Contemporaries.

We shall be pleased to review any books, papers, circulars, &c., and to exchange with all publishers sending their papers regularly to our address.

Notes of General Interest.

We have received a book from Mr. H. Copley, entitled, Wonderful Occurrences and Memorable Events, which comprises many remarkable events that have occurred since our earliest remembrance to the 18th century. It is well worthy of notice, and we would advise every reader to obtain a copy of it. It is the best, the cheapest, and most interesting work we have ever read. We hear from Mr. Harry Copley that his next book, Fires, Famines, and Frosts, is to be published very shortly.

Perseverance meets with its own reward.

Read our Grand Offer on Page 7. The Rubber Stamp is of the kind that are always sold at 4/- and the other things given in with the stamp are worth a 1/- thus making the value at 5/-
