VOL. I.

GARRETTSVILLE, O., JUNE, 1892.

NO. 1

Announcement.

In presenting the initial number of the OHIO STAMP NEWS we make no pretense of entering the field of Philatelic Journalism. It is not our intention to cope with the many philatelic papers already before the public. The NEWS will be published monthly in the interest of our stamp business and our customers and will be mailed free to stamp purchasers all over the country.

At the same time we shall endeavor to furnish enough news and items of interest to make it a welcome visitor to all interested in philately.

We have received the following philatelic papers for May:

PENNSYLVANIA PHILATELIST, DETROIT PHILATELIST, EAGLE PHILATELIST, PHILATELIC TRIBUNE and PHILATELIC JOURNAL OF AMERICA.

We clip the following from MEKEEL'S WEEKLY STAMP NEWS:

At a recent sale of the Bogert & Durbin Co. a Banton Rouge, 5c on the original envelope, brought $16.50; a New York, 5c, with white line at bottom, brought $8.00; the 1868, 3c grilled all over, went for $8.50, and an unused, 90c Justice, $7.75.

Collectors should take particular notice of the fine line of Packets advertised on the 3d. page. We are overstocked with these packets and are offering some decided bargains, which you should not fail to take advantage of.

We are in receipt of Catalogues for Albrecht & Witt's Third and Fourth Auction Sales to be held at 25 Ann St., N. Y. on June 7th. and 16th. respectively. The third sale consists of a fine collection of U. S. & Foreign Stamps from the collection of SR. ENRIQUEZ MARTINEZ of Mexico, and is very complete in Mexican stamps.

We would be pleased to exchange one or two copies with all papers devoted to collecting.

Any of our readers in possession of any news or information pertaining to Philately will confer a favor by reporting the same for publication and due credit will be given.

NOTICE!

We will pay cash or give good exchange for all kinds of U. S. Postage and Revenue Stamps. Send for Exchange List, free.

HARRY ROTHMILLER, 1258 Lexington Ave., N. Y. $1.25.

CHAS. B. MARSHALL, 6605 Yale St., Englewood, Ill. 75 cents.

The Philatelic Journal of America for May contains a valuable paper by Jno. K. Tiffany, on Die Differences of the Reay and Plimpton Issues of U. S. Stamps.

This is something that a great many collectors do not understand and those that do not should read the article referred to above.

We notice in a recent number of the DETROIT PHILATELIST an article in regard to a Dealer's Mutual Protective Association. This is a subject that should receive the attention of every Dealer. Something must be done to stop the frauds that are becoming so numerous and an association of this kind will go far in accomplishing the desired result.

Send for a selection of stamps on approval.

VOL. I.

GARRETTSVILLE, O., SEPTEMBER, 1892.

NO. 2.

For various reasons it was not convenient for us to issue the NEWS for July and August. It is our intention, however, to appear regularly hereafter.

A MODEL PHILATELIC MAGAZINE.

THE PHILATELIC JOURNAL OF AMERICA is, in our opinion, the best philatelic paper published. The September number is before us, and, for a thoroughly first-class magazine, both as to contents and appearance, it is without an equal. It contains 48 pages and cover, printed on fine book paper in a high style of typographical art. Among its interesting contents are:

"Notes About Little Known Stamps"
Pres. Tiffany's Address at the A. P. A. Convention, "Spanish Counterfeits," "Something About the Triangular Stamps of the Cape of Good Hope" Chronicle, &c.

Published by, C. H. Mekeel Stamp & Pub. Co., St. Louis, Mo. $1 per year.

NOTICE!

We will pay cash or give good exchange for all kinds of U. S. Postage and Revenue Stamps. Send for Exchange List, free.

Collectors should take particular notice of the fine line of Packets advertised on another page. We are overstocked with these packets and are offering some decided bargains, which you should not fail to take advantage of.

There are over 50,000,000,000 pieces of mail posted annually in the world, of which nearly 3,000,000,000 pass through the post-offices of the U. S.

We make a specialty of fine stamps on Approval and would be pleased to send a selection to any collector. References or deposit required from parties unknown to us.

A gentleman stepped into the post office at Crede, Colo., purchased a two cent stamp and asked: "Say, does I put der stamp on meself?" Post Clerk: "On yourself? No, on the letter, you booby!"

We shall be glad to exchange either one or two copies with any paper devoted to collecting.

POSTAL FACTS.

In the Chicago post-office 100,000 letters are sorted, stamped and bagged in thirty-five minutes by 217 men.

About forty tons of paper, in the shape of letters alone, pass daily through the London general post-office.

The system of Postal Savings Banks was introduced in France in 1882. During 1890 the 6,817 branch postal banks received 1,949,371 separate deposits representing the sum of $50,465 832.47 which is a far larger sum than was handled during the previous year.

It is now proposed to have a pneumatic tube from the central post-office in Chicago to the office on the world's fair grounds. It will be one foot in diameter and will carry packages up to fifty pounds between the two points in ninety seconds.—Ex.

