

[REGISTERED FOR TRANSMISSION ABROAD.]

257

The Boy's Telegram;

A JOURNAL

DEVOTED TO THE

INSTRUCTION AND AMUSEMENT OF YOUTH

IN ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD.

MONTHLY.]

SEPTEMBER 15, 1866.

[ONE HALFPENNY.]

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS.

It is with no little anxiety about its success that we venture to lay before you the first number of the BOY'S TELEGRAM. We must, at the same time, let you know our intentions with regard to the future numbers, and endeavour to cultivate a feeling of confidence between our Readers and ourselves.

In the first place, we offer a Tale of School Life; and, secondly, we use our best endeavours to fill up the remaining space with matter calculated to amuse the majority of the Boys of the nineteenth century. We hope our subscribers will not hesitate to give us their opinions, and a hint as to their likings, and we will always obey them. If our first Subscribers will kindly recommend the "Telegram" to their friends, perhaps we shall so extend our circulation as to be enabled to enlarge the Magazine to twenty pages without any addition in the price.

THE NEW BOY.

CHAPTER I.

THE Bells rang merrily as Alfred Martin trudged along one sultry evening to take up his abode at Clayham School. Not that the bells rang so merrily because he trudged along, but it happened to be practising night at the church, and the ringers were doing their best.

Various were the surmises amongst the old scholars as to what sort of a fellow the new boy would turn out, and when Martin rang the loud bell at the formidable entrance of the Academy they all rushed to the window of the schoolroom to take a peep at their new comrade. They saw a boy of about seventeen years of age, tall and well made, with a merry face ornamented by a pair of laughing eyes; and when the master entered with our hero, and bade them welcome their schoolfellow, they proceeded to see what he was made of.

"Can you play at cricket? Are you a dab at Latin? Do you know French?" were the questions rapidly poured out by the boys in their soundings of Alfred. He said he could do a little of each; and they commenced initiating him into the mysteries of Clayham School life. On the morrow they were going to have a jolly match at cricket with the Clarendon boys, who had beaten them in the first match, and it was the return match they were to dispute to-morrow on the Clarendon school-ground. They had only two good bowlers, Cooper and Allen; and Mr. Starey, the master of Clayham school, had said that because so much noise had been made in school hours to-day, only the eleven and a scorer, with a master for umpire, should go to-morrow. They had several good batsmen, and the eleven was to be—Allen, Cooper, Stewart, Wood, Carey, Brown, Wilson, Cunningham, Beach, Stracey, and Glair, whilst the scorer had not yet been chosen by Mr. Starey.

The boys, by their description of the former game, so filled Alfred's mind with anxiety for the result of the morrow's match, that he expressed much sorrow that he had not come to the school earlier, in order to participate in the jollities of the return match with the Clarendon boys; and he went to bed, and dreamt of leg-hits, off-cuts, and on-drives, and wickets falling under the prowess of his bowling. Wednesday came at length, notwithstanding the opinion expressed by the players in bed on the preceding night that it never would come; and the summons of the first bell was responded to with an alacrity rather unusual in the dormitories of Clayham school. No umpire had yet appeared, and each of the masters seemed rather anxious to be the chosen one; but when Mr. Starey at length appeared, and nominated Alfred Martin the scorer and the second master the umpire, loud were the cries of disappointment amongst the unsuccessful candidates. Of course Alfred was nearly overwhelmed with joy, and at once began looking up some blotting paper and the usual requisites of a score.

At nine o'clock punctually an omnibus was at the door, and, with a crack of the whip, the horses started and were soon making their way towards the cricket ground of the Clarendon school. Passing along the road, in great glee at their holiday, the boys (who were all on the top of the 'bus) caught at the sweeping branches of the oak trees overhanging the road, and plucked the leaves and acorns to adorn their hats. Unfortunately, Cooper had tried several times without success, and being unmercifully chaffed by his friends, he made a "grab" at a splendid bunch of acorns hanging rather high, and over-reaching himself, fell from the top of the omnibus to the ground. Immediately the horses were stopped, and the master (the only one inside the omnibus) got out, and rushed to pick up the unlucky boy; but he found Cooper on his feet and unhurt, except his right hand, which was very much cut and bruised, owing to its having fallen on a large flint stone. The boys collected round, and, seeing Cooper's hand streaming with blood, suggested that they should return at once to Clayham, and get a doctor to attend to it.

