new commemorative issue with other plate-numbers than those named last week. The list to date is:—

- 2c. Plates 1, 2.
- 5c. " 3, 4, 7.
- 10c. " 8, 9.
- 15c. " 5, 6.

The 2c. is found in two shades, brown and deep brown.

The Pester Lloyd states that the quantities are:—

- 2 centesimi 4,000,000.
- 5 " 8,000,000.
- 10 " 5,000,000.
- 15 " 5,000,000.

The 2c. stamp represents a sword held upright by a hand, which also grips a cross handle terminating on the left in a bull's head (the arms of Turin) and on the right in a wolf's head (representing Rome), and in addition two palm leaves in memory of the many Italians who died in the wars of independence. The 5c. represents a sword-armed knight standing by the side of his charger, the whole surrounded by laurel branches. In the distance are seen the principal buildings of Rome and Turin, the two cities which are celebrating by Exhibitions the Jubilee of Italian unity.—The Capitol, and the Museum, the Mole Antonelliana. The 10c. design shows us an athlete leading the winged horse of Apollo to the holy spring of Juturna in the Forum Romanum. The 15c. bears the words DEA ROMA in two lines within a circle.

MONTENEGRO (609 S 610).—We are informed by Mr. Rudolf Friedl, of Vienna, that the stamps recently stolen from the Montenegrin Government numbered about 400,000, comprising the values 2, 5, 10, 15, 20, 50 heller, 1 and 5 kronen. It is hoped that owing to the incomplete nature of the sets, the offer of them or a demand for the missing values may provide clues leading to the detection of the thieves. Information should be sent to the Wiener Polizeidirektion, zu Händen des Polizei-kommissärs Herrn Dr. Weinberger, Vienna.

The Montenegrin newspaper, Glas Zrnagorza, states that a reward of 5000 perpera (about £200) is offered for the detection of the thief and the recovery of the stamps, which are in the following proportions.

2 para	550 sheets of 100.
5 para	200 "
10 "	500 "
15 "	400 "
20 "	500 "
50 "	1500 "
1 perper	250 "
5 perpera	200 "

The surplus of the 50 para value may also provide a clue to the detection of the thief.

NEWFOUNDLAND (609 F 610).—With reference to the statement last week on the authority of a contemporary that the 1, 2, and 3 cent Guy stamps had been issued engraved, we have since received three consignments of stamps and in all the low values were still of the lithographed issue.

PORTUGUESE AFRICA (584 Q 610).—El Eco Postal (15.5.11/1069) learns that the Vasco de Gama set is likely to be overprinted "Republica" and sent to all the colonies.

There are eight values in the set, all of different designs, of which we illustrate two.

PORTUGUESE ANGOLA (609 K 610).—The Dom Manoel stamps referred to last week as expected, have, we are informed by Messrs. Whitfield King & Co., been preceded by an issue of the current Dom Carlos stamps overprinted "Republica."

Overprinted "Republica."

- 2r. grey.
- 5r. orange.
- 10r. green.
- 20r. lilac.
- 25r. carmine.
- 50r. ultramarine.
- 75r. brown on yellow.
- 100r. blue on blue.
- 115r. brown-red on rose.
- 130r. sepia on yellow.
- 200r. purple on flesh.
- 400r. blue on straw.
- 500r. black on azure.
- 700r. mauve on yellow.

Issued 20.5.11 or earlier.

SERVIA (601 Q 609).—The auction of the remainders, announced in E.W.S.N., No. 586, has now taken place and the Deutscher Philatelist (5.12/52) states that 180,000 francs was offered from London (over £7000). A Belgrade dealer was however adjudged the purchaser, having bid 200,000 francs (£8000) for the stamps face value 2,000,000 francs.

The Third Philatelic Congress of Great Britain,

BIRMINGHAM, 1911.

HELD UNDER THE AUSPICES OF BIRMINGHAM PHILATELIC SOCIETY,
FROM JUNE 7TH TO 9TH, 1911.

Under the distinguished patronage of—

THE RIGHT HON. THE COUNTESS OF WARWICK.
RIGHT HON. THE EARL OF CRAWFORD, K.T. (Pres. of the Royal Philatelic Society).
" H. L. SAMUEL, M.P., His Majesty's
Postmaster-General.
" SYDNEY BUXTON, M.P., His Majesty's Late Postmaster-General.
" AUSTEN CHAMBERLAIN, M.P., His Majesty's Late Postmaster-General.

Royal Philatelic Society).
J. HENNIKER HEATON, Esq.
Chairman of Executive Committee: R. HOLLICK,
Esq., C.C.
Hon. Secretary and Treasurer: COUNCILLOR G.
JOHNSON, B.A., 308, Birchfield Road,
Birmingham.

Since last report several meetings of the various Committees have been held, and everything is now practically ready for the reception and entertainment of the Delegates and other visitors.

A special Souvenir Stamp will be printed at the Congress by direct plate printing in two colours and lithographic impressions will also be presented to the Delegates. A set of twelve special Postcards will be prepared, each bearing an impression of the stamp, as well as a photograph, and they will be sold at 1/- the set. The Postmaster-General is very kindly providing a Special Postmark for all correspondence posted at the Congress, and a clerk and postman will be in attendance to deal with this portion of the Congress.

Every case has now been arranged for in the Exhibition and it should be very attractive to every one who attends. The following are only a few of the splendid exhibits:—The Earl of Crawford's 4d. English, in thirty-five small frames; Baron A. de Worms' pence Ceylon; Mr. M. P. Castle's lithographed Trinidads; Mr. L. L. R. Hausburg's 400 Sydney Views, and many others, of which a programme is in course of preparation.

The Programme has been arranged as follows. The List of Delegates is also given up to date.

Crystal Palace Stamp.

This stamp, issued by the King Edward National Memorial, has, we are informed, now reached its 3rd edition, which is printed in turquoise blue. The first edition was grey, and the second ultramarine.

International Notes.

Why do philatelic editors leave it to auctioneers to produce high-class illustrated philatelic publications? Surely a philatelic "Bystander" would pay; many subscribers would be attracted by such illustrations as Messrs. Glendining & Co. are giving away with the catalogue of their 13.6.11 stamp auction sale.

* * *

Should Congress Stamps be Banned? Cornelius Wrinkle, Esq., asks this question in the Postage Stamp (27.5.11/98) and we reproduce his very pertinent remarks:—

S.S.S.S.—THE NEW MEANING.

Four sibilants used to signify the select circle of stamp collecting stalwarts who formed the Society for the Suppression of Speculative Stamps. I am led to use the letters in a rather different sense this week by an announcement just to hand in the circulars of the Congress Committee. The letters may now just as well stand for Souvenir Stamps for Suppressors of Speculative Stamps. It is, I suppose, common knowledge that the Congresses of London and Manchester both gave some considerable attention to the question of speculative issues of stamps, to unnecessary and incidentally to commemorative issues. Why on earth must institutions be so hopelessly unnecessary as to ferment about Governments issuing unnecessary stamps, to petition the Postmasters-General and the Berne Bureau to have such atrocities stopped when the Philatelic Congress itself produces souvenir or commemorative stamps on its own account?

SHOULD CONGRESS STAMPS BE BANNED?

Last year the Congress, under the auspices of the Herts Society, had printed a special "stamp" in a variety of colours, and supplied copies imperforate as well as copies perforated. The stamp was a beautiful example of the work of a well-known stamp printing firm, and the sheets were scrambled after by the delegates who had been discussing the "delinquencies" of the Governments issuing unnecessary stamps—that is unnecessary for postal or fiscal purpose.

MORE CONGRESS STAMPS THIS YEAR.

The Birmingham Congress will have its stamps too, according to a notice just issued. "A special souvenir stamp will be printed at the Congress," says the circular. It will also be available in certain "philatelic" variations, in one case produced "by direct plate printing in two colours, and in a second variety produced by lithography. Possibly both kinds will be available "perf." and "imperf.", but as to that the authorities say nothing. But the stamps will also be impressed on a set of twelve special postcards to be sold at a shilling the set.

THE BEAM IN OUR EYES.

Now the instructive value of illustrating the printing of postage stamps at philatelic is undeniable, and I venture to predict that no feature of the Congress will be more attractive to the delegates. But is the issue of souvenir stamps consistent with the policy of this philatelic body which has spent so much of its energies in its first two annual meetings in a crusade against the speculative and unnecessary and commemorative in stamp collecting? Is it reasonable to declaim against government departments which, when they commemorate, usually do so in connection with events of considerable national concern, and at the same time devote ourselves to the practice of issuing stamps to commemorate a gathering of a hundred philatelists—even if they be the very élite of our cult? It is a case of the mote and the beam.

After that, the Philatelic Congress can hardly pursue its campaign against commemorative stamps and we feel that the situation is safe enough to send a contribution to the funds!

* * *

What the hobby requires is missionaries, and no better missionaries can be found than the commemorative stamps, the Dickens stamp, and all the rest of the philatelic "unnecessaries." And how tactless are those superior individuals who go about telling the schoolboy and juvenile collector that these stamps are rubbish! Even those that are not postage stamps are interesting, more so than the average picture postcard, which has ten times as many votaries as the postage stamp. We know more than one stamp collector who has not a postage stamp in his collection, nor even a telegraph, railway or fiscal stamp; yet he is quite happy!

* * *

An instructive lesson is afforded by an article this month in one of the leading philatelic journals, written by one of Germany's leading philatelists, Dr. Rommel, of Leipzig. This article is compiled in a scholarly manner with German thoroughness and genius for detail, and the subject is — Swiss and Hungarian Hotel Stamps! We can imagine the superior friend telling the small boy that his Rigi-Culms and Scheidecks are the veriest rubbish, yet of the two I prefer the wisdom of the small boy, and it is a pity that he so seldom has the courage of his convictions.

New Stamp Blocks.HOW TO ILLUSTRATE STAMP PUBLICATIONS CHEAPLY.

We pay out hundreds of pounds for stamp blocks, many of which are used only once and then lie idle for years. We feel sure these blocks would be of great use to other philatelic publishers and are willing to supply metal-mounted electros exactly similar to those used by our printers to illustrate E.W.S.N. at 1/3 each post free in the United Kingdom. A few day's notice is necessary and we can supply almost every design of postage stamp, adhesive or unadhesive.

Our printers, Messrs. Pardy & Son, The Triangle, Bournemouth, are authorized to use any of our stamp blocks to illustrate publications printed by them at a small charge per block, and the cost of printing an illustrated stamp catalogue is thus reduced to a minimum.

It is necessary for any intending publisher of an illustrated stamp catalogue or journal to write to the secretary, the Board of Inland Revenue, Somerset House, London, W.C., asking for permission to illustrate it.

The following new blocks are now available, in addition to those announced last week.

4859 to 4869 Argentine Centenary, 2c. to 1p.

(the ½, 1c. are already available.)

4870 to 4880 Chile Centenary, 1c. to 50c.

4881 Chile, the rare 1906 1 peso.

We only have unsurcharged stamps, but our series is now nearly complete.

WANTED.*NEWSPAPERS CUTTINGS.

THE Editor is much obliged to those readers who from time to time kindly send newspaper cuttings relating to stamps, which he is always glad to receive, especially from abroad. Cuttings should have the name of the newspaper and date upon them. Agency terms on application.

Nearly half the collection recently advertised at £550 has now been sold, there having been quite an extraordinary reawakening of the demand for these stamps lately. The remainder of the collection, priced to about £300, can be sent on approval with 25% discount or 50% on a large purchase. It weighs about 20 lbs.

Railway Postage Stamps.

The Editor has just finished sorting the whole of his duplicates according to printings. There are 128 standard varieties listed in our Reference List, but by collecting printings these can be extended to about 800. The Editor has over 500 of these amongst his duplicates and offers them at the all round rate of 1/- per stamp nicely arranged in a collection on 56 large sheets with manuscript notes. Some are used, and a few of the rarer varieties are included. The Editor would be very glad to exchange with other collectors, and is mainly short of common recent varieties.

The Week's News.

The Editor is always pleased to receive Early Information of New Issues, or of Discoveries interesting to Stamp Collectors.

The index number and serial letter after the title of each paragraph indicate the issue of E.W.S.N. in which the last reference to that country appeared.

AUSTRALIAN COMMONWEALTH (609 S 611).—An interesting event of the week has been the receipt from Victoria and other States of correspondence franked with 1d. only. The Melbourne Argus of 1.5.11 prints the following:—

PENNY POSTAGE.

In Force To-day.

From to-day onward the reduced postal rates already announced will take effect.

The official announcement is:—

"It is hereby notified for public information that on and after May 1, 1911, the rates of postage on letters from the Commonwealth to the United Kingdom and to Oversea Dominions, British Colonies and Protectorates, except New Hebrides, will be one penny per half-ounce."

The above notice should also have mentioned that the penny rate applies to inter-state correspondence also. A further notice reads:—

"On and after May 1, 1911, the postage on postal articles posted in the Commonwealth to the places above-named will be as follows:—

- Letters, 1d. per half-ounce.
- Post-cards or letter-cards, single, 1d.; reply, 1d. each half.
- Magazines, 1d. per 8oz.; every additional 4oz. ½d.
- Books, 1d. for 4oz.
- Commercial papers, 1d. for 2oz.
- Printed papers, 1d. for 2oz.
- Patterns and samples, 1d. for 2oz.
- Newspapers, ½d. for every 10oz.

Our Melbourne correspondent writes under date of 3.4.11 that the Victorian Post Office has issued a circular recalling from issue all the letter-cards with stamps bearing Queen Victoria's portrait and replacing them with King George's.

Letter-card.

1d. brown.

Issued 3.4.11. The stamp is similar to that on the postcard recently chronicled and the criticism of King George's portrait equally applies, and extends to the material and workmanship of the whole letter-card. Our correspondent writes:—"Our new federal letter-cards were issued to-day; stamp as on postcard (Australia, George V.), but chocolate-brown on green card, with view on back. I presume there will be six views, one from each State, but have only been able to-day to obtain five, which I send you:—

- Exhibition Bldgs., Melb. Vic.
- Sheep Station, Wimmera, S.A.
- Launceston, Tas.
- Pincapples, Q.
- Zoological Gardens, Perth, W.A.

There is probably one for N.S.W. also. The old letter-cards have been recalled, but the 1d. Queen Victoria postcards have all been used up. You will notice the wretched workmanship of the new letter cards; perforation and gumming are not even, the folding is sometimes shocking and the card employed is much thicker than of yore and does not lend itself to folding.

The letter-cards are inscribed as follows:—

COMMONWEALTH OF AUSTRALIA

LETTER CARD.

Additional postage must be affixed if this card is addressed to any place outside the Commonwealth of Australia, to which the penny rate of postage does not apply.

This inscription surely needs altering. Either the words "Outside the Commonwealth of Australia" are redundant or the inscription means that the penny rate of postage does not apply to any place outside the Commonwealth.

COCHIN (606 K 611).—Mr. E. W. Wetherell states in the Philatelic Journal of India (5.11/70) that the new stamps are all printed in sheets of 48, 6 rows of 8. They are available only on correspondence addressed to Travancore or within the borders of Cochin state. They were printed by Messrs. Perkins, Bacon & Co., the order being given through Messrs. John Dickinson and Co. Mr. Wetherell in the same issue (p. 78) gives some interesting notes on the 1898 issue.

CONGO (597 A 611).—The following addition to the postage due set is reported by L'Echo de la Timbrologie (31.5.11/348):—

Bilingual series, overprinted "TAXES."
50c. olive and black.

The values of this set are now the 5, 10, 15, 25, 50c. and 3f.

DOMINICAN REPUBLIC (558 L 611).—We have a small supply of the current postage stamps from this republic. The varieties which have been chronicled are;

1906 Issue, all with black centre.
No wmk., perf. 14.
½c., 1c., 2c., 5c., 10c., 20c., 50c., $1*.
Wmk. crosses and circles, perf. 14.
½c., 1c., 2c., 5c., 10c.*

Our correspondent writing on 12.5.11 makes no mention of a ½c. stamp, but sends us those marked* in the above list. For the 50c. value he sends the old issue with violet centre. These stamps are printed in Germany, and have control numbers, etc., similar to the current German stamps; for instance, we have the 2c. with No. 3614.

GERMAN P.O., MOROCCO (610 K 611).—The following are chronicled by L'Echo de la Timbrologie (30.5.11/348).

Overprinted "Marokko," wmk. lozenges.
[30c. on 25 pf.] 1½p. on 1m.
[35c. on 30 pf.] 2½p. on 2m.
[50c. on 40 pf.] [3½p. on 3m.]
[60c. on 50 pf.] 6½p. on 5m.
[1p. on 80 pf.]

Those bracketed have already been chronicled.

HYDERABAD (598 N 611).—The following are chronicled by Stanley Gibbons' Monthly Journal (5.11/181):—

New Values. Wmk. Arabic characters; perf.
12½.
8a. purple.
12a. blue-green.

Official Stamps.
(i.) Overprinted with large characters.
4a. olive-green.
8a. purple.
12a. blue-green.
(ii.) Overprinted with new type.
½a. grey.
½a. pale green.

NICARAGUA (606 X 611).—The fiscals have now been surcharged "1911."

Fiscal stamps overprinted in three lines in black.

Correos
05 cts.
1911

02 cts. on $5 blue and black; 30,000 printed. No errors noticed on sheets.

05 cts. on $10 yellow and black; 20,000 printed. Errors "ctc", no stop after "cts."

10 cts. on 25c. mauve and black, 100,000 printed. Errors as on 5c.

35 cts. on $1 yellow, brown and black, 100,000 printed. Errors as on 5c., also "Corre" (without os).

Issued 28.4.11.

PANAMA (599 X 611).—The following new stationery is chronicled by the Schweizerische Philatelistische Nachrichten (5.11/113).

Envelopes. Embossed oval stamps.
1c. green on flesh. Portrait, Balboa.
2½c. red on yellow. Arms.
5c. dark and light blue. Portrait, Hurtado.
Wrappers. Same stamps.
1c. green, 2½c. red.

Issued 1.3.11. The portrait of Vasco Nuñez de Balboa already appears on the adhesive 1c. stamps, and we gave a short account of his career in E.W.S.N. No. 599. One episode we did not then mention may be given here as it provides a link with the Chilean centenary set described last week. The forthcoming 2c. Chile (presidential issue) is to have a portrait of Pedro de Valdivia, who was sent in 1540 by Pizarro to subdue the Chilean Indians. This 1c. of Panama carries us 20 years back, when Francisco Pizarro was one of 190 Spaniards who set out under Balboa in 1513 from Darien "to attempt some great enterprise." This was the first European Expedition to sight the Pacific. Balboa sent on Pizarro and two others to reconnoitre and one of these scouts, Alonso Martin, was the first European actually to embark upon the new-found ocean. A few days later Balboa himself arrived on the shore and formally took possession of the "Great South Sea" in the name of the Spanish Monarch. After hearing of Peru (whence twenty years later Pizarro was to send Valdivia to Chile) and visiting the Pearl Islands, Balboa returned to Darien with a great booty in 1514. Balboa never reached Peru as he was executed in 1517 on a trumped-up charge by a rival who feared him.

PAPUA (609 C 611).—From Port Moresby, 17.4.11, we have an interesting cover franked with ½d. Stamp Duty (our issue 7 or 8) with other stamps to make up the postal rate of fourpence for one ounce. The use of "Stamp Duty" stamps for postage is against the postal regulations but now and then specimens are overlooked and get through, although letters are liable to be taxed as if unpaid.

Under same date we have sheets of the 2d. issues 13, 14 and 2½d. violet-blue 13, 14, which are beginning to run short. There are said to be plenty of the 4d., 6d., and 1/- with large "POSTAGE." The sheets of bicoloured 2d. contain a very clear error, stamp No. 18 on the sheet being inscribed "POSTAGE". The error occurs throughout the issue but only on the one value.

Our correspondent learns that the issue of high values other than 2/6 has been vetoed.

Several of our readers are in doubt as to the best method of arranging a collection of Papuan stamps. We can state from experience that we have found it very much preferable to classify the stamps by values instead of by issues. A little collection we made up the other day was arranged thus:—

1st page. Prefatory remarks, with explanation of system of enumerating the issues (1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 13, 14, 27, 28) as explained frequently in these columns.

2nd page. Halfpenny stamps (single copies, all without margin with "Issue 1," etc., written above each).

Issue 1	Issue 2	Issue 5	Issue 6	Issue 7	Issue 8
Issue 13	Issue 14	Issue 27	Issue 28
OFFICIAL.
Issue 1	Issue 2	Issue 5	Issue 6	Issue 7	Issue 8
Issue 13	Issue 14

3rd to 5th pages. Entire panes of 30 of the large "POSTAGE" issue (Nos. 1 or 2) and the small "POSTAGE" issue (either of Nos. 5, 6, 7, 8 would do) showing position of the rift variety; also an entire sheet of 40 of the ½d. all green.

6th page. Penny stamps.

Issue 1	Issue 2	Issue 5	Issue 6	Issue 7	Issue 8
Issue 13	Issue 14	Issue 28
OFFICIAL.
Issue 1	Issue 2	Issue 5	Issue 6	Issue 7	Issue 8

SUBSCRIPTION RATES. Ewen's Weekly Stamp News can be sent post free to any address in any country for one year for 4/4 ($1.06, Mk. 4.50 or fr. 5.50). Each change of address, 6d. extra. Half year, 3/3; 3 months, 1/7½. A special limited subscription has also been arranged; every 5th number can be sent for only 1/3 per annum. Back Nos., 1 to 535, 3d. each; complete, £5; current year, 1½d. each. EWEN'S LTD., 32, Palace Square, Norwood, London, S.E.

International Notes.

It is generally admitted that the attractive appearance of commemorative stamps leads to a great many new collectors starting to make collections and if for nothing else they are for that reason welcome, although once a collector is fairly started he is apt at times to feel a little annoyed that a fresh blank space has just been created in his album, perhaps by a country that he has just managed to complete. But if no new issues make their appearance, recruiting stops (for exhibitions are not so effective in this respect as a new issue of stamps of handsome design), whilst if new issues follow one another too quickly, it is obvious that general collecting must eventually be killed. We still adhere to the opinion that general collecting is the backbone of the hobby, although the wealthy specialist may be a more profitable client to the dealer.

* * *

There is, however, one ray of sunshine in the repeated new issues of stamps, such for instance as Chili is now making. The supply of presidents is limited and now almost exhausted. In due course of time it will become difficult to find suitable new subjects for the designs of commemorative stamps. Reprints are anathema to most collectors but the question arises as to which would be the worst evil—the rehashing of an old subject in a new frame, constituting a new issue or the reprinting of an old issue. To take a present-day instance. Would it not have been preferable for Italy to celebrate its 50th anniversary by reprinting the original issue of 1861 or is it better to have four new album-spaces to fill?

* * *

There is one most important aspect of the new issue question, to a consideration of which we are prompted by a remark in Philatelia (20.5.11/171). Our French contemporary states that there are more than 600 societies, congregations and missions in Europe which collect used postage stamps as a source of revenue, the Armée du Salut standing at the head of the list with an annual collection of 50,000 kilogrammes (roughly about 50 tons). France, Belgium and Switzerland are probably the leading countries.

* * *

It is not difficult to understand that this collection of stamps is largely in the hands of the younger generation and may lead to many seriously taking up philatelic stamp-collecting. The more this collection for charitable purposes is stimulated, the more philately itself is likely to benefit. Nothing can stimulate such collection more than the frequent issue of new stamps, for stamps naturally become less worth the trouble of saving with each year of use. We accordingly find that constant new issues have much to recommend them, and the chief drawback is that every new issue is another nail in the coffin of general collecting, unless all attempt at completeness or even representativeness be sacrificed. A remedy might be found in the creation of a cycle of stamp issues, which would involve the periodical return to issue of old sets of stamps. Such issue could be supplementary to the regular issue for business purposes, just as most commemorative issues are at the present day, and possible differences in portraits of rulers, currencies, etc., could be remedied by surcharges, for the general collector of the future will, we feel sure, have to draw the line at surcharges and treat them as he does a postmark.

* * *

This is, we think, a new aspect of the reprinting question, which does away with the objectionable feature that the formation of a collection would be merely a question of going to a post-office and ordering a complete set of reprints. Of course, many of the older stamps are unsuitable for issue at the present day for business purposes, but the same remark equally applies to most commemorative and so-called "unnecessary" issues.

* * *

The objection that the prospect of a stamp being re-issued at some time or other would prevent its rising in value can be met by the fact that the attractiveness of the hobby does not rest solely on the prospect of possible profit, and the guarantee of the safety of their collection as an investment that the periodical restoration to postal validity would confer would be considered by most collectors as a more than counterbalancing advantage. Besides, there is no suggestion that reprinting would mean imitating; it would not extend to minor details of shades, perforation, watermark, etc., and the reprints would periodically bear new surcharges. The idea is to assist the general collector and it has been actually put into practice by some countries; compare the issues overprinted "Habilitado."

The Schweizerische Philatelistische Nachrichten states that a thousand stamps free from paper weigh about 32 grammes and that consequently a kilogram contains about 30,000 stamps (in the case of the small Russian stamps about 36,000 or 28 grammes the thousand). But if backed with paper, as is usually the case with mission stamps, which are sold unsoaked, the average is about 12,000 to 15,000 per kilogram, i.e., 12 or 15 million to the ton. And one society is said to collect 50 tons annually! The market value is said to be from 5d. to 8d. per kilogram for French, German, Belgian, Austrian, American and British stamps, 10d. to 1/3 for Russian; 1/3 to 2/6 per kilo for other large countries; whilst good countries (in a philatelic sense) are sold per 100 and 1,000. These figures, we take it, are for delivery at the offices of the respective societies and missions and may be very largely increased by the heavy cost of carriage (which may even amount to two or three times the cost of the stamps if sent in small parcels) before reaching their ultimate purchaser.

