"THE PHILATELIC CHRONICLE,"

Handsworth, Birmingham.

Entered at Stationers' Hall.

Vol. XVII.—No. 7. 1909. FULL No. 209.

Postman's Knock.

The publishers of the Philatelic Chronicle and Advertiser will send one thousand circulars to philatelists for ten shillings. To post these separately costs £2 1s. 8d., and therefore the saving effected is £1 11s. 8d.—surely a consideration.

The best Philatelic Directory now before the public is the "20th Century Philatelic Directory" just issued by the B. L. Fuller Co., Washington, D.C. Fifty-six pages are devoted to up-to-date names and addresses, many from the most out-of-the-way corners of the world. The price is a 1/-, post free, from the Publishers, or the Philatelic Publishing Co., Handsworth, Birmingham. The best Directory of British names is "Nunn's Directory," price 6d., post free, from Philatelic Publishing Co.

While perfectly willing to accept unused MINT stamps as payment, the publishers do not see why larger amounts should not be remitted by Post Office Money Order. International Reply Coupons can be used to remit small amounts in payment of subscriptions or advertisements. They will be accepted at 2½d. each or five to 1/- Amounts over 1/- should be sent by Post Office Order. But if stamps are sent please choose uncommon or higher values, and surcharged or obsolete if possible.

Our next Special Issue will afford a splendid opportunity for dealers and collectors to reach thousands of philatelists in all parts of the world but especially the British Isles. There are many who consider, perhaps with good reason, that the philatelic season does not commence until New Year, and for these our BIG SPECIAL issue will be a boon.

Last Special issue proved a great attraction to advertising philatelists, and it is not our fault if their expectations are not repaid. The usual flow of congratulatory letters from all parts has already commenced. But great as was the distribution of this issue, the next one will considerably surpass, if the support accorded be satisfactory—under any circumstances it will be a specially large issue.

Of course you may leave it to the latest day before sending in, but—Don't! Delays are dangerous—and, then, you may forget.

When writing in reference to any advertisement, please quote page and column to save time—especially if it is a small advertisement.

As this issue goes to a large number of philatelists who are new to us, and to whom our paper is a stranger, I venture to request all these to give a careful examination to it, and notice the variety of ways in which cheap, and yet efficient advertising may be secured.

Mr. W. H. Peckitt, has sent me a copy of Mr. Fred. J. Melville's new book "Great Britain: line-engraved Stamps." The price of this beautiful little book of 89 pages is only 6d. nett, and every collector of English stamps should procure it.

Circulars distributed with CHRONICLE at 10/- per 1,000; 1/- per 100.

SPECIAL OFFER!

It is a well-known fact that an occasional advertisement seldom pays, and the results depend upon the number of times during which it is repeated. We make this SPECIAL OFFER (possibly for this month only), to repeat a 24 word advertisement in Wants and Offers. 12 TIMES for 2/6, or 3.25 Francs, or 65 Cents, and send The Philatelic Chronicle for 1 year.

NOTICE!

I wish to thank all customers and exchange correspondents for the pleasure of their relations with me. Other occupations make it impossible for me to continue my stamp business. I have still a quantity of stamps of all kinds which I want to sell all together, as I have no time to retail them. I will send all particulars about them to responsible parties, the price I ask for the whole lot being £120. It is a really good opportunity for a small dealer.

CHANCE IN A LIFE-TIME.

I am not a stamp man but am going to be. While I was in a country town a month ago I was lucky to get hold of a barrel of only U.S. stamps from an old man of 98 years of age. To introduce myself to the stamp dealers and collectors, I will sell one pound to a customer for 3/- or 75 cents post paid while they last. I sold half of the stamps in America and stopped, and now I am going to give a chance to my foreign collectors. The stamps are well mixed and dates way back to 1891. Address: HENRY MARTIN, 425 Main Street, Room 5, Worcester, Mass., U.S.A. 9

"THE PHILATELIC CHRONICLE,"

Handsworth, Birmingham.

Entered at Stationers' Hall.

Vol. XVII.—No. 8. 1909. FULL No. 210.

Postman's Knock.

The publishers of the Philatelic Chronicle and Advertiser will send one thousand circulars to philatelists for ten shillings. To post these separately costs £2 1s. 8d., and therefore the saving effected is £1 11s. 8d.—surely a consideration.

