Communications to

"THE PHILATELIC CHRONICLE,"

Handsworth, Birmingham.

Entered at Stationers' Hall.

Vol. XV.

JAN., 1906.

No. 185.

Postman's Knock.

Owing to the great circulation which the Philatelic Chronicle has attained it is found necessary to revise the terms under which the paper is sent out. At present every subscriber for six issues is entitled to an advertisement of 24 words. As it costs threepence for postage alone this leaves only 3d. for the advertisement and the six copies of the paper. Each and every copy of the Chronicle costs the publishers over 1d., even taking the great number printed, so it does not require a large knowledge of arithmetic to discover that the small advertisements cost the publishers considerably over twice what is paid for them and, I am pleased to say, they are very numerous.

The object originally aimed at in making the subscription merely nominal, namely the acquiring of a great and world-wide circulation, has now been achieved, greatly to the benefit of our advertisers small and great, but the strain of the ever-increasing postage bill compels the revision of the system of circulation. Pounds are wasted each month in sending the paper to people whose interest has evaporated. It is quite impossible to tell who are such, but it is highly probable that those who wish to receive the paper regularly will not object to the nominal subscription of 1/- per annum, or 6d. for six months, and be willing to pay the small amount, also, for any advertisements they may desire.

The circulation will not be affected, as the paper will be exploited in new directions by means of more sample copies, the postage bill will not be decreased, but the wastage now more than suspected will be greatly minimized, as only subscribers and those with advertisements actually being published will receive the paper regularly. All advertisers will be sent to, but not necessarily after their advertisements have run out, and the annual subscriber of 1/- must enclose his extra 6d. for a 24 word advertisement once, or 1/- for three times, or to whatever extent he desires to advertise. In a word, the only alteration is that our friends must now pay for their subscription and advertisements separately—subscribers are not obliged to advertise nor advertisers to subscribe.

Will all New Zealand and other Colonial correspondents please remit by postal order payable in Great Britain. An order for 1/- costs only one penny and is more useful by far than stamps. All foreign correspondents are requested to remit through the Post Office where possible.

Do not address your letters to "Fentham Road" It is wrong and causes delay. The address is "The Philatelic Chronicle, Handsworth, Birmingham."

I have received the third issue of Messrs. Nissen's useful Stamp Collectors' Annual, which is quite up to its usual pitch of excellence, and cheap at 1/-

Messrs. Theodore Champion & Co., will send their Monthly Bulletin of Novelties to all applicants, it is well worth sending for. W. Victor Marsh has issued his second catalogue of Philatelic Literature for sale (389, Brixton Road, London).

I have to thank Messrs Martin, Ray & Co., and also Messrs. Douglas, Cook & Co., for copies of their various Auction Sales. Any

Communications to

"THE PHILATELIC CHRONICLE,"

Handsworth, Birmingham.

Entered at Stationers' Hall.

Vol. XV. FEB., 1906. No. 186.

Postman's Knock.

Owing to the great circulation which the Philatelic Chronicle has attained it is found necessary to revise the terms under which the paper is sent out. At present every subscriber for six issues is entitled to an advertisement of 24 words. As it costs threepence for postage alone this leaves only 3d. for the advertisement and the six copies of the paper. Each and every copy of the Chronicle costs the publishers over 1d., even taking the great number printed, so it does not require a large knowledge of arithmetic to discover that the small advertisements cost the publishers considerably over twice what is paid for them and, I am pleased to say, they are very numerous.

The object originally aimed at in making the subscription merely nominal, namely the acquiring of a great and world-wide circulation, has now been achieved, greatly to the benefit of our advertisers small and great, but the strain of the ever-increasing postage bill compels the revision of the system of circulation. Pounds are wasted each month in sending the paper to people whose interest has evaporated. It is quite impossible to tell who are such, but it is highly probable that those who wish to receive the paper regularly will not object to the nominal subscription of 1/- per annum, or 6d. for six months, and be willing to pay the small amount, also, for any advertisements they may desire.

Will all New Zealand and other Colonial correspondents please remit by postal order payable in Great Britain. An order for 1/- costs only one penny and is more useful by far than stamps. All foreign correspondents are requested to remit through the Post Office where possible.