The change in the German overprint from Marocco to Marokko has given rise to a discussion on spelling reform in the German philatelic papers. There is no doubt that Spelling Reform spells not only reform but great danger; down to the present the spelling boards have done more harm than good, if in fact they have done anything at all. The above substitution of k's for c's is a sample of the danger, for if foreign words are to be remodelled according to German orthography, excellent as it may be when applied to the German language, some grotesque results will ensue. If Marokko is to be spelt with k's, why should not Puerto-Riko (!) also be? If Sizilien is to be spelt with z, why not Zypern? And in the latter case, if the German writes Zypern, why should not the Englishman write Siprus, the Magyar Szajprusz (pronounced the same!), the Pole Sajprus, and so on. A writer in the Mitteilungen der Firma Paul Kohl (2.11/30) comes to the conclusion that it is best to retain the original spelling in the case of foreign geographical names, just as is done in the case of personal names. This is a very reasonable proposition, but we do not think it would be practicable to do more than resist further changes. The Englishman, for instance, would not yield Rome to Roma, Venice to Venezia (pronounced Venessia, with s and i sounded separately), Munich to München, Vienna to Wien, the Hague to 's Gravenhage, Antwerp to Anvers or Antwerpen. The latter instance opens up a second difficulty. Where a country possesses two national languages, which is to be adopted? Are we to write Bern or Berne, Basel or Bâle, Genf or Genève? The further we go we are tempted to agree that it is better that names should be translated for home pronunciation, yet if they are we get, as in the case which provoked this discussion, British stamps overprinted Morocco, French stamps Maroc, and now German stamps Marokko, and we experience no surprise if we pursue our enquiry a little further and find that the Swede writes Marocko, the Italian Marocco, the Spaniard Marruecos, the Portuguese Marrocos, and so on. This is one of the benefits that spelling reform confers! And it is a singular circumstance that whereas in olden days Marocco stood throughout Great Britain, Germany, Denmark, Norway, Sweden, Italy and other countries, spelling reform has now provided four different spellings for one and the same sound.

* * *

If we write the English word "impression" phonetically, we get impreshun, but although we save the Kindergarten school a little time learning to spell it—and they of all people are least in need of saving time—we nevertheless do not enable them to give the letters a correct pronunciation and we are doubling the work of the same children later on at a period when time is of more value to them, as they will not so readily recognize when they come to take their French lesson that English impreshun has to be translated impression. If the Frenchman too should adopt spelling reform, many words that are now alike, rendering it easy for the polyglot eye to read, would become hopelessly different.

* * *

We have said that spelling reform does not enable anyone to pronounce a word that is phonetically spelt, and this may easily be illustrated by the word impreshun. The spelling could not be improved, unless a new letter of the alphabet be added to replace the digraph sh. Yet let the reader pronounce the word with the accent on the first or last syllable—and there is nothing to indicate that he should do otherwise—he will find that the pronunciation becomes unintelligible. The Russian alphabet is beautifully adapted for phonetic spelling, having ten more letters than the English and no useless or double-sound letters like c, q, x. Yet the language is one of the most difficult to pronounce, because the phonetic spelling of the words gives no indication of the accented syllable.

So far as Philately is concerned, the less spelling reform we have the better, but we are not entirely against it as a general proposition. In fact, we often write favor for favour, and altho' for although, but its object should not be the assistance of children to save time that they have no use for, but rather the endeavour to spell words alike as much as possible throughout countries speaking European languages, practically the whole world commercially. It is the business man whose time is valuable. This policy is in direct contrast to that of the German Emperor, who is trying to isolate the German language and Germanize those foreign names which he cannot eliminate. We should probably not be far wrong in attributing the new surcharge "Marokko" to his influence. At present we cannot help feeling that the gentlemen who are so keen on reforming our spelling—without so much as a by-your-leave—may be likened to men trying to remove a rock from the top of a mountain. So long as they can set it rolling down the mountain side they are quite reckless of where it rolls to and what harm it does. No change in spelling should be adopted until the public have been invited to criticize the change. But enough of spelling reform!

Thus the Mitteilungen der Firma Paul Kohl (2.11/47):—"Die Neudrucke von Thurn und Taxis haben trotz der von verschiedenen Seiten geübten abfälligen Kritik lebhaftes Interesse gefunden. Wie wir aus einer Lieferung der Katishona ersehen, haben sich die Spezialisten die gute Gelegenheit nicht entgehen lassen und eifrig gekauft, so dass der liefernde Verein anscheinend nicht mehr ganz genau die Bestellungen ausführen kann."

Reprints are not entirely unappreciated, then.

A Parisian firm advertising in the Internationales Briefmarken-Offertenblatt (20.5.11) makes the following quotations on Papuan stamps.

½d. to 2/6, large surcharge on B.N.G., 53/6.

2/6, our issue 5 or 6, 12/-.

2½d., our issue 3 or 4, 5/-.

1/-, our issue 5 or 6, 7/-.

Official, 1d., our issue 5 or 6, 6/4.

.. 2½d., our issue 7 or 8, 32/-.

The official stamps of the latest bi-coloured issue, our issues 13 and 14, are listed thus:—1d. (8/-); 2/6 (14/-); others not quoted. There is no doubt that all of this set will be rare. The 2/6 was recently offered by us at 6/- only.

British Colonial new issues are becoming so popular across the channel that a Parisian dealer has issued a 40 page price-list of them—and a most excellent little catalogue too though not so detailed in varieties as English catalogues. One price above all others took our breath away and that was 25 francs (£1) for Papua 2½d. wmk. sideways, perf. 12½. We distributed this twice over through our New Issue Service, once as issue 7 and again with inverted watermark as issue 8, and both went out at a few pence.

Other noteworthy prices are:—

The Philadelphia Stamp News (20.5.11/65) illustrates an entire sheet of the Dickens stamp.

The stamps of the New Hebrides and Gilbert Islands continue to be made the subject of wild speculation, and the distribution to dealers appears to have been made very unfairly. Latest quotations are 15/- in England and 35 francs in Paris for the New Hebrides set, and 90 francs in Paris for the Gilbert set.

The 5c. and 10c. on 20c. blue recent provisionals of Honduras are quoted 1/8 and 3/4 respectively in Stanley Gibbons' Monthly Journal (5.11/160). A complete distribution was made through our New Issue Service for a few pence.

and so on, for the other values. The issues 9 and 10 of the ½d. and 2d. (compound perf.) being errors were reserved for pages of errors at the end of the collection. One page only was reserved for the rift variety, thus:—

13th page, rift variety.

½d.	1d.	2d.

The rift variety does not occur in the 2/6 value. The collector who has anything like a representative lot of the rift variety in the various issues (and he must be a rara avis indeed!) could set them out much as in the case of the ordinary issues, except that there is no rift variety in issues after No. 8, nor in the ½d. of issues 1, 2, nor in any 2/6 stamp. But we are firmly convinced that the most effective way is to keep each value separate, so that the shades of the different issues can be contrasted.

PHILIPPINES (597 A 611).—We have received the 12c. and 16c. in new colours.

SOUTH AUSTRALIA (609 V 611).—We find that we have omitted to chronicle the following two stamps although they have been issued some little time, certainly before 4.11.

New perforation, 12½ small holes.
2/6 violet, wmk. Adelaide Crown A.
£1 dark blue, wmk. Crown SA.

A correspondent reports that the 3d. new shade we recently sent him through our New Issue Service had a wide space between the two E's of "Three." A simple way of classifying the recent issues of this state is the following. Let the perforations be enumerated thus:—

30, 40	Perf. 10	35, 45	Perf. 11½ w. 12½.
31, 41	Perf. 15	36, 46	Perf. 12 x 11½ comb).

TASMANIA (607 Z 611).—L'Echo de la Timbrologie (30.5.11/348) reports the ½d. pictorial with perf. 11 x 12½.

TURKEY (604 M 611).—Another large sale of remainders, comprising all years from 1865 to 1905 and a few sets of the 1908 [1898 ?] Thessaly and 1908 Constitution issues, is announced from Constantinople. In the case of the issues of 1865-90, the quantities only exceed 2000 in the case of seven stamps, but there are 999 of the 25 piastres 1865 (cat. 17/6), 958 of the 25 piastres 1869 (cat. 5/-), 657 of the 25 piastres 1876 (cat. 5/-) and 965 of the same value 1886, cat. 40/-. Of the 1893-1905 issues there are about 40 million stamps altogether.

A full specification of the stamps offered is to be found in the Schweizerische Philatelistische Nachrichten (5.11/108). The stamps it is stated, are to be sold only in one lot and it is possible that the Turkish Government may not find a buyer, as it is likely to hold out for a high price, these being positively the last of the remainders. Our contemporary's words are:—"Mit dem Verkauf dieser letzten 50,000,000 wären die Restbestände der türkischen Regierung dann "unwiderruflich" und endgültig erschöpft."

The only obsolete issue not included in the remainders is that given in Gibbons' catalogue under the date of 22nd March, 1908, although the Constitution issue of Dec. 1908 is represented. This raises an interesting question. Are there ever likely to be any remainders of the 1908 issue? Nominally it was superseded in 1909 by the current issue, but actually it remained in use until recently, in order, so it was said, that the remainders could be used up. Certain it is that the current stamps have only been appearing one by one which lends colour to the probability that there will be no remainders of this issue. If so, it would be a very good investment, as the large extent of the remainders of the earlier issues would magnify the rarity of an issue of which there were none.

In any case the purchaser of Turkish stamps at face value has little to fear, as even though the purchasers of the remainders might get them at a twentieth of face value, it rarely happens now-a-days that the market suffers to any great extent and there are hardly any remainders sold recently that can be purchased under face value.

R.F.S. Colour Chart.

[Although stamp collectors are not referred to in this circular, issued by the Royal Horticultural Society, every stamp collector interested in the philatelic side of the colour question will find the chart referred to a very useful addition to his library.—Ed., E.W.S.N.]

Circular by the Royal Horticultural Society.

Hardly a gardener or florist exists who has not at times longed for a Colour Chart—that is to say, for a standard of reference whereby he could himself name, or recognise, or convey to a friend at a distance, the exact shade of colour of a flower he desired to procure or had seen advertised, or wished to commend to a friend.

The Council of the Society have long felt the need of such a Colour Chart, but the expense of producing it has hitherto deterred them from issuing it.

Not long since an admirable chart, containing more than 1,450 shades of colour between white and black, was published at the instance of the French Chrysanthemum Society, the price being £1 1s. net, and by this it is now possible to exactly recognise or describe to a friend or purchaser at a distance the precise colour of any possible flower. You may have met with an Azalea, for instance, which greatly strikes your fancy; you take out your chart and match its shade, and describe it to your friend or your nurseryman as, "Colour: Apricot, p. 53, shade 3," and he turns to his chart and sees in a moment exactly what it is you want or describe. Or a nurseryman, having raised a new variety, can by simply quoting "Colour Chart, p. —, shade —," exactly represent to his customers the colour-beauty of his new introduction.

The Council recognising both the excellence and the usefulness of this chart, the idea at once occurred, could it not be adopted as an International Standard, so that all lovers of flowers all over the world could accurately and exactly describe to one another the colour and shade of any particular flower they refer to? There seem no other difficulty that the somewhat prohibitive cost of £1 1s. net, but by undertaking to be responsible for a very large number, the Society is now in a position to offer this Chart to its Fellows in the British Isles at the reduced cost of 14s. 6d., or post free for 15s.

This Chart will, of course be found vastly useful for many other purposes; for example, a lady wishing to match a certain shade has only to refer her dressmaker to such a colour on p. — shade —, and it can be infallibly matched. An artist wishing to describe the colour of the sky on a certain sundown, can do so exactly by reference to the chart. And in many other like ways it must prove generally useful, containing as it does every possible shade of colour between black and white.

Copies may be obtained from the Royal Horticultural Society, Vincent Square, London, S.W.

Postal Reforms.

MR. HENNIKER HEATON was good enough recently to favour us with a list of his 62 Postal Reforms, the accomplishment of which would in his opinion provide "An Ideal Post Office." Many of his recommendations we should like strongly to endorse, and a few to criticise, notably No. 9, but our object in writing under this heading to-day is to make some additions to the list on our own responsibility.

1. Registration Envelopes are issued in five sizes, but ordinary 1d. envelopes, for which there ought to be a much larger demand, are available in two sizes only, the small square size (which is becoming somewhat unfashionable) and the "commercial size" (which is too small for commercial purposes). May we suggest three new sizes, 8½ x 3½ (foolscap), 5½ x 3½ (the size of the thin postcard and most picture postcards) and another size about 6½ x 4½, suitable for Christmas cards, etc. The Postmaster-General's objection is that the capacity of Post Offices is already taxed to the utmost to keep a full line of all stationery.

2. If it is impracticable to add to the existing stationery kept at post offices, we would suggest the creation of a "public requisition office," say at London, Edinburgh and Dublin, which would stock numerous descriptions of stamped stationery not kept on sale at post offices.

Any member of the public requiring such stationery should then be able to obtain at his post office a list in the form of a requisition, to be filled in with his requirements and handed in at the post office with the necessary sum in cash. This would be sent on officially to the nearest office which would make up the parcel and despatch direct to the applicant. It would probably be necessary to stipulate that these special requisitions should be for a minimum of 120 or 240 envelopes, etc.

NOTE.—The Post Office Guide recognizes the need of a supplementary service; on page 150 it is stated that "uncut sheets of postcards can be obtained at any post office by giving two or three days' notice."

3. Another long felt want is the issue of newspaper wrappers that will cover the paper they are supposed to wrap. Those at present issued are too narrow for many purposes.

4. Is there any reason why stamped envelopes should be limited to the ½d. and 1d. values? There was never any sale for the old 2½d. envelope but that was because it was made of such flimsy and transparent paper and was of an unpopular shape. There is no necessity for post offices to stock them but it would be a great convenience to business men if envelopes and wrappers of efficient quality, size and shape could be obtained at one or two days' notice stamped with the duties 1½d., 2d., 3d., (3½d.), 4d., 4½d. It is true one can get stationery stamped at Somerset House but it has to be delivered there unfolded and stamping may take several days. Then it has to be folded, and our own experience of a well known city firm of envelope manufacturers is that they invariably take 4 or 5 weeks to make delivery. Our last supplies were ordered 19th May 1910 and 10th March 1911 and were delivered respectively on 23rd June 1910 and 15th April 1911. As a consequence of the delay we rarely obtain the envelopes although they would be a great convenience.

5. Finally, but this applies more to Colonial post offices, some provision should be made for the repurchase from the public of unrequired or damaged stamps and it would be a real boon if this could be done even if the conditions were stringent. We suggest that stamps should be repurchased at 10% discount and should only be accepted from stamp purchasers, and to the extent of not more than 10% (or even less) of the amount purchased. A stamp importer, who runs the risk of having stamps damaged in transit or who in buying a sufficient stock runs the risk of overestimating the demand, could then cash the surplus proportion, whilst the thief or stamp cleaner would have to purchase £10 worth of stamps for every £1 worth he wanted to cash, running a greater risk of detection than he might do by selling his stamps to private persons. To put the idea in another way, the repurchase of stamps from the public for cash should be prohibited, but any purchaser should be allowed to pay 10% of his purchase by means of stamps, the applications being made to a specially constituted department and not over the Post Office counter.

Stamps should be repurchased whether in single copies or in blocks, and the vendor should be required to gum single copies or blocks to a sheet, as they would then far more readily be inspected. The loss of the gum would be a minor disadvantage, as anyone engaged in removing stamps from letters would hardly be a large enough purchaser to make use of this concession.

New Stamp Blocks.

HOW TO ILLUSTRATE STAMP PUBLICATIONS
 CHEAPLY.

WE pay out hundreds of pounds for stamp blocks, many of which are used only once and then lie idle for years. We feel sure these blocks would be of great use to other philatelic publishers and are willing to supply metal-mounted electros exactly similar to those used by our printers to illustrate E.W.S.N. at 1/3 each post free in the United Kingdom. A few day's notice is necessary and we can supply almost every design of postage stamp, adhesive or unadhesive.

Our printers, Messrs. Pardy & Son, The Triangle, Bournemouth, are authorized to use any of our stamp blocks to illustrate publications printed by them at a small charge per block, and the cost of printing an illustrated stamp catalogue is thus reduced to a minimum.

It is necessary for any intending publisher of an illustrated stamp catalogue or journal to write to the secretary, the Board of Inland Revenue, Somerset House, London, W.C., asking for permission to illustrate it.

The following new blocks are now available, in addition to those announced last week.

4859 to 4869 Argentine Centenary, 2c. to 1p.

(the ½, 1c. are already available.)

4870 to 4880 Chile Centenary, 1c. to 50c.

4881 Chile, the rare 1906 1 peso.

We only have unsurcharged stamps, but our series is now nearly complete.

WANTED.
NEWSPAPERS CUTTINGS.

THE Editor is much obliged to those readers who from time to time kindly send newspaper cuttings relating to stamps, which he is always glad to receive, especially from abroad. Cuttings should have the name of the newspaper and date upon them. Agency terms on application.

The Postage Stamps of His Majesty King George V.

POST OFFICE ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE ½d. and 1d. adhesive postage stamps of new design bearing the effigy of His Majesty King George and thin postcards bearing impressed stamps with the same effigy will be issued to Post Offices in time to be first placed on sale on the 22nd June, the day of His Majesty's Coronation, at all Post Offices open on that day. At other offices they must not be sold until the 23rd June or at those offices in or near London which are closed on that day also, not until the 24th June. New adhesive postage stamps of other denominations and other articles of stationery bearing impressed stamps of new design will be issued as soon as possible afterwards. (The Post Office Circular, Tuesday, 13th June, 1911.)

The Week's News.

The Editor is always pleased to receive Early Information of New Issues, or of Discoveries interesting to Stamp Collectors.

The index number and serial letter after the title of each paragraph indicate the issue of E.W.S.N. in which the last reference to that country appeared.

GREAT BRITAIN.—Stationery (609 Q 612).—The complete list of numbered dies found on Post Office stationery is as follows:—

½d. Dies 70 and 75.
1d. Dies 80 and 85.

Of these, ½d. die 75 and 1d. die 80 have been issued in Norwood, but we have not yet been able to get ½d. die 70 and 1d. die 85 and should be glad to have the offer of two or three packets.

ABYSSINIA (589 I 612).—The Schweizer Briefmarken-Zeitung (6.11/126) contains an interesting article on the Post Office of this country, from which we reproduce certain statistics relative to the first design of the stamps. As is generally known, a large stock was created about 1894, but owing to an extensive leakage from the printers could not be issued without some sort of identification or control mark, which required frequently changing owing to its liability to forgery. The surcharges have been changed every year, and the original stock gradually used up.

In April, 1911, all that remained of this issue in the General Post Office at Addis-Abéba was as follows:—

	Unsurcharged.	Surcharged Piastras
½ gairsh	Nil.	Nil.
1 ..	3,000	Nil.
2 ..	2,000	4,000
4 ..	50,000	Nil.
8 ..	70,300	1,000
16 ..	64,700	3,000
	68,900	4,000

The unsurcharged are still serving, by means of a "T in a triangle" overprint, as postage due stamps; they are overprinted as required. In case the above are ever offered as remainders, collectors would do well to take care of their ½, 1, and 2 gairsh stamps, for which there would arise an abnormal demand for the purpose of completing sets. The Government is said to have refused an offer of £4,000 for the above remainders.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES. Ewen's Weekly Stamp News can be sent post free to any address in any country for one year for 4/4 ($1.06, Mk. 4.50 or fr. 5.50). Each change of address, 6d. extra. Half year, 3/3; 3 months, 1/7½. A special limited subscription has also been arranged; every 5th number can be sent for only 1/3 per annum. Back Nos., 1 to 535, 3d. each; complete, £5; current year, 1½d. each. EWEN'S LTD., 32, Palace Square, Norwood, London, S.E.

AUSTRALIAN COMMONWEALTH (611 T 612).—Our strictures of the new letter-card appear to have found even official endorsement, as a few weeks after the letter cards were issued they were withdrawn and a new issue made on white card of a more suitable quality.

We mentioned the letter-card issued 3.4.11 as having been met with bearing five different views, one from each State, except New South Wales. Under date of 10.5.11 our Melbourne correspondent sends us one with a view of Mosman's Bay, Sydney, N.S.W.

New Issue of Letter-Cards. The new issue is precisely similar to the old, except that it is on very thin white card (almost paper) instead of the thick unbendable-without-breaking green card of its predecessor. As before, the cards are trimmed after gumming, with the result that the gummed edge is usually cut off on one and sometimes two sides. The inscription is the same, but the views on the back are different. We have:—

Letter-cards. Stamp with portrait of King George as before.
1d. purple, slate-grey or purple-brown (instead of yellow-brown as on the green cards), with views on back.
Botanic Gardens, Adelaide, S.A.
The George, Launceston, Tas.
Bush Hut, Vic.

Issued 10.5.11 or earlier. The views, by the way, are printed from half-tone blocks.

The Melbourne Argus (7.5.11) publishes a letter from "Ashamed," drawing attention to the inferior workmanship of present Australian issues and concluding:—"If we are to have a head on our stamps, let it be the head of our King and Emperor; let it be a likeness, and not a caricature [alluding to the very poor engraving of the stamp on the new postcards and letter cards] and let the work reflect credit, and not disgrace, upon Australia. Have we not artists and engravers and printers worthy the name and able to produce something worthy? If we have not, it is time we acknowledged it and went to New Zealand or elsewhere to find them."

It is certainly inauspicious that Australia's first Commonwealth postage stamp should meet with such universal condemnation. And what could be worse than the new ½d. and 1d. unicoloured stamps which Melbourne has just typographed for Papua?

Effect of Penny Postage.—We quote from the Melbourne Argus, 6.5.11.

PENNY POSTAGE.

Labour-Saving System.

An extraordinary increase in the dimensions of the mails has been manifest at the General Post-office as the result of the institution of penny postage, but owing to the new system of posting slips, by which letters are sorted as they are posted, the work has been carried on without complaints having arisen from employees. The English mail on Thursday represented 55,089 letters, weighing 1,127lb., as against 28,030 letters, weighing 716lb., on the previous mail day. Thirty-three thousand letters are considered to be the average English mail.

The deputy Postmaster-General (Mr. Bright) yesterday stated that owing to the special postal slips for correspondence to England, Scotland, and Ireland, and foreign countries having been availed of by the public the extra work of the increased mail had been carried out without defect. A large increase in the interstate mails had been observed this week, and the despatching staff had been taxed to their utmost capacity; but the alteration of the postal slips had also been of material benefit in this connection, and, no doubt, prevented complaint by employees that they had been overworked.

BAVARIA (610 L 612).—We have more jubilee stamps from this country.

Jubilee stamp, commemorating the 25th Anniversary of the regency of the Prince Regent.
5 pfennig, green, black and yellow.
10 pfennig, cherry-red, black and yellow.
Perf. 11½.

Earliest postmark seen, Nuremberg, 10.6.11.

The Münchener Neuester Nachrichten (31.5.11) states that the stamps are 35½ mm., wide by 29½ mm. high, and that they are lithographed on white wove unwatermarked paper, in sheets of 50.

The Bavarian Post Office accepted advance orders from collectors and dealers made in writing and accompanied by a remittance sufficient to include postage and registration and undertook to post the stamps (unused or post-marked, as preferred), so that they should arrive on 10.6.11, the official date of issue, a very wise proceeding as by this means the philatelic and speculative demand was satisfied without interfering with the public issue. What a contrast with our own arrangements in the New Hebrides and Gilbert Islands!

The stamps were issued on 10.6.11; postmasters are allowed to postmark them "10.6.11" up to 14.6.11 inclusive; the issue will cease on 18.6.11; and the stamps will be demonetized as from 1.7.11.

It is usual with the Bavarian Post office to print impressions of its 5 to 10 pfennig stamps on stationery presented for that purpose but in the case of these stamps the practice is suspended.

The stamps are officially stated to be only available for postage of correspondence addressed to Bavarian, German and German-Austrian Post Offices.

The design of the stamps shows two joyous looking infants embracing either side of a wreath of flowers containing within the portrait of the Regent. The wreath is dated "1886-1911" at foot and tied with ribbons at the top, the date and ribbons being in yellow (representing gold).

We have seen a specimen of the 10 pfennig which franked a postcard to England, which is rather remarkable, as apart from the date there is no inscription beyond "10 BAYERN 10," nothing to indicate that the labels are postage stamps or even that the "10" means "10 pfennig." Other correspondence franked with these stamps has since reached us.

Embossed Issue. It is stated by the Frankfurter Zeitung (31.5.11) that the embossed postage stamps will be obtainable until 31.12.11 so that for the moment the Bavarian post office has three issues of different design on sale.

Nineteenth Birthday Issue. We are indebted to Mr. H. Rehlen for specimens of the 5 pfennig postcards and find that our chronicle in E.W.S.N. No. 610 was incomplete. The list of unadhesive stamps should be as follows.

Unadhesive stamps.

Small design, size of 3 to 25 pfennig adhesives, used for private stationery and money order forms.

5 pf. green.
10 pf. red.
20 pf. blue.

Larger design, size of 30 to 80 pfennig adhesives, used for postcards issued by post office.

5 pf. green.
10 pf. red.

Special design, Crown and value. Used only for birthday postcards, valid for postage till 31.3.11. Two different allegorical views at back.

5 pf. green.

All issued 10.3.11.

BRUNEI (589 T 612).—Although we announced the forthcoming issue of new 5 and 25 stamps and correctly described them in E.W.S.N. No. 589, we find we have omitted formally to record their issue. A complete distribution of both was made by Ewen's New Issue Service on 12.4.11.

Mr. W. T. Elliot writes us that the 1c. green and black and the 3c. red may both be found printed on the wrong side of the paper.

COSTA RICA (599 C 612).—The Revue Philatélique Française states that of the recent "1911" on 2c. green, provisional, 25,000 were overprinted in red and 375,000 in black.