We have received Catalogue of R. F. Albrecht & Co's Fifth Auction Sale, to be held at 25 Ann St., N. Y., Thursday, Oct. 6, 1892. It comprises 450 lots of desirable U. S. and Foreign stamps.

The PHILATELIC ERA for September contains a new feature in the shape of THE PHILATELIC LITERARY REVIEW, a supplement similar to the REVIEW OF REVIEWS. The ERA is one of the best papers published and is continually improving.

We wish to announce that we cannot supply back numbers of this paper as only a few copies are retained.

At R. F. Albrecht & Co's Fifth Auction Sale, held in New York on Oct. 6, 450 lots sold for a total of $1,050.32. The following are some of the lots and prices realized:

U. S. 1847, 10c black, on white paper, unused.....	$13.50

Justice, 90c, used.....	6.50
Navy, set complete.....	8.36
State, 1c to 90c.....	7.70

The membership of the A. P. A. shows a healthy increase; thirty-three applications for membership are reported for the month of September. The character of the people joining speaks well for the permanency and future prosperity of this organization.

Among the names, we notice that of Henry Tuck, Esq., a well known gentleman, the First Vice-President of the New York Life Insurance Company.—P. J. OF A.

Collectors should take particular notice of the fine line of Packets advertised on another page. We are overstocked with these packets and are offering some decided bargains, which you should not fail to take advantage of.

From various sources we learn that the Postmaster General has signed a contract authorizing the American Bank Note Company to prepare the Columbian series of postage stamps. The stamps will be about the height of the present issue but twice the width. The following interesting information appears in the WEEKLY STAMP NEWS:

I am pleased to announce that the Postoffice Department has decided to issue Columbian stamped envelopes for use in connection with the Columbian stamps. Manager N. S. Chapman of the Government Stamped Envelope Works in Hartford, has just returned from Washington where he has had a conference with the Postmaster-General in regard to the die to be used for the new envelopes. The details of the designs have not definitely been decided, but engravers are at work upon them, and the Postmaster-General will probably issue his orders the coming week. I understand that a complete set, all the present sizes and colors will be issued, and the current envelopes will be retired during 1893 and then re-issued in January 1894. * * * *

OHIO STAMP NEWS.

VOL. I.

GARRETTSVILLE, O., JANUARY, 1893.

NO. 5.

The latest and most unexpected sensation in philatelic circles is the failure of the C. H. Mekeel Stamp & Pub. Co.

It seems that the assignment was made necessary by the falling due of notes which could not be met, owing to unexpected slow business. The liabilities are $45,000. Assets, $150,000, consisting of office furniture, printing material, stock of stamps, albums, etc. We are informed that there will be no interruption in the business.

We notice a slight error in lot No. 15 of our Auction Sale. It should read 90c orange.

R. F. Albrecht & Co's Eleventh Auction Sale, consisting of 818 lots of desirable U. S. and Foreign stamps, will be held Feb. 15th and 16th.

NOTICE!

We will pay cash or give good exchange for all kinds of U. S. Postage and Revenue Stamps. Send for Exchange List.

The following item recently appeared in one of our local papers:

"The venerable Ira Hyde, of Farmington, has the finest collection of curiosities and relics of any private man in Ohio, having over one hundred thousand specimens—coins of 34 countries, three heathen idols, sixty thousand different postal stamps, covering a period of three hundred years. In his collection is the pistol owned and used by Lewis Wetzel, the famous Indian hunter. We took an entire day to look over his specimens."

This certainly is a wonderful collection "Sixty thousand different postage stamps covering a period of 300 years." This beats any collection we ever heard of, in fact we did not know before that stamps were used that long ago. We are of the opinion, however, that the writer of the above was a little excited; he certainly is not a philatelist.

U. S. COLUMBIAN ISSUE WANTED FOR CASH.

Parties having any of the above for sale will please send card giving denominations, quantity and price.

OHIO STAMP NEWS.

VOL. I.

GARRETTSVILLE, O., FEBRUARY, 1893.

NO. 6.

What has become of The Philatelic Fraud Reporter? We have not seen a copy for several months.

The Nebraska Stamp has been discontinued. The subscription list, advertising contracts etc. will be filled by the Detroit Philatelist.

We also learn that the Missouri Philatelist has been sold to R. P. Spooner, of The Stamp.

We have received E. T. Parker's Priced List No. 59, consisting of 96 pages and cover. Over 75 pages are devoted to pricing rare stamps he has in stock. It also contains much valuable information such as conversion table of U. S. money and equivalents in foreign monies, rates of foreign and domestic postage &c. Sent post paid for 10 cents by E. T. Parker, Bethlehem, Pa.

We shall be glad to exchange either one or two copies with any paper devoted to collecting.

The following appears in the Canadian Philatelist:

"There will soon be a change in the Columbian 1 cent stamp as it too closely resembles the special delivery stamp, and can be effectually used as a medicine label"

Wonder where Bro. Stæbler got his information?
