PHILATELIC CORNER,

F. S. GOLDSBURY,

The Badger State Philatelist, of Delavan, Wis., for April was a very fine number. The Badger's adv. columns are in a flourishing condition, many big bargains appear in every issue. Bro Carter, is only 18 years old, but he gets there just the same. Come again "Badger" you are always welcome.

Mr W. S. McLeans' Stamp Collectors Directory is rather backward in appearing, is it not?

The Curiosity Collector, of So. Amboy, N. J., for May was fine. Bro Bartlett, intends to enlarge with the June number, a good idea Bartlett.

Some of the stirring young philatelists of Portsmouth, N. H., have formed a Philatelic Society. The officers elected, are Fred H. Grey, Pres; G.D

THE STANDARD,

Anthony, vice Pres.; Geo. H. Young, Treas.; C. W. Green, Sec'y, and Librarian; J. L. Pender, Auctioneer. Any one desiring information concerning the above will please address the secretary.

One Dime, for April although a little late, is as breezy as ever. Success Bro Peugh.

The Eastern Press, for April was a dandy. Bro Speck intends to enlarge and add several new departments soon

Do it by all means Will, and may success attend you and your bright little sheet.

Mr Chas. E. Brown, of Buffalo, N. Y., is stopping this month at Portage Creek, Pa., all mail should be addressed to that place.

The Golden Hour Phil. association, of Pottsville, Pa., is it having suspended by mutual consent. "The boys are now going to organize a Literary Society.

The Philatelic Gazette, for May, is very interesting, matters concerning the A. P. A nearly fill its pages this mo.

Where is "The Collectors Ledger" "The Stamp and the Figaro" for April? please send a copy to F.S.Goldsbury Box 4, Barre, Vt.