Do not address your letters to "Fentham Road." It is wrong and causes delay. The address is "The Philatelic Chronicle, Handsworth, Birmingham."

The following paragraph is cut from the Birmingham Daily Mail:

"A postage stamp has just been discovered in Roumania, which is believed to be unique in the world. It dates from June 1, 1813, and is Wallachian, for Roumania had then no existence. The stamp, which is blue, is round, like a sealing wafer, with intended edges. It bears the arms of Wallachia, an eagle with outstretched wings and a cross in its beak. The bird rests on a sphere inscribed with the initials of the "domn" of the epoch. No value is marked on the stamp, the postal service of that date being made by postillion, and paid for by distance.

There are only two Philatelic discoveries of greater importance than this. The first was the one carefully reported in an American philatelic paper of the discovery of a number of "penny postage stamps of the time of George III." and my own, immediately afterwards, of a number of Roman Empire stamps, face value one denarius, of the time of Claudius.

A little information as to whether "domn" is, or is not, a misprint, would be interesting.

According to a Birmingham antiquarian, the postmarks most highly prized are what are known as the Dockwra postmarks, after William Dockwra, who as long ago as 1680 organised a penny post system, under which the letters were marked with a triangle bearing the inscription "Penny Post Paid." These are catalogued by some dealers as high as £5, but a good average price, apparently, would be a sovereign. Dockwra's system, it may be explained, applied only to London, and was conducted without postage stamps. He cannot therefore be reasonably said to have anticipated Sir Rowland Hill's scheme, introduced in 1840.

EWEN'S COLONIAL STAMP MARKET Ltd.,
32, PALACE SQUARE, NORWOOD,
LONDON, S.E.

Messrs. Ewen's Colonial Stamp Market have bought the bulk of the Somaliland Official stamps from the Crown Agents, the price paid was well over £2,000, some of the stamps are very rare indeed, only 406 complete sets of 15 exist, and Ewen's bought 285 of these. The latest dealer's price for these stamps is £40 for the set, and Ewen's offer them at £10 for a few days only. That they will be worth much more ere long is obvious and collectors would be well advised to look carefully at Messrs. Ewen's announcement in this issue.

"THE PHILATELIC CHRONICLE,"

No. 187.

Postman's Knock.

Will all New Zealand and other Colonial correspondents please remit by postal order payable in Great Britain. An order for 1/- costs only one penny and is more useful by far than stamps. All foreign correspondents are requested to remit through the Post Office where possible.

Do not address your letters to "Fentham Road." It is wrong and causes delay. The address is "The Philatelic Chronicle, Handsworth, Birmingham."

Some correspondents, especially those in India, who have to remit small amounts, always send unused stamps and register the letter. The publishers of the Philatelic Chronicle would esteem it a favour if these friends would send postal or post office orders which can now be obtained in all the British Colonies. The cost would be less than registration and the orders can be crossed for safety if deemed necessary.

The worst feature about sending stamps is that the most common values are usually chosen. Obsolete or provisional stamps are usually worth their face value at least, but a dozen current Indian anna stamps or Canadian 2 cent or New Zealand penny have no value in England. They cannot be disposed of at half face value, because nobody wants them. Current continental stamps are a little better as they are often used by English people to remit small sums to Germany, France, Austria, &c.

Postal orders are now so cheap that there is little advantage in sending stamps, while the risk of stamps being injured or lost in transit is very considerable. Foreign money in any form is also much better than stamps. American or Canadian greenbacks, German 5 or 10 marks notes, and such like are easily negotiable here, as also coins, but the transmission of these is more risky than is that of postal orders. Anyhow, I hope that all my readers will send money in some form rather than stamps if possible. If stamps are sent please oblige by getting uncommon values.

One other point about current stamps. They are of no use unless perfect, they must not be soiled or torn, and must have full gum to be of use. Very often, in a single day, as many as half a dozen letters are received with the stamps enclosed stuck close down by the action of moisture. Of course they are practically useless by the time they are soaked off.

