"THE PHILATELIC CHRONICLE,"

Handsworth, Birmingham.

Entered at Stationers' Hall.

Vol. XVIII.—No. 12. 1909. FULL No. 214.

When writing in reference to any advertisement, please quote page and column to save time—especially if it is a small advertisement.

As this issue goes to a large number of philatelists who are new to us, and to whom our paper is a stranger, I venture to request all these to give a careful examination to it, and notice the variety of ways in which cheap, and yet efficient advertising may be secured.

It is not right to say of an ad. that does not sell goods that it is worthless. It may not sell a pennyworth of goods, yet still serve to keep the advertiser in the minds of readers, and a later ad. will complete the conquest the first one began. So long as we understand advertising to be cumulative in its effects, the success of the first of a series of ads. is not essential.

Readers would greatly oblige by sending the Editor a small supply of any surcharged Provisional Issue. Cash and postage will be sent immediately.

Messrs. Stanley Gibbons' catalogues for the year 1910, may now be ordered from the Philatelic Publishing Co. The price of Part I is 2/6, and of Part II is 2/7 post free. The two together 5/- post free.

The best Philatelic Directory now before the public is the "20th Century Philatelic Directory" just issued by the B. L. Fuller Co., Washington, D.C. Fifty-six pages are devoted to up-to-date names and addresses, many from the most out-of-the-way corners of the world. The price is 1/3, post free, from the Publishers, or the Philatelic Publishing Co., Handsworth, Birmingham. The best Directory of British names is "Nunn's Directory," price 7d., post free, from Philatelic Publishing Co.

The publishers of the Philatelic Chronicle and Advertiser will send one thousand circulars to philatelists for ten shillings. To post these separately costs £2 1s. 8d., and therefore the saving effected is £1 11s. 8d.—surely a consideration.

While perfectly willing to accept unused MINT stamps as payment, the publishers do not see why larger amounts should not be remitted by Post Office Money Order. International Reply Coupons can be used to remit small amounts in payment of subscriptions or advertisements. They will be accepted at 2½d. each or five to 1/- Amounts over 1/- should be sent by Post Office Order. But if stamps are sent please choose uncommon or higher values, and surcharged or obsolete if possible.

Our next issue will be published in good time for Christmas. In addition to our greatly enlarged list of subscribers brought about by extensively advertising the Chronicle, we shall send the surplus copies of a large issue to the best collectors and dealers whom we know in Great Britain and on the Continent. This issue promises to be a most advantageous opportunity for advertisers of every kind. We expect a demand for advertising space which will fill our columns, and so ask that advertisements be sent early as possible in order to prevent disappointment by being held over until the succeeding issue.

Circulars distributed with CHRONICLE at 10/- per 1,000; 1/- per 100.

A very fine collection value £10,000 for sale singly.

All the rarities were expertised by the first-class experts. If you wish to complete your collection with stamps very seldom met with, send list of wants, prices very moderate. Example: Labuan 6 on 40 cts. inverted surcharge (Gibbons 72, catalogued by Kohl 450 mark), £12; United States 1869, 24 cents, inverted centre, used, £15; St. Louis 10 cents, peluse paper (Gibbons 5), used, £40; Malta 1885, imperforated pair on piece, 4 pence, £5; Montenegro, 5 krounen, blue surcharge (Kohl 450 marks), £12, &c., &c.

SPECIAL OFFER!

It is a well-known fact that an occasional advertisement seldom pays, and the results depend upon the number of times during which it is repeated. We make this SPECIAL OFFER (possibly for this month only), to repeat a 24 word advertisement in Wants and Offers, 12 TIMES for 2/6, or 3.25 Francs, or 65 Cents, and send The Philatelic Chronicle for 1 year.

NOTICE!

I wish to thank all customers and exchange correspondents for the pleasure of their relations with me. Other occupations make it impossible for me to continue my stamp business. I have still a quantity of stamps of all kinds which I want to sell all together, as I have no time to retail them. I will send all particulars about them to responsible parties, the price I ask for the whole lot being £120. It is a really good opportunity for a small dealer.