But Cooper would not hear of it, and bravely said, that a little water to wash his hand would soon show them that he was not so much hurt as they thought for. Some water was quickly brought, but it was found that the stone had inflicted a severe cut in the palm of the hand, and it was evident that if they proceeded, Cooper would be unable to partake in the game.

"But," suggested that worthy, "why can't Martin play instead of me, and I dare say I shall manage to score."

Some of the boys at first did not see it, but there was no help, and they once more resumed their seats, and in a short time arrived at the Clarendon school-ground. Their adversaries were busy practising, but on the bell being rung, the ground was cleared and the match began. The Clayham captain won the toss, and Allen and Wilson appeared at the wickets to the bowling of the Clarendon Dot and Baron. The bowling was good, and in a short time the score stood:—

Allen b. Dot . . . 6	Glair b. Baron . . . 1
Brown c. Baron b. Dot 8	Cunningham b. Dot. . 0
Beech b. Baron . . . 0	Martin (not out) . . 2

How our hero saved the match, you will see in the next chapter.

(To be continued.)

AN EPISODE OF FRENCH HISTORY.

IT was the year 1793.

The dews of evening were fast falling upon the crowded thoroughfares of the city of Paris.

Along the Rue des Cordeliers ran a young and lovely girl. She was simply, even plainly dressed. Casting furtive glances around her, she sped on her way, and at last halted before the gate of a porter's lodge. Unclasping the padlock, she swung the gate open, and passed through with swift and noiseless footsteps.

* * * *

In a house in the Rue des Cordeliers, a man with a soiled handkerchief bound lightly round his forehead, lies in a bath, over which is spread a coarse covering of linen. A board, likewise placed transversely, supports some parchments, which the man, whose countenance is of a hideous cast, seems correcting with a pen. Hark ! there is a knock at the door !

“Come in !”

The young girl of whom we have just spoken enters. She gazes upon the man as if horror struck, and states her errand.

The man lays down his pen, and listens attentively.

“I am here to give information respecting the Girondists,” says the girl. “I have just left Caen, and know something of their proceedings there.”

“Good,” cries the man, in whom we recognize Marat the famous French revolutionist, “give me their names—the names of the dastardly conspirators.”

The girl complies. Marat rapidly inscribes the names on a piece of parchment : he finishes.

“They shall die before the week is out.”

The girl starts back in horror. She puts her hand beneath the handkerchief which covers her bosom, and draws from thence a knife. Another moment, and she plunges it into Marat's heart. He gives one loud expiring cry, and sinks back dead into the bath.

* * * *

A crowd gathers in the apartment whither the young girl has fled. It learns with stupor that Marat, the Friend of the People, has been murdered. Deeper still their wonder when they gaze upon Charlotte Corday, the fair murderess. She stands there before them in dishevelled garments: her hair hangs in shreds down her back, the broad green ribbon which bound it still clinging there. How beautiful, how serenely lovely, does she appear!

* * * *

It is the fourth day from the murder of Marat.

A heavy storm breaks over the city, as a car leaves the Conciergerie for the Place de la Revolution. An immense crowd lines the street, and from its midst rise loud hootings and execrations, as the occupant of the car is beheld. But soon the cries are changed to those of admiration, surprise, and pity, when the exquisite loveliness of her countenance and the beauty of her figure become more fully revealed.

She stands now near the guillotine. As she beholds it, a slight pallor overspreads her visage; but it quickly disappears. The executioner removes the handkerchief that covers her neck and shoulders, and a slight blush suffuses her face.