The best Philatelic Directory now before the public is the "20th Century Philatelic Directory" just issued by the B. L. Fuller Co., Washington, D.C. Fifty-six pages are devoted to up-to-date names and addresses, many from the most out-of-the-way corners of the world. The price is a 1/-, post free, from the Publishers, or the Philatelic Publishing Co., Handsworth, Birmingham. The best Directory of British names is "Nunn's Directory," price 6d., post free, from Philatelic Publishing Co.

While perfectly willing to accept unused MINT stamps as payment, the publishers do not see why larger amounts should not be remitted by Post Office Money Order. International Reply Coupons can be used to remit small amounts in payment of subscriptions or advertisements. They will be accepted at 2½d. each or five to 1/- Amounts over 1/- should be sent by Post Office Order. But if stamps are sent please choose uncommon or higher values, and surcharged or obsolete if possible.

Our next Special Issue will afford a splendid opportunity for dealers and collectors to reach thousands of philatelists in all parts of the world but especially the British Isles. There are many who consider, perhaps with good reason, that the philatelic season does not commence until New Year, and for these our BIG SPECIAL issue will be a boon.

Last Special issue proved a great attraction to advertising philatelists, and it is not our fault if their expectations are not repaid. The usual flow of congratulatory letters from all parts has already commenced. But great as was the distribution of this issue, the next one will considerably surpass, if the support accorded be satisfactory—under any circumstances it will be a specially large issue.

Of course you may leave it to the latest day before sending in, but—Don't! Delays are dangerous—and, then, you may forget.

When writing in reference to any advertisement, please quote page and column to save time—especially if it is a small advertisement.

As this issue goes to a large number of philatelists who are new to us, and to whom our paper is a stranger, I venture to request all these to give a careful examination to it, and notice the variety of ways in which cheap, and yet efficient advertising may be secured

Messrs. Stanley Gibbons catalogued for the year 1909 are now published, and may be obtained from the Philatelic Publishing Co. The price of Part I is 2/6, and of Part II is 2/7 post free. The two together 5/- post free.

Circulars distributed with CHRONICLE at 10/- per 1,000; 1/- per 100.

SPECIAL OFFER!

It is a well-known fact that an occasional advertisement seldom pays, and the results depend upon the number of times during which it is repeated. We make this SPECIAL OFFER (possibly for this month only), to repeat a 24 word advertisement in Wants and Offers, 12 TIMES for 2/6, or 3.25 Francs, or 65 Cents, and send The Philatelic Chronicle for 1 year.

NOTICE!

I wish to thank all customers and exchange correspondents for the pleasure of their relations with me. Other occupations make it impossible for me to continue my stamp business. I have still a quantity of stamps of all kinds which I want to sell all together, as I have no time to retail them. I will send all particulars about them to responsible parties, the price I ask for the whole lot being £120. It is a really good opportunity for a small dealer.

CHANCE IN A LIFE-TIME.

I am not a stamp man but am going to be. While I was in a country town a month ago I was lucky to get hold of a barrel of only U.S. stamps from an old man of 93 years of age. To introduce myself to the stamp dealers and collectors, I will sell one pound to a customer for 3/- or 75 cents post paid while they last. I sold half of the stamps in America and stopped, and now I am going to give a chance to my foreign collectors. The stamps are well mixed and dates way back to 1891. Address: HENRY MARTIN, 425 Main Street, Room 5, Worcester, Mass., U.S.A. 9

PERPETUAL LIFE

Or Living In The Body Forever

Greatest TRUTH the World Has Ever Known

Why Live Longer in the Jungles of Ignorance

WHY DIE? When you can just as easily LIVE and be happy and remain YOUNG. It is ABSOLUTELY POSSIBLE; the greatest Scientific Truth to Mortals.

Manhood has for ages been hypnotized to the belief that it is pretty hard to live beyond the old "three score years and ten" limit, and especially is this true of the Christian. But we make the startling announcement that if he is willing to drop that old tradition and learn the SIMPLE LAW of LIFE.

The law of change and growth provides that cells which are worn out and lost in our daily routine of work and thought, SHALL also be daily renewed or replaced and exactly in the same ratio.