Le Bulletin Philatélique (5.6.11/143) chronicles another value with the 1911 overprint.

Overprinted "1911".

1c. indigo and chestnut, 1907 issue.
1c. green and black, 1901 issue.

BIRMINGHAM, JUNE 7TH TO 9TH, 1911.

THE Congress was opened at 2 p.m. on June 7th, delegates from 37 British Societies being present.

Mr. R. Hollick (Birmingham) presided, and gave the delegates a very hearty welcome to the city. Referring to future Congresses, he said that the place of meeting next year was not fixed. They awaited invitations. Edinburgh had kindly invited them for 1913. [The invitation of Margate for 1912 was subsequently accepted].

The first business was the report of the Committee which at the last Congress was instructed to draw up a glossary of philatelic terms.

In the absence of Major Evans, Mr. C. J. Phillips presented the report of the Philatelic Terms Committee. He said that the Committee had drawn up a list or glossary of terms, which it suggested should be universally used by philatelists and by writers on philately. It was thought an advantage if the opinion of the present Congress was expressed upon the list before anything was published on a large scale.

Mr. Bellamy (Oxford), in criticising the glossary, objected to the use of so many French terms in it. The English language, he thought, was rich enough without utilising the French.

Mr. Grindall (Birmingham) suggested the desirability of the addition of a currency table. It would be an advantage to collectors if such a table were incorporated in the list. There were difficulties owing to the variation of the rates of exchange, but that might be met by giving the value at the time and also the lowest or highest value to which it had reached.

Mr. Phillips, replying, said that stamp collecting commenced in France, and we had gradually adopted and absorbed many of the words. The French terms were used in North and South America and in Europe. In the case of some of them, it would be difficult, if not impossible, to find their equivalent in English. He thought it would be an advantage if they retained as many French terms as possible. They had been used for forty years in philately, and it was a pity if they should give up what they had all grown accustomed to and recognised.

It was decided that the glossary should be sent back for further revision.

The Committee will issue copies to all Societies, and the Societies will suggest amendments they consider desirable.

HOW STAMPS ARE ENGRAVED.

Mr. T. B. Widdowson read a paper on the direct-plate printing of stamps, his remarks being illustrated by demonstrations of the printing of special commemorative stamps in two colours, the stamps being afterwards distributed among the delegates. The production of a stamp, said Mr. Widdowson, must fulfil certain conditions. It must defy the forger; it should be artistic—though it was not always. It should also be emblematical of the country of origin, be easy of production, and not costly. The human face without doubt presented the greatest difficulty to the forger, as the slightest alteration to a familiar portrait could be easily detected. The earliest British stamps were models of artistic beauty, but he could not say the same of some of the present-day stamps. The engraving of the design must be of the highest excellence to prevent copies being made. The original die was the handiwork of the engraver, and, being on steel, was very slow work. Mr. Frederick Heath, who engraved our first adhesive stamp, received 50s. for one square inch of work. The original die was carefully hardened, and was then called the "mother" die. Impressions were taken from it on a roller of softened steel, and this, when hardened, formed the means of transferring upon a plate of softer steel so many rows of impressions as were required for a full sheet. That plate was hardened, and the stamps produced from it by contact. Very few of our English stamps had been forged, and he thought he was correct in saying that it was not until intaglio stamps were replaced by surface-printed ones that they found any successful forgery made.

In the evening the President held a reception at the Grand Hotel, and a smoking concert followed.

SECOND DAY, JUNE 8TH, 1911.

The Third Philatelic Congress of Great Britain was continued at the Grand Hotel, Birmingham, under the chairmanship of the President, Mr. R. Hollick.

The chief item on the agenda was the report of the committee appointed last year on the question of forged stamps. Owing to the absence, through illness, of Major E. B. Evans, R.A., the chairman, the report was read by Mr. C. J. Phillips.

The committee stated in the report that the general feeling of the members was that the most important action that they could take would be to arouse the attention of the authorities of the various stamp-issuing countries to the fact that dangerous forgeries of vast numbers of stamps were being manufactured and that many of those stamps, though not now in ordinary circulation, were still available for postal purposes, and would be used to defraud the post offices; that there were also numerous cases in which stamps were cleaned of their values, altered, and increased for purposes of fraud, and that in any case the manufacture of imitations was a dishonest business which ought not to be permitted. The committee accordingly drafted a letter to the above effect, and a copy of the letter in French and English was sent to every stamp-issuing State. A large number of replies had been received, all favourable to the extent of asking the committee to furnish information of the cases known to them, and expressing willingness to take action in the matter if sufficient evidence was laid before the authorities. The committee suggested that authority should be given to them or to another committee appointed to take their place, to proceed further in the matter, by collecting and submitting to the authorities of each country such evidence as might be of service to them, and they would also point out that some arrangements should be made for defraying the expenses necessarily incurred in carrying out the objects for which the committee was appointed.

After some discussion, the partakers in which without exception agreed as to the evil arising from the forging of stamps, the report was proposed, seconded, and passed, and the committee on the question was re-appointed, with power to add to their number.

[Two other subjects were up for discussion, the Linking-up of Societies and the Colour Question, and we will report on these next week].

Crystal Palace Stamps.

THE King Edward National Memorial is about to issue a fourth edition of these; we do not yet know the colour. The earlier editions were (1st) grey; (2nd) ultramarine blue; (3rd) turquoise blue. We can still supply them at cost price, 6d. per sheet of 24.

On 8.6.11 we purchased two other private stamps, of much larger design than the above, inscribed "Festival of the Empire" at top and "Crystal Palace 1911" at foot. Like the above, they are engraved by Messrs. Perkins Bacon & Co., Ltd., and are issued in two colours, ultramarine and rose-carmine, price 1d. each. We can supply them at 1½d. each or 1/2 per dozen.

The Dickens stamps are also on sale at the Crystal Palace, in sheets of 12 or 1d. per stamp.

Mr. Charles E. Hands recently had an amusing article on "The Stamp Habit" in the Daily Mail, in the course of which he says:—

Private stamps are coming into use, and will soon be general. I have just seen a communication from a large trading establishment bearing both upon the envelope and the enclosure the firm's own specially designed stamp. I hear of private individuals having their own engraved or photographed stamps bearing their armorial designs or portraits, their images and superscriptions, which they use as miniature book-plates or to give a note of intimate personal association to their correspondence. That fashion, once it gets well started, will run through middle-class Britain as the bicycle did. It will give rise to a new industry, start a new collector hobby, and possibly provide a new and considerable source of national revenue. A small Excise licence charge for the right to use stamps would be productive, and a trifling tax on private stamps—say, ten shillings a thousand, or, better still, tenpence a hundred, like domestic bridge points—would finance social reform.

New discoveries and inventions, new movements and departures, crowd so closely upon one another in this new century of rapidity that some of them pass unnoticed. To my mind the aeroplane and the applications of the mysterious energy of Hertz's ethereal waves are not more wonderful than the Dickens stamp movement. People are going about covering acres of the surface of Britain with Dickens stamps for the sheer pleasure of licking them. Yesterday morning I saw one stuck on the new railway station at Victoria. I found one the day before affixed to the telephone receiver in a public call office. The habit is spreading. There is a Festival of Empire stamp, and other stamps are in the air. The whole country is beginning to reek of mucilage.

Within the last few weeks, too, "picture seals" have been put on the market at 1d. per dozen for sealing or adorning letters and postcards and we understand a competition is to be started to induce people to collect the different views. They are just impressions from circular half-tone blocks stuck on coloured paper.

International Notes.

THE first Philatelic Exhibition held in the West Indies was opened on 18.5.11 at Kingston, Jamaica, and was well attended during its three days' run. The principal exhibits were the stamps of Jamaica and the Cayman Islands.

* * *

Specialist or General Collector? This much discussed question is again to the fore. Mr. A. B. Creeke, jr., in Griebert's Philatelic Notes and Offers and Captain J. von Dietel in the Philatelist both come to the same conclusion, namely, that general collecting is preferable. The Stamp Collectors' Fortnightly has also been inviting its readers' opinions on the best form of collecting, but with less uniformity of result. Captain von Dietel expresses his opinion thus:—

"Diese Art des Sammelns—alle Marken der Welt—halte ich persönlich für die einzig richtige zu Nutz und Frommen des Sammlers, sowie vor allem zum Heile der Philatelie." ["This style of collecting—stamps of the whole world—I personally consider the only right one for the benefit of the Collector and above all for the welfare of Philately"].

The Schweizer Briefmarken-Zeitung (6.11/116) publishes the text of a draft for a new German penal code dealing with the forgery of stamps, compiled by a Commission appointed for the purpose. The draft was made public by order of the Berlin Law-courts, 1909, and our contemporary now publishes it, together with a commentary and suggestions for alterations in the interests of philately, by Herr Landgerichtsrat Pauli, as distinguished a jurist as philatelist.

* * *

Our Swiss contemporary also has some excellent illustrations of Papuan stamps and perforations. "Rift in the clouds" is translated "déchirure dans les nuages."

* * *

The latest quotation for the New Hebrides, London surcharge, is 4/6 per set, at which rate they were offered in May by a Sydney firm. Coincident with the arrival of the late postmaster in Paris, large quantities of the first issue have appeared on the market of that city, with the result that the price of this set also has made a dip. We can offer it this week at 8/6, complete from ½d. to 1/-. A Manchester firm has reduced the quotation on the Gilbert & Ellice set to 30/-.

* * *

A stamp that is being boomed is the Dominica 6d. brown and black, multiple chalky. La Revue Postale (6.11/649) says that only 1200 were printed, but this figure must surely be too low. There are several other stamps, chiefly those of the Crown Colonies, high values, which are in very mysterious demand. There has recently been quite an abnormal demand for the £1 and £10 Nyasaland; are they obsolete?

* * *

Le Bulletin Philatélique (5.6.11/141) states that its publishers recently prosecuted a man for selling them £6 worth of forged stamps. The case was decided on 24.5.11 in Court 11 of the Tribunal correctionnel de la Seine, under the presidency of M. Gallois, and the vendor was sentenced to 15 days imprisonment, restitution of the £6 and to pay for three insertions of the judgment in the Journal, the Matin, and the Figaro.

Junior Philatelic Society.

MRS. D. FIELD has invited members to a Garden Party, to be held at The Nook, Fawley Road, West Hampstead, on Saturday, July 22nd. Members wishing to attend should inform the Hon. Secretary of their desire.

The Exhibition to be held by this Society next year (1912) is already in progress of preparation. A member of the Society has led the way by guaranteeing £50 towards the expenses, which expenses will be met by donations from members of the Society and by letting of space to dealers and to exhibitors.

THE WEEK'S NEWS.

CRETE (581 V 612).—The Cretan Post Office having demonetized all superseded issues now comes into the market with the offer of remainders to the face value of 1,352,122 francs (about £54,000).

The official circular (No. 43) is printed in Greek and French in parallel columns and is headed "Kingdom of Greece," and dated 12.5.11 (old style). The stamps are offered in conformity with the law of the Assembly of the Hellenes in Crete, No. 29 of the 15/28 December, 1910. The Direction Supérieure des Finances in prepared to receive propositions until 15/28 August, 1911.

We have set the table out in the form of a complete catalogue of Cretan stamps since 1899. As will be seen, very few stamps are unrepresented in the remainders, but of many stamps there are very few.

If the sale of the above remainders be effected at not more than £5,000 those stamps of which (roughly) there are more than 10,000 in the case of low values and 1000 in the case of values over one drachma are liable to fall in value, whilst the others may easily rise in value, as an abnormal demand will be created for them for completing sets. Such stamps as the official 10 lepta with typographed overprint, the 20 lepta blue-green with either type of overprint, the 5 drachmai with typographed overprint look reasonably certain to become rare, unless there are private holdings in the background.

The sale of these remainders implies that no further surcharging of these issues is to take place.

GERMAN COLONIES & F.P.O. (603 K 612).—The 2c. China has been issued with watermark (5.11).

KEDAH (598 G 612).—Our Kwala Lumpur correspondent learns that an issue of stamps was expected to be made here this month (6.11).

MALTA (603 D 612).—The following has been received:—

New colour Wmk. multiple Crown CA., ordinary paper.
4½d., orange.

Issued 30.5.11 or earlier.

MONTENEGRO (610 T 612).—The remainders of the 1907 set are now being offered from a Servian source. The set comprises all 12 values, 1 para to 5 kronen, face value 8/- and the remainders are offered in lots of 10,000 sets, unused or postmarked, at 1/6 per set, conditionally on their being resold at not less than 2/6 per set for 100 sets, or 2/- per set for 1000 sets. This probably means that they will eventually be retailed at about half face value.

MOROCCO, BRITISH P.O. (558 T 612).—Oswald Marsh's Weekly Circular (10.6.11/154) states that the 5c. and 10c. stamps have now been issued with control letter J 10 (issued 26.5.11). The complete list of control letters now stands:—

¼d. pale green	F6, F7
1d. scarlet	F6
5c. on ¼d. pale green	F6, G7, G8, H8, J10
10c. on 1d. scarlet	F6, G7, G8, H9, J10

Roughly speaking, there has only been one printing each year, so that if we get A11 in the Edwardian series, it is not likely to be issued in that of King George and vice versa.

NORWAY (600 D 612).—The stamps distributed through Ewen's New Issue Service on 1.6.11 were from sheets bearing the following dates. The dates are those of printing and are printed on one of the side margins of each sheet of 100 stamps.

1 öre	December, 1910.
2 " "	January, 1911.
3 " "	May, 1910.
5 " "	August, 1910.
10 " "	August, 1910.

The remaining values are much overdue, but we hope to receive them shortly.

PAPUA (611 D 612).—We are indebted to Mr. J. A. Sutherland for first sight of the unicoloured 2d. stamp.

Unicoloured Series. Wmk. Adelaide Crown SA sideways, perf. 12½; (our issue 27).
2d. light mauve.

Earliest postmark seen, 18.4.11.

The 2/6 wmk. upright has been issued in a second type. The issues correspond to our Nos. 13 and 14; the figures of value are thicker and more regularly shaped. The issue was made 31.3.11 or earlier.

A correspondent shows us the 2d. and 1/- OS (issue 13 or 14) with "OS" reversed (not inverted).

ST. HELENA (575 R 612).—We have received the following circular relating to the George V. issue of St. Helena stamps.

The Castle,
St. Helena,
April 19th, 1911.

GENTLEMEN,

In case it may be of interest to you, I am instructed by His Excellency the Governor to state that the George V. Issue of St. Helena Stamps is on order, and is expected to reach this Colony about June. These stamps will be taken into use two months after receipt, when the entire stock of the Edward VII. issues will be destroyed by fire. The only values of these issues remaining are:—

PICTORIAL.	SMALL HEAD.
2/-, Purple and Black.	10/-, Light Green.
1/-, Yellow and Brown.	½d., Green.
8d., Dark Drab and Black.
2d., Light Green and Black.
1d., Red and Black.
½d., Green and Dark Drab.

I am,
Your obedient servant,
T. R. BRUCE,
Postmaster.

SALVADOR (609 K 612).—Yet another Spanish American centenary! Le Bulletin Philatélique (5.6.11/141) states that three centenary stamps of the values of 5, 6 and 12 centavos were to be issued in 5.11.

SOUTH AUSTRALIA (611 W 612).—Correction. In last week's table of issues, the small stamps should have been described as issues 36, 46 and not 38, 48.

A correspondent informs us that he has the 2/6 issue 49, i.e., wmk. Crown A, perf. 12½, small holes, used on 15.7.19, a much earlier date than that mentioned.

SWITZERLAND (604 O 612).—The Tell design has undergone a further modification. We are indebted to Mr. F. Reinhard for sheets of the 2c. and 5c. produced from the new electrotype plates (galvanische platten).

Modified design. The lettering is now seriffed, but the difference is very slight in the case of the 2c.
2c. yellow.
5c. green.

Issued in tête-bêche sheets (as before), 7.6.11 or earlier.

Ewen's Colonial Stamp Market, Ltd.,

32, PALACE SQUARE, NORWOOD, LONDON, S.E.

Deposit Accounts.—All payments (for whatever purpose) are credited to a deposit account, and all invoices (whether for stamps, albums, subscriptions or postage, etc.), are debited to such account. This deposit account should not be overdrawn. The balance is returnable post free on demand.

Returns.—Stamps which are not as ordered may be returned within 10 days and their full sale price will be re-credited to deposit account.

Bank notes.—20 mark=19/6; 50 francs (French) 39/8; 50 francs (other countries), 39/6; 50 lire, 39/6; 20 kronen=16/6; 20 kroner=22/-; 10 gulden=16/6; 10 roubles=21/-; U.S.A. dollar=4/1.

Cheques payable to "Ewen's Colonial Stamp Market, Ltd." or "Ewen's, Ltd."; postal orders, money orders (inland and foreign) etc., payable to "Ewen's, Ltd." at "Anerley Road, S.E." Cheques on France and Germany accepted at same rate as bank notes, also bons de poste.

New Stamp Blocks.

HOW TO ILLUSTRATE STAMP PUBLICATIONS CHEAPLY.

We pay out hundreds of pounds for stamp blocks, many of which are used only once and then lie idle for years. We feel sure these blocks would be of great use to other philatelic publishers and are willing to supply metal-mounted electros exactly similar to those used by our printers to illustrate E.W.S.N. at 1/3 each post free in the United Kingdom. A few day's notice is necessary and we can supply almost every design of postage stamp, adhesive or unadhesive.

Our printers, Messrs. Pardy & Son, The Triangle, Bournemouth, are authorized to use any of our stamp blocks to illustrate publications printed by them at a small charge per block, and the cost of printing an illustrated stamp catalogue is thus reduced to a minimum.

It is necessary for any intending publisher of an illustrated stamp catalogue or journal to write to the secretary, the Board of Inland Revenue, Somerset House, London, W.C., asking for permission to illustrate it.

The following new blocks are now available.

4859 to 4869 Argentine Centenary, 2c. to 1p.

(the ½, 1c. are already available.)

4870 to 4880 Chile Centenary, 1c. to 50c.

4881 Chile, the rare 1906 1 peso.

We only have unsurcharged stamps, but our series is now nearly complete.

The Week's News.

The Editor is always pleased to receive Early Information of New Issues, or of Discoveries interesting to Stamp Collectors.

The index number and serial letter after the title of each paragraph indicate the issue of E.W.S.N. in which the last reference to that country appeared.

GREAT BRITAIN.—Current Issue (608, 609 J 613).—A Post Office notice has been issued announcing the issue of an 8d. stamp with portrait of King George, at an early date.

Line Engraved Stamps (601 X 613).—Mr. Oswald Marsh has shown us an undoubtedly imperforate used specimen of the 1d. red plate 150. It is unquestionable that from about 1864 to 1872 occasional sheets of the 1d. stamp were issued imperforate, and in the Editor's 1898 catalogue, plates 90, 92, 100, 103, 107, 108, 114, 116, 120, 121, 136, 148, 158 and 162 were recorded as being known used. Plate 116 has for many years been catalogued and has acquired a fictitious interest owing to specimens having been purchased by a stamp collector at the time of its issue in 1870 at the Cardiff post office. For some unfathomable reason the editor of Stanley Gibbons' Catalogue has now added a "London penny" plate 81, imperforate. It only remains to ascertain where all the rest of the set were issued, give them nicknames and we shall have a whole string of additions to the catalogue. The power of the catalogue is shown by the fact that at a sale of imperforate penny plate numbers cut from the imperforate sheets at Somerset House, plate 116 was moved and sold as the Cardiff penny for over £10, whilst the rest of the set averaged only a tenth that sum!

BAVARIA (610 L 613).—It is a contrast that whereas hardly a single British newspaper has published any advance description of the new Georgian stamps, columns on the subject of the new Bavarian stamps, issued on 10.6.11, have been appearing in the Bavarian and German newspapers. Seven days before the issue, for instance, the Münchener Neueste Nachrichten (3.7.11) has nearly a column of minute description, even giving such details as that the printed sheets are cut into four panes of 50 before issue and that only one pane bears the marginal plate-number.

Such an enormous number of orders were booked in advance, that the lists were closed on 5.6.11. The Munich paper before mentioned thus describes the scene. "Tremendous interest is being taken in the new jubilee stamps. That may best be seen at the Stamp Office, which can only accept advance orders up to 5th June inclusive. Here come daily hundreds of orders, some of them far above 1000 Mark, and over 40 clerks have been busy for days with their execution from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m., with the exception of a 2 hours' interval. The work, complicated by the hundreds of different kinds of orders, is splendidly organized. First the money orders are sorted out, according to whether cancelled or uncanceled stamps are required. [In Germany, messages may be written on money orders]. Money Orders, which call for very particular requirements, are dealt with separately. Here an applicant wants seven unused and four used "fünfer" [5 pf. stamps] and four unused and five used "zehner" [lit. tenners, i.e., 10 pf. stamps]; there, the stamps are wanted with a very light postmark; another wants a fine clear postmark; this application wants stamps post-marked with the jubilee No. 25; that with the birthday number 90. Another, with great cautiousness, asks if he can see the stamps first, before he gives his order! Orders by post, too, are constantly pouring in, many with foreign stamps, coins and cheques in payment. In short, the orders are of every description, which greatly increases the difficulty of the work.

"The orders—up to Friday about 1,500 in number—are entered up by a large staff of clerks; at the same time, the delivery forms are made out and envelopes addressed. Other clerks then count out the stamps ordered and place them with the delivery form in the envelope. In another office, in which also the postmarking of the stamps so desired is carried out, the envelopes are stamped, registered and prepared for despatch.

Even as far as the method of franking the letters attention is paid to the special wishes of the purchaser; not a few ask that the letters may be franked with the stamps of all three issues (embossed arms, 90th birthday and 25th anniversary issues). The Post Office does its best to meet every wish but sometimes the impossible is asked of it."

The Augsburger Abendzeitung (1.6.11) estimates the sale of the two stamps at 30 million.

Die Post (10.6.11/95) states that an error has been found in the 10 pf. Jubilee stamp, "911" for "1911". As much as 10/- or 15/- for the error in a pair with normal, has been paid. The position is said to be "die 3te Marke von oben rechts" which presumably means the last stamp in the 3rd horizontal row, but it must be remembered that there were four panes to a plate and probably several plates; in fact, a correspondent writes us that he has "10-15 different plates" of the two values.

BRAZIL (585 R 613).—The Bazaar, Exchange and Mart (14.6.11/1202) publishes the following extract from a Rio de Janeiro newspaper (9.5.11).

"It would seem that the attention of Government should be drawn to the fact that a large stamp dealer, carrying on business in London, in his new catalogue prices the official Brazilian stamps far below the face value. For instance, the 10,000 reis stamp in mint condition can be bought there for 5s., or the equivalent at present exchange of 4,000r. Not only this, but we hear of another instance in London of a purchaser being offered the full set from 10r. to 10,000r., in mint condition, for 5s. the lot! It looks as though a lucrative business could be done by buying the stamps in England and having them sent out here. In the meantime it would be as well if Government were to make close inquiries as to how these stamps, in mint condition, got into the hands of the dealers. There must be a leakage somewhere, and the sooner it is stopped the better for the Exchequer."

The catalogue referred to is that of Messrs. Stanley Gibbons' Ltd. and the stamps the current issue of official stamps first made in 1906.

Yesterday's (15.6.11) exchange was 16<sup>5</sup>/<sub>16</sub>d. the milreis and reckoned on the basis of 1/4 per milreis the face value and the current quotations of the philatelic market are as follows:—

We have never imported these stamps and do not intend to quote them in our Reference List.

Although we announced at the time their forthcoming issue, we find we have omitted formally to record the recent issue of the following:—

New values.

600 reis, olive.
10,000 reis, brown.

Postage Dues. New values.

600 reis, purple.
5,000 ,, brown.

Issued 4.11 or earlier. There are also new cards and letter-cards.

It is stated that a new set of official stamps is to be issued, bearing the portrait of the President Marshal Hermes de Fonseca. As president-elect this gentleman was staying at Berne during the Philatelic Exhibition last September. He then moved on to Lisbon where he remained throughout the revolution, almost achieving a record of being invited to dinner by a king and finding his host a president! Now he is president himself and we are to have his head on a set of stamps.

BRUNEI (589 T 613).—The $5 and $25 stamps were issued 28.2.11 or earlier. The following is reported by the Bazaar, Exchange & Mart (14.6.11/1202).

New colours.

2c. chocolate and black.

Issued 5.4.11.

CANADA (606 T 613).—The following marginal plate-numbers are found on the King Edward series of stamps (list compiled to 12.6.11.)

1c. 1 to 10, 13, 14, 18, 19, 22, 24, 25, 29, 32, 34, 35, 42, 43, 47 to 65 except 49, 53, 54, 57, 60.

2c. 1 to 30, 35 to 40, 47, 53 to 59, 62 to 64, 67 to 74, 77 to 84.

5c. 1, 2.

10c. 1, 2.

7c., 20c., 50c. Each 1.

Imperforate 2c., 13, 14.

For the last batch of additions we are indebted to Mrs. A. R. Clarke and Messrs. Oswald Marsh and F. G. Morant.

COCHIN (611 L 613).—Another value in the new set is reported by the Stamp Collectors' Fortnightly (10.6.11/69).

New design.

1 anna, orange-red.

NEWFOUNDLAND (610 G 613).—Now that the Guy stamps are nearing the end of their issue, all sorts of interesting varieties in them are coming to light and Mr. W. T. Elliot has discovered an error of some importance, which we have been able to find in the same position on all our sheets. The 41st stamp on the sheets of the 1c. lithographed has the spelling NEWFOUNDLAND, the letter F being quite clear.

Less important are the 42nd stamp, on which the E of James is turned into a honeycomb and the word "Charter" has met with an accident; the 51st stamp which has a white stop before "Postage"; and the 52nd stamp, which has a white accent after E of "One." These four stamps form an interesting block of four.