The culprit kneels to the block; the executioner touches a spring, and the axe falls. The lifeless head rolls down upon the scaffold, and a man advances, raises it, and strikes it on either cheek. A loud murmur rises from the crowd in strong disapprobation, as many think they behold upon the features of Charlotte Corday an angry and a crimson flush.

* * * *

W. D. A.

ON STAMPS AND STAMP COLLECTING,

By THE EDITOR.

CHAPTER I.

NOVELTIES.

AS all Stamp Collectors are pleased to hear of any new introductions into the timbrophilic world, we are pleased to have the chance of pointing out a few fresh things.

VICTORIA.—A new Stamp has been issued here, value tenpence, of a green colour. One penny green is altered.

HOLSTEIN—Adds another Stamp to its collection, of the following description:— $1\frac{1}{4}$ schilling; inscription, HERZOGTH-HOLSTEIN printed in deep violet, with a coloured inscription.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.—A Stamp, value threepence rect., enclosing an oval garter, containing the words BRITISH COLUMBIA POSTAGE THREEPENCE. In this garter is a large ornamental "V," with a crown above it. Neither crown nor V invade the garter, as some magazines have stated.

UNITED STATES.—The colours of the following Stamps are changed:—12 cents. envelope to a dark brown; 24 cents. to a dull blue; 40 cents. to a rose colour. A new Stamp of the following description has appeared in this country:—15 cents. rect., black impression on white paper. The late President Lincoln's portrait (a very good one) forms the centre, in an oval frame above are the words U. S. POSTAGE, and FIFTEEN CENTS. below. The Figure 15 is placed in each corner.

NEW ZEALAND.—The 4d. rose is now changed to yellow.

URUGUAY.—A new set of Stamps have appeared. Full description will be given in our next.

GREAT BRITAIN.—We believe it is not generally known that the 9d. stamp, with large letters at angles, is no longer circulated.

DUTCH GUANA.—We hear that Stamps will soon make their appearance here.

HAMBURGH.—2½ schilling, dark yellow, is changed to light green.

SANDWICH ISLANDS.—A new 13 cent. has appeared.

NORWAY.—3 skilling, mauve, same design as present issue.

BELGIUM.—This country has issued an entire Set of Stamps of a very different impression from the old ones. They are pretty stamps of a light neutral colour on white paper. Impression of the one centime is a lion with ornamental border.

FINLAND.—Two local stamps have made their appearance here for the towns of Helsingfors and Tammerfors. Full description in our next.

SANDWICH ISLANDS.—A new stamp, the production of the American Bank Note Company, value 5 cents., has just appeared. It bears in the centre a portrait of King Kamehama V. in military costume, printed in blue on white paper.

PERSIA.—We understand that a set of Stamps for this place have just appeared.

SAXONY.—A set of local Stamps has just appeared.

DENMARK.—A too-late local Stamp has just appeared.

* * * We shall always be glad if our Correspondents will favour us with notices of new Stamps which do not appear in our List.

Our Sphinx.

No. 1.

THE Initials read downwards, and the Finals read upwards, give the name of a European Country and its Capital.

1. A range of mountains in Scotland.
2. A town in France.
3. A river in Prussia.
4. A Scottish city.
5. A town in India.
6. An Italian island.

No. 2.—Square Words.

- | 1. | 2. | 3. |
|-------------------|---------------------|----------------------|
| 1. A snare. | 1. A waggon. | 1. A fruit (plural). |
| 2. Violent anger. | 2. Likewise. | 2. One. |
| 3. A disease. | 3. An island. | 3. An age. |
| 4. A noble. | 4. A minister. | 4. A movement. |
| | 4. | |
| | 1. Captivity. | |
| | 2. Above. | |
| | 3. A Roman Emperor. | |
| | 4. To fall. | |

No. 3.

CRYPTOGRAPH.

Ree 'Hlâe Reawhhww' lehareer ha X ruze, rww rehha.

No. 4.

NUMBERED CHARADE.

I am a word of 14 letters.