This new and Wonderful Discovery has just been made by Dr. Grammer, the great German Metaphysician; and the Law of keeping up this equality of replacement of cells and tissue unlimitedly and FOREVER, has been plainly and concisely set forth in a little book. The English edition is just off the press, but will soon be translated into German, Spanish and French, and all the languages of the Earth. It is so simple that anyone can comprehend it.

If you are seeking for Truth and Perpetual Life, and with it Joy, Peace and Perpetual Happiness, send for this exceptional book. Sent on receipt of one dollar (4/- 2d) postage prepaid to any part of the world. And it is worth millions, aye, more than all the money of the earth if you follow its precepts. This is the ONLY Book of its kind, dealing with Deductions from the Sciences. The greatest book on earth today. Order a book at once and ask for terms to agents and be the first in your field. Agents wanted all over the world.

ALLEN, A2, KENNEDY, N.Y., U.S.A.

500 PARCELS OF MAIL FREE

NO TWO ALIKE, TO YOU

We will print your name and address in our large Name Directory, which goes whirling all over the United States and to all parts of the world, to Advertisers, Publishers, Dealers, Traders, Jobbers, Inventors, Scientists, Manufacturers, etc., etc., and in return you will receive, free of all cost, for years to come, Thousands of Samples, Papers, Magazines, Circulars, Works of Art, Cards, Novelties, Souvenirs, Books, Letters, Curiosities, Picture Post Cards, etc., etc. In this way you may find an article, book or paper that you have long wanted, but did not know where it could be found. Also an agency may be opened worth thousands of dollars a year.

When anything new comes up you will at once be remembered as our lists of names are world-renowned and kept by such firms with the greatest care and used by them when addressing and sending out their advertising matter, samples, etc., etc. You will be kept posted from time to time with no outlay to yourself for paper, envelopes or postage stamps.

We were the sole inventors of this medium, and established it in 1880, and today we are the only firm in existence who dares positively guarantee perfect satisfaction to each name inserted.

Other firms do not know the great method by which we so readily gain this great abundance of mail for our customers and dare not guarantee, as they cannot get the mail to back them. Do not pay attention to others who advertise to do what they cannot fulfill.