There is one perverse and extremely irritating custom among correspondents in the Levant. They write us from Smyrna, Constantinople, Salonika, &c., carefully franking their letters with stamps of the British Post Office at the town. This is very nice as the Levant stamps are useful. Inside they put unused Turkish stamps, which are simply rubbish! Why? If they have to go to the British Post Office to post the letter why trouble to get Turkish stamps at the Turkish Post Office to put inside? Correspondents in the Levant are requested to note the above.

I am requested by the late editor of "The Oceania Journal" to point out that the paper has ceased to be issued some time ago. Subscriptions are being returned, but the late editor wishes to stop their being sent.

Communications to

"THE PHILATELIC CHRONICLE,"

Handsworth, Birmingham.

Entered at Stationers' Hall.

Vol. XV.

APRIL, 1906.

No. 188.

Postman's Knock.

Will all New Zealand and other Colonial correspondents please remit by postal order payable in Great Britain. An order for 1/- costs only one penny and is more useful by far than stamps. All foreign correspondents are requested to remit through the Post Office where possible.

Do not address your letters to "Fentham Road." It is wrong and causes delay. The address is "The Philatelic Chronicle, Handsworth, Birmingham."

Some correspondents, especially those in India, who have to remit small amounts, always send unused stamps and register the letter. The publishers of the Philatelic Chronicle would esteem it a favour if these friends would send postal or post office orders which can now be obtained in all the British Colonies. The cost would be less than registration and the orders can be crossed for safety if deemed necessary.

Postal orders are now so cheap that there is little advantage in sending stamps, while the risk of stamps being injured or lost in transit is very considerable. Foreign money in any form is also much better than stamps. American or Canadian greenbacks, German 5 or 10 marks notes, and such like are easily negotiable here, as also coins, but the transmission of these is more risky than is that of postal orders. Anyhow, I hope that all my readers will send money in some form rather than stamps if possible. If stamps are sent please oblige by getting uncommon values.

One other point about current stamps. They are of no use unless perfect, they must not be soiled or torn, and must have full gum to be of use. Very often, in a single day, as many as half a dozen letters are received with the stamps enclosed stuck close down by the action of moisture. Of course they are practically useless by the time they are soaked off.

As the Lagos and Somaliland Protectorate obsolete postage stamps. The Crown Agents for the Colonies will destroy all the above stamps remaining in their hands on the 30th April. Any applications for parcels of not less total face value than £50 which reach the Crown Agents before the above date will be attended to in order of receipt. None of the stamps have been or will be sold for less than face value, nor will they in any circumstances be cancelled.

Owing to the peculation of the postal officials the Ameer of Afghanistan has decided to abolish the issue of stamps within his dominions. In future all letters posted in Afghanistan are to be impressed with a metal seal instead of bearing the ordinary gummed on variety. Existing stocks of postage stamps are to be used up at certain of the principal post offices, after which no more will be forthcoming, so that there is likely to be a considerable rise in the value of the present Afghan issues.

The Warwick Pageant will be one of the grandest shows ever arranged in this country. Two thousand people will take part, and the grounds of the historic castle will be the scene of a spectacle never equalled since the Earl of Leicester entertained Queen Elizabeth in the neighbouring feudal stronghold of Kenilworth, now in ruins.

MRS. M. ALTMANN,

Weichselstr. 60,

BERLIN-RIXDORF, GERMANY.

The Committee responsible for the arrangements have given the sole right of publishing postcards of the Pageant to the Water Colour Postcard Co., of 17, Paternoster Row, who are producing a fine series of twelve cards, by the three-colour process, from original water-colour drawings by Mr. J. N. Bolton.

The Federal Stamp Company, has joined the ranks of those dealers who make a practice of issuing periodical circulars, and No. 1 of "Current Quotation," circulated with this issue, is rather more than an ordinary price list. It is a useful guide to the value of modern stamps. Those readers who have dealings with the firm, will find Mr. J. C. Long, the head of the Company, to be straight forward and obliging.

This issue of the Philatelic Chronicle, and the May one will all be specially large issues. A copy of one of these will be sent to every dealer and collector we can reach in Great Britain and the Continent.

Communications to

"THE PHILATELIC CHRONICLE,"

Entered at Stationers' Hall.

Vol. XV.

May, 1906.

No. 189.

