STAMP NOTES.

Stamps are good for so many decorative and instructive things that the store keepers now have "Stamp Plates" "For SALE."

Pictures are made out of stamps and framed. Canes are decorated with stamps as are also stands, etc.

Italy has the brightest colored set of stamps; also the smoothest faced stamps, the paper upon which they are printed being the common glossy colored paper.

A new fad is collecting cigar bands. Dealers in the cigar line now selling packets of same at from 10c to 25c per packet

Twenty cents for one hundred 6½ white envelopes postpaid, with your return card in the corner! Pretty good offer, don't you think? Well, how's this; one thousand printed and prepaid for $1.50. Try one hundred, anyway. Harold Maddocks, No. Ellsworth, Maine

Stamp Dealers!

It is a well known fact that the only and most profitable way of doing business is by using illustrations. If you have a nice designed Envelope, Note Head, Approval Sheet, Return Envelope, and Packet Envelope, you would have the Collector interested at once, and in his estimation you would be considered above the ordinary dealer. Can I have your order for a Design? My motto is: To Please in Work and Price.

Many small papers have suddenly popped up into the mail order field, and have just as suddenly disappeared.

How is that? Answer: They don't pay the publisher. My little paper "The Snow Flake Philatelist" pays, or why did it not go to its grave long ago? Its now finishing its 3rd successful year.

I want to give the advertisers a nice little 8 page illustrated copy for my Xmas. number.

Philatelic papers rec'd during October; "The Nederlanische Philatelist," Netherland, Holland, and "The Philatelic Inter-Ocean", Waterloo, Ia. Both purely philatelic.

Since the post card fad has broken out many have started in stamp collecting.

Stamp collecting is like small pox, you get the fever very easily, but to get rid of it—well, its no cinch.

If all card and stamp collectors co-operated, what a change there'd be! Just think how many, both male and female, old and young, who are collecting post cards all over the U. S. and Europe.

There'd be a chance for some dealers.