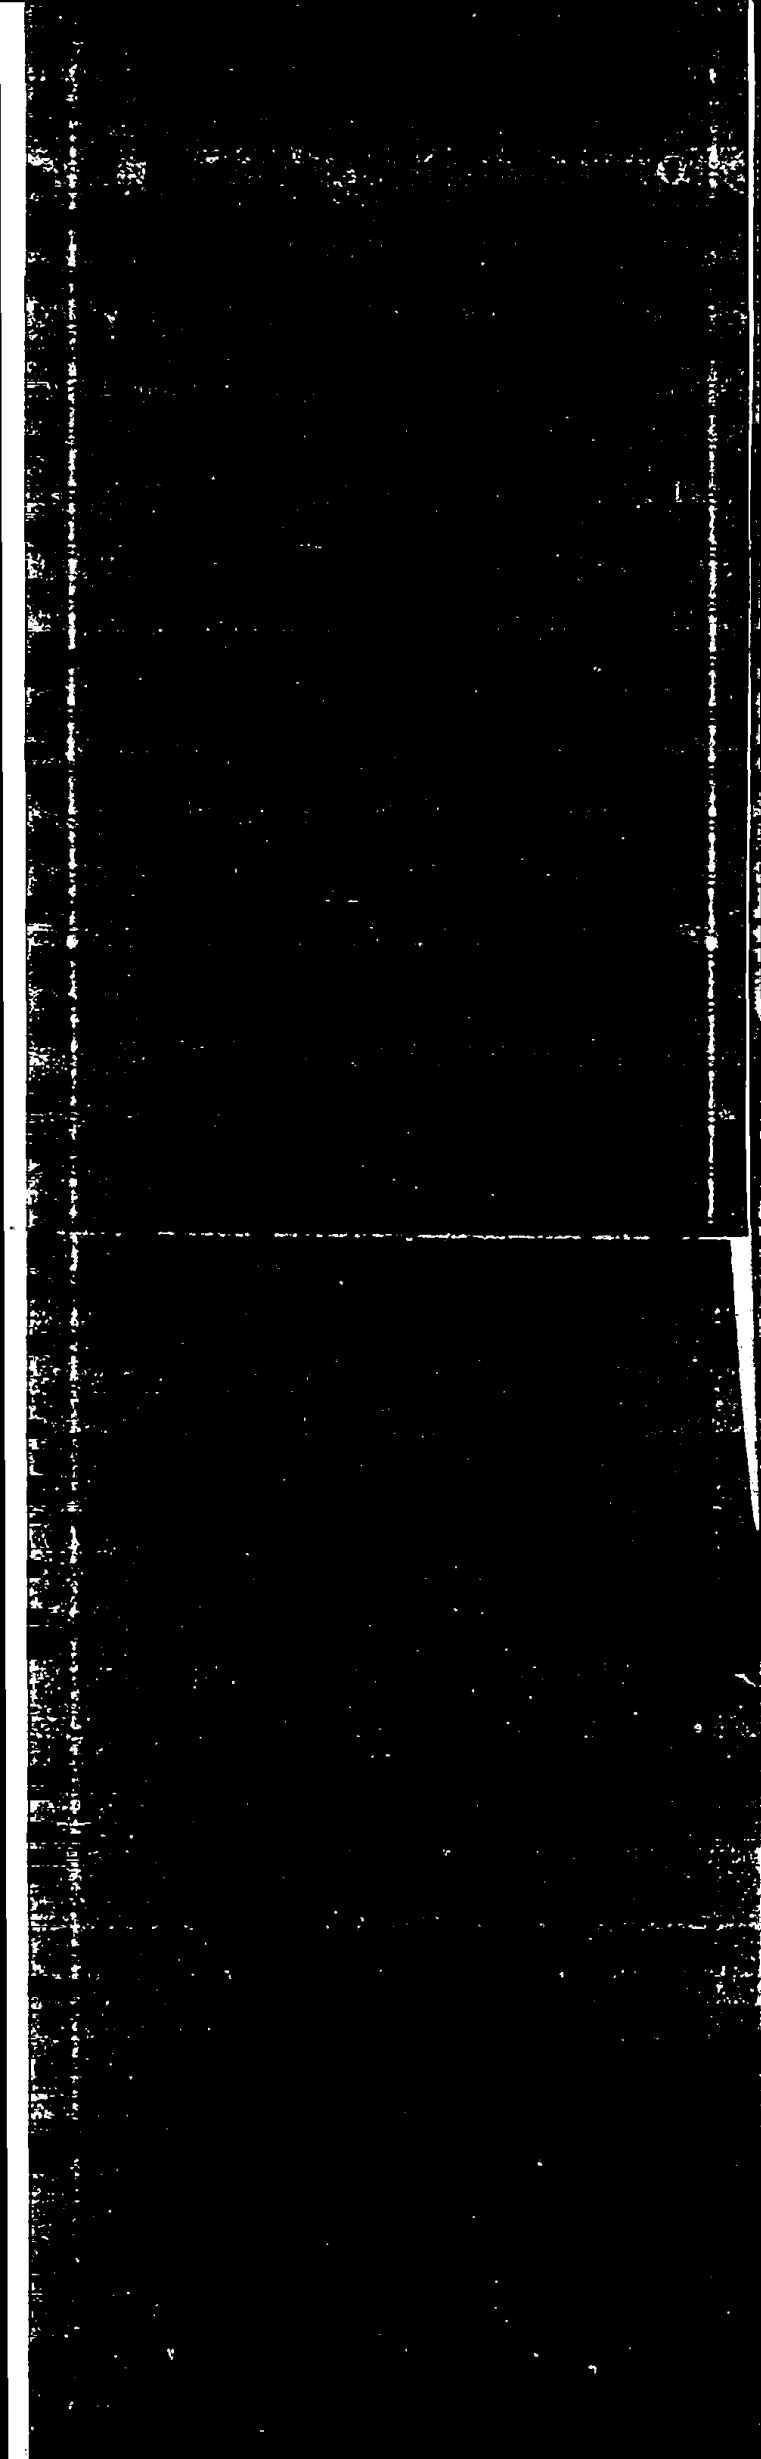

Remember, we not only insert your name in the Directory, which is in book form, but also on thousands of name lists which we send to all parts of the world.