An American contemporary mentions the 1c. Guy as existing perf. 11x12 instead of 12x11, but we think this must be a mistake and for this reason.

All the Guy stamps were perforated by single-line machines and the machine used to perforate the horizontal rows (vertical rows in the case of the oblong stamps) was only just long enough to perforate the row, fitting it exactly without extending on to the margin at either side. We have not come across a single sheet not perforated by this machine—and we have examined hundreds—but it was only of use, as stated, for the short rows of the sheet. For the long rows, other single line machines of various gauges were used,

International Notes.

MR. JAY GOULD has recently been announcing his intention of showing us Britishers how to run a theatre, and it seems that an American firm proposes to show us how to run a New Issue Service! A New Jersey stamp dealer writes to Ewen's Ltd. under date of 6.6.11:—

"Presume you've heard of the big new issue company to be started in N.Y. It will be backed by a prominent New Jersey philatelist, Senator _____, a politician and banker. They have started to send out money, tho' service will not be started until September. Have been shown prospectus. Same as yours, even copying "returns a, b, c, d." Too bad you couldn't copyright the plan. This Co. will fight the English concerns, advertising in English papers. They want me to transfer my trade to them."

We suppose we should feel flattered at the way our business methods are being copied all over the world, but it is a pity our competitors cannot show a little more originality. New issues are "a good thing" and we are quite willing to let everyone have a chance to "push it along." The New Issue Service, as at present known to collectors, was Mr. Ewen's invention but we have not asserted any copyright in it. We ask for no monopoly, but fully expect to see every dealer throughout the world making new issues his speciality in a few years. The demand for them is so great and is growing so fast, that there is room for all. Where we had one competitor five years ago, we have ten to-day and yet our sales are constantly increasing and our turnover for the financial year ending 30th June will be thousands of pounds higher than for 1909-10. What is unpleasant however is the way these new firms start, not with the object of working up a business for themselves, but apparently with the primary object of cutting everyone else out. We repeat once more that there is plenty of business for everyone and no necessity to cut prices at all. New issues are much quicker sellers than old ones and do not need big discounts to make them attractive. Besides, the issue of King George stamps next year will mean a great increase of business to share round and the demand for King Edward stamps is already so "fierce,"—to use an adjective that is coming into vogue—that competition to secure them at the last moment will probably run prices up to 20% or 25% over face, or even more.

Le Postillon of Paris (10.6.11/255) records the fluctuations in the market rates of surcharged Fiji sets as follows:—

	New Hebrides. London Surcharge.	Gilbert and Ellice.
End of April, 1911
Sold at the Paris Bourse	12f50	12f50
1st May
Champion, various
Dr. Voisin, 17f50 to	25f	100 to 110f
10th May
Lemaire, various

15th May
Advertised in French press	50f	125f
End of May
Price falling, 37f50, 35f, 25f, 18f75		80f

These figures correspond roughly to those quoted in this country and the authorities will no doubt be pleased to see how they have encouraged wild speculation! It is a scandal that the stamps should be supplied in half-dozens and dozens to every small speculator, whilst large firms who apply for what really only amounts to one set apiece for their subscribers (most of whom are regular subscribers to all new colonial issues) should be refused. Such a policy is not only a serious check to enterprise but leads as we see above to the wildest of speculation and the loss of their money by numbers of collectors.

The Committee of the International Philatelic Exhibition to be held at Vienna in ten weeks time have issued a handsomely engraved stamp, produced by the designer and engraver of the Austrian Jubilee series. It is obtainable in sheets of 100 at 4 kronen (3/4) from Mr. Adolf Passer, Vienna IX., Müllergasse 4.

* * *

The Birmingham Congress suggested that the best way to deal with the forged stamp evil would be to bring to the notice of each country's Government the forgeries made of its stamps. The Swedish Philatelic Society did so in the case of Swedish forgeries, but not with the result hoped for, for the Swedish Post Office has merely replied by demonetizing all Swedish stamps of issue before 1880 and also the provisionals of 1889 and the 2 ore orange of 1891.

The Stamp Trade in Berlin.

By CHAS. J. PHILLIPS; reproduced from Stanley Gibbons' Monthly Journal, 28.2.11.

In the middle of this month I had occasion to visit Berlin on business, and after a round of the dealers I found that one and all I met agreed in stating that business in Germany is excellent, and that never in the history of the stamp trade have things been so brisk.

It is impossible to buy real rarities in Berlin, as the dealers do not handle such stamps as often as we do in London, and when they do get a fine thing they make the most of it.

I had an example of this in looking over an old collection. There was a fairly good specimen of the United States, 1869, 30c., with inverted flags, and used. For this our price is £130, and I was asked 5000 marks nett, about £245!

I saw a few fine Buenos Ayres, and the owner only valued these at 50 per cent. over catalogue, and said he could get that in Russia.

My visit was entirely for the purpose of buying, and I was able to get some good parcels of useful stuff for our business.

All the dealers tell me that it is most difficult to sell unused stamps in Germany, nineteen out of twenty collectors will not take them at all, and consequently nice old unused stamps can often be picked up cheaply over there.

The leading stamp business in Berlin is undoubtedly that of Mr. Philip Kosack, who now has two shops and a fine range of offices close to the palace of the Kaiser.

I am much indebted to Mr. Kosack for many kindnesses during my visit, and I found that his business has increased enormously since my last visit some four years ago. Mr. Kosack has now no less than fifty clerks, and even with this staff he has hard work to keep pace with the great demand he has for small stamps, the bulk of the business being in stamps from 1/- to 10/- each. His stock of such stamps is truly enormous—I think I saw over twenty safes full, and many of these are very large ones.

The card index system is used throughout this business, and is worked out in the smallest details and in a manner so characteristic of Germany, where details of business management are really a great part of the education of the business man.

[Mr. Phillips' statement—which we can confirm—that the German collector prefers postmarked stamps, taken in conjunction with the Bavarian post-office's proceedings as described in another column, throw a most disagreeable light on English methods. In Germany, the stamp collector is encouraged in a pleasant hobby and his weaknesses tolerated; in England our Colonial Secretary forbids the postmarking of stamps for collectors, he forbids postmasters to supply large requisitions from dealers, thereby checking the development of business and forbids postmasters to book orders in advance so that they might be able to estimate the probable demand! What a contrast! His Majesty the King once said "Wake up, England!" but how is England to wake up if every effort of honest enterprise is officially killed? Meantime all we can do is to take off our hat to German enthusiasm and common-sense.—ED. E.W.S.N.]

New Stamp Blocks.

HOW TO ILLUSTRATE STAMP PUBLICATIONS CHEAPLY.

WE pay out hundreds of pounds for stamp blocks, many of which are used only once and then lie idle for years. We feel sure these blocks would be of great use to other philatelic publishers and are willing to supply metal-mounted electros exactly similar to those used by our printers to illustrate E.W.S.N. at 1/3 each post free in the United Kingdom. A few day's notice is necessary and we can supply almost every design of postage stamp, adhesive or unadhesive.

Our printers, Messrs. Pardy & Son, The Triangle, Bournemouth, are authorized to use any of our stamp blocks to illustrate publications printed by them at a small charge per block, and the cost of printing an illustrated stamp catalogue is thus reduced to a minimum.

It is necessary for any intending publisher of an illustrated stamp catalogue or journal to write to the secretary, the Board of Inland Revenue, Somerset House, London, W.C., asking for permission to illustrate it.

The following new blocks are now available.

- 4859 to 4869 Argentine Centenary, 2c. to 1p. (the 1/2, 1c. are already available.)
- 4870 to 4880 Chile Centenary, 1c. to 50c.
- 4881 Chile, the rare 1906 1 peso.

We only have unsurcharged stamps, but our series is now nearly complete.

THE WEEK'S NEWS.

11, 11½, 12 or 14. That is why the perforation only varies on the long sides of the stamps and never on the short.

In going over our stock we made some very interesting discoveries concerning the lithographed stamps. The 1, 2 and 5 cents were lithographed in sheets of 200, divided vertically into two panes before issue. As is inevitable with lithographed stamps the two panes are easily distinguishable, and we label them thus:—

- 1c., pane A. No. 7, the N of Newfoundland has a thick foot; No. 8, the A of Newfoundland has a broken left foot; No. 9, white circle on foot of F of Newfoundland; No. 19, design defective to right of "1610," etc., etc.
- 1c., pane B. No. 10, the EW of Newfoundland are joined by a hyphen; No. 41, NF for NE in Newfoundland, etc., etc.
- 2c., pane A. No. 91, coloured blot on line under TW of Two, etc., etc.
- 2c., pane B. No. 92, coloured blot on line over WO of two, etc.
- 5c., pane A. No. 92, vertical white bar on right edge of "5" in left corner of stamp, etc.
- 5c., pane B. Nos. 74, 84, 94, are much lower than other stamps in same rows; No. 74 has a white blot to right of "5" at right side of stamp; No. 73 has five white dots to left of "1910" instead of four, etc.

We have part of a sheet of the 1c. which was not cut into panes and can therefore definitely identify pane A as given above as the left hand pane and B as the right hand one, but the positions of panes A and B in the 2c. and 5c. we do not know.

We also discovered a new perforation variety.

New perforation variety.
2c. rose, perf. 12 x 11½.

Issued 5.11 or earlier. We append a list of the perforation varieties of the 1c., 2c., and 5c. now known (every one of which has been distributed by our New Issue Service) and also the panes we have seen of them.

- 1c. perf. 12 x 12. Pane B.
- 1c. perf. 12 x 11. Panes A, B.
- 1c. perf. 12 x 14. Pane B.
- 2c. perf. 12 x 12. Panes A, B.
- 2c. perf. 12 x 11½. Pane A.
- 2c. perf. 12 x 14. Panes A, B. We also have this, pane B, in a very distinctive pink shade.
- 5c. perf. 12 x 12. Pane B.
- 5c. perf. 12 x 14. Panes A, B.

We picked the above out of our stock this week and it is probable several additions may be made to it.

The 3c. and 4c. we have found in one pane only. No. 3 on the sheet of the 3c. has a smudge over the U of "Guy"; No. 13 has a vertical hairline across the O of "John" and No. 14 a blot on the U of "Guy", etc., etc. Nearly every stamp has a hairline on the left tip of the U of "Guy". In the 4c. sheet No. 2 has a scratch across the words "Four Cents", No. 3 a dot after N of cents, and so on.

The Illustriertes Briefmarken Journal (3.6.11/260) illustrates a new postcard.

Postcard. Portrait of King George.

PORTUGAL (593 B 613).—El Eco Postal (15.5.11/1072) illustrates the designs for new stamps which were awarded prizes in the recent competition, all, like the new Argentine stamp, being obviously inspired by the Semeuse type of France.

Der Deutsche Philatelist (5.11/51) warns collectors against errors of the Manoel issue, as it would seem that illegal use has been made of the plates which are kept at the mint. A search resulted in finding ungunmed and unperforated sheets of all values (including the 1000 reis) printed in a brownish shade, and a 20 reis stamp has also been seen printed in a colour resembling that of the 25 reis. The latter actually passed the post.

ROUMANIA (589 J 613).—The current stamps of this country probably change in respect of perforation and paper more frequently than those of any country and one can never be sure of getting the same variety twice at a post-office. Our latest importation, issued at Bucharest on 6.6.11, is no exception, and as those of our clients specializing in this country may like to have these new arrivals specified in more detail, we have invented a new system of cataloguing them.

Next time Roumania comes round in our Reference List it will be found to have at the end of the catalogue-general a list of "latest arrivals" with dates, which (when later than 1.6.11) are always to be taken as the dates of purchase at the Central Post Office, Bucharest. The same system is extended to other countries and colonies in this week's section of the Reference List. These latest arrivals will be numbered in each case from 501 onwards to distinguish them, and the first list stands:—

- 501 — 25b., perf. 11½, 4d.
- 502 — 25b., perf. 11½ x 13½, 4d.
- 503 — 50b., perf. 11½ x 13½, 7d.
- 504 — Due, 25b., pink back, p. 11½, 4d.
- 505 6.11 5b., perf. 14, 1d.
- 506 6.11 Due, 2b., white back, p. 11½, 1d.
- 507 „ Dues, white back, 30b., perf. 11½; 50 bani, p. 13½ x 11½; 60 bani, p. 11½, set 1/6.
- 508 6.11 40 bani, p. 11½, new emerald shade, 5d.

Clients ordering 505 to 508 by number may be sure of getting specimens issued on 6.6.11, but if for instance "5 bani, perf. 14" is asked for, the order may be executed from old stock.

The list of varieties we have met with in the current issue, apart from shades, is as follows:—

Large head, typographed; no wmk.

- p. 11½ 1, 3, 5, 15 bani.
- p. 13½ 1, — 5, — „
- p. 11½ x 13½ 1, 3, 5, 15 „
- p. 13½ x 11½ — — — — „

Small head, engraved; no wmk.

- p. 11½ 5, 10, 25, 40, 50 bani, 1, 2 lei.
- p. 13½ — 10, 25, 40, 50 „ 1, — „
- p. 11½ x 13½ 5, 10, 25, 40, 50 „ 1, 2, „
- p. 13½ x 11½ — — — — — „ — — „

Postage Due stamps (tinted pink at back).

- p. 11½ 2, 5, 10, 25, 30, 50, 60 bani.
- p. 13½ — 10, — 30, — — „
- p. 11½ x 13½ 2, 5, 10, 25, 30, 50 — „
- p. 13½ x 11½ — — — — — „

Same, white paper and gum.

- p. 11½ 2, 5, 10, — 30, — 60 „
- p. 13½ — — — — — „
- p. 11½ x 13½ — 5, 10, — 30, 50, — „
- p. 13½ x 11½ — — — — 30, 50, — „

Some of these varieties are catalogued at high prices.

SIERRA LEONE (607 V 613).—We have a copy of the new £1 purple on red with value in black, issued at Freetown 20.5.11.

SWEDEN (609 D 613).—The following further official stamps are chronicled by the Schweizer Briefmarken-Zeitung (6.11/132).

- Official Stamps.
- 2 öre, orange.
- 20 „ blue.
- 25 „ orange.
- 50 „ grey.

SWITZERLAND (612 P 613).—There are to be new stamps of 10 and 20 francs as well as 5 francs, and their main use will be in connection with the posting of correspondence in bulk. In England such correspondence is impressed with a "paid" stamp in red, and is paid for in cash, but in Switzerland postage stamps for the postage of the whole parcel have to be affixed to a form which is retained by the Post Office. The highest value stamp at present in use is 3 francs, and it frequently happens that 30 or 40 may have to be attached to one form.

The Schweizer Briefmarken-Zeitung (4.11) made the suggestion that the stamps from these forms should be sold for the benefit of charity, and the Swiss Post Office has adopted the suggestion! This will be a valuable concession, as although at present the more interesting items which have come on the philatelic market are blocks of 40 lightly postmarked of the current 3 franc stamp.

The Swiss Post Office is anxious that every collector, however small his requirements, should have a chance to purchase, and enquiries should be addressed to the Direction Générale des Postes at Berne.

TRENGGANU (599 H 613).—We are officially informed that there are no 30c. or $2 stamps, recently chronicled on the authority of a German contemporary. Later on a $5 stamp may be added to the set.

TUNIS (474 Q 613).—A provisional is reported by L'Echo de la Timbrologie (30.5.11/348).

Provisional issue.

10c. on 15c. violet.

The issue is no doubt made to use up the remainders of the 15c. value, for which there is little use now the postal rate is reduced to 10c. Even France has no 15c. value in the current set.

UNITED STATES (609 Q 613).—We have already referred to the issue of a 10c. Postal Savings Bank card and stamp, and find in the Philatelic Gazette (15.5.11/165) a complete list to date of these stamps.

The Centenary Stamps of Mexico.

Extract from the Monthly Circular.

HIDALGO—or, to give him his full name, Miguel Hidalgo y Costilla was curé of the little town of Dolores. He had long dreamt of the liberation of Mexico from the Spanish yoke, and in concert with three Creole captains of the Queen's Regiment of Dragoons—Juan Aldama, Ignacio Allende, and Marino Abasolo—laid plans to carry this desire into effect. (The portraits of all four men are to be found on the lower values of this issue, of which we gave a list in the November Circular.) On the night of September 15th, 1810, Hidalgo, with ten armed men besides their few friends, went straight to the prison and liberated certain men. On the following morning he gathered his flock in the church, and told them that their oppression was now to come to an end, exhorting them to fight for their liberty. The movement thus started received the name of the Grito de Dolores—the "Cry of Dolores," and its inception is represented on the 50 centavos stamp. With a little body of eighty men soon increased in number to several hundred, Hidalgo moved forward, himself at their head. They bore for a banner a picture of the "Holy Virgin of Guadalupe," belonging to a little village church.

The population was so well prepared to respond to his signal that the next day he was able to take two towns, each of 16,000 souls. At Celayo his little band had grown to a force of many thousands—some put the figures at 50,000, and he resolved to march on Guanajuato, where the Spaniards had entrenched themselves in the public granary, Alhondiga of Granaditas, above the town. They defended themselves so well that the attack failed until a soldier named Pipila crawled on all fours with a lighted brand in his hand, and a large paving stone on his back to shield him from the enemy's fire, and succeeded in reaching the great gate and setting fire to it. This scene is represented on the stamp of 5 pesos.

Hidalgo then marched on to Mexico city, and on his way defeated the enemies forces again at the mountain of Las Cruces, but I can find no historical details relating to the Mass celebrated there, as represented on the 1 peso stamp. By October 27th, he had reached a point within twelve leagues march of Mexico. Hitherto Marino Abasolo had been the nominal leader of Hidalgo's army, but now Hidalgo himself abandoned the cassock for an officer's uniform, and assumed the chief command. Unable to bring his forces to attack the capital city, Hidalgo was obliged to retreat, and after suffering more than one defeat he was at last, through the treachery of one of his own officers, betrayed to the enemy, and executed in 1811, together with Allende, Aldama and Jimenez. The heads of the four leaders were carried to Guanajuato and nailed upon the four corners of the "Alhondiga de Granaditas."

Nearly half the collection recently advertised at £550 has now been sold, there having been quite an extraordinary reawakening of the demand for these stamps lately. The remainder of the collection, priced to about £300, can be sent on approval with 25% discount or 50% on a large purchase. It weighs about 20 lbs.

Railway Postage Stamps.

The Editor has just finished sorting the whole of his duplicates according to printings. There are 128 standard varieties listed in our Reference List, but by collecting printings these can be extended to about 800. The Editor has over 500 of these amongst his duplicates and offers them at the all round rate of 1/- per stamp nicely arranged in a collection on 56 large sheets with manuscript notes. Some are used, and a few of the rarer varieties are included. The Editor would be very glad to exchange with other collectors, and is mainly short of common recent varieties.

EWEN'S NEW ISSUE SERVICE.

The oldest established New Issue Service in the World.
Distribution of New Issues every Thursday.

TERMS, 1/1 PER 1/- FACE VALUE.

This is considerably cheaper than the 10% rate, as £1 stamps cost 21/8 instead of 22/-; 10/- stamps 10/10 instead of 11/-; 5/- stamps 5/5 instead of 5/6 and so on, the chief saving being of course on the high values. If an early position on our list is desired, the rate is raised to 1/2 per 1/- and the earliest positions of all cost an annual premium as well, ranging from one to twenty guineas.

AMOUNT OF DEPOSIT REQUIRED.

If New Issues required up to £1 limit of face value.	...	...	...	Deposit £5
" " " 10/-	"	"	"	" £3
" " " 5/-	"	"	"	" £2
" " " 2 6	"	"	"	" £1
" " " 1-	"	"	"	" 10-

The deposit should be renewed as soon as exhausted or the service may be interrupted. A larger deposit may, of course, be made, if clients wish to avoid frequent remittances, and in general, any reasonable modification of our rules can be made to meet individual requirements. We invite our clients to say just what they want and endeavour to meet their wishes.

BRITISH COLONIES OR FOREIGN COUNTRIES OR BOTH.

Subscribers to the New Issue Service may also receive our approval service of minor varieties, errors, etc., which are not issued in sufficient quantity to be distributed in the New Issue Service.

The Week's News.

The Editor is always pleased to receive Early Information of New Issues, or of Discoveries interesting to Stamp Collectors.

The index number and serial letter after the title of each paragraph indicate the issue of E.W.S.N. in which the last reference to that country appeared.

GREAT BRITAIN (613 K 614).—Our last issue was published on Tuesday instead of Saturday, as on account of the Coronation our offices were closed from Wednesday evening until Monday morning (21.6.11 to 26.6.11). We made every effort to see advance copies of the new stamps, but were unsuccessful, like everyone else. Exceptional care seems to have been taken by the Post Office to prevent the issue before Coronation Day of even a single specimen. On 16.6.11 we received the following letter from the Secretary, General Post Office:—"I am directed by the Postmaster General to express his regret that he is unable to supply any of the new postage stamps before the 22nd instant." There was therefore nothing for it but to leave the description to this week. The Editor was at work however from 9 a.m. on Wednesday till 5 o'clock on Coronation morning and then caught an early train to view the procession, returning in time to stamp 1000 pieces of mail matter with the new stamps in time to get the postmark of Coronation day upon them. The staff being away, not quite all were finished in time, but all subscribers to our New Issue Service will have received last week's distribution stamped with King George's portrait, postmarked Coronation day, a souvenir that is already being considerably sought after. The Editor desires to thank Mr. R. M. Thurston for a Post Office Jubilee envelope postmarked 22.6.11, 5.30 p.m. and Mr. Leon Adutt for postcard postmarked 22.6.11, 6.30 p.m., both franked with the new stamps. Other specimens of the new stamps received were postmarked:—

3. 0 p.m.	22 6.11	South Norwood, S.O.

4.15 p.m.	"	London, N.W.
5.30 p.m.	"	Stratford, S.O.

It is probable that 3 p.m. is about the earliest time, as there were no earlier outgoing posts on Coronation day.

STAMPS WITH PORTRAIT OF KING GEORGE.

Adhesive Stamps.

½d. dark green (much darker than the Edwardian stamps).
1d. lake-red (instead of brick red).

Postcard.

½d. green.

Issued 22.6.11 (Coronation day).

Registration Envelope.

2d.+1d. brown, with "3" in figures.

Issued 24.6.11 or earlier.

Perforation.—The new adhesives have compound perforation, roughly 15×14. There are 15 holes instead of 14 along the top of each stamp, and the top of the stamp measures almost exactly 2 cm. To be exact, 10 stamps in a horizontal row have 150 perforation holes in a space of 20½ cm. or gauge 14½.

Control Letters and Marks.—The control letter in the case of each value of the adhesive stamps is A11, but it still remains to be seen whether the A represents the starting of a new series or a continuance of the A contract under which Messrs. Harrison & Sons have been recently delivering Edwardian stamps. If the contract is as heretofore for a year's supply, it depends on the above circumstances whether letter B is to be expected approximately on 1.5.12 or 1.7.12.

The marginal lines are as before, except that the corner curve is now omitted. The cuts in the marginal lines are now made on the right hand instead of the bottom margin. Counting the lines upwards, 1, 2, 3, etc., the cuts we have seen are as follows:—

½d. A11 Cuts, none, 3.
1d. A11 Cuts, 1, 4.

It has never yet been discovered what these cuts mean; they may be plate-numbers. The only watermark letter we have seen is F, so the paper is probably still being manufactured from the moulds D, E, F, which have been in use for ten or twenty years past.

The 3d. Registration envelope stamps have a small "w" under the embossed head, but we have been unable to find any envelopes with stamps bearing a die-number. We shall be very sorry if the practice of numbering the dies is abandoned.

Designs.—Our first impression of the new stamps was one of disappointment, but the designs certainly improve with acquaintance. We are afraid the designer, Mr. Bertram Mackennal, will be blamed for what is really the fault of the engraver or printer, as the execution of the stamps leaves much to be desired. It must be remembered, however, that Messrs. Harrison & Sons only took over the stamp-printing contract on January 1st of this year, and their work may improve with experience. They are required, too, to print the stamps for many thousands of pounds per annum less than Messrs. De La Rue & Co. received, and the public must expect to suffer for the economy.

The adhesive stamps are inscribed "Postage" at one side and "Revenue" at the other, without "&" as in the Edwardian stamps; the head is on a lined ground instead of a ground partly solid. In the halfpenny design, the oval is enframed in an armorial shield, supported by two dolphins. The dolphins appear to be standing on their heads, a most unheraldic position, but the undue elevation of their tails is no doubt due to the exigencies of space. In any case, the position is more comfortable than that on the picture of a shield before us where the dolphin is portrayed standing on his head and tail, with his body in the air. Dolphins are gregarious, and large herds often follow ships, the agility and graceful movements of "a school of porpoises" being often a theme of admiration amongst spectators on board. Their gambols and apparent relish for human society have attracted the attention of mariners in all ages and have probably given rise to the many fabulous stories told of dolphins. Their appearance at sea was regarded as a good omen, for although it presaged a tempest, yet it enabled the sailors to steer for a place of safety. The representation of the dolphins on the postage stamps may be intended to indicate Britain's pre-eminence on the ocean.

The Penny Adhesive Stamp bears the same portrait of his Majesty enclosed within a laurel wreath bound at each side with ribbon and surmounted by a somewhat smaller crown than on the ½d. stamp. In the Edwardian penny stamp, the head was enclosed between two branches, one of laurel and one of oak, but the old oaken walls of England have now given way to Dreadnoughts of steel, so perhaps it is appropriate that the oak should disappear. The laurel wreath does not appear to have been very naturally drawn, the leaves all pointing in the same direction. Beneath the wreath is a "lion couchant." It is a curious but heraldic fact that if this lion were to turn his head and look straight at you he would become a leopard, and if you passed him by and he turned his head backward so as to keep you in sight he would again become a lion, in heraldic parlance "a lion regardant", strictly speaking a lion regardant to rear. In the Royal arms, he becomes a lion rampant, touching the ground with but one foot and clawing at the air with noble rage, as he faces the unicorn of Scotland.

