Doughty, Page & Co's

6th Auction Sale of Philatelic Literature.

Doughty, Page & Co., Lock Box O, Muscatine, Iowa.

TERMS.

Bids will be counted up to 9:00 A. M. Nov. 6th, 1897:

Bids under 2c not considered. On lots of $1.00 or over we pay postage. Papers and bills sent to all successful bidders at once. All papers in finest condition. Our 7th sale will be held in about 10 days from this one. Philatelic Literature Collectors Directory only 10 cents now.

I desire to introduce my hinges everywhere, and they already have attained quite a sale. They are made for collectors; are light, thin, tough, transparent; the gum is perfectly tasteless, the size is not too small; when mounted they will stick, and when removed they peel off easily. They can be kept flat in your album, as they are made in sheets 8x11 inches, 400 to the sheet. They are not like the kinds for which you must provide a box to keep them, for you can tear them off as desired. I tack up a sample here and hope you'll send me your order when your others are all gone.
