

THE COLLECTORS' WORLD.

Vol. I. NORTH LEOMINSTER, MASS., MAY, 1892. No. 1

In Grand Avenue Cave.

MOUNT CHIMBORAZO.

Grand Avenue cave, in Edmonson county, Ky., is a new wonder. It was known many years ago, it is true, and people living near the entrance have long used the first chamber as a place of cold storage, for the mercury there never falls below 49 degs. or rises above 50 degs.; but only recently has the interior been explored. It is now open for thirteen miles, and new chambers are rapidly being opened wherever the sound shows the wall to be thin. Among the wonders are the Pillars of Hercules, the Hall of Statues and Mount Chimborazo, the last a peak of pure white stone with the semblance of a small crater. In the outer chamber was found the mummy of a young woman, supposed to have been one of a party massacred there by Indians in the early days.

Conspiring to Defraud.

Judge (to burglar)—Look here, my man, you don't mend your ways you are sure to come to grief. What made you take to such a miserable line of business?
Prisoner—The business is good enough, only between your worship and the police has been ruined.—La Semana Comica.

A Remarkable Feat.

Totling—Young McWatty is as strong as any of these Herculeses who travel in the shows.

Dimling—Is that so?

Totling—Yes. He can break a railroad sandwich in two as easily as he can twist a horseshoe out of shape.—Detroit Free Press.

Unpromising Futures.

First Tramp—There ain't goin to be good livin for our profession in the future, I'm afear'.

Second Tramp—Blow me! 'ow's that?

First Tramp—It's this 'ere civilization. These cookin schools is teachin gals 'cw to use up the cold wittles.—Drake's Magazine.

Farreaching.

"I think Henrietta's voice should be cultivated abroad," said mamma.

"All right," said papa. "It's certainly loud enough to get to Europe without Henrietta's having to leave home."—Harper's Bazar.

WALTER E. BILLINGS,

NORTH LEOMINSTER, MASS.

SPECIAL PREMIUM OFFER.

For a limited time we will give to every one sending 20 cents for a year's subscription to this paper all the following premiums: 200 rare stamps, a nice stamp album, sheet of gummed hinges, and name in our mammoth Collectors' Directory.

We are willing to exchange advertising space in this paper for stamps with any dealer. Send your price list for selection and state how much space you want.

We have a lot of gummed hinge paper we are desirous of closing out at once and will send a large sheet for 5 cents or six sheets for 10 cents.

Don't send stamps if you can avoid it in payment for goods. They are often stuck to the letter and cause us much annoyance. For small amounts small silver coin can be safely sent if well wrapped in tissue or soft newspaper before placing in the letter. On large amounts remit by postal note or registered letter. Of course we are willing to receive stamps when it is an especial accommodation to our friends, but if you have to send them put them in loose and have them in strips if possible.

Walter E. Billings,

NORTH LEOMINSTER, MASS.

We desire 500 more agents for our approval sheets at once. Our stamps are guaranteed cheaper than any other dealer in the world and we allow agents fifty per cent. commission. Give us a trial.

PHILATELIC PAPERS, 20 all different, 10c; 10 all different, 12 pages or over, 10c; 5 all different, 2 pages or over, 10c. A big two pound bundle of books, novels, magazines, etc. for 10c; 3 bundles, 25c. 50 amateur papers, 10c. 100 circulars, papers, etc., 10c.

Last month our subscribers received no less than five different papers and magazines that we were mailing for publishers at that time, besides, a large lot of circulars. Do you not think it is worth 10 cents to receive a bundle like that every month in the year? If you do, send along a dime and we will credit you with a year's subscription, and will on a limited time, insert subscribers' names three times in our Directory free, if requested. We still make a present of a nice stamp album and a packet of stamps to each new yearly subscriber.

EXCHANGE COLUMN.

Notes of 30 words or less inserted in column once for 5 cents; each additional insertion, 2 cents if paid in advance. One notice free to each new subscriber.

TWENTY different stamps, for every stamp paper.—W. E. Billings, No. Leominster, Mass.

A Good stamp album or 6 months' subscription to this paper, for 500 mixed stamps of any kind.—Collectors' World, North Leominster, Mass.

I WILL allow 3 cents a hundred for mixed stamps and 2 cents for U. S. stamps, in payment for anything from my lists or advertisements.—Walter E. Billings, No. Leominster, Mass.

MIXED PACKETS.

These packets contain many continentals, but we often receive consignments of good stamps cheap, which we put in these rather than take the trouble of sorting. Agents will make money buying these and retailing them as we guarantee some scarce and rare stamps in every lot.

Around the World on a Bicycle.A Series of Interesting Articles.

THE AMATEUR AMERICAN is publishing a series of interesting articles on the hazardous journey of Mr. Frank Lenz, the daring young wheelman, now journeying around the world on his wheel. As these articles are from the pen of Mr. W. A. Duncan, a personal friend of Mr. Lenz, they cannot fail to prove both entertaining and instructive. Therein will be narrated many of the amusing adventures that befall the lonely wheelman together with a complete description of his outfit. Do not miss any of these articles. You can get them by enclosing 10 cents for a trial subscription to
