A new set of Stamps for the U
S. would not be objectional, eh?

REPRINTS.

Good, genuiue essays or proofs not made to sell, are of interest and to many, not far advanced valuable in many ways yet the little good they do is off-set by much harm.

Philatelists may be glad they have them as they consider how many vacant spaces there would be in our Albums but for the reprints.

PREDICTIONS!

The Bazar has good things predict for the collections. We predict that in five years an organised effort will be made to suppress the two curses, surcharges and reprints.

That the A. P. A. will have 1000 numbers. That the I. P. D. will have branches here.

S Allan Taylor will have to look out for he is being watched.
We doubt if he sell much more of his counterfeit trash.

Our Lawyer President Mr. Tuf any will look out for frauds.

A FREE RUBBER STAMP! WITE!

HANFORD & COMPANY,

26 Church St. New York City.

That the collection of entire postcardes will be an assured fact. We predict that organized auctions of stamps will be held in principal cities. Also that the use of cuts of stamps for advertising will be limited to certain uses by law tending of course to lessen the number of counterfeits.

Also that a new system of albums will be introduced.

Also that postage between the U. S. and many foreign lands will be reduced in price.

NOTES.

A number of substituents are noticed in Montreal.

It is very annoying to a collector to have stamps sent him without being asked for without any return postage.

Mr. Hooper of Ottawa is a member of the Guards and is a collector of Canadian Revenues which is quite a new hobby.

STAMP NEWS.

It is said that Revenue Proprietary stamps are much more rare if unperforate.

The source of the supply of counterfeits is traced out to N. Y., Salem and Boston, usually the latter. Parties must be careful in buying stamps from these places with out noticing stamps.

FORGERIES.

We are much annoyed by frequent attempts to sell bad stamps by the small boys of the land.

Officially sealed U. S. stamps are getting quite rare.

The hobby has extended so that double or part perforations of stamps are called varieties.

Collectors are warned against a Mr. Clarke, of Salem who sells Hamburg Locals(?)

FORGERIES.

Counterfeit stamps are always on a cheap, thick paper of such quality as to admit of uneven perforation, and usually the color does not take well. Are sometimes dull in red tints. The lettering of "Postage" and similar words are uneven & faulty.

We hope our friends will use these tests and save them selves from being deceived.