My 3, 14, 13, 4, 2, 3 was one of our country's bravest defenders.

My 8, 9, 3 is a metal.

My 7, 6, 12, 11, 13, 14, 2, 3 was an ambitious Frenchman.

My 12, 9, 10, 5, is a measure.

My 3, 6, 10, 8, 14, 4, is a town in France.

My 13, 14, 6, 12, is a jump.

And my whole is a large European city.

No. 5.

Why is Snowdon like spermaceti?
When does a hat go to sleep?

The Subscribers who send correct solutions to the above questions will each receive a Prize value Two Shillings and Sixpence.

Varieties.

THE ATLANTIC CABLE.—We must congratulate our Stamp-collecting Subscribers on the facility they will now enjoy of communicating with their Cousin Collectors in America. Before long we hope to be able to afford the cost of a Telegram to our New York Subscribers. To effect that our Magazine must increase its circulation to Half a Million Copies per Month.

A PROOF before LETTERS. — A Postage Stamp. Treason Extraordinary! Why do you commit high treason every time you affix a postage stamp to a letter?—Because you behead Her Majesty. You lick her, and, by gum! you stick her!

AN agreeable Fee—Coffee.

A Plea for old Cheese—Mite is Right.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.

THE BOY'S TELEGRAM is published on the 15th of every Month, Price One Halfpenny. Two Copies Free, by Post, for 2 Stamps. Advertisements are received within Ten Days of Publication. Terms—See Page 16.

A. T. B., Kent.—The Stamp you sent for our inspection is a forgery.
G. H., Boston, Mass., U.S.—We replied via Cork.

T. WOOD.—If you wish to be our Agent, we will, on receipt of an order, with cash or a responsible reference, forward you the Thousand Copies you require.

FRANK GRAY.—The Stamp you enclosed is a forgery.

W. S.—The striker is out. The umpire's decision is final.

A. THURNE.—Take more exercise, and give up the use of tobacco.

R. STRANGE, Oxford Street.—We can always get you any Book you require, and send it post-free for the published price.

G. W.—You must write on one side of the paper only, or we cannot undertake to peruse your contributions.

F. D.—It is discontinued, and we hope that you will get a good many subscribers to the "Boy's Telegram."

A. F.—The commission for Agents is 25 per cent. Send us your card and order.

AUTHOR, New York.—We understand that Mr. S. O. Beeton has given up the publishing, consequently the Magazines you refer to are defunct. We hope shortly to enlarge ours, and take their place.

Advertisements.

AGENCY.—The Publishers will be happy to procure, at the lowest Prices, Fowls, Rabbits, &c. &c., Electrical and Conjuring Apparatuses, &c. &c., and will always do their best to procure any Orders that they may be favored with.

BALLOONS! Balloons! Balloons! 2ft. 6in. high, sent post-free for 10 Stamps; ditto, 5ft., 16 stamps. Other stamps in proportion. Apply to D. Ponting jun., Thame, Oxon.

FOR SALE a Swimming Belt (Macintosh's Patent) nearly new. Cost 10s. 6d., Price 6s. 6d. Address (with Stamp), H. Harding, 74, York Place, Barnsbury, London, N.

COINS! Silver Pennies of the Edwards' and Henrys' Ninepence each. Shillings of Geo. I., II., and III., 1s. 2d. each. Bank Tokens (1s. 6d.) of Geo. III. to be sold for 1s. 9d. Queen Anne's Sixpences, 8d. each. Sixpences of Geo. I., II., III., and William III. 8d. each. Charles II. and James II. Threepenny Pieces, 6d. each. Charles II. and James II. Fourpenny Pieces, 9d. each. Many others at equally low prices. Send 2 Stamps for List to the Publishers.

COINS of all Kinds Bought. Stamps given in Exchange.

