... SHORT NOTES ...

I will thankfully acknowledge receipt of any notes of interest that will benefit subscribers. I will also give best exchange in ad space, postage stamps or post cards, for all short stories sent me, that I can use. -Ed.

Recently I found, in a bunch of the present issue of 2c carmine envelopes, one, the stamp of which was in the upper left hand corner, on the inside of the envelope. Can any one tell me if this is a common occurrence or not? -Ed.

Lately I received by mail, a large parcel of mail order magazines, circulars, etc. Among them I found, to my surprise, a paper called "THE HUSTLER". After carefully and faithfully examining the same, I find that it contains no reading matter and worse than ever they publish ad rates and ask for your ad when they do not even state where their paper is published or by whom. How could a man send them an ad without knowing to who he should send it? Who knows where this paper is published? -Ed.