Postman's Knock.

Will all New Zealand and other Colonial correspondents please remit by postal order payable in Great Britain. An order for 1/- costs only one penny and is more useful by far than stamps. All foreign correspondents are requested to remit through the Post Office where possible.

Do not address your letters to "Fentham Road" It is wrong and causes delay. The address is "The Philatelic Chronicle, Handsworth, Birmingham."

Some correspondents, especially those in India, who have to remit small amounts, always send unused stamps and register the letter. The publishers of the Philatelic Chronicle would esteem it a favour if these friends would send postal or post office orders which can now be obtained in all the British Colonies. The cost would be less than registration and the orders can be crossed for safety if deemed necessary.

Postal orders are now so cheap that there is little advantage in sending stamps, while the risk of stamps being injured or lost in transit is very considerable. Foreign money in any form is also much better than stamps. American or Canadian greenbacks, German 5 or 10 marks notes, and such like are easily negotiable here, as also coins, but the transmission of these is more risky than is that of postal orders. Anyhow, I hope that all my readers will send money in some form rather than stamps if possible. If stamps are sent please oblige by getting uncommon values.

One other point about current stamps. They are of no use unless perfect, they must not be soiled or torn, and must have full gum to be of use. Very often, in a single day, as many as half a dozen letters are received with the stamps enclosed stuck close down by the action of moisture. Of course they are practically useless by the time they are soaked off.

Many people complain about correspondents not answering their letters. The communication underneath shows how careless many people are. I have several times called attention to remittances and other communications sent to this paper without a trace of the sender, and this letter shows similar carelessness:

"I have received three selections of Revenue Stamps from my other advts., in which the senders failed to give me their names and addresses. Should any complaints arise against me for not answering letters sent, please advise complainant to send me names, &c, and I will settle all expense attached to postage."

Yours respectfully,

D. E. McCURDY,

Westernport, Md., U.S.A.

J. W. MARTIN,

Milwaukee, Wis., U.S.A. 91

Mr. Mayes, of Yokohama, whose advertisement has been appearing for some months in our Inch Spaces, has sent me specimens of the beautiful hand-painted, colourtype and lacquer cards which he publishes. The handsome lacquer pictures are one of Japan's products and cannot be made out of the country, as it is well-known that gold lacquering is one of Japan's secret arts, and centuries old. They are exceedingly tedious to make, and it takes a week to complete a card, there being so many processes necessary to lay on the gold.

The Water Colour Postcard Co., London, have sent me a selection of their beautiful cards reproduced from water colour drawings by the well-known and talented artist, Mr. W. H. Borrow.

This issue of the Philatelic Chronicle, and the June one will be specially large issues. A copy of one of these will be sent to every dealer and collector we can reach in Great Britain and the Continent.

Communications to

"THE PHILATELIC CHRONICLE,"

Handsworth, Birmingham.

Entered at Stationers' Hall.

Vol. XV. JUNE-JULY, 1906. No. 190.

Postman's Knock.

Will all New Zealand and other Colonial correspondents please remit by postal order payable in Great Britain. An order for 1/- costs only one penny and is more useful by far than stamps. All foreign correspondents are requested to remit through the Post Office where possible.

Do not address your letters to "Fentham Road." It is wrong and causes delay. The address is "The Philatelic Chronicle, Handsworth, Birmingham."

Some correspondents, especially those in India, who have to remit small amounts, always send unused stamps and register the letter. The publishers of the Philatelic Chronicle would esteem it a favour if these friends would send postal or post office orders which can now be obtained in all the British Colonies. The cost would be less than registration and the orders can be crossed for safety if deemed necessary.

Postal orders are now so cheap that there is little advantage in sending stamps, while the risk of stamps being injured or lost in transit is very considerable. Foreign money in any form is also much better than stamps. American or Canadian greenbacks, German 5 or 10 marks notes, and such like are easily negotiable here, as also coins, but the transmission of these is more risky than is that of postal orders. Anyhow, I hope that all my readers will send money in some form rather than stamps if possible. If stamps are sent please oblige by getting uncommon values.