PPRICE 6d. The correct method for taking Photographs (without camera) for 6d. per dozen. Also, Given away for 6d., 1 chance in the Prize Distribution on Thursday, Sept. 6th, comprising Watch and Chain, Locket, Hoops, Pins, Photographic Camera, Page's Cricket Bat, Chemical Chest, Gun, Foreign Stamps. Five Chances 2s., Twelve Chances 4s. 6d. Address, W. Smith, 89, Hillgate, Stockport. Agents wanted. Apply early.

BIRDS' EGGS. Nightingale, 4d.; Kestrel Carrion Crow, 4d.; Cuckoo, 10d.; Snipe, 4d. Send 2 Stamps for List. Address, C. Austin, Bodicote, Banbury.

THE ANIMATED FANCY REPOSITORY, Ipswich. D. P. Gooding, Proprietor. Mr. R. Woods has been appointed Sole Agent for the Midland and Northern Counties for the above Business. In applying for priced Lists (for which a stamped directed envelope is required), address to R. Woods, Clipstone Park, Mansfield, Notts. Further changes will be announced in next Number.

FOR SALE a Box of Magnetic Apparatus and a Conjurer's Cabinet of Polished Mahogany, containing 15 capital conjuring Tricks, with full directions. Also, in splendid condition, vols. I. and II. of Boys' Friend (unbound). For Particulars, Price, &c., apply to J. R. C., 18, Patrick Street, Greenock.

WHITE MICE sent to any part of the Kingdom at 4d. each. Address, H. M., 3, Maryport Street, Devizes, Wilts.

THE AQUAFLUCT, for keeping up the head while learning to swim, will be forwarded, with directions for use, on receipt of 9 Stamps, by the Inventor, J. Barlow, Swimming Apparatus Maker, Denbigh.

COLLECTORS OF FOREIGN STAMPS supplied with small or large quantities cheap, warranted genuine. J. REMMINGTON, 7, Brown's Buildings, London, E.C.

STAMPS! STAMPS! STAMPS! Look! 20 different varieties of Foreign and Colonial Postage STAMPS sent Post-free to any Part of the United Kingdom on receipt of TWO Stamps, including Austrian, Bavarian, German, Hong-Kong, Italian, Prussian, Saxon, Swiss, &c. by CATTELL and TAYLOR, 7, Hermes Street, Pentonville, London, N. N.B.—All Stamps warranted genuine.

BOYS, look out for Fireworks! List of Prices ready shortly. Post-free, for One Stamp, of the Publisher of this Magazine.

COPPER COINS. A Job Lot on hand for Sale cheap, at the Office of this Magazine.

CALIFORNIA! Dear W. F. and J. C. H. Please communicate with me at once. Let me know how you get on. I am very anxious to know. Send a good Budget. Yours, &c., J. H. H.
Address, Care of the Publishers, at the Office of this Magazine.

COLLECTORS for Good and Cheap Stamps. See the undersigned's Cards of Stamps at his Agents, as under, viz. :—Mr. Smith, Fish Street Hill, City; Mrs. Roberts, 10, Upper Dorset Place, Clapham Road, opposite Kennington Church; Mrs. Lamb's, 34, Camberwell Road; Mrs. Dalche's, 254, Walworth Road; Mr. ———, Confectioner, corner of Short Street, Newington Butts; and of—

Mr. LORENZO A. STAUNTON,

51, Richmond Terrace, Clapham Road, S.

AGENTS wanted everywhere. Liberal Commission.

CASSELL'S Publications. A Large Stock of Back Numbers on hand at the Office of this Magazine.

CRICKETING SUITS for BOYS, 21s. Trousers, Shirt, Cap, and Belt.

SAMUEL BROTHERS, 50, Ludgate Hill.

The Grand Postage Stamp Drawing, ON THE ART UNION PRINCIPLE.

