EDITORIAL.

"Hello!, Am't I a little dandy? Although I am quite small, I will answer the purpose of my editor. Collectors wishing to receive me every quarter, should send 5c (nickle).

I solicit short articles of interest to philatelists. I will also accept a few advertisements at 15 cents per inch, CASH IN ADVANCE.

Hoping to hear from you all, I am, Yours,

The Tiny Philatelist.

The Pennsylvania Stamp Collectors' League was organized at Titusville, Pa., on October 18, 1889. The following officers were elected: PRES; W. B. Brockway, Jamestown, N. Y. V. PRES;

Geo. E. Pryor, Scranton, Pa.
SEC'Y: H. B. Wilber, Cambridgeboro, Pa. TREAS; E. A. Sidley, Ashtabula, Ohio.

My collection of U. S. adhesives numbers this day, Mar. 15th, 420 varieties.

† † †

AMONG the stamps wanted by me, are the following:

1869	24c.
"	90c
Dep't. of Navy	7c.
" " Treas	24c.
" " Interior	30 and 10c.

I want all of the above.

I believe our A. P. A. President, Mr. J. K. Tiffany has the largest private stamp collection in the world. His collection numbers nearly 20,000 varieties, according to Townsend's Directory of '88.

† † †

I have a fine job office and am prepared to do all kinds fine printing at a very low figure. When wanting any printing let me hear from you.

I notice that Mr. Bricker of Slate Lick, Pa., does not "go" much on tag collecting. He says in his Tiny Collector, Volume 2, No. 1:

"My dislike for the tags is due, perhaps, in some measure, that I consider tobacco using in all its forms, and chewing, in particular, a filthy and useless habit."

Come now Bro. Blackburn Philology is one of your hobbies, as well as mine, brace up and say something. My little sheet is at your service.