The Halfpenny Stamp on the New Postcards shows the king's head slightly larger and more clearly printed, set in a frame held in position by attachment to the side frame of the stamp. At each side of the stamp, extending almost from top to bottom, though partly hidden by the aforementioned frame, is a caduceus. The oval containing the head is surmounted by a crown and beneath the oval is the inscription "halfpenny postage" with "½" at either side. It is noticeable in every case that the figure or figures of value are given simply as "½" or "1" without the usual "d."

HERMES, THE "MESSENGER OF THE GODS", CARRYING THE CADUCEUS OR HERALD'S STAFF.

Hermes, in modern parlance, would be known as "an all-round man"; as the god of luck, he was invoked by all classes of people and came to be looked upon as a deity of gain and commerce, an aspect which caused his identification with Mercury, the Roman god of trade. As commerce cannot be conducted without inter-communication, it is but a step to consider him as a messenger or herald and in the Odyssey he is mainly referred to as the messenger of the gods and the conductor of the dead to Hades. At first he was portrayed as a full grown and bearded man, but about the 5th Century B.C. the spirit of the times changed him to a youthful and beardless athlete, this type probably being fixed by Praxiteles, 4th Century B.C., in his statue of Hermes at Olympia. It is as an athlete, with winged feet, that we see him on the Greek stamps of 1901, and he is there carrying a caduceus or herald's staff similar to those on the new British ½d. postcard stamp.

"Caduceus" is a Latin adaptation of a Greek word signifying "herald's wand." It was carried by the messengers of the gods, and especially by Hermes as conductor of the souls of the dead to the world below. The caduceus of Hermes, fabled to have been given him by Apollo in exchange for the lyre, was a magic wand which exercised influence over the living and the dead, bestowed wealth and prosperity and turned everything it touched into gold. In its oldest form it was a rod ending in two prongs twined into a knot (probably an olive branch with two shoots, adorned with ribbons or garlands). The caduceus in this form is clearly portrayed on all the new Greek stamps issued this year (1911) and is carried not only by Hermes but also on the 2, 20, 25 and 40 lepta values by Iris, the virgin goddess, who was the special messenger of Zeus and Hera (Jupiter and Venus). We shall illustrate these Greek stamps next week, but in the meantime those of our readers who are "general collectors" will be able to institute an interesting comparison between the caducei of British and Greek stamps.

At a later date, the olive shoots were replaced by two serpents, with heads meeting at the top. The mythologists explained this by the story of Hermes finding two serpents knotted together while fighting; he separated them with his wand, which, crowned by the serpents, became the symbol of the settlement of quarrels (Thucydides i. 53, etc.) A pair of wings was sometimes attached to the top of the staff, in token of the speed of Hermes as messenger. In historical times the caduceus was the attribute of Hermes as the god of commerce and peace, and among the Greeks it was the distinctive mark of heralds and ambassadors, whose persons it rendered inviolable.

GREAT BRITAIN.—Stationery (612 R 614).—On Coronation day (22.6.11) postcards, letter cards and stamp booklets commenced to be issued at face value only, whilst the prices of other stationery are revised.

The Post Office is now issuing 1d. envelopes with new dies, the latest additions to our list being reported by Mr. E. Bentley Wood and the Editor. The list now stands:—

POST OFFICE ENVELOPES.
Stamps with numbered dies.
23.3.11	..	1d. envelope,	die 80.
7.4.11	..	½d. "	die 70.
29.4.11	..	1d. "	die 85.
20.5.11	..	½d. "	die 75.
6.6.11	..	1d. "	die 83.
26.6.11	..	1d. "	die 84.

The die-numbers are rarely very distinct but die 83 may be recognized by a faint white scratch on the ground opposite the second N of "Penny."

Press Opinions of the New Stamps.

The Times (23.6.11) :—

A DISAPPOINTING DESIGN.

It is to be feared that the new postage stamps which made their début yesterday morning will meet with but small favour among stamp collectors and artists who are anxious to obtain a stamp design that shall be in every way worthy of the nation. Although the difficulties of combining art and utility in the limited area that the postage stamp affords must be recognized, it can scarcely be said that Mr. Bertram Mackennal has excelled himself in the new stamps, and it is doubtful whether they are any material improvement upon Herr Fuchs' much-criticized portrait of the late King.

In the case of the 1d. stamp the design is overcrowded with detail and the general appearance is weak and indistinct. The diminutive portrait of the King is poor and unflattering, and lacks the fine execution which the public has been led to expect. The ½d. stamp is slightly more successful, and it would, perhaps, have been better had the same frame design been adopted for both denominations. The engraving of the penny stamp is unsatisfactory, and the printing compares unfavourably with the workmanship of Messrs. De La Rue & Co.

Altogether the stamps are disappointing after the laudatory remarks which Mr. Samuel has at various times let fall concerning them. It is somewhat strange that the country which produced the first and admittedly the most artistic postage stamp ever issued should have since proved itself incapable of putting forward a design of merit.

Only the halfpenny and penny values can so far be obtained, and they are printed by the typographical process as formerly, in sheets of 240 impressions ranged in 20 rows of 12, grouped in two panes one above the other, divided by a decorative margin. The watermark of the Imperial Crown remains unchanged. The marginal control number is A11 as on the current printings of the King Edward stamps, characterizing the work of Messrs. Harrison and Sons, the new Government contractors. The dies were engraved at the Royal Mint.

It is understood that, except in London and other large centres, the new stamps were only to remain on sale yesterday and to-day. Instructions have been issued to the postal officials that the stamps are to be withheld from sale until the existing stocks in the old King Edward type have been used up. Many of the smaller post-offices are not receiving supplies of the new issue this week at all.

So great was the demand for the new postage stamps, yesterday, that at the Telegraph Office at St. Martin's le Grand, which alone was open until 5 o'clock, the available stock was sold out, and additional attendants had to be called in to serve purchasers.

The Daily Mail (24.6.11) :—

THE NEW STAMPS.

The new postage stamps are being eagerly collected by the public, and when several post offices opened on Thursday morning a number of customers were already waiting.

Although the new issue of English postage stamps with the portrait of King George, our art critic writes, still follows the objectionable and antiquated tradition of showing the King's head crudely truncated from the body, the design is in some way superior to that of the last reign's issue. The head stands out in bolder relief, and the value of each denomination is marked in clear white figures against a dark background.

The British lion couchant is very cleverly introduced on the 1d. stamp in the narrow space between the laurel frame around the King's portrait and the lettering "one penny" at the bottom of the design. The frame of the ½d. stamp has the shape of an armorial shield supported by two dolphins.

The Daily Chronicle (24.6.11) :—

THE NEW STAMPS.

The new penny and halfpenny postage stamps, which were on sale upon Coronation Day and yesterday, are disappointing. It may be that Mr. MacKennial, the designer, had to work under hampering limitation, but in any case the result is poor. The head of the King is unsatisfactory; the design is ineffective and too crowded with detail; engraving and printing are bad (especially in the case of the penny stamp). The essential condition of artistic effect on the small scale required in a postal stamp is that the design should have unity, and should adequately cover the field. If the reader will compare the new stamps with the original penny stamp of Victoria (the best of all English issues), or with the earlier issues of the present French Republic, or again, with any good Greek coin, he will, we are confident, realise in a moment the force of this artistic canon. Mr. MacKennial's subsidiary ideas are all very well—such as the dolphin scroll on the halfpenny stamp, and the sheaves and lion on the penny; but the head of the King is the central point of the design, and, while lacking effect and dignity in itself, it is disconnected from the details. It is a very unpatriotic suggestion that we are going to make, though in these days of the entente cordiale perhaps it may pass. At any rate, we will venture upon it. Could not the Postmaster-General, just by way of experiment, call in a French designer to show us how the thing might be done? After all, the most admired of the designs on the British coinage (the St. George and Dragon on the gold pieces) was made for us by an Italian.

We quote from Lloyd's Weekly (25.6.11) :—

THE NEW ISSUES.

The new issue of George V. halfpenny and penny postage stamps was distributed among the London post offices on Wednesday. Distribution among Scotch and Irish post offices took place on Saturday, and in the provinces on Monday and Tuesday.

Thirteen millions of the new stamps, packed in mail-bags, were sent out by the Inland Revenue from Somerset House.

The Evening News (26.6.11) says :—

Criticism of a very adverse nature is being directed against the new postage stamps.

From a utilitarian, no less than an artistic point of view, the issue is being assailed on all sides. Sir John Purcell, who for close on twenty years held the position of Controller of Stamps, confesses to "considerable disappointment" in a letter to the The Times to-day, while the chorus of condemnation is joined by Sir Alfred East, A.R.A., President of the Royal Society of British Artists in a statement to The Evening News.

"I feel very strongly on the subject," said Sir Alfred. "A postage stamp is so universal in its circulation that it is a matter of regret that our new issue should indicate so unworthily the artistic tendencies of the nation.

"The design is extremely poor. The halfpenny stamp is, perhaps, slightly better in this respect than the penny, but in the case of the former there is a lack of any feature which readily indicates to the hurried or short-sighted man which is the 'top' or the 'bottom.'

"The lion at the base of the penny stamp does save it to some extent from this criticism, but beauty of design is sadly absent. The ideal postage stamp should give the values clearly, should immediately show which is 'the right side up,' and at least be free from the condemnation of being mean in colour.

"In the last respect the French issues are much superior to ours. Economical reasons are no doubt responsible for the lack of rich colouring in our stamps, but there are times when such considerations may be purchased too dearly."

Sir John Purcell's complaint that the dies produced by the Royal Mint lack the necessary sharpness, and that the engraving, printing, and workmanship generally are bad, is supported by the opinions of the technical experts consulted to-day by The Evening News.

The Editor, Ewen's Weekly Stamp News :—

It is extraordinary how discontented people always are with our British stamps; it must surely be a fashionable pose. The present designs are amongst the most interesting we have had, and their inferior execution is not the fault of either the designer or engraver nor perhaps even of the printer, if it is considered that he is only being paid £50,000 a year for work for which Messrs. De La Rue & Co. received £90,000.

The public idea of beauty generally resolves itself into a demand for simplicity; in other words the public are attracted by colour and not design. M. Roty, the French designer, was the first to recognise this, and he had the courage of his convictions when he produced the famous "Semeuse" design, a rather daring novelty, which has since been copied in many countries. The chief feature of this new style of stamp is the absence of design and inscription (as far as practicable) and its replacement by solid patches of colour unrelieved by any dots or lines of shading whatever. The effect is excellent but such stamps are hardly a protection against forgery. The simplicity of the French "Semeuse" is really a reversion to our own first postage stamp of 1840 which was little more than the Queen's Head on an engine-turned background, so closely engraved as to appear almost solid. We think there is no doubt that it was the contrast of colours rather than the beauty of design which first led to the collection of stamps.

Death of Mr. Jules Bernichon.

We learn with regret of the death, on the 5th inst., of one of the leading stamp-dealers of the Continent, M. Jules Bernichon, of Paris, at the early age of forty-six years. He began to collect in 1887, and a few years later became a dealer, his business and social qualities soon raising him to the front rank of his contemporaries. It was through his influence that the amalgamation of the two leading Parisian philatelic societies took place. Although he dealt extensively on his own account (two collections alone, the Ephrussi and the Favre, costing him over £10,000), he was even more widely noted as an "expert director" of auction sales. Of these the most famous was the sale of the Le Roy d'Étiolles collection in 1907, under his superintendence, for the colossal sum of £36,421. He was a member of the jury of all the leading continental exhibitions from that of Geneva (1896) onwards, and was largely concerned in the issue of the great "Catalogue Officiel" of the French Philatelic Society. His reputation as a judge of stamps, and of those of France and its Colonies in particular, was world-wide.

Fourth Philatelic Congress, 1912.

At an extra-ordinary meeting of the Isle of Thanet Philatelic Society, convened at Queen's Highcliffe Hotel, Margate, on June 15th, for the purpose of receiving the Report of the Society's Delegates to the third Philatelic Congress of Great Britain held in Birmingham on June 7th-9th, it was unanimously decided to accept the invitation of the Congress Committee for the Isle of Thanet Society to hold the Fourth Congress under its auspices at Margate in the Spring of 1912. In the work of organising this ambitious undertaking the Society will have the assistance and support of the Royal, Herts and Junior Philatelic Societies of London who will each be represented on the Executive Committee of the Fourth Congress.

The Executive is to consist of six members, three of them being Committee men of the local Philatelic Society and the remainder appointed by the London Societies. The members of the Isle of Thanet Committee to be ex-officio members of the Congress Executive.

It is proposed to hold the meetings of the Executive alternately in London and Thanet to meet the convenience of all members, and the work of organising will commence immediately.

A Congress Fund was opened at the meeting, the President heading the list with a donation of £3 3s., and the Hon. Sec. adding £1 1s. It is estimated that between £150 and £200 will be required to carry out the work of the Congress, and donations are solicited by the Hon. Secretary from all philatelic societies and stamp collectors interested in the undertaking.

Suggestions for the Congress Agenda will also be welcomed.

It is a great compliment that the Isle of Thanet Philatelic Society, which is one of the youngest in the kingdom, should have been chosen to hold the first provincial Congress, the great cities of Manchester, Birmingham and London having been the previous Congress centres, and the selection is a high tribute to the energy and resourcefulness shown by the young Society. It is hoped that all stamp collectors residing in Thanet, who are not already members, will no longer delay in associating themselves with this progressive body, but join at once and participate in the strenuous labours which lie before it in organising the great annual philatelic re-union.

Record Price for an Envelope Stamp.

(From the Bazaar, Exchange & Mart, 16.6.11.)

ALTHOUGH the collection of envelope stamps is practically non-existent in this country, most philatelists are aware that American amateurs are keen collectors of the envelopes of their own country. We think, however, that it will come as a surprise to them to learn that as much as £70 has recently been paid for the rare "Die C" variety of the 3c. envelope of 1879 on fawn-coloured paper, and this not for an entire envelope but for an unused "cut square" specimen. The normal 3c. green envelope, dies "A" and "B," is very common, but "Die C," which shows the so-called "egg-shaped" head of Washington, is said to have been used without official sanction. It is found on blue paper, and in that condition is very rare, less than a dozen copies being known; the catalogue value is £50. On fawn-coloured paper it is said to be the rarest U.S. envelope, though, according to Messrs. Bartels and Berthold "several used specimens, entire or cut, exist in prominent collections." They add that "In May, 1908, C. H. Stone had one unused cut square copy," and it is no doubt the sale of this copy which is referred to above.

THE WEEK'S NEWS.

Stationery (609 Q 614).—Concerning the altered prices of stamped stationery, the Postmaster-General has issued the following statement:—

The following reductions in the prices of the principal articles of stamped stationery, which will apply to articles both of the present and the new issues, will take effect to-morrow:

Thin post-cards bearing ½d. stamp, ½d. each. (Stout post-cards will continue to be sold at 6d. a packet of 11, or ¾d. for a single card).

Letter cards bearing 1d. stamps, 1d. each.

BOOKS OF STAMPS.

Books containing eighteen 1d. and twelve ½d. stamps of George V. design will be issued at an early date—price 2s. each. Pending their issue the present books, containing eighteen 1d. and eleven ½d. stamps of Edward VII. design, will, on and after to-morrow, be sold for 1s. 11½d. instead of 2s. as at present.

Embossed envelopes.—Court size (bearing 1d. stamp), 1s. a packet of 11; commercial size (bearing 1d. stamp), 2s. a packet of 23; foolscap size (bearing ½d. stamp), 1s. a packet of 21; commercial size (bearing ½d. stamp), 1s. a packet of 22.

Newspaper wrappers, bearing ½d. stamp, 1s. a packet of 22; bearing 1d. stamps, 2s. a packet of 23.

All cards, envelopes and wrappers are sold in any quantities less than a complete packet at proportionate prices. Full tables of these prices will appear in the Post Office Guide issued on July 1.

Postmarks (395 A 614).—The Post Office in the Australian building at the Festival of Empire uses a special duplex postmark. The circle is inscribed, "CRYSTAL PALACE, 12.15 A.M. JU 23 11 2" (or as may be), and to it is attached a flag inscribed in four lines, "FESTIVAL OF—EMPIRE—IMPERIAL—EXHIBITION."

AUSTRALIAN COMMONWEALTH (612 U 614).—New Issue of Letter-cards.—The vagaries of the Commonwealth printer are really amazing! This week we have four more letter-cards, all printed in different colours on paper of different quality and tint! As an admission that the perforation is defective, two of them have a second perforation running up a short way from the lower edge at each side.

Letter-cards. Stamp with portrait of King George.

- 1d. dark brown, on thick grey card. View:—Pineapples, Q.
- 1d. deep brown, on white card with faint tinge of pink. View:—Botanic Gardens, Adelaide, S.A.
- 1d. slate-blue, on thin white card. View:—Botanic Gardens, Brisbane, Q.
- 1d. dull green, on thin white card. Sheep Station, Wimmera, S.A.

Issued 23.5.11 or earlier. The above shades and those already chronicled appear to be promiscuously in use throughout Australia and it is just a chance whichever is found at a post office.

BELGIUM (608 R 614).—The following novelties have reached us:—

Overprinted "Charleroi 1911" in black.

- (i.) Dotted background.
  - 1c. grey. 5c. blue-green.
  - 2c. lilac. 10c. crimson.
- (ii.) Solid background.
  - 1c. grey. 5c. blue-green.
  - 2c. lilac. 10c. crimson.

Issued 14.6.11 or earlier. The 5c. and 10c. appeared a few days before the 1c. and 2c.

BRAZIL (613 S 614).—We illustrate the new 600 reis stamp.

CEYLON (599 S 614).—We have received the following novelty:—

New colour.
2c. orange, wmk. multiple Crown CA.
Issued 20.5.11 or earlier.

CHILE (609 Q 614).—"Merry Forest" writes as follows to Mekeel's Weekly Stamp News (10.6.11/194).

Chile.—At last collectors have discovered that the American Bank Note is not infallible. For instance the current Panama part perms. will be recalled. In our May 13th Latin American letter we mentioned half heartedly a discovery made by a certain Sr. Reed in the Tarapaca Filatelo for March, in which three distinct types were noted, in regard to the 5c. centenary. We did not pay much consideration to the discovery until we noticed in Ewen's Weekly for May 20th a short item written by Mr. J. H. Chapman concerning a retouched type of the 5c. It was then that we pulled out our album, and compared all the varieties of chileno centenary stamps in our possession. Sr. Reed's observation is fully confirmed. There exist three types, and these not at all caused by mere wearing of the plates, for these reasons—the American Bank Note Co. did not print off the whole supply of centenary stamps in one lot (for we have often come across notices in the Valparaiso Mercurio, concerning the customs department of that port interning consignments of postage stamps until released by order of the Ministry of the Interior); further the late printings (at least as evidenced by original covers in our possession) are sharp and clear in their lines, showing retouching; and lastly the 3c. and 15c. (which were really supplementary values, and whose designs were altogether out of scale compared with the rest of the set) exist only in the final or 3rd type.

The types are distinguished as follows:—
(1) washed out shades, faint lettering in American Bank Note Co., cross hatching in upper part of stamp horizontal only, only one line in the right side of the white bar above "Chile Correos";
(2) intermediate type—American Bank Note Co. strong and clear, cross hatching still horizontal only, two lines in right side of white bar above "Chile Correos";
(3) American Bank Note Co. clear, diagonal as well as vertical cross hatching in upper part of stamp, two lines in right side of white bar. The varieties may be summarized as follows:—

- (1) 1c. ?, 2c., 5c., 10c., 12c.
- (2) 20c., 25c.
- (3) 1c., 3c., 5c., 15c.

It is possible that type 2 precedes type 1, since type 2 shows a much more vigorous impression. If we consider the fact that some of the stamps are printed on the new American Bank Note Co. gray paper, and there exists many shades, we can realize that there are discouraging times ahead for collectors of 20th century Chile.

CHINESE P.O., TIBET (A 614).—Mr. W. T. Wilson has shown us the following interesting novelties:—

Adhesive stamps of China overprinted with new values in Indian currency for use in the three Chinese Post Offices in Tibet, Yatung, Gyantse and Lhasa.

- 3 pies on 1c. yellow.
- 4 anna on 2c. green.
- 1 " on 4c. red.
- 2 " on 7c. marone.
- 2½ " on 10c. blue.
- 3 " on 16c. olive-green.
- 4 " on 20c. lake.
- 6 " on 30c. red.
- 12 " on 50c. green.
- 1 rupee on $1 rose.
- 2 " on $2 rose and yellow.

Issued 6.11? The overprint consists of the value "Two Annas" (or as may be) in words, in Chinese, English and Tibetan, in three lines.

Tibet has been mentioned in connection with philately before, as a mission, with military escort, despatched from India in 1904, in consequence of the Tibetans disregarding the Convention of 1890 under which a trade mart was established at Yatung, carried with it a postmark "Lahassa", though correspondence was only franked with ordinary Indian stamps. As the result of this mission a new convention was signed (7.9.04) providing against other things for trade marts at Gyantse and Gartok as well as Yatung. By the Convention of Peking (4.06) China accepted the conventions of 1890 and 1904 and declared that no foreign state should interfere in Tibet, while England also undertook not to interfere in the administration of Tibet or annex territory. The new trade marts were opened in 1908 and despite the opposition of the Lamas or monks, who resented the loss of their former seclusion and authority, the Chinese strengthened their hold over the administration. In Feb. 1910 the Dalai Lama fled to India, pursued by Chinese troops and was then deposed by the Chinese Emperor. The Chinese authorities have now established post offices at Lhasa and two of the trade marts, and the issue of stamps now chronicled is the latest development. Agencies of the Indian Post Office (using ordinary Indian stamps) were also established at Yatung (Chumbi), Gyantse and Pharijong, early in 1909.

GILBERT AND ELLICE ISLANDS (606 G 614).—The eve of Coronation day brought us 120 sets of these much sought after stamps (some minus the 1/- value) but although we could easily have disposed of them in one lot for £200 for speculative purposes, we preferred to distribute them to the earlier subscribers of our New Issue Service at the nominal rate of 2/11 per set, only one to each subscriber. It is unfortunate that we could not make a complete distribution and it is to be hoped that one of these days postmasters will see their way to show more consideration to regular subscribers. As it is, not a few of the Gilbert and Ellice Islands sets have been made the subject of wild speculation by people who never import except in cases like this. Our sets comprised the Surcharged, 2½d., 5d., 6d. and 1/- on Fiji;

Pandanus Tree, ½d., 1d., 2d.

and are the first and only supply that has yet resulted from a mass of correspondence, remittances and telegrams spread over nearly a year.

GREECE (606 Z 614).—A correspondent shows us the following variety:—

With zigzag roulette in black.
25c. blue, 1911 issue.

Earliest postmark seen, 16.5.11 o/s.

ICELAND (602 G 614).—The last mail from Reykjavik (16.6.11) brought us a supply of the new 4 aur stamps issued to celebrate the Centenary of the birth of the Icelandic politician Jón Sigurdsson, who died in 1879 and who is chiefly famous for having secured Home Rule for Iceland.

Embossed head of Jón Sigurdsson, in a plain circle, with name below; at foot of stamp "ISLAND"; in top corners "4" and "A"; all in white, nothing else except a solid dark blue ground. Perf. 13.

4 aur, dark blue and white.

Issued 17.6.11? Printed in sheets of 100, 10 rows of 10, with plain margins. The other promised values of the new set were not issued up to the time our correspondent wrote.

NEWFOUNDLAND (613 H 614).—We have received the following official notice respecting the Coronation Issue.

General Post Office.

NEW ISSUE CORONATION POSTAGE STAMPS.

Commencing Monday, the 19th inst., a New Issue of Postage Stamps, issued to commemorate the Coronation of King George V., will be on sale to the public. The issue will comprise 11 denominations as follows:—

- 1 cent, design Queen Mary.
- 2 " " King George.
- 3 " " Prince of Wales.
- 4 " " Prince Albert.
- 5 " " Princess Mary.
- 6 " " Prince Henry.
- 8 " " Prince George.
- 9 " " Prince John.
- 10 " " Queen Alexandra.
- 12 " " Duke of Connaught.
- 15 " " Arms of Newfoundland.

H. J. H. Woods,
Postmaster-General.

June 14, 31
chronicle

We expect to have a large consignment of these stamps by an early mail. This set of stamps should be extraordinarily popular, especially the set from one cent to nine cents. It may be recalled that the 1897 set of Newfoundland stamps portrayed the following members of the Royal Family.

- ½c. Prince of Wales (at age of 3).
- 1c. Queen Victoria.
- 2c. King Edward VII.
- 3c. Queen Alexandra.
- 4c. The Queen.
- 5c. The King.

The King and Queen were then Duke and Duchess of York.

EWEN'S NEW ISSUE SERVICE.

The oldest established New Issue Service in the World.
Distribution of New Issues every Thursday.

TERMS, 11 PER 1 - FACE VALUE.

This is considerably cheaper than the 10% rate, as £1 stamps cost 21/8 instead of 22/-; 10/- stamps 10/10 instead of 11/-; 5/- stamps 5/5 instead of 5/6 and so on, the chief saving being of course on the high values. If an early position on our list is desired, the rate is raised to 1/2 per 1/- and the earliest positions of all cost an annual premium as well, ranging from one to twenty guineas.

AMOUNT OF DEPOSIT REQUIRED.

If New Issues required up to £1 limit of face value.	...	...	...	Deposit £5
" " " 10 -	"	"	"	" £3
" " " 5 -	"	"	"	" £2
" " " 2 6	"	"	"	" £1
" " " 1 -	"	"	"	" 10 -

The deposit should be renewed as soon as exhausted or the service may be interrupted. A larger deposit may, of course, be made, if clients wish to avoid frequent remittances, and in general, any reasonable modification of our rules can be made to meet individual requirements. We invite our clients to say just what they want and endeavour to meet their wishes.