One other point about current stamps. They are of no use unless perfect, they must not be soiled or torn, and must have full gum to be of use. Very often, in a single day, as many as half a dozen letters are received with the stamps enclosed stuck close down by the action of moisture. Of course they are practically useless by the time they are soaked off.

All our English and many of our Foreign subscribers will receive with this paper a list of Summer bargains offered by Mr. J. T. Allen-Bolton, 5, Elmwood Road, Croydon. Should anyone not receive a copy, one may be obtained by writing direct. Mr. Allen-Bolton offers bargains from at one-quarter to one-tenth catalogue price.

Messrs. Champion & Co. sent us the new ten centimes French stamp. It is printed in a brilliant red and is a remarkably handsome stamp. By—the—way, every collector and dealer should send for Messrs. Champion's "Bulletin Mensuel," which will be sent free. See back page.

On another page is a list of stamps—more or less common it is true—which have been taken by the publishers for a debt. Any offer will be accepted for the lot or for any part.

Dealers would do well to send for the Wholesale Price List of Messrs. Stanley, Anderson & Co. They save the trouble of

Communications to

"THE PHILATELIC CHRONICLE,"

Handsworth, Birmingham.

Entered at Stationers' Hall.

Vol. XV. AUGUST, 1906. No. 191.

Postman's Knock.

Do not address your letters to "Fentham Road." It is wrong and causes delay. The address is "The Philatelic Chronicle, Handsworth, Birmingham."

Some correspondents, especially those in India, who have to remit small amounts, always send unused stamps and register the letter. The publishers of the Philatelic Chronicle would esteem it a favour if these friends would send postal or post office orders which can now be obtained in all the British Colonies. The cost would be less than registration and the orders can be crossed for safety if deemed necessary.

Postal orders are now so cheap that there is little advantage in sending stamps, while the risk of stamps being injured or lost in transit is very considerable. Foreign money in any form is also much better than stamps. American or Canadian greenbacks, German 5 or 10 marks notes, and such like are easily negotiable here, as also coins, but the transmission of these is more risky than is that of postal orders. Anyhow, I hope that all my readers will send money in some form rather than stamps if possible. If stamps are sent please oblige by getting uncommon values.

The publishers of the Philatelic Chronicle and Advertiser will send one thousand circulars to philatelists for ten shillings. To post these separately costs £2 1s. 8d., and therefore the saving effected is £1 11s. 8d.—surely a consideration. It may be argued that distributing in this manner is not so efficacious as sending separately in envelopes. This is undoubtedly correct, but when the extra expense of envelopes, labour and time is considered, it will be found that the saving is quite genuine—to say nothing of the great advantage secured by reason of the new ground covered.

Despite these advantages we really have very little distributing to do. We probably do not average much above 1,000 circulars per month taking the year through, yet there must be many dealers who cannot send out enough circulars for lack of time and from other causes, and who are not taking advantage of the simple means offered by the Chronicle.

Messrs. Montgomerie & Co., Highdown Road, Brighton, who have so long advertised in our paper are retiring from business as stamp dealers. Those who have been in business connection with the firm will join with me in saying that philately is greatly the poorer by the loss of a firm with so lengthy and honourable a record.

The firm of Douglas, Cook & Co., Glasgow, Auctioneers, &c., has been dissolved. The sole partners were Peter Douglas and John Cook, and the latter is authorised to collect all sums due to, and pay all debts due by, the dissolved firm.

One of the best colonial packets I have seen is that of Mr. J. E. Lea, Manchester. It consists of sixty distinct varieties of New Zealand and Australia, and is simply given away at the price. Mr. Lea's offers on page 121 contain many useful and cheap lots, and he guarantees every stamp to be a "fine used copy."

The following extract from a letter from Dunedin, New Zealand, explains itself:—

"I am not much surprised at not getting a reply from George Town, as I consider that J. De Souza, M. Khan and other aliases are all the work of the one knave. Probably many more like myself in other parts of the world are being swindled by the same rascal. One or two in this town have been done already by Khan, hence my supposition."

I remain, yours faithfully,

DUPLICATES.

I have purchased the accumulated duplicates of many years, amounting to about 30,000, from a collector, and have caused them to be put unpicked into envelopes containing one ounce, or

about 250

never less. They are neither very scarce nor very common, but of medium quality, with a few unused and a sprinkling of British Colonials, and are practically now all obsolete.

