Maggie Griffin's Corner.

CONDUCTED BY MAGGIE GRIFFIN,
THE FAMOUS IRISH JOLLIER OF MERIDEN, CONN.

ALICE - I wish I was a postage stamp.

MABLE - Why?

ALICE - Because, then I could be with the mails.

LESLIE - What did your father say, when you told him we were engaged?

VERA - Oh you must not ask me to repeat such language.

A boy does not always get much comfort out of his first cigar but he gets a heap of experience.

"What was the cause of the big explosion?"

"Riley was carrying a case of dynamite when the whistle blew!"

When a man goes into a barber shop, pins the newspaper around his neck, and starts to read the towel, He is called absent-minded.

MAGGIE GRIFFIN.

An Irishman sued another for killing his dog:

JUDGE-- Did you kill the dog, Murphy?

MURPHY-- I did yer honor, but I'll make him prove it.

The Judge turned to the plaintiff, "What was your dog worth Dennis.

"Never a half penny was he worth yer honor but be jabbers I'm going to make him pay the full value of the baste."