BRITISH COLONIES OR FOREIGN COUNTRIES OR BOTH.

Subscribers to the New Issue Service may also receive our approval service of minor varieties, errors, etc., which are not issued in sufficient quantity to be distributed in the New Issue Service.

The Week's News.

The Editor is always pleased to receive Early Information of New Issues, or of Discoveries interesting to Stamp Collectors.

The index number and serial letter after the title of each paragraph indicate the issue of E.W.S.N. in which the last reference to that country appeared.

GREAT BRITAIN (614 L 615).—Our earliest dates for the new stamps have been beaten by several correspondents, including the inevitable record-breaker who purchased the stamp "the day before."

Mr. C. R. Simmons writes:—

"I beg to inform you that I have a postcard franked with a ½d. King George V. stamp, post-marked Brighton 12.45 p.m. June 22, '11, and thought you might like to know of it as it is earlier than those mentioned in current number E.W.S.N."

Mr. E. R. Woodward writes:—

"In your notes in this week's News you give the time of the earliest postmark of King George stamps as 3 p.m. I have several envelopes with ½d. and 1d. King George stamps postmarked 1.15 a.m. on Coronation Day 22/6/11."

Mr. H. C. Knowles writes:—

"Reading your article on the New Issue ½d. and 1d. stamps in this week's News, it will probably be of interest to you to know that I received a letter and a postcard bearing the new stamps on the morning of Coronation Day, and postmarked Manchester 10.15 p.m. 21/6/11. As there seems to have been great care taken by the Officials that the stamps were not sold before the 22nd, I feel rather fortunate in having received them with the above postmark."

Stanley Gibbons' Monthly Journal (30.6.11/225) makes the interesting statement that for two days the new stamps were printed at Somerset House and this printing may be distinguished by the control letter A.11, which has a stop after the A. Who will be first to discover this variety? It should become a rarity.

Unadhesive Stamps (609 T 615).—We are shown ½d. die 76 and 1d. die 83 by Mr. E. Bentley Wood, used 17.6.11 and 6.6.11 respectively, and find 1d. die 84 on sale at Anerley Road Post Office, 26.6.11. The list of dies known is now as follows:

Envelope Dies. List of die-numbers known.

Value.	Dies brought into use.	Dies known to be in reserve.
½d.	7-30, 43-76.	None.
1d.	7-30, 43-85.	86-88.
1½d.	1, 2.	3.
2d.	1, 2.	3.
2½d.	3.	1, 2, 4, 5.
3d.	1, 2.	3.
4d.	1.	2, 3.
6d.	1-13.	14-18.
10d.	1.	2, 3.
1/-	1.	2, 3.
3d. Reg.	1-18.	?

The ½d. die, with embossed head of King George, looks likely to appear at an early date, unless a further series of King Edward dies was created.

Mr. E. Bentley Wood writes:—

"Re your note in the last issue of E.W.S.N. of Edward VII. envelope dies, I have looked through a lot of dark shade of yellow-green copies which I had passed over as being "B.R." dies, and find a ½d. die 75 clearly postmarked "LEEDS MR. 13 11" thus ante-dating your early record (25.5.11) by over two months. Can submit if preferred."

Private Underprints (385, 392, 411 R 615).—Mr. E. Bentley Wood writes, under date of 18.6.11:—

FIRMS' UNDERPRINTS.

I find the "Watts" underprint is appearing in a new setting, smaller type than before, in black over gum, and reading downwards instead of upward. At present I have only seen it on the penny (Ed. VII.) but I have it on both the De la Rue and Harrison printings.

The New Stamps.

SURELY DO new stamps were ever heralded by such a storm of dissatisfaction as our new ½d. and 1d. ones! Yet the designs are really clever ones, and indisputably far more interesting than their predecessors. The trouble seems to be that they are not suited to the cheap style of printing that the Postmaster-General has thought fit to adopt, in order to add another £10,000 to his millions of annual profit.

At the same time, it is questionable whether a clever design is really wanted. King Edward expressed himself in favour of a design limited to the royal portrait and the necessary inscription, and it is true that the beautiful simplicity of the 1840 stamps has been universally extolled. But it is doubtful if a simple design would provide an adequate protection against forgery.

Some of the criticisms cannot be justified. One critic, for instance, complains of the paper, yet the paper has not been changed! The paper appears thinner because the stamps have a thinner coating of gum. The gum is on this account more liable to be washed off if the stamp is overdamped and the failure of a stamp to stick is more likely to be due to the use of too much water to damp it than poorer quality of the gum. Then we are told that the King's head prints badly because it was too well engraved; had the engraving been coarser, the result would have been better. There is no question as to the excellence of the frames, and criticism is mainly directed as to their suitability for combination with the head. The comparison of the colouring with that of the "richly coloured" French stamps is in no wise due to the use of inferior inks, but is explained by the fact that the best ink requires a solid or nearly solid ground to produce a rich effect. The more white space there is in a stamp, the less effective will be the colouring. In some colour charts a colour is printed in a series of shades from dark to pale, every stroke being printed with the same ink! The effect is gained by differentiating the space between the lines with which the subject is shaded. If, for instance, the laurel wreath were redrawn quite solid, we should get quite a rich colour effect and if the stamps were line-engraved, we venture to say the present design would without further alteration be as much admired as it is at present decried! Some idea of the effect can be gained by painting over the laurel wreath. We reproduce below a further batch of extracts from the daily and weekly press.

THE NEW POSTAGE STAMPS.

Mr. Touche (Islington, N., Opp.) asked the Secretary to the Treasury whether he would state approximately the figure of the yearly saving effected upon the manufacture of adhesive postage stamps as between the tender of Messrs. De la Rue and that of Messrs. Harrison, and whether the stamps issued to the public on Coronation Day met all the requirements of the new contract.

Mr. Hobhouse (Bristol, E.)—I do not feel at liberty to divulge the figures of the individual tenders received. As regards the second part of the question, the reply is in the affirmative, regard being had to the initial difficulties.

Mr. E. Cecil (Aston Manor, Opp.) asked the Postmaster-General whether, in view of the dissatisfaction at the new postage stamps, both owing to the complete want of resemblance of the portrait of His Majesty and the clumsiness of the printing, especially on the penny stamp, he would consider whether a fresh issue should be designed with a new portrait of His Majesty; and whether the proposed issue of higher denominations with the existing portrait should be cancelled.

Mr. Bennett-Goldney (Canterbury, Opp.) asked the Postmaster-General whether he would take early steps, either by competition or otherwise, to obtain another design; if so, whether he would make it a condition of acceptance of any design that the portrait of the King shall be an actual miniature likeness of His Majesty; whether he would cause the new designs so obtained to be submitted to a small committee of competent persons before the actual expense of engraving was incurred; and whether, at the same time, he would arrange for the stamps to be printed on less tearable paper.

Mr. Herbert Samuel (Yorkshire, Cleveland).—The portrait of his Majesty was engraved from a special photograph, and the process was entrusted to the Royal Mint. I am disappointed that the result should not have been more successful (cheers), and I agree that there is room for improvement in printing the penny stamp—an improvement which I hope will be secured with more experience on the part of the contractors, who have undertaken this work for the first time and who have been working under great pressure. I am in communication with them on the subject. The paper used is the same in the new as in the old stamps. The denominations which have not yet been placed on sale are in an advanced stage of preparation, and I am not prepared to take the course suggested by the hon. member for Canterbury.

Mr. A. Lee.—Has the right hon. gentleman not passed proofs of these stamps before they were finally approved? And can he say that the terms of the contract have been carried out in view of the inefficient result?

Mr. Herbert Samuel.—Yes, sir; proofs were submitted and were regarded as satisfactory. My right hon. friend the Secretary to the Treasury has just said in answer to a question that it is considered the terms of the contract have been fulfilled in view of the initial difficulties.

Mr. Bennett-Goldney.—As the design of a postage stamp is virtually as important as that of the coinage, may I ask the right hon. gentleman whether he has seen any design submitted to the Imperial Conference in connexion with the proposal for a uniform or co-operative design for one at least of the stamps for the whole of the British Empire?

Mr. Herbert Samuel.—I hardly think that arises out of the question on the paper. As a matter of fact, the suggestion has been made that there should be a uniform stamp throughout the Empire, but the suggestion has not been received with favour in several of the quarters most concerned.

The Times (29.6.11):—

MR. MACKENNA AND THE NEW STAMPS.

The Process of Reproduction.

In view of the criticisms which have been passed upon the new penny and halfpenny postage stamps it ought to be stated that the head of the King in both stamps is not the work of Mr. Bertram Mackennal. Although the design of the stamps has been generally attributed to Mr. Mackennal, he is responsible only for the frame in which the King's head is inserted. The King's head has been reproduced from a photograph.

The new stamps, like those of the previous reign and the present French stamps, have, it would seem, been produced by a process of surface printing, and not by line engraving, as are the stamps of the United States of America and some other countries.

The Evening News (28.6.11):—

WERE THE NEW STAMPS RUSHED?

A good deal of the dissatisfaction which exists concerning the new stamps could be removed in a very simple way.

Part of it concerns the manner in which the design has been reproduced on the stamp.

It is well known that when the Government let the contract for the manufacture of stamps to Messrs. Harrison and Sons instead of to Messrs. De la Rue and Co., who had had it for many years, they decided to make the die and the plates themselves.

Now, making a die for a postage stamp is a very delicate operation. The Mint, to whom was given the task, are not used to that kind of work, for it is totally different to cutting out the dies for coins.

There is, however, no reason why it should not be improved upon, and it is understood that the question of making a new die and plates is under consideration. The cost would be comparatively trivial.

It is well known that the Mint found the task of carrying out this new work a good deal more difficult than they thought, and at the last moment they were considerably rushed to get the die and plates ready in time for the stamps to be manufactured.

Some blame for the looks of the new issue has been put upon the shoulders of Messrs. Harrison, the new contractors, but this seems hardly warranted.

The plates, Mr. Harrison said to one of our representatives, should have been in his firm's hands on January 1st, but they did not, in fact, arrive until a few days before the issue.

And then in order to supply the whole kingdom work was done at great pressure. All the staff worked overtime.

His firm had nothing to do with the design. All they had to do was to print from plates supplied by the Mint.

He would like to know in what respect the "workmanship" mentioned by Sir John Purcell did not compare with other stamps.

As a matter of fact, his firm, the present contractors, had printed all the King Edward stamps since last June, and even skilled collectors could not tell the difference.

His firm, Mr. Harrison concluded, had nothing to do with the colour of the stamps, which had also been attacked. This was purely a matter of taste. The authorities of the Post Office and Inland Revenue in consultation had chosen the colours, and they had got what they wanted.

The Birmingham Gazette (29.6.11):—

OUR NEW STAMPS.

Mr. Evelyn Cecil, the Unionist member for Aston Manor, in the House of Commons yesterday, turned from contemplating the minor delinquencies of Mr. Lloyd George and the Home Secretary to deal with the inartistic taste (in the way of postage stamps) of Mr. Herbert Samuel. We are not surprised. "The thing (alluding to the new stamp), is calculated to undermine monarchy." So says Mr. Henniker Heaton, adding, that unless a committee is appointed forthwith to produce a proper stamp, the thing will be a constant source of inextinguishable laughter." He also tells us that a most beautiful Empire stamp was submitted to the delegates at the late Conference, but money difficulties and others rendered its adoption impossible. Over the top was "British Empire" and below the name of the country of issue. Such a stamp would be an ideal postage stamp and something of the kind ought to be designed. The new stamp is undoubtedly inartistic and badly printed; but we have not yet heard any suggestion that it will fail in its proper function as a stamp. It will still carry letters. And that, after all, is the main point. "A stamp"—as Robert Burns might have said to Mr. Henniker Heaton—"A stamp's a stamp for a' that."

The Leicester Mail (26.6.11):—

GEORGE V. STAMPS.

A Disappointing Design.

(Special to The Leicester Mail.)

Leicester people, who a few days ago were able to secure the new postage stamps, seem to share the general feeling that the new issue is disappointing. Stamp collectors and artists share the public disappointment, and one result has been in the small demand for the new stamp at the Post-Office. When the central office was opened on Coronation Day, customers were numerous for an hour or so, but there was an entire absence of anything approaching a rush—as was anticipated.

On Friday morning the sale of the new stamps in Leicester was greater, though not at all abnormal. It is obvious the public have not yet realised that the new George V. stamps are on sale.

The Daily Mirror (28.6.11):—

THE NEW STAMPS.

While examining a sheet of the new penny stamps—the first I had bought—I was fortunate in quickly coming across a misprint, which proved to be the only one on the sheet. It will be noticed on all others that the outer line is broken at the top by the top of the crown. In this solitary specimen the line is complete, the top of the crown being omitted.

The Daily News (28.6.11):—

THE NEW STAMPS.

Criticism of the new penny stamp, begun by Sir John Purcell, is gathering weight as the specimen is being issued to a wider public. Mr. Henniker Heaton was very emphatic yesterday, when interviewed by a "Daily News" representative. "The thing is calculated to undermine monarchy in England," he said.

Mr. Henniker Heaton proposed that a committee should forthwith be appointed to produce a stamp "else the thing will be a constant source of inextinguishable laughter." As head of that committee he named Lord Crawford, who is perhaps the greatest living authority, and certainly possesses the largest library on philately. For the ideal stamp, Mr. Henniker Heaton said the most essential thing was the Sovereign's head.

"Nothing else should appear," he said, "in any British Dominion or Colony. Once I proposed to King Edward that Queen Alexandra's head should be placed on one British stamp, but he answered that in his opinion, and apart from personal considerations, the whole of the stamps and coinage of the Empire should contain the Sovereign's head alone. A most beautiful Empire stamp was submitted to the delegates at the late Conference, but money difficulties and others rendered its adoption impossible. Over the top was 'British Empire' and below the name of the country of issue."

The Morning Leader (27.6.11):—

THE NEW STAMPS.

To the Editor of the "Morning Leader."

Sir,—Why should your correspondents find fault with a postage stamp? What does it matter how a postage stamp is designed, or whether its value is stated in figures, words, or both? Maybe some of the people through whose hands it passes will understand the figure but not the words.

No matter how artistic the stamp may appear, it will be disfigured before reaching its destination.—Yours, etc.

H.H.

Malden, 26th June.

The Leeds Mercury (27.6.11):—

THE NEW STAMPS.

The new stamps are meeting with general condemnation, and hardly any one has anything to say in their favour. That the new issue should fall short of reasonable expectation is all the more disappointing in that King George is a famous philatelist, and it was anticipated that the stamps associated with his reign would receive special attention. The spirit of economy has much to answer for, but, beyond that, the designer has overdone the detail, and left us with a lion, to say nothing of bay leaves, that it is difficult to identify. The new stamps are not so good as the old ones, and far inferior to those of the Victorian age and the Colonial impressions of the same period. The old red penny stamp that was in use from 1864 to 1880 was one of the most beautiful stamps ever produced. How many times it was modified we do not know, but all the modifications were worth, and continue to provide a rich field for the collector.

A correspondent of the Evening News:—

Why not make the new stamps really popular by selling them at a discount of 3d. in the shilling?

Evening News Parliament (1.7.11):—

THE NEW STAMPS: MORE COMPLAINTS.

Sir,—The bulk of the criticism of the new postage stamps seems to have been levelled at the designs, which are undoubtedly inartistic. But a vastly more important cause for complaint is to be found in the gumming, which is apparently lacking in adhesiveness.

This serious defect has already been brought to light in your columns, and my own experience simply corroborates that of your correspondents.

In the past few days I have twice received postcards minus the stamps at delivery, but which had obviously been affixed at posting, as shown by the incomplete circle of the cancellation postmark.

In view of the great inconvenience in the nature of doorstep demands of postmen which is likely to be caused the public, and the objections to payment which are bound to ensue, would it not be advisable for everyone to have the posting of letters witnessed? The suggestion has its drawbacks, but it seems that the public is left to protect itself.

C.H.P.

Wimbledon.

The Times (26.6.11):—

THE NEW STAMPS.

To the Editor of the Times.

Sir,—As one who, in the position of Controller of Stamps, was for close upon 20 years intimately associated with the production of the postage stamps of the United Kingdom, and who, in view of the loud bell rung by the Postmaster-General and others, looked forward to seeing on Coronation Day stamps infinitely superior to those heretofore issued, I confess to very considerable disappointment.

I hold that (1) the design of the new stamps is extremely poor, and in it there is no improvement whatsoever upon the old issue; (2) that the dies produced by the Royal Mint lack the sharpness of those made by Messrs. De la Rue; and (3) that in the engraving, the printing, and the workmanship generally there is no comparison in the matter of superiority between the stamps manufactured by that firm and those now issued to the public.

I am told that, by the change of contractors, a saving of some £10,000 a year was effected by his Majesty's Government. Surely it was unwise to haggle over such a comparatively small sum unless, indeed, there was a certainty of producing something more worthy of the nation and less like the issue of some small South American State.

Yours faithfully,

London, June 23.

J. S. PURCELL.

The Daily Mail (3.7.11):—

UGLY STAMPS.

More Opinions from R.A.s.

Colour Faults.

We publish to-day further messages from leading artists sent in reply to requests for their opinions on the new stamps. It will be seen that with the exception of Sir Lawrence Alma-Tadema all join Sir Luke Fildes, R.A., and Sir Hubert von Herkomer, R.A., in condemning the new issue.

Mr. Frank Dicksee, R.A.—The weak part is the King's head, which for this purpose should be in exact profile.

Sir Lawrence Alma-Tadema, R.A.—I do not agree with all the objections made to the new stamp issue.

Mr. C. Napier Hemy, R.A.—I consider the new stamp badly designed, very ugly, and inartistic.

Mr. Briton Riviere, R.A.—Stamp not satisfactory. Should prefer a simple profile instead of three-quarter.

Mr. William Orpen, A.R.A.—I could not express in words my real opinion.

Mr. Arnesby Brown, A.R.A.—Consider the stamps issued disappointing compared with the early issues of Victoria, penny and twopence, which both in colour and design are fine.

Mr. Byam Shaw.—Dislike the stamp very much.

The Printing.

A member of the firm of Messrs. Harrison and Sons, the printers of the new issue, said on Saturday: "I maintain that the printing of the stamps is very good, inasmuch as everything which appears in the design on the engraving plates is faithfully reproduced, and that the entire surface of each stamp is of an even, uniform colour. We were not responsible for the engraving, but I fully endorse the criticism that this was done in a manner really unsuitable for printing."

"The finer the design lines are on the engraving plate, the more likely they are to fill up and smudge in the printing process, and so fine are they in this case that it is very difficult to avoid smudging. Such care, however, is taken in the work, which is done under the supervision of Government inspectors as well as our own officials, that the general result is quite satisfactory, few of the stamps turned out being defective."

"Complaints of the stamps being insufficiently gummed are probably due to the fact that the gum is white in colour, and not the usual yellow. This may give people the false impression that an inadequate amount of gum has been used."

Mr. J. Ireland writes:—

"The current 'Stamp Collectors' Annual' has a really noble design for a British stamp illustrated in its pages. This is the border of the current sevenpenny value with the head of His Majesty taken from the South African Union stamp, in the centre. The effect is most pleasing, and if we might only hope for the set up to the shilling, all of this design, what an impetus would be given to stamp collecting."

Answers to Correspondents.

M. (Lisbon).—We do not think any advantage would be gained by publishing a list of King Edward stamps alone. Our 7d. catalogue, entitled "Current Stamps at Face Value," published on 4.6.10, listed all issued up to that date in very complete style. We do not wish to encourage collectors to limit their collections in this way, as we feel very strongly that a general collection is that most likely to keep a collector permanently interested in the hobby. Our list on pages vi. and vii. of E.W.S.N. is almost a complete guide, except for watermarks and perforations.

R. wishes to purchase the King Edward £10 and £20 Natal, in mint condition. We should be glad to have the offer of them.

S. wants Northern Nigeria, 1d. lilac and rose, and 6d. lilac and violet, in blocks.

BRAZIL (614 T 615).—The following interesting letter is to hand from Mr. C. J. Phillips (of Stanley Gibbons Ltd.) and we publish it in extenso:—

"With reference to your issue of June 24th to the note under Brazil, I think perhaps your readers would like to have a few lines from me to explain how I came to fix such low prices for the unused official Brazils, although I think I have already explained about this in the articles I wrote during my travels in S. America.

"When I was in Buenos Aires and in Montevideo, I found large quantities of unused Officials, in mint condition, offered at all sorts of low prices, varying, if I remember rightly, from 2d. to 4d. per milreis. I made enquiries about this, and found that they were generally sent down, especially in Buenos Aires, from Brazilian officials in the southern part of Brazil. I understand that large quantities of stamps were distributed to these officials for them to use on official correspondence, but apparently no system was kept of debiting departments or officials with the stamps, and they seem to have been looked upon as franks or as waste paper. When I got up to Rio de Janeiro, where I stayed some weeks, I found, even there, that the Officials were being sold at similarly low rates, face value being entirely ignored. During an interview that I had with the Minister of Posts and Telegraphs, I mentioned these facts to him, and told him how they were coming out and especially how they were being sold in the Argentine, and explained that I had seen them in large bulk, and bought a good many. He shrugged his shoulders and seem to think nothing about the matter, and evidently looked upon these stamps as waste paper. Under the circumstances I could not do anything more. I bought a fair quantity, and I fixed the low price at which they are in Stanley Gibbons' catalogue, basing it on the average cost price that I had bought at."

NEWFOUNDLAND (614 I 615).—We have received an early set of the new stamps, which will probably have a record sale amongst stamp collectors. The 2c. has an excellent portrait of the King and all the stamps are finely engraved.

Coronation Issue. Portraits, with names inscribed.
 1c. green, Queen Mary.
 2c. rose-red, King George V.
 3c. red-brown, Prince of Wales.
 4c. violet, Prince Albert.
 5c. ultramarine, Princess Mary.
 6c. grey, Prince Henry.
 8c. aniline turquoise, Prince George.
 9c. slate-blue, Prince John.
 10c. dark green, Queen Alexandra.
 12c. dark brown, Duke of Connaught.
 15c. magenta-lake, Arms of Newfoundland.

Issued St. John's 19.6.11. The 15c. is oblong and contains a small picture inscribed "Hæc tibi dona fero" ("these gifts I bring thee").

NORTH BORNEO (602 K 615).—We illustrate the design of the handsome new set of high value stamps.

PORTUGUESE INDIA (607 T 615).—Although the whole set overprinted "Republica" is on sale at Lisbon, the values are only appearing one by one in the Settlement. The latest to hand is the 2 tangas, issued about 6.6.11.

The 1 real surcharged Republica has been bought up locally with the result that a provisional became necessary.

Split provisional.

2 reis, yellow, perforated diagonally (same gauge as that of the stamp) from N.E. to S.W. corner. Each half overprinted "1 REAL" in two lines in black. The lower half also has two bars across the old value.

Earliest postmark seen, Nova-Goa, 3.6.11. The public sale of the provisional is not permitted.

ROUMANIA (613 K 615).—L'Echo de la Timbrologie (15.6.11/383) states that a new set of postage due stamps was issued on 7.5.11, comprising the values 2, 5, 10, 15, 20, 30, 50, 60 bani and 2 lei. They are printed in dark green on light green paper and perforated 11½.

We have since received the 10 bani and illustrate it below.

RUSSIA (609 P 615).—The St. Peterburger Philatelisten-Verein (5/10.5.11) send us some new stamps somewhat resembling the bill stamps, but exactly how they are used we fail to see.

"For use of the postman"

(V poizku potchtaliona).

15 kop., black and brown.

They were issued on 1/14.6.10 and the Philatelisten Zeitung (7.10/119) states that this was due to a law dated 7.6.09 respecting the conveyance through the post of registered correspondence between judicial authorities and suitors.

We gather that correspondence from officials of the law courts is to be sent out franked with one of these stamps and that it is to be treated as a "postage due" stamp. But why are the proceeds "for the use of the postman"? Yet this seems to be correct, as it is added that only in the event of the registered letter being handed to the addressee at a post office the fee falls to the Government Exchequer.

SALVADOR (612 L 615).—We have now received the set of three Centenary stamps which were expected.

Issue inscribed "Centenario de la Insurreccion—Correos de El Salvador—America Central—U.P.U.—1811—1911" and value.

5c. dark blue, Portrait in brown.
 6c. yellow, " " "
 12c. violet, Monument in brown.

Issued 10.6.11 or earlier, to be on sale for six weeks in packets of four sets for $1 (a premium of 8c. per packet or 2c. per set). The head or monument in brown is printed on a white 5-pointed Star in the centre of each design.

The above issue merely commemorates an unsuccessful insurrection against the yoke of Spain. Central America was discovered by Columbus in August 1502, and very quickly came under the yoke of Spain. It was divided into three colonies, New Spain (or Mexico), New Granada (or Panama) and the intervening territory, known as Guatemala and subdivided into five districts roughly corresponding to the present republics of Guatemala, Honduras, Salvador, Nicaragua and Costa Rica. "Guatemala" declared its independence of Spain in 1821; New Granada had done so in 1819 and Mexico followed in October 1821, General Iturbide being crowned as its first Emperor in 1822.

It is thus ten years too soon to talk of a centenary "of independence" and probably these Salvador stamps, as well as the recently chronicled Mexican set, commemorate the Centenary of the insurrection of 1810-11, led by Hidalgo, Curé of Dolores (for the history of which see E.W.S.N. No. 613).

URUGUAY (605 B 615).—According to L'Echo de la Timbrologie (15.6.11/383) two more provisional stamps were to be issued on 17.5.11.

Surcharge commemorative of battle of Las Piedras. Overprinted "Artigas—5—Centesimos—1811-1911."