There are good, bad and indifferent copies, but the great majority are good. Many are on pieces of the original envelope. There are also envelope stamps cut out, but the value is excellent at one shilling per envelope, or

1/1 post free in Great Britain.

Three envelopes (750 to 1,000 stamps) for 2/6, postage extra. This is a splendid line for small dealers. Foreign orders must include postage for 1½ ounces. Please note I can only sell these stamps

WHILE THEY LAST.

So be in time, they cannot last for ever, especially as those who have purchased are sending for more packets

Communications to

"THE PHILATELIC CHRONICLE,"

Handsworth, Birmingham.

Entered at Stationers' Hall.

Vol. XV. SEPT.-OCT., 1906. No. 192.

Postman's Knock.

Do not address your letters to "Fentham Road." It is wrong and causes delay. The address is "The Philatelic Chronicle, Handsworth, Birmingham."

Some correspondents, especially those in India, who have to remit small amounts, always send unused stamps and register the letter. The publishers of the Philatelic Chronicle would esteem it a favour if these friends would send postal or post office orders which can now be obtained in all the British Colonies. The cost would be less than registration and the orders can be crossed for safety if deemed necessary.

The publishers of the Philatelic Chronicle and Advertiser will send one thousand circulars to philatelists for ten shillings. To post these separately costs £2 1s. 8d., and therefore the saving effected is £1 11s. 8d.—surely a consideration. It may be argued that distributing in this manner is not so efficacious as sending separately in envelopes. This is undoubtedly correct, but when the extra expense of envelopes, labour and time is considered, it will be found that the saving is quite genuine—to say nothing of the great advantage secured by reason of the new ground covered.

Despite these advantages we really have very little distributing to do. We probably do not average much above 1,000 circulars per month taking the year through, yet there must be many dealers who cannot send out enough circulars for lack of time and from other causes, and who are not taking advantage of the simple means offered by the Chronicle.

Next issue of The Philatelic Chronicle will be the usual annual SEASON OPENING NUMBER. I hope all prospective advertisers will take their space early as possible and thus avoid the delay caused last year by the large quantity of advertisements that arrived during the last day or day

The popularity of this issue was established years ago, and advertisers readily acknowledge it as one of the best opportunities of the year to reach collectors and dealers. The circulation will be largely increased as usual, and I confidently look forward to an issue of mutual advantage to publisher and advertiser.

Above all things take an ancient, elderly, old POSTMAN'S advice: Be in time.

The great French catalogue—The Yvert and Tellier-Champion—published by Messrs. Theodore Champion & Co., is now published and can be obtained from the publishers, as advertised on the back cover of this issue, or through the Philatelic Publishing Co. The publishers of the Philatelic Chronicle can supply any of Stanley Gibbons albums or publications at the publishers' prices.

Many of my readers will be spending a holiday at one of the beautiful watering places of Sussex. As souvenirs of the holiday one cannot do better than secure picture postcard views of the most picturesque spots, and the series of coloured prints, re-produced from water-colour drawings, published by The Water Colour Postcard Co., 17, Paternoster Row, are the most beautiful series issued for Sussex.

The following extract from a letter from Dunedin, New Zealand, explains itself:—

“I am not much surprised at not getting a reply from George Town, as I consider that J. De Souza, M. Khan and other aliases are all the work of the one knave. Probably many more like myself in other parts of the world are being swindled by the same rascal. One or two in this town have been done already by Khan, hence my supposition.”

I remain, yours faithfully,

W. MILLER.

This party has been working from Georgetown and Port of Spain for years. Among other names he has used—Gamel, Geo. Anderson, Amateur Philatelic Co., Samuel W. Carter, de Suz, Messerley, Rodrigues, &c.

DUPLICATES.

I have purchased the accumulated duplicates of many years, amounting to about 30,000, from a collector, and have caused them to be put unpicked into envelopes containing one ounce, or

about 250

never less. They are neither very scarce nor very common, but of medium quality, with a few unused and a sprinkling of British Colonials, and are practically now all obsolete.