To each and every person who will send their name and address to be inserted, we will positively guarantee them to receive lots of mail and be perfectly satisfied.

Foreign names and addresses, (those outside of the United States), especially wanted. We are anxious for a large list of addresses in Foreign Countries.

We must make a small charge of only 20c. (10d.) simply to defray expenses of printing your name in our publication, lists, etc., after which you will receive the mail FREE.

THE COLLECTORS' YEAR BOOK AND GUIDE.

EDITED BY MR. J. C. LONG.

THIS Year Book contains a heap of information useful to Collectors of Postage Stamps and others. It was first published at Xmas, 1898, and has universally been accepted in all parts of the world. It is partly printed in three languages.

The principal contents of the present edition is as follows:—The Events of the Year; Personal Paragraphs (Illustrated with Portraits of Philatelists); New Philatelic Publications (some interesting books for the student of stamps); New Issues of Postage Stamps during 1906 (a complete record with prices, Illustrated); The World's Philatelic Journals (the most complete and up-to-date list of current Philatelic Periodicals known, with particulars in three languages, over 200 listed); a valuable Reference List, revised to date, of the Philatelic Societies and Stamp Exchange Clubs of the World (nearly 200); and various other articles too lengthy to mention here.

A few advertisement pages are now set apart for Collectors wishing to

BUY, SELL, OR EXCHANGE

Stamps, View Cards, Crests, Coins, Literature, etc. There is also a Collectors' Directory attached.

The Edition for 1908 will contain an article on "The Notable Occurrences in the Collectors' World during 1906-7." The Editor cordially invites communications from all Collectors, Societies, and Publishers of Foreign and Colonial Journals. He will be glad to be notified of any special event, such as Exhibitions, Incidents, and Publications of New Journals, etc., etc., and will be very grateful to senders. All favours will be acknowledged and persons compensated according to number and length of information, providing the dates of the events are mentioned. The book will be issued early in December, but all advertisements and matter must be received by October 1st. Correspondents in far off lands are advised to post communications at once.

Communications to

"THE PHILATELIC CHRONICLE,"

Handsworth, Birmingham.

Entered at Stationers' Hall.

VOL. XVII.—No. 9. 1909. FULL No. 211.

The publishers of the Philatelic Chronicle and Advertiser will send one thousand circulars to philatelists for ten shillings. To post these separately costs £2 1s. 8d., and therefore the saving effected is £1 11s. 8d.—surely a consideration.

While perfectly willing to accept unused MINT stamps as payment, the publishers do not see why larger amounts should not be remitted by Post Office Money Order. International Reply Coupons can be used to remit small amounts in payment of subscriptions or advertisements. They will be accepted at 2½d. each or five to 1/- Amounts over 1/- should be sent by Post Office Order. But if stamps are sent please choose uncommon or higher values, and surcharged or obsolete if possible.

Our next Special Issue will afford a splendid opportunity for dealers and collectors to reach thousands of philatelists in all parts of the world but especially the British Isles.

Last Special issue proved a great attraction to advertising philatelists, and it is not our fault if their expectations are not repaid. Great as was the distribution of this issue, the next one will considerably surpass, if the support accorded be satisfactory—under any circumstances it will be a specially large issue.

When writing in reference to any advertisement, please quote page and column to save time—especially if it is a small advertisement.

As this issue goes to a large number of philatelists who are new to us, and to whom our paper is a stranger, I venture to request all these to give a careful examination to it, and notice the variety of ways in which cheap, and yet efficient advertising may be secured.

It is not right to say of an ad. that does not sell goods that it is worthless. It may not sell a pennyworth of goods, yet still serve to keep the advertiser in the minds of readers, and a later ad. will complete the conquest the first one began. So long as we understand advertising to be cumulative in its effects, the success of the first of a series of ads. is not essential.

Readers would greatly oblige by sending the Editor a small supply of any surcharged Provisional Issue. Cash and postage will be sent immediately.

Messrs. Stanley Gibbons' catalogued for the year 1909 are now published, and may be obtained from the Philatelic Publishing Co. The price of Part I is 2/6, and of Part II is 2/7 post free. The two together 5/- post free.