2c. in red on 7c. 1901.
 5c. in blue "

There were to be 50,000 2c. and 100,000 5c.

SUDAN (601 H 615).—From several sources we have the new 10 piastres with multiple watermark overprinted "Army Service."

Overprinted "Army Service."

10 piastres, mauve and black, watermarked Crescent and Star.

Issued 10.6.11 or earlier. One correspondent says only 60 were printed; another that 140 were done; personally we think the number will be discovered to have been much larger after the earliest specimens have been marketed by the Egyptian dealers at high prices!

SWEDEN (613 E 615).—We illustrate the new Swedish stamps.

The record of issue up to date is as follows:—

Crown Design.
1 ö. black	2.11	5 ö. green	—
2 ö. yellow	1.11	8 ö. ?	—

8 ö. purple	12.10	50 ö. grey	6.11
10 ö. rose	10.10	1 kr. ?	—

The issue of the 1 kr. black on yellow is expected to take place this month (6.11).

SWITZERLAND (613 Q 615).—The following official notice announces the issue of a postage due stamp of the value of 30c. on 1.7.11. It will be noticed that the stamp is described as a "Taxmarke" which is a description we have not come across before, Portomärke or Nachportomärke being the more usual.

Separatausgabe 1911. Nr. 7.
 Schweizerische Postverwaltung
 Verfügung.

No. 69. Akten Nr. 927. 7 26. Juni 1911.

Einführung einer Taxmarke zu 30 Ct.

Auf. 1. Juli nächsthin wird eine neue Taxmarke im Taxwert von 30 Ct. eingeführt werden. Das Bild derselben ist das nämliche wie für die übrigen neuen Taxmarken (s. Verfügung Nr. 56 von 1910). Die neuen 30<sup>er</sup> Taxmarken sollen nur an diejenigen Poststellen abgegeben werden, welche dafür Verwendung haben; es wird dies insbesondere bei den grössern Bureaux mit regem Auslandsverkehr der Fall sein. Den Postbureaux III. Klasse und den Ablagen werden sie nur auf Bestellung hin geliefert werden.

NEW POSTAL GAZETTEER.

The postal authorities at Berne, Switzerland, have just issued a postal gazetteer of some 1,400 pages, writes our Montreux correspondent, containing 150,000 names and comprising every district in the world having a population of 500 or more.

TURKS & CAICOS ISLANDS (609 Y 615).—A correspondent informs us that the ½d. lilac-rose is no longer obtainable at the Post Offices. Local dealers now ask double face value, 4/2 per 100. It is estimated that 250,000 were printed; this figure is unofficial.

UNITED STATES (613 R 615).—A correspondent writes us that a new issue is imminent here, with larger numerals. The colours will be changed and there will be a new value, 12c., with head of Lincoln.

We quote from the Times (24.6.11):—

ASTORIA STAMPS.—The United States Post Office Department proposes to make a special issue of postage stamps on the occasion of the centennial celebrations at Astoria, Oregon, in August and September. The stamps will be of appropriate designs, and will be used concurrently with the regular postage stamps. Astoria was founded as a trading post in 1811 by John Jacob Astor.

Ewen's Colonial Stamp Market, Ltd.,
 32, PALACE SQUARE, NORWOOD, LONDON, S.E.

Deposit Accounts.—All payments (for whatever purpose) are credited to a deposit account, and all invoices (whether for stamps, albums, subscriptions or postage, etc.) are debited to such account. This deposit account should not be overdrawn. The balance is returnable post free on demand.

Returns.—Stamps which are not as ordered may be returned within 10 days and their full sale price will be re-credited to deposit account.

Bank notes.—20 mark=19/6; 50 francs (French) 39/8; 50 francs (other countries), 39/6; 50 lire, 39/6; 20 kronen=16/6; 20 kroner=22/-; 10 gulden=16/6; 10 roubles=21/-; U.S.A. dollar=4/1.

Cheques payable to "Ewen's Colonial Stamp Market, Ltd.," or "Ewen's, Ltd.," postal orders, money orders (inland and foreign) etc., payable to "Ewen's, Ltd.," at "Anerley Road, S.E." Cheques on France and Germany accepted at same rate as bank notes, also bons de poste.

EWEN'S NEW ISSUE SERVICE.

The oldest established New Issue Service in the World.
Distribution of New Issues every Thursday.

TERMS, 11 PER 1- FACE VALUE.

This is considerably cheaper than the 10% rate, as £1 stamps cost 21/8 instead of 22/-; 10/- stamps 10/10 instead of 11/-; 5/- stamps 5/5 instead of 5/6 and so on, the chief saving being of course on the high values. If an early position on our list is desired, the rate is raised to 1/2 per 1/- and the earliest positions of all cost an annual premium as well, ranging from one to twenty guineas.

AMOUNT OF DEPOSIT REQUIRED.

If New Issues required up to £1 limit of face value.	Deposit
10-	£5
5-	£3
2 6	£2
1 -	£1

The deposit should be renewed as soon as exhausted or the service may be interrupted. A larger deposit may, of course, be made, if clients wish to avoid frequent remittances, and in general, any reasonable modification of our rules can be made to meet individual requirements. We invite our clients to say just what they want and endeavour to meet their wishes.

BRITISH COLONIES OR FOREIGN COUNTRIES OR BOTH.

Subscribers to the New Issue Service may also receive our approval service of minor varieties, errors, etc., which are not issued in sufficient quantity to be distributed in the New Issue Service.

Sets & High Values at Popular 'New Issue' Prices.

This list is copyright. Every stamp or set priced is in stock at the time of going to press, and those not priced are expected. We are open to purchase at face value most stamps and sets listed if originally purchased from us; otherwise 10% commission is charged for cashing them; we reserve the right to return any specimens without assigning a reason. The prices are net sale prices, but 2½% discount is allowed to the stamp trade for cash in advance. The † signifies not available to Annual Subscribers at face.

Distribution of New Issues every Thursday.

TERMS, 11 PER 1 - FACE VALUE.

This is considerably cheaper than the 10% rate, as £1 stamps cost 21/8 instead of 22/-; 10/- stamps 10/10 instead of 11/-; 5/- stamps 5/5 instead of 5/6 and so on, the chief saving being of course on the high values. If an early position on our list is desired, the rate is raised to 1/2 per 1/- and the earliest positions of all cost an annual premium as well, ranging from one to twenty guineas.

AMOUNT OF DEPOSIT REQUIRED.

If New Issues required up to £1 limit of face value.	Deposit £5
" " " 10 -	" £3
" " " 5 -	" £2
" " " 2/6	" £1
" " " 1/-	" 10/-

The deposit should be renewed as soon as exhausted or the service may be interrupted. A larger deposit may, of course, be made, if clients wish to avoid frequent remittances, and in general, any reasonable modification of our rules can be made to meet individual requirements. We invite our clients to say just what they want and endeavour to meet their wishes.

BRITISH COLONIES OR FOREIGN COUNTRIES OR BOTH.

Subscribers to the New Issue Service may also receive our approval service of minor varieties, errors, etc., which are not issued in sufficient quantity to be distributed in the New Issue Service.

The Week's News.

The Editor is always pleased to receive Early Information of New Issues, or of Discoveries interesting to Stamp Collectors.

The index number and serial letter after the title of each paragraph indicate the issue of E.W.S.N. in which the last reference to that country appeared.

GREAT BRITAIN.—Current Issue (615 M 616).—Our latest sheets of the Georgian stamps have watermark letter D, and as we had F before, it is practically certain that the paper is part of the old supply from the three moulds D, E, F, which was in use even before the Edwardian stamps were issued.

Record Dates of Use (596 Z 616).—A few more early specimens are reported. Mr. F. E. Wilson sends us the ½d. stamp, postmarked 12.15 a.m. 22.6.11 (a quarter of an hour after midnight), which takes second place, but the record is still Mr. Knowles' 10.15 p.m., 21.6.11. A correspondent however tells us that he purchased specimens of both stamps and the postcard at 8.15 p.m. on 21.6.11, but did not use any specimens for postage till the following day.

Control Letters and Marks (608 P 616).—We have two new varieties, ½d. with cut 1 and 1d. with cut 3. The cuts as before run up the right hand side of the lower pane. The following have now been seen:

½d. No cut, cuts 1, 3.
1d. Cuts 1, 3, 4.

It is still as great a mystery as ever what the cuts signify.

Private Underprints (615 S 616).—Mr. E. Bentley Wood informs us that he has received the 1d. King George stamp with "Wattses" underprint (in the new setting), postmarked 1.7.11.

Stationery.—We can now illustrate the ½d. postcard stamp.

The daily papers of Friday, 7.7.11, state that the following has been issued.

Letter-card. Stamp of King George, same design as the ½d. postcard stamp.
1d. rose on white instead of blue card.

Up to the time of going to press, the envelopes had not been issued. We quote from the Times (7.7.11).

ISSUE OF GEORGE V. LETTER-CARDS.

Letter-cards impressed with 1d. stamps of George V. design are now being placed on sale at post-offices, price 1d. each. White material has been substituted for the blue material formerly used; and an alteration has been made in the perforation with the object of facilitating the opening of the cards.

Oswald Marsh's Weekly Circular (8.7.11) states:—"We have received the following letter in reply to an enquiry as to the meaning of the letter W on the new Registration stamps.

2146 S. Inland Revenue,
Somerset House, London, W.C.,
4th July, 1911.

SIR,

With reference to your letter of the 26th ultimo, I am directed by the Board of Inland Revenue to acquaint you that the letter "W" on the Registration Stamp of the new George V. series is a manufacturer's mark and not the engraver's initial.

I am, Sir, your obedient Servant,

(Sigd.) F. ATTERBURY,
Secretary.

Unadhesives (615 V 616).—Oswald Marsh's Weekly Circular (8.7.11) reports that 6d. envelopes have recently (2.7.11 or earlier) been stamped at Somerset House with die 15. The following dies of the Edwardian series are now known.

Envelope Dies. List of die-numbers known.

Value.	Dies brought into use.	Dies known to be in reserve.
½d.	7-30, 43-76.	None.
1d.	7-30, 43-85.	86-88.
1½d.	1, 2.	3.
2d.	1, 2.	3.
2½d.	3.	1, 2, 4, 5.
3d.	1, 2.	3.
4d.	1.	2, 3.
6d.	1-13, 15.	14, 16-18.
10d.	1.	2, 3.
1/-	1.	2, 3.
3d. Reg.	1-18.	?

The ½d. die, with embossed head of King George, looks likely to appear at an early date, unless a further series of King Edward dies was created.

What to look for.—Stamp collectors throughout the United Kingdom live at present on the tiptoe of expectation! There is no knowing what interesting variety may be issued at any post office, perhaps to-day, perhaps to-morrow. Here is a short summary of what may be issued:—

Adhesive ½d. and 1d. printed at Somerset House instead of by Messrs Harrison.

Control letter A11 with stop after A.
Adhesive 6d. stamps, it is said, have been printed at Somerset House, since 1.1.11. Both Edwardians and Georgians may exist.

Besides the ½d. and 1d. Edwardians, Messrs. Harrison may have printed other values. Edwardian stamps printed by Messrs. Harrison may possibly exist perf. 15×14 instead of 14.

There is a much greater chance of finding errors, freaks and other varieties. Some of the specimens which writers to the press say they can't make stick may have been errors printed on the gummed side.

Halfpenny and penny embossed envelopes now on sale at post offices are a provisional issue stamped with Edwardian numbered dies, some of which may become rare.

Registration envelopes are now stamped from a Georgian die lettered W under the bust. Will the letter be changed? The envelopes have different contract letters under the flap and are worth saving even used; someone may someday specialize them.

And so on. If you find anything new or interesting, please report it not later than Monday first post to the Editor, Ewen's Weekly Stamp News, 32, Palace Square, Upper Norwood, S.E.

LATE ARRIVALS.

Monday, 10th July, 1911.

Since writing the above, we have been through the stock of a local post-office and made some interesting discoveries. First and foremost, mixed in with the ordinary De La Rue printed 2½d. stamps we found a few sheets which are indisputably printed by Messrs. Harrison & Sons. The colour is a light blue, instead of the rather hard ultramarine of heretofore.

New printer.

2½d. light blue, perf. 14, printed by Messrs. Harrison & Sons, instead of by Messrs. De La Rue & Co., Ltd.

Issued 10.7.11 or earlier. Ewen's New Issue Service will include either a single or a block of four in this week's distribution, face value only at to all clients whose accounts are in credit. The sheets before us have a cut on the marginal line under stamp No. 1 of the lowest row. Who will solve for us the mystery of these cuts?

We illustrate the new registration envelope stamp. The illustration unfortunately barely reproduces the mysterious initial "W" just under the bust and over the figure of value "3."

Last but not least, we have a surprise in the shape of the new letter-card on white paper. The impressed stamp bears the portrait of King Edward!

Letter-card.

1d. rose on white paper.

Issued 7.7.11 or earlier, probably several days earlier. The perforation is arranged slightly differently. This was only in issue a day or so, we believe, and the King George issue has already superseded it.

Later.—We have received the bottom two rows of a sheet of 6d. King Edward stamps, with continuous purple outline and cuts under stamps 1, 3, and 4 in the lower row and opposite the 9th row in the lower pane. We do not remember to have seen a sheet with four cuts before. It is too clearly printed to be the work of Messrs. Harrison & Sons.

Crystal Palace Stamps (612 D 616).—Although not postage stamps, these stamps are worthy of mention if only for the fact that they are line-engraved by Messrs. Perkins, Bacon & Co. and if editions continue to follow one another as fast as at present, they will soon form quite a colour chart! It is unlikely that any edition will be reprinted so collectors who wish to secure the earlier shades are politely requested to hurry up!

Our illustration does not do justice to the design, which is excellently engraved. It will be remembered that the following editions have already been chronicled:—

1st Edition	Grey
2nd "	Ultramarine blue
3rd "	Turquoise blue

Under date of 10.7.11 we have received from the Stamp Department of the King Edward National Memorial (26, Shaftesbury Avenue), the following new editions, which we believe have been appearing gradually during the last three or four weeks.

4th Edition	Violet
5th "	Purple
6th "	Rose
7th "	Lemon chrome
8th "	Orange
9th "	Vermilion
10th "	Verdigris green

If you are in doubt as to the difference between violet and purple or between orange and vermilion, buy a ½d. stamp of each colour and see! The stamps are line-engraved in sheets of 72, cut into sheets of 24, 4 rows of 6 (measuring only 10½in. long by 5in. tall) before issue. Each sheet has printed on the margin the name of the colour and the number of the edition. Our order Dept. will supply the stamps in any quantity at face value.

The New Stamps in the House of Commons.

(Reports from the The Times).

HOUSE OF COMMONS,

Tuesday, July 4, 1911.

THE NEW STAMPS.

Mr. Lloyd George, interrogated by Major Archer-Shee (U.), stated that the total face value of adhesive postage stamps manufactured at Somerset House since the establishment of the plant was £296,000. No stamps had been rejected since June 22nd, 1911. The amount expended up to date in the purchase of machinery and plant used for the manufacture of adhesive postage stamps at Somerset House was £1,563, and two men were employed in their manufacture.

HOUSE OF COMMONS,

Wednesday, July 5, 1911.

Mr. King (Somerset, N., Min.) asked the Postmaster-General whether the new issue of penny and halfpenny stamps was submitted to any artists of repute before the design was approved; if so, who were the artists who approved this design; and whether he would consult the same or other artists in any further issues of new stamps; and, further, whether he had seen and considered the postage stamps now in use in France and Bavaria, which were in design and quality admitted to be superior to those of most other countries, especially to those now being issued in this country; and whether he would, so soon as might be, substitute for the present issue of penny and halfpenny stamps an issue at once more artistic and worthy of the nation.

Mr. Herbert Samuel (Yorkshire, Cleveland).—Several artists of repute, selected after consultation with high authorities, were asked to submit in competition designs for the new issue of postage stamps. None of the designs sent in were, however, considered suitable for the penny and halfpenny stamps. Mr. Bertram Mackennal was then commissioned to produce designs for the frames of the stamps, which, after certain modifications to render them suitable for engraving, were considered satisfactory and were adopted. Dies and plates were produced by the Royal Mint, and were passed by the technical officers of the Board of Inland Revenue. The prints from the plates fell short of the standard anticipated from the proofs of the dies submitted by the Royal Mint. Allowance must be made, as I have suggested in answer to a previous question, for a firm newly taking up work of this kind, especially as they were working at high pressure in order to produce the stamps by Coronation Day.

I am in communication with the Board of Inland Revenue, who are by statute the authority controlling the printing and supply of stamps. Some improvement has already been made in the printing, and I believe that it will be found possible to arrive at a considerable further improvement in the appearance of stamps of the designs already issued and to avoid similar defects in those yet to be issued, so that the saving of £40,000 a year which has been effected in the cost of printing the stamps shall not be gained at the expense of inferiority in their appearance.

I would add that the process of surface printing employed in the production of these stamps is the same as that used in all the great countries of Europe for all postage stamps except in some cases for stamps of high denominations. The alternative process of recess printing, while allowing a better appearance, is not only five or six times as costly, but lends itself to the fraudulent use of cancelled stamps, and was abandoned many years ago in this country for that reason. I do not think any useful analogy can be drawn between the postage stamps of Bavaria and of those of this country, as the output of Bavarian stamps is, I am informed, comparatively small. Nor can a comparison be usefully made with the French stamps, as they contain no portrait, and I feel sure the country would strongly disapprove any proposal to omit from our postage stamps the effigy of the Sovereign.

Major Archer-Shee.—Is it intended to go on with the manufacture of postage stamps at Somerset House in addition to the manufacture by contractors?

Mr. Herbert Samuel.—Somerset House will manufacture, I understand, the sixpenny stamps, which are largely used for Revenue purposes.

Major Archer-Shee.—Is it not a fact that Somerset House has already manufactured £11,000 worth face value of 1d. stamps, and these have been withdrawn as utterly useless?

Mr. Herbert Samuel.—No, Sir, I have heard nothing of the kind.

Lord Balcarras (Lancashire, N., Chorley).—Is it the fact that the penny and halfpenny design is to be revised?

Mr. Herbert Samuel.—No, Sir.

The New Stamps.

MORE PRESS CRITICISMS AND SUGGESTIONS.

THE NEW POSTAGE STAMPS.

To the Editor of The Times.

Sir,—The Postmaster-General, in his reply to questions in the House last night, as reported in The Times, says:—"The process of recess printing lends itself to the fraudulent use of cancelled stamps and was abandoned many years ago in this country for that reason." This is surely somewhat misleading. What was a reason many years ago is not necessarily a reason to-day, and the Postmaster-General must know:—(1) That the cancelling ink used by the Post Office is of such an indelible character that for postal purposes the ink in which the postage stamp is printed need not be, and is not, of a security character; (2) that the 6d. stamps which, being used for the purpose of agreements, require to be of a security character were specially excluded from the contract. Further, printers have not stood still since the date of the change made from recess to surface printing of the English stamps, and methods are now known for the production of recess printed stamps of a security character.

Two other points in the Postmaster-General's reply: he refers to certain countries in Europe using surface printed stamps, but is there a Government in the whole of the American Continent that uses a surface printed stamp? I believe not. Are artists of repute the best and only people suitable to submit designs for postage stamps? I venture to think that better designs would be obtained from stamp engravers.

Yours obedient servant,

W. A. WATERLOW.

24 and 25, Birchin Lane, E.C., July 6th.

The Daily Graphic, 6.7.11:—

In the Court Circular yesterday mention was made of an audience which the Postmaster-General had of the King. It is just possible that the much-criticised new issue of stamps was discussed during Mr. Samuel's visit.

In the House of Commons Mr. Samuel, replying to a question, stated that several artists of repute were selected, after consultation with high authorities, and were asked to submit in competition designs for the new issue of postage stamps. None of the designs sent in were considered suitable for the penny and halfpenny stamp, and another artist was commissioned to produce designs, which were afterwards adopted. Some improvement had already been made in the printing of the new stamps, and he thought a considerable further improvement would be arrived at.

The Daily Telegraph, 6.7.11. (Notes by Mr. F. J. Melville):—

It will be good news to collectors, and, indeed, to all who have been growling about our ugly new halfpenny and penny stamps, to learn that a return will be made to recess-plate engraving for four of the high-value stamps. If the result be fully satisfactory, it may be a preliminary to an extension of the one process by which our postage stamps may be made artistic successes, which it is quite evident they cannot be when produced by the typographical method. The highest four denominations will be the 2s. 6d., 5s., 10s., and £1, which will all be uniform in design.

M.A.P. (8.7.11):—

THE NEW STAMPS.

What is Wrong With Them?

As one who sees the King at frequent intervals, let me say at once that the new stamps are not, as stamps go, a bad likeness.

A correspondent is quite mistaken in suggesting that the face resembles that of the Prince Consort, and I cannot understand how such an idea arose. The faults of the new issue are sufficiently grave and sufficiently numerous without any suggestion that the portrait is a bad one.

The King George stamp is overcrowded. If the crown at the top escapes the perforation, then the penny at the bottom has to be sacrificed, and vice versa.

With every respect to the British Lion, let me say that the flattened hind quarters of this latest beast would have caused Sir Edwin Landseer to shudder, and the tail looks as if it were growing out of the leg; indeed, there is not enough tail to twist. Personally, I prefer the lion on the latest shilling, though I have never understood why this irreverent animal dances so gaily on the British Crown.

Returning to the stamps, the overcrowding means that the crown at the top has to be depressed entirely out of its actual shape, and with disastrous results.

Finally, I come to the floral border. In King Edward's case we have a graceful and even natural garland of oak and bay leaves.

In the case of King George, there is a purely conventional garland, bound on each side by ribbon at so much a yard, and composed of leaves which I defy any botanist to identify. I have examined them under a magnifying glass, and am quite certain that they would do either for a procession of locusts or for the noses of white rats, the scales of a fish or for a sheaf of corn.

I am free to admit that the halfpenny stamp is a good deal better than the penny one, but in both the issues my impression is that the head is slightly tilted forward, as if his Majesty were round-shouldered, which is far from being the fact.

The strange thing is that the stamps should have been such a failure when the King himself is so eminent a philatelist. His Majesty's collection is one of the finest in the world, one of its chief rivals being that at Stoneyhurst.

I can only hope that the new issue will quickly become sufficiently rare to engage the attention of connoisseurs.

Evening Times (3.7.11):—

The special photograph of the King taken for the postage stamps was apparently the work of Messrs. Downey, who have received strict injunctions not to permit its publication. This may explain why so few have seen it.

In view of the controversy over the new stamps, it is interesting to note that Mr. J. A. Tilleard, the hon. secretary of the Royal Philatelic Society, has reported to that body that, "although the chosen designs have, of course, been submitted to and accepted by the King, the part taken by his Majesty in the production of the stamps, beyond the making of practical suggestions for modification of details and improvements in the sketches submitted, has been confined to the choice of the portrait to be used for the stamp. A perfect resemblance was secured by the use of a photograph specially selected by his Majesty, who preferred that the stamps should present a real likeness rather than an idealised impression conveyed by a picture painted by an artist. Having been privileged to see the photograph reduced to the requisite size, I can confidently say that nothing more natural and life-like could have been chosen. It is to be hoped that the likeness will be faithfully reproduced, in spite of the difficulties attendant on the mode in which the stamps of this country are printed. There can be no doubt that the process of surface printing does not lend itself to the production of a pleasing portrait in the small size required for stamps, and cannot give the same artistic effect as can be secured by recess printing. Strong representations were made to induce the authorities to adopt the latter process for the new stamps, and I believe that the fullest consideration has been given to the subject."

The Leeds Mercury (5.7.11):—

ART AND THE NEW STAMPS.

Sir,—With regard to the new issue of postage stamps, one of your correspondents is afraid our visitors will leave with the impression that we are not an artistic nation. I think that they will leave with the impression that we are a very foolish nation. Fancy a community, hitherto credited with sound commonsense, having an artistic fit because the design does not come up to expectations.

I can picture some of these "art critics" standing by the pillar-box in open-mouthed admiration of the works of art on their letters.

Leeds, July 1st, 1911.

AMUSED.

The Daily News (6.7.11):—

THE NEW STAMP.

Unofficial Portrait of the King Passes the Post Office.

There was some chuckling in philatelic circles yesterday by the success with which a firm of stamp dealers, Messrs. Lewis May & Co., had managed to secure the official postmark of approval upon three stamps bearing an unofficial portrait of the King.

The stamps used were perfectly genuine ones, but over the centre, where the much-censured bust of his Majesty should appear, had been placed a little oval cutting from one of the souvenir "Coronation stamps" issued by the Union for Philanthropic Philately, which represent the King in modern dress.

Seven letters stamped in this way were addressed by the firm to themselves. Three were delivered in the ordinary way, but yesterday afternoon a postal official appeared with a fourth and demanded a surcharge of twopence. He wanted to retain the stamp, however, and the question was allowed to remain in abeyance.

Supposing the public generally, in æsthetic frenzy, should decide to improve their stamps in this way, what would happen? The Daily News put the question to a matter-of-fact official at St. Martin's-le-Grand.

"All that would happen," he said, "would be that we should charge twopence for the delivery of the letters. With the penny paid already that would make threepence. In this case the stamps never ought to have gone through. People have no right to disguise official stamps."

[One of the stamps is illustrated in the Evening Times, 5.7.11].

The Daily Mirror (3.7.11) publishes four suggestions for new stamps, which we have good reason to believe will not be adopted by the authorities!

- (i.) Britannia on the sea-shore, in a hobble-skirt.
- (ii.) Father Christmas (or is it Neptune?) just leaving his bathing-machine.
- (iii.) The lion and the kangaroo.
- (iv.) John Bull posing for his photograph.

The Daily Graphic (6.7.11) illustrates the British Empire stamp designed by Messrs. G. D. Love and Victor Barker, and submitted to the members of the Imperial Conference.