There are good, bad and indifferent copies, but the great majority are good. Many are on pieces of the original envelope. There are also envelope stamps out out, but the value is excellent at one shilling per envelope, or

1/1 post free in Great Britain.

Three envelopes (750 to 1,000 stamps) for 2/6, postage extra. This is a splendid line for small dealers. Foreign orders must include postage for 1½ ounces. Please note I can only sell these stamps

WHILE THEY LAST.

So be in time, they cannot last for ever, especially as those who have purchased are sending for more packets

Communications to

"THE PHILATELIC CHRONICLE,"

Handsworth, Birmingham.

Entered at Stationers' Hall.

Vol. XV.

Nov., 1906.

No. 193.

Postman's Knock.

Do not address your letters to "Fentham Road." It is wrong and causes delay. The address is "The Philatelic Chronicle, Handsworth, Birmingham."

The publishers of the Philatelic Chronicle and Advertiser will send one thousand circulars to philatelists for ten shillings. To post these separately costs £2 1s. 8d., and therefore the saving effected is £1 11s. 8d.—surely a consideration. It may be argued that distributing in this manner is not so efficacious as sending separately in envelopes. This is undoubtedly correct, but when the extra expense of envelopes, labour and time is considered, it will be found that the saving is quite genuine—to say nothing of the great advantage secured by reason of the new ground covered.

Despite these advantages we really have very little distributing to do. We probably do not average much above 1,000 circulars per month taking the year through, yet there must be many dealers who cannot send out enough circulars for lack of time and from other causes, and who are not taking advantage of the simple means offered by the Chronicle.

This month we are distributing the announcement of the third edition of the B.E. Stamp Exchange Medium for Mr. G. Johnson, 79, Newton Street, Gorton, Manchester; the circular of the new firm of Cook & Co. (late Douglas, Cook & Co.), 562, Sauchiehall St., Glasgow; and some of the first issue of "Jackson's Monthly Circular" for Mr. W. S. Jackson, Summerfield, Moberley, Cheshire, a very interesting list. The copies of the above which we have for distribution will not be sufficient to supply all our readers, but we give the addresses in order that anyone may write for them. Next month we hope to have many more for our Christmas distribution.

The publishers are arranging the Christmas issue for December 12th, so that it will be near Christmas and yet not be too close. I hope all my readers will be early with their advertisements. A rush during the last few days always means a slight delay and this must be avoided as much as possible with the Christmas issue.

I am asked to earnestly request all correspondents to address letters to "Philatelic Chronicle, Handsworth, Birmingham." The office has been in its present location over two years, and the Post Office will not re-direct any more letters sent to the old address.

I have received from Messrs. Lewis May & Co, a copy of their new "King William Pocket Duplicate Stamp Book," a neat arrangement for holding 150 to 200 duplicates. The price is 6d. or 7d. post free.

The old established firm of Messrs. Montgomerie & Co., late of Brighton, has been transferred to Messrs. Muller & Co, A.B.C. Hof, Hamburg. I have no hesitation in recommending the new proprietors who can be thoroughly relied upon to give satisfaction. Their advt. will be found in this issue.

Pillar Boxes according to a writer in "The Penny Magazine," were apparently the invention of the Grand Monarch, Louis XIV., who put them up in the streets of Paris in 1653, more than thirty years before a penny post was established in London. The first official English pillar-box was established at the corner of Fleet Street and Farringdon Street in March 1855.

DUPLICATES.

I have purchased the accumulated duplicates of many years, amounting to about 30,000, from a collector, and have caused them to be put unpicked into envelopes containing one ounce, or

about 250

never less. They are neither very scarce nor very common, but of medium quality, with a few unused and a sprinkling of British Colonials, and are practically now all obsolete.

There are good, bad and indifferent copies, but the great majority are good. Many are on pieces of the original envelope. There are also envelope stamps out out, but the value is excellent at one shilling per envelope, or

9d. post free in Great Britain.

Three envelopes (750 to 1,000 stamps) for 2/-, postage extra. This is a splendid line for small dealers. Foreign orders must include postage for 1½ ounces. Please note I can only sell these stamps

WHILE THEY LAST.

