Messrs. Stanley Gibbons Catalogues, 1911, are now ready. Orders may be sent to the Philatelic Publishing Co., Handsworth, Birmingham. The price is 2/7 each volume or 5/- for the two.

I am asked to earnestly request all correspondents to address letters to "Philatelic Chronicle, Handsworth, Birmingham." The office has been in its present location several years, and the Post Office will not re-direct any more letters sent to the old address.

The publishers of the Philatelic Chronicle and Advertiser will send one thousand circulars to philatelists for ten shillings. To post these separately costs £2 1s. 8d., and therefore the saving effected is £1 11s. 8d.—surely a consideration. It may be argued that distributing in this manner is not so efficacious as sending separately in envelopes. This is undoubtedly correct, but when the extra expense of envelopes, labour and time is considered, it will be found that the saving is quite genuine—to say nothing of the great advantage secured by reason of the new ground covered.

It is not right to say of an ad. that does not sell goods that it is worthless. It may not sell a pennyworth of goods, yet still serve to keep the advertiser in the minds of readers, and a later ad. will complete the conquest the first one began. So long as we understand advertising to be cumulative in its effects, the success of the first of a series of ads. is not essential.

Readers would greatly oblige by sending the Editor a small supply of any surcharged Provisional Issue. Cash and postage will be sent immediately.

Circulars distributed with CHRONICLE at 10/- per 1,000; 1/- per 100.

INCH SPACES:8/- for 12, 4/- for 6, 2/6 for 3 insertions.

SPECIAL OFFER!

It is a well-known fact that an occasional advertisement seldom pays, and the results depend upon the number of times during which it is repeated. We make this SPECIAL OFFER (possibly for this month only), to repeat a 24 word advertisement in Wants and Offers, 12 TIMES for 2/6, or 3.25 Francs, or 65 Cents, and send The Philatelic Chronicle for 1 year.

I wish to thank all customers and exchange correspondents for the pleasure of their relations with me. Other occupations make it impossible for me to continue my stamp business. I have still a quantity of stamps of all kinds which I want to sell all together, as I have no time to retail them. I will send all particulars about them to responsible parties, the price I ask for the whole lot being £120. It is a really good opportunity for a small dealer.

IF you are a collector of stamps, postcards, or anything, you know that the best way to enlarge your collection is to seek RELIABLE correspondents abroad, for exchange purposes. The UP-TO-DATE way is to join a large foreign correspondence club, one that is thoroughly reliable.

The UNIVERSAL CORRESPONDENCE CLUB admirably "fills the bill," giving quantity with QUALITY, and NOT charging a quality fee. ONE SHILLING (money order) pays your dues and entrance fees for one year, and you obtain full benefits without extra cost. YOU ARE ASSURED of getting your money's worth, as the club is managed by a board of well-known Toronto collectors, as a PASTIME, not for profit. Send along your shilling and become a member before our fees are advanced to Two Shillings on August 1, 1910. (Dealers double ordinary fees) Give REFERENCE, your hobbies and languages you can use when writing. If you want further proof send for Prospectus and application blanks gratis, to the SECRETARY, C. W. CRUICKSHANK, 331, Wilton Avenue, Toronto, Canada, or to any of our branch offices throughout the world. FIRST-CLASS References anywhere, business, banking, or prominent collectors.

NOTE.—Members receive gratis during their term of membership, a subscription to the UNIVERSAL COLLECTOR, the quality Collector's Journal. 19

Messrs. Stanley Gibbons Catalogues, 1911, are now ready. Orders may be sent to the Philatelic Publishing Co., Handsworth, Birmingham. The price is 2/7 each volume or 5/- for the two.

I am asked to earnestly request all correspondents to address letters to "Philatelic Chronicle, Handsworth, Birmingham." The office has been in its present location several years, and the Post Office will not re-direct any more letters sent to the old address.

The publishers of the Philatelic Chronicle and Advertiser will send one thousand circulars to philatelists for ten shillings. To post these separately costs £2 15 3d., and therefore the saving effected is £1 11s. 8d.—surely a consideration. It may be argued that distributing in this manner is not so efficacious as sending separately in envelopes. This is undoubtedly correct, but when the extra expense of envelopes, labour and time is considered, it will be found that the saving is quite genuine—to say nothing of the great advantage secured by reason of the new ground covered.

It is not right to say of an ad. that does not sell goods that it is worthless. It may not sell a pennyworth of goods, yet still serve to keep the advertiser in the minds of readers, and a later ad. will complete the conquest the first one began. So long as we understand advertising to be cumulative in its effects, the success of the first of a series of ads. is not essential.

Readers would greatly oblige by sending the Editor a small supply of any surcharged Provisional Issue. Cash and postage will be sent immediately.

Circulars distributed with CHRONICLE at 10/- per 1,000; 1/- per 100.

SPECIAL OFFER!

It is a well-known fact that an occasional advertisement seldom pays, and the results depend upon the number of times during which it is repeated. We make this SPECIAL OFFER (possibly for this month only), to repeat a 24 word advertisement in Wants and Offers, 12 TIMES for 2/6, or 3.25 Francs, or 65 Cents, and send The Philatelic Chronicle for 1 year.

NOTICE!

I wish to thank all customers and exchange correspondents for the pleasure of their relations with me. Other occupations make it impossible for me to continue my stamp business. I have still a quantity of stamps of all kinds which I want to sell all together, as I have no time to retail them. I will send all particulars about them to responsible parties, the price I ask for the whole lot being £120. It is a really good opportunity for a small dealer.