Union for Philanthropic Philately.

WHAT is the "Union for Philanthropic Philately, London," and why does it go to Austria to have its stamp-labels printed, or rather lithographed? We have noticed lately an epidemic of elongated labels inscribed thus on the face of the stamp, and at the back:—

"Graphische Kunstanstalt
Carl Jensen & Schwedernoch
Wien VI., Mariahilferstrasse 101."

The stamp itself bears portraits of the King and Queen, and is inscribed "Souvenir of the Coronation, June, 1911."

The King's Hobby.

A notable characteristic of the King is the intimate manner in which he has identified himself with the daily life and pastimes of his subjects. In him stamp collectors have the most illustrious patron of their craft. They rejoice to know that his interest in the hobby is not that of a mere trifle or dabbler, but that he is a really enthusiastic collector and a keen and earnest student of stamps. The King himself has said of stamp collecting—"It is one of the greatest pleasures of my life."

It is generally believed that the King first began to collect stamps whilst serving as a midshipman in the Royal Navy, but the fact that he was a collector was not known until 1890, when at a luncheon given at the Portman Rooms at the opening of the London Philatelic Exhibition the late Duke of Edinburgh announced—"To-day Prince George of Wales starts, nay, probably has started, from Chatham in the 'Thrush,' to the command of which he has been appointed. I am sure you will join with me in wishing him a prosperous and pleasant voyage. He also is a stamp collector, and I hope that he will return with a goodly number of additions to his collection from North America and the West Indies." Prince George fulfilled his uncle's expectations and brought back from his voyages many valuable souvenirs of the countries and colonies visited during his commission.

In 1893 the King began his public association with the affairs of stamp collecting, which he has maintained up to the present time. At a meeting of the London Philatelic Society in March of that year an intimation was received that the then Duke of York was desirous of becoming a member of the Society, and he was duly elected Hon. Vice-President, an office in which he continued until May, 1896, when through the death of Earl Kingston he succeeded to the Presidency. He has throughout taken a keen interest in the work of the Society and has several times exhibited portions of his collection at its meetings. The papers which he has presented before the Society have been of an important character; that dealing with the postal issues of Great Britain during the last reign is acknowledged as a standard work. The permission which was granted in 1907 for the title of the Society to be changed to the Royal Philatelic Society, London, was largely due to the King's influence. On his accession to the Throne he resigned from the Presidency, but by his own desire he remains the Patron of the Society. He is also Patron of the Sydney Philatelic Club and the Swedish Philatelic Society.

The King has been a frequent exhibitor at stamp exhibitions, and has been awarded a number of medals for his displays. He personally opened the Philatelic Society's Exhibition at the Water-colour Institute in 1897, where he first appeared as an exhibitor, with a collection of Indian stamps. Portions of the Royal collection were afterwards shown at Effingham House in 1901, the Horticultural Hall in 1906, and at the Imperial Stamp Exhibition in Caxton Hall, 1908. At the International Philatelic Exhibition in Berne last year and the South Essex Stamp Exhibition at Walthamstow in February last, the King was also amongst the exhibitors.

The Royal stamp collection embraces the stamps of the British Empire only, of which it is one of the most comprehensive in existence.

The King also possesses a number of albums of stamps which have been presented to him on various occasions. At the time of his marriage he was the recipient of a selection of rare stamps from the members of the London Philatelic Society, and the Canadian Government has twice presented him with complete sets of particular issues of the Dominion. During his Empire tour in 1901 His Majesty received a complete collection of Australian stamps from the Commonwealth Government, and also a choice collection of the popular Sydney View stamps from the members of the Sydney Philatelic Club. A collection of the curious and interesting stamps of his State, contained in a beautiful silver album of native craftsmanship, came from the Maharajah of Kashmir.

Kohl's Handbook for Stamp Collectors.

THE 9th edition of this well-known work is in preparation. The first edition will comprise the stamps of all European States (including Great Britain) with their Colonies, and will cost 7/6, plus 10d. postage. This Catalogue is compiled with great thoroughness and gives a mass of information not to be found in other catalogues. We expect to review it in due course.

The 1st Philatelic Congress of Australasia, Sydney, 1911.

We have received a provisional programme of a Congress, to be held under the auspices of the Sydney Philatelic Club, from 12th to 19th October 1911.

An Exhibition of Stamps will be held in connection therewith at the King's Hall, Phillip Street, Sydney, on the 20th and 21st October. Any stamp collector may exhibit, and collections may be sent to the Honorary Secretary, Mr. C. F. Williams, Box 1751, G.P.O., Sydney.

The following competitive classes have been provisionally decided upon:—

1. Best Australian collection.
2. Best specialized collection of any Australian State or New Zealand.
3. Best general collection.
4. Best collection of stamps of the British Empire.
5. Best collection of foreign stamps.
6. " Southern Pacific.
7. " New South Wales.
8. " Victoria.
9. " Queensland.
10. " South Australia.
11. " Tasmania.
12. " West Australia.
13. " New Zealand.
14. " Papua.
15. Best collection of any class shown at the Exhibition.
16. Most neatly mounted collection shown at the Exhibition.
17. Best display of philatelic publications, requisites, etc.

Further particulars may be obtained from the Honorary Secretary (whose address see above).

A Legal Case of Importance to Stamp Collectors.

An action of considerable interest to philatelists was heard in the Bradford County Court, on 30.6.11, before His Honour Judge Graham, K.C. The plaintiff, W. Kershaw Skipwith, 27, Ash Grove, Headingley, Leeds, sued the defendant, Hugo Cohen, of Messrs. Charles Semon & Co., Bolton Road, Bradford, to recover the value of a registered packet containing an approval selection of stamps. Judgment was given for the defendant with costs.

If the law was correctly interpreted in this case, it is an unjust one, and the sooner it is altered the better.

The defendant, it was stated, expressed his willingness to see certain stamps on approval. The plaintiff sent them in a registered letter, and having obtained a receipt for same, thereby transferred his responsibility of them to the Post Office. The Post Office delivered the letter at the offices of Messrs. Semon & Co., and one would have thought in common equity thereby transferred their responsibility to them. Why should the responsibility revert to the sender? The question is not (or should not be) one as to whether there was carelessness on the part of the addressee, but as to whether he had agreed to receive the stamps. The onus of looking after the property ought surely to have been transferred to the addressee the moment it was delivered by the postman and signed for by one of his staff.

British Guiana Philatelic Exhibition, 1911.

An Exhibition of Stamps is to be held in the Carnegie Free Library Hall, Georgetown, under the auspices of the British Guiana Philatelic Society, and will be opened on 7th October. The Society has already held two exhibitions, the first, in 1904, on a small scale, and the second, in 1907, the largest of its kind held in the West Indies. Both these exhibitions were of a local kind, but it is hoped that on the present occasion European collectors will assist in making it a success. Exhibits from abroad must arrive before 30.9.11, addressed to Mr. A. D. Ferguson, Georgetown, British Guiana. No charge will be made for space. The Postmaster-General is providing a special postmark.

THE WEEK'S NEWS.

ARGENTINE REPUBLIC (609 L 616).—Concerning the Sarmiento Commemorative stamp, the Bazaar (28.6.11.), says:—

Our correspondents tell us that the stamp was issued on the 15th May, and not on the 3rd as originally announced, and they have sent us the following extract from a letter of their correspondent at Buenos Aires, dated 16th May, 1911:—"I regret extremely to have to inform you that I cannot send you the 5c. Sarmiento issued yesterday. I had ordered 2000, being 1000 for you and 1000 for my own requirements, and when I went to the post office soon after opening time I found the place besieged by a raging crowd of lunatics, and the P.O. people were only selling the stamps at the rate of five to each applicant. I managed to get inside and my friend informed me he could not give me what I wanted, so I got none at all. Outside the post office people were selling these stamps all day at prices ranging from 20c. to 40c. each. In the afternoon I bought fifteen at this last figure, after applying unsuccessfully at the various branch offices. I enclose a newspaper cutting to verify my statement. I even saw in the post office boys get their supply of five copies, turn round and sell them to people who could not get near the counter at 10c. each, and then apply for more. The crowd at last became so disorderly that the police were requisitioned to keep order, but every now and then organised rushes were made and a perfect pandemonium prevailed from 7 a.m. to 1 p.m., when the word was given that the stock was exhausted. I understand that 400,000 was the total number printed. I enclose four of my fifteen as a present. Of course one never knows how these speculations may turn out, so I may still be able to come across a few to send you. A very large proportion of these stamps will never come into circulation, as most of them were used on picture postcards, which many people had cancelled by a friendly postman, as they were afraid to send them through the post in the ordinary way."

A similar account of the issue of the provisional Sarmiento stamp is given by L'Annonce Timbrologique (30.6.11/3191), whose correspondent suggests that the issue was really made for the benefit of the postal employees and their friends, as after the issue ceased specimens were changing hands at as much as ten times face value.

Times have completely changed; it is not governments who issue stamps for the sake of revenue, but the postal employees who limit the public sale in order to force the stamps to a premium and then transfer the unsold remainders to themselves as waste-paper! We do not say this happened in the case of the Sarmiento stamps but it has occurred elsewhere. The remedy would of course be for the Universal Postal Union at Berne to insist on receiving not only its usual 500 'specimen' copies, but also say 5000 unused sets of every new stamp for allotment to dealers. But we fear stamp importers are never likely to receive so high a measure of consideration. But something ought to be done to limit these farcical provisional issues that everyone knows will be bought up within an hour of being issued.

AUSTRALIA (615 V 616).—Our Melbourne correspondent sends us a batch of the new postcards, which, like the lettercards, are appearing just now in a great many variations. During the Coronation month of June, 1911, the postcards are embellished with photographs of the King, Queen, and Prince of Wales, reproduced by the half-tone process, with or without a line frame. The varieties just received are:—

Postcards. Stamp with portrait of the King. Supplementary portraits reproduced from photographs covering left half of postcard.

- (i) The King,  $\frac{3}{4}$  face to right, with frame. 1d. dark purple.
- (ii) Same, but Crown and "GRI" added to frame. 1d. grey-black.
- (iii) Same, but without frame and portrait slightly larger. 1d. dark purple.
- (iv) Same photograph of the King, without frame and cut square instead of oval. 1d. chocolate brown.
- (v) The Queen, within frame as in i. 1d. grey-black.
- (vi) The Queen, photograph cut square with ornamental border composed of "M" Crown with Royal Arms at top and rose, shamrocks and thistle at foot. 1d. slate-blue.

NOTE.—We have not seen a card with photograph of the Queen corresponding to iii.

(vii) Larger portrait of the Queen, without frame and cut square, corresponding to iv.

1d. chocolate brown.

(viii) The Prince of Wales, small photograph in ornamental frame.

1d. grey-black.

(ix) Same photograph, but larger and cut square, with ornamental frame.

1d. dark brown.

(x) Same, but still larger and without frame. 1d. chocolate-brown.

Earliest postmark seen, 7.6.11. It will be noticed that there are five colours, dark purple, dark brown, chocolate, grey-black and slate-blue, but our correspondent in sending them says that he has seen shades varying from "brown and chocolate to grey and green." Only one portrait each of the King, Queen and Prince has been used, but the reproductions vary in size. We illustrate one of the cards.

The Melbourne Age, (1.6.11) states:—A generous response has been made to the Postmaster-General's request for designs for the new Australian postage stamps. More than 400 artists have forwarded drawings, many European and American designers being ambitious of the honour of conceiving the first Commonwealth postage. Most of the envelopes enclosing the designs bear Australian postmarks. The Postmaster-General has appointed Messrs. Bernard Hall (director of the Public Gallery), and A. W. A. Whelan (representing philatelists' associations), and J. Cook (head of the stamp branch), a board to examine the designs and report. A prize of £100 will be given for the winning design, and another of £50 for the second in merit. One design will be adopted for the full set of stamps to be printed, and the differences in denomination will be shown by colour.

BAVARIA (613 M 616).—The Augsburger Abend-Zeitung (20.6.11.) states that the Swiss postal administration has instructed its staff not to tax further letters which are franked with the new commemorative stamps. It seems that very large quantities of them have been used to frank foreign correspondence, although the Bavarian Post Office in issuing them was explicit in stating that they were only available for correspondence addressed to Bavaria, Germany and Austria. They have now been demonetized altogether, as from 1.7.11, but may be exchanged for the birthday issue up to 8.7.11.

BELGIUM (614 S 616).—Deferred Telegrams and Telegraphed Postcards.—The Belgian railway administration has decided upon the introduction of a new postal service by means of which messages transmitted telegraphically will be written out at their destination and dealt with there as postcards for delivery by postman. A reduced charge will be made of 30 centimes up to 15 words, plus 5 centimes for every further five words up to the limit of 35 words.

The Minister of Railways, Posts and Telegraphs is authorized for this purpose to issue a special card bearing a stamp of 30 centimes.

The object of the service is apparently to lessen the work of delivering telegrams during busy hours, as the transmission of such telegrams is limited to the hours 7 to 21 (7 a.m. to 9 p.m.).

A service of deferred telegrams is also introduced at the special rate of 30 centimes up to 15 words and thereafter 10 centimes per 10 words, the idea being no doubt to keep the wires working when they would otherwise be idle.

For the above details we are indebted to L'Annonce Timbrologique (30.6.11/3190).

BRITISH P.O., LEVANT (592 T 616).—The dark shades of the 2d. and 2/6 Great Britain issued last year (and distributed by Ewen's New Issue Service of 22.7.10 and 2.11.10 respectively), have now been overprinted "Levant" and "12 piastres" respectively.

Darker shades.

"Levant" on 2d. dark green and red.
"12 piastres" on 2/6 dark purple.

Issued 26.6.11 or earlier.

COSTA RICA (613 D 616).—The 1c. and 2c. "1911" provisionals have now been followed by another value with the same date overprinted.

Overprinted "Habilitado—1911" in blue. 5c. yellow and slate of 1907.

Issued 7.6.11. There are two errors or type varieties:—

(a) Habilitada with final a for o.

(b) 1911, second 1 is letter instead of figure.

The overprint was done from a stereo of 50, 5 rows of 10, two impressions completing the sheet of 100 stamps. The "Habilitada" error occurs on Nos. 45 and 95.

FRANCE (600 P 616).—The Daily Express describes a new letter-telegram system which has been introduced here. After midnight letters can be telegraphed to any part of the country for the small fee of 5d. for the first 50 words and 10d. per hundred words afterwards and are delivered by the first post in the morning.

GILBERT AND ELLICE ISLANDS (614 T 616).—A Melbourne correspondent informs us that he sent a packet of gold to the Postmaster who, writing on 5.5.11 sent him ten shillings of the surcharged 2d., 2½d., 6d., 6d., 1/-, and the balance in ¼d., 1d., 2d., and 2½d. Palm. Lucky man! Lucky postmaster too, as he kept 10% commission for himself!

Australian firms generally seem to have been favoured with supplies, as a Sydney firm offers the surcharged 2d., 2½d., 5d., 6d., and 1/- for 10/- per set, and the four palm trees for double face value. A Manchester firm recently offered the complete set for 30/-, but there are evident signs that prices are coming down with a run. Present estimates place the number of surcharged sets issued at 3000.

It would appear that some favoured person has been allowed to buy up the ¼d. and 1d. of the surcharged series.

GREECE (614 A 616).—We illustrate the designs of the new stamps:—

Goddess Iris.

Hermes.

Hermes putting on sandals.

Hermes carrying the baby Arcas.

All four designs show the caduceus in its early form.

GOLD COAST (585 G 616).—'Specimen' copies of the following are reported by the Bulletin Mensuel (25.6.11/2).

New Colours.

2/6 red and black on blue.

To be issued.

HONG KONG (606 T 616).—We are informed by Messrs. Graça & Co. that the following has been issued.

New Colours. Wmk. multiple Crown CA., chalky paper.

20c. olive and violet.

Issued 2.6.11.

ICELAND (614 H 616).—We illustrate the design of the new stamp.

The name is not, by the way, spelt with an ordinary "D" but the vertical stroke of the letter has a cross-bar converting it into the sound of "th."

ITALIAN P.O., CONSTANTINOPLE (501 B 616).—Le Bulletin Mensuel (25.6.11/15) states that a sheet of the 1 piastra has been found with double surcharge.

ITALY (610 R 616).—We illustrate the new Quinquenary (or Cinquantenary as some prefer it) commemorative issue.

We also illustrate other recent Italian stamp designs. The first six show the designs of the current Italian stamps, including the new 10 lire.

The other three illustrations are those of the Sicily issue with portrait of Garibaldi; the Southern Provinces Issue with the portrait of Garibaldi which was at first reported by half the philatelic press as that of Count Cavour; and lastly the new stamps for parcel waybills (Bullettini di Spedizione).

JAMAICA (605 A 616).—"Specimen" copies of the following are described by the Bulletin Mensuel (25.6.11/2).

New design.
6d. purple and lilac.

To be issued.

LEEWARD ISLANDS (587 L 616).—"Specimen" copies of the following are described by the Bulletin Mensuel (25.6.11/2).

New Colours.
2d grey.
6d. violet.
1/- black on green.
2/6 red and black on blue.

To be issued.

MOROCCO, BRITISH P.O. (612 U 616).—Under date of 30.6.11. a correspondent sends us the 1d. with control letter F7. The list of control letters now stands:—

1d. King Edward,	F6, F7.
1d. "	F6, F7.
5c. on 1/4d. same,	F8, G7, G8, H8, J10.
10c. on 1d. "	F8, G7, G8, H9, J10.

The 2d. and 2/6 stamps, both English and Spanish currency, are still the pale shades.

NEWFOUNDLAND (615 J 616).—We received a large supply of the Coronation Issue just after sending our last issue to press and were consequently only able to insert in our "Latest Arrivals" column the bare announcement that the new stamps were to hand. The stamps are all engraved in sheets of 100, 10 rows of 10, with plain margins. They arrived on our New Issue Service distribution day (Thursday), and were in the post again within a few hours of being received, consequently our subscribers probably received them before anyone else.

PAPUA (612 E 616).—Further large consignments of the 1/4d., 1d. and 2d. issued about 1.5.11 are now to hand and are exclusively our issue 28, i.e., wmk. Adelaide Crown A sideways inverted, perf. 12 1/2. Issue 27, of which we have only had the 1/4d., is probably an error.

Issue of August 1910. This issue, with Papua in larger lettering, is rapidly coming to an end. A correspondent informs us that the following quantities were printed.

1/4d. green and black	20,040
1d. pink and black (of which many were overprinted "Stamp Duty")	39,990
2d. violet and black	39,870
2 1/2d. violet-blue	15,060
4d. brown	24,840
6d. green	20,010
1/- orange	19,950
2/6 brown	40,000 (roughly).

The rarity of the set is the 2 1/2d. in the bright violet-blue shade. The above quantities comprise our issues 13 and 14 about equally mixed and probably from 500 to 1000 of each value have been punctured OS for official use. At the time of writing (25.4.11), our Port Moresby correspondent states that the 1/4d., 1d. and 2d. were completely finished and the stock of the 2 1/2d. was nearly exhausted. It is unlikely that the 4d., 6d. and 1/- will last much longer, as they also have now been issued nearly a year and the uncoloured stamps of these values have already been shipped to Port Moresby. We have received letters franked with the following:

Overprinted "Stamp Duty" for revenue use.
1/4d. green and black, large "Papua."
1d. pink and black, "

These are either issue 13 or 14 of our table; being attached to letters we cannot say for certain. They are only postmarked by courtesy and letters sent by them are liable to be taxed with double postage. In fact one of our letters was marked "TAX" but for some reason or other this was cancelled.

An extremely interesting discovery in the stamps of this country is the existence of two types of the 2/6 stamps, in the current issue, briefly referred to in E.W.S.N., No. 612. The history of the 2/6 stamp may be recapitulated:—

March 1905.

British New Guinea.

2/6 brown and black, 2,234 issued unsurcharged. Wmk. horizontal or vertical; thick or thin paper. Current quotations, from 60/- upwards.

8th November 1906.

Same, with large overprint "Papua."

2/6 brown and black, 2730 issued. Wmk. horizontal (now quoted 20/-) or vertical (very rare).

July 1907.

Same, with small overprint "Papua."

2/6 brown and black, 10,696 printed, of which it is estimated about one-third were wmk. vertical rosettes, thin paper and two-thirds wmk. horizontal rosettes, thick paper. The latter printing was first noticed in February 1908 and in July 1908 one sheet was issued with surcharge vertically instead of horizontally.

2/6 brown and black. About 500 or 600 of the above, wmk. horizontal rosettes, were punctured for official use.

There are two varieties in the setting of this overprint; (a) inverted d in Papua (Nos. 10, 16 and 21 on sheet); (b) "pua" of "Papua" dropped (No. 17).

December 1909.

Permanent design, inscribed "Papua" (type i).

Wmk. Crown A sideways, perf. 11.

2/6 brown and black. The number issued was, it is said, only 4080, of which about two-thirds were our issue 6 (wmk. sideways inverted) and one-third our issue 5 (wmk. sideways normal), so far as we can estimate.

2/6 brown and black. It is doubtful whether more than 50 of the above were punctured "OS" for official use and these were almost all our issue 6. Earliest postmark, June 1910.

Ewen's New Issue Service made a complete distribution of both issues 5 and 6 of the public issue, but as regards the officials we were only able to begin the distribution of 2/6 OS issue 6 and have not yet seen issue 5. Current quotations are about 5/- for issue 6, 7/6 for issue 5 and £5 for issue 6 OS.

August, 1910.

Wmk. Crown A, upright, perf. 12 1/2.

Same design, but redrawn, type ii.

The bar of "2/6" is thick and the figures of value are not very carefully drawn, the "2" sometimes being italic.

Again redrawn, type iii.

The bar of "2/6" is very thin and both figures and bar are neatly drawn and the lower tip of the figure "2" is much closer to the oval. No. 10 on the sheet has a white dot over the figure "2" in the right-hand corner.

2/6 brown and black, type ii., ("thick bar"). It is unknown how many were printed but of types ii. and iii. together there were about 40,000 and both types appear to be about equally represented so far as the issue has gone. Ewen's New Issue Service completes the distribution of issue 14 this week (inverted wmk.) but issue 13 we have not yet seen (normal wmk.)

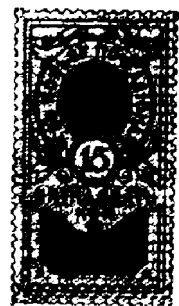

2/6 brown and black, type ii., O.S. About 500 have so far been issued and a distribution was made by Ewen's New Issue Service in 1910. We believe no one has yet received any but our New Issue Service, as the sale of official stamps was stopped by Lord Crewe directly after this stamp was issued.

2/6 brown and black, type iii. ("thin bar"). Ewen's New Issue Service has made a complete distribution of this in both issues 13 and 14. We have not seen it punctured OS for official use, though doubtless it will appear in course of time.

It may be remarked that apart from one consignment of official stamps issued in September 1910, all our importations of 2/6 stamps of this issue have been type iii. until this week, when we receive a supply of type ii. from a correspondent.

PORTUGUESE MOZAMBIQUE COMPANY (607 U 616).—We are now informed that the postage due stamps have not been locally overprinted "Republica," so that only the postage stamps exist with the Beira overprint. Of these we have received entire sheets of all values, but find no errors. That is to say, all values except the 2 1/2 and 5 reis which the postal employees are said to have cornered as a speculation for their own benefit.

RUSSIA (615 Q 616).—We illustrate the 15 kopek postage due stamp chronicled last week.

SOUTH AUSTRALIA (612 X 616).—We are informed that the following has been issued.

Wmk. Crown SA instead of Crown A.
9d. lake.

Issued 3.6.11. or earlier. Presumably the stock of old paper is being used up. The varieties now known are:—

(37) Wmk. Crown SA, perf. 12 even.

6d., 8d., 9d., 10d., 1/-, 2/6, 5/-, 10/-, £1.

(39) Wmk. Crown SA, perf. 12 1/2.

9d., 5/-, £1.

(47) Wmk. Crown A, perf. 12 even.

3d., 4d., 6d., 8d., 9d., 10d., 1/-, 2/6.

(49) Wmk. Crown A, perf. 12 1/2.

3d., 4d., 6d., 8d., 9d., 1/-, 2/6.

Gibbons' catalogue also mentions issue 49, 5/- and £1, and the 3d., 4d., 6d., 8d., 9d., 1/-, Crown A, perf. 12 with 12 1/2 (the 1/- Crown SA also), but these we have not seen.

VICTORIA (586 T 616).—A new machine postmark was introduced 1.6.11 or earlier, each line being replaced by a series of dashes. Stamps so cancelled are not disfigured to the same extent.

The Accountant of the Melbourne Post Office stated on 26.5.11 that remainders of the postage due stamps inscribed "Victoria" were still available in the following values:—1/4d., 1/2d., 3d., 4d., 6d., 1/-, 2/-. Only the two first are on Crown A paper.

Deposit Accounts.—All payments (for whatever purpose) are credited to a deposit account, and all invoices (whether for stamps, albums, subscriptions or postage, etc.), are debited to such account. This deposit account should not be overdrawn. The balance is returnable post free on demand.

Returns.—Stamps which are not as ordered may be returned within 10 days and their full sale price will be re-credited to deposit account.

Bank notes.—20 mark=19/6; 50 francs (French) 39/8; 50 francs (other countries), 39/6; 50 lire, 39/6; 20 kronen=16/6; 20 kroner=22/-; 10 gulden=16/6; 10 roubles=21/-; U.S.A. dollar=4/1.

Cheques payable to "Ewen's Colonial Stamp Market, Ltd.," or "Ewen's, Ltd.," postal orders, money orders (inland and foreign) etc., payable to "Ewen's, Ltd.," at "Anerley Road, S.E." Cheques on France and Germany accepted at same rate as bank notes, also bons de poste.