So be in time, they cannot last for ever, especially as those who have purchased are sending for more packets

Communications to
"THE PHILATELIC CHRONICLE,"
Handsworth, Birmingham.

Entered at Stationers' Hall.

Vol. XV. DEC., 1906. No. 194.

Postman's Knock.

I am asked to earnestly request all correspondents to address letters to "Philatelic Chronicle, Handsworth, Birmingham." The office has been in its present location over two years, and the Post Office will not re-direct any more letters sent to the old address.

The publishers of the Philatelic Chronicle and Advertiser will send one thousand circulars to philatelists for ten shillings. To post these separately costs £2 1s. 8d., and therefore the saving effected is £1 11s. 8d.—surely a consideration. It may be argued that distributing in this manner is not so efficacious as sending separately in envelopes. This is undoubtedly correct, but when the extra expense of envelopes, labour and time is considered, it will be found that the saving is quite genuine—to say nothing of the great advantage secured by reason of the new ground covered.

Despite these advantages we really have very little distributing to do. We probably do not average much above 1,000 circulars per month taking the year through, yet there must be many dealers who cannot send out enough circulars for lack of time and from other causes, and who are not taking advantage of the simple means offered by the Chronicle.

The publishers of the Philatelic Chronicle have a quantity of Canadian stamps, 1c and 2c, mostly Queen's head, with only part gum. The face value is two dollars sixteen cents. If any of my Canadian readers can do with these they are requested to make an offer. There are also mint stamps of the United States 76 one cent, 110 two cent and a number of 3c to 15c, total face value five dollars, seventy-nine cents. Also French Colonies 2c. to 1fr., face value 7fr. 80c., including Port Said, Indo-Chine, Crete, Levant. Russia four roubles, forty-three ropells; Mexico, two peso, seventy-two cents; Holland six gulden, forty-seven cents; Dutch Colonies three gulden, fifteen cents; France ten francs; Belgium, Brazil, &c. Offers for any of these lots at a reasonable discount are requested by the publishers.

All the stamps mentioned are unused and mint except the first mentioned.

As my readers know the little island of Barbados issued a "Nelson" stamp on the centenary of Trafalgar, and depicted what was said to be the first monument erected to the hero's memory. The Century Stamp Co., of Montreal, jealous for the patriotism of the North American dominion, have issued a card depicting the Nelson monument in Montreal, erected in 1808. As the Barbados memorial was not built until 1813, the claim to be the first must be erroneous.

For the sixteenth time your old and only POSTMAN wishes you all

"A MERRY CHRISTMAS AND HAPPY NEW YEAR."

I recommend all my readers to send for Messrs. Champion & Co.'s "Bulletin Mensuel," as announced on the back cover. It costs nothing and is useful and interesting.

INCH SPACES: 8/- for 12, 4/- for 6, 2/6 for 3 insertions. Unaltered and Prepaid.

The British Empire Stamp Exchange Medium.

THIRD AND ENLARGED EDITION.—Copyright.

ON THE OTHER SIDE

WILL BE SEEN SPECIMEN PAGE of a Book "THE BRITISH EMPIRE STAMP EXCHANGE MEDIUM," 1st Edition, 1903, which contains the Names, &c., of several hundred reliable Collectors in Great Britain and Colonies only, over 200 being in British Colonies.

It included Beginners, Medium and Advanced, a large number residing in Australia, New Zealand, Canada, India, South Africa, West Indies, &c.

The second edition was a supplementary one. In the forthcoming edition it is confidently hoped that its proportions will greatly exceed the first edition which met with such success. The published price as before will be 1s. 6d. but those filling in the form below will receive their copy for 1s. post free, and no charge will be made for insertion of their name, etc.

A subscriber inducing two friends to add their names, etc., will receive three copies post free for 2s. 6d. In all cases cash must be sent in advance, payment by postal order and abroad by law value, unused stamps. Other forms will be sent on application.

The B.E.S.E.W. fills a long felt want amongst Collectors as a safe and reliable medium of exchange. To keep the List as Select as possible all intending subscribers are required to send references unless already known to me.

Your EARLY ATTENTION is requested as it is hoped that the book will be in the Printer's hands in the course of a few weeks.