The best Philatelic Directory now before the public is the "20th Century Philatelic Directory" just issued by the B. L. Fuller Co., Washington, D.C. Fifty-six pages are devoted to up-to-date names and addresses, many from the most out-of-the-way corners of the world. The price is a 1/3, post free, from the Publishers, or the Philatelic Publishing Co., Handsworth, Birmingham. The best Directory of British names is "Nunn's Directory," price 7d., post free, from Philatelic Publishing Co.

SPECIAL OFFER!

It is a well-known fact that an occasional advertisement seldom pays, and the results depend upon the number of times during which it is repeated. We make this SPECIAL OFFER (possibly for this month only), to repeat a 24 word advertisement in Wants and Offers, 12 TIMES for 2/6, or 3.25 Francs, or 65 Cents, and send The Philatelic Chronicle for 1 year.

NOTICE!

I wish to thank all customers and exchange correspondents for the pleasure of their relations with me. Other occupations make it impossible for me to continue my stamp business. I have still a quantity of stamps of all kinds which I want to sell all together, as I have no time to retail them. I will send all particulars about them to responsible parties, the price I ask for the whole lot being £120. It is a really good opportunity for a small dealer.

CHANCE IN A LIFE-TIME.

I am not a stamp man but am going to be. While I was in a country town a month ago I was lucky to get hold of a barrel of only U.S. stamps from an old man of 93 years of age. To introduce myself to the stamp dealers and collectors, I will sell one pound to a customer for 8/- or 75 cents post paid while they last. I sold half of the stamps in America and stopped, and now I am going to give a chance to my foreign collectors. The stamps are well mixed and dates way back to 1891. Address: HENRY MARTIN, 426 Main Street, Room 5, Worcester, Mass., U.S.A. 9

"THE PHILATELIC CHRONICLE,"

Handsworth, Birmingham.

Entered at Stationers' Hall.

Vol. XVII.—No. 10. 1909. FULL No. 212.

The publishers of the Philatelic Chronicle and Advertiser will send one thousand circulars to philatelists for ten shillings. To post these separately costs £2 1s. 8d., and therefore the saving effected is £1 11s. 8d.—surely a consideration.

While perfectly willing to accept unused MINT stamps as payment, the publishers do not see why larger amounts should not be remitted by Post Office Money Order. International Reply Coupons can be used to remit small amounts in payment of subscriptions or advertisements. They will be accepted at 2½d. each or five to 1/- Amounts over 1/- should be sent by Post Office Order. But if stamps are sent please choose uncommon or higher values, and surcharged or obsolete if possible.

Our next Special Issue will afford a splendid opportunity for dealers and collectors to reach thousands of philatelists in all parts of the world but especially the British Isles.

Last Special issue proved a great attraction to advertising philatelists, and it is not our fault if their expectations are not repaid. Great as was the distribution of this issue, the next one will considerably surpass, if the support accorded be satisfactory—under any circumstances it will be a specially large issue.

When writing in reference to any advertisement, please quote page and column to save time—especially if it is a small advertisement.

As this issue goes to a large number of philatelists who are new to us, and to whom our paper is a stranger, I venture to request all these to give a careful examination to it, and notice the variety of ways in which cheap, and yet efficient advertising may be secured.

It is not right to say of an ad. that does not sell goods that it is worthless. It may not sell a pennyworth of goods, yet still serve to keep the advertiser in the minds of readers, and a later ad. will complete the conquest the first one began. So long as we understand advertising to be cumulative in its effects, the success of the first of a series of ads. is not essential.

Readers would greatly oblige by sending the Editor a small supply of any surcharged Provisional Issue. Cash and postage will be sent immediately.

Messrs. Stanley Gibbons' catalogues for the year 1909 are now published, and may be obtained from the Philatelic Publishing Co. The price of Part I is 2/6, and of Part II is 2/7 post free. The two together 5/- post free.

The best Philatelic Directory now before the public is the "20th Century Philatelic Directory" just issued by the B. L. Fuller Co., Washington, D.C. Fifty-six pages are devoted to up-to-date names and addresses, many from the most out-of-the-way corners of the world. The price is a 1/3, post free, from the Publishers, or the Philatelic Publishing Co., Handsworth, Birmingham. The best Directory of British names is "Nunn's Directory," price 7d., post free, from Philatelic Publishing Co.

SPECIAL OFFER!