The above Drawing took place on Saturday, June 30th, in the presence of a great many of the Check-holders, all of whom expressed their entire satisfaction of the proceedings. The following are the successful Numbers:—

Prize.	No.	Prize.	No.	Prize.	No.
1st	515	11th	1204	21st	976
2nd	844	12th	2411	22nd	497
3rd	2264	13th	1137	23rd	488
4th	1737	14th	839	24th	907
5th	3031	15th	1453	25th	3126
6th	303	16th	1734	26th	3159
7th	432	17th	2848	27th	874
8th	2195	18th	1321	28th	2645
9th	2425	19th	1039	29th	1970
10th	518	20th	602	30th	910

Holders of the above Checks will please send them in, when the Prizes will be immediately forwarded. The proprietors, in returning their sincere thanks to the Check-holders, beg respectfully to solicit their future favors, which they will always, to the best of their ability, endeavour to merit. They beg to invite the attention of Collectors to the undermentioned low prices of Stamps they have in Stock (unused):—British Honduras—set of 3, 3/- 1d. 2d. each. Egypt—set of 5, 1/6- 5, Paras—1d. each, 10, 2d. and each. Moldo Wallachia, Head of Prince—set of 3, 8d. 2 Paras 1d., 5 Paras 2d. each, &c. &c. An immense Stock of unused and used at proportionate rates.—TRADE SUPPLIED.

AN ILLUSTRATED DESCRIPTIVE PRICE CATALOGUE WILL SHORTLY BE ISSUED, AND SENT POST-FREE FOR THREE STAMPS.

SELECTIONS FORWARDED FOR APPROVAL.

All Stamps sold by us are warranted genuine. No forgeries or facsimiles of any description kept in stock whatever. They also respectfully direct attention to their packets of Stamps, they strongly recommend them for cheapness. Stamps if bought singly, come to more than double the amount. They contain all the new issues, adhesive and envelopes, and old rare stamps, all genuine, in good condition, and perfect; made up at prices varying from 1d. to £1. TRADE SUPPLIED.

The attention of Booksellers is called to the more expensive of these packets, as they contain a choice assortment of Saleable stamps.

PRICE LIST FORWARDED FREE—ONE STAMP.

Agents for all Stamp Albums, Magazines, &c. General Printers, Publishers, Booksellers, Stationers, News Agents, Bookbinders, &c. All communications requiring reply to contain Stamp. Orders solicited and promptly executed. All orders above 1s. carriage free.

CRICKETING OUTFITTERS.—JOHN WISDEN and Co. beg to inform noblemen, gentlemen, regiments, colleges, and schools, that they have on hand an extensive STOCK of all kinds of CRICKETING MATERIALS. Every Article warranted, and those not approved of exchanged. Also, foot-balls, dumb-bells, clubs, boxing-gloves, rackets, racket-balls, foils, skittles, marquees, tents, nets, cricketing bags, boxes, and every article used for British sport. Nicholson's Compound Cricket Balls. A large stock of Bluck's superior rackets.—Address JOHN WISDEN and Co., 2, New Coventry Street, Leicester Square, London, W., where models of the Patent Catapulta can be seen and worked. Illustrated Catalogues of Prices post-free. Export orders with immediate despatch. Post-office Orders payable at Charing Cross.

THE CRICKETER'S ALMANACK, 1866. Post-free, 13 Stamps. Also, a few of 1864 and 1865 on hand.

Stamp Dealers and Publishers are requested to send their Price Lists, Magazines, &c., when they will receive the BOYS' TELEGRAM.

SCALE of ADVERTISEMENT CHARGES.

Advertisements must be sent in before the 5th of the Month.

	£	s.	d.
Four lines, or thirty-six words.....	0	1	0
Above four lines 3d. per nine words.
A page	1	0	0
Half-page	0	10	0
Quarter-page	0	5	0

Yearly Subscription.—Post-free 1s. 6d. From Austria, Prussia, Germany, Switzerland, Italy, and California is 2s. 6d. To every British Colony or Possession it is sent Post-free, same as England, 1s. 6d. Subscriptions may be remitted in Unused Postage Stamps of small values from any Part of the World.

Printed and published by FROUD and MUSGRAVE, 74, Great Saffron Hill, London, E.C., to whom all communications are to be addressed.