It is a well-known fact that an occasional advertisement seldom pays, and the results depend upon the number of times during which it is repeated. We make this SPECIAL OFFER (possibly for this month only), to repeat a 24 word advertisement in Wants and Offers, 12 TIMES for 2/6, or 3.25 Francs, or 65 Cents, and send The Philatelic Chronicle for 1 year.

NOTICE!

I wish to thank all customers and exchange correspondents for the pleasure of their relations with me. Other occupations make it impossible for me to continue my stamp business. I have still a quantity of stamps of all kinds which I want to sell all together, as I have no time to retail them. I will send all particulars about them to responsible parties, the price I ask for the whole lot being £120. It is a really good opportunity for a small dealer.

Communications to

"THE PHILATELIC CHRONICLE,"

Handsworth, Birmingham.

Entered at Stationers' Hall.

Vol. XVII.—No. 11. 1909. FULL No. 218.

The publishers of the Philatelic Chronicle and Advertiser will send one thousand circulars to philatelists for ten shillings. To post these separately costs £2 1s. 8d., and therefore the saving effected is £1 11s. 8d.—surely a consideration.

While perfectly willing to accept unused MINT stamps as payment, the publishers do not see why larger amounts should not be remitted by Post Office Money Order. International Reply Coupons can be used to remit small amounts in payment of subscriptions or advertisements. They will be accepted at 2½d. each or five to 1/- Amounts over 1/- should be sent by Post Office Order. But if stamps are sent please choose uncommon or higher values, and surcharged or obsolete if possible.

When writing in reference to any advertisement, please quote page and column to save time—especially if it is a small advertisement.

As this issue goes to a large number of philatelists who are new to us, and to whom our paper is a stranger, I venture to request all these to give a careful examination to it, and notice the variety of ways in which cheap, and yet efficient advertising may be secured.

It is not right to say of an ad. that does not sell goods that it is worthless. It may not sell a pennyworth of goods, yet still serve to keep the advertiser in the minds of readers, and a later ad. will complete the conquest the first one began. So long as we understand advertising to be cumulative in its effects, the success of the first of a series of ads. is not essential.

Readers would greatly oblige by sending the Editor a small supply of any surcharged Provisional Issue. Cash and postage will be sent immediately.

Messrs. Stanley Gibbons' catalogues for the year 1909 are now published, and may be obtained from the Philatelic Publishing Co. The price of Part I is 2/6, and of Part II is 2/7 post free. The two together 5/- post free.

The best Philatelic Directory now before the public is the "20th Century Philatelic Directory" just issued by the B. L. Fuller Co., Washington, D.C. Fifty-six pages are devoted to up-to-date names and addresses, many from the most out-of-the-way corners of the world. The price is a 1/3, post free, from the Publishers, or the Philatelic Publishing Co., Handsworth, Birmingham. The best Directory of British names is "Nunn's Directory," price 7d., post free, from Philatelic Publishing Co.

In reference to the Roman States stamps, centesimi values, Messrs A. Smith & Son's Monthly Circular states that the investigations of Captain Ohrt show that Gelli & Tani's earliest reprints were perforated 13. Some authorities, however, assert that the perforated reprints never had the 13 gauge. Capt. Ohrt lays great stress upon the great rarity of these particular reprints, and, for all practical purposes, collectors may assume that their sets gauging 13 are originals. Even if they are proved to be reprints, the consolation will remain that such specimens are worth more than originals to the specialist.

Circulars distributed with CHRONICLE at 10/- per 1,000; 1/- per 100.

SPECIAL OFFER!

It is a well-known fact that an occasional advertisement seldom pays, and the results depend upon the number of times during which it is repeated. We make this SPECIAL OFFER (possibly for this month only), to repeat a 24 word advertisement in Wants and Offers, 12 TIMES for 2/6, or 3.25 Francs, or 65 Cents, and send The Philatelic Chronicle for 1 year.

NOTICE!

I wish to thank all customers and exchange correspondents for the pleasure of their relations with me. Other occupations make it impossible for me to continue my stamp business. I have still a quantity of stamps of all kinds which I want to sell all together, as I have no time to retail them. I will send all particulars about them to responsible parties, the price I ask for the whole lot being £120. It is a really good opportunity for a small dealer
